TRIED REMEDY FOR THE GRIP.

PE-RU-NA
FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

Analyzed by Chemists.
Apropos of President Taft and his recent decision about whisky, Richard Le Gallienne said, at a dinner at the St. Regis:

"While I was living in Liverpool there arose a hot whisky discussion. Was pot still whisky the only wholesome one, or was patent still whisky the one non-poisonous drink? Chemical analyses were applied to every whisky going.

"A Liverpoolian entered a public house near the Albert docks one night and said:

"Is yer whisky pure?"

"Well, I should think so," the publican answered. "It's been paralyzed by three anarchists."

Not Appropriate.

Senator Beveridge was replying at a dinner in Washington to a defender of the sugar trust.

"You remind me of a man at his brother's funeral. This man bent over the grave and closely watched the lowering of the coffin down into the clean-cut rectangular chamber prepared for it. He heaved a sigh as the coffin came to a rest, and said to the undertaker, heartily:

"It's the neatest fit I ever saw in my life. Come and have a drink on the head of it."—Sunday Magazine of the Cleveland Leader.

An Appropriate Distraction.

"So you think the automobile has made life much pleasanter?"

"It has for me," answered the comfortable citizen. "I drive a fast horse and my son rides a bicycle. The automobile has taken the minds of the police off both of us."

CHANGE THE VIBRATION It Makes for Health.

A man tried leaving off meat, potatoes, coffee, and etc., and adopted a breakfast of fruit, Grape-Nuts with cream, some crisp toast and a cup of Postum.

His health began to improve at once for the reason that a meat eater will reach a place once in a while where his system seems to become clogged and the machinery doesn't work smoothly.

A change of this kind puts aside food of low nutritive value and takes up food and drink of the highest value, already partly digested and capable of being quickly changed into good, rich blood and strong tissue.

A most valuable feature of Grape-Nuts is the natural phosphate of potash grown in the grains from which it is made. This is the element which transforms albumen in the body into the soft gray substance which fills brain and nerve centers.

A few days' use of Grape-Nuts will give one a degree of nervous strength well worth the trial.

Look in pkgs for the little book, "The Road to Wellville." "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

VALUE OF MEAT CHOPPER

Through Its Use the Housekeeper is Enabled to Utilize Leftovers in Appetizing Manner.

The meat chopper will soon save more than its cost by enabling one to use cheaper cuts of meat and to utilize leftover meats. Raw beef run through it is a pleasant change from plain steak. It should be well seasoned with salt and pepper before chopping, and should have a little fat mixed in with the lean. Drop the little rolls just as they come from the perforated plate of chopper on a very hot pan, with a little butter. Stir lightly a moment or two and serve quickly on a hot plate. To use remnants of roasts, steak or any nice cooked meat, put them through the chopper and mix with equal measure of bread crumbs; season with salt and pepper. Some persons may like herbs. Moisten with any gravy or stock you may have or with cream, making a little more moist than you would dressing for poultry. Put it in a skillet or thick pan, cover closely with a plate and bake in the oven until well heated. Twenty minutes or half hour is about right. After a few trials, possibly the first time, any one may succeed in making this very nicely. Another favorite way of using meat, especially cooked ham, is to cut it in small pieces, heat lightly and break over it one egg for each person to be served. When the egg begins to set, cut across them and stir carefully, so as to preserve the distinct yellow and white of the eggs. Serve at once.

When frying mush dip the slices first in the white of an egg. This makes it crisp.

Before pouring hot fruit into a glass dish or jar put it on a wet cloth. This will keep the glass from cracking.

To prevent milk from curdling add a good pinch of carbonate of soda to each quart of before putting it on to boil.

Take a round piece of cloth, run a rubber in it, and keep over the top of meat chopper; no dust and a rays ready for use.

Paint marks on glass, such as the splashes left by careless workmen on window panes, can be scraped off with a penny dipped in cold water.

The white mayonnaise prepared by foreign chefs calls for cream, lemon juice and the white of an egg instead of the oil, vinegar and egg yolks used in the ordinary mayonnaise.

When baking apple pie put a teaspoonful or two of strong cold tea in the filling; also try the same in your apple sauce or baked apples and notice the improved flavor of the apples.

Kitchen Table.

The ordinary kitchen table is too low for tall people to work on. Take four common doorstops which screw into the wainscoting to prevent doors striking the wall, and screw one on to the bottom of each table leg. This raises the table about three inches and makes it much more convenient for the tall person. The doorstops look like finished portions of the legs, are neat and could not be detected as being other than parts of the legs themselves. They can be bought for a few cents and screwed on in five minutes.

Banana Fritters.

When something especially dainty is desired the banana fritter has no equal. To prepare it make a batter of a cupful of milk, two eggs beaten light, half a teaspoonful of baking powder, a pinch of salt and enough flour to make a stiff paste. Peel the bananas, slice lengthwise and fry in deep fat. Dust with powdered sugar or serve with a sweet sauce.

When Tempus Didn't Fugit.
Little Helen during the three years of her life, had never been separated from her elder sister night or day for more than a few minutes at a time; but at last the time came when the sister went away for a whole day. The child tried every game and occupation that she knew of, and a new one or two suggested by her mother, but they all palled.

Finally she gave up and stood and looked sadly out of the window. Then she sighed deeply and said:

"It's still the same old day, isn't it, mother?"—Woman's Home Companion.

The English Way.

"Do you think baseball will ever get a foothold in England?"

"They play it some."

"As strenuously as we do?"

"Well, no. They serve tea between innings, I understand."

Thinking of Garden Time.
Bacon—I think much of the man who can make two blades of grass grow where one grew before.
Egbert—I've not got my eye on him. I admire more the man who can make only one weed grow where a dozen grew before.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

ENDS AN OLD TOWN

"Athens of Missouri" Disincorporated by Court Order.

Edinburg Dies a Natural Death When Railroads Pass It By—Noted for Beauty and an Excellent College.

Trenton, Mo. — Edinburg, known over the state before the war as the "Athens of Missouri," and for many years the rival of Trenton as a trading point and political center, where many men, afterward prominent in state affairs received their first collegiate training, was disincorporated recently by an order of the county court.

The order marks the last step in the little town's retrogression since the Chicago, Rock Island & Quincy and Omaha & Kansas City railways passed the village by.

The story of the settlement, growth and decline of the village of Edinburg is full of interest. The town came into existence in 1838 when Isaac J. Harvey built a store there. Not so favorably situated as Trenton, the growth of the town did not compare with that of the county seat until after 1850. At the half-way mark of the century Grand River college was established in Edinburg.

Then came an era of prosperity. The fame of the school grew, and instructors of the best were numbered in the faculty. The pretty little town was in itself an attraction to students, and the name of Edinburg became widely known. Business boomed, the town took on a thriving air and the county seat feared for its own growth.

Then came the war and progress stopped. The luster of the classic school became dim. After the war there was a revival of learning in Edinburg, and the prospect was fair again, until the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad came through in 1871 and marked Trenton as the future city of the section.

Business projects were killed in Edinburg, and the village lost ground, but the fame of the school still lived. Another railroad came through from Quincy and Edinburg's hopes quickened that it would reach that place. When this failed, however, the doom of the village was sealed.

Steadily since then the town has lost in population and business. A few years ago the college itself was removed to Gallatin in order to secure railroad advantages. In December,

Grand River College.

1909, the petition for disincorporation was presented to the court. J. G. McWald was appointed trustee for the incorporation, to settle up its affairs, and classic Edinburg is no more.

NEW CHICAGO SKYSCRAPER

Harris Trust and Savings Bank to Erect 20-Story Building in Monroe Street.

Chicago.—"La Salle street" has for a long time meant the financial district of Chicago, as "Wall street" has meant that of New York. But the term has lost its significance within the last few years, for the big banking concerns of the western metropolis have been moving to Monroe street, one after another, until for several blocks that thoroughfare is occupied almost exclusively by financial institutions.

Several of them have erected skyscrapers, and others have put up handsome buildings for their sole use. The latest of these great bank buildings to be planned is for the Harris Trust and Savings bank, on the south side of Monroe street between Clark and La Salle. It will be 20 stories high, with foundations going down 110 feet to bed rock.

Quick Lunch in England.

The quick lunch has been tried in London, and has failed as an advertisement. But many of us lunch quickly, and this writer went into the oyster shop for his half dozen, and felt his elbow pinched. He turned and saw a friend who knew. "Three natives," he said, "and a glass of chablis." "Is that all you have for lunch?" was the immediate question. "That's only the beginning," he explained, and as we stood elbow to elbow at the oyster bar he expounded to me his method of the itinerary lunch.

It takes him two hours at midday. He begins with three oysters at the bar. Then he walks for half an hour with an objective of the place where kidneys on toast are at their best. Having disposed of these, he walks for another half an hour, and finds the place where stewed cheese can be relied on. By that time it is three o'clock and he walks home and begins work again, having had his exercise and his lunch and his digestive interval. Also he has seen a bit of London, which is useful to a delineator of life. The itinerary lunch may be recommended to a man of inquiring mind and sedentary habit.—London Chronicle.

Do farmers eat the proper sort of food?

The farmer of today buys a much larger proportion of the food that goes on the table than he did ten years ago. It's a good thing that this is so because he has a great variety to select from.

He should, however, use great care in selecting for the best results in health and strength.

The widespread tendency in the city to increase the amount of Quaker Oats eaten is due very largely to the recent demonstrations by scientific men that the Quaker Oats fed man is the man with greatest physical endurance and greatest mental vigor.

Farmers should give this subject careful thought and should increase the quantity of Quaker Oats eaten by themselves, their children and the farm hands.

HOW A DOCTOR CURED SCALP DISEASE

"When I was ten or twelve years old I had a scalp disease, something like scald head, though it wasn't that. I suffered for several months, and most of my hair came out. Finally they had a doctor to see me and he recommended the Cuticura Remedies. They cured me in a few weeks. I have used the Cuticura remedies, also, for a breaking out on my hands and was benefited a great deal. I haven't had any more trouble with the scalp disease. Miss Jessie F. Buchanan, R. F. Kept with Barnum's Circus

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Tennessee's Shame.

The pardon of Col. Cooper by Governor Patterson of Tennessee, for the murder of Ex-Senator Carmack, reveals the partizan in the Tennessee governor. A polished and educated gentleman was shot down in the streets of Nashville by Col. Cooper and his son. A jury found them guilty and sentenced them both to 20 years in the penitentiary. The supreme court of the state affirmed the verdict of the lower court as to the elder Cooper, and the governor stepped in and nullified the action. The governor, if anything, is worse than the murderer; for he deliberately pardoned Cooper for no other reason than that the murdered man was an enemy of his.

Tennessee may not be so much blamed for the governor's present tenure; for she can say that she didn't understand to what depths he would descend; but that excuse will never again answer, and if Governor Patterson receives the state's support for anything in the future it will only add to Tennessee's shame.

The Ballinger-Pinchot enquiry drags. Too much other sensational matters.

"Statehood is on deck." Yes, it's been there for thirty-five years, but has never yet been "at bat."

The "Back from Elba Club" continues to give the man with the big stick a lot of free advertising. Insurgents and regulars practically agree on one thing: they are not yet through with Teddy.

Hon. Antonio Joseph, from '84 to '94 democratic delegate to Congress from New Mexico, died at his home in Taos county this week. He was a native New Mexican, well educated and enjoyed an honorable career.

It is pretty generally accepted that the democrats will control the next house of representatives. However, with the death of a few more republican members, there will be no necessity to await the election of a new congress—the democrats will have this one. The scene shifts rapidly, when one is taken from one side and added to the other.

And now it's New York. A district, which has been represented in congress for twenty years by a republican, followed the suit of Massachusetts, to fill a vacancy caused by death, and elected a democrat. The district elected the republican candidate in 1908 by 10,167 majority. Tuesday it elected the democratic nominee by 5,900 majority.

President Taft made a great spiel to directors of the census, threatening them with removal if they practiced partisanship in the selection of enumerators. The big, fat, jolly fellow must have winked the other eye when giving out that dope; for if the results in all parts of the country are what they have been in New Mexico, there has been more partisanship mixed up in the selection of enumerators than ever before. We are not complaining at the selection of republican enumerators, but we do object to such a bluff as the president made in the matter, and then throwing down his hand when called.

Court Arrangements.

A meeting was held last night in Humphrey hall to make arrangements for the coming term of court. John H. Canning called the meeting to order, and was chosen chairman, W. J. Doering secretary. The correspondence between the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and Judge Cooley was read. Several places were mentioned in the correspondence with reference to a court room, and Judge Cooley announced that the school house would be satisfactory. School will have closed before court convenes, and every room in the building will therefore be available for court purposes. A jail will have to be secured elsewhere.

To carry out these plans, three committees were appointed by the chair, as follows:

Finance—Albert Ziegler, A. J. Rolland and W. C. Miller.

Arrangements—Joe N. White, W. J. Doering and Harry Humphrey.

Information—Jno. E. Bell, Jno. A. Haley and Dr. E. B. Walker.

The meeting was then merged into a good roads meeting, and the progress of the work on the Carrizozo-Roswell road discussed. Vernon L. Sullivan, territorial engineer, was present, as well as Robt. H. Taylor, chairman of the board of county commissioners. Mr. Sullivan outlined the work his department had done in this county, and stated that, while the funds for the completion of the Nogal hill were short, arrangements had partially been made to secure a loan to complete this particular work. Chairman Taylor said the commissioners had practically agreed to come to the assistance of the good roads commission, and that he would call a meeting of the board at once, and that he was satisfied the board would authorize the loan of the necessary funds to complete the hill while the territorial force was still there.

Other portions of the work was discussed, with reference to getting more work done by private subscriptions, placed in the hands of the good roads commission. The matter was finally left over to be more fully discussed at the county good roads association which will meet at Capitan, Saturday, April 30. A committee of three, consisting of L. B. Chase, S. W. Perry and W. J. Doering, was appointed to select delegates to attend the meeting at Capitan.

The meeting then adjourned.

Railroad Bill Denounced.

Senator Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, took a fall out of the administration's railroad bill one day this week in the senate. The senator is one of the strong republicans of the senate, but of late has acted with the insurgents. The reactionaries were dumbfounded that a republican senator should attack a measure that bore the seal of approval of President Taft and the leaders of the republican party, the support of which was announced as a test of party regularity. The stalwarts and progressives are far apart, and this bitter arraignment by a man from the inside only intensified the breach that is daily widening.

The senator said in part:

"I am now fast getting to be an old man. I have seen the great corporations and the trusts and combinations grow in this country at a rapid and well-nigh irresistible pace, and they will grow faster and faster until we shall be absolutely helpless unless we adhere faithfully to the provisions of the anti-trust law. The pending railroad regulation bill will give the railroad trust law and will confer on them unlimited power to effect mergers. I for one can never consent to such legislation."

Senator Nelson related how the western section of the country had suffered under railroad oppression and the long fight that had been made, until the legislation in 1906 was forced by public sentiment. He talked of the anti-trust law as the shield which had been created to protect the public against further oppression by trusts and combinations of all sorts, and then proceeded to show how the pending bill proposes to destroy that protection and to give the railroads unrestricted power to resume their oppressive methods.

"If we are not wise, if we are no wiser than the French were in the days of Louis XV and Louis XVI, and allow these trusts and monopolies to grow and go on untrammelled the day will come—will not be in our day, but the day will come—when the American people will resort to a revolution as the people of France had to do, but it will be a peaceful revolution—an American revolution—not as violent and repulsive as the French, but as thorough and effective in its results."

"Mr. President, I am very much obliged to the senators for listening to me without interrupting me. My opinion of this bill as it came here from the committee the first instance is that in essence its chief aim was to protect the railroads against the anti-trust law. I can come to no other conclusion, and being a plain, blunt man, I can not help expressing this opinion in this chamber and before this day."

Buster Brown Was Here.

Buster Brown and Tige were here Saturday, and entertained a large crowd, afternoon and evening. It was a great day for the children, and for many who had been children. Buster was there with the goods, as everybody knew he would be, putting on some vaudeville stunts and impersonations. His impersonations of the English and the Scotch pipes were most fetching and captivated the audience. He also pleased the crowd with the English soldier, Cupid and a cowboy. Buster's show was here under the direction of Ziegler Bros., the only firm in Carrizozo handling the famous shoes that bear his name. Alamogordo was his next stopping place.

Billie Martin Indicted.

Las Cruces, N. M., April 15.—William E. Martin, formerly United States district court clerk of the third district with offices at Socorro, has been indicted here by the federal grand jury on the charge of embezzlement. Martin was placed under arrest by deputy United States Marshal, Harry Bloom and released from jail last night after his friends had put up a bond for $3,000.00 for his appearance at the next term of court.

Martin was indicted on two counts, both charging embezzlement. Martin was clerk of the United States Court and of the third judicial district of the territory and handled large sums of money. He was removed from office last September and United States and territorial auditors have been making a thorough examination of his books since that time. Just what amount he was said to be short has never been made public, but it is alleged to run into the thousands.

More School Room Needed.

A number of the largest property owners in the Carrizozo school district have been discussing with the school board the advisability—yea, the necessity—of more school room. At present we have four rooms in the main school building, all full, and the board has been compelled to rent an additional room to accommodate the children. The rent, fuel and janitor salary for this additional room would go a long way toward paying the interest on an additional amount of bonds for the erection of an addition to our present building.

The continued growth of our population necessitates more room, and it is generally conceded that better results are obtainable from a school all under one roof. There may be an occasional patron who objects to this plan but the results that have been obtained from a division have been far from satisfactory to many and the cost has been out of proportion to the benefits.

To build, equip and maintain the extra rooms necessary will entail an extra special levy; for not only will a greater sum be required for teachers' salaries, but bonds will have to be voted before we can have the building. It is believed that $6,000.00 more in bonds will erect an addition to our present building that will give us all the room we shall need for some time to come. The interest on this amount of bonds at 5 per cent, the prevailing rate, will be $300.00 annually. We are now paying $600.00 interest on the original building. Assuming that the district will authorize this additional amount of bonds, our interest will be $900.00 per annum.

Therefore, it will be necessary to make a special levy sufficient to meet the interest on the bonds and also to increase the fund for the payment of teachers' salaries. The special levy is now 5 mills, which produces about $1,500.00 per annum. If the levy is increased to 10 mills we should have $3,000.00 per annum from this source. From other sources we receive about $2,000.00 per annum. These two funds will be about the required amount to meet interest and conduct a nine months' term. In other words, we will spend about $5,000.00 per annum for all purposes.

Of course, our valuation is increasing, and next year we should probably be able to reduce the special levy. But for this year, if these plans are carried out, it is clear that we shall be compelled to make the special levy 10 mills, or thereabouts. It would be the height of folly to vote bonds for more school building and then fail to make a sufficient levy to maintain a lengthy term of school. We have begun a high school—the first in the county—it has a splendid reputation and it will grow. It will cost money to improve our school facilities, but the fact that we have the means of building the best school between Alamogordo and Tucumcari should be a guarantee of the success of the proposed plan. Let us all remember that a good school is a town's best asset.

The Testimony in the County Seat Question all in.

Wm. F. A. Gierke, special examiner in the county seat contest, finished taking testimony last Thursday, and has forwarded his report to the District Court. The report consists of 130 pages of type-written matter, several additional pleadings and twenty exhibits filed by the attorneys in the case. The case will be argued before Judge Cooley at the regular term of court, which convenes here Monday, May 2. Attorney T. B. Catron, of Santa Fe, will present Lincoln's side in the matter, while Attorney John Y. Hewitt, of White Oaks, will attend to the interests of Carrizozo. Agreements have been made by the attorneys, in case of an appeal from the decision of the district court, to get the matter before the territorial supreme court at once, so that it may be heard by that tribunal as early as July. It is believed that the decision of the supreme court at that time will settle the question, even if it is not settled at the hearing here next month.

Good Roads Meeting.

We are authorized by Dr. J. W. Laws, president of the Lincoln County Good Roads Association, to announce that a meeting of the association has been called for Capitan, Saturday, April 30, at 1:00 o'clock p. m. Not only are the members of the association requested to be present, but every citizen in every precinct in the county is urgently requested to attend. It is the purpose of the association to discuss ways and means to assist the county commissioners in the building of good roads and to use every means at hand to complete the Roswell-Carrizozo road, and to arouse an interest in good road building in all parts of the county. Good roads mean a great deal to this county and it is hoped that every portion of the county will be represented at this meeting.

Little Fruit Left.

The orchardists of Lincoln county, if reports from different parts of the county can be relied on, have again suffered almost a total loss of the fruit crop from the ravages of Jack Frost. Our information from Lincoln and the surrounding fruit belt is that practically all the fruit was lost, unless possibly a few apples and pears. The same reports come from the upper Rio Grande and Bonito, except in the latter localities the cold was more severe, and little hopes are entertained for any fruit whatever. This is the second blow in succession of this nature to strike the fruit growers of this county. The loss will run into the thousands.

CAPITAN.

Capt. Broadway came over from Fort Stanton yesterday. He was on his way to Mobile, Ala.

S. T. Gray came over from Capitán Monday, and went to El Paso on that evening's train.

Jacob Ziegler, of the firm of Ziegler Bros., went up to Pastura Sunday night, returning the day following.

Robert P. Ervien, territorial and commissioner, was here last night in company with engineer Sullivan. These gentlemen left this morning for Santa Fe, traveling by auto.

A dance will be given at Humphrey's hall this evening, the proceeds of which will go to the baseball club. The boys expect a good crowd. Encourage them—your presence—with the cash.

Arrangements are well under way for the erection of a grandstand on the new ball grounds. It is believed it will be up before the next series of games are played.

I. Van Ness, pharmacist at Fort Stanton since 1906, passed through from the Fort yesterday on his way to Chicago. Mr. Van Ness has been transferred to the S. Marine hospital, Chicago.

Tom Bragg was over from the Fort Monday. Tom has a mining gold claim on the Bozeman, from which some very favorable assays have been taken. He is interested in some parties in proposition, and development.

Confidently expected, will be something worth while.

Wm. F. A. Gierke left Monday on a tour of inspection in his capacity as Deputy Grand Master of Masons. Among the lodges he will visit will be the Aztec lodge No. 3, of Las Cruces. He expects to return on Saturday.

The next regular communication of Carrizozo Lodge No. 41, A. F. & A. M. will be held next Saturday, April 23rd. Work in the first degree. Meet at 7:30 p. m. All visiting brothers cordially invited to be present.

Our old friend Keith did not "quit" the marshal's office at Imperial, Cal., but the invitation to do so was very strong. He held on by the skin of his teeth, but that is sufficient for "Uncle John."

Deputy P. C. Baird was down from Corona Monday, having in charge a prisoner who was on his way to the county bastille. The difference between the cost of a drunk and the sum of the damages resulting therefrom caused the trouble.

The stork visited the home of W. M. Ferguson, on the Mesa last week, and left a ten-pound girl. All concerned are doing well, even the paternal ancestor. This is the sixth visit of the stork to this family, the last one striking a balance—three boys and three girls.

Sheriff Chas. A. Stevens returned Wednesday from Tucumcari, where he had gone earlier in the week. The list of grand and petit jurors for the Lincoln county term of court was drawn Monday, and the sheriff is now busily engaged in extending an invitation to those who were drawn to be present in Carrizozo May 2nd.

A. T. Roberts, who has recently been appointed sheep inspector for this county, returned Wednesday night from a week's inspection trip to the eastern part of the county. He reports the range in fine condition and the sheep in good shape. The lambing season is at hand, and sheep men feel confident of saving a high percent this year.

Lest you forget. Supt. Clark, accompanied by Hon. H. R. Patengill, will be here Sunday, May 1, and the latter will lecture at the Baptist church. A musical program is being arranged for the occasion, and a pleasant entertainment is looked for. The teachers of the county are especially requested to be present on the above date and the day following; and the general public is given a cordial invitation to come.

A fire started Wednesday in the livery stable of Leo Oswald, which, with a high wind blowing, appeared for a time would clean out that end of town. However, individuals as well as the fire department rendered immediate assistance, and the flames were stayed before they reached any of the surrounding houses. The fencing, sheds and stalls were destroyed, along with a number of articles stored therein. The loss was not great, partially insured.

Services will be held in the new Baptist church for the first time next Sunday, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to be present and help fill the church. Rev. G. C. Berryman will preach. Special music. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Preaching at 11.

The ball season will open in Carrizozo Sunday afternoon, with a match game between the E. P. & S. W. team, of El Paso, and a picked nine from the local organization. The visitors are expected to come up with a strong aggregation and our boys are making every effort to give them a warm reception. New grounds have been prepared on the north end of the McDonald addition. A large crowd is anticipated at this the initial game, and the main disappointment felt here is that there is as yet no grand stand to accommodate them.

A Spelling Match.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a spelling match Friday evening, 29th inst., at the Baptist church, the object of which is to raise funds to buy seats for the new church. Refreshments will be served. A small admission fee will be charged, but you can contribute as much as you desire. The ladies expect a large crowd to help them in their worthy cause.

Gossip of Washington

What Is Going On at the National Capital.

"Teddy" Absent, Capital Men Drink Tea

WASHINGTON.—After a seven-year lapse during the Roosevelt administration men are again giving teas, because President Taft does not consider tea drinking mollicoddish.

During the last year of the Roosevelt administration men at teas were very scarce. Even the diplomats who were careless of Roosevelt's vigorously expressed views (which often they did not understand) finally yielded to the influence that eventually caused but a handful of them to be present. Teas in the afternoon practically were wiped off the social slate.

Now this is all changed. Even the United States army is becoming host at teas, and Capt. Sherwood A. Cheney gave a tea recently to Miss Roosevelt, daughter of the man who believed that an officer who would be host at a tea was no soldier. The officers at Fort Myer and the Marine barracks expect soon to give teas.

That tea of Capt. Cheney was the third big tea of the season, although the first to be given by an American. Two other large affairs were presided over, one by the secretaries of the German embassy on the occasion of the Emperor William's birthday and the other by the Marquis de Villalobar, the Spanish minister, who took advantage of the occasion to receive "who is who" in Washington by way of official introduction, although his transfer to Lisbon had been gazetted by his government three weeks previously.

The "five o'clock tea" is considered by Washington hostesses who have the spirit of continental entertaining as a happy medium between the breakfast and the dinner. Breakfast usually occurs at an hour when men are already busy with their affairs, while the dinner is looked upon as too ponderous.

With the beginning of the Easter season the president and Mrs. Taft will again inaugurate their lawn parties, which is a different name for afternoon teas. Meanwhile, Lent is in the propitious season for such informal entertainments, especially of an afternoon.

Washington men would now be giving more teas if they lived in quarters suitable for such affairs.

"Uncle Joe" Was Forced to Sit Down

A NEW story on 'Uncle Joe' that I am told never was printed was related to me by former Gov. Benton McMillin of Tennessee while I was traveling with him recently," said Representative James M. Cox of Dayton, O., in Washington recently.

"It was my first meeting with Gov. McMillin, and my name suggested the story. When McMillin was in the house a number of years ago the brilliant 'Sunset' Cox of Ohio was a member of that body as was also the present speaker. On one occasion, according to Gov. McMillin, Cox got up to make a speech on some momentous question.

"As always when Cox spoke he had the attention of the house. He had launched into his subject and was addressing himself to an important phase of his speech when 'Uncle Joe' rose and assumed the attitude that is so familiar to everybody.

"He jerked his hand out of his pocket, and pointing it at Cox, but addressing himself to the speaker, Mr. Carlisle of Kentucky, requested to ask a question. Mr. Cox paid no attention to 'Uncle Joe' for several minutes, but the latter was insistent, and finally Speaker Carlisle asked Cox if he would yield the floor for a question. Cox paused for a moment and said:

"I will yield to the gentleman from Illinois for a question on one condition. Every time he interrupts he draws forth his hand and points it at me as if he had a pistol, and it frightens me. If the gentleman from Illinois agrees while speaking to keep his hand in his pocket, I will yield the floor for a question."

"'Uncle Joe' agreed. But he had not proceeded far when he nervously drew forth his hand and again pointed it directly at Cox. In a moment Cox was on his feet, and, declaring that Cannon had violated his agreement, demanded that Cannon resume his seat. And 'Uncle Joe' had to sit down."

Vice President in Role of a Guide

IF WORSE comes to worst, and Vice-President Sherman is obliged to earn his living in some other way than that which he has pursued heretofore, no doubt, can get employment as one of Capt. Kennedy's assistants as a guide about the capitol in Washington. Only the other day Miss Helen Taft and two of her school friends were at the capitol, and soon after the senate convened the vice-president went up into the gallery and pointed out to them the notables among the senators. He took the three girls through the capitol, showing them such places of interest as usually are pointed out by the regular guides. An interesting sight was that of Vice-President Sherman going about Statuary hall and picking out the "whispering stones," upon which the girls were told to stand, while "Sunny Jim" arranged that they should enjoy the echo features of that part of the capitol. The party went into the house of representatives, where Sherman served for more than twenty years, and the notables of that body were pointed out to Miss Taft and her school girl friends. Kennedy has been known for years as the "King of the Capitol Guides," because he is so glib and entertaining. He was told after the vice-president had made his trip about the capitol that Sherman could easily put him out of the guide business if he should engage in that occupation.

For Pain in Chest

For sore throat, sharp pain in lungs, tightness across the chest, hoarseness or cough, lave the parts with Sloan's Liniment. You don't need to rub, just lay it on lightly. It penetrates instantly to the seat of the trouble, relieves congestion and stops the pain.

Here's the Proof.

Mr. A. W. Price, Fredonia, Kans., says: "We have used Sloan's Liniment for a year, and find it an excellent thing for sore throat, chest pains, colds, and hay fever attacks. A few drops taken on sugar stops coughing and sneezing instantly."

is easier to use than porous plasters, acts quicker and does not clog up the pores of the skin.

The teacher had called upon Freddie Brown to give an illustration of the proper manner in which to compare the adjective "clean."

"Mother is clean," said he, falteringly, "father is—cleaner—" Here he paused.

And, prompted the teacher.

Freddie was still silent and very thoughtful.

"Haven't you some other relative?" asked the teacher, smiling.

"Oh, yes," replied Freddie, "there's auntie—but I ain't sure about her!"

BURNING THE TRASH

BEST DISPOSITION THAT CAN BE MADE OF REFUSE.

Means a Saving of Money and Is the Quickest Way of Getting Rid of It—Ashes to Make Walks and Repair Roads.

A woman who lives in the country will find she can save a great many pennies by regulating household trash, ashes, etc. Trash, for instance, is an expense in the country, because the householder pays for having it carted away. Therefore her economy comes in having inflammable stuff burned on the premises. And as dry trash is easily three-fourths of the refuse, she saves just that much on cartage.

To hold trash there should be barrels and a firm mandate issued by the head of the home that old tins, bottles and everything non-burnable must be put into them. In the other barrel papers, rags, etc., that usually fill the household scrap baskets must be placed.

One particular spot on the place should be reserved for the holocaust. It will be a black and unsightly spot and for that reason a retired nook should be chosen. If there is none the drive may be used, for after the fire is out the gravel may be raked over, so in a day or two all traces of the fire are obliterated.

Whether or not there is a regular day for burning depends upon the housekeeper's own routine. If a man comes once a week to clean the grounds he should attend to the bonfire.

As for ashes, unless they are very coarse they make excellent walks in the country. It is advisable to have them sifted first, as some may be burned later, thereby reducing the coal bill. Those left are cinders that will pack down hard and smooth and save buying gravel for walks and drives. In this way a whole path may be made of ashes with a thin top layer of gravel. This is a tip for persons building country homes on limited incomes. They, as none others, know that the financial demands of the grounds are endless and this is one way in which money may be saved.

If one does not require ashes for the grounds there are always country roads in need of repair, where they may be put. For instance, deep holes may be filled with the cinders, or they may be distributed evenly along the wayside. Selectmen have no objection to this, if the ashes are properly placed, and many a dollar may be saved.

Walnut Fritters.

Put a small cup of milk and one-half ounce of butter in a saucepan on the fire. When it boils add three ounces of dried and browned bread crumbs and a little dredging of flour. Let it cook until it no longer adheres to the pan, and remove from the fire. When it is cool add two eggs, beating until smooth, a large tablespoonful of shelled walnuts (previously run through the nut mill), seasoning, and a little grated onion juice. Mix well and shape into cakes about one-half inch thick on a floured board. Roll in flour or eggs and bread crumbs, and fry. Serve with walnut gravy, or round a dish of grilled tomatoes.

Kidney and Macaroni.

Remove the core and fat from half a pound of ox kidney. Cut it in small pieces and wash it. Break four ounces of macaroni into small pieces, mix it with the kidney, season it to taste with pepper, salt and red pepper (and if liked, add a chopped onion). Half fill a jar with the mixture and pour in sufficient cold water to fill the jar. Cover the jar with the lid and place it in the oven or in a saucepan half filled with water and let it stew for four hours. Serve chopped spinach or baked tomatoes with this dish. Serve very hot.

CONVINCING PROOF

OF THE VIRTUE OF

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

What is the use of procrastinating in the face of such evidence as the following letters represent? If you are a sick woman or know one who is, what sensible reason have you for not giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? For 30 years we have been publishing such testimonial letters as these—thousands of them—they are genuine and honest, too, every one of them.

Mrs. S. J. Barber says:

"I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women—and I feel it my duty to let others know the good it has done for me.

Three years ago I had a tumor which the doctor said would have to be removed by an operation or I could not live more than a year, or two, at most. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice, and took 14 bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today the tumor is gone and I am a perfectly well woman. I hope my testimonial will be of benefit to others."—Mrs. S. J. BARBER, Scott, N. Y.

Mrs. George May says:

"No one knows what I have suffered from female troubles, neuralgia pains, and backache. My doctor said he could not give me anything to cure it. Through the advice of a friend I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the pain soon disappeared. I continued its use and am now in perfect health. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a God-send to me as I believe I should have been in my grave if it had not been for Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. GEORGE MAY, 86 4th Ave., Paterson, N. J.

Mrs. E. F. Hayes says:

"I was under the doctor's treatment for a fibroid tumor. I suffered with pain, soreness, bloating, and could not walk or stand on my feet any length of time. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, followed her directions and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. To-day I am a well woman, the tumor was expelled and my whole system strengthened. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 1890 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Mrs. W. K. Housh says:

"I have been completely cured of a severe female trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and want to recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. W. K. HOUSH, 7 Eastview Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, etc.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
