CARRANZA SHOWS RAGE TOWARD U. S.

Mexican Leader Drafts Formal Reply To American Govern- ments Demands

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—At and near the naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, the United States has mobilized the most powerful battle fleet ever gathered together in the history of navies, according to a statement issued today by secretary of the navy Daniels. It is from this fleet that a battleship and a cruiser have been ordered to proceed to Veracruz in view of the Mexican developments.

Developments in the situation today were awaiting Gen. Carranza's answer to the American note demanding an improvement of conditions in Mexico City. There were indications that the reply would be favorable.

Conflicting dispatches as to the evacuation of Mexico City during the last 24 hours caused much doubt. A dispatch from Veracruz Tuesday at 10 a. m. indicated Gen. Obregon was still in control. The Villa agency had dispatches from Juarez saying Obregon's troops had evacuated Tuesday and were replaced by Zapata troops.

MEXICO CITY IS STARVING

The Mexican Red Cross today appealed to the American Red Cross through Secretary of State Bryan, for food for the starving populace in Mexico City. The appeal said the famine in the Mexican capital was rapidly growing worse. Secretary Bryan said the state department would cooperate with the Red Cross as far as possible.

Advices at Veracruz indicated that the negotiations were in progress which probably will make possible the export of sisal fibre from Progreso, the Yucatan port blockaded by Carranza's orders. For the present, however, Carranza refuses to permit the steamer Moro Castle to call at Progreso or grant clearance papers to the Pathfinder from Veracruz to the same port.

CONDITION OF U. S. NAVY

Secretary of the navy Daniels today issued a statement on the condition of the Atlantic fleet and its auxiliaries now maneuvering in the Mexican gulf and Caribbean waters. It was considered significant by some observers of the Mexican situation as follows: "STRONGEST FLEET IN HISTORY"

"Never before in naval history has such a powerful fleet been assembled for active service, maneuvers and target practice with the guns and torpedoes, as that based at Guantanamo, Cuba, for the last two months under the command of rear admiral Fletcher, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet. This force now consists of 19 battleships and 20 destroyers with a flagship and a tender.

"Based also on Guantanamo bay is the cruiser squadron consisting of two armored cruisers and seven light cruisers and gunboats, the various units of which have been operating in the vicinity of Hayti, Santo Domingo and the east coast of Mexico.

"READY FOR ANY SERVICE"

"The vessels comprising this fleet are ready for any service and are accompanied by repair ships, carrying coal, oil and supplies for an extended period.

"At Key West the reserve torpedo flotilla, consisting of ten destroyers and a tender, have been engaged in extended operations.

"At Pensacola, six submarines with four tenders have been engaged in maneuvers and in joint operation with air craft and with the San Francisco a mine laying vessel.

Mexicans May Yield Negro Murderers

United States army officers have gone to Columbus, N. M., it is reported at Douglas, Ariz., to receive from a Mexican commander of former Huerta soldiers, two deserting negro cavalymen suspected of killing John McFarland, a ranch manager, near Campbell Wells, Ariz., on March 4.

It was said the Mexicans had agreed to surrender the negroes on condition that their guilt was proved to the Mexicans' satisfaction. The deserters, Albert Powell and Wilbur Field, are accused, according to report, of having killed McFarland for unknown reasons, while passing through his ranch on their flight from Alamo Hueco, N. M., where they had been stationed. They were located at Ascencion, Chihuahua.

Soldier's Hard Fate

Killed by a golf ball while on sentry meeting duty is the fate that recently befell a member of G Company of the Fourth Black Watch (City of Dundee). He had been doing duty as guard at Wormit, and was at a spot which adjoins Wormit golf course, when a ball driven by a lady from a considerable distance struck him a severe blow on the temple, causing a wound and a considerable flow of blood. He was conveyed in a dazed condition to a villa in which he had been billeted. It was supposed that he was recovering, but later he collapsed.

Only a Crucifix Escapes Shell Fire

With the sole exception of a crucifix which was untouched, everything at the church at Messines, a Belgian town six miles out of Ypres, was destroyed as a result of fire following a bombardment of that place by heavy guns, according to a report of the eye-witness, with the British headquarters staff, whose story this week includes a description of the remarkable resistance of medieval buildings to shell fire.

Great blocks of masonry were blown off the Messines church, the belfry was shot away, and the interior was completely ruined, but the framework, though irregular in outline and full of gaping holes, is still standing, the writer says, defiant amid the surrounding ruins.

Put Your Hammer Away

An exchange remarks as follows:

When Cain had killed off one-fourth of the people on the earth, leaving only three, then went into the land of Nod and builded a city, it is evident that he did not sit around like a bump on a log and growl about the Nod real estate and people. He was not himself, perhaps the most exemplary of men, and if he had some reason to emigrate from the land of his birth, he did not mope and whine, but got hold of a piece of ground and went to work to do something. The man who could build up a city under such auspices is the kind of material we want in this town; and we will not inquire too minutely into his antecedents, so that he takes hold like a man and be good at least. But what is more, Cain did not advise his son to "go west" and get out of the dead old town. He named the city after him, believed in it, worked for it, subscribed for the local paper, bought his goods there and kept his money at home.

Chicagoans Sold Their Votes For Price of Meal

Chicago, Ill., March 9.—Four Democratic election officials and workers in the first ward were indicted Monday as a result of testimony before the grand jury that votes had been bought in the recent primary for 25 and 50 cents, and in some cases for a breakfast or a night's lodging.

Arctic Pictures to be Seen at Goebel's

The much talked of Kleinschmidt Arctic Hunt pictures will be seen for the first time at Goebel's theater Friday, March 12. The pictures were taken by Capt. F. E. Kleinschmidt, the explorer and big game hunter, while on an expedition to the polar regions last summer.

Among the many features pictured is that of a mother bear fighting to save her cub from its captors. The roping of the baby bear and the courage of the mother in the hour of peril is most thrillingly told in the form

Smallest Homestead In the United States

Serena Helen Blue has the distinction of owning the smallest homestead in the United States. Moreover, it cost only ten cents. Its eight-hundredths of an acre in area and is a little triangular bit of land, 94 feet long and 38 feet wide at its broadest point, jutting into Turtle lake, Minn. The ten cents commutes her entry to cash, in land office parlance, and she does not have to live on the land three years as otherwise required by law. None the less, Miss Blue has a house there and grows tomatoes and cabbage and clover. The interior department liked Miss Blue's homestead so well that it issued a description with a picture of it.

Same Here

The man who tells you he doesn't want newspaper publicity generally does. The Headlight knows a bunch of people of this kind right in this community.—Deming Headlight.

This kind of people are in all communities and ours has its share. The best treatment for this sort of loco is to give the over modest ones what they ask for, not what they want. Any editor respects the man who wants the public to know about him or his doings, because it all makes news, and usually useful news at that. Cheap notoriety is quite another thing, and where newspaper columns are filled with trashy, fulsome notice of citizens the editor is that sort himself and embarrasses those he notices till they fear any public mention. A fool editor who is familiar in his paper and trails his readers through slang, and takes privileges for which they would slap him if it were not beneath them, can make more people in a community want to stay out of the paper than can anything else. The public is thus imposed upon by some newspaper until the editor becomes a joke and his paper is contemptuously spoken of and all newspapers in that community are put under more or less censor because of the foolishness of one editor in their midst. Speak of your public with respectful dignity and few of them will resent your mentioning them as often as it is news.

of motion picture photoplay. The audience is given an intimate view of the polar bear, seal, walrus, moose, caribou, mountain sheep and other denizens of the Arctic wilds, while the studies of the Eskimo, at home and in his fearless pursuit and hand-to-hand battles with the ferocious monsters which provide his subsistence, have proven of great interest to the American public. This pictures were shown at the Crystal theater in Albuquerque for two nights with great success.

ACTRESS TO TESTIFY AGAIN

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw Asserts She Will Do What She Can to Aid Slayer

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 9.—It was announced today by an official of the district attorney's office that, in all probability, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw would appear as a witness in Thaw's behalf in his present trial.

In previous proceedings affecting Thaw's liberty, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw has appeared against him. A week ago a process server from the district attorney's office called on Mrs. Thaw with a subpoena bidding her to appear at the trial for the prosecution. She was quoted as having said:

"I am tired of this case. I think Henry is being persecuted and if I take any interest whatever in it, it will be to do what I can for him. I think he has been confined long enough, and if his lawyers want me, I will do anything I can for him."

THAW THREATENED HER

Mrs. Thaw immediately after the escape of her former husband, claimed to be in fear of her life, saying she had received threats that Thaw would come to New York and kill her.

Monday's court session was taken up with attempts to secure a jury. Thaw was cheerful throughout the proceedings and occasionally helped his counsel pick the jurors.

DESCRIBES THAW'S ESCAPE

Assistant attorney general Kennedy, in his statement to the jury, described the escape of Thaw. He told how Thompson hired the big automobile in which Thaw fled and how the alleged conspirators gathered at the town of Beacon, adjoining Matteawan, the day before the escape. Then he told how Thaw leaped into a machine and fled when a milkman opened the gate leading to the main yard of the hospital.

Thaw later appeared at Lenox, Mass., where he registered under an assumed name, said Kennedy. He sketched completely the subsequent events leading to Thaw's arrest in Canada and the legal steps since then.

SAYS THAW IS INSANE NOW

Kennedy said the state would offer evidence to prove that Thaw not only was insane at the time of his escape, but that he was insane now. That, however, the assistant attorney general said, did not excuse him from conspiring to commit crime; for, according to the law, an insane person is responsible for a criminal act unless it can be proved that he did not know that his act of escape was a crime.

After Kennedy concluded, John B. Stanchfield, for the defense, made motions to dismiss the indictment on the ground that the alleged facts were not sufficient to constitute a crime, and there was nothing wrong in escaping. The motions were denied.

Wm. Penny, clerk of the court, the first witness, identified the record of Thaw's second trial and the papers upon which Thaw was committed to Matteawan.

CLEOFES JIMENEZ POLICEMAN AT TIME

Other Indicted Man Has Not Appeared; Judge Abbott
Scores Lynching of Padilla
as Attack on Court

The appearance of Cleofes Jimenez in the district court Monday morning to enter plea to the indictment of murder of Adolfo Padilla on March 31, 1914, when mob law resulted in a lynching, added an unusual touch of interest to the opening of the March term of the court by District Judge E. C. Abbott. Jimenez entered a plea of not guilty. The other man, against whom an indictment was found by the grand jury Saturday, did not appear to plead this morning.

The killing of Padilla was one of the sensations of the southwest about a year ago, and in commenting on the work of the grand jury which indicted two men as being participants in this mob violence, Judge Abbott defined his attitude on the subject, Saturday afternoon, in open court, the judge said he had no sympathy with those who expressed the opinion that Padilla, accused of killing his own wife, had received his just deserts when he was lynched. The judge said he considered the mob violence an attack on the court itself and added: "Therefore I fully approve the idea of trying to bring to justice those engaged in this crime. No community can tolerate mob law."

Texas Fruit Not Damaged by Cold Snap, Says Davis

Austin, Tex., March 9.—Despite the snow and freezing weather which has prevailed throughout the state for the past two days, commissioner of agriculture Davis said today, no report of any serious damage to the fruit trees has been received. The reason for this is that the blooms had not advanced far enough to damage the prospective fruit crop.

AN EXPLANATION

A moral wave has struck Grayville, Ill., and as a result the girls in the high school basketball team no longer wear bloomers, but "make the baskets" in full skirts. The school board notified the girls they could not use the name of their school in their games so long as they wore bloomers.

The above item appeared in last week's issue of THE BELEN NEWS, in a modified way, happening to be a typographical error, in which the word "here" was inserted instead of the words "Grayville, Ill." whence the item comes from. Our attention was called to the item, and in duty bound we make the above explanation, and it has in no way any reference to our High School. Furthermore we request our contemporary of The Journal to reproduce in his daily issue the above, so as to erase from the minds of its readers any prejudice which might have arisen. We are thankful that our attention has been called, hoping the above explains itself.

Villa has decreed prohibition in the territory controlled by him. Betting that he will beat Carranza can be made now with higher odds.

ADVERTISING

The man who does not advertise simply because his grandfather did not, should wear knee breeches and a wig, says an exchange.

The man who does not advertise because it costs money should quit paying salaries for the same reason.

The man who does not advertise because he doesn't know how to write an advertisement should quit eating because he can't cook.

The man who does not advertise because somebody said it did not pay should not believe the world is round because the ancients said it was flat.

Of course, no one really contemplated the actual closing of the New Mexico exhibit at San Diego. That would be too positive advertising of the wrong sort.

A "WET" JOKER DISCOVERED

Our prohibition friends are not overlooking any bets. They are wide awake all the time and keep the opposition alert. They almost "put one over" on the Michigan legislature, last week. What was virtually a state-wide prohibition bill, although it was not represented as such, was scheduled for introduction into the senate. When it was found to be loaded Senator Straight, of Coldwater, censored it to conform with the original idea in mind and then entered it. The censored bill, which was referred to the committee on liquor traffic, proposes to prohibit licenses within the incorporated limits of any city, village or township in which may be located certain state institutions of learning. Had the measure gone through as originally presented it would have dried up the city of Detroit and nearly every county in Michigan.

New York has a public official who insists upon paying for the use of the city automobile when he uses it in his own affairs. That man will bear watching.

A CHANCE FOR YOU

We are going to help you and ourselves at the same time. We are going to educate you up to the value of using the classified department of THE BELEN NEWS. Have you any idea of the money you could make if you were to let all the people in this county know what YOU had for sale? Do you know that no matter how apparently useless some article has grown, some other person has a use for that article AND WILL BUY IT?

But he cannot buy it if he does not know WHERE to get it. In the big cities the classified departments of the newspapers are as INTERESTING AS THE NEWS COLUMNS. In fact they contain real live NEWS. And those who use them are reaping great advantages—BOTH THE BUYERS AND THE SELLERS.

Of late the smaller papers are pushing their classified departments into more prominence. The other day we picked up a weekly, published in a county seat town in Wisconsin. Its classified column was "A WONDER." Apparently everyone in the county was using and reading it. Lack of space prevents us from reproducing it, altho we would like to do so. But here are a few things that were advertised for sale by the farmers and the townspeople: Houses, lots, farms, glass cupboard, chickens, sewing machine, turkeys, rugs, eggs, upholstered goods, crockery, geese, butter, correspondence school course, cheese, feathers, manure, incubator, horses, finger ring, automobile, jars of fruit, fence posts, hogs, (plain and fancy,) embroidery lessons, suit of clothes and fur overcoat, home made bread, a colt, library of 100 volumes, home knit socks, cream separator, two calves, concrete block machine, tame bear, gasoline engine, heating stove, hay, rag carpets, home cured hams and bacon, wind mill, a general store, soy beans, alfalfa meal, desk and chair, typewriter, cabinet organ, short horn bull, bird dog, hay stacker, rake and loader, five tons of coal and a gun.

If YOU have any of the above named articles for sale—or anything like them—let us know and we will run a classified ad in THE BELEN NEWS. The cost is very small—only 10 cents per line for one insertion or 5 cents per line for three insertions. For 2 cents per line we will keep your ad running for 10 weeks. Someone wants what YOU have to sell.

HAVE YOU NAMED YOUR FARM

The movement to have every American farmer select a name for his farm and use the name as a trade mark, is meeting with great success in some parts of the country. Many of our exchanges have published lists of the names selected for the farms of their neighborhoods, the publication acting as a sort of a patent or copy-right. It has been said by some unthinking persons that the plan is not American, but a little reflection will convince anyone that the point is not well taken. Washington called his home "Mt. Vernon," Jefferson, the great democrat, named his place "Monticello" and any schoolboy can give you a dozen other instances.

So name your farm and put the name out where everyone can see it. Make it a Trade Mark. A well known, advertised trade mark is worth thousands of dollars to the owner. Your farm and its products are your stock in trade. Name them and you have added real hard cash value to everything you sell. Choose a name well suited to surroundings, a name that will tell in its very sound some of the characteristics of your business home; then come to us and have letter-heads made for your correspondence with the name of your farm on them and your name and your wife's name and your postoffice address beneath. Of course you want your wife's name on your stationery. She is your partner and the best and truest, and the hardest working, and the most interested party in the whole concern. Once you were glad to get the chance to endow her with all your worldly goods, now make your promise real. Here's how your letter head might look:

LOVELY DAY FOR A WAR

Aunt Mary is the best old soul you'll meet in many a day. She's tended to her knitting in the good old-fashioned way. She never gossips, she has no time to gad and she seldom reads the papers, 'cause she says, they make her sad. She drove to town this afternoon to shop, around a bit and Wilbur Jones the grocery man, invited her to sit. Says he "Aint this war awful?" and Aunt Mary says "My Land! Aint heard a word about it—I aint even heard no band." And Jones says "Sure, old England and France and Russia, too, are a fighting with the Kaiser,—why, it's worse than '62." Aunt Mary answered sweetly, as she started on her way, "Well they've got nice weather for it, 'cause it's just a lovely day?"—Ed. McIntyre.

NOT A "RAZOR-BACK"

If the northern and western farmers believe that the "razor-back" hog represents the south, the will be entitled to one more guess after reading the following from the News of Leighton, Alabama:

"Mr. C. O. Bowling, of Brick, claims the banner of porkers. Mr. Bowling killed one a few days ago that pulled the scales to 550 pounds. This is the largest hog that has been reported to us. The Duroc Jersey Swine is the breed for the above hog killed."

Spring Song

Cut this out and learn it. Then when the weather opens up and your friends get their cars out, you can sit on the porch and hum it over. It's full of the truth and human nature: In the gloaming, oh, my darling, when the cars are whizzing past, Sit we two upon our front porch till we see the very last. It is time to seek the feathers, but we linger still outside; Twenty persons said they'd take us out a-riding, but they lied. In the gloaming, oh, my darling, we will sit till midnight's hour, As the motor cars fly past us on the wings of benzie power. Do not give up hope, my darling, keep a-smiling, and sit tight; If we wait for twenty summers—maybe one will stop some night. —Pardeville, Wis., Times.
