Australia Now Manufacturing Many Woolens

Land Which Formerly Exported Most of Its Wool in Raw State Taking Up Burden of Supplying Uniforms

MELBOURNE, Australia, April 3.—Some idea of the part Australia as a component of the British empire is playing in the war as a purveyor of supplies of a military kind for itself. Great Britain and the allies may be gathered from the following facts and figures:

The defense department has requisitioned the entire output of the various woolen mills throughout the commonwealth for an indefinite time and the mill owners and managers are undertaking to do all in their power to facilitate the manufacture of the cloth and garments required by the department. Besides supplying each Australian soldier on active service with a uniform when he embarks on a troop ship the department engaged to supply him with a fresh uniform every three months while at the front. At present the superintendent of army contracts, Capt. J. C. Orniston, is requiring at once 1,112,000 yards of flannel, to say nothing of 200,000 woolen undershirts and 220,400 pairs of drawers of the same material. Australia being a country which singularly enough, exports immense quantities of raw wool but has few woolen or other textile establishments as yet, the strain upon the existing mills is enormous. Meantime a representative of the federal government has placed orders with a single woolen manufacturing firm in New Zealand for 96,000 navy sweaters, 212,000 knitted drawers, 200,000 knitted shirts, 240,000 pairs of socks and more than a million yards of flannel. It is doubtful, however, if all the woolen mills in New Zealand can cope with this order inasmuch as at present they are doing their utmost to keep the dominion contingents supplied with clothing of the above description.

AUTHORITIES CONFISCATE MUTTON.

In Sydney the whole of the mutton in cold storage within the metropolitan area—a supply variously estimated and numbering between 250,000 and 300,000 sheep—has been taken over on behalf of the imperial authorities at prices already fixed at from eight to ten and a half cents a pound by agreement between the owners and the home and overseas authorities. Although the New South Wales government, this is the biggest transaction of the kind that has ever been carried out in Sydney. The state government is acting under a direct request from the government in England which was recently translated into an act of parliament. The first consignment will consist of about 9,000 refrigerated sheep, but much heavier consignments will be forwarded before long. The imperial government has engaged to provide the transportation.

Meantime the state abattoirs at Homebush, near Sydney, will shortly be in full swing and sheep will be slaughtered at the rate of 6,000 daily. The New South Wales authorities have been advised that the demand for the British army and navy is practically limitless.

A shoe company in Melbourne is negotiating with the Russian government to supply it with a million and a half pairs of soldier's shoes within twelve months at the rate of 120,000 pairs a month. The contract, if entered into, will involve nearly $8,000,000. The matter is not yet settled however.

Mrs. Braumback of This City to Be Conductor

THE officials of the department of public instruction last Monday announced the date of the opening of the Santa Fe county institute at that place as May 31. This institute will be in session four weeks and will be conducted by Mrs. Nora Braumback, of this city, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin W. Fox, Prof. J. H. Dowden, of Raton, also will assist.

A feature of the institute's work will be the teaching of the practical branches such as manual training, domestic science and agriculture. Music will be taught, also, and there will be a class in drawing.

Among the special features of the institute will be addresses by Miss Dora Edna Ross, state director of home economics at State College, and by A. C. Cooley, director of the extension division at State College.

County School Superintendent John Vincent Conway will be in general charge of the institute and it is expected that

HOPES GOD WILL STRIKE HIM DEAD IF HE HAS LIED

Sebastian Pounds Witness Stand With His Fist as He Solemnly Assures Jury That He is Innocent

CHARLES E. Sebastian, suspended chief of police, testified in his own behalf that he was innocent of the moral misconduct alleged in the indictment charging him and Mrs. Lillie Pratt with having contributed to the dependency of Edith Serkin, Mrs. Pratt's minor half-sister. "May God strike me dead if I do not tell the truth," he declared striking the witness stand with his fist.

Victoria Desparte, a ward of the juvenile court who made the first accusations against Sebastian caused a stir by announcing that employees of the district attorney's office had coached her for the story she told the grand jury. The "joy rides" she took in what appeared to be a police automobile, she said, were with three men far younger than Sebastian. The suspended chief faces trial on the charge of having contributed to her delinquency.

Sebastian testified he never had improper relations with either Mrs. Pratt, Edith Serkin or Victoria Desparte.

His testimony followed that of A. B. Pratt, who told of his faith in Mrs. Pratt and visiting the chief of police to assure him of his belief in his innocence until proven otherwise.

there will be a large attendance.

Without trying to conflict in any way with the work of other institutes to be held during the summer in various parts of the state, it is planned to make this county institute almost a statewide scope. It is believed many visitors will be in the city this summer from various counties. In view of the fact that institute of Science will be in session here most of the summer, affording opportunities to hear lectures on various subjects, a combination of the interests of this summer school and the institute will likely prove of benefit to teachers who may wish to take special work. It will be so arranged that the regular summer school students may attend the county institute during the four weeks of its sessions.

Union Bricklayers Lay Down Their Tools

Pittsburg, Pa., May 1.—For the first time since 1892, union bricklayers today laid down their tools to enforce a demand for increased wages. They have been receiving 70 cents an hour and struck for an eight-hour day at $6. About 1,200 men are affected.

Widow of Alleged Victim of Murder, Defense Witness

Mora, N. M., May 1.—Mrs. Paul E. Tyler, widow of the man for whose killing Oscar Kidd and Bert Jay now are on trial here, has proved the strongest witness for the defense. She testified that her husband had

FIRING NEAR THE BORDER REPORTED BY U. S. PATROLS

Sound of Volleys Thought to Indicate Assumption of Activity by Counter-Revolution East of Juarez.

HEAVY firing on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande river east of Juarez was reported by troops of the United States border patrol. The shooting stopped after half an hour.

As far as is known no Carranza expeditions are near the Mexican border towns. Rumors of a counter-revolution backed by the ex-federal faction have been current recently, and within the last few days many former Huerta and Orozco chiefs have made automobile trips along the border between El Paso and Eagle-Pass.

Officials at Juarez professed ignorance of the firing which had been heard clearly from several points on the American side. Telephone connections secured with several towns on the Mexican side of the line east of El Paso failed to secure information of any strange troops moving in the direction of Juarez.

VILLISTAS REPORT QUIET REIGNING.

It was said in an official Villa bulletin tonight that no fighting had occurred in central Mexico since the battle of Saturday when Villa leaders claimed a complete victory. The Carranza claim that Obregon was advancing along the Central railroad from Leon emphatically was denied by the Villa faction. They asserted that the enemy has been disintegrated and driven south into Silao and Irapuato.

The Villa statement also reported that General Urbina defeated the Carranza forces Monday at Panuco in the Tampico district on the east coast. Only general details of the battle were given.

treated her cruelly, finally refusing to support her, and that as a result she left him, taking her child and starting for California. At Albuquerque, she said, she ran out of money, and there she telegraphed to Kidd, who later joined her long enough to supply her with money for the trip to Los Angeles.

It is alleged the killing of Tyler resulted from a quarrel over the relations of Kidd with Mrs. Tyler.

Bert Jay, one of the defendants, was on the stand yesterday. He declared that the shooting of Tyler was in self defense.

Big Tie-Treating Plant at Cimarron Re-Opens

Cimarron, N. M., May 1.—The tie treating plant of the Continental Tie & Lumber company reopened today for the summer season. Ties cut since last fall and stored at the local yards of the company will be treated during the next several months. The company is said to have more orders than it can fill with the present capacity of the plant. Local business will benefit from the reopening of the plant as a large force is employed.

Assyrians Are Forced to Flee By Kurd Hordes

Between 40 and 50 Thousand Residents of Transcaucasia Now Refugees With Protectors They Can Find

TIFLIS, Transcaucasia, —Many thousands of the Assyrian inhabitants of the country west of Lake Urumiah have had to flee before the coming raiding Kurds. Some 40,000 or 50,000 of these people a few months ago occupied the Smiling Gardens on the lake shores. Now 12,000 are refugees in Russia and some 15,000 or 17,000 took refuge under the protection of Dr. Harry P. Packard, of the American Presbyterian mission at Urumiah. His successful efforts in their behalf already have been told by cable. His name will survive in Assyrian traditions.

The members of the central committee of the Assyrian or Chaldean Christians are awaiting only one thing, the return of the Russians to endeavor to reconstruct into a safe community this remnant of the ancient empire of Nineveh. The committeemen fled with their families. They can only hope today that some of their relatives will be returned to them from Kurdish enslavement. Those who did not escape, or were made slaves, perished.

COMMITTEEMEN ONCE PROSPEROUS.

The committeemen speak English fluently and were at one time prosperous merchants. This was before their little tribe was gripped by the coils of the great war.

Until American missions were established in the Urumiah country, the Assyrians maintained their religious traditions by semi-annual reading from half a dozen cherished parchment new testaments, taking the additional precaution of requiring the more gifted youth to memorize the whole of the sacred literature.

With mission schools and hospitals, enlightenment and prosperity increased. The Assyrian villages were as famous for neatness and comfort as their gardens were of fertility. Further encouragement and protection were brought by the Russians who came into the country about nine years ago.

ASSYRIANS FAVORED RUSSIA.

The Assyrians took sides with the Russians in the war, while the Mohammedans turned to the Turks and Germany. Organized and drilled by Russian officers, the Assyrians rendered valuable services by fortifying some of their villages and guarding the caravan roads to Urumiah. About 250 were regularly enlisted, the central committee supplying the funds. Later 2,000 or 3,000 volunteers were under arms and had some training. Toward the end of December, the Russians and Assyrians defeated a large body of Kurds, inflicting a loss estimated at 500.

Fleeing before impending massacre, 3,000 of the Assyrians gathered at a strong village, Geogtapa, and held their ground with a loss of seventy men.

Find Mutilated Body Of Beautiful Girl

Nogales, Ariz., May 3.—The mutilated body of a beautiful Mexican girl of about 18 years of age was discovered in a basement of a house owned by attorney Jose Pujol in Nogales, Sonora. It is believed to be that of Angelita Mendoza who disappeared from her home about ten days ago and for whom search has been made.

Died as Result of Kick in the Abdomen

Clovis, N. M., May 1.—L. B. Moorman, living near the state line, died here this week as the result of injuries sustained when a horse kicked him in the abdomen. He suffered excruciating pain for three days prior to his death. Mr. Moorman was sixty years of age, and was well known throughout this district.

Tramp Fearfully Burned While Asleep

A 65-year-old tramp giving his name as Tom Bennett, was terribly burned in a railroad cut near Agate when sparks from a fire he had built set fire to his clothing while he was asleep. He was delirious from pain when found by a section crew, and was taken to Fort Sumner on a hand-car for medical attention. His back, neck and arms are in frightful condition, and his recovery is doubtful. Bennett stated that he was put off a train during the night. He has been taken to Santa Rosa, where he will be cared for by the county authorities.

THE KNOCKER'S CREED.

I BELIEVE that nothing is right. I believe that everything is wrong. I believe that I alone have the right idea. The town is wrong, the editor is wrong, the teachers are wrong, the people are wrong, the things they are doing are wrong and they are doing them in the wrong way anyhow. I believe I could fix things if they would let me. If they don't I will get a lot of other fellows like myself and we will have a law passed to make others do things the way WE want them done.

I do not believe that the town ought to grow. It is to big now. I believe in fighting every public improvement and in spoiling everybody's pleasure. I am always to the front in opposing things and never yet have I advanced an idea or supported a movement that would make people happier or add to the pleasure of man, woman or child. I am opposed to fun and am happiest at a funeral. I believe in starting reforms that will take all the joy out of life. It's a sad world and I am glad of it. Amen.

HE MISSED A FORTUNE

In spite of their night-and-day activity and raiding and destroying the hundreds of illicit stills that are manufacturing moonshine in the mountains, the revenue officers of Georgia, have found time to report the discovery of an invention, which, had it been patented by its discoverer, might have brought an immense fortune. The art of distillation is an ancient one, yet little progress has been made in the process since the first "worm," or twisted tube was issued to condense the vapors which arise from the boiling liquid. Frank Whatley, a Georgian conducted a still on his place in the Blue Ridge mountains. Since prohibition went into effect, the demand for moonshine has leaped to enormous proportions. Whatley saw that if he could increase the output of his still he would make more money. So he set to work and constructed a still, which, according to the officers, "instead of the usual worm or coil, contained a device with a double surface for condensing the vaporized alcoholic fumes. The device is enclosed in an air space in which the vapors float and are condensed rapidly as the water passes through the body of the cylinder. It is the most efficient condensation system we have ever seen and it is a pity Whatley did not try to market his device instead of making moonshine."

THE GRAND

OLD FALL GUY

An unknown man was found dead in the outskirts of a small Kansas town recently. A revolver and $100 in cash were found on his person. The coroner held an inquest and it took $75 to defray the expenses and bury the body. The police judge fined the corpse $25 for carrying concealed weapons and confiscated the gun. The local editor who published the obituary, got nothing.—Altoona sacker did not believe that he

Wolf or Coyote?

County Clerk M. C. Ortiz of Santa Fe county received a wild animal pelt by parcel post from George W. Pope, of Estancia, asking him to decide whether the skin was that of a wolf or coyote. The animal bounty paid on coyote pelts is $2; on those of wolves, $15. Hence the importance of the decision. Mr. Ortiz would not rely on his own judgment alone but called in justice of the peace Samosa, who was then in the court house, and also Benito Alarid and Vicente Alarid, for their opinions. It was decided the animal was at one time a living wolf. "The nose of a coyote is much more pointed than that of a wolf," said Vicente Alarid, who is accustomed to examine hares brought to the county clerk's office. It is believed that Mr. Pope will be much pleased at the news that his dogs caught a wolf instead of an ordinary coyote.
