WIFE PLEADS FOR HUSBAND'S LIFE

Prison Board Listens to Petition

"My Husband Was Courteous, Gentle, Respectful," Says Frank's Wife

SAYS HE UPHELD HIGHEST IDEALS

Other Affidavits Brought by Counsel to Attention of Commission

ATLANTA, Ga., May 31.—Barred by the Georgia statutes from testifying for her husband at his trial on a charge of murdering Mary Phagan, Mrs. Leo M. Frank appeared today before the state prison commission and presented a plea that his sentence of execution be commuted to life imprisonment.

Frank was not present when the commissioner's hearing began. Mr. Howard read the prisoner's brief application for commutation of sentence and then offered documentary evidence, including records of court proceedings, the affidavit of Judge Roan and a statement of Mrs. Leo M. Frank.

Judge Roan's affidavit told of the hostile atmosphere surrounding the trial which induced him to urge that Frank be absent when the verdict was rendered. Mr. Howard said Mrs. Frank's statement was the chief new evidence to be presented.

SAYS HUSBAND UPHELD IDEALS

Mrs. Frank's statement said she was born in Atlanta and had lived there all her life, accustomed to the courteous treatment which is characteristic of the south. It continued: "with the ideals I had, and which had been inculcated in me from girlhood, I expected in my husband nothing less than that to which I had been accustomed and to which every woman looks forward, and which I fully realized in my husband."

"When not occupied with his business, the only time he spent away from me was when he was occupied with his charitable work, which took him away from home about once or twice a month."

PRaises FRANK'S CHARACTER.

"Our married life has been exceedingly happy and never had been marred by the slightest cloud. He was regarded and loved by my parents as a son and was always courteous, gentle and most respectful in his relations with them, and our families always have been on intimate terms."

"When my husband was first arrested on this charge and was detained at police headquarters on Tuesday, April 29, 1913, I hurried to the police barracks, accompanied by my father and brother-in-law. I was not allowed to go up to see my husband and remained in the office of the probation officer from whence my friends prevailed on me to return home. Being assured that my husband would be released at any moment, I remained at home, but as soon as it became apparent that he would be detained indefinitely, I went to him immediately and have been going to him every day since and spend most of the day with him in jail.

MOVEMENTS ON DAY OF MURDER.

"On the 26th day of April 1913, my mother and I had tickets for a grand opera matinee and in order to get there on time we sat at table at 1:10 p. m., before my husband came home to dinner. About 1:30 mother and I left home and my husband and father were left at the table eating. Returning home from the opera at 6:30 I found my husband there. There was nothing unusual in his manner or appearance to attract my attention."

READ DURING EVENING.

"That evening after supper a number of friends of my mother and father came over to the house to play cards. My husband and I did not play, but he sat in the hall reading. I watched the game for a while in the dining room and then would go into the hall and talk to my husband, and would then go back again to watch the game."

"My husband read in the hall until sometime after 10 o'clock, and we retired about 10:40. We were awakened about 6:45 by the telephone ringing. My husband got out of bed, put on his bath robe and went down to answer the telephone."

INFORMED OF TRAGEDY.

"When he came back again I asked him who it was, and he said some detective had telephoned him to come right down to the factory, that there had been a tragedy down there and that they were sending an automobile for him. My husband began to dress right away, and

Payment Delayed

Quarterly Payments and Small Tax Returns the Cause.

A combination of quarterly payments and the usual small tax returns at the end of the first half of the fiscal year will make it impossible for the state treasurer's office to pay more than 70 per cent of the salaries due state officials and employees Monday, May 31. However, it is probable that sufficient returns from the taxes due June 1 will be in the hands of Deputy State Treasurer Frank Marron by June 10 to make it possible for him to pay the remaining 30 per cent on that date. The salaries of the state officials who are paid quarterly have raised the May payroll from $9,000 to $24,000.

Decision of Frank Case Is Deferred For Ten Days

Atlanta, Ga., June 1.—The state prison commission is to decide within ten days on its recommendation to the governor regarding the case of Leo M. Frank, who is condemned to die. The commission Monday heard applications for clemency in his behalf. One of the features of the application was a letter from Judge Roan, who presided at Frank's trial. The letter was written a few months before Judge Roan's death and requested executive clemency for Frank.

while he dressed the front door bell rang, and I slipped on a bath robe and went downstairs to answer the door. When I opened the door, Booth Rogers and John Black were there. I asked them what was the matter and they said some one had been killed in the factory and then they told me what they knew about it.

WIFE ASKED FOR COFFEE.

"After a minute or two minutes my husband came down and joined us at the front door. They asked him if he knew Mary Phagan and he told them he did not. They then asked him if a little girl had not come to the office to get her money the preceding day and he said he did remember such a girl, but did not know her name. They then told him to come with them right away to the factory. I wanted them to let him have his breakfast first, but they refused. I then asked if they would not let him have at least a cup of coffee, but they refused that also. It was I and not he that asked for the coffee."

M'NIGHT AFFIDAVIT FALSE.

"In the affidavit reported to have been made by Mineola McNight, the statement that I ever told my mother that my husband did not rest well that night, that he was drunk and that he made me sleep on the floor and all the rest of it is absolutely false in every particular."

No Way to Compute

Cost of Advertising Delinquent Taxes—Attorney General.

That under Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 77, one of the measures passed over the governor's veto by the last legislature, which provides for the publication of delinquent tax lists, there is no specific method of computing the cost of advertising, is pointed out by Attorney General Frank W. Clancy in a letter to Max Montoya, treasurer of Socorro county.

Section 1 of the bill provides that the tax notice published shall contain an alphabetical list of owners, together with the amount of taxes delinquent in each case, but that no description of the property shall be inserted. Mr. Montoya, in his letter to the attorney general, stated that under the old law the cost of publishing the tax notices was nominal, but that under the new law he felt the cost of advertising would be a matter of such consequence, and asked for instructions as to computing it. In reply to the Socorro county treasurer Mr. Clancy said:

"So far as I am aware there is nothing in the statutes fixing any method of computation for the cost of advertising to be added to the amount of the delinquent taxes. It seems to me that the only way to get at this will be to have a distinct contract with the publisher of the newspaper as to what his charge will be for every name and the printing of the amount of the amount of the taxes delinquent upon the property. It would certainly be a very small charge as no description of the property is to be inserted."

Fish and Fires.

Forest Service Issues Warning to Fishermen and Campers to Look Out For Fires.

The Forest Service has just issued a card for distribution to campers and fishermen on the National Forests of New Mexico, reminding them of the precautions necessary to prevent the starting of forest fires during the coming season.

Attention is also called to the recent changes in the New Mexico game and fish laws. Under the new laws the open season on trout begins June 1 instead of May 15 as heretofore, and it will be timely for local fishermen who are overhauling their tackle in anticipation of the fishing season to be advised of that fact.

Reply to American Note To Be Met With Firm Restatement of Policy

Administration Ready to Take Any Step Believed Necessary To Protection of Rights of Neutrals

ULTIMATUM TO MEXICO NOT TO BE DELAYED BY CRISIS ON HAND

WASHINGTON, May 31.—President Wilson intends to so shape the course of the United States government in the international crisis which has arisen as to leave no doubt abroad of the country's purpose not only to speak, but if necessary to act, for the cause of humanity.

Two things were practically determined upon by the president today in the solemn atmosphere with which Memorial day enveloped the national capital.

First, that Germany's avoidance of the larger questions of humanity and the spirit of international law by a technical argument on a hitherto undisputed point in the statutes of nations—the exercise in the right of visit and search by war craft when encountering merchantmen, whether carrying contraband or not—must be met promptly with a note again setting forth briefly the facts as found by investigation of officials here as to the cargo and peaceful equipment of the Lusitania and reiterating the earnest intention of the United States to hold the German government to a "strict accountability" for all violations of American rights on the high seas.

PLAIN STATEMENT TO MEXICO.

Second. That notwithstanding the critical situation with Germany, there shall be issued the statement which has been in preparation for several days to be communicated to the leaders of all factions in Mexico, serving notice that unless they themselves bring to an early end the deplorable conditions which their warfare has wrought, some other means will be found by the United States in the interest of humanity to save the millions of non-combatant Mexicans from the throes of starvation and further devastation of property.

Requisition Honored

The governor has honored a requisition for Jack Mangum, in custody at Carrizoso, wanted in Douglas county, Oregon, for forgery, part of an ingenious sewing machine graft. Deputy Ralph Quine is here to get Mangum.

Surveyor Shot And Killed

Brother-in Law is in Jail Charged With Crime; Family Trouble Alleged Cause Of Fatal Pistol Duel.

William L. Taylor, county surveyor of Quay county, was fatally shot about four miles west Jordan, Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arthur Carver, his brother-in-law, is in jail at Tucumcari charged with the shooting. It is alleged that a quarrel over family troubles led to a pistol duel between the two men, Taylor being shot through the stomach, dying while being taken to Jordan, while Carver was shot in the left shoulder. It is said several shots had been fired before neighbors interfered. R. R. Wilson has also been arrested charged with complicity in the affair. It is alleged that Traylor and his wife had been separated for some time.

Must Kill the Animals.

J. H. Nations, the well known stockman, is quoted by an El Paso paper as follows:

"The heavy losses caused by wild animals to the stockmen of the Magdalena section in New Mexico has resulted in the stockmen forming an association. So great have become the losses that the wild animals have become a real menace to the industry. The new association, the organization of which will soon be completed, will arrange for the payment of bounties and in this way it is hoped to have the greater part of the wild animals killed off. There was a large attendance at the meeting and the organization will be a strong one."

CIVILITY.

Don't try to bully the world.
It does not pay. Whoever enters the ring for a rough and tumble fight with public opinion is pretty sure, eventually, to be "kocked out." Society is a Briar, and who would think of encountering with a single pair of fists, a hundred-armed fellow? Better shake the multitudinous hand of the giant, good naturedly, than unnecessarily provoke his wrath. Despise the world if it please you, but as you have to live in the world an to lean on the world, it is just as well to treat it civilly. Shrewd men, who understand their race, never seek a quarrel with society. They understand that it is possible for an individual to lead and quietly control a community, but not to fight it down and not to force it to their way of thinking by means of narrow laws. If you desire to reform supposed or real evils or disabuse your fellow men of their prejudices, the surest way not to succeed is to resort to denunciation and abuse.
Kindness, conciliation and the influence of good example—these are the true and effective means of reform.

FOUR STAGES OF JAG DESCRIBED.

The New Mexican publishes the following in last Friday's issue:

"There are four stages of drunkenness," said Hilarío Ortiz, at a rousing temperance rally in Ward three last night, at Delgado hall, attended by over four hundred voters.

"These stages are: Three to five drinks, liar; six to eight drinks, monkey; eight to ten drinks, ass; ten to fifteen drinks, hog."

It seems that Hilarío Ortiz' experience has made him a master of the subject. His is the voice of authority.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR BOOSTING BELEN.

Don't be the man who put sit in city.

Building good houses builds a good town.

Save a little money and save a lot of worry.

Good roads and good bridges lead not only to town, but to money.

Be a live one and the town will never be a dead one.

Why should the town muzzle dogs and not knockers?

When someone plans to help the town, plan to help the plan.

The best plans a man can have to the future are house plans.

A good way to make the world better is to begin with the home town.

A town is like a perambulator;
it isn't much good unless it is pushed.

Don't spend all your time telling what you could do if you had some time.

Be like a ball player. The thing he is always working for is home.

Be one of the leaders of the town, if you can; but, anyway, keep up.

If you think a cow can't laugh for joy, let somebody sell you a good silo.

Don't be a grouch. Everybody in this town wishes you well, even the doctor.

Let's not be trying to stop something all of the time. Let's start something.

A good town will do more to keep the boys at home than good advice.

A town is like a little girl.
It's wonderful what a little fixing up will do her.

Opportunity knocks once at every man's door; better be at home when the lady calls.

The world owes every man a living, but the street corner is a poor collection agency.

Don't look for soft snaps; the hard snaps are the ones that have the ginger in them.

Don't spend so much time talking war that you haven't time left to talk business.

If you would like to have somebody working for you, put a little money in the bank.

It improves the soup to throw a little pepper into it. Same way with a town.

If you spend all that you earn,
some other fellow is banking your money.

Many a young man goes away to seek his fortune when fortune is seeking for him at home.

Plaster your house and everybody will follow your example. Lath and the world laths with you.

You've got to be a citizen in order to vote; but you've got to do a good deal more than vote to be a citizen.

If you will consider the men in this town who are well off you will find that most of them made their money here.

The big things were not all done in the big towns. The greatest poem in the English language was written in a country churchyard.

There is only one better man than the man who gets behind and pushes, in an effort to improve the town, and that's the man who goes ahead and pulls.

REAL "GOOD FELLOW."

The real "good fellow" is the fellow who knows something good about everybody and tells it. He never knocks on his neighbor or digs up the past.

He always lends a helping hand to the fellow who is up against it and gives him a chance to make good. He never forgets to do and say the little things that make his wife happy. His children find him a jolly chum and an ever-ready playmate.

His home is a haven of love, happiness and contentment.

The "real "good fellow" is the world's greatest asset.—

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Gulfport, Miss.—John Keating, of this place, died the other day and his obituary was published. A barber was called in to shave the corpse. As the razor passed over the man's cheek his eyes opened, his lips parted and he said "Don't cut through the window and is somewhere in Oklahoma by this time. Keating is alive and ing it was found that his hair had changed from a jet black to a fiery red. Physicians say that it will be white in a few months.

New York, N. Y.—It is not generally known that Iceland is one of the few countries in which there is a nation-wide prohibition. And from Iceland comes a story similar to those always heard from dry territory. Mr.

javik, now at the Astor hotel, here, says that the population is using alcohol, which they manufacture themselves, in home made distilleries. There is no way to stop this.

Trenton, N. J.—Chas. Katzea

THE HUMAN TOUCH.

There must be a sensitive touch. A visitor to a manufactory saw a man moulding clay into pots. Noticing that the molding was done by hand, he said to the workman: "Why do you not use a tool to aid you in shaping the clay?" The workman replied: "There is no tool that can do this work. We have tried different ones, but somehow it needs the human touch." And how true it is that in shaping lives for God

To Translate Speech

The speech of Felix Martinez at the University of New Mexico deprecating "hyphenated" race issue talk in the state, has been translated and the state school superintendent will send out copies in both languages with school bulletins all over the state.

New Taxpayers Attention!

Owing to the large number of new taxpayers who are not familiar with the method of paying federal taxes, attention is called to the fact that Collectors of Internal Revenue can accept only cash, certified checks, or money orders. All personal or cashiers checks will be returned for certification.

Terrific Windstorm.

A terrific windstorm that swept over a portion of Colfax county last week blew in one of the walls of the power house at the Yankee coal mining camp, and twisted the smockstacks. Trees were blown down and blocked traffic by falling across the railroad track.

Piutes Breaking Parole;

Palefaces Getting Uneasy.

Farmington, N. M., May 31.—A. H. Spencer, of the Mexican Mat trading post in southern Utah; who is now here on business, reports that the renegade Piutes, who not long ago caused considerable excitement, are violating their parole and are causing much uneasiness among the white people residing in that section. Under the terms of the parole, arranged by General Scott, the Piutes were to remain within their reservation. Instead, according to Mr. Spencer, the Indians are roaming over the country, and are making threats against the white inhabitants. The parole agreement provided that in the event the Piutes left the reservation the state authorities would have the right to return them forcibly, and Mr. Spencer believes that if this is attempted bloodshed will result, with many innocent settlers as victims of the Indians. An appeal is to be made to Washington by the white inhabitants.

San Juan Basin Oil

Company to Resume

Farmington, N. M., May 31.—The San Juan Basin Oil company, in which Judge E. C. Abbott of Santa Fe, is principally interested, will make an effort to resume work shortly in the Meadows district, north of Fruitland. According to information received here Judge Abbott is ready to invest more money in the enterprise, and it is expected to place some of the company's stock here. There are many indications of oil in the Meadows district, and it is said that if drilling can be continued to sufficient depth oil in commercial quantities will be developed.

Over Mountain and Plain

A single telephone connected with no other is about the most useless thing in the world; but connect it with one other and both at once become serviceable.

The more telephones connected together through an exchange, the more valuable is the service of each individual telephone.

Likewise, the service of a telephone exchange having no connection with the exchanges of other communities is of very little value.

To furnish service of the highest efficiency and greatest value every exchange must be connected by Long Distance lines with every other exchange, and every telephone with every other telephone.

These Long Distance lines, in this western country, must necessarily traverse rugged mountains and desert plains—lines expensive to construct and costly to maintain.

In the territory of this company, 82,916 miles of Long Distance lines connect our 367 exchanges and 237,000 telephones.

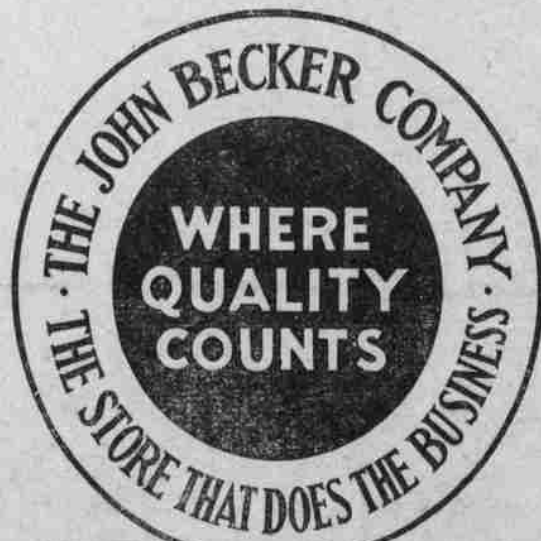

That is what makes possible Universal Service. That is what makes YOUR service valuable.
