Americans are Warned Not to Land in Mexico

Expedition for Protection of Foreigners in Yaqui Valley Might Result in Wholesale Massacre.

WASHINGTON, June 22.

—Admiral Howard sent by wireless to the navy department late today a signed statement presented to him by the Mexican military commandant at Guaymas, suggesting that Americans leave the Yaqui valley, but promising to protect them if they remained or to escort them if they departed. The commandant said a landing of American marines would be likely to cause trouble all along the coast.

The following official statement was made public at the navy department:

Admiral Howard has forwarded to the navy department the following statement presented him by General Leyva, military commandant, Guaymas, Mexico, on board the Colorado yesterday.

"Whereas, when Americans were invited to exploit the Yaqui valley there existed no revolution and adequate garrisons were established along Yaqui valley and Indians were held in subjection, but now, taking all phases into consideration which require unusual demands upon the military, it would appear logical for the few Americans who have remained in Yaqui valley to depart and not place their lives in jeopardy rather than plunge two friendly nations into disagreement.

"However, every guarantee will be given in an endeavor to afford Americans in question ample protection and if emergencies should require them to depart an adequate escort will be furnished them. Fifteen hundred Mexican troops are now available for this protection and General Sosa is now in the valley to command and his officers would understand that a landing would be made under only the protection of American lives, yet the masses might misinterpret the action and thus cause trouble to Americans all along the coast."

Mine Manager Robbed Of Eight Hundred Bones

Lordsburg, N. M., June 22.—Nick Trigear, manager of the National Gold & Silver company's mine near Steins, was held up and robbed of $800 of company money by two Mexicans on the road between the camp and Steins. The Mexicans also took the team that Trigear was driving, and made their escape.

KNOW THY COUNTRY

II—Railroads

In discussing the commercial achievements of this great age, we shall approach the subject as the historian chronicling events. This series will endeavor to record in writing the supremacy of American men and industries in the world's affairs and perpetuate an appreciation of our marvelous industrial achievements by presenting simple facts, figures and comparisons that are overpowering in their convictions.

America holds her proud place among the nations of the earth today on account of her supremacy in transportation facilities. The mighty minds of the age are engaged in the problems of transportation, and the greatest men in the history of the world's commerce are at the head of the transportation systems of the United States.

In the discussion of transportation, let us consider separately our Railways, Telegraph and Telephone, Express, Public Highways, Steamships, Street Railways, Interurban and other forms of transportation, and this article will deal with railways.

The United States has the largest mileage, the best service, the cheapest rates, pays labor the highest wages, and we have the most efficiently managed of the railways of the world. They stand as a monument to the native genius of our marvelous builders, and most of the railroads in foreign countries have been built under American orders.

The railroads represent a larger investment of capital than any other branch of human activity. The mileage in the United States exceeds the accepted distance from the earth to the moon. We had in 1911, the last year in which figures for all countries are available, on the earth's surface, 639,981 miles of railway divided as follows: United States 241,199, Europe 207,432 and other countries 191,350. The United States has 38 per cent of the world's mileage, seven per cent of the estimated population and about five per cent of the area. The total capital invested in the railways of the world is $50,000,000,000, divided as follows: United States $18,000,000,000 Europe $25,650,000,000 and other countries $11,350,000,000. Reduced to a mileage basis the capitalization is as follows: The world $75,000, United States $54,000, Europe $124,000, and other countries $59,000.

A comparison of rates is equally as interesting and the United States takes the lead in economy and service. The average rate per ton per hundred mile haul is as follows: United States 76c, Great Britain $2.53, France $1.44, Germany $1.44, Russia $2c, Austria-Hungary $1.30, Italy $2.30 and Switzerland $2.82.

The average yearly pay of all railroad employees in the principal countries is as follows: United States $767, Germany $392, Italy $345, Austria $322, Great Britain $279, France $240 and Russia $204.

About 30 per cent, or 188,000 miles, of the railways of the world are government owned. About half the railway mileage of Europe is government owned.

A comparison of the economy, in time and money and the convenience in travel, will be made in a later article.

Wagons Replace Mexican Trains

Roads From Mexican Capital Are Reminders of the Prairie Schooner Days

MEXICO, City, Mex., June

7.—Whereas once luxurious Pullman trains with handsomely furnished dining cars and all the luxuries of modern travel left Mexico City for the principal cities of the United States, the roads out of the capital now resemble the American highways in the old frontier days when prairie schooners were the only means of communication. No one can enter or leave the capital now save by wagon or automobile.

The pitiable condition of Mexico City after months of absence of communication by rail, mail and all other means, was made evident today by a circular issued by the British legation. This circular was addressed to 600 foreigners of all nationalities who have been vainly trying to leave the capital for the past few weeks. Among them are 34 Italians who wish to join the colors. Thirteen other nationalities are represented, including 90 Americans.

THE INSTRUCTIONS FOLLOW.

"All passengers are instructed to be at Calle Poncianga Arriaga, in front of the Palacio Legislativo at 4 a. m. The last caravan wagon will leave at 6 a. m. The vehicles will not wait for anyone who is late. Women children and the injured will be carried by train out of the suburbs as far as Tixayuca. No baggage whatsoever will be allowed on the train.

NO FOOD ALONG WAY

"The train party will unite with the wagon train at Tixayuca, whence all will proceed to the place of encampment, where a 'lager' will be formed. No one must count on obtaining any provisions or foodstuffs on the trip. Food and water for at least four days should be carried by each."

The fair on these primitive trains ranges from $100 to $1000 Mexican currency. Even these services have been in existence only a short time.

his own greed—if it is tightened and his newspaper has the favor of the public, the cash drawer will expand with honestly earned receipts."

Citizenship Given Fighting Algerians

Paris, France, June 23.—A bill has been introduced in the senate to confer citizenship upon all native Algerians who have served in the French army.

TRAIN FIRED ON 19 ARE KILLED

Washington, D. C., June 23.—

From Veracruz, Mex., consul Canada reported a train on the narrow gauge line south had been fired on Monday and 19 persons were reported killed. He also reported that the railway from Veracruz to Mexico City had been cut, preventing the leaving of two troop trains.

A consular message from Tampico said George Ogden, presumably an American, had been forced to abandon his ranch at Guerrero. More destitute refugees are gathering at Tampico.

All Red Cross funds for the aid of Mexico have been spent and today officials are asking for more food and money. Twenty thousand persons were reported starving in Guerrero.

How desperate the food situation is, even in Veracruz, is said to be indicated by the case of a talented woman 23 years old, a public school teacher, who was found begging in the streets for food. Another woman, well educated, was peddling soap.

Bound Over for

Assault at Bland

Bernalillo, N. M., June 23.—

Bolidor Ruales, forty years old, a laborer employed at Bland, was bound over to the grand jury here today without bond, charged with an assault upon the fourteen year old daughter of a miner at Bland last Thursday. Ruales was caught after a long chase. It is stated that he has been identified by the child, whose name thus far has been withheld, as the man who assaulted her and left her bound with baling wires. Ruales is married. His family lives at Bland. It was expected he would be taken to the penitentiary at Santa Fe for safe keeping.

German-American

Woman Held as Spy

Urbana, O., June 22.—Anna Hoffman, aged 37, daughter of Mrs. Kate Brimotte of this city, is under arrest in England as a German spy, it became known today when her sister, Mrs. C. E. McFarlan, here, received a letter from Miss Hoffman, asking assistance in securing her release.

The letter said she was being held in Holloway prison, that she had been employed in a hotel in London and that the authorities excuse their action on the grounds she was known to be of German descent. An appeal has been made to Acting Secretary of State Lansing.

— THE BLUE BIRD —

STORY telling is one of the most delightful forms of entertainment, appealing strongly to both old and young.

On Friday night at 8:15 at the School House. Mrs. Julia Sunstegard King will tell the story of "The Blue Bird" the masterpiece of Maeterlinck the Belgian writer.

"The Blue Bird" is bright and sparkling, yet sprinkled here and there with deeper shots. During the rendition of the story Mrs. King impersonates over twenty different characters with such vividness one can almost see them.

Miss Florence Seder of Albuquerque says about Mrs. King's work: "Her rendition of the 'Blue Bird' is markedly sympathetic. She holds old and young spell bound as she gives one strange scene after another. People of every town would do well to co-operate with her in her work."

Children dressed like the leading characters of the play will act as ushers. Local talent will assist with the musical part of the program.

The Sad Tale of a Wedding That Dindn't Take at San Jon

Tucumcari, N. M., June 23.—Miss Vergol Gertrude Height, of San Jon, and Roy Lee Reed, of the same place obtained license to wed here. They proceeded at once to the office of Judge McElroy where the knot was tied and the young folks departed for San Jon to break the news to the bride's parents.

This was the first mistake of their married life, because Mr. Height took exceptions and proceeded to show the young lady that he was still her master. She was taken into custody and Reed was told to "clear out," which he lost no time in doing.

Reed says the girl is eighteen years old and that the marriage was agreeable to her, and that it is only a question of a short time before the parent will be forced to release his wife.

English Farmers May Work War Prisoners

London, Eng., June 23.—The war office has announced to farmers its willingness to allow prisoners of war to be employed on farms near detention camps.

CENSORING ADS

AIDS BUSINESS

Business Manager of a New York Paper Says It Is Duty To Bar Frauds.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 22.—

"The Effect of Advertising Censorship on the Cash Drawer," was considered in remarks by Louis Wiley, business manager of the New York Times, at to-days session of the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. Mr. Wiley protested that he did not like the tone of title assigned to him. "To keep advertising columns clean is not only the duty of self respecting newspaper publishers; it is to his advantage," he said.

"There can be no dispute as to the immorality of printing a fraudulent advertisement. In addition, it is a poor way to build up business. There is no stability about that kind of advertising. Legitimate advertising helps to build up a newspaper. Fraudulent advertising helps to pull it down.

WORKS HARM TO BUSINESS.

"There are many newspapers on a profitable basis which carry objectionable and fraudulent advertising. I know, however, of a number of newspapers now on the rocks which were once prosperous. I attribute their undoing to their lack respect, lack of regard for their own reputations, and their heedlessness in printing unreliable news and advertisements. An honest self respecting newspaper has the most enduring success.

"The sincerity of the newspaper which proclaims its devotion to the public welfare in its editorial columns and sells its advertising columns to quacks and frauds is open to question. There is no doubt whatever that the newspaper which has the greatest value as an advertising medium is the one which declines fraudulent advertisements.

NEWSPAPERS ARE LIKE MEN.

"Newspapers as well as individuals are judged by the company they keep, and a newspaper which keeps its columns absolutely clean is the publication sought by the man who has a worthy product to sell. Such a newspaper does more than lend its circulation to an advertiser. It puts upon the goods he sells the indefinable stamp of honesty. It has already plowed the field he wants to sow.

"There are few editors who will allow a false dispatch or report in their journals. Why should a distinction be drawn with business news which affects the purses of their readers?

"The censorship of advertising can be epitomized by paradox. If it is loosened, the publisher will choke to death on

TAINTED POLITICS

By Peter Radford.

This country is suffering more from tainted politics than from any other malady at the present time. There is scarcely a campaign speech made, a platform demand written or a measure enacted into law that does not carry the taint of personal gain of some politician or political faction thereof.

There is more "blue sky" in campaign promises of many politicians running for office than was ever contained in the prospectuses of the hold-est promoters of chimerical business schemes. There are more secret combinations formed by politicians in the name of "My Country" than were ever formed under any and all other aliases. There are more political rebates hidden in the phrase "Be it enacted" than were ever concealed under any and all other disguises.

The inordinate thirst for political power and unrestrained passion for mastery has caused more distress in this nation than the greed for gold, and it ought to be regulated by law.
No business combination ever pursued their competitors as relentlessly or visited more heartless cruelty upon their customers than a political party that seeks to make junk of an industry, or cripple a business for party success, through tariff measures, political supervision and oftentimes destructive legislation. Many political platforms are as alluring to the voter as the story of the rainbow with its pot of gold and their consummation about as far-fetched. Self-gain is the first law in politics. There are many men in office today who, if they could not shake plums off the tree of American liberty or cut a melon taken from Uncle Sam's commissary, would have less desire to serve the public.

The country is suffering with patriots, who will bare their breast to bullets in defense of their country, but there are few men in public life who will bare their breast to voters or run the gauntlet of party disfavor in defense of agriculture or industry. No representative of the people, who will permit personal prejudices to detract justice, party success to disfranchise reason or the rancor of a political campaign to influence judgment can render capable service.

The preservation of our prosperity depends upon wisdom, courage and honesty in government, and the American voter should seek these attributes as implicitly as the Wise Men followed the Star of Bethlehem and they will often be found to rest over the stable; the plow or the staff of the Shepherd. The surest cure for tainted politics and machine rule is fresh air and sunshine and these important elements are most abundant upon the farm, and when farmers, bankers and merchants are elected to membership in legislative bodies, much of the trouble in government will disappear.

WATERED SECURITIES

By Peter Radford.

Much has been said and more written about the evils of watered stock in big business concerns and the farmers of this nation believe that every dollar written into the life of any business organization, should be able to say "I know that my Redeemer liveth," but farming is the biggest business on earth, and there is more water in its financial transaction than that of any other industry. There is as much water in a farmer's note drawing eight or ten per cent interest when other lines of industry secure money for four or five per cent per annum, as there is in a business paying a reasonable compensation upon the face value of securities representing an investment of only fifty cents on the dollar. The only difference is, the water is in the interest rate in one instance and in the securities in the other.

The promoter oftentimes takes chances and his success is contingent upon the development of the property involved but the usurer, as a rule, takes no chances and his success cripples the property involved. There may be industries that cry louder but none that suffer more severely from financial immorality in both law and custom than that of agriculture.

The farmers of America today are paying $200,000,000 per annum in usury on real estate and chattel loans, and this interest capitalized at five per cent, represents $4,000,000, 000 of fictitious values which the farmer is paying interest on. This sum of money is almost equal to the annual value of crops produced in the United States.

The earning power of the farmer's note based upon his interest rate very nearly divides like the earth's surface—three-fourths water and one-fourth land. The largest body of water that floats upon the financial hemisphere now rests upon the farms and its waves are dashing and its billows are rolling against seven million homes threatening ruin and disaster to the prosperity of the nation.
Will our public servants who understand how to drain the liquid of industrial properties turn the faucet and let the water off the farms?

It is an admitted economic fact that there can be no permanent prosperity without a permanent agriculture.

Agriculture is recognized as the greatest of all industries and a prosperous, progressive and enlightened agricultural population is the surest safeguard of civilization.

WHY IS WOMAN RESTLESS?

DESTINY OF NATIONS DEPENDS UPON CONTENTED HOMES.

By W. D. Lewis.
President Texas Farmers' Union.
Why is woman dissatisfied? Why does she grow restless under the crown of womanhood? Why is she weary of the God-given jewel of motherhood? Is it not a sufficient political achievement for woman that future rulers nurse at her breast, laugh in her arms and kneel at her feet? Can ambition leap to more glorious heights than to sing lullabies to the world's greatest geniuses, chant melodies to master minds and rock the cradle of human destiny?
God pity our country when the hand-shake of the politician is more gratifying to woman's heart than the patter of children's feet.

Woman is Ruler Over All.
Why does woman chafe under restraint of sex? Why revile the hand of nature? Why discard the skirts that civilization has clung to since the beginning of time? Why lay aside this hallowed garment that has wiped the tears of sorrow from the face of childhood? In its sacred embrace every generation has hidden its face in shame; clinging to its motherly folds, tottering children have learned to play hide and seek and from it youth learned to reverence and respect womanhood. Can man think of his mother without this consecrated garment?

Why this inordinate thirst for power? Is not woman all powerful? Man cannot enter this world without her consent, he cannot remain in peace without her blessing and unless she sheds tears of regret over his departure, he has lived in vain. Why this longing for civic power when God has made her ruler over all? Why crave authority when man bows down and worships her? Man has given woman his heart, his name and his money. What more does she want?
Can man find it in his heart to look with pride upon the statement that his honorable mother-in-law was one of the most powerful political bosses in the country, that his distinguished grandmother was one of the ablest filibusters in the Senate or that his mother was a noted warrior and her name a terror to the enemy? Whither are we drifting and where will we land?

God Save Us From a Hen-Pecked Nation.

I follow the plow for a living and my views may have in them the smell of the soil; my hair is turning white under the frost of many winters and perhaps I am a little old-fashioned, but I believe there is more moral influence in the dress of woman than in all the statute books of the land. As an agency for morality, I wouldn't give my good old mother's homemade gowns for all the suffragette's constitutions and by-laws in the world. As a power for purifying society, I wouldn't give one prayer of my saintly mother for all the women's votes in Christendom. As an agency for good government, I wouldn't give the plea of a mother's heart for righteousness for all the oaths of office in the land. There is more power in the smile of woman than in an act of congress. There are greater possibilities for good government in her family of laughing children than in the cabinet of the president of the United States.

The destiny of this nation lies in the home and not in the legislative halls. The hearthstone and the family Bible will ever remain the source of our inspiration and the Acts of the Apostles will ever shine brighter than the acts of Congress.

This country is law-mad. Why add to a statute book, already groaning under its own weight, the hysterical cry of woman? If we never had a chance to vote again in a lifetime and did not pass another law in twenty-five years, we could survive the ordeal, but without home, civilization would wither and die.

God save these United States from becoming a hen-pecked nation; help us keep sissies out of Congress and forbid that women become step-fathers to government, is the prayer of the farmers of this country.

A DIVINE COVENANT.

God Almighty gave Eve to Adam with the pledge that she would be his helpmeet and with this order of companionship, civilization has towered to its greatest heights. In this relationship, God has blessed woman and man has honored her and after four thousand years of progress, she now proposes to provoke God to decoy man by asking for suffrage, thereby by amending an agreement to which she was not a party.

Woman, remember that the Israelite scorned a divine covenant, and as a result wandered forty years in the wilderness without God. Likewise man should remember that it is a dangerous thing to debauch woman by law. Rome tried lowering woman's standard and an outraged civilization tore the clothes off the backs of the human race and turned them out to roam in the world naked and unashamed.

Lansing Still Leads For Secretaryship

American Fined on Charge of Selling Stamps in Juarez

J. R. Kerr, who has been under arrest in Juarez since last Saturday night, was fined 100 pesos in the federal court in that city on the charge of selling stamps without having a permit. It has always been the custom of curio dealers in Juarez to sell stamps to their customers, but about a year or so ago an order was issued against selling such stamps and the dealers have since been selling their postal cards and giving away stamps with the cards. Last Saturday Mr. Kerr was arrested shortly after making a sale of some stamped cards to two tourists. He was not locked up, but was detained in the office of the detectives that night. Later he was released on his own recognizance and afterwards fined and told that a law was in effect forbidding the sale or distribution of stamps in any manner except by those having a special permit from the postoffice. Mr. Kerr did not know of this order. Mr. Kerr is an American citizen.
