
Table of Contents

- 1 Front Matter
- 3 Table of Contents
- 4 Introduction
Hemisphere Vol. XIV Editors
- 5 The Holder and the Holdings: Identity Dynamics and Tobacco Consumption in Juan Rodríguez Juárez’s *Dama con rebozo
María Carrillo Marquina, Ph.D. Student, Tulane University.
- 24 Staging the Modern Woman: Antonieta Rivas Mercado, María Izquierdo, and Performance’s Double Life in the Contemporáneos Orbit
Joseph Shaikewitz, Ph.D. Student, New York University
- 41 “Who Is Eating Whom?”: Wet Nursing and White Cannibalism in Brazil
Grace Sparapani, Ph.D. Candidate, University of Texas.
- 57 *ecofeminism(s): A Closer Look at Ana Mendieta’s Bacayu (Light of Day) Catriona Reid, MA, Art History, York University
- 73 Artist Spotlight
Ranran Fan, MFA, and Eleanor Kane, Ph.D. Candidate, University of New Mexico
- 79 (Review) A New Exhibit Deconstructs the Myth of Malinche
Alana Coates, Ph.D. Student, University of New Mexico.
- 94 Digital Humanities, Women Artists, and Chicanx Graphics: An Interview with Claudia Zapata, Ph.D.
Eleanor Kane, Ph.D. Candidate, University of New Mexico