Push This Town Along

A Town Development Article
Written Expressly For This Paper.

(By Major F. W. Barber)

What this town needs is a good strong push to the front—a push with everybody doing the pushing, and every push pregnant with results.

But how can such be accomplished?

Easy enough, brother.

There is no such thing as "can't" when you really want to do a thing—provided, of course, you are a practical man and not dreaming of wild impossibilities.

But a steady and healthy forward movement for your town is not only possible, but is easy of accomplishment WHEN THE PEOPLE GET TOGETHER AND WORK TOGETHER.

If left for one or two men to do, it will not be done, and the town will stagger along in the same old rut for years to come.

But if every citizen will just realize that advancement and improvement means MORE MONEY FOR HIM, and will go to work with his neighbors to make that advancement and improvement a reality, IT WILL BE DONE AND YOU WILL GET OUT OF THE RUT AND ONTO THE HIGH GROUND OF INCREASED PROSPERITY.

You need a civic organization composed of something besides dry bones—an organization with life in it and red blood in its members—an organization that will do something besides smoke cigars and swap jokes—one that will get right down to brass tacks AND DO SOMETHING AND KEEP ON DOING MORE SOMETHINGS.

People who have been emulating the mule and pulling in the wrong direction should wake up for once in their lives and compel themselves to realize that property in or adjacent to a PROSPEROUS and GROWING town is far more valuable than property in a DEAD community.

Throw off that wild and frantic fear of taxation and remember that when a few cents are added to your taxes the value of your holdings is increased by many dollars.

Try to imbibe the idea that this is an age of PROGRESS and ACCOMPLISHMENT and BIG THINGS.

Keep in mind the fact that the LOYAL CITIZEN looks a few inches beyond his own pocket-book of to-day and considers the welfare of the WHOLE COMMUNITY, realizing to the fullest extent that what is of benefit to ALL OF THE PEOPLE must of necessity be of LIKE BENEFIT TO HIM.

Stop listening to the croaker who continually paints the picture of ruin and overburdensome taxation. As long as you give heed to him his tongue will wag, and every wag means a jab at the future of your town.

If you can't convert him to the sane ways of progressiveness, just forget him. Let him go out in the woods and rave to his heart's content. The birds may hear him, but they will give him a wide berth. Be as wise as the birds.

Get your people together and form that civic organization, with every progressive man and woman in town as members.

Then let each one give CAREFUL THOUGHT to the natural advantages of the town, what it needs, what is best for it, what

NEW INDUSTRIES would thrive in your midst and HOW BEST TO GET THEM, and what the people of the town themselves can do toward DEVELOPING INDUSTRIES OF THEIR OWN.

AS THE EDITOR SEES IT

The winter months will be along soon now and the farmer will be wondering what he can do to while away the evening hours. And right here the editor wants to throw out a suggestion that means both pleasure and profit. Arrange to have a meeting at one of your school houses or other public places at least one evening a month, at which you can all compare notes on the season's work, note the mistakes that have been made and devise the best methods of correcting them the coming year. You can not get a dozen farmers together but what some one of them will have something to say of value to you, something that perhaps you have not known before, something that will make work lighter and profits greater in future years. The social features alone of such meetings would drive away the monotony of the winter evenings, and from a practical standpoint they would be of great value to every one who participates. Get together, gentlemen, and compare notes. What is good for one is of equal benefit to all.

The farmer is the backbone of this town—in fact, he is the mainstay of the nation. We can not place too much emphasis upon this fact. As the American farmer prospers, so it is with the country in general, and so will it always be. If the farmer has a bad year, then the stores, and the shops, and the business community as a whole suffers. Everybody feels the pinch of a close season. That's one of the reasons why we of the town should work in harmony with the farmer for a better and more prosperous community. As he encourages us with his patronage and his cheerful smile when he comes to us, so should we return courtesy for courtesy by giving him the best that is in us, and by fostering a feeling of brotherly love and comradeship. It will not hurt the farmer, it will not harm us, and it will do all of us a world of good.

A city dude once drove up to a country store and stopped gingerly from his expensive limousine with eye glasses dangling at the front of his immaculate vest. At the same time a farmer drove up in his Ford and stepped leisurely to the pavement. The dude glanced at the farmer with a supercilious stare and stalked haughtily into the store. The farmer merely grinned and turned around to greet his friend the banker. The dude was on salary and living right up to his means. The farmer had mortgages plastered on property all over the territory, had money to burn in the bank, and owned a great farm that insured his independence for the rest of his days and a comfortable fortune for his family at his death. Which of the two was the better man? Of course not all city people are duds or idiots, and not all farmers are rich. But you see this same little comedy enacted in every town where automobiles find their way in the summer months. At least it is worth a passing thought.

And that reminds us that if we can just get every farmer in this community to realize the financial advisability of tying to this town in his commercial dealings it will be a practical step in advance for the future of the whole community, town and country both. It will enable us to have better stores, and shops, and other business enterprises, and will inject new life into everything and everybody. It will increase the value of the farms and the town property, and will make life easier and more attractive in every way. It will go far toward preventing our young manhood from straying away from the safety and prosperity of the farms and into the pitfalls and misery of a hand to mouth existence in some great city. It will enable them to grow to strong and virile manhood on the farm, while nine out of every ten in the great cities become but an atom among countless other atoms. Many farmers are as loyal to home institutions as it is possible for human beings to be, but with others there is room for conversion to the wisdom of feeding the mouths that feed them.

Mr. John Becker has commenced the construction on Becker Ave., a substantial carpenter shop 35 55 feet of adobe with cement foundations. That hustling contractor, Floyd Moore is doing the work.

Wednesday night of last week while attempting to board a train at the depot while in motion, W. L. Jackson, of Scholle, was thrown and part of a foot cut off. Dr. Wilkinson amputated the member near the ankle.

The Belen Cleaning Works have made arrangement to install a Laundry in the same building and in connection with their department. Prices are reasonable and work guaranteed in both departments.

State Fair Notes.

Albuquerque, N. M. Sept.—The big amusement features of the next state fair will surpass in magnitude and excellence anything that has ever been known in this section of the country. While the fair is based primarily on the development of the resources of every county in the state, the management has not lost sight of the fact that the people want to be entertained, and there will not be a dull moment for visitor from early Monday morning until the lights are put out Saturday night.

In the first place, there will be eight bands, all of them of high caliber and several of them of national reputation. What it means to have the bands playing all the time—what a spirit of enthusiasm and merriment it puts into the minds and hearts of the crowd, only those who have experienced the sensation can appreciate. But the bands will not be the only or greatest of the fair. The shows at the grounds, and especially the night shows, will hold the rapt attention of the thousands of visitors to the fair and beyond all doubt will be the greatest drawing card ever presented to the New Mexico public.

No better horse racing has ever been seen in the west than that which will take place on the track at Traction park. So great was the interest showing the race program among the big horsemen at the Colorado fair that the first thing Secretary Wiley found it necessary to do on his return from Wubele after visiting that fair was to increase the stable facilities originally provided, which were larger than any that had been deemed necessary at any previous fair. At night an elaborate fireworks display will be shown; there will be sworn dancing, an illuminated horse show, interpretations of modern dancing, an illuminated balloon ascension and parachute drop, the big midway attractions, a society vaudeville and all the other sensations that go to give real thrills to a pleasure-loving crowd.

Interest in marksmanship has been given a decided impetus by the announcement that a state shoot will be held in Albuquerque during the fair, during which prizes will be given for individual, club and team championship competitions. There are nineteen rifle clubs in New Mexico, including in their membership some of the best shots in the United States, and it is the intention at the time of holding this shoot to form a state organization of rifle clubs that will give matches at stated times at dif-

BUSBY'S TENT

WAS CROWDED

The World's Greatest Minstrel show, under the management of J. M. Busby, had a crowded tent at their performance in this city last night, and judging from the applause they pleased the people immensely. Regular old negro melodies pleases nearly everybody once or twice a year in this part of the country, and these darkies certainly were the genuine, both with their singing and their dancing. Their jokes and songs were clean in tone and theme.—Neodesha Daily Sun.

MINSTRELS MAKE GOOD.

J. M. Busby's Minstrels played to a crowded tent last night. They were by far the finest minstrel troupe that ever visited our city under canvas. Anyone who likes minstrel shows could not help but be pleased at their singing and dancing, which was greeted with round after round of applause. The show is new, clean and up to date, replete with new songs, and certainly deserves the excellent patronage which it received.—Alva Daily News.

ferent points in the state. All who are interested in rifle shooting should write to H. C. Miller, box 650, Albuquerque, who is the secretary in charge of the shoot.

The boys' and girls' club, under the direction of J. H. Toulouse, has assumed such proportions that it was found necessary to call Mr. Toulouse in from his canvassing trip, as there was danger that a larger crowd would be present than it would be possible to accommodate. There will be at least two hundred boys and girls at this encampment, representing nearly every county in the state. Lectures will be given them by members of the faculty of the agricultural college and by a representative of the United States Department of agricultural and everything possible will be done for their instruction and entertainment while they are in Albuquerque.

BANKERS AND FARMERS

Bankers are trying to get in closer touch with the farmer, and their efforts are bound to produce results profitable to both. This paper, again and again, has urged a closer cooperation between banker and farmer, and the cry has been echoed all over the country. The Missouri Bankers' Association is making a first definite step in cooperating with the state board of agriculture and other organizations to organize rural associations in every county in the state for the purpose of working up sentiment for good roads, farm advisers, better schools and more scientific methods of agriculture. Men will represent the bankers' association in each county, and will be charged with the duty of organizing the county associations. The state board of agriculture then steps in, and will send speakers and workers to aid. The railroads will also lend assistance. The new movement is the dawn of the era of rock roads and the death knell of the little backwoods schoolhouse on the hill.

THE EDITOR EXPLAINS.

The Canera, S. D. Herald
was approached recently by anti-prohibitionists for advertising rates to present the "wet" side of the state-wide prohibition fight in South. The letter asking for rates stated that the proposition was a clean-cut business one—not intended as a subsidy—“the only purpose being to prove that prohibition
does not meet the expected end and will not be expedient.” The letter added: “The policy of your paper on the prohibition question will not involve a consideration. You are offered this business irrespective whether your paper is for or against prohibition.” The editor of The Herald,—which is a prohibition paper, accepted the business on the grounds that advertising
was the paper's “stock in trade,”
and “for sale for the use of any legitimate business enterprise.” “We want to be fair to both friend and foe,” said the editor,

“and we don't believe it will hurt the public to have both sides of the question presented.
It should enable us to cast a more intelligent ballot.” Thus
The Herald will carry “wet”
arguments in its advertising columns and, editorially, will support the “dry” cause. Agitation always produces beneficial results, but suppression of facts may cause great harm. The editor of The Herald is honest
in his espousal of the “dry” cause, and, at the same time, he is big enough to allow his opponents a place in the forum.

Belen, N. M.

(After "Hiawatha.")

But he heeded not nor heard them
For his thoughts were soaring elsewhere,
Wandering amid the jungle
Of delirious legislation.

Pondering many weighty questions,
Long he waited for a hearing;
Waited long for recognition.
Then he introduced a measure
Making everything illegal;
Sought to place a ban on treating;
Sought to do away with hat-pins;
Introduced a bill forbidding
Anyone to use the "makings;"
Boys from playing ball on Sunday,
Bands from giving Sunday concerts,
Folks from fishing on the Sabbath;
Women folks from wearing feathers;
Regulating the free lunches,
And the ladies' bathing costumes.

Having introduced these measures,
Long he rested on his laurels;
Thought himself the great Reformer,
Thought himself a great Joy-killer,
And, returning to his village,
Planned a banquet in his honor.

The Ladies' Aid

We are a jolly industrious crew
Looking for the goods that we may do.
We feed the hungry, care for the ill,
Each trying to do the good Lord's Will.

And to do His work, a mite we each must give,
To help his poor children to live.
Sometimes it is only a pleasant smile they need,
And sometimes there is homeless orphans to feed.

And each, sew, stew and bake,
For pennies, for the good Lord's sake,
Cake, and Ice Cream we sell,
And other GOOD things too numerous to tell.

And won't you join? And give a helping hand,
It will lighten the burden of our little band.
Who are this working, tried and true,
Looking for the good we way do.

The Santa Fe is the most comfortable summer route to California. All roads cross the western desert country, but the Santa Fe crosses it at its narrowest point. Annoyance of dust and smoke is prevented by oil-sprinkled road-bed and oil-burning engines. Sleepers and chair cars on through California trains are equipped with patent ventilators.
