ENGINEER MILLER HERE

Will Inspect Sand Road—Mr. Pratt in Santa Fe as Committee of Commercial Club

MUCH ACTIVITY IN ROAD MATTER

A committee consisting of C. H. McLenathen, R. M. Thorne and M. S. Groves visited the sand road last Friday as a committee of the Commercial club, for the purpose of inspecting the road and making a report to the club.

The report is a concise and accurate statement of the progress of the work and recites that about three miles of the work is done in good shape and that about $4,000 have been spent, $1,000 of it donated by citizens of Carlsbad, $1,000 by Eddy county and $2,000 by the territory. Previous to this $900 had been spent by the citizens of Carlsbad and Eddy county. It was estimated that $2,000 additional would be required to finish the road and after the report was considered by the club it was decided to send a committee to Santa Fe to present the report to and take the matter up with the good roads commission and A. N. Pratt was elected to go as such a committee. Mr. Pratt left Wednesday and on the success of his mission depends whether any more work will be done on the road this season, for there is no more cash in the road funds of Eddy county to go ahead with the work. It was found that half the sand road is in district No. 2 and future funds of the county will be appropriated equally for this road from each of the districts Nos. 1 and 2.

Last night quite a surprise was occasioned by the arrival of Territorial Engineer Miller who came to inspect the sand road and as he is one of the three members of the good roads commission it will be impossible for Mr. Pratt to get a meeting of the full board and he will therefore probably wait for the arrival of the territorial engineer who with Howard Kerr and C. H. McLenathen left in an auto this morning to inspect the road. Mr. Miller, the territorial engineer is an energetic young man who appears to be engrossed entirely with the duties of his office. When asked why he did not go to Albuquerque to see Roosevelt he said: "I stood in a big crowd in El Paso and heard the ex-president speak and would like very much to have heard him again, but business was here and here I am. A bevy of citizens made the acquaintance of Mr. Miller last night at the club rooms and made plans to convey him to the scene of operations today."

Fortunatus on the Revolution.

Brother Porfirio Diaz has awakened to the realization that there is war going on somewhere in his neighborhood, and is accordingly awfully angry with those impudent upstarts Madero, Orozco y compadres, who have had the temerity to start or instigate the trouble. Further, Porfirio has an idea or scheme. He has issued an edict or order to the effect that all such gentry caught red handed, off handed, full handed or empty handed; which is to say, with or without the goods, guilty or not guilty, be hung as high as Haman until dead, and that the remainder, who do not desist, subside or stop their foolishness, shall have the everlasting sugar shot out of them forthwith. Funny he didn't think of that some time ago. The great trouble with Porfirio is that he has so often proffered us, all unsolicited, profuse promises that he was going to put down the "alleged" insurrection, rebellion or uprising instantly and have the alleged insurgents eating sugar from his hand, that we are becoming somewhat skeptical as to his ability or competency in this direction. In other words, and to be perfectly frank, it appears to a casual observer, or man up a tree, that friend Porfirio had matched a large or man's size job, that he is not up to specified requirements, mentally or physically, to cope with it, and that he is in need of some help or assistance in extricating or getting himself out.

Costs Nothing if It Fails.

We want you to try three large bottles of Rexall Hair Tonic on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy, and it should indubitably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "Hair Tonic" will grow hair on bald heads, except where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "Hair Tonic," and we have the right to assume that what it has done for thousands of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. VALUE OF ROAD KEEPERS.

Rational Plan For Repairing Highways at Little Cost.

Several states in the United States have spent millions of dollars in building improved roads. All states spend vast sums every year in road making and repairing. And it is strange, but true, that a large proportion of all this money is wasted. Improved roads, built at great cost, are systematically left alone until they become bad again when there is a howl about the repair bill. Ordinary roads are fixed up once a year and then neglected until the annual repairing is due. The rational plan of having road keepers to take care of the roads all the time does not seem to have found favor anywhere in the United States, though it has been in successful operation abroad.

AN IMPROVED MAC DAM ROAD.

A little work at the right time will save a lot of it later on almost any road, yet we continue to follow the wasteful plan of waiting till the bill grows bigger. On all our improved roads men should be kept constantly at work, and the same is true of most ordinary dirt roads. A couple of men and a team can care for quite a stretch of road and do it cheaper than the same road can be kept in repair by a spasmodic effort, often made by those who know little about roads.—National Stockman and Farmer.

Oyster Shell Roman Road.

Many people have wondered what becomes of pins and needles and oyster shells. The Roman settlers seem to have used them to advantage, for the streets of the ancient Verulamium, by St. Albans, England, which is to be further excavated, are paved with oyster shells, which seems to indicate good taste and economy on the part of the Englishman's predecessors.

Tobacco Stems For Fertilizer.

Tobacco stems are sometimes sold as a fertilizer. If comparatively dry they contain something over per cent of nitrogen, a trace of phosphoric acid and 5 or 6 per cent of potash. They usually retail around $14 a ton and are well worth the money.—American Agriculturist.

Advice to Corn Growers.

Unless there is an experienced and successful corn breeder in a vicinity who makes a specialty of giving first class seed corn every farm had better make his own selection from his own field or from the best fields of neighboring farms.

EDDY COUNTY TEACHERS

Meeting Last Saturday one of Most Pleasant and Successful in the County.

BANQUET AT LEGAL TENDER

The Eddy County Teachers' Association held last Saturday in Carlsbad at the high school building was one of the most successful meetings the association has yet held. The program was interesting from beginning to end. Our space is not sufficient to give full accounts of all papers presented, but papers and addresses of special merit were delivered by Supt. Kaiser, Judge Grantham, Mrs. Howard, Mr. Palmore, Mr. Hatfield, Mr. Boyd, Supt. Bishop, Mr. Broughton, Dr. Light and others.

The association was fortunate in having Dr. Light, of Silver City, present at all sessions.

The Carlsbad teachers received many compliments on their exhibit at the central building which was visited in a body by the association. The visiting teachers were well entertained. At first it was understood that the visitors would come Friday and the local teachers immediately began a campaign to procure free rooms for all visitors. The rooms were promised but later on it was learned that the visitors would come Saturday morning. The Carlsbad teachers and citizens with Supts. Poore and Kaiser then decided to give a free dinner to all the teachers

Hoy, W. S. Hicks, W. L. Bishop, Gay Jackson, Bernice Adams, Artesia, Mary Ellen Horrall, E. L. Brewer, Hope, F. M. Hatfield, Malaga, H. G. Howard, Mrs. H. G. Howard, Dayton, Mr. Palmore, Loving.

The resolutions of the Assn. will be published next week. It was decided that the summer Normal would be held at Carlsbad.

School Notes

In the future pupils will march from the grade building to the High School building on general assembly days. Every effort is being made to improve general discipline. Experience shows that in this way room discipline is materially helped.

A special attempt is to be made during the last weeks of the term to improve attendance. The Superintendent has offered a quarter holiday to that room making the highest per cent of attendance during the month.

Attention is called to the general report of the schools in this paper for the month ending Feb. 24. In the future these reports will be published monthly.

It has been decided to hold a field day in which all the grades will take part. The date has been placed at about six weeks from now. Next week particulars will be published.

The teachers are gratified at the support they received from the patrons and citizens of Carlsbad in their attempt to provide

Insurrectos May Get Homes and Pensions

Besides liberty, the Mexican insurrectos are fighting for other things. It develops through correspondents from insurrecto sources, that each insurrecto soldier is being promised a homestead and a pension in case of victory of the cause.

The promise to the fighting men is that all the large landed estates will be confiscated and divided into homesteads and that each man who serves under the leadership of Madero and his army commanders, will be included in a general pension law to be enacted at the close of the war if they are victorious, similar to the pension statute of the United States at present, only more liberal regarding beneficiaries. Cantaloupes

Farmers contemplating to raise cantaloupes in the valley this year are requested to call at Current office and give the number of acres they intend to plant. Cantaloupes are one of the best paying crops in this valley, yielding from $200 to $300 an acre. It is to be regretted that farmers became discouraged last year by a fake company. This year the dealings will be with Crutchfield & Woolfolk, of Chicago, for whose liability and integrity the Current two weeks ago published several testimonials from trustworthy people who had business relations with that firm.

The House by the Side of the Road

(He was a friend to man, and lived in a house by the side of the road.—Homer.)

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn

In the peace of their self content;

There are souls, like stars, that dwell apart,

In a fellowless firmament;

There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths

Where the highways never ran:

But let me live by side of the road

And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a home by the side of the road.

Where the race of men go by--

The men who are good and the men who are bad,

As good and as bad as I.

I would not sit in the scorners seat,

Or hurl the cynic's ban;

Let me live in a house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road

By the side of the highway of life.

The men who press with the ardor of hope,

The men who are faint with strife.

But I turn not away from their smiles nor their tears--

Both are parts of an infinite plan;

Let me live in a house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

I know there are brook-gladdened meadows ahead,

And mountains of wearisome height;

That the road passes on thro the long afternoon,

And stretches away to the night.

But still I rejoice when the travellers rejoice,

And weep with the strangers that man.

Nor live in my house by the side of the road

Like a man who dwells alone,

Let me live in my house by the side of the road,

where the race of men go by--

They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,

Wise, foolish--so am I.

Then why should I sit in the scorners seat?

Or hurl the cynic's ban?

Let me live in my house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY $1.50 per annum

Carlsbad, N. M., Friday, May 17 1911

Carlsbad Current established November 15, 1906. New Mexico Sun established May 12, 1906. The two papers consolidated October 11, 1907.

Official Paper of Eddy County.

Those Americans who go to Mexico for plunder and in hopes of coming out on top in the revolution will hereafter take their life in their hands, for the Mexican government has issued an order to shoot any one, either American or Mexican, that is even caught in the act of even throwing a stone at a train. The order includes pulling spikes to wreck trains, robbing banks and plundering farms for grain, feed, horses, etc. Americans who join the insurgents really deserve no sympathy, for in nine cases out of ten they are there for plunder pure and simple. The following from the Mexican Herald shows the general sentiment among good people concerning the plunder and place seekers from the United States: "Good Americans in Mexico who are good friends of this country, have no sympathy for the so-called soldiers of fortune from the other side of the Rio Grande. When they take up arms against a friendly nation they forfeit their right to the protection of their own country. Too often when they become soldiers of misfortune, they would fall back upon the strong arm of Uncle Sam to help them out of trouble. There is no justification for such an appeal and Americans in the United States and Mexico alike want to see exactly the same measure of justice and punishment meted out to the American filibuster as to the Mexican rebel."

The following from the Monday Roswell Record shows that the boosters of that place are still after Uncle Sam for more money and are liable to get it. It would seem that the means to cement the ditch under the Carlsbad Project were impossible to secure, though the object is more worthy: "W. C. Reid returned Sunday night from Washington, D. C., where he went as legal representative of the Rio Hondo Reservoir Water User's Association in the matter of getting the loan of funds to the loan of funds to the amount of $60,000 from the U. S. Reclamation Service for the construction of the cemented canal that is to save the normal flow of the Hondo river where it seeps and is lost above the reservoir. Mr. Reid succeeded in getting a favorable consideration of the Hondo's case from the officers of the Reclamation Service, the Secretary of the Interior and the Attorney General on the adjudication of the water rights of the Hondo and the matter of making the loan. Points ascertained by Mr. Reid about the proposition are that the money must be paid back within four years and the water users must give ample security for the loan satisfactory to the government. There will probably be no interest. The proposition must come from the water users to the Reclamation Service. The proposition as it has been discussed by the local owners and as told by Mr. Reid was acceptable to the officials. The matter is now up to the water users. President Wm. Atkinson has called a meeting of the directors to be held Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of calling a stock holder's meeting at which the matter of taking up the proposition will be decided. Mr. Reid stopped in Chicago, also where he made final arrangements for the loan of between $60,000 and $75,000 to the people of Hope for the cementing of their canal. This loan had already been negotiated by Robert Kellahin. While in Washington Mr. Reid submitted to the Supreme Court of the United States against Adamson, which was appealed from the Supreme Court of New Mexico after coming from Otero county. He had been previously at Santa Fe at Territorial Supreme Court."

Some papers are inclined to censure Diaz for putting in force a mild form of martial law when he orders the execution of train wreckers and other plunder seekers from the United States, but these same papers find no fault with the laws of New Mexico and Arizona providing that train robbers be hung when caught. The inconsistency of some people is startling.

The Fireman's band practiced in public Friday night, in the band stand on the court house lawn. Practically everyone of any great importance, including this writer, turned out to applaud and show the boys their appreciation. They deserve it, for there is not a better organization of the kind in the territory.

Congress will meet in special session April, 4.

Today is St. Patrick's day, celebrated to commemorate the death of the Saint who converted Ireland from paganism to Christianity, and who died March 17, 493, at Armagh, Ireland, at the age of 120. He was sent as a missionary to Ireland by Pope Celestine in 432 where he founded 360 churches and baptized with his own hands more than 12,000 persons and ordained a great number of priests. Previous to the breaking away from the church and for many years after, Protestants used the name of Patrick in their families, but of late years scarcely any but the people of Irish extraction are named after the great saint.

Now, it would seem that there is danger of strained relations between the United States and Mexico because the latter refuses to give up the young Americans who are charged with high crimes by Mexico and whom it is alleged were arrested on American soil in or near El Paso. If the United States is silly enough to break with Mexico on account of a couple of hair brained hoodlums we may expect to get war aplenty, for Germany is only looking for an excuse for war on account of the Monroe doctrine, which stands for the principle that no foreign power shall acquire territory on the Western hemisphere. After we have taken the Philippines this doctrine does not look good to Europe and especially Germany. So if we get into a mix-up with Mexico we may shortly be compelled to figure with Germany. Then some will say France may take a hand and then Russia must be counted to help Uncle Sam and where the mess will stop no one knows. It would seem that the advice of Washington is to be ignored and the whole world plunged into war if the hot heads are allowed to dominate. War is to be deplored and only the most just and sensible course should be pursued when there is so expensive a luxury as a war in the balance.

The Hope Press contains the following very sensible talk to local merchants which applies as well to Carlsbad:

We are tempted to speak a word to our merchants. We do it only with the best intentions. We are thankful that you have placed your "ad" in our columns. Our many wide awake readers will see it and they will read it. If the merchants wish to keep trade at home, they must of course, let the public know what goods and what inducements they offer. The great merchants of our larger cities, are constantly advertising at an enormous expense, but it pays them; and it was by shrewd advertising that they became so successful. They cannot afford to stop or else they would. Our merchants can't afford to stop advertising in their local paper. Advertising pays. Even if you have no competition.

Farmers and others who live at a distance from a drug store should keep in the house a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It may be needed at any time for cuts, wounds, sores, sprains or rheumatism. It is a powerful healing and penetrating remedy. Price 25, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Eddy Drug Co.

Anyone owing this paper is requested to call and pay up at once. Anyone not owing this paper is requested to call and subscribe and begin owing us at once. Anyone we are owing is requested to subscribe for this paper in advance to the full amount of the debt—and pay another year in advance in cash. Anyone who is not owing us, and will not do so, is requested to move to North Dakota and make room for one who will.—Ex.

The issuing of a special edition describing the Carlsbad Project and the town of Carlsbad, from the office of the Current, is an event that we shall await with more than ordinary interest. The Current has the equipment to turn out something extra nice and the lower valley is certainly a fertile field for the descriptive writer. The edition will pay dividends, if not to the publisher at least to the public.—Artesia News.

The above coming from the News is simply a plain statement of facts.

The Mexican insurrectionists are assured an unlimited supply of ammunition. Jack London the novelist, is reported to have joined their forces well supplied with all kinds of magazine articles.—Albuquerque Journal.

Try Peppers For Profit.

Peppers may be easily grown in all parts of the country, and market prices are generally quite good. Foreigners consume them in large quantities, and Americans are using them more extensively than a few years ago.

Keep the Cattle Warm.

A roll of building paper and some laths rightly applied will reduce the feed bill because it is easier to keep the cattle warm by shutting off the cold drafts than to keep them warm by extra feed.

Horse Wisdom.

Give the horses more care and warmer quarters, thus saving high priced feed and harnesses.

All roughness and no grain makes such a dull horse—stagnant with feed and little enduring qualities.

The work horses must have exercise and fresh air when not in use. Turn them out during the warm part of the day and let them enjoy themselves.

The farm horses get too much hay. Cut down the amount and feed it mostly at night. Thorough dampening lessens the danger from feeding dusty hay.

If the colts are to become sound fleshy and ready for work or market next spring they must have good food plenty of exercise in open air during the day and warm quarters at night all winter.

Feed the Trees.

It must be apparent to every reflecting person that the material round about a fruit tree, which renders important aid in the production of fine fruit of any kind, must necessarily be more or less exhausted after a vine, bush, or tree has produced abundantly in crops for successive seasons. For example: A large pear tree will frequently yield from ten to sixteen bushels of fruit annually. Many trees have produced more than twice these quantities at one crop.

After a few seasons, the material that the roots must be supplied with in order to develop fruit, will be more or less exhausted. For this reason fruit begins to fall; and the failure is often attributed to an east wind or some mysterious atmospheric influence, when in reality, the sole cause is starvation, arising from an impoverished soil. The remedy is to feed the roots of all kinds of fruit trees with lime, wood-ashes gypsum, chirdirt, bones, fishes, and anything that will renovate and impoverish soil. It is evident that fruit-trees cannot produce fine fruit out of such material as may be desirable for some other purposes.

His horse fell throwing Fred off leaving one foot in the stirrup and when the horse got up he commenced to run dragging Fred by the stirrup around a water trough striking his head against the trough and cutting a big gash. W. E. McLendon, John Lusk and Will Fenton were near and did what they could to rescue Fred but his foot became loose from the stirrup leaving him lying on the ground insensible. The Stable Thermometer.

A good thermometer costs more than a poor one, but it is worth much more. Every cow stable should have a good thermometer hanging in it, and this should be inspected often enough to see that the temperature does not run below 42 degrees or above 55 or 60. The idea is not so much to avoid these extremes as to maintain an even temperature. Keep the cows in comfort and they will do the best.

Teachers Banquet

The Carlsbad teachers gave a banquet to Supt. W. A. Poore and wife. On Saturday evening at seven thirty all the Carlsbad teachers met at Dick Bates' restaurant. Besides Supt. W. A. Poore and wife, Dr. Light, of Silver City and Prof. Poore, the Grammar school principal of Artesia, were there. Mr. Brewer, of Hopi, joined the crowd toward the close of the jollification. The corresponding Mr. and Mrs. belonging to the several pedagogues completed the list. Dick served a sumptuous repast. Everybody was in good spirits, judging by the way the fried chicken disappeared. Soon all were incapacitated for further maneuvers in that direction so attention was given to story telling and toasts. Dr. Light ably presided as toast master. His parrot story made a hit to say the least. Everybody, but Mrs. Poore, enjoyed the Prof's. speech. Several teachers responded. Each expressing the teachers' appreciation of Supt. Poore and his work here. Finally, wishing the Superintendent the top o' the morning, all said a reluctant adieu.

FITTING EWES FOR EARLY BREEDING.

Some difficulty is said to be found in inducing ewes to breed as early as the middle of June, and I have been asked to state my experience in the matter, writes J. Pickering Ross in Farm and Fireside. Individual cases certainly will occur in almost every flock of ewes which refuse to breed at any time of the year, but I have never known this unwillingness to extend to any serious number of its members and have always been able to meet it by substituting other ewes for these refractory ones.

It is frequently a matter of weather or of unsuitable local conditions. A cold, wet spring is certain to retard the tendency of the ewes to mate and can only be met by providing warm shelter and increasing the allowance of grain and hay. Locating them on damp, low

Lincoln sheep are said to be the longest legged and longest woolled sheep in existence. Having had their origin in Lincolnshire, England, these sheep have been imported in considerable numbers, and there are several thousand of them in the United States today. Lincolns, Leicesters and Cotswolds may be called general purpose sheep, inasmuch as both wool and mutton have been given equal attention in the selection and breeding of these three breeds. The picture shows a pure bred Lincoln ram. He is a good individual and quite typical of the breed.

and marshy ground tends also greatly to retard the breeding time, but want of proper condition is far more injurious than either of these. If a ewe is allowed to become really fat she will show a great indifference as to mating, and her progeny, if any, is likely to be wanting in stamina, and the same may be predicted of one that is poor and thin. Feeding corn has much to do with the former mishap, for corn is a great fat maker. Lack of food or shelter or some diseased condition will be responsible for the latter. In neither case is the ewe fit for breeding early lambs. She must be full and high in flesh, but not fat and certainly not poor. I would not give these ewes either corn or alfalfa in any form.

Personally I have generally had good success with Lincoln rams on Shropshire ewes mated in June. For the production of top price meat there used to be a prejudice against Dorsets, partly on account of their horns and partly because for the early spring lamb trade their meat was supposed to tend to coarseness. But that was in England, and I don't think the breed had at that time had as wide or as fair a trial as they have since obtained here.

In this country, then (to sum up my ideas on the subject), I would say that in order to catch the spring markets in sections where warm and even hot weather may be expected even in May it would be advisable to use a Dorset or Lincoln ram on Shropshire ewes. Where the seasons are later and more uncertain it would perhaps be best to have Dorsets on both sides, but in that case I should hardly expect to catch the very top prices.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

POETIC justice sounds well, but as a matter of fact nobody ever yet saw any poetry in the justice that came his way.

Because a man says things not intended for the preacher's ears when he slips on the pavement is no sign that he doesn't contribute to the support of the church.

When a woman tries to break into society she often finds that the hardest thing to manage is her husband.

An artistic life is like a pretty girl in this—people take to it much more kindly than to the plain variety.

Some men can get as much out of bragging over what their new coat stoves can do as others can out of boasting about their autos.

Artistic sense is the quality that enables a woman to discover that her friend's new reception gown doesn't match her parlor decorations.

If a woman doesn't stop the entire household machinery when he is sick a man suspects that she is figuring on how she will spend his life-insurance.

The wise woman knows that the good fellow makes an admirable sweetheart, but he is the sort of husband whose wife takes in sewing.

No man was ever improved by a nagging wife, but she is sure that it isn't her fault.

The Drummer.

I like to see the drummer do
As fits the panting trade
With polished samples in his kit
And business on the brain
He jumps into a little place
Pursues the buying men
In whirlwind words presents his case
And then jumps out again
When he is on the job in form,
A creature to be loathed.
He takes the little town by storm
And looks it with his smile,
For when his samples are displayed
By the discerning eye
What can the gentlemen in trade
Do but succumb and buy?
Not showing ostentatious pride
But dressed with skill and care,
He shows the natives wonder eyed,
The things that they should wear,
Well posted on the latest fads
And stories up to date,
He entertains the village lads
While waiting for the freight.
As busy as a humdrum,
As happy as a lark,
He works the town from A to Z,
From morning until dark
And every one is filled with joy
When he goes off the train,
And when he goes they say, "Old boy,
Be sure to come again."

Stickney Gasoline Engines ARE THE BEST

Get Your Money's Worth

The service an engine will give you depends not only on its design and quality of its material and workmanship but upon the size of its bearings, the length of its piston, the thickness of its thinnest casting, the size of its balance wheels and the strength of its various parts. Upon the size and strength of these parts depend the service you will get from the engine and it also determines the total weight of the engine. In determining the value of two engines compare their weight the same as you do when you sell your hogs, pork is worth so much per pound.

Come in and inspect my sample Stickney Engine and show me one place where any weight can be cut out without injuring the service the engine will give and then I will show you it has no surplus weight, no big useless unnecessary base—and then figure the price per pound. I will give your money's worth.

Brown, and that said warrant was paid upon presentation to the treasurer of Eddy County; and that no bill had been presented to the County, for which said warrant was drawn for allowance, nor was there ever any bill approved by said Board; and said warrant having been illegally drawn, it is hereby ordered by the Board that the $52 be repaid into the General Fund by the officers drawing said warrant.

It further appearing that under erroneous assessment of Oscar Thompson's 1910 rendition for the year 1910, it is ordered that the treasurer extend credits to school district No. 22 with 24.00, charging school district No. 23 with the same amount. All of the above credits and transfers to be made upon receipt of the collections from the parties above mentioned and affected by this order.

Moved and carried that the following resolution be adopted:

RESOLUTION

Whereas at a meeting of the board of county commissioners of Eddy county, New Mexico, held on the 7th day of June, 1910 it was voted that $1,000 be taken from road district No. 1 of said county and expended in building a road to the Plains, through what is known as the sands in the eastern part of said county, said money to be used in connection with the funds received from the Territorial Good Roads Fund and from private subscriptions, and

Whereas said sum of $1,000 is now due, and there is not sufficient money in the hands of the treasurer of Eddy county belonging to Road District No. 1 to pay said $1,000 appropriated for such purpose, and

Whereas the following named persons, to-wit: A. J. Crawford and C. H. McLenathen have advanced said $1,000 in order that the agreement with the territory may be carried out and said road constructed:

Now, be it further resolved, by the board of county commissioners that out of the funds received to the credit of road district No. 1 and road district No. 2 of Eddy county, the above named persons be reimbursed to the amount of $1,000 so advanced by them with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum and the said road districts one and two hereby authorize and instruct the treasurer and collector to withhold out of receipts for said road districts 50 per cent until an amount sufficient to liquidate this indebtedness has accumulated, whereupon it shall be applied hereon.

Road districts one and two shall bear this indebtedness equally.

This order to become effective on and after April 1, 1911.

The regularly appointed road overseers shall receive their stipulated salaries according to their contracts on file and if either road overseer shall put in his time on said road, said district shall be credited with his services.

an order correcting said erroneous assessment and ordering the collector and treasurer to cancel the interest and penalties charged against said land.

It was moved by Beeman and seconded by Graham, and carried, that the following order be adopted:

ORDER

It appearing to the board of commissioners of Eddy county, New Mexico, that the amounts received by the treasurer and collector of said county for the year 1899 and prior years, are very small, and that in nearly all cases the real estate on which taxes are delinquent for said years has been sold for such delinquent taxes and certificates of sale issued therefor, and
