FATAL FAMILY ROW.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—The culmination of football excitement resulted upon the victory of the Stanford over the University of California was the shooting of "Brick" Whitehouse, one of the most prominent football players on the coast, who has been assistant coach to Walter H. Hays, by Alexander Loughborough, son of A. H. Loughborough, a mining attorney. A saloon was crowded with college students feverishly discussing the game, and Loughborough made an offensive remark to Whitehouse as they clinched. When they were separated, Loughborough's name was bleeding and he fired three shots at Whitehouse, one bullet lodging in the abdomen. Loughborough and Whitehouse were in companions some time and his friends believe a woman was at the time of the quarrel, which Loughborough sought to pick. Loughborough rendered at the city prison. Earlier the evening Loughborough had quarreled with Max Rosenfield, whom he shot a few words slightly wounding Rosenfield in the thigh. Loughborough is a frequent altercation.

SERIOUS SITUATION!

Terrific Explosion of the Mexican Volcano, Colima

A MURDER IN COLORADO.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—James E. Jackson, of Birmingham, Ala., an extensive owner of coal mines in Walker county, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press, said today: The situation in Alabama, growing out of Kolb's threatened contest for the gubernatorial chair, is a very serious one, and will materially affect all business interests in that state. Insurance companies are talking about cancelling all outstanding policies, in view of the prospect of revolution. It has leaked out from a reliable authority that at a secret meeting recently held in Birmingham, Ala., it was determined to advise all who supported Kolb in the last state election to refuse to pay taxes to the state government. Kolb's followers, mostly farmers, will hail with delight any excuse to refrain from paying taxes, as the low price of cotton has almost bankrupted them. Their refusal to pay taxes will decrease the receipts of the state treasury over a million dollars. Grave fears are entertained all over the state, but especially in this feeling intense in the mining districts of Birmingham, and all along the line of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Private telegrams have been made public that a large number of populists from Texas will be in Montgomery, Dec. 1, to aid Kolb's followers. It is expected that fully 5,000 people will be in Montgomery to back Kolb. It is reliably reported that Kolb will set up a separate government, and in case he finds he cannot hold his own in Montgomery, will retire to Calera, sixty miles north of Montgomery, where he will be backed by the surrounding country, and his government supported by counties friendly to him, paying taxes to his government.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—The fight against the "living pictures" being waged by some of the members of the W. C. T. U. has developed into a war between women. It is not at all unlikely that the "living pictures" will organize and oppose the onslaught of the W. C. T. U. A spontaneous move was made in this direction when the girls employed at the Garden theater met and sent the following letter to Mrs. Grannis:

"Dear Madam:—As workmen of the stage employed as models in the Kilyani 'living pictures,' we thank you for your womanly and sensible opposition to the fanatical crusade against animal art suggested by Lady Somerset. It is undoubtedly true, as you remark, that there is no unchangeable picture exhibited in New York, and only one half of the audience is to be seen displayed in boxes of the Metropolitan opera house. Your position in this matter is a credit alike to your heart, brain and Christian spirit."

Violence in Krepstein. Guadalajara, Mex., Nov. 30.—Another terrific eruption of Colima volcano occurred Wednesday night, and the scene as witnessed from this city was grand. No definite reports are received from the immediate section surrounding the volcano, but it is feared there was a severe loss of property and probably life.

Miner Murdered. Boulder, Col., Nov. 30.—Hugh McDougall shot and killed Frank Wagner at Nederland yesterday afternoon. McDougall, who was intoxicated, quarreled with Wagner, a miner, and the latter attempted to shoot him. A friend pushed the gun aside just as it was discharged and Wagner was shot. McDougall was arrested. The men were all miners.

Refused a Loan. New York, Nov. 30.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, who has been in New York almost constantly since September, has left for St. Paul. Archbishop Ireland's reason for visiting New York was to negotiate a loan of $50,000 on real estate which he owns in St. Paul, to be used in paying the indebtedness of the archdiocese of St. Paul. Owing to the feeling which existed among capitalists before the election he could not arrange a loan until yesterday.

Death of McKenzie. James McKenzie, several years ago a clerk in the postoffice in this city, died at El Paso a few days ago. The El Paso Current gives the following particulars of his untimely end: James McKenzie, who for the past two years and a half has been employed on the Greene farm, died at the home place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was buried Sunday. Mr. McKenzie was about thirty-five years of age and of more than ordinary intelligence. He came from El Paso, where for more than five years he was a trusted clerk in the postoffice, but drank seemed to have more charms for him than anything else, and caused his enforced resignation from his position. He was able to do good work when not under the influence of drink, and made a faithful employee for Mr. Greene. Election day, when whisky flowed like water, Jim got too much, and since then he was under the care of a physician, being in delirium bordering on the morose. Saturday he took an overdose of medicine for the purpose of quelling an attack, sinking directly into a stupor from which he never recovered.

Death of a Princess. Copenhagen, Nov. 30.—Princess Louise, the sister of the king of Denmark and aunt of the dowager empress of Russia and of the Princess of Wales, is dead. The Princess Louise was born November 16, 1858, and on August 3, 1890, was nominated abbess of the convent of Huelstien, Holstein.

Fire. Denver, Nov. 30.—The C. S. Morey mercantile company's brick factory was slightly damaged by fire this morning. The foreman of the shop believes the fire was incendiary.

British War Ships. London, Nov. 30.—A dispatch from Shanghai says great excitement prevails in naval circles there in consequence of the departure of British war ships from that port under sealed orders. The presence of three British cruisers opposite the estuary of the Yangtze River is considered to show that Great Britain has decided to more than forestall her rivals in the east and obtain a voice in the settlement between Japan and China. The dispatch adds that there are rumors that Li Hung Chang will place himself at the head of an army which he has created for his own purposes. Troops are reported arriving from different parts of the country to serve under Li Hung Chang.

Fourth Annual Ball of the Hook and Ladder Company.

A MAGNIFICENT AFFAIR.

It was an early hour—only 9 o'clock—when Prof. Ruppel and his orchestra struck the strains of the "Grand March," which was led by L. D. Mandell, assistant chief of the first department, and Miss Pearl Saunders, followed by Hon. H. B. Ferguson and Miss Lizette Lockhart, and at least 175 couples, and not until after 4 o'clock "in the morning" were the happy dancers satisfied to cry "enough."

MOVEMENTS OF A CRUISE.

Washington, Nov. 30.—A cable to the Navy department announces the arrival of the U. S. cruiser Columbia at Cienfuegos. No such port is known here and inquiry is being made but it is supposed to be near Santiago, Cuba. Her movements are of importance in consequence of recent sensational and warlike dispatches that the Columbia was hurrying to Bluefields.

REVOLUTION FOREBODEN.

A Very Bad State of Affairs in Alabama.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Information of the exact programme to be pursued tomorrow by Reuben F. Kolb, populist claimant to the governorship of Alabama, was made known here today. Thus far Kolb has disclosed only that he and populist followers estimated at about 5,000 would go to Montgomery to take the capital and there demand that Kolb be seated as governor instead of Oates. There has been grave fears of a riot and bloodshed as the consequence of the clash of the rival parties and it is now at the state capital. N. A. Butting, editor of the National Watchman, said today: "Kolb and other members of the state populist ticket will go before a judge or justice of the peace at Montgomery to take the oath of office and take possession of the state. Having done this they will go formally before the state legislature now in session at Montgomery and lodge a formal protest against the inauguration of Oates and ask that investigation be authorized by the legislature to take the oath of office and take possession of the state. Mr. McKenzie was about thirty-five years of age and of more than ordinary intelligence. He came from El Paso, where for more than five years he was a trusted clerk in the postoffice, but drank seemed to have more charms for him than anything else, and caused his enforced resignation from his position. He was able to do good work when not under the influence of drink, and made a faithful employee for Mr. Greene. Election day, when whisky flowed like water, Jim got too much, and since then he was under the care of a physician, being in delirium bordering on the morose. Saturday he took an overdose of medicine for the purpose of quelling an attack, sinking directly into a stupor from which he never recovered.

Death of a Princess. Copenhagen, Nov. 30.—Princess Louise, the sister of the king of Denmark and aunt of the dowager empress of Russia and of the Princess of Wales, is dead. The Princess Louise was born November 16, 1858, and on August 3, 1890, was nominated abbess of the convent of Huelstien, Holstein.

Fire. Denver, Nov. 30.—The C. S. Morey mercantile company's brick factory was slightly damaged by fire this morning. The foreman of the shop believes the fire was incendiary.

British War Ships. London, Nov. 30.—A dispatch from Shanghai says great excitement prevails in naval circles there in consequence of the departure of British war ships from that port under sealed orders. The presence of three British cruisers opposite the estuary of the Yangtze River is considered to show that Great Britain has decided to more than forestall her rivals in the east and obtain a voice in the settlement between Japan and China. The dispatch adds that there are rumors that Li Hung Chang will place himself at the head of an army which he has created for his own purposes. Troops are reported arriving from different parts of the country to serve under Li Hung Chang.

THEY ALL DANCED.

Fourth Annual Ball of the Hook and Ladder Company.

A MAGNIFICENT AFFAIR.

It was an early hour—only 9 o'clock—when Prof. Ruppel and his orchestra struck the strains of the "Grand March," which was led by L. D. Mandell, assistant chief of the first department, and Miss Pearl Saunders, followed by Hon. H. B. Ferguson and Miss Lizette Lockhart, and at least 175 couples, and not until after 4 o'clock "in the morning" were the happy dancers satisfied to cry "enough."

MOVEMENTS OF A CRUISE.

Washington, Nov. 30.—A cable to the Navy department announces the arrival of the U. S. cruiser Columbia at Cienfuegos. No such port is known here and inquiry is being made but it is supposed to be near Santiago, Cuba. Her movements are of importance in consequence of recent sensational and warlike dispatches that the Columbia was hurrying to Bluefields.

REVOLUTION FOREBODEN.

A Very Bad State of Affairs in Alabama.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Information of the exact programme to be pursued tomorrow by Reuben F. Kolb, populist claimant to the governorship of Alabama, was made known here today. Thus far Kolb has disclosed only that he and populist followers estimated at about 5,000 would go to Montgomery to take the capital and there demand that Kolb be seated as governor instead of Oates. There has been grave fears of a riot and bloodshed as the consequence of the clash of the rival parties and it is now at the state capital. N. A. Butting, editor of the National Watchman, said today: "Kolb and other members of the state populist ticket will go before a judge or justice of the peace at Montgomery to take the oath of office and take possession of the state. Having done this they will go formally before the state legislature now in session at Montgomery and lodge a formal protest against the inauguration of Oates and ask that investigation be authorized by the legislature to take the oath of office and take possession of the state."

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—The fight against the "living pictures" being waged by some of the members of the W. C. T. U. has developed into a war between women. It is not at all unlikely that the "living pictures" will organize and oppose the onslaught of the W. C. T. U. A spontaneous move was made in this direction when the girls employed at the Garden theater met and sent the following letter to Mrs. Grannis:

"Dear Madam

Weekly Citizen

ALBUQUERQUE — DEC 1, 1934

This city is paying exorbitant prices for coal.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has the gout. It is English, you know.

Business is growing better in this city, and the holiday trade will be immense.

Do not come to New Mexico hunting work. The territory is crowded with idlers.

The democratic leaders in this territory think it no disgrace to defend the Mexicans of the rights of the ballot.

OFFICIAL returns from Wisconsin show that at the recent election the largest vote in the state's history was cast.

RECOLLECT that the merchant who advertises liberally is the one who captures the largest trade in holiday goods.

The people of Raton deserve a new county, and THE CITIZENS hope the legislature will create the same this winter.

CONGRESS meets one week from today, and then will be the time to push the passage of the New Mexico statehood bill.

The Masonic fraternity of Las Vegas will today lay the corner stone of a new Masonic temple with appropriate ceremonies.

With the irrigation congress, the territorial fair and a half dozen county fairs, next year, this territory will be well advertised.

COL. BRICKENRIDGE will try to make a living as a public lecturer, his first subject being "Ten Years Among Tariff Reformers."

In the expressed will of the people is over-ridden in the organization of the territorial legislature, it will be good-by statehood.

The cost of the Mexican war was about $100,000,000, which is just the sum Secretary Childs has had to borrow in this year of peace to pay current expenses.

Lovens of the turkey will be pleased to learn that this year's crop is immense and that the favorite Thanksgiving bird will be sold this year at a reasonable price.

Over a hundred millions borrowed in the course of about nine months, and gold now at a premium. Isn't that a financial record which ought to make every democrat hide himself?

The people who are afraid that the republicans in the national house are too large, may take heart of grace. Tom Reed knows how to deal with majorities as well as minorities.

The San Marcial Bee says of Judge Fall: "Think of a man's life or his property being at stake, and forced to look for justice at the hands of a judge guilty of leading a mob on an unlawful mission."

In proportion to the population France has more money in circulation than any other country. In France it averages $40.56 per capita; in the United States, $24.94; in England and Germany, $18.42.

This paper has no fear of irate politicians, or of the man who wants to know who "writes that piece," but it is in constant terror of the correspondent who wants to publish his ideas on the financial and political situation.

The great clock-makers' strike in New York City has cost both employers and workmen millions of dollars and has driven the industry permanently out of New York, so that if the strike should be given up to-morrow many of the employees could not get work again.

The announcement that President Cleveland has during the last few years accumulated a fortune of from $4,000,000 to $6,000,000 by Wall street speculation and investment in real estate, will not create much surprise, as it was generally known that his financial abilities had been very fortunate in his financial investments.

It seems that the sugar trust proposes to use the advantage given by the new tariff bill to freeze out all the smaller beet sugar factories in this country. At Salt Lake City the trust is now under-sending the factory in its own market, and as a matter of course, it can afford to keep it up till the factory is forced out of the business.

The Denver Republican says: "The prospect that the Pecos Valley railroad will be extended soon to White Oaks and thence to Albuquerque is encouraging information for the people of the south-eastern part of New Mexico. It will open up a section of that territory which is greatly in need of rail communication, and the development of which would be rapid if it had that kind of connection with the remainder of the country."

It is rumored that when the president submits his annual message to congress next month he will ask for the establishment of the single monetary standard of gold. This would seem to be hardly necessary in view of the existing conditions. It is difficult to see anything now remaining undone toward the accomplishment of this purpose. The country is already suffering from all the evil effects of a single gold standard.

The New Mexican, with brazen effrontery, asserts that the vote in the precincts of Nacimiento, La Jara and Gonzales is fraudulent. This is such a notorious falsehood that it scarcely needs notice. These precincts have been a part and parcel of Bernadillo county since 1876. Realists of these precincts have voted, paid taxes and held offices in this county all these years, and no one questioned their right to do so. A few weeks before the election M. S. Otero conceived the scheme of declaring that these precincts were in Rio Arriba county, and his sheep herders helped him carry out the force of holding an election. Mr. Otero hoped by this scheme to elect his ticket in this county, but signally failed. Only one of the republican nominees needs a vote in the precincts named.

PLAIN TALK

The Raton Range, one of the most influential papers in the territory, and one which can always be found on the side of right, says of the present political situation:

"The New Mexican well knows that no effort, honest or otherwise, legal or illegal, decent or indecent, will be overlooked to seat a democratic majority in the next congress, to enable Governor Thornton to fill the territorial and district offices with democrats."

The despicable attempt to ignore the expressed wishes of the voters of this territorial district and to unseat A. C. Vandenbosch who was elected, and seat Albyna who was not elected, is another foul blot on the fair name of the territory.

And yet we are told by the democratic leaders, who consider the masses of the people as pawns, who have no rights to be respected by these unscrupulous and unpromising officials, that we ought to be admitted as a state.

That forced that New Mexico should become a state and so on, can be secured, if reasonably fair officials and ordinary decent government. Neither can be expected from the outfit now disgracing the territorial management.

If the present damnable program is carried out and the fairly elected representatives of the people are deprived of their positions by the democratic federal officials, we don't believe New Mexico is fit for statehood or capable of self government if they submit to such treatment without a struggle.

We appeal to every fair-minded man to watch the proceedings of the organization of the next territorial legislature. And if their honestly elected representatives are denied their seats, let them organize and unite to defeat statehood until two years hence, when the dishonest officials now holding power to the detriment of the territory will be swept into everlasting oblivion.

COMPLETING HIS WORK

That Governor Cleveland is preparing to complete the ruin of the democratic party is becoming clearly evident. Something explosive on the financial question is expected of him in his forthcoming message in addition to a reiteration of his well known views on the tariff.

Unquestionably a majority of the democratic states are in favor of free silver coinage. Mr. Cleveland will therefore insist upon the single gold standard which he has established. Unquestionably a majority of the people are opposed to further tariff reduction. Consequently Mr. Cleveland will recommend in an earnest manner that the tariff duties be reduced. The division in democratic strength which will thus be brought about seems likely to become permanent.

Indeed, the factions are already forming for the struggle, and harmony will be out of the question until one or the other of them has been exterminated.

Adopted twenty years ago Germany adopted the system of compulsory insurance of workmen against accidents. Since that time there has been paid into the reserve fund about $58,000,000, of which about $20,000,000 now forms the capital. In the year last reported more than $7,500,000 was paid in indemnities, and more than $3,000,000 was added to the reserve fund. It is now proposed to extend the system to apprentices and employees whose wages do not exceed $476 a year.

The country along the southern border of Mexico, where the war with Guatemala will be fought, if it is fought at all, is sparsely settled, and the few people who are there, are with a few exceptions, civilized Indians. It is a tropical region that at one time was the seat of a civilization which excites the wonder of archaeologists to-day by the massive character of its ruined temples and other buildings.

According to the last English census, there were 24,232 clergymen of the church of England, as compared with 21,633 at the previous census of 1881; 10,075 non-conformist ministers as compared with 9,734, and 2,511 Roman Catholic priests as compared with 2,089. Ministers and traveling evangelists numbered 9,313 as compared with 6,891.

This official returns from all the counties in the office of the territorial secretary show that the republicans have elected seven members of the territorial council and the democrats five. In the house the republicans have fifteen members elected, and the democrats and populists nine.

The latest report of women in industrial occupations in England shows an increase of 334,000 over 1891, that is in ten years. Gardeners, florists, watch-makers, goldsmiths and silversmiths are women in larger numbers in England than in America.

This national revenue decreased over $88,000,000 during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1934, as compared with the preceding year. No wonder the administration is forced to borrow money in order to pay the ordinary expenses of the government.

The Rowell Register remarks that "The proceedings of Judge Fall and his friends, over in Dona Ana county, in fraudulently counting the votes so as to elect all democratic officers, has aroused indignation over the entire territory."

This expected collision between Kith and Jones at Montgomery, Ala., next month is looked forward to with the liveliest expectations by the sporting element of the country. The odds have not yet been published.

OWNERS of mines will not have to do assessment work this year to hold their properties under section 2324 of the compiled laws, providing they file the proper kind of a notice in the office of the county clerk.

So many of the democratic councilmen elect announce that they will affiliate with the republicans in organizing the territorial council, that Governor Thornton is discouraged.

In order to keep gold in the country the United States is about to sell gold interest bearing bonds to foreigners. The scheme is brilliant, to say the least.

HOMAS life has always been held at a cheap rate in China. In fact there are so many people that a few hundreds of thousands more or less do not cut any figure in the Celestial empire. The authorities have no desire to aid in any way

DISTRICT COURT

A very important opinion was rendered by Judge Collier.

The subpoenaed opinion filed by Judge Collier, his morning in cases in which the First National bank of this city is plaintiff, is important and will be read with a great deal of interest by litigants, as it will be seen by the opinion that the judge holds that in suits on promissory notes the defendants must file a summary of the account entitled him to be heard in court. Unless this is done the plaintiff cannot recover judgment.

These are suits on promissory notes and the defendants, in each case, have interrupted suit of non-suit, upon which plea some have been joined. The suits were pending upon the pleadings above noted for several months prior to the 8th day of November, 1934, when there was filed in each case the motion for judgment on the merits. The motion is for judgment in favor of plaintiff on a promissory note for the reason that the same is not under oath as is required by section 1878 of the compiled laws of New Mexico. The motion is referred to the jury for their verdict, which the jury found in favor of the plaintiff, and the court rendered judgment in favor of the plaintiff.

No better evidence could be adduced that the people have heard all they care to about the tariff, than the fact that Congressmen Wilson, the high priest of tariff reform, talked to empty chairs in Baltimore one night last week. His lecture was well advertised but the people wouldn't go.

REPUBLICAN leaders in this county have paid the democratic election expenses and borne the brunt of the last two campaigns. It is high time to stop such foolishness and use a little common sense. THE CITIZENS are in favor of a united party in the future, and intend to help create one.

THE KANSAS CITY STAR says: "The country seems to be slow in discovering that the climate cure for invalids can be obtained in New Mexico and parts of Arizona and Colorado. The entire eastern and southern coast is a delusion and a snare."

The southern states produced one-third of the cotton raised in this country this year. King Cotton will hereafter have to share his throne with King Corn, and their joint realm will grow more and more prosperous in consequence.

This Chinese government is getting ready to abandon Peking on the approach of the Japanese army. That event will probably end the war, as the superstitious of the Chinese will accept resistance as useless after the emperor renounces.

The forthcoming message from the president will be particularly interesting if he tells all he knows about the accumulation of wealth by the few at the expense of the many.

Is India 25,000,000 acres are made fruitful by irrigation in Egypt, 6,000,000; in Europe, 5,000,000, and in the United States, 4,000,000.

The democrats are now trying to steal Tennessee. That is about the only way they are getting anything even in the south this year.

CRIMINALS of the Rio Grande Southern at Denver have filed a petition against the movement to oust Receiver Jeffrey.

ALL the talk about China overrunning the rest of the world has died out.

List of Names of the Committee on Resolutions.

The Trans-Mississippi Congress Getting to Business.

Secretary Smith's Annual Report Made Public

EARTHQUAKE IN ITALY.

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—It was nearly three-quarters of an hour after the appointed time when President Whitmore called the Trans-Mississippi congress to order to-day. The adoption of the report of the committee on credentials last night, which enrolled all appointed delegates properly accredited, without regard to their presence, gave especial point to the report of the committee on rules and order of business, which provided for the voting power of each state delegation of not to exceed thirty votes, if so many delegates are present, and all the states to have a voting power of not less than ten, no matter what the smallness of the attending delegation. Pending consideration of the report, the members of the committee on resolutions were announced as follows: Arizona, T. B. Comstock, W. J. Chaney; Arkansas, George Sengel, C. S. Collins; California, D. L. Lugin, G. W. Parsons; Colorado, I. L. Johnson, J. S. Shafroth; Idaho, William Budge, B. E. Rich; Indian Territory, D. G. Dennison; Fielding Lewis; Iowa, S. F. Smith, Bart E. Linehan; Kansas, W. H. Toohage, Stephen Crane; Minnesota, Thos. Sharp; Missouri, E. O. Starnard, C. E. Yeater; Nebraska, W. J. Bryan, R. W. Richardson; New Mexico, T. R. Gabel, L. B. Prince; Oklahoma, Sydney Clark, J. A. McGuire; Oregon, R. B. Dodge; South Dakota, S. E. Wilson, J. R. Brennan; Texas, Lewis Hancock, E. A. Marshall; Utah, E. J. Cannon, C. C. Goodwin; Washington, A. L. Black, D. E. Devine; Montana, Thomas G. Merrill, W. H. Wood; Alaska, J. C. Greene; Wyoming, Louisiana, Nevada and North Dakota are not represented in the convention.

The report of the rules committee was adopted excepting the clause limiting the voting power of the delegation. Delegate F. J. Cannon of Utah, moved to strike out the maximum limit, thus giving full delegations a vote for every man. He supported the motion with the contention that states and territories sufficiently interested to send all the delegates to which they were entitled should be allowed to vote such delegates.

Ex-Governor Prince, of New Mexico, endorsed the original report as necessary to prevent near by sections from overpowering by their easily transported delegations those unable to send full delegations from far away points.

Delegate Black, of Washington, offered a substitute for the original report making clearer the voting powers of each delegation by retaining the maximum and minimum limits at 30 and 10. W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska, opposed the amendment offered by Delegate Cannon as intended to permit two or three states to rule the convention reducing the weight of his recommendations. After further debate Cannon withdrew the amendment and the original report was adopted.

Among the resolutions submitted were: Endorsing Secretary Herbert's tests and use of American coal and urging legislation to enjoin upon naval officials to use always American products where it can be done without financial loss; favoring increasing the number and jurisdiction of federal judicial officers in the Indian territory and deferring creation of a territorial government until the lands of the five civilized tribes are held in severalty; favoring governmental investigation of forest fires on public lands; urging the admission as states of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona; opposing legislation to engraft the Baltimore plan or any other form of National bank results upon the national currency system; favoring legislation to increase the price of cotton; favoring further and greater governmental aid to Texas harbor and river improvement.

W. J. Bryan introduced a resolution favoring the restoration of the free coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without the aid of any other nation.

Delegate Cahill, of Missouri, introduced a resolution favoring efforts by the government toward inducing other governments to recognize silver more fully as a money metal.

The committee on permanent organization presented a report naming George Q. Cannon, of Utah, for permanent presiding officer.

Secretary W. G. Butterfield, of Oregon, was requested to continue through this congress, the executive committee being instructed to name his successor when the next place will be chosen, he to reside therein.

The report was immediately adopted, and after brief speeches of congratulation and thanks to retiring Officer Whitmore, the congress adjourned for dinner.

Pay Your Debts.

Judge Collier has just made a ruling that will result in clearing the docket in this county of many of the cases that tend to burden it, and will drive many debtors to bankruptcy. He has ruled that under the provisions of section 1878 of the compiled laws, all plaintiffs who sue upon promissory notes or on verified accounts, shall be entitled to immediate judgment after plea unless the plea is under oath denying the debt, etc. Heretofore on the slings of a plea of nonassumpsit or the general issue, the case had to await its turn for trial on the docket, now it will be pay up or commit perjury. This ruling of Judge Collier is in contrast to the practice that prevailed here for many years, many of the members of the bar claiming that when a plea concludes to the country, the defendant is entitled to a trial by jury notwithstanding section 1878 of the compiled laws. A test case will surely be made up and taken to the supreme court.

Indian Affairs

Washington, Nov. 27.—The leading feature of Secretary Smith's annual report of the doings of the interior department will be its reference to Indian affairs. Since its preparation Secretary Smith has been devoting some time to the Indian question, and will perhaps make an additional report devoted strictly to this problem. It is probably with this end in view that he has addressed to various Indian agents a letter of inquiry designed to give him complete information of condition of Indian affairs at each agency.

Earthquake.

Rome, Nov. 27.—A violent earthquake shock was felt at Brescia sixty miles from Milan at 6:10 a. m. to-day. Similar, though less severe, shocks were experienced at Bologna and Verona.

Dividend Declared.

New York, Nov. 27.—The Northwest-ern's semi-annual dividend of 24 per cent on common and 14 per cent on preferred quarterly was declared to-day.

A MAN ELECTROCUTED.

Back in New York the electricians have persuaded the governor to deliver to them the next criminal put to death by electricity. They promise to revive him after the physicians pronounce life extinct, in order to prove that it is the autopsy, the knives in the hands of surgeons, that really kills the electrocuted men. They propose to use artificial respiration to set the man's lungs in operation, working the man's arms and diaphragm in rhythmic motion, or use a pump to inject air into the lungs and another to suck it out.

Talking of his experience, he said: "I feel something was under my feet. I fell up, and I fell back, and once again I got off the wire. Then my breath no longer came, respiration was suspended, and I thought I was going to remain in that condition. The electrician of the light company tells me 1,000 volts passed through the body from that wire. I have no doubt that when a man is knocked out that way, pumping air and starting up the human machine again will bring him around."—Eddy Argus

Judge Fells' Deputies.

Editor Silver City Enterprise.
MR. EDITOR: United States Marshal Hall, as I am informed, asserts that his deputies were not placed at the polls or at the canvassing of the ballots in Las Cruces at the court house by his orders or by his consent. Who then called for those armed deputies with Winchester rifles in their hands who took possession of the court house while the votes were being canvassed to the disgust of all peace loving people and over the protests of the sheriff of that county? Did some other high federal official usurp the marshal's place? Do Mr. Hall's deputies respond to the call of every Tom, Dick and Harry who wishes to violate the law? Are his deputies at the command of ballot box stuffers and violators of the law? If so, the marshal owes it to himself as well as to the important office which he holds to immediately discharge every one of those deputies, and the people expect it will be done, otherwise he will be held responsible, however much he may deny it. Decide speak louder than words, and Mr. Hall must know that this outrageous act will be investigated. X Y Z

Miss and Sister.

The Independent Democrat, under the lead, "The Bluff Called," publishes a long article, partly bluster, partly apology, but mostly falsehood, trying to show extenuating circumstances in the recent high crime of ballot box stuffing and intimidation of citizens at the polls and before the canvassing board. It pleads for the right of retaliation and falsely claims that the republicans had, at a prior election years ago, resorted to such nefarious measures. If the people of New Mexico want statehood the less published about the prevalence of such methods the better. Yet every honest citizen must feel constrained to express his deprecation of such a political policy.—Silver City Enterprise.

Two Lives Saved.
Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption, and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Rogers, 139 Florida street San Francisco, suffered from a dread disease, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Dr. Thos. H. Burgess & Son's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

On last Saturday morning Judge Trimble, who resides on a ranch near the mouth of Tjeras canon, left his ranch to drive into the city, with two guinea hogs in a sack which he had bargained to exchange for two turkey hens at H. B. Ferguson's.

On reaching the reservoir, on the mesa, he discovered that the guinea hogs, with the sack, were missing, and he drove back to find them. He met two ladies driving toward the city, and told them his story. They stated that they had passed some object on the side of the road in a sack, but on account of being afraid did not disturb the sack. The Judge drove on, and within a mile or so of his ranch he met two more ladies, and they had stopped and were punching the sack containing the guinea hogs with a long pole. He explained matters, and told the ladies that the guinea hogs were not dangerous, and picking up the sack came on to the city without any further delay.

WORK OF FALL.

He is a Building Pottery Ward Steerer

The election has caused lots of trouble down in Dona Ana county. Two years ago, under the leadership of Judge Fall, by the expenditure of some $25,000, the county was carried by the democrats. Bribery was rife, and many illegal votes were cast. This year there was not so much money to spend, but the election machinery was in the hands of the democrats, and they thought they could carry things to suit themselves. Arrangements were made to do some fine work in Dona Ana precinct. In this precinct most of the republicans and a very few democrats voted in the morning. At noon there had been eighty four votes cast, of which sixty-one were republican. When the election officers were at dinner the ballot box was opened and these votes were taken out and eighty four democratic votes were put in. The robbery was discovered before the change was completed, but the democratic votes were found there. It was evident they were recently put in the box by some one besides the election officers, as they were all flat—the votes that were legally cast and put in the box by the election officers had been folded as they were put in. Immediately there was a row. Word was sent to Las Cruces, a few miles away. Judge Fall hurried down to see about the matter. He instructed the election officers to go on with the election and in making out the returns to note that these eighty-four votes were fraudulent. They did so. When it came to canvassing the vote by the county commissioners Judge Fall again got in his deadly work. He appeared before the commissioners, guarded by deputy United States marshals armed with Winchester, stood off the sheriff's posse, and the commissioners counted these votes with the others. These votes enabled the commissioners to give certificates of election to the democratic sheriff, the democratic candidate for the legislature, and to several other officers. The election will be contested by all the officers who are counted out. Some of the republicans think there is little use in contesting the election, because the contest will have to be made before Judge Fall's court. The Independent Democrat, in speaking of the fraud, admits it was a fraud on the republican party, but justifies it in the following way: It had been claimed that the democratic workers had bought up a lot of votes the day before election, and hid the voters out in the meadows; that some of the republican workers had a chance to treat a score of these democratic voters, and had doctored the whiskey, giving them knock out drops. To get even for this republican trick, the democrats had ravaged the Dona Ana ballot box. Apparently the Independent Democrat thinks all is fair in politics as well as in war.—Lordsburg Liberal.

WHITE OAKS ROAD.

The Line From Pecos is Almost Assured.

The White Oaks Eagle says: Wm. Watson, of the firm of Watson & Lund, attorneys, returned Tuesday night from a business trip to Roswell and Eddy.

He was seen by an Eagle man and asked what he had heard while away in regard to the probable extension of the railway out of the valley, and in reply gave some encouraging information.

He did not see any of the higher officials of the company, Messrs. Hagerman and Newberry being in New York in connection with business affecting the proposed resumption of work on the line; but from others whose sources of information are good he learned that the prospect for the beginning of work in this direction early in the coming year is flattering. Roswell people have given up their belief that they were to have a Rock Island connection with the north via Washburn, Tex., and concede that White Oaks has won the road.

Since Mr. Ballard, the civil engineer, and Mr. Newberry, the mining engineer, of the company were here a month ago the former has made two more trips over the route to the north of the Capitan mountains, and reported strongly in favor of that route, which presents no difficulties to either the construction or the maintenance of the road. It is practically a gradual climb of 2,000 feet in a direct line of 100 miles.

All connected with the road are impressed with the importance of the business present and prospective which this region has to give the road, while the splendid coal to be had here is a necessity to the road and the people of the valley, which is practically destitute of fuel and a potent attraction, probably the strongest of all.

The Hampton contracting outfit is still held in the valley, though the owners are said to have other contracts under way, waiting for the opening of work from Roswell. Men who are near to the company say it will be put to work by January 1st.

The route on the lower route, via the Honda, Lincoln, and Salado valley coal fields, who were quite hopeful of securing the road when Mr. Watson went down a week before, all told him they had lost the road and that it would come to this town. Army officers at Fort Stanton, who are interested in the Salado, told him the same. Information on that line seems to have come from a coal expert who spent considerable time in the Salado last summer and showed no favor to White Oaks.

Simply stated, it seems the talk of the extension of the road to this point and on to Albuquerque, has advanced beyond the stage of irresponsible rumor.

A letter from Las Vegas, received in this town yesterday, stated plainly that the company had decided to build to White Oaks and predicted a great boom for the town.

In the valley, and more particularly at Eddy, White Oaks is all the talk.

Albuquerque has shown the proper spirit in the matter, and has guaranteed $100,000 and 120 acres of land to the company to build to that city. That is the kind of enterprise that builds towns.

City Clerk Dixon, of the livery firm of Olmsted & Dixon, arrived home yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from Socorro. The bay driving mare, stolen by F. H. Wills and driven to Socorro, show hard usage, but Mr. Dixon thinks that they will be in good trim after several days rest.

Thos. S. Hubbell and wife left last night for Los Angeles, where they will remain for a month.

Col. Max Frost, of Santa Fe, was here a few hours last night. He returned north this morning.

Dr. R. G. Woodworth, of Bernalillo, came down from the north last night and put up at the Windsor.

Austin Goodall, mayor of Los Cerrillos, is in the city today on business. He will return north this evening.

J. B. Block, the general merchant of Jemez hot springs, drove down to the city this morning, and is registered at the Hotel Columbus.

J. J. Lessor, a well-known knight of Pythias, arrived in the city last night from the north and continued on to his home in Socorro this morning.

Gov. Thornton is in Valencia county trying to end election frauds. The governor does not appear to be satisfied with the result of the recent election in this territory.

J. D. Coplen, of Denver, proprietor of the Coplen ore mill in Water canon, Socorro county, arrived in the city last night from the north, and continued on south to Socorro this morning.

A party of Catholic gentlemen, headed by Rev. Bergeron and Bro. McDaniel, arrived in the city last night and are registered at the San Felipe. They leave this evening for Flagstaff.

H. P. Aldrich, in charge of the Atlantic & Pacific, is in the city from the west, and will spend Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. T. R. Gabel.

The trial of Fred Viruly, accused of stealing two diamonds from Miss Beebe Kirkland, came up before Justice Burke last evening, and the prisoner was discharged, there being no evidence upon which to bind him over to the grand jury.

C. T. Brown, one of Socorro's popular business gentlemen and who is developing several promising mines out in the Water canon district, came up to the metropolis last night and is here today on business. He returns home to-morrow morning.

Otto Rupp, a young man from the east, who has been here the past year for consumption, was quite ill Sunday and Monday at the Armijo house. He had several severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and for a time his life was despaired of. This Citizen is pleased to report him much better today.

Sister Fidelis, the well known and popular public school teacher over in old town, this morning closed the school for lack of funds, and thus 215 little scholars were sent to their homes with their books. It is learned that Sister Fidelis will go east in about four weeks, and reside away from the city for an indefinite period.

News was received in this city yesterday afternoon announcing the death of Mrs. Joseph H. Hampson in the City of Mexico. The body will pass through the city in a few days for Kansas City, Mo., where the burial will occur on December 2 or 3. Mr. Hampson has many warm personal friends in this city, who join this Citizen in offering sympathy.

Thieves entered the residence of Electrician Hunt, of the Electric Light works, last night, during the absence of himself and wife, and helped themselves to a number of goods and some money. The police were informed at 9 p. m., and Officer Carson started out to run down the thieves. No clue at the hour of going to press.

The New Mexican says: "A number of parties interested as witnesses and otherwise in the Vipond murder case are in town. The case will be concluded immediately on Judge Laughlin's return from Taos. It is claimed that some strong additional evidence has been secured against the defendant that will result in holding him to await action by the grand jury."

Mrs. Mollie F. Schmidt, who rooms at the college building with her uncle and aunt, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Harwood, has just returned from an extended visit to the state of Washington, where she spent a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. John Ford, late from Missouri. She had a good visit, returning via Salt Lake City and Denver, visiting friends at different places—but only saw two clear days while in Washington.

Had Indians. Gilbert La Bar, who has been ranching up in the Jemez mountains, drove down to the city this morning and will spend the winter here. He brings the information that the Navajo Indians are off their reservation, and have been caught in the act of stealing horses and other stock from the ranchers. A few days ago D. S. Thompson apprehended a big buck Indian driving one of his horses which was hobbled, and when he yelled at him the red man left post haste for the woods. Mr. Thompson followed the Indian and came up with him at his camp. The Indian, innocent like, declared that he thought the horse belonged to one of his friends on the reservation, and that he did not intend stealing the animal. Every winter the Jemez country is infested with roaming Navajos, and their depredations are becoming extremely numerous to be borne much longer.

THE ATHLETES I

The Members of the Athletic Club Had a Meeting.

INTERESTING REPORT.

Pursuant to notice, a majority of the members of the Albuquerque Athletic club met at the headquarters last evening, being called to order by the president, and in the absence of the regular secretary, W. S. McLaughlin officiated pro tem.

The object of the meeting was briefly stated by the chair, who read the following report of the board of directors of the club:

To the Members of the Albuquerque Athletic Club: Greeting. We, the board of directors of the above organization, selected by you at a regular meeting several months ago, to manage the affairs of the club, deem it quite essential and proper that the members should know what the board has done and is now doing.

We have gone ahead, in the line of our duty, to the very best of our ability, and the apparatus, now part and parcel of the club, is the result of our united labor. We have made improvements and additions, where considered in our judgment necessary, such as a bath room, lockers, furniture, etc., and believe that everything is now conveniently arranged, although the organization is comparatively in its infancy, for proper athletic purposes.

There is at present a membership of 134, of which number 132 are charter members. During the month of November this report being up to last Saturday, November 24—114 members have paid monthly dues, and it is hoped that the balance of unpaid dues will be collected and properly accounted for by the 1st of December.

The total amount of money received by the treasurer since the organization of the club is $586; total expenditures, for which there are bills and vouchers, subject to examination by any member of the club, amounts to $455.45, leaving a balance on hand up to Nov. 24 and all bills paid, of $130.55.

The lockers are all rented, commencing on the 15th of the month, at 25 cents each, and all been paid for except three. Since the date of this report some few dollars have been collected and a bill paid.

Trusting the report, although brief but correct, will meet the approval and sanction of the members of the club, we are, respectfully, your board of directors, A. E. WALKER, Vice President, R. E. SHAW, Secretary, H. S. KNIGHT, Treasurer.

HARRY LEE

The other member of the board, T. N. Wilkerson, is absent from the city.

On motion of Mr. Moore, seconded by half a dozen voices, the report of the board was unanimously accepted and ordered placed on file.

Treasurer Knight then surprised the club by handing in his resignation as treasurer and director of the club, which was read by Acting Secretary McLaughlin.

After considerable discussion in regard to accepting the resignation, it was moved finally by Mr. Powers, seconded by Mr. Macbeth, that the resignation of Mr. Knight be accepted, which was carried.

It was moved by Mr. Walker, the motion being duly seconded, that a vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Knight for the interest he took in the building up of the club.

It was moved by Mr. Mandell, seconded by Mr. Macbeth, that Mr. Knight be given a life membership in the club, without the payment of dues, which motion was carried.

The retiring treasurer thanked the club for the courtesies and compliments paid him.

A motion then prevailed that the chair appoint a committee of three to recommend a suitable gentleman, one who will take interest in the club, for treasurer and make report at the special meeting to be held next Tuesday night. The chair appointed Messrs. Mandell, Lewis and Macbeth.

The meeting then adjourned, and the members were introduced to Wm. M. Breckenridge and Karl J. Waller, two young bicycle riders from Chicago, who are on a trip "Around the World on Sterling Bicycles," by members of the local bicycle club.

(From Friday's Daily.)

A. M. Berger, of Los Lunas, passed up the road for Santa Fe last night.

Mrs. John Jacoby is quite ill at her residence in south Albuquerque.

O. N. Marron, the popular district court clerk, returned home from Santa Fe Wednesday night.

Hon. T. B. Catron, who was here in the election cases, returned to his home in Santa Fe last night.

Cade Selvy, special officer of the Atlantic & Pacific, returned from a trip over the road last night.

Messrs. Breckenridge and Waller, the Chicago bicyclists, left for the west on passenger train No. 1 this morning.

Col. J. L. Morris, in the employ of the Santa Fe road at Wallace, is in the city, and made a pleasant call at this Citizen's office.

Mrs. Booker, of Los Angeles, who has been at the Armijo for the past six weeks, will leave to-morrow morning for Las Cruces.

Gov. Stover and M. S. Otero will go to Santa Fe this evening, and will to-morrow attend the annual meeting of the directors of the Santa Fe railroad branch companies in New Mexico.

H. T. Comer, formerly owner of the Nathan Hall Cattle company of Socorro county, was in the city yesterday, and was introduced around by G. L. Brooks. Mr. Comer is settling up the affairs of the company.

O. R. Coulter, editor and manager of Western Veteran, Kansas City, is in the city, and was introduced at this Citizen's office by his cousin, Ed. D. Fluke. Mr. Coulter is returning from the Pacific coast. He will leave this evening for the north, being accompanied by Mr. Fluke as far as Raton.

In an item in this paper a few days ago an injustice was unintentionally done to the Sisters of Charity. The school board of the old town district closed the school for lack of funds. When the present board took charge last June there were no funds on hand, and only $500 has been received since that date. The board contracted for an eight months' school, but after a three-months session it was found impossible to secure funds to pay the teachers, and they kindly consented to cancel their contract with the board. The board is making every effort to collect in funds due, and hope to open a three-months term early in the coming year.

R. C. Zeno, a well known professional athlete, is in the city. He arrived from the south, after a successful tour through the Lone Star state, where he gave exhibitions in wrestling and glove contests at Fort Worth, Dallas and San Antonio. At the latter place he met Jesse Clark, of California, in a wrestling contest, and won two straight falls in four and seven minutes. He called at this Citizen's office and stated that he would stop a man here, calling himself "Kid" Doney, in ten rounds before the Athletic club, or fight any welter or middle weight pugilist in the territory. This is a pointer for Jimmy Flynn, of Los Cerrillos.

Al Coleman, who presides with great avardship over Zeiger's Cafe, informs this Citizen that the Cafe did an immense business yesterday, feeding over 150 people at dinner. Think of it! Boiled turkey, oyster sauce; roast turkey, cranberry sauce; domestic duck, apple sauce; sucking pig, apple dressing; with many other nice things, and they were all on the menu yesterday. Henry Goetz was at the range, and he dished out the good eatables without a hitch or mistake. A dozen waiters were kept busy serving the masses.

T. J. Shinick has the swiftest driver in the territory, and his name is famous. "She must be," says Shinick, "about 15 years old, and she can go fast enough to kick dirt into the face of any horse that tries to pass her." Yesterday afternoon she knew it was Thanksgiving, and that a football game was in progress over in old town. She was, therefore, as lively as a 2-year-old married folks, and skipped over the ground at a gallop considerably less than 240. Mr. Shinick is thinking of training "Betty" for the old maid's stake at the next territorial fair.

Mrs. M. C. Wille, her daughter, Miss Olive Wille and Master Karl Wille, who arrived at the Armijo hotel last Friday evening from Keokuk, Iowa, are so infatuated with Albuquerque and the pleasant winter climate that they will remain until next Monday evening, when they leave for Lordsburg, Cal., to enjoy the winter with a sister of Mrs. Wille. They are excellent visitors, and this Citizen would be pleased to have them winter here.

At the last meeting of the Ancient Order of United Workmen the following officers were elected: Master workman, Fred L. Griggs; foreman, W. H. Long; overseer, W. H. Hayden; recorder, J. J. Votaw; financier, W. H. Hahn; receiver, A. D. Johnson; guide, James Kiwood; inside watchman, William Lynch; outside watchman, J. Brittenette; trustee, S. B. Con; representative to grand lodge, J. J. Votaw.

El Titus, general live stock agent for the Santa Fe system of roads and a relative of Mrs. W. M. Weaver, was in the city yesterday, and in the afternoon entertained a number of intimate friends to a grand dinner at Zeiger's Cafe. Mr. Titus and G. L. Brooks, live stock agent, left this morning for City of Mexico and Guaymas, to superintend the shipment of a lot of cattle into the United States.

Col. Jos. P. Walsh, of Chicago, who spent a few months of last winter in this city, has returned and yesterday was a welcome caller at this Citizen's office. When he left for his northern home, after a stay here he had gained twenty pounds and was in good fighting trim. He stood in fear of the cold weather of Chicago, and came back to get some more of the healthful and invigorating atmosphere of the Rio Grande. He's all right.

Isaac Jackson, the defeated fusion candidate for river commissioner, is an artist in arranging miniature Thanksgiving dinners. For instance: That "family affair," in one of the front windows of the Trigg Jewelry company, and which was observed by many yesterday, was the work of Isaac. He did himself proud.

Mrs. J. P. Worrell, mother of Mrs. Rita Granger, and the latter's niece, Miss Moore Butler, have arrived from Larned, Kansas, and will remain indefinitely. Mrs. Worrell is well pleased with Albuquerque, and her sister will endeavor to persuade her to make this city her home in the future.

Judge Thos. Smith, chief justice of the territorial supreme court, came down from Las Vegas last Wednesday night and enjoyed Thanksgiving with his wife, who is stopping at Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Childers'. He returned to Las Vegas last night.

Justice Lockhart, police magistrate of the city, returned Wednesday night from the Cochiti mining district, and on his Thanksgiving turkey with his family at the Hotel Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gainsley entertained a few friends last evening. The guests were treated to a grand turkey supper, and they all did the repeat ample justice.

Reciprocity the Watchword. It comes with bad grace for parties to come to this Citizen's office to get free notices for contemplated balls, festivals and entertainments after getting their job printing done elsewhere. Such persons are informed that they must pay like merchants and other people in full for any notices they may want. We don't believe in reciprocity, and extend favors only to our friends.

COURT MATTERS.

A Receiver's Expenses Reduced—The Receiver's Case.

In the case of George C. Brown et al. vs. the New Mexico Savings Bank and Trust Company, Judge Collier rendered a decision to the effect that from and after December 1, 1934, the compensation of the receiver of the defendant company shall be at the rate of $150 per month, and his attorney at the rate of $500 per annum, payable quarterly, the compensation of receiver to be allowed quarterly only upon order of the court, based upon affidavit by the receiver that he has rendered daily personal service to the trust and has only been absent from his office during usual hours of business upon matters of the receivership. The opinion also dispenses with the services of a clerk for the receiver.

The election cases—that is, ascertaining whether the precincts of Nacimiento, La Jara and Guadalupe are still in this county, the same before as after the election—is being heard to-day in chambers by Judge Collier. Hon. T. B. Catron, republican delegate-elect to congress, and Hon. F. W. Clancy submitted testimony and affidavits this morning, strong and conclusive, for the republicans, that the three disputed precincts were still in Bernalillo county.

Judge Warren and Hon. H. B. Ferguson, for the democrats, or rather for Leonard Skinner, who is contesting the race for assessor against F. A. Hubbell, have C. F. Easley, surveyor general of the territory, present, and this afternoon they introduced testimony from the surveyor general in support of their claim. Arguments are now being heard, and a decision from the judge is likely not to be reached until evening.

Both candidates interested in the decision, F. A. Hubbell and Leonard Skinner, are present, besides Hon. Pedro Perea, B. S. Raley, Judge Lee and many others.

Let's Face It.

The Citizens learned this afternoon from Hon. Austin Goodall, of Cerrillos, who was in Socorro the other day, that the report that Sam Dedrick, with others, had been massacred by Yaqui Indians, is entirely groundless. Mr. Goodall states that L. M. Brown, surveyor of Socorro county, has received a letter from Mr. Dedrick, written several days after the supposed massacre, in which the writer says he and party are well and alive. The correction is gladly made, for the reason that Mr. Dedrick has many friends in New Mexico who were made sad by the first report.

Lots of Goods.

There are lots of goods in this town. We never saw the fall stocks fuller or more complete. The prices are right too. There is no reason why our merchants shouldn't enjoy a good amount of trade and they can with the proper amount of advertising. Every merchant in town that has a dollar's worth of goods to sell ought to make known the facts. Advertising, and do it in a way that will attract attention abroad. Real live wide awake merchants use the newspapers and do it successfully. One firm, two firms, three firms can't do it but all can. The columns of this Citizen are open to all. You can talk to thousands of purchasers not only in this city but in all the neighboring towns and country around.

"Around the World."

William M. Breckenridge and Karl J. Waller, two young bicycle riders from Chicago, "around the world on their sterling wheels," arrived in the city yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and will remain until Thanksgiving, when they will resume their journey through western New Mexico, across the Mohave desert and thence through southwestern California to San Francisco. They will visit the Sandwich islands, New Zealand, India, Egypt and other countries in their travels, and expect to make the trip in two years and a half. They left Chicago on October 2, and have visited St. Louis, the principal towns in Kansas, Denver, Pueblo, Trinidad, Las Vegas, and are now in the metropolis of New Mexico. They are making the trip on a wage of $5,000. While here Messrs. Shurt, Colington, Lee, Moore, Lockhart and others of the local bicycle club will have charge of the visitors.

A Snorter.

Miss Frances Dye has proved herself quite a snorter for charity. She thought she would do something for the Children's Home, and this morning she presented the Home with $11 in money, which she had obtained by subscription from gentlemen residing in the First ward. The young lady wishes this paper to thank the gentlemen for their generosity.

Killing Confirmed.

The story of the killing of R. E. L. Robinson, and Logan is now confirmed by Professors McGee and Dinwiddie of the Ethnological bureau of the Smithsonian Institute. The Indians first denied the killing, but finally admitted it, but would not point out the murderers. They denied that the men's remains were served at a cannibal feast. The explorer, however, found no trace of the bodies. The Indians have been a life study of these professors, who say they are the most primitive Indians they ever saw. The savages eat their meat raw and live entirely by the chase and the sea. About 400 of them survive.

Taxes Paid in Europe.

The total annual taxes of Great Britain are $505,000,000; of France, $710,000,000; of Germany, $540,000,000; of Russia, $350,000,000; of Austria, $275,000,000; of Italy, $205,000,000.

Streak of Bad Luck.

Judge Collier and his sister, Miss Collier, the efficient assistant district court clerk, have received some more bad news about their family. Paul J. Collier, a brother, who travels for the New York tobacco house, was in the big Fort Worth, Texas, hotel fire the other day, and besides losing his clothing, except a suit of clothes, $10 in money was burned. He is a sound sleeper, and barely awakened with his life. George Collier, another brother and proprietor of the summer hotel, Wygman, at Indian Springs, Ok., lost the hotel stables by fire the other evening, and several fine horses and buggies were destroyed. At the time of the fire, Mr. Collier was absent from Indian Springs on insurance business.

Same Situation Here.

Printers are more numerous in Prescott than republicans in purgatory, and every one of them threatens to start a new paper next week, the objective points being Prescott, Jerome, Ash Fork, Chappal Gulch, Congress and Seligman. In the meantime the fellows who are running papers feel disposed to run to the woods when the weekly pay roll has to be footed.—Prescott Courier.

BEFORE THANKSGIVING.

What the soldiers expected and no doubt received.

Editors' Notes.

Fort Wingate, N. M., Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving is the dominating subject here at present, the post exchange having received a supply of poultry and other articles for use on that national holiday which affects alike every loyal American heart.

BAND NOTES.

"This is something like New York life," said our band cook, Mr. Berth, as he displayed three colossal cakes to the boys this morning. Mr. Berth is a candy maker, confectioner and an adept at pastry cooking of many years' experience, having served in that vocation in New York city long before entering the army, and to say he thoroughly understands his business and never fails to charm the palate of the most fastidious is hardly doing him justice. He has prepared a magnificent cake for each of the three tables in the band mess room, the center table bearing a three-story monster which, I think, is worthy of description in this Citizen. The ground floor is composed of a mixture such as alone is capable of making. Second story, sugar network of very delicate and frail construction, studded with four-leaved shamrocks and roses of every color. The third story is composed of bass cello, music and rack complete. The other two have decorations equally imposing. The menu for the band dinner is as follows: Oyster stew, roast turkey, cranberry sauce; roast pork, apple sauce; mashed potatoes, cranberry and Saratoga chips, green peas, corn, snow chow, celery, pickles, fruit cake, jelly cake, pound cake, mince, cranberry and pumpkin pie; coffee, wine, chocolate, nuts, candies and cigars.

Lieutenant Trout, Sergeant Delmar and Corporal Davis, of H troop, returned on the 25th from an eighteen-days' hunt in the vicinity of Jemez mountains. Corporal Davis reports a very successful and pleasant trip, several turkeys and several encounters with deer and bear breaking the monotony of the journey.

W. F. McLaughlin returned on the 23d from a business call at Blue Water. Mrs. Kate Griffin of Oklahoma, is visiting Mrs. Allison and family of this post. Messrs. Cotton, of Wingate, and Meyer, night operator at Flagstaff, gave our correspondent a pleasant call on the 23d inst. Mr. Cotton says he is just beginning to realize how narrow our wagon roads are since securing a bicycle.

Mr. C. M. Carr received a message on the 23d calling him to Albuquerque on account of the sickness of his wife, who we learn at this writing is improving. Our photographer, Mr. Brooks, will soon take his departure for Los Angeles, leaving a good opening for someone who wishes to establish an art gallery here.

Mrs. Van Doren left the post last Monday for a Thanksgiving visit in Los Angeles.

The Second Cavalry band is going to give a grand masquerade ball December 31. A band of twenty-eight pieces will be furnished under the guidance of our orchestra leader, Sergeant Matson, and the post hall will be decorated and draped under the auspices of Sergeant Dunlap. The grand opening march will be headed by two drum majors, and every effort is being put forth to make it a success. Many from Gallup and neighboring towns contemplate attending, and Mr. Gable is being consulted as to excursion rates from Albuquerque and immediate points. Unless further contingencies count for naught it will be the coming ball of the season. A magnificent lunch will be served, and no courtesy tending to the comfort of visitors will be overlooked.

POESIES.

Knight of Pythias.

Grand Chancellor W. F. Kuehnbecker, of Gallup, has appointed the following past chancellors as district deputy grand chancellors within the grand jurisdiction of New Mexico: Thos. A. Roff, Eldorado No. 1, Las Vegas; C. F. Easley, Santa Fe No. 2, Santa Fe; C. S. Bailey, Rio Grande No. 3, Socorro; J. J. Murphy, Harmony No. 4, Raton; George Curry, Lincoln No. 7, Lincoln; T. A. Finical, Mineral No. 4, Albuquerque; August Reingard, Black Range No. 8, Kingston; G. F. Ueblich, Baxter No. 9, White Oaks; R. F. McGarvey, R. E. Cowan No. 11, Blumburg; Geo. W. Miles, Silver City No. 12, Silver City; S. M. Brown, Gallup No. 13, Gallup; Wm. Kilpatrick, Carthage No. 14, Cerrillos; J. T. Williams, Vesper No. 15, Cerrillos; C. M. Hoss, Justus H. Rathbone No. 17, Nat. Marcial; C. C. Clark, Magdalena No. 18, Kelly; L. Treasel, Sierra No. 19, Hillsboro; N. A. Bolch, Denning No. 20, Denning; L. Anderson, Eddy No. 21, Eddy; W. T. Joiner, Columbus No. 22, Roswell.

These officers just appointed are men well known throughout the territory as business men and gentlemen of integrity. By their help the grand chancellor elect hopes to bring the order into a higher position, increase the membership and be able to institute several new lodges. The membership is now over 1,300 in New Mexico, and the order is in excellent condition, new members being added constantly.

Scrofula is one of the most fatal among the scourges which afflict mankind. Chronic sores, cancerous humors, emaciation, and consumption are the result of scrofula. Ayer's Sarsaparilla eradicates this poison, and restores to the blood the elements of life and health.

GEN. E. A. CARR.

An Interesting Sketch of His Military and Civic Career.

HE LIKES NEW MEXICO.

THE CITIZEN a few days ago announced personally the arrival of Gen. Eugene A. Carr in this city, and intimated that it is more than likely that the well known army officer, now on the retired list, would make Albuquerque his future home. A brief sketch of the general will be read with interest.

Gen. Carr was born in Erie county, New York. He entered West Point in 1854, and graduated in 1860. He then enlisted in the regiment of Mounted riflemen and served on the great plains in 1862-63. In the fall of 1864 he was wounded in a fight with Mesquero Apaches, near El Paso, Texas. He was promoted into the First cavalry, and raised in 1866, when Jefferson Davis was secretary of war. He served again on the plains in Indian territory and Kansas until the war between the states broke out. During the war he was engaged in the battle of Wilson Creek and in the battle of Pea Ridge, where he was hit three times, and for which he was promoted to be brigadier general of volunteers and received a brevet in the regular army. He has recently been awarded the congressional medal of honor. He commanded a division in the Vicksburg campaign—commanded the left wing of the Sixteenth army corps, and then the cavalry of the district of Little Rock. In 1863 to 1865 he was engaged in battles of Saline, Prairie D'Anne, Poison Springs, Camden and Jenkins' Ferry; and also engaged in the siege of Spanish Fort and capture of Mobile.

Since the war Gen. Carr has served almost continuously in the west. He was engaged in the battle of Beaver Creek, Oct. 18, 1868, and Chalk Bluffs, Oct. 25, a few days later, driving the Indians out of Kansas. He was in winter campaign of 1869, and in nine fights at Elephant Rock and Spring creek, and at Republican, Kansas, in the spring of 1869. He was in the battle of Summit Springs, Col., July 11, 1869, where he annihilated the Dog Soldier band. For this service he received resolutions of thanks from the legislatures of Colorado and Nebraska. He served in Arizona from 1871 to 1874. In the expedition of the Big Horn and Yellowstone in 1876, he engaged in the battle of Slim Butte, then again in Arizona in 1876, battle of Cibola in 1883, and the defense of Fort Apache same year. He made an expedition after Victorio, the bloodthirsty Apache, into New and Old Mexico in 1880; served in New Mexico from 1884 to 1890, commanding the district part of the time, and receiving a vote of thanks from the legislature of New Mexico for his management of the Navajo Indians. After this he went to the Pine Ridge campaign, and since then, especially during this year, he has been interested in ranching in New Mexico.

Gen. Carr has during his long and varied career at different times been employed in the affairs of civil government, particularly during the territorial times in Kansas and his admission as a state, and has always been a firm and consistent advocate of the sovereignty of the people.

He has always believed that there ought to be two more regiments stationed in New Mexico, and has recommended in several annual reports that there should be more military departments, the headquarters of which would naturally be the most important cities, such as Albuquerque, where supplies could be obtained and convenient for traveling.

As this Citizen states above, Gen. Carr expects to make his home in New Mexico, probably in this city. He has confidence in the great future of the territory, which is bound to come with the development of its many valuable resources.

When Wool was Cheap.

"Thirty-five years ago," said a veteran trader of Las Vegas, N. M., "I paid 15 cents per fleece on the sheep, and the growers thought they had made a good bargain." At a period ending a few years earlier, when that region was a part of Mexico, wool had no saleable value, and sheep were sheared chiefly for the health of the animals. Some of the wool was used in the Mexican households for the making of felt
