VOLUME 12.

CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, MARCH 3, 1911.

NUMBER 4

Decision Expected Monday.

The long-drawn-out county seat case is to be heard at Alamogordo Monday. As has been heretofore stated, the territorial supreme court having passed upon all the issues, this case will bring out no new points. It is confidently expected that work will soon recommence on the court house and jail.

The plaintiffs may, if they so desire, appeal to the supreme court of the United States, and an intimation that such an appeal will be made has been given, but whether the appeal will be perfected is, of course, a matter of conjecture. Should such an appeal be taken it will probably be two or three years before the highest court could reach it. In the meantime if an injunction is granted work will not begin; but few fear an injunction without the filing of an adequate bond for damages, which will be a protection to all parties, except those signing the bond, and to them it will be a very serious matter should they again fail in court.

Brightening Prospects.

We sang a little song of approaching prosperity last week, because of the good snow that had fallen, but this week it should be swelled to a chorus because of additional moisture. "One swallow does not make spring," it is true, nor does one snow make a season; but one snow after another, mixed with rain, does make a season, and that is what we have. For about twenty-four hours it snowed and rained, and rained and snowed, this week, and old mother earth that was slowly perishing with thirst had her best drink in several seasons. The farmer should have no difficulty in getting his land in good shape for the coming season, and the prospects for a bountiful crop were never more flattering. The moisture is deep, the season is promising and the man with the hoe will again be in clover. The season is now approaching when, with this late moisture, green feed will make its appearance. The stockman, then, should enjoy one of the most profitable seasons in years, and especially to the sheepman the year 1911 should be a record breaker. With brightening prospects for the farmer and stockman and the promise of an abundance of water for all industrial purposes, each and everyone should feel that the lean period is a thing of the past, and the fat period is a thing of the past.

Nothing of the Burglars.

So far as the general public is aware, there is no clue to the perpetrators of the burglary of last week. The American Bankers' Association, of which the Exchange Bank is a member, got busy at once and, as a matter of course, the detectives on the case, on behalf of the association, are keeping their own counsel. Constable Oswald arrested two suspicious characters soon after the burglary, on one of whom he found a bunch of skeleton keys. The hoboos were turned loose, however, as they could not be connected with the burglary. The pair were, without question, up to some phony business, but were probably not after as big game as a bank vault.

Boss Cox Indicted.
Cincinnati, Feb. 27.—A new indictment charging Geo. B. Cox, republican leader of Cincinnati, with perjury, was returned by the grand jury today. It is alleged that in addition to the receipt of $48,500 interest money paid by the banks to former county treasurer John H. Gibson, as charged in the first indictment, Cox was given $17,500 from the same source by Tilden R. French when the latter was county treasurer.

Some Bargains in Farm & Spring Wagons.

WE ARE CLOSING OUT our stock of the celebrated WINONA MOUNTAIN WAGONS at prices much below the cost of delivering.

The Oldest Klickitat.

Jake Hunt, the oldest living Klickitat Indian known, lies at death's door at his home adjoining this town east of here. The old Indian is reputed to be more than 100 years of age.

Years ago an Indian village stood where the Hunt family now carries on a general farming business. All that is left of the old settlement is a little church, a totem pole and numerous mounds where the Klickitats lie who could not reach the century mark. Old Jake says that this was the Indians' paradise before the advent of early white settlers.

Jake Hunt is destined not to die a poor Indian. His lands are as rich and productive as any in the valley and command a high price. He is said to have married seven times during his long career, but there will be only a widow and a few children to fall heir to his valuable property.—Husum Correspondence Portland Oregonian.

Fame and Fate.

Fame came to the man.

"I will have a five-cent cigar named for you," she said, sweetly.

Fate followed on her heels.

"I'll make you smoke the cigar!" hissed Fate.

MADE WITH MOLASSES

VARIOUS GOOD FOOD ARTICLES IN WHICH IT IS USED.

Directions for the Making of Gingerbread, Pudding, Pie, Muffins and Parliament Cake With This Wholesome Cane Product.

Molasses and golden syrup are such easily obtained and cheap commodities that the housewife, ignorant of their enormous value in the good world, is often given to looking slightly upon them. No better food exists than this pure product of the sugar cane.

From a chemical point of view honey is a very wholesome and valuable food. But syrup is as valuable. It is in nature really a kind of honey.

Honey is composed of three different kinds of sugar, a mixture of cane sugar, which crystallizes; a fruit sugar, which does not candy at all, and of invert sugar, a compound of the two.

Cookery supplies many ways of using it. As gingerbread, in taffy, plain in a pretty molasses pitcher, to be used in bread like honey, or eaten abundantly as an accompaniment of milk puddings of all kinds, it may be used.

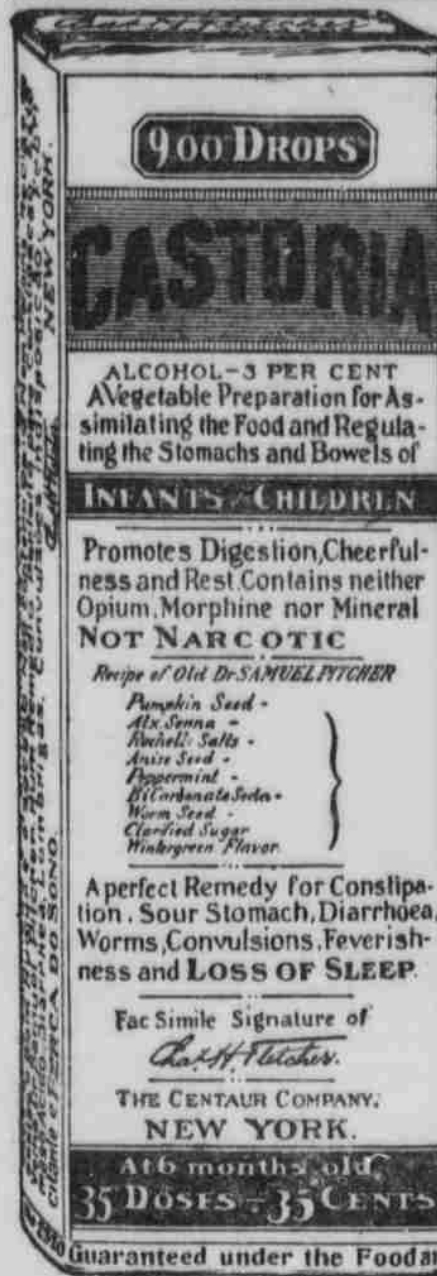

Gingerbread.—Sift three-quarters of a pound of flour into a basin, add half a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of carbonate of soda, one teaspoonful of ground ginger, one teaspoonful of allspice, a little grated nutmeg and half a teaspoonful of ground cinnamon. Melt together in a saucepan, one cupful of molasses, a quarter of a pound of sugar, a quarter of a pound of butter and half a cupful of milk. Cool and add to dry ingredients with two well beaten eggs. Mix well, then pour into a buttered and floured cake tin. Bake slowly for three-quarters of an hour.

Molasses Pudding.—Beat together four ounces of butter and three ounces of sugar till quite creamy. Add one well beaten egg, three-quarters of a teacup of molasses and gently fold in half a pound of sifted flour. Add as much slightly warmed milk as will be necessary to form the mixture into a soft consistency, then add one teaspoonful of ground ginger, and one heaping teaspoonful of baking powder. Beat all very well together, pour into a greased basin, or mold, cover with greased paper, and steam for three hours. Turn out on a hot platter and serve immediately.

Molasses Pie.—Beat the yolks of four eggs with one cupful of brown sugar, add one cupful of molasses and two teaspoonfuls of grated nutmeg, then add two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, two heaping teaspoonfuls of cornstarch, mixed with three tablespoonfuls of cream, and the whites of the eggs stiffly beaten. Pour the mixture into two pie tins lined with pastry. Bake for 40 minutes. Beat up three whites of eggs stiffly, add one heaping tablespoonful of sugar and beat again, then spread over the top of pies, set in oven and brown.

Molasses Muffins.—Quarter cupful of molasses, three heaping teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-quarter teaspoonful of salt, three eggs, one-half a cupful of milk, one cupful of flour and three-fourths cupful of rye meal. Mix and sift dry ingredients; add remaining ingredients; beat well. Drop from a spoon into smoking hot fat and fry to a golden color. Drain and serve.

Parliament Molasses Cakes.—Two ounces of butter, one pound of molasses, one pound of flour, one tablespoonful ground ginger, pearl ash size of a nut, small piece of alum. Melt the butter, add molasses, pour among flour, ginger, add pearl ash and alum. Beat mixture till very smooth. Leave it to get cold, roll out thin, cut into long pieces and bake in a moderate oven for 25 minutes.

IT IS A MISTAKE

Many have the idea that anything will sell if advertised strong enough. This is a great mistake. True, a few sales might be made by advertising an absolutely worthless article but it is only the article that is bought again and again that pays. An example of the big success of a worthy article is the enormous sale that has grown up for Cascarets Candy Cathartic. This wonderful record is the result of great merit successfully made known through persistent advertising and the mouth-to-mouth recommendation given Cascarets by its friends and users.

Like all great successes, trade pirates prey on the unsuspecting public, by marketing fake tablets similar in appearance to Cascarets. Care should always be exercised in purchasing well advertised goods, especially an article that has a national sale like Cascarets. Do not allow a substitute to be palmed off on you.

Art in the Nude.

The photographer's lady was very preoccupied showing some samples of work to prospective sitters, when a tall and raw-boned individual, apparently from "the land," stalked solemnly into the studio, and intimated that he would like to know what the "pictures" were worth.

"Like that, $3 a dozen," said the photographer's lady, handing him one.

The farmer gazed long and earnestly at the photograph of a very small baby sitting in a wash basin.

"And what would it cost with my clothes on?" he finally asked.

NURSE TELLS OF SKIN CURES

"I have seen the Cuticura Remedies used with best results during the past twenty years. In my work as a nurse, many skin disease cases came under my observation, and in every instance, I always recommended the Cuticura Remedies as they always gave entire satisfaction. One case in particular was that of a lady friend of mine who, when a child, was afflicted with eczema which covered her face and hands entirely, breaking out at intervals with severer torture. She could not go to school as the disfigurement looked terrible. I told her to get at once a set of Cuticura Remedies. After the use of only one set she was perfectly well.

"A grown lady friend was afflicted with salt rheum in one of her thumbs, and she was cured by the Cuticura Remedies. Still another lady had dry salt rheum in both palms of her hands every fall of the year. They used to be so painful she could scarcely wet her hands until she began to use the Cuticura Remedies which cured her. I have also seen them cure children of ringworm. The children's faces would be all circles and rings around the cheeks, and the neck, and after treatment with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment they were completely cured. My husband had rheumatism on his arm and I used the Cuticura Ointment. It made his arm as limber and nice, whereas it was quite stiff before I began to apply the Ointment.

"Last May I had an ingrowing toe nail which was very painful, as the side of the nail was edging right down in the side of my toe. I cut the nail out of the cavity it made, and of course applied the Cuticura Ointment to the part affected. It soothed it and in less than ten nights it was all healed through constant use of the Ointment. Ten days ago I had my left hand and wrist burned with boiling lard, and Cuticura Ointment has completely cured them. I have just recommended the Cuticura Remedies to another friend, and she is pleased with the results and is recovering nicely. I will gladly furnish the names of the people referred to above if anybody doubts what I say." (Signed) Mrs. Margaret Hederson, 77 Highland Ave., Malden, Mass., Oct. 1, 1910

PEPPER NUTS ARE VERY RICH

How to Make These Favorite Small Cakes That Will Keep Well for a Long Time.

These are a favorite small cake that may be made in quantity and kept on hand for special occasions. Cream together one cup of butter, one of lard and two of brown sugar. Add three eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Then add the spices—one grated nutmeg, two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon and two of anise seed, one teaspoonful of ground cloves, four spoonfuls whole coriander, one cupful chopped almonds and one-eighth chopped citron. Next add four cups of molasses with which have been mixed two teaspoonfuls of soda dissolved in a little warm water and four with which four teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar have been sifted, using flour to make a stiff dough. Knead with the hands until well mixed and smooth, then roll out on a floured board into long rolls about an inch in diameter. With a sharp knife cut into slices a quarter of an inch thick. Bake in a quick oven to light brown, and when cold put into a tin cake box, where they will keep for a long time.

The Home

To remove black ink stains on children's colored frocks, etc., cover them immediately with red ink and then wash. In this way the damage may be made good, not a trace of either ink remaining.

When the lemons from which you are about to extract the juice for cooking are brought cold from the store-room the juice will be extracted easier if the lemons are warmed a trifle.

To destroy moths put the moth-infested articles into a baker's oven which has just been used for baking. Let them remain there over night and in the morning take them out and shake and beat them in the open air.

Many women who do not venture to prepare caramel at home because of the danger of burning instead of browning the sugar do not know that the druggist has it at its best. Delicious custard is made with maple sugar for sweetening and caramel for coloring and the two flavors blend excellently. The caramel is useful for coloring sauces as well as for flavoring custards and creams.

Maids of Honor.

Line some gem pans with paste. Then make the following mixture: one tablespoonful of sago, soaked for half an hour in water, then boil it for a few minutes till it is cooked and thick; put in a basin a quarter of a pound of sugar, a quarter of a pound of butter and beat to a cream, add two well-beaten eggs and beat again; then add two ounces of grated coconut, grated rind and strained juice of half a lemon, mixed well, and last add the boiled sago. Mix all well; nearly fill the lined pans, and bake till cooked.

Mince Pie.

The origin of this famous dish is involved in fable. Some people suppose that the spices used in the delectable filling are traceable to the offerings of the wise men of the east.

Long ago mince pies were of an oblong form.

JMO. A. HALEY, EDITOR

House Approves Constitution.

The lower house of congress unanimously approved the constitution for New Mexico the first of this month. The only serious obstacle to early admission is approval by the senate. The only danger to be encountered in the senate, so far as known, is lack of time. Congress adjourns tomorrow noon and the senate has a mass of unfinished business.

Congress adjourns tomorrow at noon. Many important measures will not get through for lack of time, and it is asserted that President Taft will call an extra session. The tariff will be the big thing in the extra session.

The proposition to elect United States senators by direct vote was defeated in the senate this week. The vote stood 54 for to 33 against, but as a two-thirds majority was required the proposition was lost. The adoption of an amendment, empowering the federal government to supervise the election of senators caused a number of the southern senators to oppose the measure. There seems to be always something to interfere when the people's interest are at stake.

The people of Carrizozo and all Lincoln county, for that matter, should get busy with the department on that auto mail route. Three weeks ago we called the attention of our readers to this matter. Strong influences are at work to have the government establish a route from Tularosa to Roswell, and, while we hope the effort will succeed, yet the establishment of that line makes it imperative that this part of the county have a connecting line with it. A line should run from here to Hondo, and with such lines established all parts of Lincoln county would enjoy excellent mail facilities. It is certainly worth going after and the opportunity to secure it should not be lost.

Two weeks ago, when discussing the difficulties in the way of approval of New Mexico's constitution, we suggested as one difficulty that Arizona would be in our way. Since that statement the dispatches have announced that it was a good guess. The Arizona delegation, so we are told, despairing of favorable action on their constitution by this congress, are urging members to hold up New Mexico's constitution until the next regular congress. With adjournment by tomorrow noon, an over-crowded calendar in the senate and some opposition to our admission at this time, New Mexico's fate hangs by a slender thread. By noon tomorrow, however, if not before, we shall know.

For a Parcels Post.

The parcels post has its advocates and its opponents—some opponents from honest motives, but the most powerful opponents from selfish motives. The express companies are deadly enemies to the establishment of a parcels post. The following from the Rural New Yorker conveys some startling information:

The Interstate Commerce Commission has issued its first report on the statistics of express companies. The companies claimed real estate valued at $14,932,169.24, while their equipment cost $7,381,405.59. They did a total business through the year of $132,599,190.92. They paid for "express privileges," which means to railroads and other carriers $64,032,126.69. The American Express Co. alone took in $31,896,497.22 as gross receipts. This company had accumulated $45,864,677.65 as assets, most of it in cash, stocks and bonds. The Adams Express Company showed in 1909 assets amounting to $57,648,039.97. This company was then represented by 120,000 shares. In 1898 and in 1907 the Adams issued $36,000,000 in bonds to its shareholders as a means of getting rid of that vast amount of surplus earnings. All this was in addition to regular dividends. It was put out in this way so that the actual rate of dividends would not seem too large. It is shown by this report that express companies are all mixed up with each other and also with the railroads. In 1909 railroad companies held stock in the express companies to the amount of $14,124,000.00, while the express companies had $20,471,942.36 worth of railroad stock. The Adams alone held $3,990,000 of Pennsylvania Railroad stock. It also held stock in other express companies to the value of $2,846,125, while the total thus held by all express companies was $4,662,658.33. The directors of the express companies are "interchangeable"—that is, some of them are on several different companies, and also directors of railroads. We shall give the figures and the facts about this until the people understand them. They must go with parcels post and Alfalfa as fundamental things for farmers and country people to remember. For years this nation has been robbed and bled by a combination of carriers that is now fighting parcels post because they see in it the end of their grip upon public transportation. Think of the Adams Express Co. distributing $36,000,000 of the people's money in bonds—not daring to show dividends large enough to cover the amount.

Tree Planting.

According to many authorities the first of March is an opportune time to set out shade trees—that is before the sap begins to rise. That should apply particularly this year, for the recent cold snap will hold the sap back for some time. Another feature that makes this a most favorable time is that the ground is in a most receptive mood, containing more moisture than for many seasons.

Nothing lends more beauty to the home than a triangular row of shade trees, and similar treatment to the streets of a town has the same effect. It is true that the experience our people have had with shade trees the past two seasons have been disappointing, but they labored under adverse conditions, brought about by extreme dry weather. Present conditions warrant another effort with better prospects of success.

Pig-in-the-Bag Auction Sale.

To-morrow evening, Saturday, from 6:30 until 10 o'clock, the ladies of the Home Mission Society will hold an auction sale of edibles at Real's Hall, for the benefit of the new church to be constructed this spring. There is to be any amount of merriment. All are invited. A Beauty Show, A Fortune Telling Booth and the Fat Lady will all be drawing cards to interest and amuse.

Be sure to come early and have your fortune told by the great Seer, Madame Know-It-All.

The ladies of the Home Mission want you to come to add to the merry-making tomorrow night.

Got a Fall.

Wm. S. Bourne met with a fall Tuesday that laid him up for three or four days. A ladder, on which he had climbed to the top of one of the storage oil tanks, fell, precipitating him to the ground, and in the descent the ladder occupied the uppermost position. He was able to be out yesterday, but, naturally, is not anxious for a similar experience.

Roads Not to Contest Decision.

Chicago, March 1.—Thirty-five western railroads decided today to make no appeal from the recent decision of the interstate commerce commission denying the roads the right to increase freight rates. They will accept the decree of the commission as final. The decision was reached at a meeting of the representatives of the roads of the western trunk line association headquarters here. The opinion was advanced by many that the roads would be unable to make any stronger showing before the new commerce court than before the commission and that once the new court had ruled its decree would be binding for two years.

It also was argued that if the roads comply with the decree without objection and withdraw the advanced tariffs before March 10, there will be an opportunity at a later date to submit advances on certain rates, some of which may meet with favor.

A Play Well Presented.

"The play is the thing
To test the conscience of the king."

On Thursday evening at the Real hall, a pleasing little drama entitled the "Heart of a Hero," was presented to a crowded house. Like all plays of its kind, it had a happy ending. The stage settings were tastefully arranged and laid out better than most of the audience expected, and the different characters were faithfully represented. Mr. E. Wilson, as the "Squire," and Mrs. E. Wilson as the "Squire's Sister," held the leading roles, and were ably assisted by Miss V. Fenton, as the "Squire's Daughter," and did full justice to the characters without over-doing them, as did likewise all those taking part. Mr. Gauthat, as "Seth Marlow," did the "heavy," and played his part well but would have fitted a different character to better advantage. Mrs. W. Garvin, as "Tilly Sloan," Mr. Holmes, as "Arnold Payne," and Mr. Gibbons as "Marlow's Rival," acquitted themselves with credit. Mr. Northlane, as "Cy. Bodkin," although his role did not give him much chance to show himself, came next to a reality. It takes a wise head to play the fool, and Mrs. A. J. Rolland, as "Em," (a half-witted slave), a character that most ladies in the amateur class would turn down, was simply perfect, both in make-up and acting, and drew the applause of the house each time she appeared. The character was a difficult one, that called for more acting than elocution, but Mrs. Rolland filled it perfectly. The performance will be repeated this evening.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MASTER'S SALE.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE TERRITORY OF NEW MEXICO.

MARY R. HAMILTON, et al., Appellees,
vs.
Eagle Mining and Improvement Co., Appellants.
No. 1177.

H. B. HAMILTON, Adm., etc., et al., Appellees,
vs.
Eagle Mining and Improvement Co., Appellants.
No. 1178.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and judgment and decree issued out of the Supreme Court of the Territory of New Mexico, on the 5th day of January, A. D., 1911, in the above entitled causes, wherein the above named appellee, Humphrey B. Hamilton, Jr., as administrator of the estate of Humphrey B. Hamilton, deceased, obtained judgment in accordance with the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States, and in pursuance of a judgment theretofore entered in the Supreme Court of the Territory of New Mexico, affirming a judgment of the District Court in and for the county of Lincoln, against the appellant, Eagle Mining and Improvement company, on the 5th day of January, A. D., 1911, for the sum of fourteen thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight dollars and nineteen cents, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid, together with costs of suit, taxed at two hundred and eleven dollars and seventy-five cents, I am commanded to sell at public auction the following described real property, to-wit:

An undivided one-half interest in the Hopeful Lode mining claim and mill site, being designated by mineral certificate 395, and by Surveyor General as Lots 652A and 652B, embracing a portion of Township ten south of range eleven, E. of New Mexico principal meridian, said mining claim and mill site being the same property patented by government of the United States to R. C. Parsons, by patent issued August 3, 1892, and recorded in Book D, page 322, of the records of the probate clerk and ex-officio recorder of the county of Lincoln.

Public notice is hereby given that on the 29th day of April, A. D., 1911, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., of that day, at the front door of the new courthouse in course of construction in the town of Carrizozo, county of Lincoln, territory of New Mexico, I will, in obedience of said order of sale and judgment and decree, sell the above described property at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, to satisfy said judgment and costs and the expenses of this sale.

Witness my hand this first day of March, A. D. 1911.

CARRIZOZO NEWS

CARRIZOZO - NEW MEXICO

CURE FOR "HIGH BROWS."

The term "high brow" is a bit of modern slang typifying one whose head is inflated with air or ignorance instead of knowledge. It should not be applied to any one with real learning. Among the leading high brows of the town are those persons who think they think and who invariably choose the most abstruse subjects—science, religion, the drama, statecraft—for their mental paroxysms, says the New York Herald. No high brow has ever been known to brood over or lecture on or write books about "Roller Skating as a Career," "The Evolution of the Clothes Wringer," or "Bringing Home the Cows." The organ which they call a mind leads them up from such familiar fields to the cloudy regions of intellectual inebriety where fads and "isms" complete the destruction of their wits. It is, of course, impossible to check the course of thought, or what passes for thought, but it is a pity that the habit of attempting to fill with highly seasoned philosophy a brain that stands in sore need of such simple and nourishing diet as is afforded by the Rollo books, for example, cannot be summarily dealt with in a Home for High Brows, where faddists, immature consumers of German philosophy, victims of scientific and religious quacks may take a Keeley cure for pretentious ignorance at the hands of masters of the subcutaneous school of thought.

The list of vicars at Eastbourne parish church dates back to 1244, one of Canon Goodwyn's predecessors being Rev. Henry Lushington, D. D., a representative of the family of which the late Sir Godfrey Lushington was a member, says the Church Family Newspaper. This Doctor Lushington, of whom there is a memorial in the church, had a son who was one of the survivors of the tragedy of the Black Hole of Calcutta, and who was barbarously murdered a few years later by native rebels in India. A curious feature of Eastbourne parish church is that the chancel is out of rectilinear, being inclined somewhat to the south. It is possible that this is a suggestion of the inclination of our Lord's head upon the cross. One of the most interesting antiquities of the church is an eastern sepulchre in which in pre-Reformation times the burial of the Lord's body was symbolically represented by the consecrated host being placed there on Good Friday.

The incongruity of things appear strongly in the objections one can note in the New York papers with regard to Central Park. For two or three years the press of New York has been mourning because the soil fertility of that pleasure ground is not kept up. Now they are up in arms over a reported intention to dump street rubbish in that park. Yet if there is any quicker and cheaper way to restore worn-out soil in a large city than to fertilize with the street sweepings we have yet to learn of it.

That London newspaper man who has been doing America in 38 hours will probably get as much good out of the trip as some foreigners who have spent six months in trying to make up their minds about us. But his feat wasn't worth while.

INSIDE HISTORY.

Some Self-Explanatory Letters.
Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 7, '11.
Dr. E. H. Pratt,
Suite 1202, 100 State St.,
Chicago, Illinois.

My Dear Doctor:

"Owing to some disagreement with magazine several years ago they have become quite vituperative, and of late have publicly charged me with falsehoods in my statements that we have genuine testimonial letters.

"It has been our rule to refrain from publishing the names either of laymen or physicians who have written to us in a complimentary way, and we have declined to accede to the demand of attorneys that we turn these letters over to them.

"I am asking a few men whom I deem to be friends to permit me to reproduce some of their letters over their signatures in order to refute the falsehoods.

"We have hundreds of letters from physicians, but I esteem the one that you wrote to me in 1906 among the very best particularly in view of the fact that it recognizes the work I have been trying to do partly through the little book, "The Road to Wellville."

"I do not sell or attempt to sell the higher thought which is more important than the kind of food, but I have taken considerable pains to extend to humanity such facts as may have come to me on this subject.

"In order that your mind may be refreshed I am herewith enclosing a copy of your good letter, also a copy of the little book, and if you will give me the privilege of printing this over your signature I will accompany the printing with an explanation as to why you permitted its use in publication in order to refute falsehoods, and under that method of treatment I feel, so far as I know, there would be no breach of the code of ethics.

"I trust this winter weather is finding you well, contented and enjoying the fruits that are yours by right.

"With all best wishes, I am,"

Yours very truly,

C. W. POST.

Dr. Pratt, who is one of the most prominent and skillful surgeons in America, very kindly granted our request in the cause of truth and justice.

Chicago, Aug. 31, 1906.

Mr. C. W. Post,
Battle Creek, Mich.

Mr Dear Sir:

"I write to express my personal appreciation of one of your business methods, that of accompanying each package of your Grape-Nuts production with that little booklet "The Road to Wellville." A more appropriate, clear-headed and effective presentation of health-giving auto-suggestions could scarcely be penned.

"Grape-Nuts is a good food in itself, but the food contained in this little article is still better stuff. I commend the practice because I know that the greed and strenuousness, the consequent graft and other types of thievery and malicious mischief generally can never be cured by legislative action.

"The only hope for the betterment of the race rests in individual soul culture.

"In taking a step in this direction, your process has been so original and unique that it must set a pace for other concerns until finally the whole country gets flavored with genuine, practical Christianity.

"I shall do all that lies in my power to aid in the appreciation of Grape-Nuts, not so much for the sake of the food itself as for the accompanying suggestions.

"Visiting Battle Creek the other day with a friend, Dr. Kelly of Evanston, Illinois, while I was consulting with Mr. Gregory, my friend visited your factories and came away greatly amazed, not only at the luxurious furnishings of the offices generally and the general equipment of the place, but with the sweet spirit of courtesy and kindness that seemed to fill the air with a spiritual ozone that was good to breathe.

"The principles expressed in the little booklet, "The Road to Wellville," I well know are practical and they work in business of all kinds, including sanitariums, as will be fairly tested before time is done.

"I know you will not regard this letter of appreciation as an intruding one. It is simply the salutation of good fellowship to you from a man who, although he has never seen you, feels drawn to you by the kinship of thought.

"The only thing that makes a man live forever in the hearts of his countrymen and his race is the good that he does. Your position in this respect is an enviable one and I wish to extend my congratulations."

Yours respectfully,

E. H. PRATT.

New Year Baby.

New Year's eve is a festival occasion in a German household in the Bronx district for many reasons, says the New York Tribune. The father's birthday is celebrated on the first day of the year, the couple were married on that date and one of their three children was born on New Year's eve, "so near midnight," the mother said, "that she has always celebrated her birthday with her father." The family was enjoying the "Sylvester" on Sunday, near the midnight hour, when a telegram came from the oldest son announcing the arrival in his home of a baby boy. "It was near the New Year hour," said the grandfather, "but out west where the baby was born it lacked many hours of the time; so the little one will be only a New Year's eve baby—but he's close enough to come into our class."

On Himself.

A magazine editor was praising the popular novelist, Mrs. Humphry Ward.

"She deserves her fame," said the editor warmly. "Nobody begrudges her her fame except, possibly, her husband.

"Mr. Humphry Ward, you know, was a well-known writer till his wife sprang up. She has put him in the shade completely. He sits in the shadow with good nature. He even jokes about it. Once, when I was visiting the pretty old-world mansion of the Wards to see about a new novel for my magazine, one of the children said to my host:

"Papa, what is a nonentity?"

"Mr. Humphry Ward winked at me and answered:

"A nonentity, my dear, is a prominent woman's husband."

Interference Not Relished.

An American newspaper correspondent, who followed the government army in a recent revolution in a Latin-American country, tells a story about an experience that he had with the general commanding the division. The correspondent observed that in every town that the troops invaded they would help themselves to everything that was not nailed, screwed or anchored down. This did not appeal to the American's ideas of the rules of war, and he reported the misdoings of the soldiers to the commander. "That is selfish," said the latter, indignantly. "I will see to it that when we reach the next town you will have the first chance." The correspondent confined himself thereafter to the writing of "copy."

Caustic Critic.

Gunner—Who is that playing the piano?

Guyer—Miss De Shrikerd. You know they say music is the food of love.

Gunner—H'm! If that is the case the pure food law inspectors should make a visit.

About the only time a man thinks his wife is too good for him is on Sunday morning when she is trying to get him to go to church with her.

NEGLECTED COLD, GOT VERY WEAK

A Bad Cough. Tried Many Remedies. Restored by Peruna.

Mrs. A. S. Rucker.

Mrs. A. S. Rucker, R. F. D. 2, Brentwood, Tenn., writes:

"I wish to tell you what Peruna has done for me. I was very sick and so weak I could scarcely be up. I was alarmed at my condition.

"I had a bad cough for some time and I tried several cough medicines, but grew worse all the time. I knew if I did not get relief I would soon go into consumption. So I decided to try Peruna. I had confidence in it before I took it and I found it was just the medicine I needed, for in a short time my cough ceased and my strength returned.

"I have enjoyed better health since taking it than I had for several years previous. When I see any one weak and run down, especially with a cough, I advise them to take Peruna."

WEAK BACKS MADE STRONG.

Backache in most cases is kidney-ache, and usually accompanied by irregularities of the urine. To remove the pain and weakness, you must cure the kidneys. Do so with Doan's Kidney Pills. J. E. Dunlap, Kennet, Mo., says:

"My condition was terrible. I was in bed for six weeks and could not move owing to intense pain in my back. My feet and limbs were swollen and urine scant and distressing. After taking doctor's treatments without relief, I began with Doan's Kidney Pills. They straightened me up in a hurry."

Remember the name—Doan's.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

He—Your family has a grand name, Miss Vere De Vere!
She—Yes, and yet I'd prefer almost any other.

How the Fight Began.

Violet—I wish you would tell me how to get this pitch off my dress. I have tried everything I can think of.
Reginald—You might try a song. You always get off the pitch when you sing.—Judge.

The main difference between a professional man and a tradesman is that a great many times the tradesman can buy and sell the professor.

CHEATED FOR YEARS.

Prejudice Will Cheat Us Often If We Let It.

You will be astonished to find how largely you are influenced in every way by unreasoning prejudice. In many cases you will also find that the prejudice has swindled you, or rather, made you swindle yourself. A case in illustration:

"I have been a constant user of Grape-Nuts for nearly three years," says a correspondent, "and I am happy to say that I am well pleased with the result of the experiment, for such it has been."

"Seeing your advertisement in almost all of the periodicals, for a long time I looked upon it as a hoax. But after years of suffering with gaseous and bitter eructations from my stomach, together with more or less loss of appetite and flesh, I concluded to try Grape-Nuts food for a little time and note the result."

"I found it delicious, and it was not long till I began to experience the beneficial effects. My stomach resumed its normal state, the eructations and bitterness ceased and I have gained all my lost weight back."

"I am so well satisfied with the result that so long as I may live and retain my reason Grape-Nuts shall constitute quite a portion of my daily food."

HOW TO CLEAN THE METALS

Use Salt and Broken Egg Shells on Enamelled Pans and Soda on Galvanized Baths.

Enamelled pans should be steeped, the soot removed and then washed with hot water, any burned parts being removed by rubbing them with a coarse flannel dipped in salt and broken egg shells. Then rinse well and dry both inside and out.

Galvanized baths and the like should be rinsed out with hot water and soda directly after they are used. To clean them thoroughly scrub well with soap and water, to which soda has been added; dry and then rub with a piece of house flannel dipped first in paraffin and then in silver sand or powdered bath brick until bright. Rinse first in hot and then in cold water and allow to dry in a draft in order to remove the smell of the paraffin.

Tin can be cleaned with whiting mixed to a stiff paste with water or ammonia, but all the powder must be brushed off when dry. Another method is to slice down thinly four ounces of yellow soap and pour over one quart of cold water. Allow this to stand for a day in order to dissolve. Then add a pound of the best whiting, bring it all to a boiling point, keeping it well stirred, so as to insure all being properly mixed; then leave it until cold, when two ounces of spirits of hartshorn are added. Keep this mixture in tightly corked bottles.

Wash zinc thoroughly with warm water. After rubbing it dry rub again with a cloth dipped in either paraffin or turpentine.

English Buns.

One cake of yeast, three-fourths cup lukewarm milk, one quart sifted flour, four eggs, one-half cup butter, five tablespoons sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, three tablespoons chopped almonds. Sift flour and salt into bowl, make well in center, break eggs in whole, then add the butter and the milk in which the yeast has been dissolved. Mix thoroughly with a mixing spoon and set aside to rise in a warm place, free from draft, for one and one-half hours. When light turn out on floured kneading board, sprinkle with sugar and chopped almonds and work them into the mass thoroughly by drawing the tips of the fingers lightly and quickly through the dough. Do not knead, then drop by tablespoons, half an inch apart, into greased baking pans, let rise for ten minutes and bake for 20 minutes in a hot oven. The whole process takes about two hours and ten minutes. This recipe will make two dozen buns.

Braised Beef.

A good sized iron or agate ware kettle, with fitted cover is necessary for braised beef. Select 4 or 5 pounds of the bottom of the round; cut into small cubes one cup each of turnip, carrot and onion. Put into kettle and cover with a can of tomato soup; fill the emptied can twice with water and add; wipe meat; sprinkle with salt and pepper and dredge with flour; place meat on bed of vegetables and cook about four hours, turning and basting occasionally; it may be necessary to add more water; as there should be a little over a pint when cooked.

When done strain off vegetables and serve around meat on the platter; thicken gravy with flour and pour over meat or serve separately as preferred.

To Utilize Pieces of Soap.

Small pieces of toilet soap should be saved from the soap dishes, and when a sufficient quantity has been collected it should be cut into shavings and dissolved in boiling water. Measure the soap, and to each cupful put two cupfuls of water. When the soap is dissolved, add enough fine oatmeal to make a stiff batter. The mixture is then turned into molds, and when dry makes an excellent soap for the skin.

Woman's Danger Periods Made Safe

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Here is proof:

Natick, Mass.,—"I cannot express what I went through during the Change of Life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold. I had creepy sensations and could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I had a tumor."

"I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish this letter."—Mrs. Nathan B. Greaton, 51 No. Main St., Natick, Mass.

ANOTHER SIMILAR CASE.

Cornwallville, N. Y.,—"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time for Change of Life, nervousness, and a fibroid growth."

"Two doctors advised me to go to the hospital, but one day while I was away visiting, I met a woman who told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and I know it helped me wonderfully. I am very thankful that I was told to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. Boughton, Cornwallville, N. Y., Greene Co.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Little Doing in Mexico.

The big battle in Mexico has not yet been pulled off. The insurrectos, after surrounding and threatening Juarez for weeks, allowed the federals to send a column to the city's relief. The insurrectos drew to the interior. The federals followed, on a train, turned around and came back and again left in search of the insurrectos.

The last time the insurrectos were reported in force was in the mountains near Chihuahua, where the federals were going to surround and annihilate them. This wasn't done, and both armies are lost, to the busy war correspondents, in the wilds of the mountain fastnesses.

Another report says the insurrectos are marching on Naco, and will soon have that place. The presumption is that when the federals hear of the danger threatening Naco they will chase across country to its relief. If, therefore, they fail to give battle they may be accomplishing as much in another direction—running the federals to death.

Lorimer Retains Seat.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—By a vote of 46 to 40, the senate today decided that senator Lorimer is entitled to his seat.

After a debate covering a period of two months the vote came up on the resolution introduced by senator Beveridge declaring that William Lorimer was not duly and legally elected to a seat in the senate of United States by the legislature of the state of Illinois.

The agreement reached yesterday that a vote on the Lorimer case would be taken at 1:30 o'clock today brought crowds to the capitol this morning. Most of the senators were early in their seats, pleased over the prospect of transacting the urgent public business that had been hanging in the balance until a disposition was made of the Lorimer case.

Senator Lorimer was not present when the vote was taken.

Won't Stand for Trusts.

Melbourne, Feb. 27.—The commonwealth of Australia served notice on the business world today that it will not harbor foreign trusts. The following memorandum was given the press by Sir R. W. Best, minister of trade and customs:

"For several months it has been an open secret that representatives of the American meat trust have been visiting Australia ostensibly with the object of extending its operations here. The government is determined to take immediate and drastic action to discourage and if necessary to prohibit its operations in Australia. The action of the government will extend to trust operations in Australia whether conducted directly or indirectly and will not permit a repetition in Australia of the scandals and merciless methods characterizing monopolies in other parts of the world."
