WOMEN SUFFRAGE AS A NATIONAL ISSUE.

Though not recognized as such by either Democratic or Republican Party, woman suffrage has become virtually a national issue. Furthermore it seems probable that it will continue to be an issue as Washington until Congress has acceded to suffragists' demands.

The suffrage question is before Congress in the form of a proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution. This amendment is known as the Susan B. Anthony amendment, so named in honor of the suffragist who drafted it in 1875 and secured its first presentation in Congress, in 1878. It is as follows:

SECTION I. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

SECTION II. Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to enforce the provisions of this article.

The effect of this amendment would be to open the polls to women in all states, subject to the same qualifications which the states impose upon men voters.

The suffragists are demanding that the House of Senate muster the two-thirds favorable vote necessary to place the amendment to the states for ratification. If ratified by 36 of the 48 states it would become apart of the Constitution which the twelve other states would have to accept.

This demand the Democratic Party, now in control at Washington, has refused to grant, on the ground that the suffrage question is a state issue, not a national issue, and it is, therefore, not properly one for Congress to pass on. President Wilson, as head of the Democratic Party, does not yet view the suffrage cause as one he can urge upon his party in Congress, though as an individual he voted for woman suffrage in New Jersey last autumn. Others opponents of the Anthony amendment declare it to be a proposal in violation of "states rights."

The suffragists' answer is that if Congress could give the vote to the negroes through the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution, in can with equal wright and perhaps greater propriety submit to the states an amendment giving women the vote.

This the apparent issue between Congress and the suffragists. The real barrier to the suffragists' cause in Congress is the number of members oppose votes for women.

What about a Base-Ball Club for Belen? Asked the other day Ramoncito, this is a good time to go an Base-Ball organization.

Food Poisons.

Uncle Sam has been trying mighty hard to protect us from harmful and dangerous "medecines" and from imitations of natural food products or extracts. He has passed some stric laws on the subject which are well enforced. It still remains, however, for the women to their part to help the Government and protect themselves and their families.

There is no law to prevent morphine from being put "soothing sirup" nor to bar alcohol as the chief ingredient of alleged universal cures. Neither is there any law against the manufacture and sale of chemical substitutes for the natural flavoring and perfume extracts. But there is a law which requires the honest labeling of such products. The label must say whether the article is the natural product or an imitation, and must name the dangerous or habit-forming drugs it may contain.

Manufacturers who fought bitterly against being required to tell all the truth on their labels, and nothing but the truth, are not complaining so much now. Many have found that the word "Imitation" on a label, especially if tucked away in small type, has proved but little hindrance to the sale of the goods. In other words they have found that women, the chief purchasers of their articles, don't take the trouble to read all that is printed on the labels of what they buy. Many of their purchases would undoubtedly be different if they did practice reading labels.

Wives, read carefully all labels.

Old-Time Pickpocket Tells Jury How He Robbed Chicago Bank.

Eddie Mack, an old-time pickpocket of Chicago, who turned bank robber, today graphically described to a jurist the $15,000 holdup of the Washington Park National Bank, for which four men who he said were his accomplices, are on trial. Mak was a state witness on promise of immunity.

All the precautions takes by the five men, Mak, Harry, and Charles Gramer, Harry Flynn and Alex Brodie, were related by Mak. He told now they walked over the route for their automobile before the holdup, marking down with a pencil and paper all the holes and bumps in the street, so their escape would not be hampered.

After all the plans were laid for the robbery, Mak told the court, he arranged at his home to deceive his wife by fixing the clock so she could not know what time he left the house on the morning of the holdup.

"I was to enter the Bank first, then Brodie was to follow me to see that the spring lock on the cage door was not sprung," Mak said.

Then how he seized the money in the cashier's cage and baked all persons in the bank against the walls with their hands up and the robbers parted out of the Bank and into an automobile, was vividly described by Mak, even to the details of their makeups stocking caps pulled over their faces with holes cut for the eyes.

Mak and the four defendants were arrested in a rooming house shortly after the robbery most of the stolen money and recovered.

Methodist Church NOTES.

The past week has been one of special interest to the church workers. The week's services were the preparation days for a larger work of Christian service. There was a good attendance almost every night. Considerable interest was shown, several accepted Christ and several united with the church.

The church attendance for Sunday has the banner, but the Sunday School was not far behind.

The teacher's training course for the Sunday School teachers is now an assured thing, and the first meeting will be held next week.

With good inspiring music and a growing enthusiasm among the church and Sunday School in general, there is something worth while being offered at the Methodist Church. You are cordially invited to come and bring the children. One noteworthy feature is that more and more children and young people are remaining for church, and attending again in the evening.

On the 17th of March, the Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church and friends will serve a chicken pie supper, to which the people are invited.

If you want to attend inspiring Sunday School and church services, come to the Methodist Church.

Subject for Sunday Morning, "Egypt into Canaan." For Sunday evening, "The Temple."

Prayer Meeting each Wednesday evening at 7:30.

ON EUROPEAN WAR.

Those who talk of ending the war in a few weeks or months, do not realize the stupendous character of this conflict and the vital issues of national and racial existence back of it.

Really it is not war at all, in the ordinary sense that we speak of wars. It is one of those vast upheavals of the human race, like the great racial imigrations, the Moslem invasion of Europe, which lasted eight hundred years in Spain and is still alive in the near east. Yes, this is no ordinary war which can be brought to an end suddenly by one great victory or any series of decisive events in any one field. The issues of national and racial existence are far too great for any sudden ending. It will go on for a long time, a very long time. In the end it may be narrowed down to a war between England and Germany—the supreme issue which must be fought to a finish. Instead of ending soon or suddenly, the war is more likely to go on and then gradually abate by slow processes here and there, as localities pass through their ordeal and emerge with a which to make a breathing spell. But for the time being it is not only a war of Europe, but a world war. It is very to see its effect in the most distant parts of the world. The assassinations in China the other day, but a sequel to this conflict. Even the blood shed in Mexico is in a way related to this war.

Prayer for Success of Laymen's Missionary Convention

Prayer will be offered in fourteen churches in El Paso this week for the success of the Laymen's Missionary Convention movement. According to H. F. Durkee, secretary of the convention committee to-night will be the first ever held in the city by so large a proportion of the citizens for so worthy a cause.

Never before in the history of the city have the negroes come to us with the request that they be allowed to share in the expenses of the convention. At the last luncheon given by the executive committee, a motion was passed that the negroes be allowed to attend the convention, the only dissenting vote being by a nothern man on the committee. The negroes expressed their appreciation for the honor of being allowed the privilege on attending the convention.

JAPAN'S ATTITUDE TOWARD AMERICA

It is impossible for our people, who form elementary school days have been bred with teachings of loyalty and patriotism, to lose their characters and adopt those of the country to which that have emigrated. The suggestion that they can, completely ignores the history of the country.

There are some Japanese who tried to refute the common contention of the American people, and that the Japanese are utterly unassimilable. It is indisputed, when weighed very carefully, that we may prove to be most refractory for assimilation by another race.

As a Japanese of many spirit will never be swallowed up by the national characteristics of other peoples, the refutal is impossible. Such thing says Professor Endo of the Imperial University, Tokio.

LINCOLN, GERMAN SPY CAPTURED

Ignatius T. Lincoln is the name of the German spy captured the 19th by the agents of the department of justice. Lincoln scaped several weeks ago from a United States deputy marshal.

When Lincoln, who had his moustache shaved off since his escape, entered the offices of the department of justice, he was greeted by Assistant United States District Attorney Dunham of Brooklyn.

"You people never in the world would have caught me" he declared. If I had not made a mistake about my trunks. I think the people where I had the trunks recognized me several days ago and notified you, so that when I went back there today you were waiting for me. I made a serious mistake in going back", Lincoln declared.

THE WEATHER DID IT.

Bishop Phillips Brooks was conducting a conference when the weather was unbearably hot. He suffered in the orthodox clerical clothes for a short time only, then appeared at one of the sessions in a short alpaca coat. An intimate friend sent a note to him asking if he did not think it a little out of place for the presiding officer to appear in such a garb. The bishop hastily scribbled on the back of the note. "I did star out with a long coat, but it was so hot that the tails melted off."

Harvester Company Helped Revolution.

Charges and counter charges were heard in Senate the 18 by the Committee of agriculture investigating the American Selling agency of the Yucatan sisal growers' combine, Representatives of the combine and one of the bankers' who financed it insisted that the growers were compelled to organize to get a fair price for their product from the International Harvester company, their principal purchaser, while spokesmen of the Harvester company and other sisal buyers asserted that the combine was holding sisal at New York for arbitrarily high prices and had put American importers out of commission.

During the examination of witnesses. Levy Mayer of Chicago, counsel for the bankers, declared that the Harvester company had furnished funds used by revolutionists against the Carranza government in Mexico. He said he would produce invoices and bills showing that part of $480,000, sent by the company to a sisal buyers in Yucatan, was paid to a New York arms purchasing concern. Walter L. Fisher, former Secretary of the interior and counsel for the Harvester company had in the committee room several grips full of Mexican pesos which he said had been received in exchange for the $480,000 to pay for sisal purchases. He declared later that if any of the money ever went to arms dealers, it was spent by Mexicans after they have received it in payment for sisal.

ABOUT PREPAREDNEES.

American civil war gave to the american people some on how an army has to be raised in a great emergency and it is necessary don't forget these lessons.

What Lincoln do when he needed an strong army? He called for men; issued a proclamation calling men for service of the federal government and putting it up to the governors to furnish men first 100,000 men, then, 150,000 men, then 500, 000 and so on.

And they had to be furnished; the men had to enlist or find substitutes; there were drafts and riots, as there always are when slackers are made to their duty to their country. And United States got an army, not a volunteer army except in nominal senses, but an army calculated in number in advance, adequate to the country's need.
And we will be doing just what Grant did, fighting on that line if it takes all summer, piling on more men, hammering at a given objective, and massing overwhelming numbers until they yield by the sheer weight of numbers. That was Grant's tactics and it will be sure now that we have an army and we must be ready to begin.

We will have another experience much like that in America and it will be the same here in France and Germany, all through Europe where great armies are being organized. In must be remember after civil war that the soldiers came back from civil war proud of their services to the country, in every city and town, forming a vast aggregate of sentiment and influence, with just pride in achievement of having dared in serving the country in its need.

SAN DIEGO AND SAN FRANCISCO FAIR

President Woodrow Wilson may visit the Panama-California International Exposition for the formal 1916 dedication. The entire coast is joining in a request to the nation's chief executive, asking him to make the far western trip. If President Wilson is present at the San Diego Exposition's formal dedication, it will be truly an international affair, as sixteen nations are represented. Although no acceptance has been received from the White House, President G. A. Davidson of the Exposition says he has reasons for feeling highly optimistic over the probability of the visit.

Recent rains along the Pacific Coast and the breaking of the Otay dam near San Diego caused reports to be current throughout the United States that the 1916 International Exposition had been damaged and that San Diego was suffering.
The Exposition was helped instead of being harmed by the rain and the damage to the City of San Diego was such as would come to any city by reasons of loss in nearby localities. Railway transportation to Los Angeles was interrupted for several weeks but daily boat service cared for passengers and freight. President G. A. Davidson of the Exposition issued a statement to offset the exaggerated reports.

The 1000 U. S. Marines stationed in the barracks of the Panama-California International Exposition were called on to render service in the back country during the recent floods near San Diego, and they proved that they are workers and can handle any situation as well as make a good impression in Exposition drills and guard-mounts.

With the use of fur in military's wardrobe from shoe top to bonnet comes a new Spring style for amusements. San Diego has set herself as an American Paris and is offering the first "Fur-lined" joy street on record.

Officials of the Panama-California International Exposition insist that the fur lining is no reflection on the far famed California climate, or suggest that the new concessions are in any manner "frosts." The Exposition has contracted for a hundred wild animals including lions, leopards, pumas, lynx, hyenas, bears and monkeys, found in the best regulated zoos; and these are being placed in cages along 800 feet of the Exposition amusement street.

In addition to the open cages free acts will be presented twice daily.

Although the date for the formal dedication of the San Diego 1916 Exposition in March 18, two exhibit palaces containing new exhibits have been opened to the public. The Science and Education building containing, among other great exhibits, the display of the Smithsonian Institution, is open.

The famous Luxembourg art collection owned by the French government was placed on display in the Fine Arts building February 12. This collection of 80 paintings, value at more than $500,000, has been one of the great attractions for American tourists abroad and the opportunity in afforded this year to see these paintings at San Diego. The French exhibits are being installed in the California building.

Following the meeting of the traffic passenger agents held in Chicago a few days ago, transcontinental rates have been given for the San Diego 1916 International Exposition, practically as good as those given during 1915.

The new tariff places the fares from Missouri river gates at $60.00; Chicago and common points, $72.50; St. Louis, Memphis, and New Orleans, $70.00.
The sale dates have been fixed at May 1, with a final date of October 31.

On two occasions big reductions will be given in these rates.
The two periods are June 17 to 23 and August 1 to 5. At these times Missouri river gates will be $55.00; Chicago, $65.00 and St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans, $62.50. San Diego will be a big drawing card for 1916 travel.

The man troubled with "autism" will find the Panama-California International Exposition a splendid sanitarium. If he desires to know the best car for the money, the one that can run upside down as well as wheels down, the motor that will climb the highest hill, or just what will happen to the car of this fancy if it disputed the road with another car of the same weight, he can see it for himself on the Exposition special events demonstration field. Every make of American car will have an opportunity to "do a turn" and "wall flower autos" will be accepted.

Ball Bearing Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8.
Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating.
There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained —ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer,

Bright Things To Lough.

BLAIN'S REWARD.

When James G. Blain was a young lawyer he was once asked to defend a tramp accused of stealing a watch. Convinced of the tramp's innocence, Mr. Blain pleaded with such convincing energy and eloquence that the court was in tears; even the tramp wept, and the jury almost immediately returned the verdict "Not guilty."

Then the tramp drew himself up and, with intense gratitude said: "Sir, I never heard so grand a plea. I have no money with which to reward you, but"—drawing a package from his ragged clothes—"here's that watch. Take it, and welcome."

WHEN TWO HALVES MAKE NOTHING.

Pa "said Willie," a man's wife is his better half, isn't she?
"Well, are told so, my son" said the father noncommittally.
"Well, them," continued Willie,
"if a man marries twice, there isn't anything left of him, is there?"

THE UNWISE MAN.

The Turks have a fable which has a large element of truth in it. As a woman was walking, a man gazed intently at her and then followed her a respectful distance. The woman stopped and waited for him.
"Why", she asked, "do you follow me?"
"Because", he replied, "I have fallen in love with you."
"Why so?" returned the woman. "My sister, who is coming after me, is much handsomer than I. Go and make love to her."

The man turned back and saw a most attractive woman.
Greatly displeased he returned and said: "Why did you tell me a falsehood?"
"Because you told me one," answered the woman, "For if you were in love with me, who did you look back for another woman."

REPUBLICAN CLUB Will Put Ticket in Field.

Meeting Held at District Court Room Well Attended; Anti-Wilson Talks.

J. A. Smith Declares Sixty Per Cent of Voters Along the Border Are Against Present Administration.

The National Republican club of El Paso, county is the latest wrinkle in things political in El Paso. It was launched last Friday night in the Thirty-fourth district court room, a place known ever since the court house has stood and long before the clock on the court house refused to run, as the official Democratic headquarters for the endorsement of Democratic candidates.

Perhaps more than anything else, the new club is anti-Wilson and the scope of that takes in the entire national Democratic administration.

BORDER AGAINST WILSON.

"Sixty per cent of the voters, at least here on the border, are against the national administration on account of its Mexican policy," was the declaration of J. A. Smith one of the "wheel horses" of local Republicanism and who has always taken an active part in anything political started here by the Republicans.
In connection with the kick registered against Wilson's policy in Mexican affairs, the hope is that the club will draw a large membership among local Democrats and others. There were quite a few Democrats in attendance last night who wanted to enroll as anti-Wilson men, but did not want to sign as Republicans. The scope of the club will be so enlarged that it will accommodate those Democrats or others not Republicans who want to register in favor of a Republican administration as against a Democratic one for Mexico reasons or any others.

Taking care of natural issues is not going to be all the work that the Republican club is going to attend to, for it was hinted that a local Republican ticket might be in the field after the Democratic July primaries. This will mean that those Democrats who are successful in the primaries will have Republican opponents to face in the general election in November before they can finally win the county office they are after. It is not believed that the Republicans themselves entertain any serious hopes of placing a candidate in a county office —not in the coming election anyhow. However, as brought out at the meeting, the club's efforts will be devoted in the main to national matters.

Squadron of Twelfth Cavalry Leaves Texas Border for Panama Isthmus.

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 19.
—The first permanent break in the line of 12,000 troops thrown across the southern frontier of the United States during the last several years because of the Mexican trouble, came today with the assembling at Mercedes of the first squadron Twelfth cavalry preparatory to sailing for the Canal zone. The squadron will entrain Monday for Galveston and will leave there February 23 on the transport Kilpatrick for the Isthmus of Panama.

In announcing the withdraway of these troops, 703 officers and men, the war department said that they would not be replaced but that the remaining troops would be re-arranged to take care of the patrol work.

Army officers here expect orders soon, for the withdrawal of other troops and believe that this is the beginning of the transfer of a majority of the troops to other stations.

"Antes de tomar el Remedio padezia de mal de corazon hace mas de cinco años. Estaba tan debil que era imposible hacer en un dia cumplido un trabajo que exigia solamente treinta minu-tos. Padezia de dolores agudos en el lado izquierdo y debio de la paleta izquierda. No podia dormir en dicho lado, y tenia respiracion tan dificultosa que sentia como si nunca jamas podria tomar una respiracion profunda. La mas ligera agitacion inducia la mas penosa palpitacion. Apenas habia to-mado medio frasco del Remedio para el Corazon cuando senti una mejora marcada de mi con-dicion. Comence a dormir bien tuve buen apetito, y me sentia tan de prisa que al terminar el segundo frasco, me habia completa-
