BAD SHOOTING SCRAPE

B. L. (Joe) Walker and J. F. Hart Shoot it Out—Result of Old Feud.

HART GETS THE BEST OF THE FIGHT.

The usual serenity of Carlsbad the Beautiful was rudely disturbed last Monday evening at about 4-39 when it was passed around that Joe Walker was shot and killed by J. F. Hart. Inquiry developed however, that though shot he was not killed and late reports are that he will live.

There are two stories to the affair as in all such cases, and to give both sides exactly as reported by all concerned will be the endeavor, leaving the public in an unbiased state of mind, so that those called as jurors in the event of trial, may be without any opinion whatever as to where to lay the blame, until after these cases are tried in court.

It seems from all reports that Walker was assisting Lewis Scott to round up his father's, C. J. Scott's cattle, in the pasture owned by "Bill" Coates, three miles southwest of Carlsbad. Mr. Hart was passing across the pasture, walking and leading a span of young mules. The men, Walker and Hart, happened within 100 yards or so of each other and Hart says Walker dismounted and came toward him and when within thirty steps said: "You ————, I am going to kill you," and pulling a big forty-five Colts, commenced to shoot. After the second shot Hart pulled a 32 automatic, with steel bullets, and his second shot hit Walker under the nose, the bullet coming out the left side of the neck bone tearing the palate and breaking the upper jaw bone.

The way Walker tells it is that Hart shot first, twice, before Walker pulled his gun. The men kept advancing on each other until both had emptied their guns when Walker commenced to reload and Hart had no more cartridges, so he ran in on Walker and grabbed him and the men began to scuffle but at this juncture Mrs. Walker appeared on the scene and began to assist her husband all she could, belaboring Hart with rocks on the head cutting his head and bruising it until it was one solid mass of bruises—but just as it would seem that Hart was to meet his everlasting, Louis Scott appeared riding down on his horse from some distance. He quickly disarmed both men and put Hart on his horse jumping up behind, while Walker got on his own horse and rode after them. Louis took Hart to his home and then Hart was taken to town and a doctor summoned for Walker who has been under guard at his home since, while Hart gave $2,500 bond to appear at a preliminary hearing July 22. When the hearing is held more may develop but at present the above is all that can be learned about the difficulty.

Walker and Hart, who are neighbors, have been at outs for more than three years about a family matter and they have had one other difficulty and have been in court twice.

Killed by a Horse.

A peculiar accident occurred last Saturday by which Albert A. Krause, a German homesteader residing five or six miles south of town was fatally injured. He had driven with his buggy to the W. R. Hegler home where he worked during the forenoon and had eaten his dinner, leaving his horse tied, with buggy attached, outside, with a rope around the horse's neck and the bridle off. He untied the horse and started to lead him through the gate leading inside for the purpose of letting the animal drink. Almost as soon as he started for the gate horse commenced to plunge and pitch but Kraus held to him by the rope which was tied so loosely that it slipped back to the shoulders of the horse. However, he led the horse toward the gate which was about twenty steps, and as the horse went through with the buggy the animal gave a determined plunge throwing Mr. Kraus against the gate post and causing him to let loose the rope. The horse went on and tore harness and buggy to pieces by pitching, kicking and plunging but did not run; finally, after a few moments stood still as if satisfied, having torn everything loose except the single tree having broken both shafts, two wheels and otherwise demolished the rig. Mr. Kraus, who did not seem to be very much hurt, went and took off the harness and single tree and was about to start with his horse for his home, about a mile distant, when he told Mrs. Hegler that he felt sick. She advised him to lie down and he did so but grew worse. Mrs. Hegler 'phoned the doctor who advised applying ice to the stomach where the most pain was. Mr. Hegler bro't the ice and it was kept applied as directed until morning. It was advised by the physician to bring him to the hospital, where he arrived at 11 A. M., Sunday, and died about 6:30 P. M. The funeral was held Monday at 8 P. M., with services conducted by Rev. A. A. Davis. Mr. Kraus was a bachelor about thirty-five who had taken up a homestead some four years ago. He had no relatives in America, his parents being in Germany. He was an industrious man, well liked by his neighbors and was a member of the Otis Farmers' Union, local branch, many of the members of which attended the funeral.

LYNCH ASKS FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

Slayer of Roy Woofter Arraigned Monday Morning—Venue Hearing will be Held Friday.

Monday's Roswell Record.

Jim Lynch was arraigned before Judge Wm. H. Pope in district court this morning and after the indictment accusing him of the willful and premeditated murder of Marshal Woofter, had been read to him, he pleaded not guilty.

Lynch appeared in court with his attorneys, Judge Storey, of San Antonio, Texas, and W. W. Gatewood, of Roswell, Mr. Askren not being present. Lynch was cool and calm and listened to the reading of the indictment more as a spectator would do than as the man against whom it was directed and whose life it may yet take.

At no time did he display the slightest emotion at any of the proceedings and his bearing was stoical and collected in the extreme.

After the plea of not guilty had been made, the court desired to set a time for the trial. It was then stated that the defense desired a change of venue, not only from this county, but from the district as well, and that it would require some little time to prepare a proper motion. Judge

Miss Grantham entertained a number of her friends Wednesday afternoon. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Smith, Brown and Penny; Misses Penny, Cook, Groves, Linn, Clander, Harkey, Brashears, Jolley and Beard. The hostess served punch, sherbet and cake. Toxido was played and Mrs. Brown won the prize.

Seth Aiston was in town Monday from an eight section ranch owned by him and his brother, located about sixty miles south in Texas. He was en route to his home near Pearl where his sheep are located. He started out about 5 P. M. expecting to drive all night, it being cooler.

Gatewood stated that it might be possible they would be ready by Friday night and almost certainly by Saturday morning. He further mentioned the difficulty of securing witnesses from each county in the district, as they are now doing, but the fact that reputable and disinterested persons are personally disinclined to act in such a case, and that there was no way by which they could be compelled to do so.

The result was that the matter of hearing the motion for a change of venue was deferred until Friday morning.

This morning the grand jury returned one true bill, and then retired for further consideration.

The indictment returned this morning by the grand jury was one to correct a typographical error in the first indictment against Lynch.

J. H. Shackelford, who has resided on the Guadalupe for about nine years returned Monday from Ojo Negro Mexico, where he tarried for a short time to try the springs for the trouble on his face. He visited a specialist near Shreveport Texas, who did not help him much but decided the trouble was not cancer. He has been absent about three months.

Morris M. Farber of the Boston Store left for El Paso Tuesday, he will next Sunday be joined in marriage to Miss Julia Ablowitz at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. L. D. Stark on Mesa Ave. Mr. Farber has secured a house for himself and bride and will make Carlsbad his home.

CARLSBAD PEACHES GOING TO MARKET.

First Shipment of the Glorious Globes was Made on the 24th—Ripening Ahead of Calculations.

The following is by the correspondent at Carlsbad of the Roswell Register-Tribune:

Carlsbad, N. M., June 25.—The commercial peach is ripening somewhat earlier than usual and the first shipment was made yesterday. Early peaches have been on the local market for some time, but are not grown extensively. The standard varieties now getting ripe are the Mamie Ross and the Carmen. Shipment will be by express for the next week or so. In the first part of July shipping in car lots will begin.

The commission men and the peach growers had made careful arrangement for the handling of the crop, but the last day or two they have had to do some tall hustling to get expert pickers and other help to take care of the fruit that is turning ripe about ten days ahead of calculations. V. L. Gifford, of Stockton, California, will have charge of the picking, packing and shipping of the crop. He has had long experience in the business in California and has already demonstrated that he knows how to meet unexpected conditions.

The largest orchard is owned by C. H. McLenathen and F. G. Tracy, and is located in La Huerta, a suburb of Carlsbad. This is the first commercial crop, although it produced some peaches last season. The principal varieties, are Mamie Ross, Carmen, Elberta, and Crawford's late. These varieties ripen from the last of June to the last of August, the Crawford coming in August. The crop is estimated at thirty-five cars for the hundred acres of marketable peaches. There are many small orchards in the project and the total crop will be over fifty cars.

The Santa Fe railway is doing everything to get the crop to market in good condition. A sidetrack has been built in La Huerta to accommodate the shippers and the general superintendent, George Starkweather, gave orders to have the spur built in time. The largest shipments will be made from this point.

Mr. Gifford is well pleased with fruit conditions here. He was rather astonished to find such thrifty orchards outside of California. He finds that the trees have made remarkable growth, while the quality of the fruit far surpasses his expectations. This season demonstrates beyond question the faith F. G. Tracy has had in the peach was sound. It is through his persistent work, that the commercial peach of the Carlsbad Project has become a reality.

Justices of the Peace are allowed five dollars per year worth of blanks, which can be secured by dropping a card to the Current.

THIRTY YEARS OF SUCCESS.

The Rexall Store Offers a Remedy For Catarrh—The Medicine Costs Nothing if It Fails.

When a medicine effects a successful treatment in a very large majority of cases, and when we offer that medicine on our own personal guarantee that it will cost the user nothing if it does not completely relieve catarrh, it is only reasonable that people should believe us, or at least put our claim to a practical test when we take all the risk. These are facts which we want the people to substantiate. We want them to try Rexall Muc-Tone, a medicine prepared from a prescription of a physician with whom catarrh was a specialty, and who has a record of thirty years of enviable success to his record.

We receive more good reports about Rexall Muc-Tone than we do of all other catarrh remedies sold in our store, and if more people only knew what a thoroughly dependable remedy Rexall Muc-Tone is, it would be the only catarrh remedy we would have any demand for.

Rexall Muc-Tone is quickly absorbed and by its therapeutic effect tends to disinfect and cleanse the entire mucous membrane tract, to destroy and remove the parasites which injure the membrane tissues, to soothe the irritation and heal the soreness, stop the mucous discharge, build up strong, healthy tissue and relieve the blood and system of diseased matter. Its influence is toward stimulating the mucous cells, aiding digestion and improving nutrition until the whole body vibrates with healthy activity. In a comparatively short time it brings about a noticeable gain in weight, strength, good color and feeling of buoyancy.

We urge you to try Rexall Muc-Tone, beginning a treatment today. At any time you are not satisfied, simply come and tell us, and we will quickly return your money without question or quibble. We have Rexall Muc-Tone in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store.

PRAISE ABROAD NEW MEXICO.

By Geo. H. Givan.

Let every man who loves the West
Praise abroad New Mexico;
Let every one who loves her best
Shout aloud, New Mexico!
Yes, let them tell of mountains high,
Of craggy peaks that kiss the sky
Whose matchless beauties never die,
Praise abroad New Mexico.

Now let them speak of vale and plain,
Praise abroad New Mexico—
Of ripening fields of golden grain;
Shout aloud, New Mexico!
Of apple, peach, and mellow pear,
And all the fruits both rich and rare
That grow so juicy, sweet and fair—
Praise abroad New Mexico.

And let them write the mining world,
Praise abroad New Mexico—
And send the news afar unfurled,
Shout aloud, New Mexico!
That copper, gold and silver bright,
And precious stones gleam with light
Lie everywhere almost in sight
Praise abroad, New Mexico.

Tell suffering men, above the wealth,
Praise abroad, New Mexico—
This is the land of strength and health,
Shout aloud, New Mexico!
That far beyond man's healing art
Or all the drugs the world can start
Her healing air will health impart—
Praise abroad New Mexico.

Go spread the tidings far and wide,
Praise abroad New Mexico—
We love our land with joy and pride,
Shout aloud, New Mexico!
We love her valleys and prairie line
Her towering hills and fragrant pine,
And sunset's glow, almost divine—
Praise abroad New Mexico.

After fifteen days without saloons there seems to be no perceptible change in affairs in Carlsbad. There has been but about the usual number of arrests the past week, there being two women arrested for vagrancy and one arrest for drunkenness, besides the shooting scrape. The same number of fights and arrests for theft and other crimes will go on forever, saloons or no saloons. That business is improving goes without saying, but business has nothing to do with saloons. The saying, "No saloons make a dead town" has proven false too often. Pecos, Texas, doubled in size since the saloons were voted out while El Paso with saloons has made a phenomenal growth during the same time. The Artesian postmaster's salary has been reduced $300 per annum since saloons were voted out, while the Carlsbad postmaster's salary was increased $200 during the past few years and Carlsbad had saloons. Now if business falls off or gains in Carlsbad it will be no sign that the saloons going had anything whatever to do with it. While Carlsbad will lose the business of some good men who like a toddy when coming to town it will gain the business of some more good men who are prejudiced against saloons, so, thus it goes, the only difference with or without saloons being the fact that some people do not propose to allow others to have the privilege of the saloon way of social intercourse. They do not fancy this manner of pastime and propose to prevent, if possible this squandering of cash and good moments of time in a saloon, especially by their own sons. A saloon well conducted, under strict supervision of town authority and forced to close at six or seven P. M., and without chairs or tables to draw loafers; with windows open and no screens; would be a good institution for any town.

Walker and Hart have had more or less personal difficulties, life being a perfect hell in that neighborhood if all reports are true. Even the neighbors have been drawn into the whirlpool and all have their opinions but scarcely express them, for they want no trouble with the parties to the feud. The problem now with the authorities is how best to prevent other hostilities after the parties recover, for both seem determined in their course. Hart apparently feels himself a full match, no doubt, for Walker and Walker feels himself a full match for Hart. The chances are that there will be two men under peace bonds shortly and if unable to give bonds will be locked up in jail, as the plan of fighting out a grudge is by no means legal nor can it be tolerated in a civilized community.

Some decisive action should at once be taken to prevent a repetition of such savagery. After the preliminary hearing or a trial in district court it may develop exactly as to where to lay the blame but at present it is best to reserve judgment.

Judge Pope has retained the grand jury in session continuously at Roswell, so as to take up at any time, any violations of the prohibition ordinance. Thus a means never before used in this part of New Mexico is put in force for the suppression of infractions of an ordinance.

The motto of this paper is to print nothing of a man that we would not say to his face; to print nothing of a man in malice; to look well and think twice before consigning a suspect to the ruin of printer's ink and to respect the old and defend the weak.

The Lynch case will be tried in Carlsbad in October, a change of venue having been agreed upon by the attorneys for the defendant and the prosecuting attorney.

A Statement of Facts.

In the case of the Town of Carlsbad against John Hewitt tried before the undersigned, the justice of the peace at the time the trial there appears to be various and erroneous opinions with regard to the nature of the case. That was a case in which complaint was filed against the defendant for violating a town ordinance for failing to connect with the sewer system of said town. The ordinance fixed a penalty of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars for failure to make such connections; some of the newspapers stating that the justice declared the territorial law unconstitutional which, of course, is erroneous, the justice complying strictly with the territorial law. The Compiled Laws of 1897, Section 2503, provides that town and city councils may enact ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of the territory. The Laws of 1909 provide a penalty for failing or refusing to make connections with sewers, which provides that when parties refuse to connect with sewers the board of health of said town shall let the construction of sewers by contract and have the expense of building same assessed against the property, &c. That the justice in rendering his decision by discharging the defendant was acting strictly in accordance with the laws of the territory. The law fixing the penalty being beyond reach of the jurisdiction of justices of the peace. Justices of the peace, as well as other officers, are required before entering upon their duties, to take an oath to support the constitution of the United States and the laws of the territory of New Mexico. In the above case the justice would have violated his oath of office had he decided otherwise than he did. If town councils were allowed to enact ordinances contrary to the statute we might as well not have a legislature to enact laws but let every town council enact its own laws.

Hurrah for Statehood!

Statehood is just in sight; the senate committee having reported by a vote of six to three the house resolution admitting New Mexico and Arizona with the provision that the Arizona constitution containing the judiciary recall shall be resubmitted to the people. Slight amendments to the house resolution were made.

A motion to eliminate Arizona from the bill, made by Senator Nelson on the grounds that the constitution adopted by the people of that territory was severely discriminatory against the Mexican element of the population, was defeated.

The amendment to the house bill provides for the return of the ballots used in voting on amendments to the New Mexico constitution, whether they are used or not. The object of the provision is to prevent repeating.

If the senate accepts the house resolution and it becomes a law the people of the two territories will be assured of statehood. The resubmission of the portion of the two constitutions is intended only to give the voters another opportunity to say, whether, in the case of Arizona, they desire the right to recall their judges, and in that of New Mexico whether they are satisfied with the strict provisions against amendments.

It is provided that whatever the vote, the instruments shall become effective.

Chairman William Alden Smith of the committee, believes the senate will act before adjournment.

MADE FROM SCRAP IRON

How Some Old Material May Be Turned Into a Useful Tool.

On every farm there is sure to accumulate in time a considerable amount of old iron. This is always saved with the idea that some of it can be utilized for various purposes and with the knowledge that the remainder can be sold as old iron. It is good economy to save this material, and it is a good plan to sort it more or less closely so that similar articles may be together. Use for something from this scrap pile may be found at most daily. For instance, an old wagon tire may be cut, straightened out and used as the connecting rod on a wagon brake.

USEFUL IN MAKING WIRE JOINTS

In the cut shown herewith there is indicated a way in which a very useful tool may be made from the half of an old strap hinge. This homemade tool is for use in making wire joints or couplings, and the picture shows pretty well how it is used. As the loop on the ordinary hinge is generally too small to accommodate a two or three strand wire, the picture is drawn to show this loop cut off and the end of the hinge bent over to form a new one. Before this new loop is made a section of the hinge should be filed away, as shown, so as to give a grip on the end of the wire. A nice, smooth wire coupling or splice not only adds much to its appearance, but increases its life as well. A good joint does not pull apart, and with the aid of this tool it is just as easy to make a good, smooth joint as a poor one, and it lasts—Kansas Farmer.

Method For Old Orchards. Professor W. N. Munson recommends for treatment of old orchards to plow as early as possible in the spring, harrow at once and apply about 500 pounds of fertilizer to the acre, then harrow about once in two weeks until the middle of August, when a cover crop of rye or spring vetch should be sown. In working among the trees he finds the traceless harness of great value. The exact time and method of tillage are not so important as to be sure that a fair amount of tillage is given.—American Cultivator.

For Tying Up Shocks. A handy thing to use in tying up corn or fodder shocks: Bore a three-eighths inch hole in a broomstick; pass through this a piece of clothesline six inches shorter than a hay baling wire. In the end of the line tie a three inch ring. Go around the shock with the line and stick, place the stick through the ring and pull it through. Then you can tie the shock with baling wire.

Tar on Roads Disinfects. Medical authorities have announced that in addition to its dust laying qualities a tar preparation is highly beneficial to the community using it on its roads, owing to its disinfectant properties. According to the health authorities of Battersea, England, infant mortality has largely decreased in that populous district since its streets were surfaced with tar macadam.

A Swindler Abroad.

Last week, Thursday, a man who has been going under the name of C. H. Dalman, and for the past month conducting a cold drink stand in Lakewood, came down to Carlsbad and in settlement of an account of $12.25 tendered Matheson & Little a check for $97.75 purporting to be signed by a man named Nelson, in Lakewood. The check was accepted by Matheson & Little and another one for the difference signed by the firm, was given to Dalman who cashed it in Carlsbad.

Dalman then struck out for pastures new. The officers have been put upon his trail the Lakewood man having pronounced the check for $97.75 a forgery.

Postmaster Bolton feels quite elated over the success of the postal savings bank he having received $200 deposit the first day, Monday, and has, up to last night received $500. As this is far ahead of many towns of the size of Carlsbad the post master has just cause to feel proud of his showing. The postal saving bank is, no doubt, a good institution for there is no possible chance to lose by depositing in it. Though the banks of Carlsbad are safe many strangers and others cannot be convinced because banks do go busted sometimes, but Uncle Sam never. The money at present hidden in old socks buried and toted around can be deposited with much more safety.

Teachers for Schools.

The board of education has recently completed its selection of the faculty for the Carlsbad public schools for the year 1911-12. Below is given the full list of teachers.

W. A. Poore, L. I., A. B. (University of Nashville,) superintendent.

HIGH SCHOOL.

A. R. Seder. (University of New Mexico) principal and teacher of science and Higher mathematics.

Miss Maria Martindale, L. I., A. B. (University of Nashville,) English.

Miss Margaret Moore, A. B., (Maryville College) Latin and physical culture for girls.

Miss Virginia Hendren, history and Spanish.

W. A. Poore, German. Eighth grade to be taught by High school teachers.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

F. M. Hatfield, (Indiana State Normal,) principal and teacher of Seventh grade.

Miss Blanche Hall, Sixth grade

Mrs. Emma Swickard, Fifth grade.

Miss Ethel Ledbetter, (Peabody College for Teachers,) Fourth grade.

Miss Omah Johnson, Third grade.

Miss Lucille McNeeley, Second grade.

Miss Ora Kuykendall, (Denton Texas State Normal and University of Chicago,) First grade.

SPANISH-AMERICAN SCHOOL.

Mrs. Mary Reed Miller, principal; Miss Myrtle Collett, assistant.

Special attention is called to the list of new teachers. In the High school there are four, Miss Hendren having been promoted to a high school position. Mr. Seder is a graduate of the University of New Mexico of the Class of 1911. His specialty is science. In his work at the University he has shown conspicuous ability not only in regular class work but also in student enterprises. He is a speaker of some note and last year was editor-in-chief of the college paper. In addition to all this he is an athlete and will have charge of athletics for boys in the Carlsbad High school.

Miss Martindale is from Nashville, Tennessee, and is a graduate of Peabody College and University of Nashville and has had three years experience as teacher in the Tennessee School for the Blind. She is an accomplished elocutionist winning first place in a college contest, and is a class-mate of our present superintendent of schools.

Miss Margaret Moore, as mentioned above, is a graduate of Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee. In addition to this she has taken a year of graduate work in the University of Arkansas, taking special work in Latin and physical training. Her experience is varied. She spent two years as a government teacher in Porto Rico and one year as first assistant in the High school at Manchester, Kentucky. She is spending this summer in Boulder, Colorado, at the Colorado State University, as a further preparation for her work as teacher of Latin and physical training for girls in the Carlsbad High school.

Miss Hendren needs no introduction to the people of Carlsbad. It is sufficient to say that she was unanimously retained for a High school position by the board for the reason that no one has ever registered a complaint against her.

F. M. Hatfield, of Malaga, is the new Grammar school principal. He was educated in one of the Indiana State normals, and since then, has been engaged in teaching in Indiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico. He is thoroughly familiar with conditions in New Mexico, and will, therefore, be better qualified than a stranger, for the place to which he is appointed.

Miss Ledbetter was educated at the Peabody College for teachers, Nashville, Tennessee. Since then she has had three successful years teaching in the schools of Anniston, Alabama.

Miss Kuykendall is a graduate of the Normal school at Denton, Texas, and has taken special training in the University of Chicago. She has held the position of primary teacher in Portales for five consecutive years, which is ample proof that she can teach the "babies."

Miss Collett is a graduate of the High school, at Benton, Arkansas. She has had three years experience in the public schools of that state and four years as teacher in the Deaf and Dumb school at Santa Fe.

It is not necessary to introduce or recommend the old teachers who are retained. The fact that they are retained means that they have been successful and will continue to do their duty.

The board has made every effort to employ a first class faculty, and it believes, with the proper support of the patrons, next year will be a banner year in the history of the Carlsbad schools.

Dr. Parr was called to the Clark place for Mrs. Homer Bowden, at Red Bluff, last Sunday morning, to assist at a birth the child only living a short time. The mother was improving at last accounts and will leave for Kentucky, her old home, as soon as she is able to travel. Mr. Bowden was formerly with the Joyce-Fruit Co. in Carlsbad.

About nine years ago the family removed to Carlsbad where they have been active factors in the upbuilding of the town.
