Sec. 1. Adoption of Constitution: This Constitution shall be effective when approved by a two-thirds vote of the University Faculty present and voting and ratified by the Regents.
 Sec. 2. Amendments: This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Voting Faculty present and voting and ratification by the Regents. Amendments shall be on the table for thirty days before being taken.
 Sec. 3. By-Laws: This Constitution shall be supplemented by By-Laws of the Faculty when such are adopted by a majority vote of the Voting Faculty; and by By-Laws of any College when such are adopted by majority vote of that College Faculty. Such By-Laws will normally include: (1) in-terpretations and implementations of this Constitution; (2) the terms and conditions of the University; (3) a statement of promotional policy; (4) a statement of the duties and responsibilities of the standing committees of the University Faculty; (5) other faculty regulations; and (6) college regulations.
 Sec. 4. Distribution: This Constitution and the By-Laws of the Faculty shall be kept in one place as amended and distributed to the Faculty of the University at least once each year.
 Approved by the University Faculty
 April 11, 1952
 Ratified by the Regents
