The report of the committee was accepted, all members and proxies were seated in the convention and the committee was discharged.

F. F. Doepp tendered his resignation as chairman of the central committee giving as his reason for so doing that he is a candidate for the democratic nomination for state senator for Eddy county.

The resignation of Mr. Doepp was accepted and J. R. Linn was elected temporary chairman of the convention.

On taking his seat, Chairman Linn immediately announced nominations for permanent chairman in order.

G. U. McCrary and T. C. Cowan were placed in nomination for chairman. By ballot Mr. McCrary received 7 votes and Mr. Cowan 8 votes. The latter was declared duly elected chairman of this committee.

G. U. McCrary and J. N. Wood were appointed a committee to escort the chairman elect to the chair.

In accepting the chairmanship of the committee Mr. Cowan in a few brief remarks stated that he was a Missouri democrat and expressed his loyalty to the democratic party.

A communication from the secretary of the territorial democratic central committee was read. This communication stated that the territorial central committee had created judicial district committees in each judicial district as set out in the constitution for the new state of New Mexico and that the same was composed of the chairmen of the county central committee in each county in such judicial district and whose duties it would be to provide for the nomination of candidates for district judge and district attorney either by a primary or a convention.

Also, in event said judicial committee should decide to nominate such candidates by primary, such primary shall be held in each county composing such judicial district on the same day.

A copy of the proceedings of the democratic judicial district committee for the judicial district composed of the counties of Eddy, Chaves, Roosevelt and Curry held at Portales, New Mexico, August 25, 1911, was read.

This communication stated that said judicial district committee had by resolution declared to nominate candidates for the offices of district judge and district attorney by a district primary election and that said primary shall be held in each county in this judicial district on September 23, 1911, and recommended that each county in the district hold its primary for the nomination of its county officers on the same date.

A motion was offered by T. C. Horne, seconded by T. J. Fletcher, that Eddy county democratic central committee name September 23, 1911 as the date for holding its primary election for the nomination of candidates for county, legislative and judicial offices.

The meeting adjourned until 1 o'clock P. M.

The meeting was called to order at 1 o'clock, P. M., by Chairman W. G. Cowan.

A motion was made by G. U. McCrary, seconded by J. G. Osburn, to amend the original action by substituting October 14, 1911, as the date for holding such primary election instead of September 23, 1911. The amendment was carried and October 14, 1911, was named as the date on which to hold the Eddy county democratic primary election to nominate candidates for county, legislative and judicial offices.

The following resolution was offered by W. L. Bishop, seconded by G. U. McCrary and passed by unanimous vote:

"BE IT RESOLVED, by the democratic central committee, of Eddy county in convention assembled, that we endorse the proposed amendment to the constitution of New Mexico to be voted on at the general election to be held November 7, 1911, and further that we extend a vote of thanks of the Eddy county democrats to the patriotic democrats of New Mexico, who, at their own expense, went to Washington and secured this proposed amendment."

A motion was made, seconded and carried that the next meeting of this committee be held in the town of Artesia, New Mexico.

The convention voted that the following statement or test be printed on each ballot cast at the primary election: "In casting this ballot I pledge myself to support the nominees of this primary in the general election."

For the purpose of defraying the expenses of the primary the Bitten by a Rattler.

Mrs. James Morris, daughter of Mr. J. E. Acord, who lives on a farm four miles northeast of Artesia, was bitten on her ankle by a rattlesnake Monday evening at about 4:30.

She was just starting to the buggy and in passing through some alfalfa, was bitten by the snake three times.

Mr. Morris put his wife in the buggy and hurried as rapidly as possible in the buggy to town, where medical aid was summoned.

Mrs. Morris was taken to the home of her father, Mr. Acord, and everything has been done that could be to alleviate her suffering. It is believed that she will survive the deadly poison of the rattlesnake. She is about twenty-two years old and in good health. Artesia Advocate.

Personal Sketch of K. K. Scott.

K. K. Scott was born in 1875 at Knoxville, Tennessee. He received his education at the University of Tennessee.

He was admitted to the bar to practice in the courts of Tennessee at Knoxville in 1896.

In 1897 he was appointed as a deputy clerk in the supreme court of Tennessee.

He came west into Arizona in 1899, and later located at Gallup, New Mexico. He was admitted to the bar of New Mexico in 1899, and practiced in New Mexico and Arizona until he came to Roswell. He was active in politics there and was one of the leading Democrats in that Republican section.

Mr. Scott located with his family in Roswell in 1904.

He served as city attorney of Roswell under both the Hinkle and Stockard administrations, and a short time under the Richardson administration, covering a period of about five years and in that office made good.

In 1907 he was elected secretary of New Mexico Bar Association.

He served as United States Commissioner on the Plains in east Chaves county under appointment of Judge Wm. H. Pope in 1909, where he is well and favorably known.

Mr. Scott is a member of the Roswell camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans, and has been a Democrat from infancy up.

He has never before been a candidate for any office, or asked for any office at the hands of his party. He is not a candidate of any man, or set of men, element or faction, but submits himself to the will of the Democratic voters at the primary election to be held on the same day in each county in the district and, if elected, can be depended upon to enforce the laws as they are written without fear or favor.

Mr. Scott is well known throughout the district, and will no doubt prove a formidable candidate.

Carlsbad, N. M., Friday, Sept. 8, 1911

Carlsbad Current established November 12, 1902. New Mexico Sun established May 12, 1907. The two papers consolidated October 11, 1907.

Official Paper of Eddy County.

The first democrat state convention has been called for Oct. 3 at Santa Fe. The committee meeting was the most enthusiastic ever.

O. A. Larrazole has joined the republicans, alleging that the democrats of the eastern counties cut him on account of being a native of Spanish descent. He said nothing about the manner he cut his friends in an endeavor to get back at a few ignorant, prejudiced fools. Had he lived down the slurs and fought out the issue in his party he would have shown more manliness.

Authentic information has reached this paper from the Santa Fe officials that the Santa Fe has made a special appropriation to advertise the Pecos valley quite in excess of all previous years which will be done in farm journals including some papers in foreign languages with perhaps a few magazines, the campaign to be started this month and continue for four months. There will also be stereopticon lectures descriptive of the Pecos Valley.

The mixup caused by the fixing of the primary date for the nomination of district judges and attorneys for the counties of Eddy, Chaves, Roosevelt and Curry is still in an unsettled condition. This affair is not only an unfortunate one for this campaign but unless some staple and fixed method satisfactory to all the democrats of the four counties is adopted, each recurring campaign will witness more of the same friction. This is one good reason why the matter should be settled at once even if it were necessary to hold a primary on Sept. 23 to deliver the vote of Eddy county on district officials alone. Unless the judicial committee will agree to have two ballot boxes at each polling place in the counties that hold primaries on Sept. 23 with an agreement to postpone canvases of the votes for district officials until after Oct. 14 so as to count all votes at once, then primaries for district officials should be held separate Sept. 23. That some method to obviate a row after the primaries should be devised, goes without saying.

Later Dr. Cowan stated this morning that he will call a judicial primary for Sept. 23 to register the Eddy county vote to nominate a judge and district attorney for the counties of Eddy, Chaves, Roosevelt and Curry. This is done at the request of the candidates who have put up $100 each to defray the expense of the primary which will be for no other purpose than to nominate candidates for district judge and attorney.

William J. Russell (Jack Russell)

William J. Russell better known as Jack Russell of Knowles announces this week as a candidate for the office of Treasurer and Ex-Officio collector of Eddy County subject to the action of the democratic party in its primary. Mr. Russell was born in Texas but has lived in New Mexico and in Eddy County for many years and numbers his friends and acquaintances by the hundreds. Mr. Russell until about two years ago was engaged in the stock business, but for the last two years has been in the mercantile business at Knowles. He is an experienced bookkeeper and is thoroughly qualified for the office he seeks. He is a democrat born and bred and if elected will attend to the duties of the office in a manner satisfactory to all concerned. This is Mr. Russell's first time to seek office and he would not be in this race except at the earnest solicitation of many friends.

W. H. Woodwell.

W. H. Woodwell announces in this issue of the Current for county commissioner from the first district which contains the county seat and consequently carries with it the chairmanship of the board, as the custom has been to elect the member resident at the county seat the chairman on account of the correspondence and business of signing papers makes it almost a necessity to have the chairman a resident near the clerk. Mr. Woodwell has been the principal legal adviser of the board for nearly two years in the capacity of deputy district attorney, in which position he has made good, having been on hand at all times and at all meetings and his advice on law points has been found unerringly right in all instances, in consequence of which many best acquainted with county affairs united in a request to Mr. Woodwell to allow the use of his name for the most important office in the county, that of chairman of the board of county commissioners.

Mr. Woodwell made a race for constitutional delegate last year during the canvass for which he met many of the citizens of the county and made many friends.

Mr. Woodwell's democracy is of the uncompromising kind having been elected city attorney of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, five years ago on the democratic ticket while the republicans were in the majority and elected the balance of the ticket, except one alderman.

W. H. Merchant.

The present county treasurer, W. H. Merchant, has held that responsible office for five years and it could hardly be in more reliable hands, for the territorial auditor has always found every cent accounted for at his every visit. The tax rolls are always models of neatness and accuracy and the assistants are always courteous and obliging, while Will Merchant is himself a gentleman well educated and the soul of courtesy. At the election of 1908 Will had no opponent and up to this writing the same condition exists. Mr. Merchant was born and reared in Texas and comes of the famous and much respected Merchant family, his parents being the first couple who were born, reared, married and celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Texas. Since 1896 he has been connected with his father and brothers in business in this county and is still interested in the C. W. Merchant & Sons Cattle Company. He has a home south of Carlsbad among the dry farmers where he resides, which he is improving with the intention of some day having one of the finest suburban places in the county. Such men as Will Merchant are a benefit to any community.

M. C. Stewart.

M. C. Stewart, pioneer, self-educated cowboy sheriff, asks the nomination for the last time probably forever, for the constitution provides that no county officials, except clerk and probate judge shall succeed themselves, and the chances are that if elected Mr. Stewart will become engaged in some other business when his term expires for sheriff and will therefore not care to take up the worry of the office again. He is said to be the best criminal officer in the state of New Mexico, he having captured some noted criminals among them McGinnis, of the famous Black Jack gang.

Once a prisoner falls into his hands it is seldom that an escape is recorded for he is as watchful as the best, though considerate in his treatment of unfortunates that come to board with him. His many friends throughout the county are very aggressive and the man that beats him will know there was a race.

T. E. Jones.

Thomas E. Jones is the latest to announce for the office of county commissioner from the first district. Tom is one of the well known Jones brothers, of Rocky Arroya, though he lives with his family in Carlsbad. He was born in an adobe house that once stood near where the Main street bridge crosses the Hondo, at Roswell, on September 29, 1867, being the first white child born in what is now Chaves county. He is forty-four years of age and has lived in this valley for practically forty-four years. He dug a good education out of books and from what his mother taught him never having gone to school though he is now a successful life insurance man and has written several big policies lately. He believes in good roads, and in working those most necessary to bring in trade to the towns from outside the county. He is strictly a Pecos Valley man and has always believed in the greatest good to the greatest number and feels fully competent to conduct the affairs of the office if elected.

G. L. Reese Announces.

In announcing my candidacy for District Judge of the Fifth Judicial District of New Mexico, I desire to say that I have been a Democrat in political faith all my life; have always been loyal to the Democratic platforms, both state and national as exponents of the principles of the party, and heartily support the principles enunciated in the Territorial Democratic platform for 1910.

My political views, however, are not demanded by the office which I am now asking from the people, because it can in no wise be a legislative office. The structure of our tree of government has one body and three branches—the executive, legislative and judicial. Either branch is essential to the life of the tree, but yet it is separate and distinct in its functions. That the three branches should remain separate, and that one should not encroach upon the other was the guarded intention of the fathers of the republic. The three branches once blended, the government becomes a monarchy and the liberties of the people destroyed. It is the duty of the judiciary to interpret and construe the laws made by the legislative department.

If elected to the office of judge, it shall be my constant purpose to fairly and impartially decide each and every case solely according to the established rules of law, without fear or favor; to give equal and exact justice to all and special favors to none. No partisan feeling, extraneous fact or circumstance shall deter me from this course. Whether a law is useful and expedient is for the legislative body to determine, and when a valid law is enacted it ought to be enforced until repealed by the legislative body. GEO. L. REESE.

John W. Armstrong.

The probate judge's office has been filled the past few years by a lawyer of ability, one who knows the duties and responsibilities of the office and in consequence has given excellent satisfaction to all concerned. J. W. Armstrong is from Missouri and must be shown, which is right and proper, for all things connected with the settlement of estates is important that they be done in strict accord with the law. Mr. Armstrong is also very obliging and courteous in every way so patrons of his office need have no fears of approaching him on the business of his office, he is also a life long democrat that can always be counted on to be in the front of the fight for democratic principles.

John W. Price.

The many friends of "Johnny" Price will be pleased to learn that he is out for reelection to the office he has held very satisfactorily for one term and it is usually considered that when an officer "makes good" for one term that he is entitled to the second as a mark of respect and confidence, especially when the term was so short as two years, which has been the case heretofore. Mr. Price has been uniformly courteous with the patrons of the office and as it is a very responsible place to fill that requires considerable experience it would seem that the office could do no better than be filled by J. W. Price.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF

OF CLOVIS.

Candidate for District Judge

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE COUNTIES OF CURRY, ROOSEVELT, CHAVES AND EDDY:

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination to the office of District Judge of the Fifth Judicial district of the new state of New Mexico. While modesty forbids that any man should unduly laud his virtues, I deem it not unbecoming in me to briefly set forth my claims, and for the information of voters to refer to my antecedents and past life, and to invite thorough investigation of the same.

I am thirty-six years old and have been a Democrat for thirty-six years.

I was born and reared in Bentonville, Benton County, Arkansas, and lived there until five years ago, when I moved to that part of Roosevelt which is now Curry county.

I represented my native county in the House of Representatives of the state of Arkansas for two terms—the session of 1899 and that of 1901.

I have been actively and continuously engaged in the law for more than fourteen years.

From my experience in the courts, I fully realize the duties and responsibilities of this office. I believe that I possess the necessary qualifications of learning, experience and executive ability. As to my fitness in these respects and the additional qualification of integrity, I cheerfully refer you to the members of the bar of my home county, with whom I have been associated in the practice for more than five years.

I call your attention to the fact that this is not a legislative office and that a judge of the court should not usurp the legislative powers of government. For that reason I have no platform other than my promise to construe the law as it has been enacted, and to administer justice in an impartial manner. Further, such construction should be in accordance with the spirit and intent of the law, and such administration should be speedy and economical. If elected, such course shall be my aim.

I have never become involved in any local or sectional strife and would not thereby be biased or influenced by partisan feeling and would not be bound to fulfill obligations to any clan or faction other than the discharge of official duty.

While the place of residence does not qualify an aspirant to office, I do call attention to the fact that I live in a part of the district that has never enjoyed the benefits of public office. I do feel that my part of the district, which can always be depended upon for the strong Democratic majority, is entitled to consideration as against the more favored section of the district, which has always enjoyed the distinction of furnishing so many public servants.

Realizing that I could repay you for your support only by the faithful and conscientious discharge of duty, I pledge you, if elected, to discharge that obligation, and assure you that your support will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Harry L. Patton.

Last Friday the Presbyterian people held their annual picnic at the spacious grounds, under the large shade trees at the Rackley home. Mr. Rackley had barbecued a couple of large, fat shoats, while the ladies bro't good things of all kinds. There were three long tables while several were fed from cloths spread on the grass. Over 200 members of the church attended with a few others who were lucky enough to be invited on account of closely resembling Presbyterians for being members of families of Presbyterians. The pigs, pickles and bread were furnished by the hosts and if chicken was ever as good as the pig it was fine chicken. The annual picnic of the Presbyterians is quite a feature and Bro. Davis has been all smiles ever since on account of the big success it proved.

Mrs. Gene Hedgecoxe pleasantly entertained the J. U. G. club at the home of her parents, Geo. Lucas and wife, in this city, last Tuesday afternoon. Progressive dominoes was the amusement, Mona Heard receiving the prize, one of the late books. Fourteen young ladies were present being the entire membership of the club with the exception of Miss Jolley, of Roswell, and Miss Fosmark, who was unavoidably absent. The refreshments were delicious fruit sherbet and cake and as is always the case in this hospitable home, a delightful time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Hedgecoxe will leave for Roswell, Sunday morning, from whence about the 15th of October, they expect to leave for a winter trip to San Antonio and various other points in Texas and also visit the Pacific coast.

Pecos Valley Printer Men Meet

The Pecos Valley Press Association met at Lakewood last Friday and Saturday. Governor Mills was on hand Friday and delivered an address and Saturday the association was treated to a barbecue and ball game between Artesia and Lakewood, after the press meet closed.

The ball game resulted in a score of 3 to 4 in favor of Lakewood.

The following officers were elected for the Press Association for 1911-12: J. M. Wood, Lakewood Progress, president; Geo. V. Johnson, Portales Times, secretary; Will Robinson, Roswell Register-Tribune, dean-secretary; A. M. Hove, J. W. Armstrong and Gayle Talbot delegates to the National association.

At the press meet several very interesting papers were read on subjects of interest to the craft. Mr. Johnson on "Why is a Newspaper?" Mr. Robinson "The Duty of the Town to the Newspaper," and others. C. H. McLanthen, mayor of Carlsbad, addressed the meeting on "Good Roads" and placed a definite proposition before the editors of building a road from Roswell to Malaga, 20 miles south of Carlsbad. He asked the support of the press in the valley. His plan met with hearty response and a committee consisting of Will Robinson, C. H. McLanthen and W. H. Mul-lane was appointed to help promote this road.

Among other things discussed was a fair libel law, the repeal of the Sweeney law, the necessity of being more liberal in supplying funds to the bureau of immigration.

The entertainment included a "chuck wagon dinner." This was well served and enjoyed by hundreds in attendance. There was a fine exhibit of agricultural products. One of the Japanese farmers brought in several hundred cantaloupes for the special use of the editors. There were watermelons in abundance, all of mammoth size and sweet as sugar. A 58 pound watermelon was set before Governor Mills and later sent to his home in Santa Fe. There were products grown by irrigation and by dry farming. The union exhibit attracted much attention, as many of the visitors were not aware of the union possibilities of the Pecos Valley.

The editors returned home well pleased with the hospitality of Lakewood. This was without question the most helpful session in the history of the association. The next meeting of the association will be held at Portales.

Contracts Awarded.

C. W. Roland, of Lakewood, was awarded the contract to repair the bridge across the Pecos this side of Lakewood and C. H. Billings, of Malaga, the contract to repair the bridge across the Pecos this side of Malaga. The indications are the Midland Bridge Co. will get the job of building the extension to the Artesia bridge, which job will amount to more than all others.

JOHN T. MCCLURE

Candidate for

DISTRICT JUDGE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT, NEW MEXICO.

Subject to the will of the Democratic Party.

Announcement to Democratic Voters

As I am a candidate, and you are a voter, interested in the character, ability and fitness of your public servants, and believing that under our form of government the people have a right to know, what those who offer their services to the public stand for, what they intend to do and how they propose to do it, I submit for your consideration the following:

I have been actively engaged in the practice of the law for more than twenty-five years, and invite a thorough investigation as to my ability as a lawyer and my character as a man.

I believe in the principles of the Democratic Party, and have an abiding faith in its present and future usefulness.

I believe that a public office is public trust, and that a District Judge is nothing more than a public servant.

I believe that the District Court should be conducted solely and exclusively for the benefit of litigants, and that the expense of litigation should be and can be reduced to the minimum by a careful, practical and common sense arrangement of Court business.

I believe that a District Judge should strive only to know what the law is, without any regard to what he thinks it ought to be, and what the facts are, and in the light of the law, and facts, administer justice, speedily, fairly and impartially. I believe unnecessary delays in litigation oftentimes result in the miscarriage of justice. I believe that every litigant and every lawyer should stand on the same footing and on the same level in the courts of justice.

I believe that the criminal laws are made to be enforced, and the duty of securing speedy, fair and impartial enforcement of the same, rests largely upon the courts.

I believe that the Legislature should change the times of holding Court in this Judicial District to the end that the convenience of litigants may be better served.

I believe in the doctrine of nominating elective officers at primary elections, so that every voter may have an equal voice in their selection, and that it is the patriotic duty of every good democrat to support himself with all the candidates, and then attend the primaries and express his choice.

If nominated and elected District Judge, I pledge my honor to the best of my ability to put into practice the foregoing principles.

JOHN T. MCCLURE.

"We Want Your Trade"

Hiram M. Dow.

This afternoon brought forth another candidate for nomination at the hands of the democrats of the Fifth Judicial District, this time in the person of Hiram M. Dow, of Roswell, present city attorney, and one who is fully competent in every way to conduct the affairs of the office to which he aspires, that of district attorney.

The Record believes that Mr. Dow will make a strong candidate and that he will win the nomination and be elected. And to that end we are frank to say, the Record will do what it can to bring it about. He has shown himself to be a young attorney of unusual ability, and particularly in those strong characteristics that go to make a successful and efficient prosecuting officer.

Hiram M. Dow may well be considered a native son of New Mexico. He was born in the commonwealth of Texas, April 21, 1885, and when a small baby was brought by his family to New Mexico, where he has since continuously resided. He is the eldest son of J. L. Dow, for many years a prominent and valued citizen of the territory, and for some time sheriff of Eddy county. He was educated in the schools of Carlsbad and in the New Mexico Military Institute from which he graduated in 1905 and is at present and has been for several years, president Alumni association of the latter institution. He received his college training at Washington and Lee University, from which he was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Law, in 1908. Mr. Dow located at Roswell, which had been his home prior to going to college, and has been engaged in the practice of law in Roswell since the spring of 1908. He has served for the past sixteen months as city attorney for the city of Roswell and his administration of that office has been very successful. Although yet a young man, Mr. Dow has shown marked ability in handling an office, which, since his incumbency, has been no sinecure. Since he assumed the duties of the office of city attorney, of Roswell, there has been an unprecedented amount of difficult litigation, which he has established for himself an enviable reputation. His policies have always been directed towards the just and fair enforcement of the law. His competent and painstaking discharge of his duties as a public officer, and his ability in private practice have won for him the esteem and confidence of the entire community, and the respect of his opponents. He will make a vigorous prosecutor, and if elected to that office will serve the public faithfully and creditably. Mr. Dow is a splendid type of the young man of ability, and is in every way competent and able to represent the district, county and territory as district attorney. His fitness for the office has been recognized from the first and he will have the unqualified support of all those who desire a just, fair, able and fearless exponent of the people in the office of district attorney.

LAWYERS

Reese a Candidate for the District Judgeship.

Roswell Record.

Today George L. Reese, of Portales, announces himself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for judge of the Fifth judicial district, subject to the democratic primaries. Mr. Reese comes from the county of Roosevelt, where he has built up for himself a large law practice and has made an enviable reputation as a clean and conscientious attorney. He has handled many of the big cases from that section of the state and is fully qualified to sit as presiding judge in this district. He possesses both the necessary qualifications and the experience to carry him safely over the rough places met by any district judge.

Mr. Reese is a democrat of progressive type and can conscientiously and earnestly advocate those principles before the people. But as judge he would know no political differences, but would act according to the law and the facts.

The Record believes that the candidacy of Mr. Reese is opportune; that he should receive the vote of the people of this district in the democratic primaries and that he should be elected in the general elections on November 7th; and believing this, the Record proposes to use what influence it may possess in asking the support of the democrats to Mr. Reese. We do not condemn any man, but we do propose to use our utmost endeavor in all cases, to aid in electing only those men we conscientiously believe would render efficient service to the people and whom we feel that we can honestly and rightly support.

And George L. Reese is one of those men.

In order that the people may know more of the manner of of man the new candidate is, we publish a short sketch of him:

George L. Reese was born in DeKalb county, Alabama, January 11, 1872. He is the son of an ex-confederate soldier. Left fatherless at eight years of age, he worked on a farm to help support a widowed mother and four children younger than himself.

When he attained the age of eighteen years his mother told him she could spare his services from home, and that if he could work his way in the world and get an education to do so.

He immediately went to the state of Texas, and when he arrived he had only $3.72, which was all his worldly goods. Having procured a job of work he spent all his money for books and when not engaged at manual labor, he was poring over his books, mastering the principles of an elementary education. As soon as he could procure means he entered college at Comanche, Texas, and after having obtained a good education, he began the study of law.

At the age of twenty-five he was licensed to practice law in the supreme and inferior courts of Texas. Both his literary and law educations were obtained by his sole efforts, there being no outside assistance whatever, and also in the meantime he helped to educate a sister younger than himself.

Having spent eleven years of his life in Texas, he became especially interested in the history and traditions of her people.

The thrilling accounts of the experiences of the patriots and heroes who struggled there for liberty, inspired him with high ideals and with the hope that he might be worthy of that great state which has given to the world more than her share of genius and of greatness.

He removed to Portales, New Mexico, in 1904, and has been engaged in the practice of his chosen profession at that place to the present date.

He was elected delegate to proposed constitutional convention for Arizona and New Mexico, in 1906.

He is now 39 years of age and has had 14 years' experience in the practice of law. His faithfulness to duty, uprightness and that indomitable will that knows no reverses have placed him in the front rank of his profession in New Mexico.
