article I. The University Faculty

Sec. 3. (a) Membership: The University Faculty shall consist of the professors, associate professors, assistant professors, and instructors, including part-time and temporary appointees. The President of the University, Academic Vice-President, Heads of Colleges, Schools, Assistant Dean, Personnel Dean, Directors of Schools or Divisions, Librarian, Director of Admissions, Head of Testing Services, and Deans shall be ex officio members of the Faculty, whether or not they are actively employed in teaching.

Sec. 3. (b) Members of the University Faculty who are eligible to vote (called "the Voting Faculty") shall include all members who are full-time employees of the University after serving the following terms: instructors, three years; assistant professors and higher, one year. The President of the University, academic Vice-President, Deans of Colleges and Schools, assistant Deans, Personnel Deans, Directors of Schools or Divisions, Heads of Testing Services, and Deans shall be ex officio members of the Voting Faculty. No person holding an interim or temporary appointment or the teaching staff shall be a member of the Voting Faculty unless he has been a member of the Faculty.

Sec. 3. (c) Questions of eligibility for voting which may arise shall be settled by the prevailing officer of the Faculty. Any appeal from his decision shall be taken to the Voting Faculty. The officers shall prepare at the beginning of each academic year the official list of the membership of the Faculty and of the Voting Faculty as defined above.

Sec. 3. (d) Functions: The University faculty shall have the right of review and final action in regard to the following: (1) inauguration of institutional policies; (2) creation of new colleges, schools, and departments and divisions; (3) major curriculum changes and other actions which in the opinion of the President of the University or his delegate affect the institution as a whole; (4) requirements for academic and graduation; and for honors and scholastic performance in general; (5) approval of candidates for degrees; (6) regulations affecting student life and conduct; (7) articles of organization; (8) student discipline, and provisions in academic rules and (9) general faculty welfare. Provided, however, that actions taken by the University faculty shall be subject to the authority of the Regents in matters involving finances, personnel, and general University policy.

Sec. 3. (e) Organization: The President of the University, or in his absence, the Academic Vice-President, shall be the governing officer of the University Faculty. The Voting Faculty shall elect a Vice-Chairman for one year, and a Secretary for three years.
