TWO PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES

Largest and Most Successful Convention Ever Held in New Mexico

The first democratic state convention was called to order by Chairman McDonald in the hall of the house of representatives, in the capitol building, at 11:25 o'clock Tuesday morning. It was the largest convention of any political party ever assembled in the history of New Mexico. Many of the counties of the territory had sent double delegations, giving each member of their delegations half a vote each so that the number, 272, which was provided for in the call was exceeded by about a hundred delegates.

Following is the number of delegates to which each county was entitled:

County	No. Delegates
Bernalillo	17
Chaves	14
Colfax	16
Curry	10
Dona Ana	10
Eddy	10
Grant	14
Guadalupe	11
Lincoln	7

McKinley	3
Mora	12
Otero	7
Quay	13
Rio Arriba	17

San Juan	6
San Miguel	22
Santa Fe	12
Sierra	5
Socorro	15
Taos	9
Torrance	11
Union	12
Valencia	3

Total 272

The convention was opened with prayer by Rev. Jules Derachas as follows:

"Oh, Lord God, creator and ruler of all things, mercifully hear our prayer.

"Thy Providence, after many years of waiting, has just given us the free possession of the promised land. Help us today wisely to choose our rulers; we need men of upright mind and will; prudent men, who shall lead us safely through all good paths; men who endowed with a high sense of justice are ready to give equal rights to all, rich and poor, friend and foe; moderate men wise enough to avoid any excess; but strong men who are able and decided to govern the state with noble firmness and constancy. Help us, O God, to make a wise choice.

"And then, O God, may thy Holy Name never be blotted out of their deliberations and may Thy Holy Gospel brought here centuries ago by St. Francis patron of the cathedral in this city of the Holy Faith and whose feast will be celebrated tomorrow, never be forgotten in this land. Amen."

Chairman McDonald then addressed the convention as follows:

"Fellow Delegates and Ladies and Gentlemen: I believe it is simply my province as chairman of the central committee, to present the names selected by the committee for the temporary offices of this convention. Therefore I shall not attempt to make a speech. But I will say that I hope that every man here will not forget throughout this convention that we have met here to make history for New Mexico. (Cheers) On our deliberations and naming of a ticket for the suffrages of the voters of New Mexico, will depend much, not only for the next five years, but the welfare of New Mexico is at stake for many years to come." (Applause.)

Chairman McDonald then announced the following temporary officers of the convention: Temporary chairman, H. B. Fergusson; temporary secretaries, A. C. Torres and E. D. Tittman; interpreters, E. C. de Baca, A. P. Hill, D. Calderon, Dennis Chaves, Juan N. Vigil and Paz Valverde. The chair appointed Felix Martinez, N. B. Laughlin and John W. Poe to escort the temporary officers to the platform. In introducing Mr. Fergusson, Chairman McDonald said:

"I therefore take pleasure to introduce to this convention a man whom I have known and loved for 28 years. (Cheers) A man with whom I have been associated in many ways as far back as 1883. No matter how much any man in New Mexico may differ from Mr. Fergusson, you all know as I know that no one in this broad land will deny that we have in him an honest man, and honesty is the key note of success in self government. (Prolonged applause) And I will add to this that he possesses ability second to none in New Mexico. Mr. Fergusson made for us the principal record on which we stand today, his record in congress. It is a record of which this party is proud, and to which we have proudly alluded again and again, in contests we have waged in New Mexico. Mr. Fergusson, gentlemen!"

Mr. Fergusson was greeted by prolonged applause. He spoke in part, as follows:

"I am well high overcome with a deep sense of gratitude for this high honor and with a deep sense of humility for fear I am unequal to the great occasion.

"When leaving Albuquerque I shook hands with one of the noblest men in New Mexico, and asked his blessing, and he gave it. As our chairman has said, you all personally know me and I know you and in your hearts are praying that we may do what is right in itself and do what will be to the glory of the state and equal rights for all. (Cheers.)

"I believe we are laying the foundation for an honest government and that will insure happiness. (Applause.)

"I believe the citizenship of our state, from one end to the other, is animated by a lofty patriotism, regardless of race, or political party. (Applause.)

"It is stated in another way, first by immortal Jefferson, and second by Lincoln, where, in that wonderful speech at Gettysburg, if only a few lines, but which surpasses all utterances of all renowned orators, where he said, 'let us on this battlefield, near the bones of those who died in defense of this republic, let us dedicate ourselves anew to the principles of this great country in order that they may not perish from the earth—a government of the people, for the people, and by the people.' (Prolonged applause.)

"Wrongs arose, great wealth accumulated in hands of a few, taking form of large corporate wealth, and as the Bible says, love of money is the root of all evil. Even the past deplores the life of that man whose wealth is his ideal. These wrongs have been for some years in process of correction. Fortunately for the democratic party they first raised the flag of revolt and attacked those wrongs and the people responded. Alone, no one party could have done it, but party lines fade, and when the principles of this country are endangered, the great throng known as progressive republicans back as far as the time of Lincoln, have joined the cohorts of democracy.

"And New Mexico while still a territory, fell a victim to this 'gang.' It is a common word but effective. As in the United States, all honest men arose to correct wrongs, so in New Mexico the honest men are arising with this democratic host to see to it that when New Mexico does enter the union she shall come in as a state that has repudiated and overthrown the things that have been wrong, headed by honest men. We must meet them half way. I extend to the honest republican citizenship of New Mexico, by the order and full concurrence of every honest democrat of New Mexico, the right hand of fellowship. (Cheers.)

"This is an occasion of true ringing. H. D. Terrell, N. C. Fronger, Seef Ertter, W. B. Walton, M. R. Baker, John Y. Hewett, James H. Waddell, S. C. Schwartz, Macario Gallegos, Byron Sherry, (chairman) E. F. Saxon, J. H. Crist, W. R. McGill, John Saldivan, William Butler, A. A. Jones, N. B. Laughlin, E. D. Tittman, H. W. Russell, Alex. Gusdorf, J. P. Dunlavy, John A. Pace and George Dunlavy.

The convention met for the second day's session at 9:30 Wednesday morning and the committees on permanent organization and credentials presented their reports. There were no contests and all the delegates elected in the various counties were seated in the convention.

The committee on permanent organization reported for permanent chairman G. A. Richardson; a vice president was chosen from each of the twenty-six counties; for permanent secretary Trinidad C. de Baca; Baca; assistant secretaries J. L. Zimmerman and Manuel U. Vigil. Chairman Richardson addressed the convention in a few well chosen remarks. The new central committee was chosen and consists of two members from each of the counties of the state.

It was late in the afternoon when nominations were reached de Baca, of San Miguel, but before a vote was taken Mr. Torres withdrew and E. C. de Baca was nominated by acclamation.

This nomination was followed by that of Antonio Lueero, of San Miguel, for secretary of state who had no opposition. For the position of attorney general J. L. Lawson, of Otero, was named but he declined to accept and this nomination was later given to W. R. McGill, of Roosevelt.

W. B. Walton, of Grant, "receptive" candidate for the nomination for congress, placed in nomination, Alvin White, of Grant, for superintendent of public instruction. The nomination was made by acclamation. Each of the candidates who had been placed in nomination was escorted to the platform and addressed a few remarks to the convention.

The name of John L. Emerson was placed before the convention for the position of land commissioner, a position which was also sought by Lucius Dills, of Chaves, but who withdrew his name from consideration by the convention. Emerson was nominated by acclamation.

The first contest on the floor of the convention came over the nomination for member of congress. The names of H. B. Fergusson and W. R. McGill were placed in nomination, and the partisans of each were insistent on the nomination of their choice. The roll call of the counties was commenced and had proceeded down the list to Quay, Fergusson having 111 votes and McGill 22, when the latter came to the platform and withdrew from the race. The nomination of Fergusson was then made unanimous. Judge Judge McGill was then nominated to fill the vacancy on the ticket caused by the resignation of Mr. Lawson as candidate for attorney general.

Paz Valverde was nominated by acclamation as the second candidate for member of congress.

A resolution was introduced which provided for the giving of two places on the ticket to progressive republicans, one for judge of the supreme court and one for corporation commissioner. The resolution was passed and the convention proceeded to the nomination of two corporation commissioners. O. L. Owen, of Curry, Seferino Martinez, of Colfax, and C. L. Pollard, of Rio Arriba, were placed in nomination but Mr. Pollard's name was withdrawn and Owen and Martinez were nominated by acclamation.

For judges of the supreme court there were placed in nomination R. L. Bickley, of Colfax, William A. Dunn, of Chaves, N. B. Laughlin, of Santa Fe, and Summers Burkhardt, of Bernalillo. The roll of the counties was called and the result was announced as follows: Burkhardt, 201; Dunn, 164; Laughlin, 137; Bickley, 47. Summers, Burkhardt and Dunn were declared the nominees of the convention.

R. H. Hanna was placed in nomination for supreme court judge as a progressive and his nomination was made by acclamation as was that of G. H. Van Stone, progressive, for corporation commissioner. The convention by way of recognition of the progressive candidates, rose to welcome them to the convention hall. Each of the nominees thanked the convention in short addresses. The convention, after passing resolutions of thanks, adjourned without day, and thus passed into history the greatest political convention ever held in New Mexico.

TULLIS TO THE RESCUE

Desperate Defense of Bujac by by the Artesia Editor

STATEMENT FROM MEMBERS OF BOARD

Mad Rush to the Hope Press in an Endeavor to Explain
Another Trans-

Editor Press: I beg the pardon of the voters of Eddy County for having anything to say in the campaign that I could not say in the Artesia Advocate. However we cannot always do as we will or prefer.

I have only a desire to attempt to offer a column against a candidate who is necessarily detained from this county.

A dodger has been circulated, as I understand, stating that Capt. E. P. Bujac had given an order for about $200.00 worth of lumber to the Groves Lumber Co. to build two bridges across the canal at Hagerman Development Co.'s farm.

I am informed by one of the commissioners that he agreed to the purchase of $150 of the lumber which, with Capt. Bujac's endorsement, made a legal order. However, the minutes of that meeting showed the whole board present. Who is responsible for this error, I do not know, nor do I care. The order was made legally, but the other two members of the board later rescinded the order, so there was no lumber bought of the Groves Lumber Co. and the county has not been out a cent for this supposed outrage on its finances. If these parties back of this attack on a man during his absence were as sincere to serve the people as they are to pick out technicalities to injure a man whom they do not date to say such things when he is here, to defend himself, the county would be the gainer.

I am sorry to say that democrats will lend themselves to the further connivances to injure a man who has fought the republican-democratic combination in this county so long and so well. They only fear a change and the light turned on their deeds.

Respectfully,
(Signed) J. L. TULLIS.

The following is a copy of the order issued by Capt. Bujac:

Gentlemen: Please deliver to J. A. Hartshorn, and charge to Eddy County, 2,500 feet of 3 inch bridge flooring 16 feet long, 32 pieces 3 x 10, 16 feet long. One keg of 60 penny nails.

I attach hereto a copy of order for this material, and would request you to detach said copy of said order and attach same to your bill when you put it in to the commissioners.

(Signed) E. P. BUJAC,

Carlsbad, N. M., October 10, 1911
To Whom it May Concern:

No order has been made by the Board authorizing the chairman to give J. A. Hartshorn any lumber, or other county material. But there is an order for the different Road Supervisors to do all road and bridge work in their districts not let by contract.

The above statement having been shown to us, we deem it our duty to ourselves and the voters to reiterate that no order authorizing one member of the board to furnish lumber, to be used by individuals, as passed by the board. Further the Road Supervisor of Malaga District has in the past year recovered considerable county lumber from the Hagerman Development Company of which Mr. J. A. Hartshorn and Capt. E. P. The name of McDonald aroused the convention to the highest pitch of enthusiasm and the delegates in the hall of the house of representatives resound with cheers. The nomination was made by acclamation and the convention took a recess for supper until 8 o'clock.

At the evening session Mr. McDonald, the nominee for governor, was escorted to the platform. His appearance was the signal for prolonged cheers. He spoke for more than half an hour during which time he was listened to with the closest attention. His address was to the point and as clean cut a speech as ever fell from the lips of a candidate in New Mexico. He was cheered to the echo and no one who was present in the convention hall doubted that the democrats were highly pleased with their nominee.

The committee on platform, which had made a partial report in the afternoon, completed its report and the same was adopted. An adjournment was taken until Thursday morning to complete the ticket.

It was nearly 10 o'clock Thursday morning when the convention got ready to complete the naming of candidates. For lieutenant governor two names were placed before the convention, A. C. Torres, of Socorro, and E. C.

It would be difficult to imagine a more fair plan to choose county officials than by the primary system. If the primary is conducted fair there can be no objection, but if republicans are allowed to vote in one box it will not require long to telephone it around and they will get in every where. It is only a step from one unjust move to another and the next thing would be repeating and voting the grave yards and hotel registers. It is certainly only right that all republicans be kept out unless they give their word of honor that they will vote the straight democratic ticket at the polls in November, and that they intend to affiliate with the democratic party in the future. It is to be hoped wise counsel will prevail and that the primaries to be held will be conducted fair to all concerned for if there is one thing more than another that tends to disrupt a political organization it is unfairness and efforts to get advantages that are questionable.

It should not be forgotten by the people of New Mexico that the officers of the state and of the various counties of the state and the district officers will be chosen for terms varying from five to nine years at the primary tomorrow. All of the county officers will be chosen for a period of five years. The district officers, district attorneys and district judges, will be chosen for five and seven years respectively. The state officers, excepting the judiciary, and the members of the corporation commission, will hold office for five years. The members of the corporation commission will determine the length of the first term by lot, one term being for three years, one for five years and one for seven years. The judges of the supreme court will determine the length of the term of each in like manner, the terms of the judges of the supreme court being five, seven and nine years. In view of the fact that the terms of the officers to be elected next month are long terms, it is to the interest of the voters of New Mexico to consider more carefully than ever before the merits of the candidates before them. Good government for a period of five years means much to the new state. The eyes of the people of the east are upon us. New Mexico is on trial before the people and the result of this election will mean more to the new state than can be told in a newspaper article. If officials be chosen who can be depended upon to give the state an honest, economical administration, there will be no hesitancy on the part of capitalists in the east and elsewhere to come to New Mexico with their wealth and invest it. On the other hand, if officials be elected who are not honest, who are not capable and in whom the people have no confidence there will be the greatest hesitancy on the part of the capitalists to invest here. The result of the coming election means much to New Mexico. Let no mistake be made. Santa Fe Eagle.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Adopted at the First State Convention.

We, the democrats of New Mexico, in convention assembled at Santa Fe, publish the following declaration of principles in this campaign.

We reaffirm our devotion to the principles of our political faith as announced in our last national and territorial platforms believing that their execution makes for the highest and best interests of the people and will secure a government of pure democracy, a Jeffersonian government of equal rights to all, special privileges to none.

We rejoice with and congratulate the people on the final attainment of statehood which secures the opportunity for a full measure of home rule and self-government in the conduct of our local affairs.

We further rejoice as a party and congratulate the people as a whole that in the crisis of the statehood battle we had a democratic house of representatives, true to the time-honored democratic declaration and effort in behalf of statehood that dragged from a reluctant republican senate and president their consent to the Flood resolution, which not only won for us the battle of sixty years, but gave us also the opportunity to secure the advantages of self-government so dear to the people of a sovereign state in this great union, and we express our heartfelt gratitude to democratic and progressive republicans in the congress for standing by us in the immediate aftermath of the Flood resolution, which has been secured to us by a republican congress and president for fifteen years.

We further congratulate the people that the Flood resolution repeals the provision in the enabling act under which a republican president and a republican congress compelled us to place in our constitution a provision disqualifying all of our citizens who cannot read, write, speak and understand the English language sufficiently well to conduct the duties of the office without the aid of an interpreter, and we call the especial attention of the people to the fact that this unmerited, discriminating and un-American provision is in our constitution today, and that the adoption of the Flood substitute for article 19 provides a simple way to take out this unjust provision, while at the same time it guarantees to all citizens forever the full right of elective franchise, the benefit of the public school system and the enjoyment of their ancient rights and customs.

In this connection we desire to pronounce and declare that the Flood resolution offers to the people of New Mexico the most beneficent opportunity to secure a fuller measure of self government ever offered to a free people a sovereign state and we recommend to and urge upon them to vote the "blue ballot" by making the cross in the square opposite the words "For constitutional amendment."

We record our adherence to the time honored doctrine of tariff reform a tariff graduated to the revenue needs of the government, economically administered condemning the tariff policy and legislation of the republican party under which the masses of the people are being taxed for the benefit of a few, under which vast combinations of wealth have accrued, and oppressive monopolies have come into existence, and under which even the necessities of life for the masses have become the plaything of speculation and the profitable subjects of corporate greed and monopolistic robbery under the sanction of unholy laws.

We favor the direct primaries for the nomination of all officers wherever practicable and we especially favor the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

We favor a uniform system of school books in all the common schools of the state and the passage of a law by the first legislature which will provide all necessary school books at the expense of the state, free of charge to all school children up to and including the eighth grade under wise regulations and restrictions.

We are not an anti-corporation party, but as corporations are creatures of the state, we believe in corporation legislation on the state under just laws, so that the well known corporate tendency to monopoly and oppression may be justly and humanely restrained.

We believe the corporation commission should be non-party and should be composed of experienced business men, and we favor the enlargement of the powers and a clearer definition of the duties of that commission as created by our constitution.

We favor a non-partisan judiciary and the amendment of the constitution providing for the election of the members of the supreme and district courts at a separate election, so that the courts may be removed from political influences as far as possible.

We demand a speedy survey

We stand not only for material and intellectual progress, but also for moral advancement in public life, and we declare the paramount issue before the people of New Mexico to be "Good Government" and the eradication of graft and bribery from public life in this state.

We believe that the only way to put into effect these patriotic principles and the accomplishment of these desired results is by nominating and electing men of clean public record, and we appeal to all patriotic citizens, regardless of past or present party affiliations to join us in our effort to start the new state of New Mexico right on the road to her manifest destiny.

With our faces turned toward the rising sun we submit our cause to the patriotic consideration of all the people of New Mexico.

He came here five years ago from Caddo county, Oklahoma, where he was county surveyor for five years. He was formerly county surveyor of Kingfisher county, Oklahoma, and has had charge of engineering work in several towns of that state. He has always been a democrat and, if elected, Lakewood, the democratic stronghold of Eddy county, will be satisfied.

Broiled Steaks, Chops, Fish or Game— Prepared in Your Own Kitchen

Cole's Hot Blast Range broils steaks, chops or game better than can be done with any other style range or broiler made. Cole's Odorless and Smokeless Broiler does not allow any of the grease or oil to drop into the fire. Instead the grease and juices are retained in the broiler box and do not come in contact with the coals or flame.

The Front Broiler Grill is embodied in every Cole's Hot Blast Range.

Other broiler attachments—such as the top stove broiler or broiler gridiron—allow the steaks to come to rest on red-hot metal. A steak in Cole's odorless broiler is surrounded with fresh air and is not cooked smoked or charred by the Grill Front Grate. The long, narrow, slotted front grate used only in Cole's Hot Blast Range affords the same principle of broiling as the old style 16th century English Grill Broiler where charcoal was used for fuel. This method has been perfected in

Cole's Hot Blast Range

You can broil to perfection using soft coal, wood or corn cobs. You broil the meat with live coals this way. All the nutritious juices and flavor of the meat are retained.

All smoke and odor of broiling is drawn into the range and up the chimney—none escapes into the room. This is the greatest improvement made in the past 20 years in range building. You cannot get Cole's patented Broiler attachment on any other range.

Think of the convenience, the pleasure, it will be to you to be able to serve your guests (as well as your family, every day) broiled steaks, fish, chicken, chops, ham slices or game at a moment's notice.

And remember—this broiler is also the most perfect toaster ever made. Think of how much you increase the top cooking surface of your range by having this odorless and smokeless broiler and toaster.

Another feature of importance is the Cole's Hot Blast Combustion. In this range the heated air is mixed with the gases rising from the top of the fuel. This highly heated air mixes with the gases resulting in a complete and perfect burning of the gas-half of soft coal—soft coal is half gas. Economy of fuel is not the only thing accomplished by burning the gases. The gas flame is carried back under the top to the back lids, heating the lids evenly and making it possible to boil on the back lids. The Hot Blast Combustion also gives greater cleanliness with soft coal.

Besides being the most convenient range made, we know it to be the handsomest range built.

It has the Heaviest Oven and Body of any range built for family use—it will last a lifetime. The best finished materials—the finest quality of nickel. It has proven to be economical in the use of fuel and requires fewer repairs than other ranges.

Come to our store and allow us to show you the many new features embodied in this Range Specialty.

malleable lids—
easy to handle, never

GRAND JURY REPORT.

Return Twenty-three True Bills and Eleven No Bills

October A. D. 1911 Term.

To the Honorable William H. Pope, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of New Mexico and presiding Judge of the Fifth Judicial District Court.

We, the members of the grand jury empaneled by you for the October Term of 1911, held in Eddy county, hereby submit the following report:

We have carefully investigated all matters coming before us, have examined sixty-nine witnesses, and have returned twenty-three true bills and eleven no bills.

We have examined by committee, the books of the various officers of the county and are pleased to report that everything is in good order, and the books neatly and properly kept, but owing to lack of time we were unable to make such examination as would warrant our stating that they were correct in every particular, although the jury believes them to be so.

We particularly commend the condition of the jail and the care of the prisoners.

We commend the County Commissioners for the improvements they have made in the court house in the past season, and would recommend that further improvements be made as set out in the report of committee as follows, to-wit:

We find the building in good repair, except that several of the rooms especially those of the Justice of the Peace and Sheriff, the Assessor and the County Treasurer need kalsomining, and other minor repairs. The treasurer needs additional shelving in the vault where the records are now kept and also feels the need of electric light in vault. We find that additional room is needed for storing the records of the District Clerk, whose records are now kept in the vault in the sheriff's office, and also by the Probate Clerk and Ex-Officio Recorder. This want has already been brought to the attention of the County Commissioners, who carefully investigated the matter, and at a recent meeting made a special levy for 1911 for funds for preparing the necessary additional room for said records, either by additions to the court house, or by the addition of a new building, to be erected near the court house.

We find that at present there is no special office for the county Superintendent of Schools, County Surveyor, and other officers, and no suitable grand jury room.

We therefore recommend the erection of a suitable building, in the court house yard, or elsewhere, to contain rooms for the officers above mentioned, and the much needed vaults for the county records, the loss of which by fire or otherwise would be irreparable. It would appear to this committee advisable to erect a two story building, the lower floor to be a hall of records, the upper story to be divided into offices and a room of suitable size for the grand jury and District attorney. The advantages of a grand jury room on the second floor, away from passers-by and inquisitive persons, is obvious to all.

Before concluding this report your grand jury wishes to thank the court, the district attorney and stenographer for their attention and various courtesies shown the grand jury at this, the last term of the district court in Eddy County, Territory of New Mexico.

Having faithfully considered all matters which have been brought to our attention, we respectfully ask that we be discharged.

The Grand Jurors,
By WM. T. READ, Foreman,
W. A. CRAIG, Clerk.

MUCH MIRTH AT PUBLIC WEDDING

Bruce Jones and Mrs. Genevieve Blevins of Carlsbad Secure Exposition Wedding Presents

Bruce Jones, an old time and well known citizen of the Pecos Valley, who formerly lived in Roswell and now lives in Carlsbad, and Mrs. Genevieve Blevins, also of Carlsbad, "topped" the many exposition wedding prizes by publicly taking the marriage vows as administered by Rev. C. C. Hill in an automobile in the presence of an immense throng in front of Joe H. McCain's drug store at one o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Bruce was in the limelight as never before in his life and it cannot be recorded against him that he overlooked his opportunity. He basked in the sun and wore the smile that couldn't be erased. His remarks, interjections and ejaculations proved to be what the crowd was looking for in the way of entertainment, and were the features of the affair. His responses could be heard all over the crowd and when the ceremony was over he refused to let the preacher or any others kiss the bride, and the crowd yelled its approval. The Military Institute band capped the climax, by playing at the close, "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

The Circus

Campbell Brothers' circus gave two exhibitions in this city Saturday which were well attended, both afternoon and evening, and elicited words of commendation from every quarter. The train carrying the circus arrived somewhat late, but on account of the systematic method of unloading and orderly manner of the employees everything was in order for the grand street parade at the usual hour. There were three bands, a steam calliope and eight elephants in the procession in addition to the beautifully costumed riders and decorated cages containing the menagerie. The usual contingent of "aure clinch" gamblers and "catch" stands which follow up the ordinary circus were not noticeable on Saturday and there were no complaints of short change or disagreeable commercial transactions.

The performances under the large and commodious tent were excellent, the principal features being the aerial and acrobatic stunts of the four Lamby brothers, the Moragas family of Mexican bar marvels, the performing elephants, the cow boy troupe, the four high school horses and the Hellis family of equestrians, all of which were frequently applauded by the large, apparently pleased audiences. Although our citizens are frequently treated to rope and riding stunts by cow boys from this and adjoining states, the exhibitions given by the cow boy troupe excelled anything ever shown here. The elephants went through their allotted acts as intelligently as human beings, the Lamby Bros. performed their daring aerial and acrobatic parts with the perfection of clock work and the Moragas family were humorous as well as marvelous in their many intricate, horizontal bar, bouncing and somersault performances.—Crawford, (Neb.) Cataract Cannot Be Cured

WHEN GENERAL SUFFERING occurs, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, surgery is a blind or mutilating device, and it often is only a question of time before the patient is in a worse condition than when he first came to the doctor. It is a common mistake to suppose that a cataract can be cured by the use of the eye. The only way to cure a cataract is by the use of the knife. The only way to cure a cataract is by the use of the knife. The only way to cure a cataract is by the use of the knife.

The enrollment at the Mexican school is about 150 and of this number only thirty-five to fifty have been in attendance since school opened. Wong a Chinaman working for E. P. Bunc was discovered dead in a bed in the Bajae home Friday evening by Verna Ramuz, who called on an errand for the Nichols people, neighbors across the road. He saw a loose horse with saddle on in the yard and bridle broken. Young Ramuz first discovered the body after twice going to the house and finding no one at home. He then tried to get several neighbors to go to the house with him, but all refused except Mr. Ewing, who went with him. They found the body of the Chinaman lying on the bed partly undressed with bruises on his head and body. The authorities were notified and an examination made by the physician. The body was brought to an place in the hands of Dick Thorpe and an inquest held Sunday, the verdict of the jury being that Wong came to his death by either being thrown from a horse or that the horse pulled him down. A musicale in honor of Miss Lucile Kelton, was given at the home of Mrs. R. M. Fessenden, last Wednesday night, which one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind ever given in this city. All present being musicians no difficulty was experienced in carrying out the rest of the program which was to sing the lines as soon as the partners were located. A wide variety of tunes were selected, ranging from "Come, ye disconsolate," to "Take the name of Jesus with you," and the idea was decidedly unique and pleasant. Numbered cards each containing a letter and number which when assorted were found to spell the name of the guest of honor, Lucile Kelton, contributed to the pleasure of the guests. Excellent vocal and instrumental music was the feature of the evening, of course, and each one present either sang or played. The trouble arose over the searching of the Lynch premises for liquor under the prohibition ordinance. Upon complaint of Marshal Woofter a warrant was issued by Judge Marcellus W. Watt, for the arrest of Lynch, charging him with keeping liquor at his premises for the purpose of sale and charging the arresting officer to make a search for the same. Marshal Woofter and the Carmichael Brothers, city policemen, went to serve the warrant and found Lynch in the Smoke House, in company with Fred Higgins. The city officers served the warrant and told Lynch they wanted to go and make the search. He told them all right and as they started off Lynch asked Higgins to go along. Higgins declined, saying that it was none of his business. Marshal Woofter then told Higgins to come along and Higgins did so. The party was joined also by "Red Tom," further name not known, who is a friend of Lynch.

At the Lynch house the officer entered the front door and went into the front room. At the door into the second room Lynch stepped through and slammed the door shut and locked it in the face of the officers. Woofter kicked it twice but it did not open. The Carmichaels said it would do no good to break down

Sunday night Judge C. J. Roberts, of Eaton, came in, as also a large number of witnesses, attorneys, newspaper men, relatives of defendant, Jas. O. Lynch, and others, who were interested in the case of Lynch, charged with murder of Roy Woofter, at Roswell, last May.

The work of securing a jury was begun Monday morning and after exhausting the regular panel and two special venues of fifty each, the following trial jury was secured at 10 A. M., Wednesday:

Wm. Carson, R. M. Gardner, A. T. Cooley, H. E. Robb, J. S. Eames, Chas. Walters, W. L. Higginbotham, T. C. Jewell, A. J. Parker, Scott Etter, Arthur Egan and L. S. Crawford.

The work of examining witnesses began at once with M. W. Watt, the justice of the peace at Roswell and C. C. Clark, George Williams, who testified to the facts regarding the time, place, issuance of warrant etc.

Henry Carmichael was next and testified to the whole story of the killing as published in the current of June 2, substantially as follows:

The trouble arose over the searching of the Lynch premises for liquor under the prohibition ordinance. Upon complaint of Marshal Woofter a warrant was issued by Judge Marcellus W. Watt, for the arrest of Lynch, charging him with keeping liquor at his premises for the purpose of sale and charging the arresting officer to make a search for the same. Marshal Woofter and the Carmichael Brothers, city policemen, went to serve the warrant and found Lynch in the Smoke House, in company with Fred Higgins. The city officers served the warrant and told Lynch they wanted to go and make the search. He told them all right and as they started off Lynch asked Higgins to go along. Higgins declined, saying that it was none of his business. Marshal Woofter then told Higgins to come along and Higgins did so. The party was joined also by "Red Tom," further name not known, who is a friend of Lynch.

At the Lynch house the officer entered the front door and went into the front room. At the door into the second room Lynch stepped through and slammed the door shut and locked it in the face of the officers. Woofter kicked it twice but it did not open. The Carmichaels said it would do no good to break down the door as there were others, and said they might as well go around to the back door. Henry Carmichael had already gone to the back door when Woofter started around and they met on the south side of the house, Henry Carmichael coming back. Ed Carmichael had been left in the front part of the house. The porch ran around the house on three sides and Woofter was on this porch, in front of the kitchen window that faces the west, when a man inside called to him in a tone of caution and immediately fired. Woofter was doubled up by the shot but did not fall.

Woofter ran into the arms of Henry Carmichael and told the policeman to get him out of there and to let Lynch go and to get him to a doctor and to his wife, so that he thought he was killed. Ed Carmichael meanwhile had started around to the back door and the two officers took Woofter to the next door neighbor's house and sent for an ambulance and doctors. Woofter was taken to May's hospital and put under the care of the surgeons.

Ed Carmichael testified to practically the same.

C. R. Young and Jas. Johnson, deputy sheriffs also testified.

Dr. Garlow testified as to the physical and mental condition of Woofter when he made a dying statement which was to effect that though weak Woofter was perfectly rational.

M. H. Gibson testified to having passed by the Smoke House in Roswell a few days before the killing and said Lynch said: "I will shoot that Star S. of a B. full of holes if he comes peeping about my house."

Mrs. James Payne testified that she roomed at the Lynch home and heard Lynch say he would kill any policeman who undertook to search his house.

E. P. Malone, a transfer man, testified to having delivered two casks of beer at the Lynch home on each of four days previous to the killing, the 16th, 19th, 23rd and 25th of May, the killing being on the 26th. He also testified to having delivered a barrel of beer April 13.

As the current goes to press the case is still in session. Judge Roberts seems determined to keep the chances down to the minimum in order to protect witnesses from insults and annoyances, and to keep the case on the case.
