NEW MEXICO MILITARY INSTITUTION.

Roswell, N. M., Aug. 16.—The day of the "tin soldier" passed years ago, and with it came an appreciation of the fact that military life means something more than vain show—that brass buttons and a gun do not constitute a soldier and that the discipline and hard work which fit a man for success in any walk of life form the backbone of military efficiency.

This principle has been carried out especially in the conduct of the higher class military schools of the country, and is nowhere better exemplified than in the work of the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell. The cadet who enters this school is early impressed with the fact that the show part of military life is the smallest and most insignificant part of the work that he has to do. The routine that he undergoes is such as to harden him—to keep him in the best physical condition and at the same time to fit him for the practical duties of life in whatever sphere he later may find himself.

It is this intensely practical feature of the education that is afforded by the school that makes the New Mexico Military Institute an institution that is distinctive for its usefulness. In training the boy to be a soldier it also trains him to make his place in the ranks of business and professional life. It makes a man of him in the fullest and best sense of that term.

This institution is probably doing more to bring about real preparedness than any other in the county not conducted along similar lines, for the preparedness that it teaches is for peace as well as for war. Its students are equipped to respond to the call of their country in times of danger and at the same time are educated to discharge the ordinary duties of the citizen in a manner that makes for the highest type of American manhood. Its standing as one of the ten best military schools in the United States has been fairly earned and is a source of pride to every citizen of New Mexico.

NINE MONTHS SCHOOL PLANNED BY CONWAY

Santa Fe, Aug. 12.—Nine months school to be followed by a program of school opportunities every day and every evening in the year, is the latest development of the remarkable educational program for the rural districts of Santa county by County Superintendent J. V. Conway. Beginning with this fall he will visit each and every district in the county at least once a month. He has discovered, as other educational supervisors have discovered, that there is nothing more effective

FRIDAY, AUG. 11.

OIL AND GAS IN NORTH-CENTRAL MONTANA.

The search for oil and gas in Montana has become very active, and there is an insistent demand for information concerning the occurrence of these substances in the State. The extension into Montana of the fields that are producing high-grade oils in Wyoming, the development of valuable gas fields in southern Alberta, the discovery of some oil within a few score miles of the northern boundary of Montana, and, finally, the recent drilling in of a large gas well at Aavre, in Hill County, have led petroleum engineers and operators to give serious attention to "wildcatting" in the State. Rocks of the same age as those which are productive in Wyoming and in Alberta are known to be present over large areas in Montana, and there is every reason to believe that where the structure is favorable they will yield oil and gas. A report on the possibilities of oil in this region has recently been prepared by Eugene Stebinger, of the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, and published as Bulletin 641-C. In his report Mr. Stebinger summarizes all the available data concerning the possible occurrence of oil and gas in a considerable area in the north-central part of Montana, from the latitude of Great Falls northward to the international boundary. He discusses briefly the general geology of the region, names the rocks in which oil and gas are likely to be found, and tells how the several formations may be recognized both at the surface and in drilling. The Havre gas field is described in detail, and the probable extension of the field. Areas in Hill, Chouteau, Blaine, and Fergus counties, where the structure is similar to that at Havre, and other areas whose structure is believed to give promise of oil and gas production are discussed in detail. Most of the localities named have not yet been tested by the drill.

This report is one which every operator in Montana should read with care. A copy can be obtained free from the Director of the United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance has put some ginger in the campaign.

Pass the senate naval bill and Uncle Sam will be an Uncle Samson.

Germany and France have taken less time out than any of them.

Both wings of the republican party are now flopping together, and that means a republican victory this fall.

Judging by the number of notes that Acting Secretary Polk is writing there will be no need for Secretary Lansing to curtail his vacation.

When conditions in Mexico become more settled there will doubtless be started a movement to have the presidential term extended to one year.

That Vienna press agent is a gallant fellow. He never permits the Austrian to retire except when pressed by enormously superior forces of Russians.

"A satire, my son," said the old man, replying to the star boy of the 2nd grade, "is any tire that blows out under 5,000 miles."

Methods of warfare certainly have changed, for only recently a Berlin statement said that "British cavalry mounted on horseback" engaged in the fighting.

Negotiations with Mexico have reached their most hazardous stage. Sensible action by Carranza is all that is now needed before an agreement can be reached.

For a while there wasn't any such thing as a creek in South Carolina.

The British are fighting with all their might, now, just as though they didn't know that victory will mean a poem from Laureate Bridges.

If this weather continues much longer, the war department should be asked to include an umbrella in the equipment of each soldier at Styx.

To be a candidate for office is an endurable though but to run or even fox trot for it in summer weather would be a frightful undertaking.

THE SITUATION

LABORING in the Providence Bulletin

NEW REVOLT AGAINST CARRANZA.

A few days ago they have told that another faction has planned to pull down the de facto government and an uprising had occurred at Juarez. The reports emanating from several apparently reliable sources, indicate that there has been no concerted movement anywhere in the state to overthrow the Carranza government, but that numbers of agitators, apparently under no central organization, have been attempting to make revolution.

The revolutionary plots, which have been developed within the last few weeks, have centered in Chihuahua City and Juarez, although according to private dispatches persons charged with being connected with revolutionary cabals have been taken into custody in Parral, Jimenez and other of the smaller cities.

A POLICY OF FIRMNESS AND CONSISTENCY NEEDED.

The Nation has no policy of aggression toward Mexico. We have no desire for any part of her territory. We wish her to have peace, stability, and prosperity. We shall have to adopt a new policy, a policy of firmness and consistency through which alone we can promote an enduring friendship. We demand from Mexico the protection of the lives and the property of our citizens and the security of our border from depredations. Much will be gained if Mexico is convinced that we contemplate no meddlesome interference with what does not concern us, but that we propose to insist in a firm and candid manner upon the performance of international obligations. To a stable government, appropriately discharging its international duties, we should give ungrudging support. A short period of firm, consistent and friendly dealing will accomplish more than many years of vacillation.—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

ADEQUATE NATIONAL DEFENSE DEMANDED

We demand adequate national defense; adequate protection on both our Western and Eastern coasts. We demand thoroughness and efficiency in both arms of the service. It seems to be plain that our regular army is too small. We are too great a country to require of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations the sort of military service to which they are now called. As well insist that our citizens in this metropolis be summoned to put out fires and police the streets. We do not count it inconsistent with our liberties, or with our democratic ideals, to have an adequate police force. With a population of nearly one hundred millions we need to be surer of ourselves than to become alarmed at the prospect of having a regular army which can reasonably protect our border and perform such other military service as may be required in the absence of a grave emergency. I believe, further, that there should be not only a reasonable increase in the regular army, but that the first citizen reserve subject to call should be enlisted as a Federal army and trained under Federal authority.—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

25,000 More Troops to the Border.

All the national guard units included in President Wilson's call of June 18th not yet in the Mexican border, were ordered there today by the war department.

Between 20,000 and 25,000 additional troops will thus be added to the border forces.

Secretary Baker made a formal announcement that the troop movement had nothing whatever to do with the Mexican Situation as such, and was solely to relieve thousands of troops now held in mobilization camps only because they lack a few recruits to bring units up to fixed minimum strength.

J. W. KINNEY AND THE STATE FAIR

Grand Masquerade Ball on Central Avenue.

Albuquerque, N. M., Aug 17.—The appointment of J. W. Kinney to the office of manager of concessions of the New Mexico state fair was the event of chief interest in fair circles last week. Mr. Kinney has had wide experience in this line of work having acted in a similar capacity for a number of fairs in Texas and other states, and is

HUGHES ADDED ANOTHER TRAITOR

The nominee for Presidential candidacy in an address delivered at Portland, said: "The man who tries to get the better of the public for his private purpose is a traitor to the government. We will go ahead and put these traitors out of business of the United States."

"We must save this country every day. It won't be saved by letting it drift. It won't be saved by taking every thing for granted. Its industries won't be conserved by indulging in good wishes around the club table. We have to take account of the lessons learned on the other side and apply them. We have got to consider honest business with the success and pride that it deserves and we have got to fearlessly condemn abuses."

WAR! WAR! WAR!

"In the town or in the country Be it near or very far, The talk that's ringing in our ears In war war war, We hear so much about the war We really want to run But we are all afraid will meet, A German with a liquid fire gun."

CHORUS

It is war war war ringnin in my ear It is war war war be it far or be it near In the town or in the country What ever they're fighting for, The talk that's ringing in my ear Is war war war.

Then I think of Russia
And I start for over there, But sourkroot and garlic is enough to stand my hair, I see a ship in danger, I am running like a star,
It is Jonny Bull a conniving They have raised our flag.

And now I turn to Mexico, I'm running for my life,
A thousand foes are after me,
And each one has a knife Now I wake up from a snore, I am happy as a lamb,
When I find I'm in United States of Uncle Sam.

THE NATION IS SHOCKING- LY UNPREPARED.

It is apparent that we are shockingly unprepared. There is no room for controversy on this point since the object lesson on the Mexican border. All our available regular troops (less, I believe, than 40,000) are there or in Mexico, and as these have been deemed insufficient the entire National Guard has been ordered out; that is, we are summoning practically all our movable military forces in order to prevent bandit incursions. In view of the warnings of the past three years, it is taxcusable that we should find ourselves in this plight. For our faithful guardsmen, who with a fine patriotism responded to this call and are bearing this burden, I have nothing but praise. But I think it little short of absurd that we should be compelled to call men from their shops, their factories, their offices and their professions for such a purpose. This, however, is not all. The units of the National Guard were at peace strength, which was only about one-half the required strength.
It was necessary to bring in recruits, for the most part raw and untrained. Only a small percentage of the regiments recruited up to war strength will have had even a year's training in the National Guard, which at the maximum means one hundred hours of military drill, and on the average, means much less. Men fresh from their peaceful employments and physically unprepared have been hurried to the border for actual service. They were without proper equipment; without necessary supplies; suitable conditions of transportation were not provided. Men with dependent families were sent; and conditions which should have been well known were discovered after the event. And yet the exigency, comparatively speaking, was not a very grave one. It involved nothing that could not readily have been foreseen during the past three years of disturbance, and required only a modest talent for organization. That this Administration while pursuing its course in Mexico should have permitted such conditions to exist is almost incredible.—From Mr.
Hughes' speech of acceptance.

The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearing; Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8.
Among them are:

- Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.
- Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating.
There is no extra charge for this convenience.
- Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter to typewriter. A great help in card work.
- Factor Ribbon Feed—Insures new pieces of ribbon for all typewriters.
- Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained —ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior quality.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

VII.—Hon. Elihu Root On Woman's Sphere

The question of Woman Suffrage is an issue before the American people. Twelve states have adopted it, four more states vote upon it this fall and it is strongly urged that it become a platform demand of the national political parties. It is therefore the privilege and the duty of every voter to study carefully this subject. Hon. Elihu Root, in discussing this question before the Constitutional Convention of New York, recently said in part:

"I am opposed to the granting of suffrage to women, because I believe that it would be a loss to women, to all women and to every woman; and because I believe it would be an injury to the State, and to every man and every woman in the State. It would be useless to argue this if the right of suffrage were a natural right. If it were a natural right, then women should have it though the heavens fall. But if there be any one thing settled in the long discussion of this subject, it is that suffrage is not a natural right, but is simply a means of government, and the sole question to be discussed is whether government by the suffrage of men and women will be better government than by the suffrage of men alone."

Into my judgment, sir, there enters no element of the inferiority of woman. It is not that woman is inferior to man, but it is that woman is different from man; that is the distribution of powers, of capacities, of qualities, our Maker has created man adapted to the performance of certain functions in the economy of nature and society, and woman adapted to the performance of other functions.

Woman rules today by the sweet and noble influences of her character. Put woman into the arena of conflict and she abandons these great weapons which control the world, and she takes into her hands, feeble and nerveless for strife, weapons with which she is unfamiliar and which she is unable to wield. Woman in strife becomes hard, harsh, unlovable, repulsive; as far removed from that gentle creature to whom we all owe allegiance and to whom we confess submission, as the heaven is removed from the earth.

The whole science of government is the science of protecting life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness. In the divine distribution of powers, the duty and the right of protection rests with the male. It is so throughout nature. It is so with men, and I, for one, will never consent to part with the divine right of protecting my wife, my daughter, the women whom I love, and the women whom I respect, exercising the birthright of man, and place that high duty in the weak and nerveless hands of those designed by God to be protected rather than to engage in the stern warfare of government. In my judgment, this whole movement arises from a false conception of the duty and of the right of both men and women.

The time will never come when the line of demarcation between the functions of the two sexes will be broken down. I believe it to be false philosophy; I believe that it is an attempt to turn backward upon the line of social development, and that if the step ever be taken, we go centuries backward on the march towards a higher, a nobler and a purer civilization, which must be found not in the confusion, but in the higher differentiation of the sexes."

The natural human trait is to buy where goods are cheapest. Local pride is usually secondary in the game of life as played today.

Therefore

Mr. Merchant and Business Man, meet your competition with their own weapons—advertising.

Advertise!

The local field is yours. All you need do is to avail yourself of the opportunities offered. An advertisement in this paper will carry your message into hundreds of homes in this community. It is the surest medium of killing your greatest competitor. A space this size won't cost much. Come and see or write us about it.

Nine Months School.... in lifting the school standards in the rural districts than the personal visits of the superintendent.

Even the most conscientious teachers are apt to make their school reports as rosy as possible to be optimistic in their school attendance figures, and it is only personal supervision that will disclose the points of weakness in each district. Having been most successful in his moonlight schools, in giving every district, even the poorest, a new school house with manual training and domestic science equipment and that without the issue of a single dollar in bonds, Superintendent Conway feels that the next step forward which will lead to school every day and evening in the year and closer personal can be undertaken. His automobile, maintained at his own expense, enables him to visit every district every month and also to enter the home of every child attending school and thus gain first hand knowledge of conditions.

J. W. Kinney . . . considered the ideal man for the position. He has already taken up the duties of this position and is in complete charge of all concessions of every character at the fair grounds.

One of the most interesting of all the fair events has recently been announced. It is to be a grand masquerade ball to be held on the principal street of Albuquerque on a night to be announced later. Several blobs of Central . . .

off and traffic on that thoroughfare will be suspended while the ball is in progress. Music will be furnished by the four excellent bands that have been engaged for the week of the fair, and all the revelers will be required to unmask at 11 o'clock sharp. The street mask ball is a novel feature of the fair and will undoubtedly prove one of the big hits of the entire week.

In this connection there will be a "kangaroo court" which will be conducted on the street in order that all violations of the rules of the ball may be punished by a fitting sentence. The court and its sentences, of course, will be distinctly in the line of jokes and will contribute greatly to the merriment of the occasion.

President Southard is again out among the counties of the State stirring up interest in the fair, and all reports coming in from him are to the effect that even bigger crowds than have been anticipated will be present.
M. L. Fox will join Mr. Southard within the next few days, when the final work of lining up the counties for exhibits at the fair will be completed.

In every home where there is a baby there should also be a bottains no opium, morphine or injurious drug of any kind. Price

WHAT ONE BIG MAN THINKS OF ANOTHER

President W. H. P. Faunce, of Brown University, is a pretty live wire who keeps abreast of the times, has keen powers of observation, and knows a good man when he sees him.
Here is what he has to say about the Republican Candidate for the Presidency:

"I have known Justice Hughes intimately since we were students together at Brown and have seen him a thousand times at work and at play. No man of our generation has a finer combination of character and intellect. Absolutely fearless, unselfish, loyal to American ideals, he is worthy of a nation's trust.
"All his friends know that behind the dignity of bearing is a rich fund of humor and good fellowship. Whether he is climbing a mountain, reading novels, playing with his children, resisting a political lobby or delivering the opinion of the Supreme Court, he is ever the same rugged, democratic, fair-minded American. His varied experience has given him wide horizon and sympathy with every aspect of American life.
"He possesses two qualities rarely found together—the judicial temper and the capacity for swift and resolute action. Under his administration the fog which now beclouds many public questions would be cleared away.

"His penetrating mind goes to the heart of any subject he selects and strips off the irrelevant at once. Such a mind is particularly needed amid the intricate problems that now confront America.
"We need more than good intentions. We need clear vision, sound judgment, strong will, unhesitating decision. In short, we need Charles E. Hughes."

Colds

should be "nipped in the bud", for if allowed to run unchecked, serious results may follow. Numerous cases of consumption, pneumonia, and other fatal diseases, can be traced back to a cold. At the first sign of a cold, protect yourself by thoroughly cleansing your system with a few doses of

THE FORD'S BLACK- DRAUGHT

the old reliable, vegetable liver powder.
Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of Madison Heights, Va., says:
"I have been using The-ford's Black-Draught for stomach troubles, indigestion and colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I ever used. It makes an old man feel like a young one."

Print Paper Famine Near

The great newspapers have been forced some ones to reduce its size and others to increase its issue price owing to the remarkable scarcity of print paper. Manufacturers declare unless there is a concerted curtailment of waste of news print paper, newspapers of the United States will soon be on the bread' line, figuratively speaking. They will be forced to buy print paper on allotment taking only what manufacturers can give them from vanishing supplies.

Only a saving of resources by the papers themselves, particularly those of New York, can dethrone the famine is believed in circles trade. Therefore the announcement printed in various New York papers of limiting newsleaders' supplies strictly to sales has met with approval.

WANTS AN EFFECTIVE SYS- TEM OF RURAL CREDITS.

We propose to promote by every practicable means our agricultural interests, and we include in this program an effective system of rural credits.
We favor the wise conservation of our natural resources. We desire not only that they shall be safeguarded, but that they shall be adequately developed and used to the utmost public advantage.—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

FAVORS WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Some time ago, a consideration of our economic conditions and tendencies, of the position of women in gainful occupations, of the nature and course of the demand, led me to the conclusion that the granting of suffrage to women is inevitable. Opposition may delay, but in my judgment cannot defeat this movement. If women are to have the vote, as I believe they are, it seems to me entirely clear that in the interest of the public life of this country, the contest should be ended promptly. I favor the vote for women.
—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

PURITAN UNDERMUSLINS are made as you would make them for yourself

The fabrics and trimmings are dainty and durable.

They are cut full and well proportioned.

The seams and stitching are neatly and carefully done.

And, Puritan Undermuslins keep pace with styles in outer apparel.

This is seen in the flaring skirt, the wide circular drawer, the wing sleeve corset cover and the envelope chemise.

Oh, You Skinny!

Why stay thin as a rail? You don't have to! And you don't have to go through life with a chest that the tailor gives you; with arms of childish strength; with legs you can hardly stand on. And what about that stomach that flinches every time you try a square meal? Are you a pill-feeder?

DO YOU EXPECT HEALTH AND STRENGTH IN TABLOID FORM—THROUGH PILLS, POSITIONS AND OTHER EXPROTIED PIFFLE? YOU CAN'T DO IT; IT CAN'T BE DONE.

The only way to be well is to build up your body—all of it —through nature's methods—not by pampering the stomach. It is not fate that is making you a failure: it's that poor, emaciated body of yours; your half-sickness shows plain in your face and the world loves healthy people. So be healthy—strong—vital. That's living. Don't think too long; send 4 cents in stamps to cover mailing of my book, "INTELLIGENCE IN PHYSICAL CULTURE," written by the strongest physical culture instructor in the world.
