NUMBER 3

County Clerk

REGULAR TERM

JULY 3, 1916.

The Board met in Regular session on July 3, 1916. There were present: Hon. Eugene Kempe-nich, Chairman, Perfecto Gabal-don and Fermin Marquez, mem-bers of the Board; J. M. Luna, Clerk, and Ruperto Jaramillo, Sheriff.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A petition having been present-ed by various residents of the County of Valencia at a recent meeting of this Board, praying for the establishment of a road from Belen to the Socorro Coun-ty line, through the towns of Pueblitos and El Bosque, in con-formity with Section 2656, of the 1915 Codification, the follow-ing were appointed to view the same: A. E. St. Morris, Solomon Gabaldon and Antonio J. Luna.

Various owners of property along the aforementioned road presented and offered to donate the land for the establishment of the same. This offer was accep-ted and Mr. A. E. St. Morris was instructed to have a map prepar-ed under his direction and file it with the Clerk.

An offer by various residents along the proposed road to fur-nish labor in its construction was accepted and the same was re-ferred to the Road Board.

Upon request of the Superin-tendent of Schools an appropria-tion of $50.00 was made to be ex-pended under his direction for the purpose of having half-tones made of the different school ed-ifices of the County of Valencia.

Hon. Saturnino Baca, Superin-tendent of Schools, petitioned the Board of Commissioners to appoint three disinterested free holders to appraise the value of the abandoned school building of School District No. 6, Sebo-yeta, that the same may be offer-ed at public sale. The following were appointed appraisers: Desi-derio Sandoval, Calistro Montoya and Jose Candelaria. The ap-praisers were instructed to make a report in triplicate and file one copy with the Clerk of the School Board, one copy with the County Clerk of Valencia County, and one copy with the Superintendent of School of Valencia County.

Town of Belen in said County of Valencia with electric light and power, or to furnish said inhabit-ants with any other convenience to which electricity may now or hereafter be put, or to furnish the County of Valencia with elec-tricity for any use to which it may desire to put it, within the limitations of this franchise;

That said grantees be permit-tered to charge for their services and make regulations for operat-ing their business in accordance with the laws of the State of New Mexico regulating public service companies, except that for any electricity furnished the County of Valencia, the charge shall be not more than 85¢ per cent of the charge made to any other person or corporation for like service;

That said grantees be permit-tered the reasonable use of any or all highways, byways, roads, streets and alleys in said County, within a radius of ten miles from the present location of the U. S. Post Office in the Town of Belen, for erecting poles and stringing wires thereon, and otherwise erecting and maintaining electric transmission lines for transmit-ting electric energy to prospec-tive customers of the grantees, and to make all necessary ex-cavations in streets, roads and alleys for pipes, conduits, poles, posts, or other appliances neces-sary for the enjoyment of said franchise: Provided, however, that the rights and privileges hereby granted shall not be exer-cised or enjoyed so as to occasion public or private damage or in-jury;

That poles, posts, wires and other fixtures shall be so erected, placed, constructed and managed as not to interfere with poles, wires or other structures of any telephone or telegraph lines now erected and used along the streets or alleys, nor with any water pipes, sewers or streets crossing;

That said grantees shall install and maintain such fuses, insula-tion and other appliances on and along all wires placed or suspen-

See America First

Thousands of American are seeing America, not perhaps from a choice but primarily be-cause there is nowhere else to go. But the fact remains that they are seeing America; and seeing it before instead of think-ing of Europe. It is good for Americans to see Europe; travel broadens, and Europe offers what America cannot. But the same token has America what Europe has not. The slogan "See America first" is good and it should hold with every Amer-ican. First, our own country, and then other countries. And just at this time, when all our thoughts are more American and full of Americanism that they have been for years, why isn't this a good time to take up the thought of teaching the doctrine of "See America First" to every child in school? There is the place to begin.

MR. HUGHES HAS EXPLODED THE "KEPT-US-OUT-OF-WAR" ARGUMENT.

Mr. Hughes' attack upon the "kept-us-out-of-war" argument has aroused a story of enthusiasm. "Kept us out of war?" he demands. "Why, there were nineteen men—good American soldiers, shot down at Vera Cruz, and many Mexicans were killed by our men. That was war. More-over, it was a very ignoble war. I have heard three explanations of the Vera Cruz move.

"First, it was explained that it was made in order to compel somebody to salute the flag—somebody who had insulted us. But the flag was not saluted and has not been to this day. Then it was said that the salute was not what we sought, but to prevent the landing of a boatload of ammu-nition intended for Huerta. The ammu-nition, landed, however, and it has been shown that it reached Huerta in due season without interference on our part.

"When that reason was shown to be untenable, a third one—and possibly the real one—finally was advanced. It was said that our seizure of Vera Cruz was a move to compel the retire-ment of Huerta. It seems possible that this is true, although we had promised the Mexicans that we would not interfere in their affairs and told them more than once that we wanted them to handle their own affairs.

"That is why the Mexicans could not understand us and that is why they show little faith in our promises."

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS

IN PREPAREDNESS THE AD-MINISTRATION HAS FOL-LOWED, NOT LED.

In the demand for reasonable preparedness the Administration has followed, not led. Those who demanded more adequate forces were first described as "nervous and excited." Only about a year and a half ago we were told that the question of preparedness was not a press-ing one; that the country had been misinformed. Later, under the pressure of other leader-ship, this attitude was changed. The Administration, it was said, had "learned something," and it made a belated demand for an increased army. Even then, the demand was not pro-ceeded consistently and the pressure exerted on Congress with respect to other Administrative measures was notably absent.

We are told that the defects revealed by the present mobiliza-tion are due to the "system." But it was precisely such plain defects that under the constant warnings of recent years, with the whole world intent on mili-tary concerns, should have been studied and rectified. The Ad-ministration has failed to dis-charge its responsibilities. Appa-rently, it is now seeking to meet political exigencies by its naval program. But it has im-posed upon the country an in-competent naval administration.

—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

MANANA

Manana, which is Mexican for "watchful waiting," is the Democratic keynote in the campaign. The Wilson drive is to begin "sometime" after September 1; but no definite engage-ments have been made. It is an-nounced, for him to commence making political speeches. He has tentative engagements to make some Western visits about the middle of September but nothing positive. Plans are be-ing formulated for carrying on a cam-paign to capture the woman vote of the country, but who will make the speeches on this phase of the con-troversy has not been determined. It had been expected that Mr. Bryan would speak in the Maine campaign, but it is now believed he cannot do so, but will make some speeches later. And so it goes. Watchful waiting will prevail while, in the meantime, Mr. Hughes is carrying on a positive campaign and arousing the entire Western country.

MR. WILSON HAS HAD NO MEXICAN POLICY.

"We cannot let the American spirit fall so low that, lapped in the luxury occasioned by a for-eign war, we shall see American lives sacrificed without a deter-mination to prevent it and to make the American name honor-ed and respected wherever our flag flies. The trouble with this administration is this:—I don't think it ever has had a policy in Mexico worthy of the name." —From Mr. Hughes' speech at Chicago.

Brief Sentences Featuring the Speech of Acceptance of Charles E. Hughes.

America First and America Efficient.

We are too great a country, to re-quire of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations the sort of military service to which they are now called.

We cherish no illusions. We know that the recurrence of war is not to be prevented by pious wishes.

We denounce all plots and con-spiracies in the interest of any for-eign nation.

Adequate preparedness is not mili-tarism.

During this critical period, the only danger of war has lain in their weak course of the Administration.

The Nation has no policy of ag-gression toward Mexico. We have no desire for any part of her terri-tory.

We propose that in the competitive struggle that is about to come the American workingman shall not suf-fer.

This representative gathering is a happy augury. It means the strength of reunion. It means that the spirit of Lincoln is restored, alert, effective.

The dealings of the Administration with Mexico constitute a confused chapter of blunders. It is a record which cannot be examined without a profound sense of humiliation.

We must take Vera Cruz to get Huerta out of office and trust to other nations to get our own citizens out of peril. What a travesty of interna-tional policy!

Destroying the government of Huerta, we left Mexico to the ravages of revolution.

I stand for adequate Federal Work-men's compensation laws.

The value added by manufac-ture represents the difference between the cost of materials used and the value of the prod-ucts manufactured from them. The value added by manufac-ture was $9,878,234,000 in 1914 and $8,529,261,000 in 1909, the increase being $1,348,973,000, or 15.8 per cent. The value added by manufacture formed 40.7 per cent of the total value of products in 1914, and 41.3 per cent in 1909.

Salaries and Wages.

The salaries and wages a-mounted to $5,367,249,000 in 1914 and to $4,365,613,000 in 1909, the increase being $1,001,636,000, or 22.9 per cent.

The number of salaried em-ployees was 964,217 in 1914, as compared with 790,267 in 1909, making an increase of 173,950, or 22 per cent.

The average number of wage earners was 7,036,337 in 1914 and 6,615,046 in 1909, the in-crease being 421,291, or 6.4 per cent.

The maximum number of wage earners (7,242,752) for 1914 were employed during March, while the maximum number (7,006,853) for 1909 were employed during Novem-ber. The minimum number of wage earners (6,640,284) re-ported for 1914 were employed during December and the min-imum number (5,210,063) for 1909 were employed during January.

Percentages of Increase.

The population of the United States at the census of 1910 was 91,972,266, and it is es-timated that it was 98,781,000 on July 1, 1914.

The summary shows increas-es at the census of 1914, as compared with that for 1909, for all items except proprietors and firm members, for which a slight decrease is shown.

In the order of their import-ance, from a percentage stand-point, the increases for the sev-eral items rank as follows: Sal-aries, 37.2 per cent; capital, 23.7 per cent; salaried employees, 22 per cent; primary horsepow-er, 20.7 per cent; wages, 19 per cent; materials, 18.3 per cent; value of products, 17.3 per cent; value added by manufac-ture, 15.8 per cent; wage earn-ers, 6.4 per cent; and number of establishments, 2.7 per cent.

Capital Invested

The capital invested, as re-ported in 1914, was $22,790,880,000, a gain of $4,362,610,000, or 23.7 per cent, over $18,428,270,000 in 1909. The a-verage capital per establishment was approximately $83,000 in 1914 and $69,000 in 1909. In this connection it should be stated that the inquiry contain-ed in the census schedule calls for the total amount of capital, both owned and borrowed, in-vested in the business, but ex-cludes the value of rented prop-erty, plant, or equipment which was employed in the conduct of manufacturing enterprises. In the final bulletins and reports the rental paid for such property will be shown separately.

WHAT OF THE NATION?

INTERVENTION IN MEXICO.

(By David Starr Jordan)

Chancellor of Stanford University
Director, World
Peace Foundation.

AS I write this, I am on my way from the border to Washington to confer with others of the special commission appointed by the American Union against Militarism to help avert the danger of war between the United States and Mexico, complications arising from the pursuit of Villa, from the gathering of the war-at-any-price element on the border, and from the extensive mobilization of militia in the Southwest, with the tension which these operations naturally caused. We are asked to confer, unofficially, with three representative Mexicans—Dr. Atl, Señor Rojas, and Señor Rolland—in an immediate effort to delay further hostilities, bring about mediation and devise a way of protecting American lives along the border without an intolerable violation of Mexican sovereignty.

In advance of the conference but after discussion with Señor Rolland, I may be permitted to say a word here as to what I regard the present duty of the United States.

Various parts of Mexico have been in a condition of wild disorder, off and on, since the death of Madero. The fundamental causes of this condition lie in the ignorance and violence of the people, on the one hand, and in needless exploitation, concession seizing and land monopoly on the other. There was no middle class in Mexico and there could be none without education, sanitation and justice. These evil conditions have flowed over the boundary of the United States and have produced a feeling of disgust, contempt and desire for revenge, as well as the higher purpose to help Mexico to save herself from being a nuisance to others and a danger to herself. Naturally some of these feelings were strongest in the city of El Paso, a town most directly effected by Mexico's troubles, many of whose people have suffered severely from them, a town which further holds as transient visitors the major part of the brood of vultures to whose activities so much of the anguish of Mexico is due.

Taking the will attack upon Columbus as an immediate pretext, a large part of the border population is in favor for war with Mexico. In their judgment, the Carrizal affair, the Columbus affair, any affair should serve as a reason for invading Mexico, cleaning up the border and making the rights of foreigners as safe to the south of the Rio Grande as to the north. Such a war as this would be a war without honor, one brought on with no effort to avert. War is the greatest calamity which can come to any nation. To bring it on wantonly is the greatest of crimes, and it should not lie in the power of any one man, be he captain of a punitive expedition, or president of the United States, to plunge the nation into war.

We have still the larger question of intervention, an attempt to help Mexico by producing an armed peace, behind which could follow with our help, schools, sanitation, agrarian legislation, the cancellation of unjust concessions, and other reforms which might come, though they seldom do, in the wake of war.

THE AWFUL TRUTH ABOUT MEXICO.

(E. J. Aron in Leslie's)

The ruin and devastation of a flourishing country has been told again and again. Yet few people realize, for instance, that to travel in Mexico nowadays is something almost impossible. If afoot, a band of highway-robbers will certainly take the traveler's clothes, if he has nothing else, from him. If on horseback, the first patrol he meets on the road will dispossess him of his mount. If in a railroad coach he is liable to be either blown up by a bomb placed on the track by Zapatistas or shot dead by the brigands that make a specialty of train-robbing; but his greatest danger lies in the fearful condition of the rolling stock which has not been repaired during the last five years, so that wrecks occur daily on every section of the so-called National Railway lines.

Hunger, has reached such a stage in Mexico that no words can give a proper idea of it. Brigands of all kinds and denomination share the spoils of a starved nation with a privileged crowd of self-appointed petty rulers, while the poor peon— for whose sake it is claimed that all these things came to pass— has to content himself with whatever food he can steal, as it is too expensive to acquire honestly. The stealing of corn is punished with death. I remember the ghastly sight of two soldiers shot dead at the entrance of a church in Tehuacaa, while the women and children were coming out from mass. Over the corpses of the wretched men hung, with grim satire, the sign, "Thieves." And the general who had ordered the execution was engaged at the time in removing to his private car all the furniture, even to the bedding and the flower pots, from a residence he had been unlawfully occupying for over a year! Not one piece of furniture belonged to him. Nor the private car, for that matter.

Two blocks away from the church where the shooting had been done a mob of ragged, perspiring, yelling women fought and tore their scant raiment in a pitiful endeavor to get a handful of corn that was being distributed at a charitable institution.

A wild horde has swept over Mexico and nothing but ruins remain where civilization once held sway. In that unfortunate country, no man, be he Carrancista, Zapatista or Villista, thinks of much else than loot, graft and murder. And there will be "revolution" in Mexico while there remains a man to be despoiled, a house to be ransacked or a woman to be dishonored.

The Mexican laborer who was offered liberty, and justice and been given oppression and slavery. Every town is ruled by a local clan of petty military grafters. Every home is menaced by their beastly. No man's life is safe from abuse. No woman's purity is free from attack. No city is clear of brigands. Over a lawless and unruly mob a new flag waves—the black flag of piracy with the skull and bones as a fitting emblem. And instead of the inspiring and beloved national emblem this motley crowd now sings a low and ribald song, "The Cockroach!"

Ancestry of the Mexican.

(Philadelphia Ledger.)

Of every 100 persons in Mexico only 19 are of pure white race; 38 are Indians, and the other 43 are a somewhat sorry mixture of various races, but chiefly of Indian.

There are fully 15 times as many Indians in Mexico as well in the United States. An Indian was really the George Washington of Mexico, and the name of Benito Juarez is perpetuated in a town mentioned every day in the troublous dispatches from that unhappy land.

The white or real Mexicans are descendants of the Spanish conquerors. Those Spaniards didn't wish to share a good thing with anybody and so they shut out all other immigration. Hence it happens that today, with a population twice that of Pennsylvania, Mexico has only about 60,000 foreigners dwelling permanently in the republic.

The mestizo is a common variety of the mixed race in Mexico. He is a son of a white father and an Indian mother.

A chingo is another prevalent type. He is the product of an Indian father and a negro mother. He is not handsome specimen of the human race, nor a reliable one.

Then there is the zamblo, also numerous, and he is the son of a negro father and Indian mother.

These three types of mixed races, plus the ordinary mulatto form the major portion of nearly half the Mexican population.

It is a curious thing that the Indian blood does not mix well with the African and it seems to depart further from the original than does the negro.

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearing; Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8. Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating. There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also the width on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new pieces of impact on each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained—ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

R. B. RAGSDALE

The time will never come when the line of demarcation between the functions of the two sexes will be broken down. I believe it to be false philosophy; I believe that it is an attempt to turn backward upon the line of social development, and that if the step ever be taken, we go centuries backward on the march towards a higher, a nobler and a purer civilization, which must be found not in the confusion, but in the higher differentiation of the sexes."

PAYING UP TO THE CHURCH

The eternal pathos of raising money to keep churches going goes on apace. The poor pastor, himself generally underpaid, and his faithful vestry go on beating up the highways and byways to get people to do something which they ought to do anyway. A scarcely and member of a church who belongs to a private club dare to omit paying his club dues without the certainty of being expelled. Yet the same man goes on shirking his church obligation with blissful serenity, year in and year out. And yet if there is any obligation for a man as matter of common honor and decency to pay his club dues, his responsibility with regard to his church is certainly greater. A large number of sincere people look upon the church as being a pure spiritual affair, a house not build up by hands. So it is. But a spiritual affair, in this world at least, has to be maintained. One might as well say that because the body is the temple of the Holy Ghost it should not wear clothes.

Oh, You Skinny!

Why stay thin as a rail? You don't have to! And you don't have to go through life with a chest that the tailor gives you; with arms of childish strength; with legs you can hardly stand on. And what about that stomach that flinches every time you try a square meal? Are you a pill-feeder?

DO YOU EXPECT HEALTH AND STRENGTH IN TABLOID FORM—THROUGH PILLS, POSITIONS AND OTHER EXPLOITED PIFFLE? YOU CAN'T DO IT; IT CAN'T BE DONE.

The only way to be well is to build up your body—all of it—through nature's methods—not by pampering the stomach. It is not fate that is making you a failure: it's that poor, emaciated body of yours; your half-sickness shows plain in your face and the world loves healthy people. So be healthy—strong—vital. That's living. Don't think too long; send 4 cents in stamps to cover mailing of my book, "INTELLIGENCE IN PHYSICAL CULTURE," written by the strongest physical culture instructor in the world.
