QUESTION CRAZE SEIZES THE G.O.P.

Democratic WORLD Long Had Monopoly of This Idiocy But Opposite Party Is Infected.

STRING OF INTERROGATIONS TO FEASE WILSON IDOLATERS

Questionnaire No. 1.—Will All the Wilson Notes Be at His Notification?
—How Did Fool Free Trade Hit Your Line of Business Just Before the Battles Began?—When the War Babes Die Will You Weep at the Funeral?

The question habit grows. You may ask a question of any one. Why should the dear old public escape?
Here are a few from The New York Sun for the man in the street:

Do you approve of the Rivers and Harbors loot?

Do you want four years more of watchful waiting with the National Guardians undergoing military training in a tropical climate in midsummer?

Do you hold that the duty of the United States is to serve humanity and let its own citizens be killed and outraged?

Do you feel proud of notes with nothing behind them?

What do you think of the Vera Cruz adventure?

Would you like to have been an American soldier at Carrizal?

Do you love Carranza?

Do you believe in a financial regime conducted largely in the interest of one section of the country?

Do you desire to cut the Philippines loose in order that Japan may gobble them?

Do you want four more years of Daniels?

Do you approve of wrecking the diplomatic service to provide jobs for deserving Democrats?

Are you in favor of Inflation?

Do you believe in preparedness for a flood of cheap European wares as soon as peace comes?

Have you noticed the significant increase of imports in the past year, despite the war?

How did fool free trade hit your line of business before August, 1914?

And your friends?

Were you all cheered up by the Underwood tariff bill?

Do you think the doubling of the income tax is fair while millions worth of competitive imports come in free?

Where are you going to be when the war babies die and business slips back to the cold, hard, normal basis?

Can you conceive of any possible good to you or to the country from another Presidential term like the present one?

Will you perpetuate sectionalism, greed, ignorance, stupidity—general ineptitude in Congress?

ATTRACTS BUSINESS MEN.

Mr. Hughes has not tried to scare anybody, but has merely portrayed the errors of the present Administration and set forth certain principles on which the affairs of the country should be managed in the future.

There is a political logic in this portrayal, the culmination of which in the mind of the voter is expressed by the frequent remark:

"He is the kind of man we want to steer us through."

This has been said by many a business man. The qualities seen in Mr.
Hughes are poise, a strong, sane mind, sincerity and a willingness to sacrifice life, physical or political, to the good of the country. Nor is there any question as to the quality of nerve to meet the emergencies of the four years beginning March 4, 1917.

WOMEN SHOULD BE FOR
CHARLES E. HUGHES,
SAYS ROOSEVELT.

"Mr. Hughes has unequivocally taken the right position, and as regards all other positions he, and not his opponent, is entitled to the support of both men and women, and therefore the women in the enfranchised states who do not in this election support him forfeit the right to say they have done their utmost for their sisters in the non-enfranchised states."

From a letter of Theodore Roosevelt to Miss Alice Carpenter.

WE THE COMMITTEE ON RE-SOLUTIONS, RECOMMEND THAT THE FOLLOWING RE-SOLUTIONS BE ADOPTED:

BE IT RESOLVED: That we approve with enthusiasm the national platform of the republican party as adopted at its national convention held in Chicago, and the interpretation given to it by the Honorable Charles Even Hughes, whose candidacy for president, together with the candidacy of Honorable Charles W. Fairbanks, for vice president thereunder we most heartily endorse.

We pledge our allegiance to the platform to be adopted by the republican party at its State Convention on August 23, which will enunciate the party's principles and define the local issues upon which will be sought the support of the voters of New Mexico at the coming election.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLV-ED: That the delegates in this Convention selected to represent the County of Valencia in the State Convention be and they hereby are instructed to support and vote for the nomination of Honorable Holm O. Bursam, of Socorro County, as the logical candidate of the party for the governorship of the State of New Mexico.

And be it further resolved, that the delegates be further instructed to support and vote for Harry P. Owen, as the candidate of Valencia County for District Attorney at the District Convention of the Counties of Socorro, Sierra and Valencia.

And be it further resolved, that the delegates selected at this convention are hereby instructed to vote and use all honorable means to bring about the nomination of the Honorable Herbert F. Ray-nolds, of Bernalillo County, as the republican party's nominee for the high office of Senator of the United States from the State of New Mexico.

Respectfully,

E. KEMPENICH,
President.

JOSE F. PADILLA, Secretario.

LABOR DAY PLOCLAMATION

THE SPIRIT OF THE AGE demands improved conditions for the laborer. Only by patience and care and serious thoughtfulness can this be accomplished.

In theory we stand for equal rights while in fact we have enatted wealth and given undue consideration to its power. The vested rights of capital must be second to the rights of man and the welfare of the millions who struggle for a fair living for themselves and their families.

It has been thought wise and just to set aside one day in each year out of consideration for all who labor.

NOW THEREFORE: in pursuance of the law and custom, I, WILLIAM C. McDONALD, Governor of the State of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim:

Monday, the 4th Day of September, 1916, AS LABOR DAY.

and request that all public and private business be suspended so far as practicable in order that this may be made a real holliday.

I want to urge all good and true citizens, particularly those who labor, to avoid ignoble things and strive only for that which is good for themselves and those for whom they are responsible.

Done at the Executive Office this the 26th Day of August, A. D. 1916. Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Mexico.

WILLIAM C. McDONALD.

Attested:

ANTONIO LUCERO, Secretary of State.

NEW MEXICO STATE UNIVERSITY

Formally Opened for the 1916-1917 Year.

Albuquerque, N. M., August 25:—Enrollment was completed and the New Mexico State University was formally opened for the 1916-1917 year this afternoon with a formal program for which Rodey Assembly hall was crowded to its utmost capacity.
It was first opportunity Albuquerque people have had to use the new trolley service for attendance at a University function and the turn out was by far the largest ever present at such an event. Some 350 students, all of college grade, and constituting the university's largest enrollment, were present, with representation from every county in the state. It is confidently expected that this number will pass the 400 mark during the first semester; being more than four times the total enrollment of four years ago when President David Ross Boyd assumed direction of the institution.

Dr. Boyd's constructive work received an eloquent tribute from Robert E. Putney of Albuquerque, whose thirty minute address upon "The Spiritual and Moral Part of our Daily Lives" was the feature of the opening exercises. The address revealed Mr. Putney in a wholly new light to all but his most intimate friends, for it showed him as more than an energetic, successful, practical business man and community builder; and as a deep delver into the field of the moral and spiritual elements in daily living. It was, in fact, a practical man's urge to the young people he addressed to make fullest use of the opportunity presented during college days to develop moral fibre and consciousness of the strength to be gained by an understanding of the spiritual forces. He said in part:

"If I did not believe that my task to you today would bear good fruit I would not be here.
For I am not seeking publicity or notoriety at the present time.
There is one discovery which it is absolutely necessary that you make before you can arrive at your time of supreme efficiency, and that is the matter of gaining control of the human machine. You will get everything you need in the way of education from this institution but I doubt if this or any other institution can furnish that education which will enable you properly to get hold of yourself and to that highest point of efficiency which comes only from the indescribable, God given something in each of the us, and

FLEETING PROSPERITY IS FOOL'S PARADISE

Don't Let Smoke From Munition
Factories Cloud Your Brain With Belief It's Abiding.

Forget Not the Dire Conditions Which Depressed This Country Under the Democratic Free Trade Tariff Prior to the War—They Will Return to Plague and Hunger You Unless the Republicans Are Restored to Power.

"When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions," says Mr.
Hughes, "we see that we are living in a fool's paradise." This is the condition to which the administration and its supporters have deliberately closed their eyes. When the war cloud broke over Europe, this country was experiencing the most serious depression it had known since 1893, when the Democratic party and its policies were in full control of the United States.

Suddenly there came from over the sea a demand for munitions of war clothing, food, supplies, everything needed by vast armies and by countries whose sons were taken from the field and the workshop, never to return.

As a result our exports and the balance of trade in our favor have reached figures far surpassing any ever before known. Temporarily, especially in the East, there is no lack of work at high wages, for Europe must pay whatever price America asks. No thoughtful person would imagine that this condition is anything like real prosperity. How false it is, we in Oregon, who have the clearer vision because not clouded by the smoke from munition factories, have fully felt and fully appreciated.

What the Republican candidate for president says about it the Democrats know to be true:

"Our opponents promised to reduce the cost of living. This they have failed to do, but did reduce the opportunities of making a living. Let us not forget the conditions that existed in this country under the new tariff prior to the war. Production had decreased; business was languishing; new enterprises were not undertaken; instead of expansion there was curtailment and our streets were filled with the unemployed."

The suspension of these conditions is not nation-wide, only sectional, and depends upon the duration of the war.
Those who think otherwise are, indeed, living in a fool's paradise.—Portland (Ore.) Telegram

POLITICAL JOTTINGS

At that, however, from beginning to end this has been more of a "you kick me and I'll kiss you" administration.

Vance McCormick says the Progressives are stampeding to Wilson, and it's a ten to one bet he wishes he could believe it.

The Democrats are finding out that pork comes home to roost out their standing.

The men and women who prefer a man who does things to a man who writes notes about them will vote for Hughes. Government by correspondence takes too long to get anywhere, but government by deeds is always on the job.

Those who are concerned to know what Mr. Hughes would have done had he been in Mr. Wilson's place may rest assured he would not have done as Mr. Wilson has. And that is answer enough.

Mr. Hughes is not only going direct to the public, but the public is going direct to him. A genuine American affair.

President Wilson's alarm clock is ringing at 5 o'clock these mornings.
He can reach out of bed and turn it off the morning of March 5.

Postmaster General Burleson is too foxy a politician to adopt for his department the McAdoo rule forbidding Treasury department employees participating in politics. Mr. Burleson realizes that postmasters are entitled to some exercise for the money.

There are no strings or mental reservations to the public pledges of administrative reform given by Charles E. Hughes. His record as governor of New York guarantees the fulfillment of every promise.

Democrats are now convinced that Charles Evans Hughes is a warm proposition.

It is gratifying, indeed, to find that Mr. Wilson still stands on the suffrage.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. N. E. Woolford, left last week for her home in Virginia, where she will make an extended visit.

Miss Gertrudes Espinosa, of Albuquerque, came down Tuesday to arrange for her position in the High School. She will teach Spanish and Domestic Science.

Mr. George Hoffman, our efficient and popular postmaster is spending a few days in Santa Fe, on business.

Edward LeBrun and Ray Dils, were both hurt Tuesday in an accident, when the Ford they were driving turned over.
Luckily the boys were not seriously injured.

Miss Henrieta Harbord, is visiting Mrs. Enderstein, for a few days. She will leave then for Clovis N. Mex., where she has accepted a position as instructor of Spanish in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cregmile spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in Albuquerque.

Miss Luce Becker entertained a large number of her friends at a Salamagundie party in honor of her Louise Guests, Friday evening. The place was quite unique and all report an exceptionally pleasant evening.

Miss Lillian Hulbert, left Tuesday morning for the Agriculture College at Las Cruces, N. Mex., where she will take up her work as a senior in college.

Miss Feil, of Jarale, gave a dinner at her home in Jarale, question where he stood at the beginning of his administration. He has changed on about everything else.— Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

It strikes one that instead of wildly hustling for the State of Maine, Vance McCormick might do better work by taking his wrecking crew to the West to repair the Democratic bridges that are being dynamited by Justice Hughes.

According to the week's latest work of fiction, the Democratic Campaign Book, the wage-earners of the country received during the Wilson Administration $3,000,000,000 more than they received under Taft. And all it cost them to keep something in the dinner pail was $6,000,000,000 more.

At the annual meeting of postmasters in Washington recently, the first assistant postmaster-general lauded the postal savings system. That must have been a bitter pill for Postmaster-General Burleson, who sat on the same platform with his assistant. When the postal savings bill was passed, Mr.
Burleson, then a Congressman from Texas, voted against it. Every vote cast against it was cast by a Democrat. Not one Democratic Congressman voted for it. Yet President Wilson says the Republican party has not and a new idea in thirty years. Whose idea was it?

It was the instinct of a lawyer for Hughes to support his damning charges against Wilson, by calling Wilson's own secretary of state as a witness to prove them.

Mr. Hughes says there should be firm dealing in Mexican affairs. Maybe so; but we have had enough of the firm of Wilson, Carranza & Co.

The impression is growing at the White House that Mr. Hughes is deliberately unfriendly. Look out for notes.

PHONE No. 34

New Mexico Cattle and Horse Growers' As- sociation.

Albuquerque, N. M., Aug. 30.
—Cows are going to have their share in the 1916 State Fair and the cattlemen of New Mexico will have a greater incentive to exhibit this year than over before. The Fair management has come forward with prizes aggregating more than $2000 for the cattle department. And not to be outdone in things that particularly interest them The New Mexico Cattle & Horse Growers' Association offer a handsome Silver Cup for the best carload lot of strictly range bred New Mexico heifers.

"We need more of an appreciation of what the range cattle industry means to New Mexico," says Secretary Miller of the cattlemen's association.
"Range cattle are one of our biggest assets; close to $50,000,- 000 are invested in plain cows in the State. In the past cattle have been the backbone of our prosperity, but today more than ever they are adding to our substantial wealth." And to prove it he quotes from no less source than the Crop Reports. Miss Average Heifer of today is worth almost double what her progenitors of five years ago brought. Lays Mr. Miller,
"This is partly due to the rising price of all live stock; but blood is the big thing that has made the prices of today. And we are going to find out who has the proper appreciation of what breeding means in dollars and cents.

Heretofore, the Fair Manage-men has not been able to do justice to the cow on the range.
But that has been remedied this year. Taking the yearling heifer as the most representative of the new order of things the Fair is offering prizes of $500 for the best carload lot of New Mexico range heifers. A carload is to consist of the less than twenty-five animals of the 1915 calf crop. All animals must show the same registered brand, the owner must furnish statement that the entries are strictly range bred, have been fed and have been his property since the birth of the heifers.

The New Mexico Cattle & Horse Growers' Association offers in addition to the cash prizes a Silver Trophy Cup of special design in the same class. The winner of first money in this event also will receive this $240 cup, which is highly representative of the cattle industry.
The winner the first year will hold the cup until the following year, when it again will be in competition. When one cattle owner's name appears on the cup three times it become his permanent property.

Proper facilities will be provided for all stock. Applications for entries must be in the hands of Supt. J. P. Jacobson, of the Range Cattle Department on or before Monday, September 18th so that arrangements can be made for pens.

In a short while Secretary Miller will have full details of this competition in the hands of all the cattlemen of the state.

TELL HOW WOMEN VOTERS WILL CONTROL POLITICS

Congressional Union Leaders Explain the Movement in Opposition to Presi- dent Wilson.

Just how the decision of the in a statement by suffrage lead-

Congressional Union for Wo-

It was pointed out that unless he wins the West the defeat of Mr. Wilson "seems inevitable."

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The fact that the Democratic campaign managers have booked Secretary Daniels for a speech in Maine seems to indicate that they have abandoned all hope of carrying the State and simply don't care what happens to the ticket in the September election.

Senator S. Ham Lewis a spokesman for the administration, in attempting to apologize for the President's mollycoddle expression that we are "too proud to fight," explains that it is old Latin quotation. But the people already knows that it is out of date and the expression of a decadent nation.

"We don't want to maintain a political almshouse," remarked Mr. Hughes to the North Dakota farmers, and a nation applauds him. Americans are beginning to see a possibility in the near future of regaining their self-respect,

The administration seems to have sold everything it could, from the nation's honor down to the smallest rural postmaster-ship.

Secretary Daniels says this is no time for politics. And it's no time for Secretary Daniels, either.

Senator Lewis, defending the President on his "too proud to fight" expression, intimates that it was due solely to the ignorance of his audience that the popular interpretation that has been put upon it was evolved, and that anyway it didn't mean what it appeared to mean. The latter statement can be taken with some degree of confidence, as it is quite a well-known fact that most of the things the President says do not mean what they are supposed to mean.

Secretary Redfield has presented another of those living illustrations of the old adage that "fools rush where angels fear to tread," with one important modification. The difference in the Secretary's case is that he walked right in and turned around and was kicked right out again.

The Democratic contingent in the Senate is all worked up over the fact that the terms of the treaty for the purchase of the Danish West Indies "leaked out." "Pitiless publicity," you understand, has been consigned to the scrap heap with a large assortment of various other Democratic policies and promises.

Of Mr. Wilson it may be said he meant well, but he now finds himself buried under the evidence of inefficiency that Mr.
Hughes has brought forth.

Mr. Wilson has made no reply to the charges of Mr.
Hughes. Is he still too proud to fight.

typewriter.

Ball Bearing; Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8.
Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating.
There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained —ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

VII.—Hon. Elihu Root On Woman's Sphere

The question of Woman Suffrage is an issue before the American people. Twelve states have adopted it, four more states vote upon it this fall and it is strongly urged that it become a platform demand of the national political parties. It is therefore the privilege and the duty of every voter to study carefully this subject. Hon. Elihu Root, in discussing this question before the Constitutional Convention of New York, recently said in part:

"I am opposed to the granting of suffrage to women, because I believe that it would be a loss to women, to all women and to every woman; and because I believe it would be an injury to the State, and to every man and every woman in the State. It would be useless to argue this if the right of suffrage were a natural right. If it were a natural right, then women should have it though the heavens fall. But if there be any one thing settled in the long discussion of this subject, it is that suffrage is not a natural right, but is simply a means of government, and the sole question to be discussed is whether government by the suffrage of men and women will be better government than by the suffrage of men alone.

Into my judgment, sir, there enters no element of the inferiority of woman. It is not that woman is inferior to man, but it is that woman is different from man; that in the distribution of powers, of capacities, of qualities, our Maker has created man adapted to the performance of certain functions in the economy of nature and society, and woman adapted to the performance of other functions.

Woman rules today by the sweet and noble influences of her character. Put woman into the arena of conflict and she abandons these great weapons which control the world, and she takes into her hands, feeble and nerveless for strife, weapons with which she is unfamiliar and which she is unable to wield. Woman in strife becomes hard, harsh, unlovable, repulsive; as far removed from that gentle creature to whom we all owe allegiance and to whom we confess submission, as the heaven is removed from the earth.

The whole science of government is the science of protecting life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness. In the divine distribution of powers, the duty and the right of protection rests with the male. It is so throughout nature. It is so with men, and I, for one, will never consent to part with the divine right of protecting my wife, my daughter, the women whom I love, and the women whom I respect, exercising the birthright of man, and place that high duty in the weak and nerveless hands of those designed by God to be protected rather than to engage in the stern warfare of government. In my judgment, this whole movement arises from a false conception of the duty and of the right of both men and women.

The time will never come when the line of demarcation between the functions of the two sexes will be broken down. I believe it to be false philosophy; I believe that it is an attempt to turn backward upon the line of social development, and that if the step ever be taken, we go centuries backward on the march towards a higher, a nobler and a purer civilization, which must be found not in the confusion, but in the higher differentiation of the sexes."

which when found and called ment.

"It is very likely that a great many of you may think that this body of ours is made of nothing more than blood bone and meat, and that it is manuevered by something up in our hands which we call the brain; all of which is correct as far as it goes. But let me tell you, my friends, that you have not started to live, nor will you be more than mere thinking animals until you have discovered that brain lies in an indestructible something which gives orders to the brain; a something which when thoroughly discovered never folds you and will accomplish for you the otherwise unattainable. The making of money is something which anybody can do. You are all entitled to a living and any fool can make money; but what about that ambition, that desire and inclination to rise; to be something more than an ordinary working mule?

"Discover your sould. Discover the spiritual part of you; that force which drives this machine of ours and which permits you to do as you will with the body, giving you perfect control, giving you the power to accomplish the most impossible feats and raising you to the very highest pinnacle of happiness and efficiency.

"I expect some of you are thinking 'I never thought Putney was that kind of a fellow'.
My friends I suspect that you are perfectly right, but I want to say to you that it is not necessary to carry a long face nor a prayer book under your arm in order to arrive at the state which I have described. This may be accomplished in the most matter of fact way. Until you have discovered that indescribable something called 'sould' you are nothing more than animals running wild. Let us discover that we need not be dominated by our passions; that we may consult our spiritual side; the supreme power which should and will guide us and regulate every action of our lives.

"I recently received a letter from which I would like to quote a few passages. He said; 'Do you suppose I would have made the rotten blenders I made in my college days if some strong, practical man had been there to guide me just a little into other than 'practical education'; if I had been led to know even a little of the wonders of self-control through moral culture? Just to know that there is another side to him than the one that makes money and spends it, or that raises hell and regrets it, is worth a lot to a youngster if you can get it stuck in his head, and it takes a business man to tell him. How much of the fight to get hold of moral forces and the spiritual elements inside you and me that we have had after 35 could have been saved or made easier by a little wise guiding at 20?"

"That is what I am here for today, my friends, to tell you that it is possible for you to discover now that there dwells inside of each of you the unseen force that when properly recognized and summoned will give you the best there is in life. If I can make you understand something of this I shall feel well repaid for my presence here. Find your soul now. Do not wait for the time of disaster. You will not find it by any sudden miracle. It will not arrive the finished product. It means prayer and work; the right use of every muscle and fibre and no bankers' hours for yours, but concentrating all your forces in an appeal to the spiritual side of you."

PREPARE FOR THIS.
When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions we see that we are living in a fool's paradise. The temporary prosperity to which our opponents point has been created by the abnormal conditions incident to the war. With the end of the war there will be the new conditions determined by a new Europe. Millions of men in the trenches will then return to work. The energies of each of the now belligerent nations highly trained, will then be turned to production."
Charles E. Hughes.

Need of Constructive Legislation.
Just before the European war broke out we had a million skilled mechanics out of work and nearly half a million railroad men were idle, together with nearly half a million freight cars.
The railroads were suffering from lack of freight to carry to market, and industry was gradually becoming stagnant. In Louisiana two hundred thousand acres of sugar land were plowed up because of Democratic changes in the tariff law. It is generally conceded by all save the blind that the country was not progressing.
Attempts were made to keep courage up by the predictions made by Senators McAdoo and Redfield and President Wilson of the great trade booms which were soon to appear but which failed to materialize until the outbreak of war on the continent.

LABOR DAY

On one day of each year the nation turns aside from its regular vocations to pay tribute to those who toil.

Labor means unselfish service. No one labors for himself alone. Entire communities share in the benefits accruing from the toil of the individual.

In these mountain states five thousand earnest, intelligent, loyal men and women are daily laboring with mind and muscle, with heart and hand, to give the public telephone service of the highest standard of excellence.

Whether digging in the earth, or climbing up among the wires; whether hunting "trouble," repairing the lines, working at the switchboard, keeping accounts, or performing any of the multitudinous duties of the telephone business, all are imbued with the spirit of service which stimulates them to put forth their best efforts in your behalf.

Every day is a day of labor for those who serve the public; and LABOR DAY is a fitting tribute to their worth.

Oh, You Skinny!

Why stay thin as a rail? You don't have to! And you don't have to go through life with a chest that the tailor gives you; with arms of childish strength; with legs you can hardly stand on. And what about that stomach that flinches every time you try a sq are meal? Are you a pill feeder?

DO YOU EXPECT HEALTH AND STRENGTH IN TABLOID FORM—THROUGH PILLS, POSITIONS AND OTHER EXPLODIED PIFFLE? YOU CAN'T DO IT; IT CAN'T BE DONE.

The only way to be well is to build up your body—all of it —through nature's methods—not by pampering the stomach. It is not fate that is making you a failure: it's that poor, emaciated body of yours; your half-sickness shows plain in your face and the
