BROAD ACCIDENT!

Collide on the Baltimore & Ohio.

Passenger Train Passed Over West Virginia Yesterday.

Alleged Beef Combine at Chicago is to be Investigated.

PROTECTING THE INDIANS

Sept. 27.—A Times-Star from Wheeling says: Two passenger trains on the Baltimore & Ohio collided last night east of this city, and sixteen passengers were injured.

State Marshal A. D. Garden, of Virginia, was terribly scalded, and Mr. W. H. Ohley, of Charleston, W. Va., was also badly scalded but will live. Dispatch from Grafton, W. Va., says: Passenger trains collided last night near Grafton, a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train and a West Virginia passenger train No. 1.

The first section of No. 4, east bound, was at the end of the tunnel, when it was struck by the other train, which was there but one track. The engines were required to stop at either end and signal before passing on single track.

At the station while the first section of No. 4 was at the platform, the engineer of the West Virginia train, mistaking a signal, and stopping his train, to use a railroad "sidewiper" No. 4, overturning the passenger coaches and striking the Baltimore & Ohio train. The steam engines were knocked off, and a number of passengers injured, some seriously.

The following are the most seriously injured: William Reese, Salina, Kas., right knee and foot scalded.

Allice L. Taylor, Elkins, W. Va., hand lacerated, side, neck and head.

A. Ohley, Charleston, W. Va., face badly scalded and cut in forehead.

Gardner, Wheeling, W. Va., hands and face scalded, left knee injured.

Mr. J. Fortney, Kingwood, W. Va., scalded about face and upper part of body.

Similarity of names, the name secretary Ohley was at first sent out injured. It was W. A. Ohley, of Weston, and not the secretary of state.

To Investigate the Beef Ring.

Sept. 27.—Gen. John S. Black, United States district attorney, received instructions today to investigate the alleged combination of Chicago packers to raise the price of beef. The instructions came from Attorney General Harlan, enclosed a statement of suspicious trading the alleged trust, prepared by Secretary of Agriculture Morton.

JACKSON'S HOLE

As to Fix the Responsibility for the Recent Trouble.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The attorney general has sent additional instructions to the district attorney of Wyoming, and on information furnished by the district attorney, which will probably enable the United States officials to commence proceedings against the whites who are responsible for the attacks upon the Indians.

It is thought by the Indians that the new material furnished to the department of justice will result in bringing to justice the men responsible for the recent trouble at Jackson Hole.

Cyclone in West Virginia.

Washington, W. Va., Sept. 27.—A cyclone passed over Green bottom yesterday, doing great damage to property. Seven men were in one barn which was blown away. John Nance and William were seriously injured by falling beams. Timothy Blake and Isidore were seriously injured.

ST. ANDREW.

Proceedings of the Second Day's Session at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 27.—The second day's proceedings of the national convention of St. Andrew's Brotherhood were inaugurated at the early hour of this morning, with the celebration of holy communion at Christ Church, which was preceded by a portion of regular, impressive Episcopal service. Rev. William T. Nichols, D. D., bishop of California, was the celebrant. All of the delegates and visitors, to a total of several hundred, approached the communion table. At 10 o'clock, the business sessions were resumed, and the convention took up the questions of Bible methods and Bible class work, papers being read by Robert K. Speer, of New York, and James L. Houghtaling, of Chicago.

Collisions.

Sault Ste. Marie, Sept. 27.—The steamer Mark Hopkins collided with the steamer Vanderbilt, at Nine Mile Point today. The Hopkins went down in two minutes. The Vanderbilt was slightly injured. The Hopkins was insured for $40,000. Her owner is R. C. Recor, of St. Clair, Mich.

A SOLD THIEF.

A Woman Robbed in a Pullman Car at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—An unusually bold robbery occurred on a Pullman sleeper on the Washburn limited as the train was leaving this city for Detroit last night. A well dressed man entered the Pullman and stopping at the first occupied berth calmly climbed in, choking into silence Mrs. George Mack, the occupant. After securing the pocketbook, jewelry and clothes of the terrified woman, whose husband sat in the smoking compartment only a few feet away, the robber attempted to leave. Mrs. Mack clung to him, however, and he only escaped after knocking her senseless. He jumped from the moving train and, apparently uninjured, escaped in the darkness.

CRACKED POLICEMEN.

The Twenty Indicted New Officials Now on Trial.

New York, Sept. 27.—The special term of the court of Oyer and Terminer, called by Governor Morton for the trials of the twenty indicted police officials, opened today. The prosecutions will be personally conducted by District Attorney Fellows, and he is assisted by ex-Surrogate Rollins and Austen G. Fox. The cases on the docket comprise four captains, one sergeant and one roundman, and the trials will, it is expected, occupy several months. The four captains are Jacob Selbert, charged with bribery; Thomas Killen, bribery; John J. Donohue, bribery; James K. Price, extortion.

Let's Pay the Bill.

Ex-Gov. Prince and Max Frost succeeded in talking about sixty delegates to Santa Fe on the last day of the Irrigation Congress, causing the Congress to adjourn a day sooner than was advertised. These delegates were entertained at a lunch at Santa Fe, and the bill is $98. This bill has been sent to the Irrigation Congress committee of this city for payment. Prince and Frost succeeded in diverting elsewhere nearly all of the $2,500 appropriated for the Congress in this city, and then took the Congress away before that body had completed its labors, and now expect our people to pay for the ham sandwiches handed out at Santa Fe. For gall and cheek, Prince and Frost can take the blue ribbon in any region, arid or humid.

Did You Ever Fall Over a Precipice.

Or hold up the Washington monument on the pit of your stomach—in a dream? Did you ever wake up in a cold sweat caused by some horrible phantasm? If so, the wisest thing you could have done to renew your slumber undisturbed by the nightmare would have been to take some Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which would have tranquillized you and relieved the indigestion, which was, perhaps, the author of your hideous dream. Indigestion, nightmare, indigestion are easily remedied by the Bitters. Resort to it also, if you are troubled with chills and fever, liver or kidney trouble, constipation, neuralgia or rheumatism. If you have lost your appetite don't go to the expense of advertising for it, but take the Bitters. Then will "good digestion wait on appetite, and health on both." Just before retiring is a very suitable time to swallow a wineglassful.

Good Showing.

The citizens of Albuquerque subscribed nearly $4,500 to the Territorial Fair fund, and President Weaver states that every dollar will be collected. In fact, the treasurer, Mr. Keen, reports that nearly all the subscriptions have already been paid.

Retrenching.

Twelve freight train men have been laid off between El Paso and Tucson, as trains are being consolidated and therefore need less help. This is because of the retrenchment policy adopted by the Southern Pacific at San Francisco.

Afternoon Tea.

Miss Hartwell, in her last syndicate article, says: "I don't recommend any special brand of tea for afternoon 4 o'clock. I do, however, know all about the best tea to take at night. Parsi Tea will certainly clear your complexion and purify your blood. You will be surprised at the improvement if you take a cup of Parsi Tea each night." Sold by Dr. Thos. H. Burgess & Son.

Down and Out.

Dr. George W. Harrison, who was president of the Bank of Commerce for the past two years, today stepped down and out of that position. The board of directors will meet in a few days, and a new president will then be elected.

SHALL NOT FIGHT!

Gov. Calhoun Very Much in Earnest.

He Calls a Special Session of the Legislature.

Another Massacre by the Turks Impending in Armenia.

A REIGN OF TERROR.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—Governor Calhoun's proclamation, issued late last night, convening the legislature next Tuesday, to enact an anti-riot law, was a great surprise.

There is some talk today that the populists and other political opponents of the governor, may defeat his object, by making the law to go into effect in ninety days. It requires a two-thirds vote to give immediate effect.

Representative Ham Ward, a leading member of the house said today, the legislature undoubtedly would pass the law to go into effect at once, and it would make prize fighting a felony. He thinks the law will be passed within a week after the legislature meets.

Land Court.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Sept. 27.—Hon. J. R. Reed, of the court of private land claims, leaves for Santa Fe tomorrow to open the fall term of the court. Many important claims yet remain to be acted upon, and the business of the coming session will involve the title to property of much value.

TWO CENTURIES.

The "Old Stone Meeting House" Celebrates Its 200th Anniversary.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—It is two centuries today since the opening of a place of worship by the Quakers or Society of Friends, of the old stone meeting house in Lower Merion township, Montgomery county, and today, within the walls that have withstood the storms of 200 years, historians and Friends, descendants of those who have worshipped there in bygone years, have assembled to commemorate the anniversary.

The congregation of the venerable little edifice has dwindled to twenty, but for months these have been engaged in preparing for the event of today and tomorrow, and over 500 acceptances of their invitation were registered this morning on the pages of the book, brown with age, that has chronicled the coming and going of each member of the congregation since 1695.

The meeting house, which is only fourteen feet high to the roof, thirty-six feet in length, and twenty in width, will barely hold two hundred worshippers, and so a big tent has been erected on the adjacent grounds.

It is an interesting fact that the house was built of stone imported from England, that for the walls being three feet in thickness.

The curiously carved oak table, on which so many marriage certificates have been signed, also testifies to 200 years of existence.

The exercises today were in the shape of an informal reunion, while tomorrow there will be speeches and reading of poems.

Among the venerable Quakers who have come from abroad for the commemoration are Isaac Wilson, of Canada; Levi Benson, of Ohio, and John J. Cornell, of New York.

REIGN OF TERROR.

The Villainous Turks Working Up Another Armenian Massacre.

Varna, Sept. 27.—Advices from Antioch state that the Ottoman officials there have excited the Mussulmans with the report of an impending massacre by Armenians. Mussulmans accompanied by police raided an Armenian church, and searched the building for arms. The Armenians resisted, and three were killed. A reign of terror prevails at Kemahak and Kresnegun, owing to the oppression by the Turks. Many Armenians have been arrested.

Kansas City Stock Market.

Kansas City, Sept. 27.—Cattle receipts, 6,500 head; shipments, 2,500 head. Market very slow and lower. Texas steers, $2.40@2.50; beef steers, $3.00@3.25; stockers and feeders, $2.50@2.75; bulls, $1.70@2.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 1,000; shipments, 4,000. Market steady. Lambs, 2.90@3.00; muttons, $2.50@2.75.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

Denver, Sept. 27.—A special to the Times from Laramie, Wyo., says: G. H. Brewster, of Beatrice, Neb., while out on a hunting trip, near his ranch in North park, was killed instantly by a tree falling upon him and crushing his head.

Chicago Stock Market.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Cattle receipts 11,000. Market dull. Native and western steers 15@20c lower than Wednesday. Texas steers, $2.70@2.80; stockers and feeders, $2.35@2.55. Sheep receipts, 10,000. Market slow and weak.

Copyright Law.

New York, Sept. 27.—Hall Gaine, the noted English author, sailed from Liverpool for this city today. He comes as the official representative of the British Society of Authors, and his mission is to investigate the dangers that are threatened to international copyright interests by reason of the new efforts to proclaim the Canadian copyright law of 1889. The English government has decided that the proclamation of the act shall be withheld until an opportunity has been given to Mr. Gaine, as the representative of British authors, to investigate the question at issue.

Honored the Draft.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Secretary Olney received information today that the Mora draft for almost a million and a half dollars, had been paid in London today by the Spanish financial agent.

Money Market.

New York, Sept. 27.—Money on call easy, at 1 1/2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 4 1/2 per cent.

Gold Shipments.

New York, Sept. 27.—W. H. Croxman & Co. will ship $1,500,000 gold to Hamburg tomorrow.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Wheat, Sept. 60 1/2. Corn, Sept. 31 1/2. Oct. Oats, 19 1/2.

New York, Sept. 26.—Silver, 66 1/2. Lead, $2.15.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

The Coming National Conference of the Episcopal Church.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 27.—Within the next few days every clerical and lay delegate to the great conference of the Protestant Episcopal church, which opens in this city next month, will have received a pamphlet of eighty-one closely printed pages claiming to be a "candid examination" of the report of the joint committee on the revision of the constitution and canons of the church, appointed by the general convention of 1892, but which, in reality, is a trenchant attack upon the report from its introductory to its closing paragraph, and teems with sarcasm and mild denunciation. Some portions of the proposed revision are characterized as preposterous, others as absurd, and still others as novelties that are dangerous to the extreme. It is gently suggested that certain sections of the report are "questionable" in their motives, that others are vague and indefinite, that many of the most important recommendations should be thrown overboard bodily, and that still other recommendations would make the church a "poor, selfish little prelatical sect."

As to the constitution of the revised commission, it is declared to be "manifestly topsy-turvy from the first," having seven bishops at its head; although these are not to be held responsible for the "many and glaring faults of the proposed revision." The proposition that the house of bishops and the house of deputies may hold joint sessions is characterized as a pernicious innovation, which would be most dangerous to the rights and privileges of the clergy and laity in the lower house, and would mean the surrender of its freedom and independence. Finally, the entire revision report is characterized as an "unfortunate miscarriage," the result of which no man can foresee, and the opinion is expressed that there is neither hope nor expectation that it will pass the general convention. The reviewing criticism, which, in its entirety, would occupy some thirty columns of the ordinary newspaper, is anonymous.

DEEP WATER.

An Important Convention Meets at Topeka Next Tuesday.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 27.—Except that it will be inter-state rather than international in its scope, the Western States Waterways conference to open here on Tuesday next will be second only in importance to the recent gathering at Cleveland. Secretary Tom Richardson said today: "The enthusiasm over the meeting surpasses our expectations. The governors of Texas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming, Arkansas, Iowa, Louisiana and New Mexico have named their delegations. A list from other states will be in tomorrow's mail. Fifteen millions of people are directly interested in this conference, and they will be heard from through the most representative list of men that has ever participated in a deep water convention in this region."

NEW GOLD FIELD!

Rich Placer Diggings Found About 45 Miles From Albuquerque.

The recently discovered placer district, a few miles east of San Pedro, of which mention was made in THE CITIZEN last week, is attracting a great deal of attention, and promises better than at first reported.

Miners are going in rapidly, and a gentleman who came in from that section last night says about 200 claims have already been made, but there is still plenty of room.

The gold is coarse, and very easily worked, but the great advantage which the new district possesses over any other placer field in this section of the territory is found in the fact that water is obtained in abundance by digging a few feet.

The find is about forty-five miles from Albuquerque, the road being out Tijeras cañon to San Pedro, and then due east by the trail leading to the camp.

The ground has been prospected for a radius of about two miles from the point of the original discovery, and pay dirt is found everywhere.

AN OLD WILL.

How George Washington's Mother Disposed of Her Property.

Copy of the Ancient Document Was in Full in the Room on the Second Floor of the City of Washington.

"In the name of God! Amen! I, Mary Washington, of Fredericksburg, in the county of Spotsylvania, being in good health, but desiring to mind the uncertainty of this life, and willing to dispose of what remains of my worldly estate, do make and publish this, my last will, recommending my soul into the hands of my Creator, hoping for a remission of all my sins through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of mankind; I dispose of all my worldly estate as follows:

"I give and devise to my son, Gen. George Washington, all my lands, on Annapolis, in the county of Stafford, and also my negro boy, George, to him and his heirs forever. Also my best bed, bedstead and Virginia cloth curtains (the same that I stand in my best room), my quilted blue and white quilt, and my best dressing glass.

"I give and devise to my son, Charles Washington, my negro man, Tom, to him and his heirs forever.

navigable stream, and it is scarcely a river at all. This is a pitiful fate for a stream forming the boundary between nations—the Rio Grande, the Great River. Similar complaints have arisen nearer home. It has been extensively published of late that the failure of the "Soule ditch," an extensive irrigation enterprise in western Kansas, was caused by the absorption of the water of the Arkansas river by Colorado irrigators, leaving the Kansas cultivators without the necessary moisture.

It has always been held that a river, once started, was under the protection of the law in its course. Laws have been made to prevent the building of dams across even navigable streams in a manner to prevent fish from traveling up and down, and navigable streams, or streams declared by law to be navigable, are the subject of many statutes. Now the rivers must be regulated and preserved by law for the benefit of downstream irrigators, as well as for fish and navigators.

It may be well imagined that this will form a question of considerable difficulty and delicacy. Who has the best right to a river, those who own the head of the river, or those who own only its mouth?

The moral seems to be that the best system of irrigation is that where each individual irrigator owns and controls his own source of water supply; where he is not "bolder" to any other man for water, but pumps from his own property, which extends to the center of the earth, all of the vital fluid he needs and uses. The vexed question of the rivers, their use and ownership, should strengthen the cause of the every-man-for-himself irrigator advocates.—Kansas City Star.

HOME INDUSTRY.

The bane of New Mexico is the constant drain of money out of the territory. What with our minerals, our cattle and our wool we draw money enough from the outside world to soon make the territory rich, if we could only hold what we get, but all that comes in is immediately sent out again to pay for articles of necessity or luxury which we buy from the east.

Of course, all of this outflow of money cannot be avoided, because there are many things which we are obliged to purchase abroad; but the stream could be very easily reduced, to an extent sufficient to make a very appreciable difference for the better—and the way in which that can be done is by simply patronizing home industry.

We have scores of small factories and new industrial enterprises, struggling for footholds in the territory, the products of which are just as good in every respect, and sold at just as low prices, as any of the goods of the same line that we buy from the east. All of these should be patronized by the east, to the exclusion of foreign establishments—not simply because the men engaged in such factories are our neighbors and therefore have the first claim upon us, but because it is to our own interest to do so. Everything that serves to keep at home money that would otherwise go abroad, benefits directly or indirectly every member of the community.

It is a mistaken idea to suppose that it is the manufacturer, alone, who is benefited by the policy of patronizing home industry. It is a matter that immediately concerns every citizen. Brain the town or the territory of its money, and hard times at once come to all of us; make money plenty, by patronizing home industry, and keeping our dollars at home, in circulation among ourselves, and there is business and prosperity for everybody.

Strictly as a matter of self-interest, every citizen of New Mexico should make it an invariable rule to never pay out a cent for an imported article, when one of home production can be had which will answer the purpose just as well.

It is estimated that a careful observance of this rule by our people would serve to keep in the territory at least a million dollars a year now sent abroad—and the addition of a million dollars to the volume of money in circulation in a community of a hundred and fifty thousand persons, means the difference between very hard times, and the best kind of times.

Who Owns the Rivers?

An interesting question is likely to arise in connection with the irrigation boom: Is it: Who owns the rivers? In the Irrigation Congress at Albuquerque a Mexican gentleman discussed the appropriation of the Rio Grande by the Americans. Once, he stated, the Rio Grande was navigable from its mouth to El Paso; now, owing to the abstraction of the water by the up-river irrigators, the lower Rio Grande is no longer a

From Tuesday's Daily

J. G. Wagner, of Kingston, is in the city on a business mission.

Miss Stella Hoffmann, who has been in the city from Hland, returned home this morning.

Mrs. Jacob Locke and children have gone east on a visit and will be gone for several weeks.

Sam Neustadt, of Grunfeld Bros., was seen today. He is 27 years of age. He is celebrating.

Andy Horne, who is now running a stage line from Cerrillos to Hland, was in the city yesterday.

Forley Wesson, who is running the stage line from Thornton to Hland, paid a short visit to the city.

Charles Harding, who has been on a short visit to Hland, returned here last night on his way to Gallup.

Mrs. Col. Otis and Mrs. F. A. Gray, prominent among the people of San Diego, are in the city, stopping at the European.

Prof. A. E. Blount, of the Agricultural college at Las Cruces, is in the city, after a visit to Phoenix with the delegates to the Irrigation Congress.

Miss Jessie Buchanan, one of this year's University graduates, left Saturday for Hland, to take charge of the Hland public school.

Francisco Romero will have a hearing before Commissioner Bryan this afternoon on an application of certain parties to be relieved from her bond.

Yesterday the fair association paid out about $2,000, and today will probably wind up the business of the late exhibition. The expenses are about $10,000.

The members of the Irrigation Congress who went down to Phoenix, on an invitation from that city, returned last night, a few remaining over in Albuquerque and others continuing on to their respective homes.

Mrs. Lewis P. Krammel, of this city, yesterday had the body of her late husband interred in the cemetery, where it has lain for the past two years and a half, and forwarded the same to St. Louis for final interment.

In the contest for the naming of the public park the name Robinson was chosen by a large vote. This result should be highly appreciated by all of our citizens when it is known what a large interest is taken by D. B. Robinson in our city.

J. L. Stevens, a stranger in the city, who was apprehended in driving off the horse and buggy of Dr. McIntyre last Saturday night was this morning given thirty days in the county jail and $25 fine by Judge Crawford. It was all the result of a jug.

Fred. Porforn, mar-hat, returned from Las Cruces last night where he had been summoned before the grand jury. He says that Ben Williams is getting better and it is now expected that his arm will be saved. Joe Morgan is again out on the streets.

The oil paintings of Sister Ernestine, exhibited at the fair, call for more than a passing mention. Besides the fact that Sister Ernestine is a resident of this city, it is a pleasure to state that she received the first premium in the art department on the class of work done by her.

It has gone broadcast through this section of the county that the Sayre Bros., of Denver, had leased the stamp mill at Hland. This is not a fact. The mill is now laboring with several attachment suits on account of unpaid bills, and until these are settled nothing will be done.

Frank V. Barnes, of Bismarck, North Dakota, who was a delegate to the Irrigation Congress here and who afterward went to Phoenix, came back to Albuquerque last night on his return to his northern home. Mr. Barnes is greatly interested in Albuquerque and New Mexico.

A. M. Bailey, a well-known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhea, and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Thos. H. Burgess & Son.

George Smith, appointed receiver of the "C" cattle company's property in New Mexico, will leave for Solomonsville, Arizona, tonight, to qualify as receiver for the property in that territory. There are in all about 10,000 head of cattle. The owners and executors are fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Smith.

Did You Ever Fall Over a Precipice, Or hold up the Washington monument on the pit of your stomach—in a dream? Did you ever wake up in a cold sweat caused by some horrible phantasy? If so, the wisest thing you could have done to renew your slumber undisturbed by the nightmare would have been to take some Chamberlain's Stomach Remedy, which will have tranquilized you and relieved the indigestion, was, perhaps, the author of your hideous dream. Indigestion, nightmare, indigestion are easily remedied by the little. Resort to it also, if you are troubled with chills and fever, liver or kidney trouble, constipation, neuralgia or rheumatism. If you have lost your appetite don't go to the expense of advertising for it, but take the Bitters. Then will "good digestion wait on appetite, and health on both." Just before retiring is a very suitable time to swallow a wing-salad.

Some time ago Manuel D. Gonzales had Col. T. F. Moore, of Bernalillo, arrested, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. The colonel was discharged, and he immediately had Gonzales arrested on a charge of perjury. Late yesterday afternoon Justice Crawford held the evidence against Gonzales and found him over to appear before the grand jury under a bond of $200.

Park's Tea is a great blood purifier and cleanser. A pleasant herb drink which moves the bowels without pain, griping or discomfort. Sold by Dr. T. H. Burgess & Son.

THE WRIGHT LAW!

To Go to the U. S. Supreme Court at Once.

The Case will be Heard the 21st of Next Month.

A Matter of Great Importance to the Arid Sections

GOES UP ON ITS MERITS.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—A special from San Diego says the Wright irrigation law will go up on its merits to the supreme court of the United States and its constitutionality will be considered on all points. After Judge Ross's decision last week, a notice of appeal was at once given by the district attorney, and the judgment roll was forwarded to the supreme court. Word was received that the case would be heard October 21st, when the Modesto case, also involving the constitutionality of the Wright act, will also be heard.

Catholic Young Men's Union.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 21.—The twenty-first annual convention of the Catholic Young Men's National Union of America opened here today, with Rev. Mallick A. Cummins, of New York, presiding. The attendance of delegates is large, and includes a number of priests. The report of Secretary John J. Brady of Albany, N. Y., shows that thirty thousand Catholic young men are enrolled under the Union for mutual improvement. The convention will last two days.

THE LITTLE YACHTS.

Second Day of the Yacht Races at Ocean Bay.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 21.—A fresh wind is blowing from the northwest to day, and there is every probability that the little yachts Ethel Wynn and Spruce IV will have all the breeze they want. The course today will be a triangular one of two miles on each leg, and will be sailed over twice, making twelve miles. It is just the kind of a day that J. Arthur Bruce, the Englishman who owns and sails the Spruce, has been wishing for. Start was made at 1 p. m. with a fair breeze.

Ethel Wynn turned the first mark at 1:43:00 unaided time. The Spruce did not get around until 1:43:50. When she got well straightened out for the second leg Ethel Wynn was over a quarter of a mile ahead. At the second mark Ethel Wynn was only 1:20 ahead.

FOR HILLMAN.

The New Movement Launched With Great Enthusiasm To-Day.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—In the great gathering of men of Irish blood, from every quarter of the United States, preliminary steps were taken for a fresh worldwide effort of the race in behalf of the motherland.

The return to what they termed first principles seemed to be the idea paramount in the delegates.

The chief definite purposes of the convention were the formation of a new national organization, to be made international if practicable, and action in behalf of Irish political prisoners still in British jails.

The convention was called to order by John J. Keating, state president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Illinois. He introduced as temporary chairman, ex-congressman John E. Finerty, of Chicago, who was given a rousing reception.

Thrown from a Cart and Killed.

Topoka, Sept. 21.—A special to the State Journal from Iowa, Kan., says: Col. W. C. Jones, ex-United States marshal, and for many years chairman of the democratic state central committee, was thrown from a cart this morning by a runaway horse and killed.

Chicago Stock Market.

Chicago, Sept. 21. Cattle receipts, 5,000; market slow, most graded 5c to 10c lower. Hogs, $10.40; 50; cows and heifers, $12.00; 45; stockers and feeders, $2.00; 40; sheep receipts, 11,000. Market slow and weak.

New Postmaster.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Rev. H. Guillou was today appointed postmaster at Losperance, San Miguel county, N. M., vice Jose M. Lopez, resigned.

The Catholic Banner.

When the Catholic banner closed last night the results brought a good deal of happiness to the hearts of those who had been instrumental in making it a success.

On Saturday last one Joe Sotio, living at Gallup, attempted to commit rape on two young girls. Their names could not be ascertained, but their ages are fixed by Sheriff Hubbell at 12 and 13 years. Sotio was immediately arrested, and he would have been lynched but for the prompt action of one man, Mr. Risler, the book-keeper for the Crescent Coal company, saw the danger and got Sotio on a train before the mob could reach him.

Sheriff Hubbell had been telegraphed regarding the matter, and at once took the proper steps to have Sotio in custody.

Next Notice.

Besides printing the best and most attractive daily paper in the southwest, Messrs. Hughes & McCreight, of THE CITIZEN, are royally entertaining the brethren visiting Albuquerque this week. They are headquarters, where, if you don't see what you want, you are expected to ask for it, possibly you may find it up stairs, and if it isn't on the table it may be under it.—Cerrillos Rustler.

A Success.

The territorial fair has been a success from start to finish. The New Mexican's congratulations to the citizens of Albuquerque.—Santa Fe New Mexican.
