TURMOIL IN TURKEY!

Reign of Terror Prevailing at Constantinople.

Prisoners Murdered, Riots, Mobs, Bludgeons and Butchery.

Earthquake Shocks Add to the Terror of the Unfortunate City.

FRENCH CONSUL MURDERED.

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—A third slight earthquake shock was experienced here yesterday. This, with the rioting and bloodshed, the imprisonment of about 100 Armenians, the killing of prisoners in red blood, and the presence of troops under arms at all points, is well calculated to excite even the most phlegmatic Turk.

The rioting and blood letting which began on Monday, as exclusively detailed in these dispatches, were renewed Tuesday evening, in spite of all precautions taken by the authorities, by the Mahomedan theological students, who chased and beat with bludgeons every Armenian they met.

Tuesday night a mob of Sofas and Turks attacked the house of a leading Armenian, Kassin, Pasha, killing several persons. This mob also sacked the cafe frequented by Armenians, and twenty of these unfortunate people were beaten to death with bludgeons.

Not a single policeman appeared, and no attempt was made to save the lives of the Armenians.

Naturally the Armenians put no faith in the assurances of protection from further violence at the hands of the Turkish rulers. Many of them sought refuge in their churches, where they were earnestly addressed by the clergy, who enjoined them to be calm and give the Turks no further pretext for attacking them.

The Armenian churches are now watched by the police, but the greatest measure prevails, and most of the other religious denominations express fear that the fanaticism of the Turks may extend to other directions.

The Armenians have the sympathy of foreigners here, but the fact that they are armed, in spite of their peaceful announcements, is condemned by their best friends, and lends color to the statement of Turkish officials, who claim that the Armenian agitators organized a revolt against the sultan's authority, and that the attempt to present a petition to the grand vizier on Monday, which led to the first rioting and bloodshed, was a mere pretext to serve as a signal for an Armenian outbreak.

On the other hand, partisans of the Armenians assert that the latter only armed themselves to defend their lives.

The authorities have stationed troops and police at every threatened point, and it is asserted this morning that there is no danger of further disturbances. This, however, is not generally believed.

The introduction of the religious element into the disturbances makes the situation more grave than it otherwise would have been, although the outward cause of the Armenian outbreak is said to be the long delay in the negotiations between the powers and the Porte on the questions of reform in Armenia, which has increased the despair of the Armenians.

Owing to the crucial situation here, the envoys of the powers met at the Austrian embassy to-day, and the German minister Lottely was ordered to remain at the disposal of the German embassy.

At least five Armenians were killed after they had been arrested on Monday, and this caused great indignation.

Regarding the death of the Turkish major, Servet Bey, witnesses affirm that the Armenians did not use revolvers, until he ordered the police to fire upon them.

When Servet Bey fell there was a frightful tumult and the police charged on the mob with revolvers and swords.

According to police reports only 20 persons were killed and 80 wounded on Monday, but it is generally believed that the number killed will reach at least 200.

News has been received from Damascus that the French consul at that place has been attacked by the mob, grossly insulted and pelted with mud. The French embassy complained to the Porte and demanded prompt redress.

After a few minutes spent in routine business, the association adjourned until this evening at 7:30.

The assessment of this county this year foots up $8,885,000, an increase of over $2,000,000 over last year.

BAR ASSOCIATION.

The Attorneys of New Mexico in Session in this City.

Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning, President John G. Fitch, of Socorro, called the Bar Association of New Mexico to order, in regular annual session, in Old Fellows' hall, on south Third street.

There were present from Santa Fe: Hon. T. B. Catron, delegate to congress; E. L. Bartlett, Max Frost, A. L. Morrison, Benj. M. Road, H. S. Chaney, E. A. Fiske, L. G. Road, C. A. Speis, George W. Knabel, J. P. Victory, W. M. Berger, H. D. Money, R. E. Twitcheil, J. H. Purdy.

From Las Cruces: S. B. Newcomb, John R. McEne, A. R. Fall.

From Socorro: A. A. Freeman, S. Alexander, W. S. Williams, G. F. Fitch.

From Las Vegas: M. Salazar, L. C. Fort.

From Albuquerque: N. C. Collier, N. B. Field, W. B. Childers, R. W. D. Bryan, H. L. Warren, W. D. Lee, F. W. Chaney, E. W. Dobson, T. A. Finley, T. N. Wilkerson, A. B. McMillan.

The following applicants for membership were then duly elected: W. H. H. Llewellyn, R. C. Gortner, E. L. Medler, G. W. Johnston, M. W. Wicks, F. G. Lester, S. B. Gillette, R. F. Adams.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were then read and referred to the finance committee.

The association then adjourned to 2:30 p. m.

At 2:30 the bar association met again with a stronger attendance than in the morning. The additional members present were: Karl A. Snyder, G. B. Johnston, R. E. Gortner, W. H. Llewellyn, M. W. Wicks, B. F. Adams, Felix Lester, B. S. Gillette and E. Medler.

Mr. Frank W. Cheney submitted a resolution postponing election of officers and the regular order of business to an adjourned meeting to be held at the court house at Santa Fe, October 28, 1895. This was unanimously carried. A poll of the forty-eight members present shows that thirty-seven would have voted for Hon. T. B. Catron for president; in addition to these were out of the eleven other members three who would vote either for Mr. Catron or not at all. This action of postponing the election was done by Mr. Catron's supporters, for no other motive than to preserve absolute good will and harmony in the association and to show that no ulterior motive was the basis of their support of Mr. Catron for president.

The three-fourths majority of the association favoring Mr. Catron desired to disannul all possible criticism and insinuations, that were being made by evil disposed persons and personal enemies of Mr. Catron's to the effect that the action of the bar association in case of Mr. Catron's election, was had in order to bolster up his case in the matter of the charges preferred against him by J. H. Crist and now pending before the supreme court of the territory. Not one of the supporters of Mr. Catron in the association believes a single charge or specification to be true. Hence this most unanimous action on their part.

After a few minutes spent in routine business, the association adjourned until this evening at 7:30.

GOING AND COMING.

Personal Paragraphs About Visitors and Home People.

From Thursday's Daily.

Mrs. W. J. Nelson, of Winslow, passed through the city this morning for the east.

Miss Bertha Bonfield, sister of Mrs. G. L. Brooks, left this morning for a visit to friends in Los Angeles.

G. L. Brooks, live stock agent for the Santa Fe and Atlantic & Pacific roads, left last night for Kansas City.

Mrs. R. S. Rodes, who has been quite ill since her return from California, is reported slowly improving.

Hon. Pedro Perea, the Bernadillo politician and a good one at that, is here to-day, hobnobbing with local and visiting attorneys.

E. K. Elder, of the Colorado Telegraph & Telephone company, and the general manager on Gold avenue, is at Las Vegas on business.

Conductor Underwood and wife, who were here on a visit of several days, stopping over on their return from the east, left last night for their home at Winslow.

Capt. Hauser, in the employ of the Lantry Bros., railroad contractors, being some work for the Atlantic & Pacific at Rio Puerco, was here last night, and continued on to Strong City, Kan.

J. P. Victory, attorney general for New Mexico, is in the city, arriving last night from Santa Fe. It is understood Mr. Victory would like to be the next president of the New Mexico bar association.

Gregory Page and wife, who passed through the city on the Sunday before the territorial fair, on a visit to eastern friends, were passengers on the No. 3 from the north last night, and continued on to their home at Chicago.

W. C. Montfort and wife, who returned to Gallup from the city a short time ago, write that they are enjoying good health. Mr. Montfort is employed by the Atlantic & Pacific at the coal-pit shops, and it is understood, intends to demobilizing on the side.

It is learned to-day that W. B. Hunter, lately connected with the Democrat, will for the time being, abandon his return to Chicago, and will make a trip to Flagstaff and from there visit the Grand Canyon of the Colorado on his bicycle wheel. Friends will accompany the gentleman.

John Moore, a popular Atlantic & Pacific employee at Williams, arrived this morning from the west on his way to New Castle, Ind., where he marries Miss Minnie Gortner Black on Tuesday evening, Oct. 8. During the absence of Mr. Moore, John Hitechek, of this city, regularly employed in the office of General Mechanic English, will fill the former's position at Williams.

Capt. A. W. Glasford, who attended the recent Irrigation Congress in this city, and was one of the orators of the occasion, passed through the city this morning on his way to Denver from a visit to the salt river valley and Phoenix, Arizona. The captain stated, at the depot this morning, that he was more than pleased with his visit to the south-west, and considered the future of Albuquerque from a commercial point of view, exceedingly bright.

On Its Way From Independence Hall to the Atlantic Exposition.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—The removal of the Liberty Bell from Independence Hall to the Pennsylvania railroad depot in west Philadelphia, en route to the Atlantic Exposition, was made the occasion this afternoon of a great demonstration of patriotism and of public reverence for the grand old relic of the American Revolution. At 2 o'clock the city troops, who had been designated as the special escort of the bell, together with the members of select and common councils, assembled at Independence Hall, and thence informally proceeded with the bell to Broad street and Columbia avenue, where the parade was in process of formation. At 3 o'clock, under command of Chief Marshal J. Lewis Good, the parade moved down Broad street and thence through the principal thoroughfares west to the station. In time were the First city troops of the Philadelphia city cavalry, commanded by General E. Bird, ten companies of the second regiment National guard, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Henry M. Debert, four companies of the "Invincibles," with band drum corps, commanded by Captain Stevens, four companies of the infantry battalion of St. Francis industrial school at Edlington, Pa., with a band of thirty-two pieces, commanded by Captain C. A. McGinnis, company E, of the Hibernian Rifles, commanded by Captain Patrick Brady, the Grand college cadets, under Lieutenant C. E. Brooks, the Boy Brigade of the Presbyterian church, commanded by Major W. R. Scott, a number of the civic organizations, and delegates from the public schools. The bell, which was borne upon a truck, was surrounded by loose flowers and floral designs. The streets along the route were crowded with people, who cheered as the bell passed along. The departure for Atlanta will be made at 5 o'clock to-morrow morning.

A Day of Prayer.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 3.—Throughout the United States the members of the various local and district organizations of the Women's National Christian Temperance union will observe today as a season of prayer for the success of the annual national convention to be held in Baltimore three weeks hence. A national proclamation for the observance has been issued by Elizabeth W. Greenwood, of Brooklyn, the world's and national superintendent of evangelistic work. It provides for a service of praise, prayer and consecration, commencing at 11 o'clock and continuing with short intervals for rest to 1 p. m., and closing with church prayer meetings under the auspices of the local unions at night. The responses to the proclamation, which have been received indicate that the service will be general throughout the country.

AT MINNEAPOLIS.

Proceedings of the Triennial Episcopal Convention.

Minneapolis, Oct. 3.—The prelates, priests and lay delegates composing the triennial convention of the Episcopal church, got down to business this morning, and daily for the next three weeks, with the exception of the sabbaths, and one day upon which an excursion to Faribault has been arranged, the house of bishops as well as the house of deputies will hold two sessions. The house of bishops organized this morning in the assembly hall, adopting resolutions, electing officers, and holding a service of prayer. The bishops meet in secret, the public and press being strictly excluded, an abstract of the proceedings being furnished for publication by the secretary of the body. The sessions of the house of deputies, however, are open to the public so far as the capacity of the church will admit. The one uppermost topic among the deputies is the report of the committee on revision, and the main points of which have already been published. If the Spanish of some of the most prominent delegates, including two members of the revision committee, is to be accepted as an index of the temper of the delegates, the report will be received with a cold reception until the next triennial convention.
