3000 FOR W. C. McDONALD Remainder Democratic State Ticket Probably Elected.

Practically complete returns from every county in the state up to noon Saturday (the News waiting 24 hours for late reports) show W. C. McDonald, democrat, for governor to have a majority of 3,323 over H. O. Bursum, his republican opponent. The remainder of the democratic state ticket is somewhat behind the gubernatorial candidate, with the race for attorney general being very close. The legislature, which will elect two United States senators, appears to be republican on joint ballot. Many members of both house are elected by less than a dozen votes. The following table by counties is the latest revision:

Approximate Estimate by Counties in State.

The following table is based upon the returns received up to noon Friday:

In the house the republicans have elected at least 36 members, and the democrats 16, with three in doubt. The pluralities by counties on the gubernatorial candidate appears as follows:

KEEPING THE CEREAL FRESH

Try Putting Packages, Once Opened,
Above Kitchen Range or on the Radiator.

Autumn now finds us with no lack of variety in the matter of cereals that can be eaten without further cooking after they leave the factory, but they are alike in one detail, if in no other. The package once opened they quickly grow flabby and tasteless and tough, unless restored by careful drying in the oven for a few minutes. One way out there is. Keep your packages on the shelf above the kitchen range or on a radiator. The contents will remain crisp and delicious and be truly "ready to serve" without risk of that scorching in the oven which always happens when we forget for only a moment.

By the way, the sudden emergency that finds us looking for bread or cracker crumbs for dipping cutlets or croquettes, only to find the jar empty, will lose its sharpness if we have a box of crisp "flakes" of any sort. These, crumbled between the hands, make a most delicate substitute for bread or cracker crumbs, be the need one for coating food that is to be fried or for the top of scallops and pates. For the latter use don't forget to dot liberally with butter. They are especially tempting with creamed fish or sweetbreads when served in scallop shells.

If your supply of crumbs for dipping be limited, instead of putting them in a dish have them on a sheet of clean brown paper. Each time a chop or cutlet is laid on them to be coated the paper can be lifted at the sides and the crumbs tumbled toward the middle. Moreover, the use of paper for this purpose saves the washing of an extra dish. For flouring fish try the same labor saving device, dropping the paper in the fire when it has served its turn.

MAKING ART OF NECESSITY

"New Dish Every Day" Rule Made by Young Housewife, and Strictly Adhered to.

"A new dish every day" was the self-imposed rule of a young wife who found herself in possession of a cozy home and plenty of time. The odd part of the decision was that she never cooked before in her life, but the shining new kitchen was an inspiration she could not resist, much to the delight of her husband and friends. She purchased several of the best cook books on the market, preparatory to laying a scientific foundation for her culinary education. She studied ingredients and proportions, and she haunted newsstands for papers and magazines publishing recipes. In the end she developed into a real wizard of things culinary, and she formed a perfect passion for developing original dainties that would have sent the most blasé epicures into an ecstasy of enjoyment. She had discovered that possibilities of food combinations are practically inexhaustible, and so is still pursuing the rule of "something new every day," a rule entailing very little extra work and lots of enjoyment.

Egg Plant Fritters.

Peel the egg plant and cut it into dice. Drop into boiling water to which has been added a teaspoonful of lemon juice; boil until tender, drain and mash. To each pint of pulp allow one-half a cupful of flour, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of pepper, one-half of a teaspoonful of salt and two well-beaten eggs. Form into small cakes and fry brown on both sides.

Old-Fashioned Milk Toast.

To one pint of scalded milk add two tablespoons of flour mixed smooth with cold water; stir until thick and add salt and two tablespoons of butter cut in small pieces. Cover toast with sauce and keep warm until soft.

WEAK, ILL AND MISERABLE.

How many people suffer from back-ache, headache and dizziness without realizing the cause? These symptoms of kidney trouble are too serious to neglect.

James C. Hardin, Weatherford, Texas, says: "My feet and limbs became numb and I had terrible pains through the small of my back. Kidney secretions caused untold annoyance by their frequency in passage and I began to think there was no hope for me. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I have not had the slightest trouble since."

A REMARKABLE CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA

Munyon's Stomach Treatment
Performing Miracles.

MUNYON TELLS YOU
HOW TO GET WELL
FREE OF CHARGE

"A few days ago I received a letter from a young man, who states he is 25 years of age, and has occupied several important positions, but owing to indigestion and inability to sleep he has been unable to concentrate his mind upon his work and has consequently been discharged on the ground of neglect of duty. He goes on to say that he is a young man of steady habits, but for years he has suffered from dyspepsia, which has so affected his nerves that he is unable to sleep, and that it is not neglect upon his part, nor lack of interest in the business, but simply physical weakness. He asks my advice in this matter.

"For the benefit of a large number of those similarly situated, I propose to answer this letter publicly, hoping that it may be the means of helping many who may be affected in this way.

"In the first place, the stomach must be made well before the nerves can be made strong. The nerves must be made strong before one can sleep well. No one is capable of doing his best who is in any way troubled with insomnia or any form of nervousness. The greatest generals have been men of iron nerve and indomitable will. They have had perfect digestion, being able to eat well, and digest all they ate.

"It is said that Napoleon lost the battle of Waterloo because of a fit of indigestion. Grant's enormous reserve power was due to a well stomach. Abraham Lincoln said that 'he did not know that he had a stomach.' Grover Cleveland, it is said, could work 15 hours a day, eat a hearty meal at 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning, go to bed and sleep soundly until 9 o'clock and get up refreshed, ready for a new day's work.

"Pres. Taft is another type of healthy manhood. Who thinks for one moment that he would be the President of the United States today had he been a dyspeptic or affected with some nervous ailment? I claim that two-thirds of all the failures in professional and business life are due to weak and deranged stomachs.

"No business house would care to employ a dyspeptic representative to sell goods for them on the road. One-half the men who stand behind counters today, earning from $12 to $15 a week, will never get beyond these figures, for the reason that they are physically weak. They lack the nerve power and commanding strength that come from a good, sound stomach.

"No one cares to hear a dyspeptic preacher. No matter how pious he may be, he is bound to reflect his bilious and jaundiced condition. He will unconsciously inoculate his hearers with his melancholy feelings.

"No one would think of entrusting an important legal case in the hands of a dyspeptic lawyer, any more than he would care to entrust his own life, or that of a dear one, in the hands of a physician who is nervous, irritable or a dyspeptic. Men must have good digestion, strong nerves and vital manhood in order to render a clear, clear-cut decision either in medicine, law or business.

"I believe that more than half of the divorces can be traced to ill health. I want every dyspeptic to try my stomach treatment, for it corrects nearly all forms of indigestion and nervousness. It makes old stomachs almost as good as new. Its marvelous power for digesting food and getting the best out of it makes for good rich, red blood. This, in turn, strengthens the nerves, builds up the general system, and will surely prolong life and make it a pleasure to live and do the things allotted to us."

What a Husband Replied.

Among the bargains to be found these days are women's hats, and a fashionable young Philadelphia wife, who has all the hats she can wear without exciting suspicion, could not resist the temptation to add "just one more" to the collection. When she reached home, she produced it for hubby's admiration.

"Howard, it's a poem!" she said.

"Yes, but it doesn't rhyme well with my pocketbook at this time," he commented.

USE MACHINE FOR DARNING

Work Can Be Done More Quickly and Easily Than in the Old-Fashioned Manner.

The darning and mending of bed and table linen, towels, etc., can easily be done on a sewing machine. Several sewing machines have a special attachment to be used for this purpose, but the work can be done without it. When using the machine to darn your linen the edges of the hole should not be trimmed, as the stitching weaves over and under the ragged edges. An embroidery hoop is useful in doing this work, as it spreads the material smoothly and keeps the threads from drawing up and puckering. The cloth should be placed over the hoop wrong side out and the ring turned over when working, so that the material will lie flat under the machine foot and the right side be seen.

A small needle and fine cotton should be used and the tension of the upper and shuttle thread made loose and the stitch made as long as possible. The presser foot should not be lowered, so that the work can be done back and forth without turning the hoop at each row. Starting parallel with the thread of the linen, a row of stitching is made along the edge of the hole of the opposite side, then back to the starting place, sewing across the hole, just as if the material were there. A small space should be left between rows. After the lengthwise rows are finished, the ring should be turned and the crosswise rows put in, running back and forth, so as to have an irregular outline around the edges and bringing the rows of stitching close together.

If the hole is too large to be covered with machine stitching, a piece cut from an old napkin may be used to mend the cloth. The table cloth is put over the hoop in the same way as it would if the cloth were to be darned with stitching, then the piece, which should be cut larger than the hole, is basted on the wrong side of the material over the hole, without turning in the edges. The stitching is done back and forth over the raw edges.

Fried Rye Muffins.

Three-quarters cup rye meal, three-quarters cup flour, one-half teaspoon soda (mashed fine), one teaspoon cream of tartar, one tablespoon sugar, salt, one egg, one-half cup milk. Mix the dry ingredients thoroughly, beat the egg, add the milk, stir into the dry mixture. Drop by tablespoon into deep hot fat and fry until they will not stick when tried with a fork.

Radish and Olive Salad.

Slice the radishes on a fluted vegetable slicer and cut the olives in strips. Mix, add a French dressing made with four tablespoonfuls of olive oil, a half teaspoonful of vinegar, and garnish with lettuce, cress or the radish crowns.

Never wrap steel or silver in a woolen cloth. Use softest tissue paper.

Peel onions from the root upward and they will not make your eyes smart.

Save cold tea left from supper and use in place of water on your house plants.

Starch should be mixed with soapy water, for thus the linen will have a more glossy appearance and be less likely to stick to the iron.

Marks of matches on white paint will be found removable if the marks are rubbed with half a lemon and then washed with whiting, after which they should be rubbed well and dried thoroughly.

TOO MUCH FOR SMALL BRAIN

Big Word Meant an Effort, but This Little Girl Made Brave Attempt.

This incident occurred just after a Jewish holiday. It was in a third grade school in Cleveland in a district of Russian and Hungarian Jews.

The teacher was explaining the meaning of the word judicious. She asked the children to give her stories about the word.

After several had given illustrations about the judicious use of money, the teacher said:

"Now give me a story about something judicious without money in it."

A little girl finally volunteered. She said:

"On our holiday we had roast goose and a whole lot of other Jew dishes."

Lesson in Good Manners.

When the "Boy Scouts" movement was at its height, three of the youngsters journeyed from Baltimore to Washington to be introduced to the president. When Mr. Taft shook hands with them, one of the little fellows stuck out his left hand.

"Why do you give me your left hand?" asked the president.

"That's the way us Boy Scouts shake hands," said the boy, with pride.

"Well," commented Mr. Taft dryly, "the sooner us Boy Scouts learn better the nicer us Boy Scouts will be."—The Twice-a-Month Popular Magazine.

"And until now I have never been obliged to refuse you."

NEW MEXICO ELECTION.

The early returns, reinforced by still later confirmatory returns, show McDonald elected governor of New Mexico by between 4,000 and 5,000, and that the remainder of the democratic-progressive republican state ticket, including the congressmen, is also elected. The legislature is close and it will require the official count to settle the question. Taken all in all it was a grand triumph for progressive principles and a stinging rebuke to gang rule, and such a victory was made possible by the independent republicans who refused to be bound, gagged and delivered by the bosses.

Naturally, with this magnificent victory, there are some sore spats, but the bitter must be accepted with the sweet. In this county some of our noblest men went down to defeat, and in addition we also regret the defeat of that noble gentleman, sterling citizen and excellent lawyer, Judge Hewitt, of White Oaks, whose defeat seems quite certain, notwithstanding he received a handsome majority in his home county and that of Otero. It may require the official count to determine the judicial result, but Judge Hewitt's friends—and they include all parties—believe he is defeated by a small majority.

The full and complete returns—as near as they could be ascertained—of Lincoln county are given on another page, but the official count is to be made by the territorial secretary, and will not be announced for several days. In that table it will be seen that Melvin Franks and W. M. Ferguson, for commissioners from the 2d and 3d districts, democrats, are elected easily, while Porfirio Chavez, democratic candidate for sheriff, although opposed by a republican, a socialist and an independent, has been elected by a plurality of over 200. A. H. Norton, the democratic candidate for probate judge, is shown, by the unofficial returns, to have lost to his opponent, Doroteo Lucero, by 4 votes. Other county candidates on the republican ticket appear to be elected from 11 to 75 majority. The victory was grand and inspiring, but lacked the local heaven to make it altogether joyous.

JNO. A. HALEY, Editor

To the Socialists of Lincoln County.

Dear Comrades—The people of New Mexico have just passed through a hard-fought battle. The fight was mostly between the republican and democratic parties. While it is true that the Socialist party had a ticket in the field, I am sure that not more than not more than one-fourth of the Socialist vote was polled in this county. Many of the comrades, like myself, have lived in the territory for many years, and were fully aware of the sad state of affairs existing in New Mexico, and I feel sure that fully three-fourths of the Socialist voters, like the writer, were so anxious to see the old political ring at Santa Fe put down and out that we joined in the fray for this once to try and get a better state of affairs than we have had for a long time.

What I desire to say further to the comrades is this: There are many more Socialists in Lincoln county than the public is aware of, and I would be glad to see them get together all over the county and organize thoroughly. and I assure you that if we go at it as we should, we will certainly elect some of the county officers at the next general election.

It is surprising the number of near Socialists the writer has met during the late struggle between the two old parties. Wendell Phillips said, "Give me fifty thousand men in earnest, who can agree on some vital question, and who will plant their shoulders and swear by all that is true and just that for three years they will put their great ideas before the country, and these fifty thousand men will govern the nation." Bear in mind, his statement that fifty thousand earnest people in three years time can educate and educate and govern the nation.

The Socialists in the United States have fully five hundred thousand earnest, loyal, determined workers, who are working in and out of season, year in and year out, for the common cause of humanity—Socialism.

Your comrade,
Carrizozo, ED. R. KELLEY.

CARRIZOZO NEWS

CARRIZOZO • NEW MEXICO

TUBERCULOSIS TO DISAPPEAR.

Tuberculosis is diminishing in amount the world over, and it is predicted that in 25 or 30 years it will have quite disappeared. The decrease or diminution is different in different countries, plainly indicating that the decrease is one of habit and life. The reduction of the malady is one of the strongest supports of the sentiment of optimism, for it indicates the increase of cleaner and nobler living. The personal habit in respect to sobriety, purity, courage, integrity, unselfishness is hurting tuberculosis and all other maladies everywhere. As the world advances in virtue and honor, its distempers begin to grow less. This doctrine was announced by John Burns, the labor leader in parliament, and if his philosophy and fact agree, we all have reason to rejoice. There is to be another consideration added to this, which is, that the same improved living that reduces tuberculosis will reduce our social and political maladies as well. If bad habits make disease, they also make bad thoughts. We are so accustomed in all these things, to hitch the cart before the horse, that we insist on improving our institutions without uplifting private life and habit.

While a rather low percentage of hits was attained with the 14-inch gun, which is to be the offensive weapon of the new battleships, New York and Texas, it is claimed that one well-placed shot from this terribly powerful piece of ordnance will fatally disable or destroy any fighting ship now afloat. And the effective range of the gun is nine miles. A battleship thus armed would put its antagonist out of action before it got in range of the other battery. Why, then, are the naval constructors thinking of placing larger guns on future American battleships? The 14-inch gun is superior to any now mounted in any of the navies of the world, and one should imagine that the best would be good enough.

Nobody wants to stop cold storage. That has come to stay, and, fairly conducted, it is a benefit to the public. Nobody wants to prevent cold storage from affording reasonable returns to those who carry it on. Unless there is money in a business no one will want to follow it. There are two objections to the manner in which the cold storage business is operating in the United States at the present time. One is that it is creating artificial scarcity and exacting unreasonable profits. The other is that it is ignoring the hygienic welfare of the consumers. Cold storage will continue, but its abuses must be stopped.

There are always consolations in any misfortune. One Frenchman tries to assuage the grief of his afflicted nation by remarking that Mona Lisa's smile is nothing more than a consumptive grimace. Moreover, it is the secret opinion locked in many other breasts that the famous picture lady would never be a winner in an up-to-date beauty show.

An aviator in Illinois broke another record by taking his mother with him on an air ride 2,500 feet high. But then it is no unusual thing for young men to have their mothers "up in the air."

ECONOMY IN COOKING

PROPER USE OF THE LEFTOVERS MEANS MUCH.

Really There Should Be Little or No Waste in the Well-Conducted Kitchen—Some Ideas of Worth.

It takes thought as well as time to handle leftovers to the best advantage, but nothing proves more tempting than a savory rechauffe, says Fannie Merritt Farmer in the Woman's Home Companion. The prudent use of leftovers involves a considerable saving, and if the housewife is careful there is little need of waste.

Cold Roast Beef.—Try slicing it very thin and arrange the slices overlapping one another on a platter. Pour over a French dressing, to which has been added a little chopped green pepper; then surround with crisp lettuce leaves and garnish with parsley, stoned olives and curled celery. Curled celery makes a most attractive garnish to many dishes. Cut thick stalks of celery in three-inch pieces. With a sharp knife, beginning at outside of stalks, make five cuts parallel to each other, extending one-third the length of pieces. Make six cuts at right angles to cuts already made. Treat other ends in the same manner. Put pieces in ice water and let stand for an hour or more, when celery will curl back and be very crisp.

Beef Casserole.—Cut roast beef or cold broiled steak in one-inch cubes. Put two cupfuls in a casserole dish and add one cupful of brown gravy or sauce, one-fourth cupful of celery, cut in small pieces, one-third cupful of carrots, cut in small cubes, one-half cupful, thinly sliced, one-half cupful of canned tomatoes, one-half teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, and salt and pepper to taste. Cover and cook in a slow oven one hour. Add one half cupful of canned peas and two-thirds cupful of one-half-inch potato cubes, which have been parboiled in boiling salted water, to cover five minutes. Again cover and cook 30 minutes, or until potatoes are soft. Send to table in casserole dish.

For Savory Fish.—Separate cold, cooked fish into flakes; there should be one cupful. Cut a two-inch cube of fat salt pork in very small cubes, try out and drain. To two tablespoonfuls of the fat add two tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until well blended; then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, one cupful of rich milk. Bring to the boiling point and add fish, two egg yolks, slightly beaten, pork scraps and 1½ cupfuls of hot boiled potato cubes. Season, and serve very hot.

Baked-Bean Soup.—Put three cupfuls of cold baked beans, three pints of cold water, two slices of onion and two stalks of celery, cut in pieces, in a saucepan. Bring to the boiling point and let simmer 30 minutes; then rub through a sieve. Add 1½ cupfuls of stewed and strained tomatoes, and one tablespoonful of chili sauce. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, and two tablespoonfuls of flour, and stir until well blended, then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, the hot liquid. Bring to the boiling point, season and serve.

Salad Pyramids.

About one pound of cold new potatoes, one pound cooked beef, one cucumber, a little grated horseradish and some salad dressing. With a round cutter cut out equal-sized rounds of the potato, beet and cucumber, the slices to be about one-eighth of an inch thick. Arrange these in alternative layers in mounds or pyramids; the top layer should be rather smaller rounds. Put a heap of very finely chopped grated horseradish on the top of each. Arrange the pyramids in a bowl and pour the salad dressing round.

HEALTH AS AN INVESTMENT

Fraternal Orders, Labor Unions and Insurance Companies Erect Tuberculosis Sanitoria.

As an investment in the health of their members, four large fraternal orders, two international labor unions and one of the largest insurance companies in the United States have established sanitoria for the treatment of tuberculosis, according to a statement issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The Royal League, the first fraternal order to establish a sanatorium, conducts a hospital for its tuberculosis members at Black Mountain. The Modern Woodmen of America conduct one at Colorado Springs; the Workmen's Circle, one at Liberty, N. Y., and the Independent Order of Foresters have one at Rainbow Lake, N. Y., and will soon open a second one at San Francisco, Cal. The International Typographical union has since 1898 conducted a sanatorium at Colorado Springs, and the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of America has recently opened a new institution at Rogersville, Tenn. A leading life insurance company is now erecting a sanatorium at Mt. McGregor, N. Y., which will be the first of its kind established by an "old line" insurance company.

Lawn Economics.

"I note," says the sage, "that you allow a sprinkler to spray water upon your lawn almost continuously."

"Yes," said the native. "We do that to make the grass grow."

"But the other day I saw a man pushing a clicker contrivance over the lawn, and—"

"Oh, yes; that was a lawn mower."

"And what is its purpose?"

"Why, it cuts the grass."

"Then why do you put water on it to make it grow if you simply cut it down as fast as it comes up?"—Judge.

SOUND SLEEP Can Easily Be Secured.

"Up to 2 years ago," a woman writes, "I was in the habit of using both tea and coffee regularly."

"I found that my health was beginning to fail, strange nervous attacks would come suddenly upon me, making me tremble so excessively that I could not do my work while they lasted; my sleep left me and I passed long nights in restless discomfort. I was filled with a nervous dread as to the future."

"A friend suggested that possibly tea and coffee were to blame, and I decided to give them up, and in casting about for a hot table beverage, which I felt was an absolute necessity, I was led by good fortune to try Postum."

"For more than a year I have used it three times a day and expect, so much good has it done me, to continue its use during the rest of my life."

"Soon after beginning the use of Postum, I found, to my surprise, that, instead of tossing on a sleepless bed through the long, dreary night, I dropped into a sound, dreamless sleep the moment my head touched the pillow."

"Then I suddenly realized that all my nervousness had left me, and my appetite, which had fallen off before, had all at once been restored so that I ate my food with a keen relish."

"All the nervous dread has gone. I walk a mile and a half each way to my work every day and enjoy it. I find an interest in everything that goes on about me that makes life a pleasure. All this I owe to leaving off tea and coffee and the use of Postum, for I have taken no medicine." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Right.

She—Mr. Jones is a fine man; one of the few, in fact, that stand for real progress. He says he likes to see two trees where one used to be.

He—He certainly lives up to that, and more, too. When I took him home last night he was seeing six or seven where one used to be!

What the Senator Hit.

A dignified senator decided to follow the prevailing Washington fashion and learn golf. It was a distressing time for the caddy. Striking too low with his iron, the great man made the dirt fly.

"What have I hit?"

Kith infinite scorn the boy replied, "De District of Columbia."

No Wine Christening.

Redd—Do you believe in this custom of breaking a bottle of champagne over the bow of a new ship? Greene—I certainly do. It brings good luck to the ship.

Redd—Well, I know of one vessel where they never broke any wine over her bow and she made a very successful voyage.

Greene—Name the vessel, please.

Redd—The Ark!—Yonkers Statesman.

FEEDING THE INVALID

MATTER OF MUCH IMPORTANCE
IN THE SICK ROOM.

Too Frequently Insufficient Attention
Is Paid to This by the Nurse—
Serve Food in the Daintiest Style.

Few things are more difficult than to get a sick person to take nourishing food, and no task, as a rule, is worse managed. Amateur nurses may be successful in other matters, but they generally make a failure of the food proposition.

The nurse is usually to blame when the patient will not take enough food. She will bring a huge plateful of jelly or a big basinful of beef tea to him, and he will reject it with disgust, because the sight of so much food is distasteful. If she brought a few spoonfuls at a time and served them faintly he would be glad to eat.

Give little food at a time, and give it often. That which is eaten willingly and with relish is far better than double the amount swallowed with disgust.

If a time is fixed for the patient's meals, always be punctual. If kept waiting, most sick people lose their desire to eat and will reject the food when it is brought to them.

Be careful never to have food in the sick room in the hope that the patient may eat it presently. This will prevent him from taking any food at all.

Never take a large quantity of anything at one time, thinking that because the patient had liked it before he will like it again. In nine cases out of ten a sick person's appetite is capricious. His food, therefore, should be varied as much as possible.

Don't rely too much on beef tea. It is a useful stimulant, but it is not really nourishing, as most people suppose it to be.

Be particularly careful to serve everything in the daintiest style. Glass should be bright, silver burnished, napkins lily white and saucers free from spots. These little details will make all the difference in the patient's appetite.

Always make sure that the patient is placed in a comfortable position to eat and drink and be careful that no crumbs are left in the bed.

The practice of putting dishes in the oven to warm them for the table is a bad one. The dry heat causes the enamel to crack in time and then the grease soon penetrates them, to their utter ruin. Put the dishes to be heated in a dishpan and pour boiling water over them. Let them stand and steam until ready to serve the meal, then wipe with a clean, dry towel.

Rabbit Salmi.

Place two rabbits in a baking pan, add one slice of onion, one stalk of celery chopped fine and one bay leaf; brush the game with melted butter, then cook for thirty minutes. Lift the meat from the pan; add to the pan two tablespoons of butter and the same of flour and brown until dark; add one cup sherry and one cup hot water, stir well, and when smooth add one teaspoon salt, one tablespoon Worcester sauce, one tablespoon of capers and twelve olives. Lay the rabbits again in the pan, cover closely and simmer for thirty minutes. Dish the game, arrange the olives for a garnish, strain the sauce over the meat, sprinkle on finely chopped parsley and serve. (Rabbits should be cut as for fricassee.)

Cover for Ironing Board.

Instead of using a sheet on the ironing board, make a fitted slip of unbleached muslin or of the material used for flour sacks. Leave the slip open at each end and have it large enough to be easily drawn on or off.—Housekeeper.

PUTTING IT UP TO CENTRAL

All Caller Wanted Was Mrs. Smith's
Number, and Surely That Was Easy to Get.

"Halloa, there, central! Is this central? It is? I thought it was, but I couldn't quite be sure. The other day I supposed I was talking to central, and here it was only my grocer. I do think there are some queer mixups in this telephone service. What I want now is to find out the telephone number of Mrs. John Smith—S-m-i-t-h, Smith. I find that there are more than 100 persons of that name in the book, and I don't know which one is the husband of the lady I want. She is a large lady with a florid face and prematurely white hair, and I think her husband is a travelling man, and a brother-in-law of hers, named Jones, lives somewhere on M street—a stoutish, elderly gentleman with side whiskers. Kindly let me have Mrs. Smith's number at once. I had it on a slip of paper that I can't find. Seems to me it was two-four-sixteen ring three, or none-two-sixty-four ring two. You know how confusing telephone numbers are. Let me have Mrs. Smith's number right away, please."

"ECZEMA ITCHED SO BADLY I COULDN'T STAND IT."

"I suffered with eczema on my neck for about six months, beginning by little pimples breaking out. I kept scratching till the blood came. It kept getting worse, I couldn't sleep nights any more. It kept itching for about a month, then I went to a doctor and got some liquid to take. It seemed as if I was going to get better. The itching stopped for about three days, but when it started again, was even worse than before. The eczema itched so badly I couldn't stand it any more.

"I went to a doctor and he gave me some medicine, but didn't do any good. We have been having Cuticura Remedies in the house, so I decided to try them. I had been using Cuticura Soap, so I got me a box of Cuticura Ointment, and washed off the affected part with Cuticura Soap three times a day, and then put the Cuticura Ointment on. The first day I put it on, it relieved me of itching so I could sleep all that night. It took about a week, then I could see the scab come off. I kept the treatment up for three weeks, and my eczema was cured.

"My brother got his face burned with gun-powder, and he used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The people all thought he would have scars, but you can't see that he ever had his face burned. It was simply awful to look at before the Cuticura Remedies (Soap and Ointment) cured it." (Signed) Miss Elizabeth Gehrk, Forrest City, Ark., Oct. 16, 1910. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 17 L, Boston.

The Moderation of Jael.

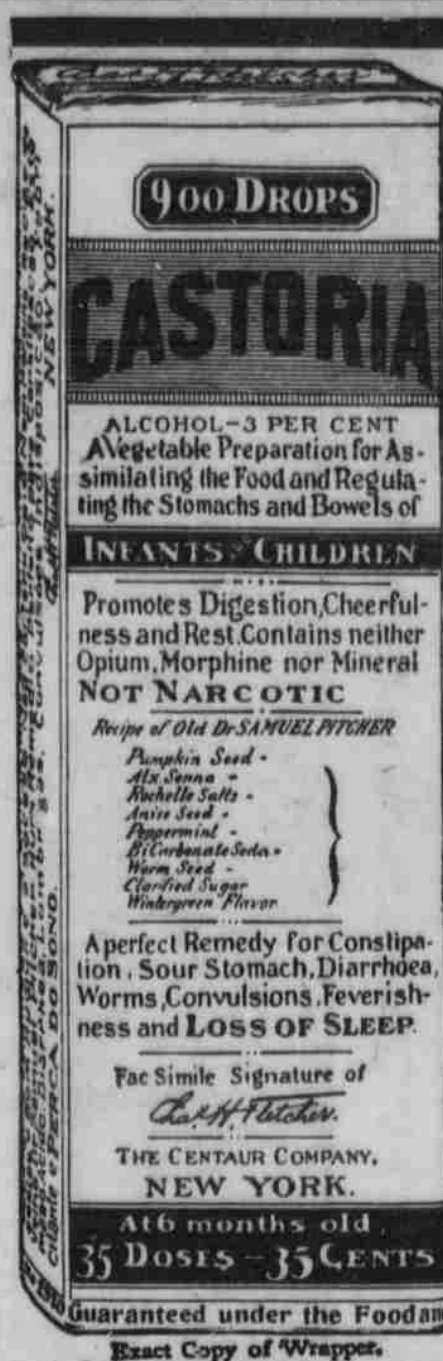

Jael justified herself. "I only used the nail on my husband," she cried. "I didn't go around with a hairpin spiking Tom, Dick and Harry."
