Shooting Scrape in Arizona.

News came from Morristown, Arizona, Monday night of a desperate battle there on the 8th, in which some old friends and former citizens of Lincoln county were participants. The information came in the form of a letter from Guy H. Herbert to Wm. S. Bourne, and, while lacking in some details, enough was said to show the gravity of the situation.

The statement was made that Victor Thyler, a man who was here the past summer and became the owner of the Burrell House, was killed and Ernest Burrell was in the hospital with three bullet wounds in his body, and that he was in a precarious condition. J. B. Burrell and Arthur Burrell, respectively father and brother of the wounded man, were arrested as accomplices, but the letter stated they would have no difficulty in being released.

The cause of the difficulty and the responsibility for it were not stated in the letter. All the persons involved were interested in a mine there, and the supposition here is that the trouble grew out of the mining operations. The Burrells left this county during the past year; they were among our best citizens and have many friends who sympathize with them in their trouble.

CARRIZOZO - NEW MEXICO

THE BRIDE'S TROUSSEAU.

And now it is the bride-elect's turn. The public has been very lenient with her, but will be so no more. The dressmakers are at the bottom of it, says the Boston Globe. They have put the stamp of their disapproval on all brides of plutocrats of the first-class who do not spend more than $1,000 on a trousseau. And a trousseau is what? It's French. It means a "bunch." It may be a bunch of keys, of asparagus, a kit of workman's tools, or a bunch of spinach. But to dressmakers it means a bunch of clothes—to wit, a bride's wedding outfit. The idea of a bride of a multi-millionaire spending only $1,000 on a bunch of garments, when her husband would give up more than that for automobile tires in one month! The seven tailors of Tooley street, London, got laughed at because they prepared a petition in which they memorialized parliament "in the name of the people of England." That was a joke. But it's no joke when you offend the dressmakers. Discretion bids all brides obey their decrees. To offend them is to bring down on your head imprecations of sartorial wrath. All other questions are cast into the shade by the anathemas of the modistes. A bride who should chew gum under the wedding bell might be forgiven; but to get married in only $1,000 worth of dry goods, that is too much. It is unforgivable.

A very interesting experiment has been undertaken by Australia and New Zealand—an experiment which is likely to attract attention from all parts of the world, and which very probably will be widely followed if it turns out successful, as in all human probability it will. All boys from their twelfth year are required to be enrolled for military drill and instruction. In New Zealand the enrollment became compulsory last July. There is to be no release except for physical disability. Australia is not yet so drastic as New Zealand, but if moral suasion fails to bring about a complete enrollment of Australian boys resort will be had to more compulsory expedients. There is a growing feeling in all Australasia that Great Britain, if help were needed to repel foreign invasion, could hardly be depended upon, at least at the outset. So Australasians are preparing to defend themselves in the contingency of invasion.

It is not a little astonishing to learn that Shakespearian plays have taken a firm hold on the Japanese. There have been many enthusiastic students of the plays in Japan, and a number of them have attempted adaptations into their own language and their presentation upon the Japanese stage. Quite singularly, "Timon" was the first play presented. Then came "Othello" and the "Merchant of Venice." The court scene in the latter was particularly popular. They are now hard at work on "Hamlet." They claim that the atmosphere of Shakespeare is more harmonious to the conditions at present in Japan than among the western people.

It is said that the mines in Pennsylvania coal mines are being cleaned by vacuum machines. Of course it would be useless to suggest that the miners be furnished with bathrooms. Mines cost money.

WITHOUT ONIONS OR SAGE

Something New in Combinations for Poultry Dressing—Summer Savory Is Preferred.

Into a colander break up about one quart bread crumbs, using bread that is a day or more old. Hold colander under faucet, let water run on crumbs just long enough to wet each little piece. Now shake water from colander, hang it up or place in another convenient dish to drip almost dry. Turn crumbs into mixing bowl and with large mixing spoon break each piece as small as possible. Season with salt, pepper, summer savory, tasting as each is added. Now get very small piece of salt pork, run it through the meat cutter or scrape with sharp edge of knife. Mix it well. Add now a well-beaten egg and a pinch of baking soda, and a finely-chopped onion may be added. Personally, I don't like onion in poultry dressing, neither do I like sage. Summer savory, to my mind, is preferable. I like cold water for wetting crumbs, as hot water has a tendency to make the dressing mushy; neither do I like mixing the dressing with the hands. I find the use of a large mixing spoon most satisfactory. Butter may be used in place of pork, but the pork gives a nice flavor or taste, and must be finely minced before adding. —Boston Globe.

Two measuring cups kept in the kitchen will save rinsing out one a great many times. Keep one cup for dry ingredients, the other for liquids. Have both the same size.

To take the leather stains out of light colored hose add a tablespoon of borax to the water in which they are washed. This quantity is sufficient for only one or two pair.

To keep the hands from getting black when peeling apples use a silver knife instead of a steel one. The acid of the fruit (acetic acid) acts on the iron in the steel, but does not affect the silver.

Different uses for small scrubbing brushes may be indicated by burning the name on the back, as "vegetables," "pans," "hands," etc. Then there will be no risk of using the wrong brush.

To remove whitewash from floors furniture and windows apply a small quantity of paraffin on a soft cloth. The stains will disappear completely and the paraffin does not injure the most delicate paint.

The Flavor of Corn.

Some cooks think that the flavor of corn on the cob is better preserved if it is boiled in its thin inner husks. The can be turned back to remove the silk and then pushed over the ears again. Tie with a string made from a husk and put them in cold salted water. Let it come to a boil gradually and boil for four or five minutes. Corn is injured by long boiling; the exact time usually depends on the corn. Country housekeepers who own vegetable gardens and can cook very tender young ears as soon as they are plucked, do not let them boil at all. They put them over the fire in cold water and take them up when the water has begun to break out in bubbles in the center of the pot. They are delicious.

Lobster a La Newberg.

One large lobster, one tablespoon butter, one gill of sherry, three eggs, half pint cream; take the nicest part of the lobster, cut in small slices, put in chafing dish with butter, season well with pepper and salt, a pinch of cayenne; pour the wine over it; cook ten minutes; add the beaten yolks of eggs and the cream; let all come to a boil and serve immediately.

DO YOU NEED A KIDNEY REMEDY?

Scared Out.

The guides had a pretty story to tell as often as they were asked why the cliffs gave back no sound.

A beautiful Echo (so the story ran) formerly dwelt in the valley, and had great fun mocking people who, chancing that way, in any manner broke the sylvan silence.

But once upon a time a party of smart women, prompted by the guides knew not what caprice, sat down in the immediate neighborhood to enjoy a game of progressive whist.

"Gee, I give it up!" cried the Echo thereupon, and in consternation fled the place, nevermore to return.—Puck.

Restored Courage.

The southern lover was impetuous, says the author of a recent book of reminiscences of eastern Virginia, entitled "Memory Day," and the maiden was timid and unused to passionate proposals of marriage. "Oh, don't!" she interrupted in a whisper. "You frighten me dreadfully."

Overcome by contrition, the young man humbly apologized for his fervor, and a painful silence ensued. The girl broke it at last.

"Robert," she began, with a hopeful smile. "I don't think—I shall—be so frightened this time."

RED.

It's the Red Blood Corpuscles That Proper Food Makes.

An Ohio woman says Grape-Nuts food gave her good red blood and restored the roses of youth to a complexion that had been muddy and blotchy. She says:

"For 10 years I had stomach trouble which produced a breaking out on my face. The doctors gave it a long Latin name, but their medicines failed to cure it. Along with this I had frequent headaches, nervousness and usually pain in my stomach after meals.

"I got disgusted with the drugs, stopped them and coffee off short, and quit eating everything but fruit and Grape-Nuts, with Postum for my table beverage.

"The headaches, stomach trouble, and nervous weakness disappeared almost like magic, which showed that when the cause was removed and good food and drink used nature was ready to help.

"My blood was purified and my complexion became like a young girl's, while my weight was increased from 90 to 120 pounds in a few months—good, solid firm flesh, where it used to be soft and flabby.

"I recommended Grape-Nuts and Postum to one of my friends, who was afflicted as I had been. She followed my advice and in a short time was restored to complete health and in about 8 months her weight increased from 100 to 148 pounds.

"Our doctor, observing the effect of Grape-Nuts and Postum in our cases, declared, the other day, that he would hereafter prescribe these food products for gastritis." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

IN HOSPITAL NINE MONTHS.

Awful Tale of Suffering From Kidney Trouble.

Alfred J. O'Brien, Second St., Sterling, Colo., says: "I was in the Baltimore Marine Hospital nine months. The urine was in a terrible state and some days I passed half a gallon of blood. They wanted to operate on me and I went to St. Joseph's Hospital at Omaha, putting in three months there without any gain. I was pretty well discouraged when advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so and when I had taken one box, the pain left me. I kept on and a perfect cure was the result."

Stops Lameness

Sloan's Liniment is a reliable remedy for any kind of horse lameness. Will kill the growth of spavin, curb or splint, absorb enlargements, and is excellent for sweeny, fistula and thrush.

Here's Proof.

"I used Sloan's Liniment on a mule for 'high lameness,' and cured her. I am never without a bottle of your liniment; have bought more of it than any other remedy for pains." BAILY KIRBY, Cassady, Ky.

"Sloan's Liniment is the best made. I have removed very large shoe boils off a horse with it. I have killed a quarter crack on a mare that was awfully bad. I have also healed raw, sore necks on three horses. I have healed grease heel on a mare that could hardly walk."

ANTHONY G. HYER, Oakland, Pa., Route No. 1.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is good for all farm stock.

"My hogs had hog cholera three days before we got your liniment, which I was advised to try. I have used it now for three days and my hogs are almost well. One hog died before I got the liniment, but I have not lost any since."

FOR AFTERNOON TEA SERVICE

Dainty Articles That Are Appropriate—Acceptable Wedding Gift for Summer Bride.

One of the newer forms for afternoon tea service is a squat cream jug and sugar bowl of rock crystal set in a silver frame with arched handle to make passing easy.

Another useful article is a cake lifter of silver. This is on the order of ice tongs, but the one prong is flat instead of forked.

A convenient tea strainer has a silver bowl and handle, and rests on a rock crystal, silver-rimmed dish to prevent dripping on the cloth.

For tea on the lawn the wicker tables on wheels are light and convenient. They are provided with double trays and can be filled and pushed to any part of the grounds.

Tea trays for porch service are of dark green wicker rims with base of cretonne or rare old brocade covered with glass. The handles on each end are substantial enough for hard use.

Long-handled iced teaspoons make an acceptable wedding gift for the summer bride, as they will be in constant use for lunch and afternoon tea. Those with hollowed tubes through which the tea can be slipped like a straw are more novel than practical, as they are open to suspicion from a sanitary standpoint.

FOR SUCCESS WITH POTATOES

Happy-Go-Lucky Cooking Will Not Do—Care in Preparation Is Well Repaid.

Soak old potatoes in water. Change the water while cooking. If strong.

Never allow potatoes to stand in the sun.

Always pour off the water as soon as done and remove the cover to allow the steam to escape.

Potatoes cooked in their jackets should be pierced to allow the steam to escape.

Baked potatoes should be rolled in a cloth till skins burst. This prevents the potatoes from cooking too long, which makes them sticky and soggy.

Potatoes should be simmered (not boiled). It is a waste of fuel and spoils the potatoes. Too rapid boiling makes them a solid paste which is both unpalatable and indigestible.

Cook potatoes with the skins on as often as possible. Potatoes are delicious cooked in their jackets, peeled and mashed.

Potatoes may be kept warm a long time without spoiling, if the skins are broken and the kettle well ventilated.

Kitchen Dresser.

If your kitchen table is spotted with grease, or if the dresser has dabs and spots of grease on it, you can clean the woodwork perfectly by scrubbing it vigorously with hot water to which a teaspoonful of whiting has been added.

Wipe thoroughly dry with a clean cloth and the wood will be as good as new.

When tables or dressers are covered with white oilcloth provide yourself with thick mats of cardboard or asbestos on which to set hot plates, for heat will surely ruin any oilcloth with which it comes directly in contact.

Haddock and Tomatoes.

One medium sized dried haddock, one ounce of butter, one onion, three large tomatoes, pepper. Remove all the flesh from the haddock, taking care to remove the bones also. Peel and slice the onion, thinly, and slice the tomatoes. Melt the butter in a saucepan, put in the onion, and fry it a pale brown, then add the sliced tomatoes and cook it slowly for 15 minutes. Now add the fish and pepper to taste. Stir the mixture over the fire for a few minutes, then pile it up in a hot dish, sprinkle over a little chopped parsley, and serve it very hot.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

The wonder of baking powders—Calumet. Wonderful in its raising powers—its uniformity, its never failing results, its purity.

Wonderful in its economy. It costs less than the high-price trust brands, but it is worth as much. It costs a trifle more than the cheap and big can kinds—it is worth more. But proves its real economy in the baking.

Use CALUMET—the Modern Baking Powder.

Democrats Sweep Arizona.

The expected happened--the democrats swept Arizona in Tuesday's battle of the ballots, winning every candidate on the state ticket, electing over three-fourths of the legislature, and, in addition, the advisory vote on United States senators gives that party two representatives in the upper house of congress. The majorities range from 1,000 to 3,500, out of a total vote of 26,000. The democrats secured a majority in ten of the thirteen counties. The amendment to the constitution, eliminating the recall, as a condition precedent to admission, was adopted by an overwhelming vote.

The victory was not only democratic, but it was progressive, a large number of republicans supporting the democratic candidates. The democratic platform and its candidates stood for progressive ideas, while the republicans were on the conservative order. The result was that, eliminating all personal equations, the progressive republicans in Arizona, like those in New Mexico, and throughout the country, voted their sentiments.

Canvass to be Completed Soon.

The canvass of the election, held on the 7th of November, has been slow and, in a measure, unproductive of information. There never was any doubt about the election of the governor and some of the other state officials, but the candidates for the supreme court are so near together that that contest has absorbed all attention. Fifteen counties had been canvassed by the board last night, the canvass by counties proceeding in alphabetical order, Rio Arriba being the fifteenth. The canvass on these offices in the fifteen counties show the following:

Hanna (progressive) 18385
Burkhart (democrat) 18310

Dunn (democrat) 18235
Roberts (republican) 15382
Parker (republican) 15362
Wright (republican) 15326

The other eleven counties gave republican majorities, and the unofficial figures from the eleven counties indicate the election of two republicans, Roberts and Parker, and the progressive, Hanna. In the fifteen counties the democrats have made gains, and the vote is so close that it is impossible to name the winners until the last county is completed.

At the Methodist Church.

The usual services Sunday School at 10 A.M. Preaching at 11 A.M. and at 7:30 in the evening. Don't forget that you are welcome to any and all of these services; not only welcome but wanted, not only wanted but needed: so come and contribute to the success of these services by your presence, and we trust you will not only find the time you spend in God's house pleasant but profitable. Last Sunday the attendance was good both morning and evening not withstanding the house was poorly heated, but now we have up another stove and with the two we hope to keep the house comfortable. Subjects of interest will be discussed at both hours for preaching. Remember we will have good fires, comfortable seats and fine singing. So come and be at home with us. After the benediction tell your friends you are glad to see them at church, shake hands with the preacher and go home feeling better than you have for a long time.

R. B. EVANS, Pastor.

The Little Minister.

Miss Hallie Gassoway presented "The Little Minister," a production by J. M. Barrie, here Tuesday night at the Methodist Church to well filled house. "The Little Minister," as interpreted by Miss Gassoway, was delightful and most entertaining. Her portrayal of Scotch character, in the expressive dialect of the Scotch, created many smiles. "Babbie" was a bewitching little thing, and the audience could easily see why "Gavin the minister, lost his heart to her. Miss Gassoway possesses rare ability as an entertainer, and the imitable manner she took off the Scotch made the evening a pleasant one.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.

The Home Mission Society.

The ladies of the Methodist church, the division known as the Home Mission Society, are preparing an entertainment, and it will be presented soon after the holidays. A drama in four acts will be the principal feature. In the cast of characters ten parts have been assigned, and their histrionic talent is well known to local patrons of the stage. The purpose of the entertainment is to raise funds to meet the obligations this society assumed in the building of the M. E. church. Further announcement will be made when the date has been definitely settled.

At the Baptist Church.

Preaching Sunday at 11 o'clock. Subject: "The Church, The Pillar and Ground of the Truth." At 7:30: Subject—"A Lost World, and Jesus Christ the only remedy.

Services every Lord's day.

Five Prisoners Break Jail.

The information reached here by phone Sunday morning that five prisoners had sawed out of the cells of the Lincoln jail, and had made thier escape. Miguel Luna, in prison for assault with intent to kill, and Frank Luciano, confined for horse stealing, Wm. Beal, deserter from the United States Army, Pedro Barcela and Jose Hernandez, both charged with burglary. Sheriff Stevens was absent at the time, chasing evildoers in the east end of the county, and the jailer, temporarily away. The bars were sawed and the five made their egress from the cells, and soon punched through the adobe wall of the jail building and were at liberty.

Luna and Williams are supposed to have gone toward Roswell, the other three, one of whom has since been captured, came in this direction.

New State Keeps Bureau Busy.

Albuquerque, New Mexico.

December 12, 1911.

One of the most beneficial results of the completion of the New Mexico state government in the way of publicity is indicated in the large number of requests now coming into the Bureau of Immigration offices here for data, photographs, etc., having to do with the natural resources and industrial development of the new state. These requests are coming from all parts of the United States, from newspapers, news syndicates, journalists and special writers, who have found opportunity for placing articles about the state. During the past week one of the largest of the Washington news syndicates, furnishing a daily letter to more than 60 of the largest newspapers in the eastern and southern states sent a member of its staff of special writers to New Mexico to prepare a series of five articles on the state. Each one of these articles will have an immediate circulation of more than two million, through the newspapers served by this syndicate, and each one will be extensively copied; thus forming an advertisement of the highest class, and one that is without countor cost to the state. The nature of the articles now being prepared is most satisfactory. They are to deal strictly with the resources and development of the state. Not a word will be said of the "sand and cactus" dope of other days. There will be no "bad man" stories.

The character of the articles to be sent out by this syndicate is typical of the data requested by other news sources throughout the country. It would appear from the number and nature of these requests that the day for featuring "The bad man with the gun" and the sand and sago brush, with New Mexico as the background, is about over, and that with the actual completion of statehood, New Mexico is to receive a large volume of the kind of advertising to which its resources entitle it. The most satisfactory indication, however, is that there is a popular demand for information about the new State, and that the kind of information wanted is along agricultural and industrial lines.

Some months ago the Bureau of Immigration sent to large numbers of the managers of the more important newspapers in the eastern states a request that more attention be given to the resources and opportunities in New Mexico; that the bad man cartoons be discarded and that the new state be given a square deal. The results of this request are beginning to appear. The summary of the last annual report of Governor Mills was printed by nearly all of the larger newspapers of the country and a number of them featured the report, giving it marked attention not only in the news, but in the editorial columns. Reliable information about New Mexico is in demand, indicating a general desire throughout the country to know about the New State.

Home Mission Christmas Sale.

The ladies of the Home Mission Society of the Methodist church will hold a Christmas sale of fancy articles on Monday, the 18th inst., at the grocery store of John E. Bell, beginning at 2 p. m.

All friends wishing to donate, who have not been solicited, are requested to send their offerings to the above-named store.

A grab bag for the children will be one of the attractive features of the afternoon. A full attendance is requested.

The Snow! The Snow!

A light snow fell Monday—2½ inches—and the weather since the fall has prevented its melting. Not a great deal of moisture was produced, but sufficient to be highly encouraging to the farmer and stockman.

Urgent Necessity.

A distinguished theologian was invited to make an address before a Sunday school. The divine spoke for over an hour and his remarks were of too deep a character for the average juvenile mind to comprehend. At the conclusion, the superintendent, according to custom, requested some one in the school to name an appropriate hymn to sing.

"Sing Revive Us Again," shouted a boy in the rear of the room.—Life.

Her Infinite Variety.

A woman smoked a cigarette, and made thereby a sensation.

Such a sensation, in fact, that shortly another woman was smoking, and then another.

But as more and more women smoked the sensation they made grew less and less, until at length they made no sensation at all.

That ended it.

"Well, what next?" quoth woman-kind, for age could not wither her nor custom stale her infinite variety.—Puck.

Test of Real Greatness.

Columbus had made the egg stand on end.

"But could you unscramble it?" demanded the mortified courtiers.

Which merely accentuates the great truth that nobody is springing any real puzzles nowadays.

A bald man doesn't want the earth. Give him a bottle of hair restorer that will restore, and he'll go on his way rejoicing.

ABOUT FARM COOKING

REASONS WHY IT TOO OFTEN IS NOT OF THE BEST.

Women Not Given Proper Chance to Do Good Work—Conditions Such That Wholesome, Nutritious Meals Are Impossible.

We believe that more dyspeptics are every year produced on the farm—counting equal numbers—than in the cities, and this belief is based on many years of observation and considerable actual experience.

The reverse would naturally seem to be true, as the farm cook has a great advantage over her sister in the city in the matter of raw materials—fruits, vegetables, butter, milk and poultry, being always at hand in abundance and fresh and wholesome in condition.

With these advantages it may be the charge then is due to ignorance or carelessness or both of the women folk on the farm. But this is not always true.

The fact is that the men, who by the way are the severest critics, are themselves to blame. They do not give their wives half a chance to do good cooking. On thousands of prosperous farms the housewife never has sufficient time to do her work well; she is not provided with the proper facilities. Her kitchen is provided with nothing more than the barest necessities and she is deprived of such aids as hot and cold water, quick fuel and an abundance of cooking utensils and tableware.

She is not only the cook but the mainspring of the whole family. She is doctor, nurse, counselor and friend; beside the cares of maternity she often milks the cows, makes the butter, hoes the garden and makes new clothing for her husband and children, mends the old, sweeps and dusts, gathers her own vegetables and fruit and prepares them for cooking.

She is expected to make no excuses when the meals for the family, large or small, are not ready and on the table to the minute.

Naturally, under these conditions, which exist on thousands of farms, and they are not overdrawn, no woman, no matter how good a cook she may be, can properly prepare and cook wholesome and nutritious food.

If the farm cooking is to be improved the men must supply their wives with everything needed in the kitchen and pantry. They must supply them with help, at least until the children are old enough to assist.

The wife must insist upon having what she needs to work with and she must abandon the work of the men folk. She can teach her children, either boys or girls, to be of great assistance in her daily tasks. She can so regulate her work hours that she will have time in which to do good cooking. But, she cannot do these things alone; she must have the active and sympathetic assistance of her husband, and if he refuses to give her these, the family must be abandoned to dyspepsia and its attendant miseries.—Exchange.

Timely Topics.

Iodine stains yield to a bath of alcohol followed by a rinse in soapy water.

Oil stains should be rubbed over with lard, allowed to stand for several hours, then washed with cold water and soap.

Do not allow soiled clothes to remain long in the closet or laundry basket or they will take on a grimy, dull appearance hard to overcome.

The flavor and texture of potatoes are spoiled if they are allowed to remain in the sun.

When cooking potatoes in their jackets pierce them with the prongs of a silver fork.

Immensity of Nature.

They were on a trip to Switzerland, and had that day braved all dangers and ascended one of the highest points in the Alps.

He was very fat, and as he stood panting and mopping his brow at the top of the mountain, he turned to his wife and said, with pathos in his voice:

"See, dear, how small one is in the face of the immensity of nature."

"Small, indeed!" answered his better half. "Why, you're standing in front of me, hiding the whole of Mont Blanc and the best part of the valley of Chamontix!"—Exchange.

Silly Game.

A city cousin had been staying at the farm for two weeks, resting up for the winter's round of pleasure. One evening after supper she suggested to her country cousin that they get up a bridge party some evening.

"My sakes, Arabella," was the horrified reply. "They ain't no bridge nearer than four mile, and that one's awful rickety. This time of the year, you'd all have pneumonia. For crazy new-fangled ideas, give me you city folks!"

COLDS BREED CATARRH

Her Terrible Experience Shows How Peruna Should Be in Every Home to Prevent Colds.

Mrs. C. S. Sagerson, 1311 Woodland Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes:

"I feel it a duty to you and to others that may be afflicted like myself, to speak for Peruna."

"My trouble first came after a gripe eight or nine years ago, a gathering in my head and neuralgia. I suffered most all the time. My nose, ears and eyes were badly affected for the last two years. I think from your description of internal catarrh that I must have had that also. I suffered very severely."

"Nothing ever relieved me like Peruna. It keeps me from taking cold."

"With the exception of some deafness I am feeling perfectly cured. I am forty-six years old."

"I feel that words are inadequate to express my praise for Peruna."

FOR SALAD COURSE

SOME NEW IDEAS AS TO COMPOSITION AND SERVICE.

Mixture Now Frequently Is Eaten at the Beginning of Dinner—Pineapple One of the Best for the Digestion.

They are serving salads with a difference. A salad nowadays is very frequently eaten at the beginning of dinner and voted a digestive second to none.

Of all fruits pineapple is of the greatest value to the dyspeptic and contains the most delicate acid. The following recipe for a pineapple salad will be found an excellent one, and it is, moreover, a very pretty dish to serve at the beginning of luncheon or dinner:

Pineapple in Lettuce Nests—Cut a pineapple into small pieces. Add one cupful of finely chopped celery, one cupful of walnut meats and one cupful of orange pulp. Shred one head of lettuce very finely and form into nests on individual plates.

Mix one cupful of mayonnaise and stir it lightly with the pineapple, etc.; add more mayonnaise if the fruit is not sufficiently moist, and heap into the little lettuce nests. Decorate with chopped walnuts.

Salade a La Versailles—Boil six artichokes, separate the "fonds" from the leaves and cut into small pieces. Put in a salad bowl with an equal quantity of asparagus points that have been cooked in salted water. Take a handful of salted almonds, chop them fine, pound them with the juice of two lemons and half a pint of cream, salt and pepper, and pour over the salad. A little mayonnaise may be added to the salad, but it is more delicate in flavor without it.

With cold chicken nothing is more excellent than a salad of carrots, cucumbers and hard boiled eggs, all cut in rings and sent to table with this dressing: Two tablespoonfuls of olive oil with one of lemon juice, with salt, pepper and a speck of sugar to taste.

Mushroom Salad—Remove the skin and almost all the stalk from some button mushrooms, drop them into boiling salted water and cook for three minutes.

Lay them on a napkin and when quite cold sprinkle them with pepper and salt and finely chopped parsley. Lay on a dish and pour over two tablespoonfuls of oil to one of tarragon vinegar.

Shrimp Salad a La Bretagne—Shell a quart of boiled shrimps and lay them on young lettuce leaves in a salad bowl. Chill some mayonnaise sauce on ice, pour over the shrimps and serve.

Tongue Salad—Mix together and put in a fine dredger a small quantity each of celery, salt, red pepper and black pepper, white sugar and allspice. Take some thin slices of Russian tongue, squeeze a little lemon juice over the pieces and lightly dredge with the above mixture.

Shave up some white onions and celery and put them in the salad bowl with a few white lettuce hearts. Add the tongue next, then pour several spoonfuls of oil over the whole with a dash of vinegar. Serve at once.

Serving Potatoes.

A delicious way of serving potatoes is the following: Boil and mash 12 medium sized white potatoes, using one tablespoonful of butter instead of milk. When they are nearly cold add the yolks of three eggs, one teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, and six drops of onion juice. Stir these ingredients together until they are smooth. Make up into small cone shaped croquettes and stand away to harden. When they are firm roll them in the beaten white of the eggs and cracker dust and fry in deep boiling fat until a light brown.

MADE CONVERT OF OLD SILAS

Member of School Board May Have Had Deep Thoughts, but Anyway He Was Satisfied.

The athletic young woman who taught the district school was on trial for soundly thrashing seven unruly boys.

"You—you think you can control the situation, do—do you?" inquired the president of the school board, who stuttered.

"I can," replied the young woman with considerable decision.

"Well, I don't know about this," grinned Silas Weatherwax. "If my boy needs a lickin' I can give it to him myself. I don't believe in miscellaneous lickin's."

The teacher smiled.

"Neither do I," she said. "If thrashings are to be administered I think it much better for one person to administer them. And after I have cleaned up the school I may decide to go out and clean up the township."

A moment later when a vote of confidence in the teacher was called for, the "aye" of Silas Weatherwax was the loudest of all.

ERUPTION COVERED BODY

"Three years ago this winter I had a breaking out that covered my whole body. It itched so it seemed as if I should go crazy. It first came out in little pimples on my back and spread till it covered my whole body and limbs down to my knees, also my arms down to my elbows. Where I scratched it made sores, and the terrible itching and burning kept me from sleeping. I tried several remedies all to no purpose. Then I concluded to try the Cuticura Remedies. I used the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, also the Resolvent, for about four months, and they completely cured me of eczema. I have had no return of the disease since. I never had a good night's rest after the skin eruption first broke out till I commenced using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I had only used them a few days before I could see they were beginning to heal, and the terrible itching was gone."

"Those that lived in the house at the time know how I suffered, and how the Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me. I never take a bath without using the Cuticura Soap, and I do not believe there are better remedies for any skin disease than the Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Miss Sarah Calkins, Waukegan, Ill., Mar. 16, 1911. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 5 K, Boston.

Early Training.

"She claims that her ancestors stood torturing with red-hot pincers."

"I believe it. She can wear shoes three sizes too small and look happy."

Lots of men who sit around on dry goods boxes and growl about hard times won't consider it an insult if anyone were to offer them a job.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOUR BABY?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Nine times out of ten, you will find it is all the child needs, for its restlessness and peevishness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been remedied the headache, the sluggishness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear.

Don't give the little one salts, cathartic pills or nasty waters, for these will act as purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Erie, Pa. — "I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold." — Mrs. J. P. ENDLICH, R. F. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

Mrs. Dan Adams, Duquoin, Kas., and Mrs. A. M. Morgan, Attica, Kas., the only laxative given is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been found to answer most perfectly all the purposes of a laxative, and its very mildness and freedom from gripping recommend it especially for the use of children, women, and old folks generally—people who need a gentle bowel stimulant. Thousands of American families have been enthusiastic about it for more than a quarter of a century.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

A New Cure for the "Con."

A new cure for the "Con" was very near discovered at the Marine Hospital Sanatorium, at Fort Stanton, Wednesday night.

Some of the famous cowboy cooks at the Fort put over some hash Wednesday night that came very near simplifying matters for the doctors in charge. All of the patients that partook of the hash were deathly sick from ptomaine poisoning all that night and the next day.

Rather rough, of course, on the patients, but as they have been trying hard for years to get better treatment, especially in regard to the food, this will no doubt be a lesson to them, as the doctors seem to consider the food the least important part of the "cure."
