Join a librarian to learn about Zotero, PubMed, Embase, and more. Find information on all sessions and RSVP at goto.unm.edu/hslicevents

NM HEALTH SCIENCES LIBRARY & INFORMATICS CENTER

Join us in July to learn about Zotero, PubMed, and Embase! Our workshops are intended for beginners or users wanting to learn more advanced techniques.

Zotero: Citation & Resource Management

July 15th, 12-1pm

Need help keeping track of all your sources? Want to make the citation process as easy as pressing a button? Come to this online class to learn how to use Zotero, a free citation management tool. Zotero allows you to keep track of all your resources in one place, organize materials to meet your needs, and it creates citations for you.

Before attending please be sure to create a Zotero account and download the desktop component. Instructions can be found on our Zotero Guide.

PubMed Like a Pro

July 20th, 12-1pm

Not sure how to use PubMed? Been using PubMed for a while but want to learn about the more advanced features? Come to this online workshop to learn how to navigate PubMed and pick up some advanced tricks in the process. This workshop is appropriate for any level of PubMed user (even if you've never used it before) and will review how to utilize keyword and MeSH searching, narrowing your results, creating alerts, saving searches, and more.

Embase Introduction

July 26th, 12-1pm

Come to this online workshop to learn about the Embase database. The Health Sciences Library has added Embase to our subscription resources and whether you've been using it for a while or are completely new to it, this workshop is for you! Learn how to navigate Embase and pick up some advanced tricks in the process. We will review how to utilize keyword and subject searching, narrowing your results, creating alerts, saving searches, and more.

Registration is required for all of our workshops and registrants will be sent a Zoom link before the start of the session. Find all our workshops and register here.
