Title: Indigenous Education Research Conference

Office of Origin: Office of Academic Affairs

Description: Information on the 4th Annual Indigenous Education Research Conference, scheduled for April 2019. Hosted by the College of Education, this conference aims to “acknowledge and operationalize the importance of engaging in research that recognizes the integrity of cultural sovereignty as it is exercised by Indigenous Nations.” The theme for this conference in 2019 is “Revisiting the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP): Centering Indigenous Peoples and Our Communities.”
Indigenous Education Research Council

The UNM College of Education invites you to join its 8th Annual Indigenous Education Research Council on April 12, 2019, 9:00 a.m. (MST) to 4:00 p.m. at UnmCMC, 100 Student Union Center, University of New Mexico.

We are pleased to announce the eighth annual Indigenous Education Research Council (IERC) conference to be held on April 12, 2019. The conference is an opportunity for indigenous and non-indigenous scholars, faculty, and students from across the U.S. and internationally to present and discuss their research and experiences in the field of Indigenous education.

We seek presentations that reflect the growing importance of Indigenous education in the context of a globalized world. We encourage presentations that share the latest findings and insights in Indigenous education research, and we welcome a wide range of topics related to Indigenous education.
