Digital Initiatives and Scholarly Communication (DISC)

Welcome

Instruction & Outreach

Online Resources

Digital Exhibits & Initiatives

Virtual Reality Initiatives

DISC Fellowships

DISC develops online cultural heritage, scholarly and educational resources for UNM students, researchers, and the public.

Our Goals:

- provide access to UNM and state-wide special collections
- promote open access through collaborative and integrated projects
- coordinate and manage large image and multimedia digitization projects
- develop and maintain special project websites
- provide technical and program support for cooperative digital projects

About DISC

The DISC Center is located in Zimmerman, at the bottom of the main stairwell, Room B25. The DISC suite includes an exhibition space with a digital wall of ongoing and upcoming projects. In addition, DISC hosts office spaces, work stations, and equipment and storage to facilitate onsite digitization project work in multimedia formats.
