THOROUGH SEARCH.

Billy Green and His Associates, Still Among the Missing.

From all accounts the fate of Billy Green of Las Vegas, who is pretty well known in this city, is sealed and the desperate characters of northern New Mexico, among whom he has been a terror for some time, are capturing for their lawless purposes, and capturing for their lawless purposes, and capturing for their lawless purposes.

CHANGES IN CREWS.

Made by the Abolishment of the Santa Fe Limited Trains.

The abolishment of limited trains 3 and 4 by the Santa Fe railway on the new time card, which went into effect last night at midnight, will cause a general change to be made in the present arrangement of engine and train employees.

Three train crews running between Kansas City and Dodge City will be taken off the eastern, middle and cottonwood divisions each losing one crew. Four engine crews running out of Topeka will also be affected, two on the east end runs, and two on the west end runs. On the west end runs, one eastern division crew will be taken off, and on the east end runs, one eastern division crew and one Chicago division crew will be taken off.

In addition to the engine and train men, the baggage and express men will be affected by the taking off of the train between Kansas City and this city, seven baggage men will be thrown out of service, and more than double that number of express men. Between Chicago and Kansas City no change will be made, as the men now running on 3 and 4 will be transferred to trains 5 and 6.

All changes will be made in strict accordance with the rules of seniority. As the CITIZEN stated last Friday, in giving the new order of precedence, that the change will affect the crews on the Atlantic & Pacific, the division being now from Albuquerque to Williams in stead of Winslow, and that four passenger conductors, with their crews, will have to do the work instead of six as heretofore. This move will put conductors Frost and Somerville back on to freight runs.

South of Albuquerque to El Paso, and on the Silver City branch, there will be no change whatever, but on the division between this city and La Junta several crews will be taken off.

GAZAR.

The Famous Revolutionist Supposed to be in the Tombstone Jail.

The Prospector says: On Saturday a Mexican prisoner was brought to the county jail from Wilcox to serve fifty days for carrying concealed weapons and being disorderly.

The prisoner was brought over in irons, being shackled and bound, as he was considered a very desperate character, and this method was carried out to prevent any attempt at escape from the deputy constable who had him in charge.

The name of the prisoner as the docket shows, is Ramon Lopez, but there is reason to believe that this name is fictitious and he is believed to be none other than the famous revolutionist, Gazar, who created such a sensation along the Mexican border with his armed followers and uprisings against the Mexican government about a year since and upon whose head a heavy reward is offered by the Mexican government.

If the prisoner is not Gazar himself, as no means of identifying him, through photograph or description is yet at hand, then he is supposed to have been a close lieutenant of the famous revolutionist.

The clerk, of Kansas City, is at the Armitage.

J. T. McLaughlin, of San Pedro, is in the city today.

J. S. Osborn and Miss Abbie Osborn, of Colorado Springs, Colo., are late arrivals at the San Felipe.

J. P. Chase, one of Sevier's well known and popular attorneys, came in from the south last night and is at Sturges' European.

He is here on legal matters.

Wm. Green, a well known cattle buyer and raiser of Ludlow, Colorado, came in from the north last night and has his name on the register at Sturges' European.

Hon. Geo. W. Fritchard, the White-Oaks attorney, came in from the west last night. He went south to San Antonio this morning where he will take the stage for White-Oaks.

Mrs. M. Chaves, of Belen, who has a large circle of friends in this city, was here last Sunday, coming in on the No. 2 passenger train the evening before and registering at Sturges' European.

Major W. H. H. Ellsworth, of Los Cruces, who was at Los Angeles, where he attended the flower celebration, returned to the city last night and continued south to his Las Cruces home this morning.

Miss Maggie Wright, who returned yesterday from Los Angeles, where she was called to see her sick brother, Morris Wright, reports the latter getting along nicely, and states that he will likely visit Albuquerque in a short time.

The Optics says: J. H. Peets, who has spent considerable time in the southwest and particularly at Albuquerque, in the past year, was a passenger yesterday for the home in Chicago, where he will spend the summer. He is connected with the Hispanian banking association of that city.

Miss C. Maude Barker, of Fairmont, Ill., and Miss Palmer, of Danville, Ill., two young ladies who were here last winter for their health, are again in the city, registered at the San Felipe. They have been sojourning the past few months on the Pacific coast and are now returning to their Illinois homes. They will remain here several days.

Dr. James P. Booth and wife, of New Orleans, arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the European. In the afternoon the doctor went to the Atlantic & Pacific hospital, on South Broadway, where he will have to undergo a surgical operation. Dr. Booth is the company's surgeon and physician at Needles, Cal., and is one of the most popular medical gentlemen along the railroad.

Louis Imbert and wife, the Los Cruces fair raiser, drove into the city this morning. Imbert fell from his horse, while returning to Los Cruces from the city, and in the fall several ribs were broken on the left side, besides which he received slight internal injuries. This is the first time since the accident, that Mr. Imbert has been to the city, and his friends here are congratulating him that the accident was not more serious.

C. H. Wilkins, assistant grand conductor of the order of Railway Conductors, arrived in the city this morning from Chicago and has his name on the register at the San Felipe, where he has been called upon by several local conductors. L. W. Roberts, formerly passenger conductor on the Atlantic & Pacific, has the gentleman in tow this afternoon, and is introducing him to our citizens.

AN EXPLOSION.

A Soda Water Factory Drum Explodes at the Freight Depot.

This morning at 4:45 o'clock, an explosion occurred at the freight depot, which made the employees all conclude, for the time being, that one of Herr Mott's internal machines had arrived from the east.

The freight from the north brought from St. Louis three steel drums charged with carbonic acid, used in soda water factories, consigned to a San Marcial soda water factory. They were lifted with care from the car and laid on the platform on the east side of the freight depot. The penetrating sun of a New Mexico day had struck the drums broadside, and half an hour afterwards one of them exploded, tearing the steel drum into pieces, breaking a dozen or more window panes in the depot, and wrenching planks up from the platform. It was a jolly explosion, which shook the entire building, almost turned the employees inside out, and was loud enough to be heard several squares away. Frank Sheets, the foreman of the freight department, and who has been in three or four wrecks, had just left the place where the drums were laid and fortunately escaped injury. It is reported that Louis Gutman, an employee at the depot, who has not heard a sound for years, heard this explosion with considerable distinctness, and is ready to announce that his hearing qualities have returned.

BACK FROM ALASKA.

The Condition of Things Revealed by a Stay of Nine Days in Juneau.

About two months ago Sam Edgington and S. F. Kahan left Albuquerque for Juneau, Alaska. On Wednesday Sam returned to San Marcial, and his partner, Edgington, says the same story as he has.

A few pointers about the trip and what they saw in that far away land will be of interest to our readers.

Owing to the stationmaster's refusal to stand out time from San Marcial, Alaska, a great deal of the trip was in the hands of the passengers. The route was from San Marcial to Juneau, Alaska, and the trip was a very interesting one. The passengers were very comfortable and the trip was a very interesting one.

RES. HILL SUCCEEDS.

On the morning of April 25, 1886, Rev. M. H. Hill, so well and favorably known in this county, succumbed to drowning himself in the Pecos.

The deceased was the first Baptist preacher to work in the valley, coming here first in 1888. He returned to Texas in November, 1892, being at that time a widower, but was shortly after married and returned to the valley about July 27 last year, going up in the mountains to preach to the people along the lower Pecos and Rio Grande. He has been a prominent figure in all Baptist gatherings in this section, and was generally considered a very earnest Christian.

W. K. Pratt, clerk of the board of education, left this morning for Gallup, where he will remain for a few days.

Frank Kleiner and wife, and Mrs. Russell, of Prescott, were mingling with Albuquerque people yesterday.

Weekly Citizen

Rev. S. K. Snyder, who preaches to the Navajo Indians at Fort Huachuca, is in the city today.

S. R. Gillett, lawyer, who was at Socorro yesterday on legal business, returned to the city last night.

F. N. Mills, cattle buyer for the Blanch and Meat Supply company, with headquarters at Pomona, Cal., came in from the west last night.

Judge N. C. O'Brien and O. S. Marron, district clerk, who took a week's rest and spent the time west of the city, returned on the No. 4 special this morning at 9 o'clock.

G. C. Bernaldo and wife left this morning for Juarez, Mexico, where Mr. Bernaldo takes charge as manager of the Mexican Central railroad eating house at Juarez.

Jas. E. Lewis, president of the Southwestern Electric company, was a passenger for Fort Worth this morning. He will return to the city on the No. 1 passenger train tomorrow morning.

Max L. Kahler, sheriff of Socorro county, who passed through the city with a prisoner for the Santa Fe penitentiary, returned to the city this morning and registered at Sturges European. He will continue his journey tomorrow morning.

G. A. Lewis, of Boston, by G. K. Seler, to A. H. Brady, of Los Angeles, by W. F. Talarford, of Albuquerque, and J. H. Frost, of Topeka, by W. L. Oliver, were introduced at the Commercial club yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. L. Camp and daughter, Miss Blanche E. Camp, from the far-off gold standard east, are at the San Felipe where they will remain for a few days. They are returning to New York from a protracted sojourn in southern California.

The friends of Mrs. J. O. Webster, for nearly a missionary in this city, will be pleased to learn that she has after a course in the Chicago training school, been licensed as a deaconess in the Methodist Episcopal church. After an extended trip through the east, Canada and the south, she will again engage in her chosen field of labor.

The "fruit vendor," who delights in making noise with his mouth, and who was arrested the other day on the complaint of a gentleman who had been disturbed in his slumbers, had his trial this morning before Justice Crawford, and was discharged, the judge holding that there was no law upon which he could assess a fine against the offender.

The No. 4 river from the west, running a special in order to get the equipment back to Chicago from California, reached Albuquerque at 5 o'clock this morning, being brought in from Williams by a freight conductor. This ends the "fly ers," and of course the visit to the depot at 5 o'clock, which has been in vogue the past few months, will now be suspended.

A few days ago Frank Kleiner and wife arrived in the city from Prescott, Mr. Kleiner, who is interested in mining in southern New Mexico, had to leave the city, hence Mr. Kleiner became the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Burns. Mr. Burns is out of town looking after the revenue interests of Uncle Sam, he being the efficient deputy inland revenue collector for this district.

Mrs. J. W. McAntire and son and daughter, Miss Bertha McAntire, of Joplin, Mo., who have been sojourning the past three months in El Paso, Texas, came in from the south last night and can be found at the San Felipe. Mrs. McAntire was here several months of last winter and made many friends, who will be pleased to learn of her return. The health of the lady is fairly good.

George W. Curry, who recently resigned his office as clerk of the Socorro judicial district, passed through the city last night for Santa Fe on business. His successor as clerk of the above district is William Briscoe, who was chief deputy under him. Mr. Curry stated last evening that his object in resigning was on the ground that his interests in the Pecos valley kept him so busy that he could devote no time to the office of clerk in Socorro.

For fear that some person might misconstrue the meaning of an item in yesterday's CITIZEN regarding the sickness of Miss Hall, the dressmaker, we here state that the lady is simply able to employ a nurse, and is not receiving attention from the members of the benevolent society. The lady, it is true, is quite ill, but with the attention she is receiving from friends and a regularly employed nurse, she expects to be up and around in a short time.

All mail now comes from the east, west and south on the night passenger trains, and is delivered by carriers in the morning hours. In the afternoon, the carriers deliver "drop" and "star route" mail. The carriers collect mail from the street boxes at 5 o'clock p. m., hence mail dropped in the boxes before that hour will leave on the night passenger trains. Mail can be dropped at the post office as late as 5 o'clock p. m., to insure leaving that same night.

The CITIZEN stated yesterday that the remains of Miles Harmon, the young man who died on the incoming Atlantic & Pacific passenger last Saturday, would be shipped to Dexter, Ohio, for burial last night. A letter from Dexter, Ohio, to accompany the body, was received this morning. The CITIZEN this morning that the father will not arrive and that the remains will be shipped to Dexter this evening, in response to a telegram received from the mother of the deceased.

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the Ladies' guild of St. John's Episcopal church was held at the residence of Mrs. J. G. Albright, on north Third street, yesterday afternoon. Almost a full membership was present, and the meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. P. Fox, president, while the minutes were taken down by Mrs. Chandler. After the transaction of routine business pertaining to the church, the members were royally entertained and treated to refreshments, among which were ice cream and strawberries.

From the New Mexican.

Mr. Frank Delgado has resigned as clerk and stenographer in the surveyor general's office.

Mrs. Maria Morrison, the wife of two A. Morrison, of Las Vegas, died this morning at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Antonio Ortiz.

Miss Hosmer, late of Ramona Indian school, who has been Mrs. Hall's guest for several days, leaves tonight for a trip to Albuquerque.

The Santa Fe train will likely fly in Las Vegas on the 24th and in Albuquerque on the 25th and 26th, and our brave claim they will have three more guests to their credit.

A private letter from Lincoln, Neb., announces that Hon. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture, is en route to the Pacific coast with his son, vice president of the A. T. & P. Co., and may be expected to visit Santa Fe in a few days.

There will be a special meeting of the Santa Fe fire department tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements for a dance to raise funds to send delegates to the Albuquerque tournament. Other important business will come up.

On Sunday, the 15th, the bats and lemons will play a game of ball, the proceeds to be divided between the W. B. I. and the base ball club of this city. Half the money will be used by the Santa Fe boys to bring up the Albuquerque train on the 24th and the balance turned over to the W. B. I.

The jury trial in the case entitled the Territory of New Mexico against David G. Galt, Luterio Padilla and Emilio Garcia, charged with murdering Marcelino Vigil on June 12, 1935, occupied the attention of the district court yesterday, and with this report closes its day in progress. District Attorney Crist is prosecuting, and Messrs. B. M. Road and H. E. Ortiz are defending.

Chas. W. Indow has not yet qualified as a member of the city council for the second ward, and it is understood that he doesn't intend to do so, regarding the duties of alderman as incompatible with those of chairman of the county board. If he does not qualify at the next meeting of the council his seat will be declared vacant and his successor will be appointed by the seven members who have qualified.

The new board of education met in regular session last evening, all members being present, except Messrs. Spies and Martinez. An organization was effected by the election of Camilo Padilla as president, Fritz Muller as vice president and H. E. Ortiz as secretary. Some informal discussion took place, but no business of moment was transacted. President Padilla intimated that possibly the city schools would be reopened in August.

Two engines have been assigned to passenger service between this point and La Junta. The second engines displayed good service in the run from Raton to Santa Fe.

Engine 347, is in the shops having a few day's running, put on, having reached, itself up to running order, as conductor. Alcott's engine, which has been left out of the schedule on a trip in the Santa Fe Sunday evening.

The income tax return has been in season to day after today to routine business.

Refunding bonds of the court house and jail have been issued and are now ready for delivery to those holding the old bonds. The new bonds are hand-somely gotten up.

There is an anarchistic agitator in town endeavoring to organize some kind of an anti American association. He has held two meetings, one of them last night attended by half a dozen people. In his talk, we are told, he used the most profane language and stated that there was not a preacher in the United States that belonged to the society, a branch of which he is attempting to organize here.

He and party are in the Territorial Metropolitan Club.

Last night, at 8:30 o'clock, on a special train and occupying one of the finest cars in the service of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, Co. 230, Hon. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture, and therefore by virtue of his office, one of the members of President Cleveland's cabinet, and party reached the territorial metropolis from the north.

In the party is the secretary's son, Mr. Paul Morton, third vice president of the Santa Fe railway, in charge of the traffic department, and he is making an official tour over the system, and is here for the purpose of consulting with the Atlantic & Pacific officials. The junior Morton is accompanied by his wife and two children, while the secretary of agriculture has in the party Miss Anabel Howard, his private secretary.

Randall Morrow, a capitalist of Chicago, with his wife and child, are also with the distinguished party.

They will remain here during the day leaving tomorrow morning, with car 220 attached to passenger train No. 1, for the Pacific coast.

J. K. Hurley, the popular division superintendent, accompanied the party in his private car to this city.

Later, the Morton party had arranged to take a drive over the city and to pay their respects to the superintendent and other officials of the government Indian school this afternoon, but the wind storm, now prevailing as THE CITIZEN goes to press, precludes such a pleasure.

J. E. Hurley, the division superintendent, and a few Albuquerque citizens, however, took the party to the Commercial club where they were registered and introduced.

Brother of Foraker.

It may not have occurred to the minds of the various constabularies for federal positions under the coming republican regime, but it is nevertheless said to be a fact, that a brother of Senator-elect Joseph H. Foraker, of Ohio, who will make the nominating speech for Major McKinley at St. Louis, is a resident of one of the lower counties of the territory and has won an appointment of some kind himself, when the time comes around. Miss Hosmer, late of Ramona Indian school, who has been Mrs. Hall's guest for several days, leaves tonight for a trip to Albuquerque.

The Santa Fe train will likely fly in Las Vegas on the 24th and in Albuquerque on the 25th and 26th, and our brave claim they will have three more guests to their credit.

A private letter from Lincoln, Neb., announces that Hon. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture, is en route to the Pacific coast with his son, vice president of the A. T. & P. Co., and may be expected to visit Santa Fe in a few days.

There will be a special meeting of the Santa Fe fire department tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements for a dance to raise funds to send delegates to the Albuquerque tournament. Other important business will come up.

On Sunday, the 15th, the bats and lemons will play a game of ball, the proceeds to be divided between the W. B. I. and the base ball club of this city. Half the money will be used by the Santa Fe boys to bring up the Albuquerque train on the 24th and the balance turned over to the W. B. I.

The jury trial in the case entitled the Territory of New Mexico against David G. Galt, Luterio Padilla and Emilio Garcia, charged with murdering Marcelino Vigil on June 12, 1935, occupied the attention of the district court yesterday, and with this report closes its day in progress. District Attorney Crist is prosecuting, and Messrs. B. M. Road and H. E. Ortiz are defending.

Chas. W. Indow has not yet qualified as a member of the city council for the second ward, and it is understood that he doesn't intend to do so, regarding the duties of alderman as incompatible with those of chairman of the county board. If he does not qualify at the next meeting of the council his seat will be declared vacant and his successor will be appointed by the seven members who have qualified.

The new board of education met in regular session last evening, all members being present, except Messrs. Spies and Martinez. An organization was effected by the election of Camilo Padilla as president, Fritz Muller as vice president and H. E. Ortiz as secretary. Some informal discussion took place, but no business of moment was transacted. President Padilla intimated that possibly the city schools would be reopened in August.

Two engines have been assigned to passenger service between this point and La Junta. The second engines displayed good service in the run from Raton to Santa Fe.

Refunding bonds of the court house and jail have been issued and are now ready for delivery to those holding the old bonds. The new bonds are hand-somely gotten up.

There is an anarchistic agitator in town endeavoring to organize some kind of an anti American association. He has held two meetings, one of them last night attended by half a dozen people. In his talk, we are told, he used the most profane language and stated that there was not a preacher in the United States that belonged to the society, a branch of which he is attempting to organize here.

He and party are in the Territorial Metropolitan Club.

Last night, at 8:30 o'clock, on a special train and occupying one of the finest cars in the service of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, Co. 230, Hon. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture, and therefore by virtue of his office, one of the members of President Cleveland's cabinet, and party reached the territorial metropolis from the north.

In the party is the secretary's son, Mr. Paul Morton, third vice president of the Santa Fe railway, in charge of the traffic department, and he is making an official tour over the system, and is here for the purpose of consulting with the Atlantic & Pacific officials. The junior Morton is accompanied by his wife and two children, while the secretary of agriculture has in the party Miss Anabel Howard, his private secretary.

Randall Morrow, a capitalist of Chicago, with his wife and child, are also with the distinguished party.

They will remain here during the day leaving tomorrow morning, with car 220 attached to passenger train No. 1, for the Pacific coast.

J. K. Hurley, the popular division superintendent, accompanied the party in his private car to this city.

Later, the Morton party had arranged to take a drive over the city and to pay their respects to the superintendent and other officials of the government Indian school this afternoon, but the wind storm, now prevailing as THE CITIZEN goes to press, precludes such a pleasure.

J. E. Hurley, the division superintendent, and a few Albuquerque citizens, however, took the party to the Commercial club where they were registered and introduced.

Brother of Foraker.

It may not have occurred to the minds of the various constabularies for federal positions under the coming republican regime, but it is nevertheless said to be a fact, that a brother of Senator-elect Joseph H. Foraker, of Ohio, who will make the nominating speech for Major McKinley at St. Louis, is a resident of one of the lower counties of the territory and has won an appointment of some kind himself, when the time comes around.
