Special election for the 1st Congressional District

by Amy Weig Pickering on May 4th, 2021 in New Mexico | 0 Comments

The special election to replace Deb Haaland for the 1st Congressional District is being held on June 1 and the League of Women Voters of Central NM has posted information about the election on their website.

You can learn about voter registration dates, absentee ballots and early voting for the five counties that are represented in Congressional District 1. Individuals who have not yet registered can do so online or by mail until May 4. Also, in Bernalillo County Same Day Registration will be available at early voting locations prior to election day.

Candidate information and responses to questions on current issues can be found here. Please make a plan to go and vote in this special election.
