MANDY ASKS NEW TRIAL

"PASSION AND PREJUDICE" IMPUTED TO JURY BY DEFENDANT

Declares No Evidence of Mental Anguish and Files Motion to Set Aside $16,700 Waddell Verdict.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Santa Fe, N. M.—Charging the jurors with "passion and prejudice" for bringing in a verdict of $16,700 for Miss Margaret A. E. Waddell, of Los Angeles, in her breach of promise suit against A. R. Mandy of Taos, which was a sensational suit tried recently before U. S. District Judge William H. Pope, attorneys have filed a motion to set the verdict aside and grant a new trial. It will be recalled that the jury granted $12,000, instead of the $45,000 asked, for heart balm, and $4,700 for expenses alleged to have been incurred by Miss Waddell while waiting for defendant to lead her to the altar. Of this sum $700 was given by the jurors for the bride's trousseau. The motion to set aside raises the interesting question whether a defendant in a breach of promise suit can be forced legally to pay $700 for a trousseau the plaintiff swears cost only $650; moreover, can the defendant be forced to pay for a trousseau when nearly all of it was used by the plaintiff?

The motion also attacks the verdict of $12,000 for mental anguish, etc., declaring that there was no evidence that Miss Waddell suffered anguish to that value.

When the jurors brought in the verdict they answered nine questions put to them by the court, specifying various sums they deemed it fair to give to plaintiff and it is these various amounts that the defendant declares unjust, winding up his four typewritten pages of objections with the declaration: "It must be deduced that the entire verdict of the jury is tainted with passion and prejudice, and is the result of passion and prejudice on the part of the jury."

Railroad Promoter Visits Lovington

On Wednesday of this week Mr. N. R. Morgan of Seminole one of the promoters of the Midland and Northwestern railroad to Seminole was in our city, and, although on other business he spoke confidently of the completion of the road to that point and says that all notes and contracts of citizens raising the required bonus are null and void unless the track is laid and rolling stock is in operation by time of payment, thus making the bonus-raiser safe. "So far, so good," and hope they will succeed.

Lovington in 1916

With this issue the Leader starts on its seventh year and also in this issue we note the sale of two firms, the Lovington Gro. & Dry Goods Co. and P. S. Eaves & Co. to the firm of the People's Mercantile Co. of Carlsbad who intend taking charge in a short time. The Lovington Gro. & Dry Goods Co. being one of the oldest firms of our little burg, beginning in a little building on the corner where the People's Store now does a flourishing business and at that time was owned by J. B. Love of this place. R. F. Love buying it from his brother moved it to the corner on south side where it now stands and which has been added on to until it contains thousands of dollars worth of merchandise.

Another store was added about that time known as the Lovington Mercantile Co., which after a few years sold out, leaving this to take its rank among the old settlers.

Our town has steadily increased however until now it has grown in the last seven years from a mere little speck of a few ranch houses and two small stores on a great broad plain to a list as follows commencing on the north side of the square:

- 1 Steam Laundry, 2 Large Auto Garages, 1 Moving picture building, 1 Local and Long distance Telephone Co., 1 Public Water Works, 1 Wagon Yard, 2 Blacksmith Shops, 1 Auto Supply Co., 1 Masonic Hall, 1 I. O. O. F. Hall, 1 Justice of Peace office, 1 Millinery, 3 Doctors offices, 1 Boot Shop, 1 Printing office, 2 Notary Public offices, 1 Chilli, Short Order and Bakery, 1 Confectionery, Fruit and Pop Stand, 1 Barber Shop, 2 Drug Stores, 1 Hotel, 1 Market and Cafe, 3 Dry Goods and General Mds., 1 Pool Hall, 1 Bank, 1 U. S. Com's. office, 1 City Tailor Shop, 1 Post-office, 2 Hardware, 1 Furniture and Undertaking goods, 1 First class Tin Shop, 1 First mill and Grusher, 2 Lumber, 3 Denominations, 1 5000 Public school building, 1 $5000 High School building about completed, Total No. Scholars 200 or more, 6 Lodges, I. O. O. F., Rebekahs, W. O. W. Eastern Star, Masonic and Fraternalists, 1 Large shingle roof tabernacle 85x65 ft. 1 small hall, 3 Large Auto trucks for freight purposes, 1 Sign painting and Paper hanging shop.

You will note this week the new ad of W. E. Whitfield who is starting his business in the right way by advertising. Only this week one of our patrons came in and said he would have to cut out one of local ads because it was bringing him more produce than he could handle. Well that did not sound so bad to us because we know it had a two to one ad meaning in it. "That it paid to advertise."

Married

In last issue we failed to have space to give the marriage of Mr. Carl Berber of this place and Miss Josie Camp of Lakewood, N. M. The wedding took place at Carlsbad, Saturday Jan. 29, from whence they went back to Lakewood, the home of the bride, and spent until the Tuesday following when they came to Lovington where they will make their future home. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Camp formerly of this place but now of Lakewood, and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Aber of this place and has also been in the employ of the Lovington Gro. & Dry Goods Co. for some time, making them a number one hand so they say. The happy couple will reside in the southwest part of town and they are wished much pleasure through life by their many friends.

Boys and Girls Clubs Active

Another trip was made to the Plains country by county agent J. W. Knorr. This time he brought Mr. W. T. Conway State leader in Boy's and Girl's club work in the State of New Mexico.

The Lovington Boy's and Girl's Poultry club has been organized and under the leadership of Mr. R. R. Jones they are going to do some excellent work. He will lead the Boy's Corn club which was organized in the school. Mr. Knorr will supervise the work of the boy's Pig club.

A Poultry club was organized at Knowles, also at the Highlonesome school and several children at Highlonesome have their hens setting already.

A Girl's Cooking and Sewing club is to be organized later for the older girls in the Lovington school. Miss King will supervise this work in connection with the school work in Home Economics.

A contest will be held in Lovington about the 15th. of Sept. to decide upon the winners. At this time cash prizes will be offered and it is hoped that the business men of the town will liberally support this club movement in a financial way. Both Mr. Conway and County Agent Knorr are more than pleased with the enthusiasm shown by the Plains boys and girls in this club work.

Carlsbad Plays Lovington

On last Saturday after several attempts on both sides to engage in a basketball game at Lovington, the Carlsbad High School girls and boys arrived, and at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon the games commenced. The first players being the girls of Carlsbad and Lovington. A large crowd was in attendance and the excitement and anticipation for winning ran high on both sides. But alas for our High School team, owing to their lack of practice they lost, by Carlsbad winning 25 points to their 13. Much if not more of the same enthusiasm reigned throughout the boys game and at one time it was thought the score for Carlsbad would be easy, but owing to some close playing on both sides Carlsbad skinned ahead with one score in her favor the game being 10 to 11.

Lovington Entertains Carlsbad

Last Saturday night after the basketball games were over the members of our Lovington school with the assistance of several of the High School girls entertained the Carlsbad players at the Odd Fellows hall. The reception committee received the guests which numbered in all, including the Lovington guests, about eighty-five.

Fifteen tables were placed about the hall on which were spread various games for the amusement of the guests and an entertaining committee appointed to see that everyone who wished enjoyed the games, while the player piano that belongs to the hall, was kept busy playing the latest pieces for the musically inclined, by the chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. James who had that part of the program in charge. Refreshments of cake and punch were served, and all will long remember the eventful and much enjoyed occasion.
