Faculty Constitution

Administrative Board and Director. The appointment of Deans and Directors of Schools and Divisions... The President of the University shall appoint... The Administrative Board shall consist of... The Faculty shall elect... The President of the University shall appoint... The Administrative Board shall consist of... The Faculty shall elect...

(b) The Voting Faculty shall elect three members to the Administrative Committee, or similar body, who shall hold office for three years and shall be ineligible for re-election in an immediate successive term. The term of service of the elected faculty representatives shall be staggered so that no less than one-third of the members shall be re-elected each year.

Article IV. General

Section 1. Adoption of Constitution: This Constitution shall be effective when approved by a two-thirds vote of the University Faculty present and voting and ratified by the Regents.

Section 2. Amendments: This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Voting Faculty present and voting and ratification by the Regents. Amendments shall lie on the table for thirty days before final action.

Section 3. By-Laws: This Constitution shall be supplemented by by-laws of the Faculty when such are adopted by a majority vote of the Voting Faculty and by by-laws of any College when such are adopted by majority vote of the College Faculty. Such by-laws will normally include: (1) interpretations and implementation of this Constitution; (2) the teaching act of the University; (3) a statement of professional policy; (4) a statement of the duties and responsibilities of the standing committees of the University Faculty; (5) other faculty regulations; and (6) college regulations.

Section 4. Distribution: This Constitution and the by-laws of the Faculty shall be kept up to date as amended and distributed to the Faculty of the University at least once each year.
