The timber wealth of the United States gives a steady prospect of a country of more than twice the present land and part of the mines.

As a rule, the more money is thrown, the more it is scattered, and the more it is scattered, the more it is lost.

This week's (Nov. 28) edition of the Weekly Citizen, will contain a special article on the subject of the Rio Grande valley.

It is a well known fact that the Rio Grande valley is one of the most fertile and productive in the United States.

A DELICIOUS PARTY.

Armory Hall the scene of an informal dance last night. A most enjoyable party, at which dancing was the chief source of entertainment, was held last night at Armory hall, the arrangements being in the hands of the young gentlemen of the company.

Sam Picard officiated as floor manager, winning general commendation for his efficiency in that capacity. The music was furnished by W. E. Butler and Elias Garcia, and the company indulged in a select program of dances, consisting of sixteen numbers. The entire affair was declared by those present to be one of the most delightful of the season.

The following names were present: Fred Lewis and wife, R. K. Gentry and wife, Misses Buckley, Saunders, DeMars, Reynolds, Bessie and Annie Deland, Wallace, James, Jones, Lily Hughes, Miller, Ellis, Claiton, Hawkins, Fry, Hamm, Renner, Messrs. Sam Picard, A. J. Madison, Meade, Gilbert, Chas. and Ray McDonald, Reynolds, G. Jones, Jennings, Watson, Will, Bell, O'Connell, Ernest, W. C. Booth, Louis, Francis, J. D. Modler, Jr.

A SUCCESSFUL SALE.

The Ferguson Hook and Ladder Company.

Theodore given Wednesday night in Armory hall by the Ferguson hook and ladder company was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable affairs ever given in the city by any other kindred organization. The hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion and a choice program of dances filled the time until a late hour. The grand march, participated in by about one hundred couples, was led by Mr. W. H. and Mrs. J. H. Gaudes.

At midnight an intermission was taken for refreshments after which the formation of the night dance was explained. The company then the strain of "Home Sweet Home" from the orchestra announced the hour for dispersal.

The Ferguson boys in not so things by halves, whether they be dressed in the rubber coat and helmet that indicate stern battle with the flames or in the conventional black and the shining shirt front that accompany social duties, and the hall of Wednesday night was simply one more added to their list of successes.

From Friday's Daily.

The public schools will be closed until Monday.

Numerous duck hunters visited the Los Lunas lake yesterday.

The Commercial club had on Wednesday night was well attended.

A. H. Hale of the government Indian school, visited Santa Fe to eat Thanksgiving dinner with friends.

The ladies of the Public Park association held a meeting at the residence of Mrs. F. H. Kent this morning.

Mrs. Sayre, the excellent teacher in the Indian school at Laguna is in the city, the guest of her friend, Mrs. Duran.

Miss Emma Hunting, of Los Lunas, came up to the metropolis to spend Thanksgiving and is the guest of Miss Arrio.

Geo. Marsh, local editor of the New Mexican at Santa Fe, came in from the north last night and is registered at the European.

H. Z. Zuck, a prominent attorney of Tempe, Arizona, who has many friends in this city, is the proud father of a brand new girl baby.

Engineers Ross and Dixon, and J. W. Akers and W. W. Easton left Thanksgiving morning for a ten days' hunt up in the desert mountains.

A. L. Scheldt, traveling auditor for the Mutual Life Insurance company, is in the city today. The gentleman will leave tomorrow for Denver.

L. F. Kuhn is building a light delivery wagon for the Whitney company, and has also a mountain wagon to build for Leonard Skinner, the lumber dealer.

S. H. Fine, formerly in John Denair's office in this city, and now agent for the railroad company at Holbrook, Arizona, went to Chicago last night on a vacation.

W. T. McCreight, city editor of THE CITIZEN, left on Wednesday night for Shelbyville, Kentucky, where he was called by the serious illness of his mother.

Gov. Thornton went up the road last night to Santa Fe. He stated that the reported sale of the New Mexican was untrue, the negotiations not being satisfactory to the owners of the paper.

M. L. Chase, of Hialeah, one of the active promoters of the Cehiti mining district, is still in the city. His confidence in the camp is unabated—adequate mining facilities alone being needed to bring the camp to the front.

Ex-Gen. Ross, secretary of the New Mexican bureau of immigration, is in the city, from a visit to the southern counties, where he was gathering material for a pamphlet which will be issued in January on the subject of irrigation. The work will contain a map showing the water courses and water ditches of the territory.

A jolly bachelor party of five enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner together yesterday in the rooms in rear of Conner & Glaser's tailor shop. Louis Conner, William Glaser, John Mann, Chas. Collins and Frank Wintermute constituted the party. It is presumed that vows of eternal chivalry were renewed or newly taken.

"Bud" Mandell, well-known in this city, but for five years past a resident of New York city, is engaged to be married to a Miss Marks of the metropolis. "Bud" is a son of the senior member of the firm of Mandell Bros., of New York and this city, and his many friends here extend congratulations.

W. E. Kelly, of Socorro, introduced by R. S. Stover, A. L. Scheldt, of New York, by W. E. Harper, R. E. Wells, of Prescott, by A. G. Wells, R. M. Hazleton, of Elton, Colo., and J. S. Gale, of Greeley, Colo., by F. Waugh, were recent callers at the Commercial club.

Fred. Matthe received a message today from an old chum at Stanford university stating that in the foot ball game yesterday between that university and the University of California Stanford came out ahead with a score of 29 to 0.

Mrs. S. E. Newcomer and her mother, Mrs. L. M. Miller, expect to leave tonight for a two weeks' visit to California.

PREPARE FOR ACTION.

Reception of the National Irrigation Congress.

Less than a month remains in which to prepare for the reception of the National Irrigation Congress. Phoenix people have begun to take the interest in this congress which was expected of them, and with a little more stirring up will probably be ready to give the thousand or more visitors a cordial and enthusiastic welcome.

The event promises to be a notable one for several reasons. One of these is the dual elevation of Arizona into the irrigator's councils of the nation, which the bringing of the congress into the territory will undoubtedly effect. The possible battles and the necessities of this peculiar country call for widespread public attention at this time, and that attention can only come from the encouragement that will be given to investors and prospective residents of the territory by personal inspection of the development and of the resources of the vicinity up to date.

Another possible reason for the special interest of the forthcoming irrigation congress is the eminence that may be given to the question of government control of aid to irrigation. It is not improbable that a committee will be appointed to draft and submit a bill covering this ground to the Fifty-fifth congress. Should the bill pass favor at Washington, the irrigation congress which patented it will become historic.

The Maudslayi Tractor.

On Thursday last a man was found murdered within a few miles of this city. By the moving accident the matter reached the newspapers. You might have walked the streets of Las Vegas all day and not have heard a word uttered concerning the awful deed. Only a stranger mentioned there was no one making a great deal over that. Little by little we think that for this stranger who now dwells a forgotten grave somewhere out on the plains, there perhaps awaits a loving wife and fatherless and hungry children, or anxious parents who will never know the fate of their boy. A life has been snuffed out by the cruel hand of an assassin in our midst and the word, "sign of message to any one who left by the unfortunate man to tell us who he had been, or what he had been."

There is an effort to bring the murderer to justice being made by the officers of the law. Or will the murderers be allowed to visit Las Vegas each week, and mingle among their fellow men until another opportunity for cold blooded murder presents itself?

In the past year a number of people have been found dead, murdered, within this county, and so far as we know, no systematic effort has been made to bring the guilty parties to justice. It is indeed a sad state of affairs, when such terrible crime may be committed at our very door, and public feeling is so little aroused by it. Las Vegas Optic.

Arizona Items.

Phoenix has a handsome new post office.

Lots in Jerome advanced $100 in price within ten days.

The territory's wool yield is estimated at 2,170,273 pounds.

The boys of the University of Arizona are in new college uniforms.

Tucson boasts of more fraternal organizations than any other town in the territory.

The Spanish-American Alliance will hold a convention in Tucson on December 20th.

About a dozen cases of small pox are reported among the Pima Indians near the Gila bridge near Tempe.

The Aztec Land and Cattle company of Holbrook, Arizona, shipped a train load of cattle to Kansas City this morning.

The Tucson Star predicts that the extension of the Santa Fe Railroad from Phoenix to Tucson will be inaugurated before the close of the year.

The ladies of the Catholic church of Tempe, assisted by the local band, gave an entertainment in that city to raise funds for the church.

Wildcats are numerous this year in the foothills adjacent to Phoenix. Three have been killed during the past two weeks within seven miles of the city.

Orange picking in the Salt River valley has now begun, and within a few days there will be plenty in the market. The crop this year is an excellent one.

Arizona's total vote for delegate at the recent election is given by the Arizona Herald as follows: Smith, 9,065; Loran, 4,050; O'Neill, 3,850. Total votes cast, 14,965.

It now costs the saloon-keepers of Flagstaff $20 a month to employ women singers, the city council having recently passed an ordinance to that effect. Lewd dancing within the corporate limits is also prohibited.

The Indian agent at San Carlos has found a way to settle the railroad right of way question. This is to poll all Indians on the reservation, and if a majority is in favor of the railroad the right of way will be granted.

Virgil Karp, one of the Karp brothers, who figured prominently in the early history of Tombstone as officers in their feuding dealings with cowboys and stage robbers, had a narrow escape from being killed in a mine near Phoenix, when a cave of rock caved, burying him beneath it. He was unconscious for several hours, his right hip being dislocated, both feet badly crushed, and sustained a serious cut on his head, besides other bruises. The doctor thinks he will pull through but will be laid up for several weeks.

The Mohave Miner says: H. B. Davis accidentally shot himself in the leg a few days ago. He was riding a light horse and driving some cattle, when one of the steers got on the ramp and started after him. It was about to get Davis' horse, when Davis pulled his pistol to shoot the steer, and just as he pulled the trigger the steer caught his leg and threw it under the muzzle of the pistol. He was taken to Hackberry and Dr. Kelly went up and dressed the wound. It will be some time before he can chase cattle again.

The Prescott Courier says: A miner who came from Lynx creek last evening stated that Judge Griffin had sold his Fortune mine to the Lily company for $40,000 cash. The Fortune mine has 100 acres of ore in sight which will yield $50 per ton of gold. The mine has a 100-foot shaft and a vein which ranges from two to five feet in width. The Fortune Mountain mine, which is on the same vein as the Fortune, is being worked and the ore milled. This ore yields $50 gold per ton.

Phoenix and Prescott miners who in sportive ardor journeyed to the Gila river with happy expectations of returning with a wagon load of ducks and hunting gulls, have returned with a strong desire to kill some ducks. Within the last two weeks several parties have made the trip and they have come back with the remark that there is not a duck within a thousand miles of the river.

The Tombstone Prospector says: N. W. Ayer, the heavy cattle shipper to California, who came in from Sonora recently, stated that he found cattle scarce in the section he visited, the people apparently prosperous and hopeful, and grass better than for years. Mr. Ayer bought two train loads of cattle, which he expects to ship from Tucson about December 15.

The Phoenix Republican says: Mrs. W. A. Freese departed last night for Denver. She goes to accept a long engagement with an oil company in which she will make her debut as a prima donna. Phoenix audiences have had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Freese sing on several occasions, and the prediction is that she will make an enviable reputation as a vocalist.

CHATTAUQUAN CIRCLE.

A Most Interesting Meeting at the Residence of Mrs. Miller.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Vincent C. I. S. C. held last evening in the cozy parlors of Mrs. Miller, on Broadway, was one of the most interesting and profitable in the experience of this young but flourishing circle. This being the French-Greek week of the Chattauquan circle, the study is especially fascinating.

The program proper opened with a roll call of members for sentiments from the dramatist, Shakespeare. Following was a brief talk by J. H. Stingle, on "The Relation of Mary Stuart to France," a paper by Rev. Mr. Allen on "Savonarola," and a biographical sketch of John Calvin, by Miss Hendle, each of these topics receiving thorough discussion by the various members. The remainder of the literary part of the program consisted in the consideration of the assigned portion of "The Growth of the French Nation," and of "French Traits." For musical entertainment the circle was fortunate in having present the Mandolin club, as represented by Messrs. George Baldus, Harry Bullard, Sam Pickard and Will Saunders, whose sweet rendering of select numbers was heartily appreciated.

After delightful refreshments served by the genial hostess, and a pleasant time of conversation, the meeting adjourned.

The censors have arranged the following program for the next meeting, December 5:

Roll call of sentiments from Milton, "Catherine de Medici," by Miss Osgood, "Richard III," by Mr. Chamberlain.

"The French Colonial Possessions in America," by Miss Milligan.

Discussion of assigned work for study.

DISTRICT COURT.

Brink and Archibque Acquitted—Big Trial Now On Day.

The arguments of attorneys in the case of Brink and Archibque were brought to a close yesterday afternoon and the case was given to the jury at 5:30.

District Attorney Wilkerson made the closing speech, and his argument was a most effective and exhaustive resume of the testimony which had been offered by the prosecution.

The jury was out over two hours, and THE CITIZEN is reliably informed that in the beginning there was a strong sentiment in favor of conviction as to Brink, though Archibque's acquittal was a foregone conclusion from the first. After a number of ballots, however, acquittal for both defendants was agreed upon, and the court and clerk having been notified, the verdict was so announced.

The defendants were congratulated upon the verdict and walked from the court room free men. It is understood that they, with Mr. Knollin, in whose employ they are, will leave for the east this evening.

THE CIVIL DOCKET.

To-day one of the most important cases on the civil docket is before the court, and the array of legal talent in the case is such as seldom meets with in this court. The action is a suit in assumpsit brought by Wm. Ellinger, of Fox Island, Va., against Louis Huning, Franz Huning and Solomon Luna, to recover on a promissory note of $20,000.

The plaintiff Ellinger is represented by Childers & Dobson, Judge Waldo and Attorney Sulzbacher. Defendant Louis Huning is represented by F. W. Clancy; Franz Huning by H. B. Ferguson, and Solomon Luna by Nell R. Field.

The case is one which involves many legal points and it is likely to occupy the attention of the court for several days.

When this case is ended the case of Felix Apodaca, under indictment for murder, will be called.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Henry Rogers and family expect to move into their new house on West Coal avenue in about a week.

D. L. Sammis writes from Peabody, Kansas: "Hurrah for McKinley and victory; nothing to say for Kansas."

A lady bicyclist, dressed out as man, as possible and looking as much like a man as the figure could make her, appeared on the principal thoroughfare of the metropolis to-day, and cut quite a

U. S. LAND COURT.

Two Cases Tried and Submitted Yesterday—One Case Dismissed.

In the United States court of private land claims this morning, a full bench present, on the written consent of George Hill Howard, attorney for the claimants, the La Perla grant case, involving 400,000 acres of land in Valencia county, was dismissed for want of prosecution, says the New Mexican.

The trial of the Canada de Las Mesas grant case was concluded and the cause was submitted. This alleged grant is located in Tazoo county and was made by an alcalde of the pueblo of Tazoo in December, 1828, without any authority of law or right, so far as the evidence disclosed.

The Ojo de la Cabra grant case, involving 13,000 acres in Hernalcillo county, was also argued and submitted to-day. This grant was made in December, 1815, by the departmental assembly, and was revoked by said assembly in June of the same year. The oral and documentary evidence introduced failed to show that the departmental assembly had the power to make grants. The government admitted that most, if not all, of this grant was within the boundaries of lands claimed by the Ileta Indians. Mr. Catron represented the claimants, Mr. Solignac the Indians and Mr. Pope appeared for the government.

The Ojeas del Llano de las Aguias grant case, involving lands in Tazoo county, Smith H. Simpson et al. claimants, is on trial. It is claimed by the government that this grant is a forgery. Mr. Catron represents the claimants.

The New Mexican of Wednesday says: The trial of the Ojeas del Llano de las Aguias grant, of Tazoo county, continues on trial in the United States court of private land claims. Mr. W. M. Tipton, special agent, is on the stand this afternoon as an expert touching the alleged forgery of the grant in question.

In his report yesterday the New Mexican inadvertently stated that the La Perla grant, of Valencia county, No. 161, had been dismissed by consent of George Hill Howard. The name of the grant dismissed should have been given as the Guadalupe grant, No. 121, involving eleven square leagues of land in Colfax and Mora counties. Mr. Howard is also attorney for the claimants in this case.

CHATTAUQUAN CIRCLE.

A Most Interesting Meeting at the Residence of Mrs. Miller.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Vincent C. I. S. C. held last evening in the cozy parlors of Mrs. Miller, on Broadway, was one of the most interesting and profitable in the experience of this young but flourishing circle. This being the French-Greek week of the Chattauquan circle, the study is especially fascinating.

The program proper opened with a roll call of members for sentiments from the dramatist, Shakespeare. Following was a brief talk by J. H. Stingle, on "The Relation of Mary Stuart to France," a paper by Rev. Mr. Allen on "Savonarola," and a biographical sketch of John Calvin, by Miss Hendle, each of these topics receiving thorough discussion by the various members. The remainder of the literary part of the program consisted in the consideration of the assigned portion of "The Growth of the French Nation," and of "French Traits." For musical entertainment the circle was fortunate in having present the Mandolin club, as represented by Messrs. George Baldus, Harry Bullard, Sam Pickard and Will Saunders, whose sweet rendering of select numbers was heartily appreciated.

After delightful refreshments served by the genial hostess, and a pleasant time of conversation, the meeting adjourned.

The censors have arranged the following program for the next meeting, December 5:

Roll call of sentiments from Milton, "Catherine de Medici," by Miss Osgood, "Richard III," by Mr. Chamberlain.

"The French Colonial Possessions in America," by Miss Milligan.

Discussion of assigned work for study.

DISTRICT COURT.

Brink and Archibque Acquitted—Big Trial Now On Day.

The arguments of attorneys in the case of Brink and Archibque were brought to a close yesterday afternoon and the case was given to the jury at 5:30.

District Attorney Wilkerson made the closing speech, and his argument was a most effective and exhaustive resume of the testimony which had been offered by the prosecution.

The jury was out over two hours, and THE CITIZEN is reliably informed that in the beginning there was a strong sentiment in favor of conviction as to Brink, though Archibque's acquittal was a foregone conclusion from the first. After a number of ballots, however, acquittal for both defendants was agreed upon, and the court and clerk having been notified, the verdict was so announced.

The defendants were congratulated upon the verdict and walked from the court room free men. It is understood that they, with Mr. Knollin, in whose employ they are, will leave for the east this evening.

THE CIVIL DOCKET.

To-day one of the most important cases on the civil docket is before the court, and the array of legal talent in the case is such as seldom meets with in this court. The action is a suit in assumpsit brought by Wm. Ellinger, of Fox Island, Va., against Louis Huning, Franz Huning and Solomon Luna, to recover on a promissory note of $20,000.

The plaintiff Ellinger is represented by Childers & Dobson, Judge Waldo and Attorney Sulzbacher. Defendant Louis Huning is represented by F. W. Clancy; Franz Huning by H. B. Ferguson, and Solomon Luna by Nell R. Field.

The case is one which involves many legal points and it is likely to occupy the attention of the court for several days.

When this case is ended the case of Felix Apodaca, under indictment for murder, will be called.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Henry Rogers and family expect to move into their new house on West Coal avenue in about a week.

D. L. Sammis writes from Peabody, Kansas: "Hurrah for McKinley and victory; nothing to say for Kansas."

A lady bicyclist, dressed out as man, as possible and looking as much like a man as the figure could make her, appeared on the principal thoroughfare of the metropolis to-day, and cut quite a swell. She landed in the city last night from the south, on the No. 3 passenger train, and this morning, from the numerous packages she received. It was learned that her name is Mrs. J. A. Phillips. She doesn't care to talk, not even to newspaper representatives, and of course the public doesn't know whether she is the representative of some bicycle factory or making a tour "around the world" on her wheel.

A. L. Van Antwerp and wife, of City of Mexico, came in from the south last night, being met at the depot by their friend, Mrs. Frank Parsons, where they will enjoy Thanksgiving dinner with friends and return south to Mexico on Friday morning. Mr. Van Antwerp was formerly assistant live stock agent for the Santa Fe railway, headquarters this city; he is now assistant general freight agent for the Mexican Central railway.

J. K. Hurley, the efficient and worthy division superintendent for the Santa Fe railway, and stenographer Kiter, in special car 106 attached to regular passenger train No. 2, came in from the south last night, after accompanying the Higgins-Frey special train as far south as El Paso. Mr. Hurley informed THE CITIZEN representative that the Santa Fe officials are now "touring" the Sonora branch to Guaymas, and expect to be in Albuquerque Monday or Tuesday of next week.

The New Mexican says: "General Agent L. J. Helm is home from a highly successful business trip to central Rio Grande valley points which he went in the interest of the Denver & Rio Grande company. At Albuquerque he contracted for the immediate delivery of fifty car loads of merchandise from San Luis valley points to be shipped in here and transferred to the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe for transportation to the Dulock city."

Judge W. K. Kelly, of Socorro, prominently mentioned in connection with the judge-ship of the Fifth judicial district, came in from the south last night and made a pleasant call at THE CITIZEN office. The judge does not say much but thinks lots, and he will turn up some strong backing for the position desired when the proper time arrives.

Burt Jones and wife, who have resided in the city since the baseball tournament, left last night for Pueblo, Colo. He stated yesterday that he expected to be engaged as one of the pitchers of the baseball team of Pueblo for 1907, and later in the season rejoin the Milwaukee team. He and wife, however, will probably return to this city in a few days.

This morning W. T. McCright received a dispatch from Shelbyville, Ky., that his brother-in-law, Noah Snider, died suddenly there this morning. Mr. McCright has received the past week, telegrams regarding the illness of his mother, who is sick with typhoid fever, but the latter, although not out of danger, is considered better to-day.

J. B. Shepard, stock raiser out in the Navajo country, came in from the west last night, and has arranged with Live Stock Agent Brooks to ship five car loads of horses to the Florida market. Mr. Shepard shipped a number of horses to Florida some time ago, and found there a first-class horse market.

Henry Brockmeyer, of the bicycle firm of Smith & Brockmeyer, and Bert Vorhes, one of Albuquerque's professional riders, left this morning for El Paso, where Bert is entered to take part in the bicycle races there tomorrow. It is a safe bet to make that he will capture several of the best prizes.

Although nearly 4,000 pounds of turkey have been sold by the various dealers in this city for Thanksgiving, still it is understood that the demand was greater than the supply. Turkey, at 12½ cents per pound, finds a ready market among Albuquerqueans.

Mrs. A. B. Heynon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Baldus, who was here visiting from Corpus Christi, Texas, returned to her Texas home the other morning, being accompanied as far south on her trip as El Paso by her mother, Mrs. Theo. Baldus, the latter returning home last night.

Kestern physicians, who attended the Pan-American Medical congress at City of Mexico, are returning east on every train from the south. Dr. Metcalf, of Dayton, Ohio, and Dr. Ellis, of Quincy, Ill., passed through the city last night.

R. K. Wells, assistant general manager for the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix, came in from the west on the No. 4 yesterday morning, and is the guest of his brother, A. G. Wells, general superintendent for the Atlantic & Pacific railway.

A territorial exchange says: "Mrs. Sydney Austin, formerly of Las Cruces, but late of Gallup, procured a divorce at Albuquerque during last week, and in less than two hours afterwards again ventured the matrimonial snare."

Yesterday afternoon Photographer Cobb took several bird-eye views of the city for Messrs. Milliken and Southworth, who are writing up the big souvenir edition of THE CITIZEN which will be issued a few days before the holidays.

Richard Pohl, secretary to Louis Huning, and manager of that gentleman's stock interests in central New Mexico, came in from Los Lunas last night. He is here on court matters.

Mrs. Wm. Burns, wife of the well-known deputy internal revenue collector for this district, Judge Burns, has been on the sick list for the past week. She is reported convalescing to-day.

Louis Traser left yesterday for the sheep ranches of McIntosh & McMillan and H. M. Howie & Co., east of the city. He is after some sheep, and will be absent several days.

W. T. Lowe and wife, of Mayfield, popular folks from the Hine Grae country, came in from the north this morning and have their quarters at Sturges' European.

A. S. Alston, representing the Equitable Life Assurance society, down in southern New Mexico the past few weeks, has returned to the city.

J. A. Harlan, a popular Santa Fe official, headquarters at San Marcial, came in from the south last night and is at the Highland house.

T. A. Riordan, a prominent business gentleman of Flagstaff, came in from the west last night and is at Sturges' European.

Mrs. G. W. Johnston, wife of Lawyer Johnston, who was down in Texas on a visit to relatives, returned last night.

WITH THE ANCIENTS.

Visit to the Ruins of the Verde's Pre-historic People.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Conkey and niece, Miss Davis, George Toney and J. W. Benham returned last Monday from a tour of prehistoric cities, towns and villages, which are situated about sixty miles northeast of here, on the Verde river. These places are now only in evidence as remarkable ruins, but there is abundant evidence that their inhabitants were thrifty, industrious and civilized, and withal good warriors when harassed by enemies.

Each locality has its burial ground, and in the ruins of several rooms in large structures (Mr. Benham states that he counted 140 in one building—rooms with the walls well defined, are numerous articles and implements for domestic purposes, some in a state of remarkable preservation.

The party was out ten days and was quite busy exploring "the city of the dead" for relics and curios. They had three men employed to do the heavy work, and were quite successful in unearthing a select lot of specimens, such as pottery, stone (bottle) axes, thigh bones, bone looking, handsome beads, radius and ulna bones (some of these remarkable length, being from five to six inches longer than the forearm bones of ordinary mortals of the present time), hand-some shell ornaments and human skulls.

Mr. Benham is collecting specimens, and will not doubt before long have a rare cabinet of grusome relics.—Phoenix Republican.

NEW MEXICO NOTES.

There would seem to be an epidemic of marriages at Tempe.

An attempt is to be made to reorganize the base land at Socorro.

The smelter at Kelly sends to market 100 bars of bullion every third day.

The movement to incorporate Las Cruces appears to be strengthening daily.
