Fraternal Orders Strong For Saving

Fraternal orders should take an active interest in the 1919 Savings Campaign in the opinion of Pat M. Neff of Waco, Grand Chancellor of the Texas Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias. Another enthusiast over the Savings Campaign is J. W. Chancellor of Bowie, Grand Master of the Texas Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

"In the Savings Campaign," Mr. Neff said recently, "the Government has placed the stamp of its approval on the fraternal idea. War Savings Societies are not lodges, strictly speaking, but they are next thing to it. Many of the most successful Savings Societies are in the lodges and the Knights of Pythias are doing their share."

"Texas Odd Fellows had a number of strong War Savings Societies last year," Mr. Chancellor said, "and most of them made excellent records. Wherever possible, it would be a fine idea for the members of the lodge to form themselves into a Savings Society again this year, if they have not already done so."

Numerous lodges of various orders over the Eleventh Federal District not only have Savings Societies but are securing sinking funds by investing in War Savings Stamps as a lodge. The members of these lodges are also buying W. S. S. individually.

Has your lodge been organized?

Farmers Find Easy Method of Saving

Farmers who are making a habit of getting a few Thrift Stamps every time they market anything from their farms are finding that they are able to save regularly and that they do not miss the small amounts invested. The average farmer in this section of the country depends largely on his "money" crop, which he harvests once a year. Almost every one of them, however, grows something else which he markets at odd times.

An occasional load of hay may be taken into town and sold. The thrifty farmer also plants peas, beans, okra, lettuce, beets or some of the other vegetables which thrive in the Southwest and for which there is a ready market. Butter and eggs form staple articles to be marketed between seasons. By buying just a few Thrift Stamps each time the farm-wagon makes a haul to town, the farmer or his wife is providing a fund which they will be able to turn to good account later on, for when these Thrift Stamps are exchanged for War Savings Stamps, they increase in value automatically, and may always be turned into cash on ten days' written notice to the postmaster, although the longer they are kept the more they earn.

Have you bought your Thrift Stamps today?

GET IN LINE!

Just look at them lined up! Everybody is joining a War Savings Society—that's why the lines form W. S. S. If you're not in one—get in. If there is not one handy—organize one. If you don't know how—write to Frank M. Smith, Federal District Director, Dallas, Texas, and the necessary information and blanks will be sent you by return mail.

ANARCHY EXPERT DISCUSSES FORD

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR CALLED TO POINT OUT "RED" DOCTRINES.

WHEN IS MAN AN ANARCHIST?

Plaintiff's Views Are Shown to Be Those of Best Loved American Thinkers and Writers.

"ANARCHISTS."

Professor Jesse B. Reeves says Henry Ford's doctrine that Humanity is constantly on the upgrade and that while it makes mistakes everything tends toward good, is "A fundamental principle of anarchy."

Ford's counsel reads quotations from Emerson, Whittier, Lowell, Holmes and Abbott, showing that they held the same view.

Question: "Were these men anarchists?"
Witness answers, "No."

Mt. Clemens, Mich.—Who is an anarchist—and what is anarchy?

The Chicago Tribune, which called Henry Ford an anarchist, and was promptly sued for $1,000,000 as a result, introduced an expert witness on anarchy in the trial now going on in Mt. Clemens, Mich. In an effort to establish definitions of anarchy and anarchists which would convince the jury that there was no libel in the newspaper attack on the manufacturer.

Prof. Jesse B. Reeves, head of the department of Political Economy of the University of Michigan, was engaged by The Tribune to support its contentions by his testimony.

Under direct examination by counsel for the Tribune, Professor Reeves declared that the views credited to Mr. Ford by journalists who had interviewed him were identical with the views held by such well known anarchists as Emma Goldman, Tucker, Proudhon and Tolstol.

The Tribune introduced as evidence of Henry Ford's anarchy the following quotations, attributed to him in articles which have appeared in newspapers and magazines:

Fundamentals of Anarchy.

"To my mind Humanity may make mistakes, but cannot do anything worse. I think that everything tends toward good. Even this great and bloody war is helping toward permanent peace."

"I think war is largely the result of greed on the part of those who profit by it."

"The moment we get people not to acquiesce in war, refuse to go to war, there will be no more war."

These views, Prof. Reeves testified, were found in the works of every anarchist of international reputation and were, in fact, fundamental principles of anarchy.

Thereupon counsel for Mr. Ford took the witness.

"Professor Reeves," said counsel, "was Benjamin Franklin an anarchist?"

"No."

"He said, 'There never was a good war, or a bad peace.' Was he an anarchist because he said that?"

"Certainly not."

"Professor, is the idea that Humanity is on the upgrade, as Mr. Ford believes, a fundamental of anarchy?"

"Yes, anarchism holds that Humanity is all right, it only needs to be let alone and it will work out its own salvation."

Were They Anarchists?

"Yet this idea was held by Emerson, Whittier, Bronson, Abbott, William James, John Fiske, Oliver Wendell Holmes and James Russell Lowell. Were they anarchists because they believed this?"

"No."

"Isn't it true that many wars in the past, not all but a majority, were brought on by the quarrels, greed and avarice of rulers?"

"I think many wars have been brought on, I think this war was."

"Do you agree that it is very foolish for the people of the countries involved to allow themselves to be slaughtered in such wars?"

"As we look back on it now, yes, we would say that."

"Well, that is precisely the sentiment you call anarchy in Mr. Ford."

Much testimony having been offered to show that Mr. Ford held the same views as the armed forces of the nation and that he also provided aid for the dependents where the latter were in need, The Tribune, which originally charged that Mr. Ford would not do any of these things, is now attempting to prove that the assistance which gave was late and was a result of the Tribune's attack.

Checks Produced.

Counsel for Mr. Ford has produced stacks of cancelled checks showing that regular monthly allowances were sent out to soldiers' dependents who applied for aid, beginning as soon as the case could be investigated and the records made, and continuing until the husband returned to work.

"Our Boys Did It"

Are you grateful? If you are grateful keep on helping the Government until the last one of them is home—Buy War Savings Stamps!—The Government still needs money to feed "Our Boys" who are scattered over Europe and to bring them home. Stand by Them until every Mother's Son is back on American soil.

The First Thousand Is Hard To Get

When a man gets $1,000.00 saved up there are always opportunities for a good investment. It is hard to place much less than that. That is why wealthy men who are self-made advise young men to begin early and save the first thousand.

Until we went to war, it was hard to get started toward that $1,000.00 unless at least one dollar could be put away at a time. Small change was restless and acrobatic and kept jumping out of our pockets into somebody else's.

Now, however, there is an easy way to get that first thousand. The answer is Thrift Stamps. They cost only a quarter apiece and can be converted into War Savings Stamps. The Government of the United States backs these War Savings Stamps with a guarantee of 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly. Save and Succeed.

Have you bought your Thrift Stamp today?

Who Is Best Man To Do Your Work?

The best way to have anything do it yourself. The best way to get ahead in the world is—save regularly and invest wisely. Your children may be buying Thrift Stamps but the nickels and dimes and quarters they are able to save won't buy a home or a new automobile or a new cultivation. The money to do that will not be saved—unless you save it.

It's easy enough to save if you do it the W. S. S. way. Quarters planted in Thrift Stamps grow into War Savings Stamps and the interest makes them grow like rain does a summer weed. Save for that happy opportunity. If you're not in a War Savings Society—get in one. Be with the crowd. Save.
