BANDITS LOOT BANK AT SUNOL

DENVER BUSINESS MEN TAKEN BY POSSE, SAVED FROM MOB BY SHERIFF.

TWO KILLED IN BATTLE

COLORADO POSTMASTER HELD AS ONE OF HOLDUPS WHO TOOK $4,000.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Denver.—Two Denver business men are under arrest in Sydney, Neb., charged with the holdup Friday of the Farmers State bank at Sunol, Neb., which resulted in two farmers being killed after $4,000 had been taken from the bank vaults. They gave their names as J. W. Cornell and R. G. Lukens. Cornell is the postmaster at Insmost, Colo., according to the authorities, who declare he gave his father's initials instead of his own name, which is Frank. Until recently Frank Cornell maintained offices at 303-4 Denham building, where, at various times he operated a printing press, a phonograph concern and a specialty sales company. Lukens, a close friend of Cornell, gave the Denham office as his address.

The farmers killed were Ira C. Paup and Paul Vacik, widely known in the vicinity. They were shot while helping an armed posse pursue the bandits after they escaped from the bank in an automobile.

The highwaymen were saved from violence at the hands of an armed mob of more than 500 residents of Sunol and vicinity only by a ruse of Sheriff McDaniel of Cheyenne county, Neb., who led the posse that captured them.

Perpetrated in broad daylight, in the business rush during the noon hour, and in the heart of the business section of the city, the robbery was one of the most daring and spectacular in the history of the plains.

Charles M. Waters, captain of local postoffice inspectors, received from the state's attorney at Sydney a telegram announcing that money orders, blanks, stamps and other postoffice material from the Insmost office was found in the possession of Cornell when he was searched at the Sydney jail.

U. S. TO SPEND $700,000,000.

Senate Adds $131,000,000 to Army Provisions Made in House.

Washington.—Nearly $700,000,000 for national defense in the fiscal year 1917 is the aggregate of proposed appropriations in the Senate with the passage of the army appropriation bill carrying in round numbers $214,000,000.

This grand total still is subject to revision, because the army bill will follow the naval bill in conference and deductions are probable, despite the firm attitude of President Wilson in supporting the liberal response of the Senate to the call for adequate defense.

The appropriations for preparedness as they now stand are as follows:
Army $131,970,447.10
Navy 315,826,843.55
Fortifications, (law) 25,748,050.00
Military academy 2,238,336.57
Army deficiency 27,559,348.05

Total $685,345,017.27
As it passed the Senate, the army bill exceeded the appropriations made by the House by more than $131,000,000.

Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Austro-Germans, more than 9,000 men were taken prisoner and a large number of guns were captured.

CARRANZA OFFER ACCEPTED BY U.S.

NOTE GIVEN TO AMBASSADOR OF DE FACTO REGIME IS BASIS OF PEACE PROPOSALS.

TO NAME COMMISSION

PRESIDENT CONSIDERING SEVERAL MEN FOR INTERNATIONAL BOARD.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Washington, July 29.—The United States government accepted in full the Carranza proposal for the appointment of a joint commission to consider the causes of difference between the two republics and make recommendations on which the governments in turn shall act. The note Arredondo is requested to deliver to Secretary Aguilar and which went forward by telegraph, follows:

"Mr. Secretary: I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your excellency's note transmitted under date of July 12 by Eliseo Arredondo, your government's confidential agent in Washington, informing me that your excellency has received instructions from the Citizen First Chief of the Constitutional army charged with the executive power of the union to propose that each of our governments name three commissioners, who shall hold conferences at some place to be mutually agreed upon, and decide forthwith the question relating to the evacuation of the American forces now in Mexico and to draw up and conclude a protocol or agreement regarding the reciprocal crossing of the frontier by the forces of both countries; also to determine the origin of the incursions to date in order to fix the responsibility thereof and definitely to settle the difficulties now pending or those which may arise between the two countries on account of the same or a similar reason; all of which shall be subject to the approval of both governments.

"In reply, I have the honor to state that I have laid your excellency's note before the President, and have received his instruction to inform your excellency that the government of the United States is disposed to accept the proposal of the Mexican government in the same spirit of frank cordiality in which it is made.

"This government believes and suggests, however, that the powers of the proposed commission should be enlarged, so that, if happily a solution satisfactory to both governments of the questions set forth in your excellency's communication may be reached, the commission may also consider such other matters the friendly arrangement of which would tend to improve the relations of the two countries; it being understood that such recommendations as the commission may make shall not be binding upon the respective governments until formally accepted by them.

"Should this proposal be accepted by your excellency's government, I have the honor to state that this government will proceed immediately to appoint its commissioners and fix, after consultation with your excellency's government, the time and place, and other details of the proposed conference.

"Accept, Mr. Secretary, the assurances of my highest consideration,
"FRANK L. POLK,
"Acting Secretary of State."

Believed Carranza Will Accept.

It is believed by diplomats and others here that Carranza will accept the counter-proposition of the Washington government and enlarge the powers of the proposed commission if he has his own way.

President Wilson is understood to have at least a score of men under consideration for appointment as commissioners. Among them are Chief Justice White, Maj. Gen. Goethals, former governor of the canal zone; Frederick Lehman, former solicitor general, and Louis D. Brandeis, associate justice of the Supreme Court. It was stated authoritatively that the President had not attempted as yet to make any selections.

Unofficial information from Mexico City has been to the effect that Luis Cabrera, Mexican minister of finance, would head the Mexican membership.

A Trip to Carlsbad

To the readers of the Leader:

On a trip to Carlsbad last month in company with Mrs. Tandy and her 3 boys, Doyle, Frank and William, also Mrs. Crockett my better half, we were all in a hack while Oran Crockett drove 4 miles to a wagon which contained Mrs. Tandy's household goods.

Mr. B. D. Tandy had already gone on before us, and secured the position as telegraph operator a line of work with which he is very familiar and with which service he is perfectly delighted as he has taught telegraphy several years in Ft. Worth.

It took us over two days to make the trip, and when we arrived at Carlsbad, we found Mr. Tandy has a house already rented, swept and varnished, so we unloaded by about sundown. We stayed till Monday morning and took in the sights as best we could but cannot give it in detail, but we found it a rather low place and seemed disagreeable so far as heat is concerned to one who was enjoying the high fresh breeze of the plains country. The water has a very pleasant taste, but not so cold as on the plains.

I was told that there were about 2700 inhabitants in Carlsbad, and seemed tolerably healthy. This was my first trip to this little

I came to Lovington in Feb. 1915 from Southern Texas, with the intention of putting in a blacksmith shop, but have just now gotten into the business.

Notice To Old Soldiers

Owing to the drought and hard times, the old soldiers have decided to have our reunion on the second day of the annual picnic and barbecue of Lovington which is Aug. 24, 25, and 26. All old soldiers and their families of both the gray and the blue are most respectfully invited to meet with us on that day Aug. 25th, and have a good old soldiers time.

city, but I am hoping and expecting to make another this summer. It is really a better and nicer town than I expected to see. There is lots of business at Carlsbad.

We went to hear Rev. Redman preach at the Methodist church on Sunday at 11 a. m. and took a spin with him in the afternoon to Loving where he preached at 3:30 p. m. He seems to be very busy with his work.

Monday morning we started home and Oran was loaded with freight for the People's Mercantile Co. of Lovington. The load was 5,000 lbs. and the team managed to get along all O. K. until we arrived at the real cap rock where we attached another team, and had no trouble pulling it up on the hill which is not so very steep any way. With a little more work on this road there would be lots of travel from the plains country, and it would pay Carlsbad to see that the necessary work be done to make it good. I am a good road crank any way. Will say here Miss Editor, if you will allow it I might write on this subject later. Will say we need good roads every where.

The heavy streak we had of rain was about 20 miles in width with light showers at other places. They had a pretty good top shower at Carlsbad, but not enough to make the moister meet. We camped at the same two places coming home that we did going to Carlsbad, namely 6 miles from Lovington and at the Williams ranch that is run by Mr. Robertson. We made the trip in two days and about two hours over.

Now readers I hope I have not worried anyone, for when I make a trip any where it seems I am bound to tell it to some paper as I have been a regular newspaper reporter for a good many years, and what I see and enjoy, I love to tell it to others.

What Others Say of Our Town

Out on the staked plains in eastern Eddy County has risen a bright modern city known as Lovington. Though far away from a railroad its trade territory has great resources that have attracted aggressive men. This city of the plains is keeping pace with the world at large, its last adventure being the installation of an electric light plant.

Every summer before the regular fair time is on, it invites the world to a three day picnic with plenty of variety of amusement from horse racing, roping down to base ball. To be sure that every visitor will have a square meal or two, they spread a barbecue on a magnificent scale for everybody.

This year the doings began Aug. 24th, and they are ready to entertain a still larger attendance than a year ago when three thousand people came to the feast.

Incidentally it may be said that the growth of the "Staked Plains" in Texas and New Mexico the last few years is the marvel of the age. It is worth the trip to travel over the plains just see what is happening.

HE HAD MADE NO PROMISES

Substitute Was Not Asked If He "Could" Play the Game, but Only If He "Would."

Although he will not get many opportunities of playing in cricket matches this year, George Robey will help to keep himself fit by practicing at the nets at Lord's.

The famous comedian has a great love for the summer game, and he tells an amusing story of one of those days, when everything goes wrong, which once befell him. He was watching a game when one of the captains came up to him, explained that he was "a man short," and asked him if he would play.

"Certainly," agreed Robey.

He went out to field, and chiefly distinguished himself by missing two catches, fumbling the ball, and so on.

Not content with that, he made a duck when he went in to bat.

The captain who had got him to play took things badly.

"Why, you can't play at all!" he said sneeringly.

"Sir," replied George Robey majestically, "when you asked me to play you asked me if I would, not if I could. And so that's that."—Pearson's Weekly.

As the Years Roll On.

You remarked fatuously the other day, "I'm just as young as I ever was."

Oh, no, you're not! If young people weren't too polite they'd soon undeceive you. You have been so busy leading a successful life that you have forgotten to notice that your successful life has been led. Youth is flouting you every day. Youth is through with you. You appeal to it for recognition, and it laughs at you.

You still young? You? No, indeed! Look at real youth pursuing its fantastic preferences; at Reginald Warneford, engaging a Zepplin single-handed, in regions near the sun; at Otto von Weddigen leaving his bride to carry on a desperate warfare under seas.

Do you honestly sympathize with them?—Atlantic Monthly.

One Glance Was Enough.

Charley Towne, the magazine editor and poet, was once asked to act as the judge of a prize-story competition, open to all aspirants.

He consented.

From the publishing house conducting the contest a huge bundle of manuscripts was brought to him. Selecting a bulky envelope at random, he opened it and withdrew from it a great number of sheets of foolscap, covered on both sides of the pages with fine writing, done in purple ink and in a feminine hand.

Afterward, following his prompt resignation from the job of judge, Mr. Towne forgot the title of the story; but the opening sentence lingered in his memory. It was as follows:

"The day the ball was to be that night dawned auspiciously."

I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCERAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.
