Coldest Week of the Season

With a brisk north wind that blew up Saturday morning but lulled to an increasing chill that night, the coldest weather we have experienced this season came upon us. Sunday morning was cold and foggy increasing in density toward night which terminated in the first snow of the season. Monday being the coldest day of all. Many experiences are told about town as to the severity of the cold weather Monday night and the destruction to house plants of those not expecting such a severe snap as we might say for the first. But again the quiet days and warm sunshine are giving our plains people time to prepare for the next, and as it has been predicted that this is to be the coldest winter for several years it may be well for them to make the best of their opportunities.

land lawyer and a business man were talking the other day, and they decided that it would mean an influx of settlers to New Mexico that would run the 5000 mark.

That will mean settlement. It will mean his public domain, land will go the way of the wind, and help swell the taxable property along with the improvements.

How will the ranchman be benefited? The stockman realizes he is being crowded, but under the section law he can buy homesteads a whole section after they are proved up. He can own his own land after a time by buying out the homesteader if the homesteader wishes to sell, and not be worried more with state leases with squatters coming in on him.

So all round it looks good to everybody. —The Sunday Star.

Rumblings Grow Louder

It seems that the railroad rumblings are growing louder and as individuals tell us, seem to be coming nearer to a settle fact that some one of these roads is going to cross our plains country in the near future. As has been said before, Lovington has never been a town to boast of what she was going to have before it was almost an assured fact. Hence she has been quiet on the railroad question while her neighboring towns of Texas and other places have been predicting for some time that she would get a railroad in the near future.

We are glad of their confidence in us and will state that if the roads spoken of in the Lovington Sunday Star builds to that point, we see no reason why Lovington should not get one of them.

Card of Thanks

Words cannot express our thankfulness for the kindness and sympathy shown us by our neighbors and friends from the surrounding country in the loss of our dear wife, mother, daughter and sister, Greed Thorp, husband and his mother Mrs. L. A. Thorp, M. D. McDaniel and wife, parents, children, brother and sister.

Famous Dry Cure For Itoms

Following is the dry cure for Itoms as recommended by President H. J. Waters, of the Kansas Agricultural College.

"For each 1,000 pounds of meat use the following forty pounds common salt; ten pounds New Orleans sugar; four pounds black pepper; one and a half pounds salt; and a pound of cayenne pepper. Weigh the meat and take such part of the ingredients as that is a part of the 1,000. Let the meat cool thoroughly. After mixing the ingredients, half the amount should be rubbed well into the meat. Put the meat in a dry cool place—never in a cellar. Let it remain two weeks, then rub on the remainder of the cure and let it lie about six weeks, when it is ready to hang. It is important that the meat be well rubbed each time the cure is applied, and that plenty of the cure be forced into the back end and around the joints. Less cure should be used on thin sides than on the joints.

The heavier and fatter the meat the longer the time required for curing. The warmer the weather the quicker the meat will take the cure. These arrangements are estimated on the basis of about 200 or 250 pound hogs, and ordinary January, February and March weather." —James Leader.

Mr. Creel Thorp of Kansas Dies

Last Saturday morning Mrs. Creel Thorp passed away at their home near Knowles. She was an aunt by marriage of Mr. Phillip and Miss Ellen Thorp of Hobbs, N. M. who are attending school at this place. Their sister Miss Lola Thorp who is teaching at the High-Longmore school came to Lovington that morning to visit with them when they learned of the death of their aunt. The three left immediately with Mr. D. Y. Musick who had informed them of the sad news, for their uncle's home where they stayed until the funeral the next day. Phillip and Ellen returning to Lovington Sunday night.

The friends of the bereaved ones sympathize with them in their sad hour of trouble.

Scott Items

Mr. Fred Grice has bought Marvin Shelborn's half section 2 miles east of Scott, the consideration being $2000.

Mr. Marvin Shelborn has purchased 30 head of registered white face calves from parties near Tahoka, Texas, which he will bring to New Mexico.

Mr. A. J. Davis has gone to Tahoka after feed and coal for some of our stockmen.

The little cold spell that caught some of us without coal makes us think more of the usefulness of a railroad.

P. S. Gathings just returned with a bunch of calves that he bought from J. W. Hopper near Plains, Texas, he also reports that the range is good and stock is fat.

Mr. Tom Parsley sold his entire crop at 2c per lb. he states though that it was potatoes.

Oscar Anderson and P. S. Gathings delivered their cattle last week.

Mr. Rus Anderson is dipping his cattle this week, well enough, but seems it would be better if he were building fires for them.

Two of Mr. Grices children are real sick this week.

Shool is progressing nicely at King, so reported.

Baby Dies

The four-months old infant of Mrs. Bert King died last Tuesday night and was buried in the Lovington cemetery Wednesday afternoon. She was staying at the home of her sister Mrs. Watson, but when the baby grew worse brought it to the home of her sister Mrs. Scott in town. But pneumonia had too great a grasp on its little life and it passed away about sunset of the night above mentioned.

Lovington Couple Marry at Carlsbad

Last Tuesday Mr. R. C. Willams took from our town one of our fairest girls, Miss Mary Love to be his future wife.

They left for Carlsbad accompanied by Mr. Leman Glascock and wife, cousin of the bride to be, and who also witnessed the marriage. Their trip was made by auto with no accident to speak of and upon arriving at Carlsbad they went to the Bates Hotel where at 6 o'clock Rev. Bell the Methodist minister of that place united them as man and wife in the pretty parlour of the hotel. The next morning Mr. and Mrs. Glascock bade them adieu and returned to Lovington wishing the happy couple all the success possible in their new home should it be Wyoming or Arizona as they were just waiting on a telegram that morning to determine which it would be.

Thursday before they left to be married, the friends of the bride gave her a nice linen shower at the home of Miss Mary Eaves. Miss Mary having the surprise shower neatly hidden under lovely autumn leaves with unique announcement cards. Delicious refreshments were also served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Love of this place and was reared on the plains. She graduated with high honors from the Lovington High school and has many friends who will miss her from the merry circle here.

The bridegroom was one of Lovington's first claim holders, but left some seven years ago only returning this year to become infatuated and take with him the little girl who had now grown to become a young lady. However we feel from all accounts that she will not regret the step she has taken as he is spoken of as being a fine young man and has many friends.

The bride having lived among us for so long will be greatly missed, but her many friends here wish for them both many years of happiness and success.

Dr. J. M. Remph of Broucho, Texas, was a visitor to our town this week. He complimented our progressive little city very much.

Lovington Plays Seminole

Early last Saturday morning scholars of the Lovington basket ball team began to gather at the High School building for their trip to Seminole where they had a game scheduled for that afternoon.

The morning was lovely and bid fair to be an ideal day. All parties whose names will be given later were in jubilant spirits and three autos loaded with merry-makers set off. They had not gone many miles however before a briar norther came down on them and kept up until that afternoon just before the game started, when it quieted down again and the large crowd as well as players enjoyed the game very much.

The boys played first with a game of 34 to 14 in favor of Seminole. But it took the girls to win it back as their game stood 34 to 8 in favor of the Lovington team.

Our players returned home that evening, expressing their appreciation of the hospitality of the Seminole team and their enjoyment of the games and trip.

School Note

On last Saturday the boys and girls basket ball teams made a trip to Seminole and played the teams there Saturday afternoon. The boys game was 3 to 14 in favor of Seminole. Our boys played good ball, but Seminole had one forward who took off the game for them. Our boys far outclassed Seminole in team work.

The girls game was 37 to 8 in favor of Lovington. Our girls played the best they ever have and now feel they can play any high school team. Three cars carried the two teams and seven cars of visitors went besides.

Girls Line-up

Everybody expressed themselves as having had a very pleasant and enjoyable trip. Seminole will give us a return game soon after Thanksgiving. A game has also been matched with Artesia in the near future.

A correction: In the honor roll of students published last week the name of Miss Ethel Jones should have appeared in the 12th grade list.

On last Friday evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock the Lovington High School literary society rendered a very interesting program in the Auditorium.

On Friday evening Nov. 24, a thanksgiving program will be given in the auditorium for the benefit of the piano and to purchase equipments for the different rooms. Let everyone come out and help this good cause. We assure you an interesting program.

The children returned from the party, where they had been guests of Johnny and Susie Williams.

"We had an awful good time," they answered. "Johnny and Susie both got tickings."—Newark News.

What He Would Do.

It was his first night on guard, and, of course, Mike Flaherty was on the watch against officers and such-like questioning him on his duties.

As it happened, he was at a station guarding a magazine of powder that had arrived during the day. Suddenly the orderly officer came around and, after the usual formalities, commenced to question Mike.

Officer—"What would you do if the magazine blew up?"

Mike—"Go up with the report, sir."

KNOW WHAT HE WOULD DO

Pretty Schoolteacher Evidently Had Inspired Affection in Heart of Boy Pupil.

A charming schoolteacher whose smile brings happiness to everyone and who, moreover, has that greatest blessing, a sense of humor, tells this on herself.

She teaches what is known by some as a "subnormal" school (which very often is more normal than "sub") and the other morning several of her pupils were gathered around her reading a very interesting (?) story, such as is printed in school readers, and one sentence ran, "The little Japanese girl greeted them warmly, etc."

"What is meant by 'greeted'?" asked the teacher, who by the way was showing off her pupils and the method of teaching them to an interested young man who had been brought in by the principal to watch her labors.

There was a great deal of hawking and the word "greeted" failed to register on any brain. Finally she said, "If I were to come into the room where you were, what would you do?"

"There was a second silence and puzzled looks and then (from a tall boy of sixteen): 'I'd hug you.'"

The visitor, with his handkerchief to his mouth, sped from the room, and his shout of laughter could be heard a block, while the teacher, with cheeks covered with blushes, carefully explained "greet" as it was meant in the school reader.—Columbus Dispatch.

One Way to Do It.

"Father, how do you fill a fountain pen?" asked Johnny.

"Well," asked his father, "is it your pen that you want to fill?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, then my boy," thoughtfully answered father, "I would fill the bath tub with ink, and then get in and fill the pen."—Rochester Times.

To Live Long!

A recipe given by a famous physician for long life was: "Keep the kidneys in good order! Try to eliminate through the skin and intestines the poisons that otherwise clog the kidneys. Avoid eating meat as much as possible; avoid too much salt, alcohol, tea. Drink plenty of water."

For those past middle life, for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation, as backache, scalding "water," or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, "rusty" joints, stiffness, get Anuric at the drug store. This is a wonderful eliminator of uric acid and was discovered by Dr. Pierce of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. If your druggist does not keep it send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce for trial package and you will know that it is many times more potent than lithia and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

Strong Drinks Irritate

Strong drinks like beer, whiskey, and coffee, irritate the kidneys and habitual use tends to weaken them. Dully backache, with headache, nervousness, dizzy spells and a rheumatic condition should be taken as a warning of kidney trouble. Cut out, or at least moderate, the stimulant, and use Doan's Kidney Pills. They are fine for weak kidneys. Thousands recommend them.

A Colorado Case

John T. Santline, 325 Johnson St., Trinidad, Colo., says: "I did a lot of railroad work and the constant jarring affected my kidneys. I had backache and headache, and sometimes I was so dizzy, I could hardly see. At night I had to get up several times to pass the kidney secretions and morning. Dr. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me, restoring me to good health."

FAMOUS SCIENTIST AS CHEF

Visitors Mistaken in Thinking Metchnikoff Was Engaged in Laboratory Experiments.

One day some distinguished visitors who had arrived in Paris and were being escorted about by a committee were taken to call upon the late Professor Metchnikoff (the famous scientist who believed that the secret of long life lay in diet) toward the hour of noon. The laboratory was all but empty, as most of the workers had departed for that sacred meal, the French déjeuner. But Metchnikoff was there himself intent upon a vessel he was holding over a gas burner.

"It must be a very interesting experiment that keeps you engaged even at this hour," remarked one of the committee.

"Look for yourself," said Metchnikoff, and, continuing to stir with a glass tube, held up the dish so that a delicious fragrance rose to the noses of the visitors.

"That's what I'm working at," he laughed. "Banana in slices, fried in butter. It is excellent."—World's Work.

Entertaining Was Too Strenuous.

A five-year-old boy had spent the morning at the home of a neighbor, who owns a beautiful collie pup. The youngster and little dog had romped about the lawn in high glee, until in play, the collie scratched the lad's leg with his teeth. Hurrying home, the child told his mother the dog had bit him and that he was not going over to see his owner again.

"You should be ashamed to talk that way, son," the mother replied. "You know you love the puppy, and the L's have been lovely to you. They have entertained you all morning."

"Entertained! Entertained!" exclaimed the boy. "They have entertained me for the dog over there to chew on."

Too Bad, Indeed.

Mrs. Commuter had lain awake with a headache till one o'clock. Then in the balance of the night she responded to several calls for a drink, a doll, and all the other nocturnal infantile orders. At five in the morning, as she was just beginning to round out the first continuous hour of slumber, the little six-year-old girl called softly from her nearby crib:

"Mother?"

No answer. Again, a little louder: "Mother?"

Mother said nothing. Again the child's voice, this time mezzo-forte: "Mother?"

"Well, what is it?"

"Mother, isn't it too bad that one of Harry McCole's pollwogs died?"

Evidently Affinities.

"So you think that we are made for each other, do you?" she said.

"Yes," he replied; "I'm heavily in debt, and you've got all kinds of money."—Boston Transcript.

His Many Duties.

When young Farmer Giles left the happy homestead and plowed fields to join the army there was not a prouder man in the land. The first time he was doing sentry duty the officer of the guard came by and called upon him to give up his orders.

"Orders?" shouted Giles. "Give up my orders?"

"Yes, certainly. What are you here for?" demanded the officer, sharply.

"Oh, I'm here to walk up and down, stand at attention, wink at the girls, look after Sergeant Murphy's bit of garden and see that nobody pinches his spades; also to see you ain't about when they fetch the beer for the guardroom prisoners, and should you come on the scene to—"

Nature warns you when the track of health is not clear. Kidney and bladder troubles cause many annoying symptoms and great inconvenience both day and night.

Not the Simple Life.

Little Dorothy had acquired a fixed habit of eating Sunday dinner with her two old and beloved friends, the Browns, who lived just across the street. Coming home she found her own family seated at their table enjoying a substantial but plain dinner. A slight wave of contempt crossed her face.

"Why, what did you have for dinner?" her mother asked.

"Baked chicken, rice, hot biscuits, mashed potatoes, candied sweet potatoes, cranberries, plum jelly and other delicacies," loftily asserted the little maid.—The Christian Herald.

Quite a Different Thing.

The beautiful girl's smiles changed to a dark frown.

"You deceiver!" she hissed. "I hate you!"

The young man dropped his hat in astonishment.

"Hate me?" he gasped; "why it was only yesterday you said you loved every hair on my head."

"Yes, villain; but not every hair on your shoulder!" she held aloft a long golden one.—Stray Stories.

A Reducer.

"Did your doctor tell you to eat less luxuriously?"

"No, I read the market quotations."
