

6-12-1897

Albuquerque Weekly Citizen, 06-12-1897

T. Hughes

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq\_citizen\_news

---

Recommended Citation

Hughes, T.. "Albuquerque Weekly Citizen, 06-12-1897." (1897). https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq\_citizen\_news/262

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the New Mexico Historical Newspapers at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Albuquerque Citizen, 1891-1906 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

any relation drug. Price, 60 cents.

Said to Have Left the City. A Shortage in His Accounts Reported.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

A telegram was received this morning from Charles A. Martinier, brother of the slain Mr. Strickler, stating that he has shipped some flowers from Los Angeles. The flowers will reach the city this evening and to-morrow will be placed on a grave in Fairview cemetery, where he is now sleeping the beautiful sleep of death.

Known as Sam Antonio

Judge Charles Blanchard received a telegram this morning from John Ben the Potosi, at San Antonio, N. Mex., announcing the drowning of his son, Manuel Blanchard, in the Rio Grande Sunday. The young man was of twenty-four years of age at the time.

person of a daughter of Ion Belmonte
Hernandez, to whom he was recently married.
The deceased father will leave for San Antonio tonight to attend the funeral.

[illegible]

black and white, a promising prospective property of strong value. They left it to his lady, who is in the long-charge of the best property in the district and which has a strong hold of the quality for best in weight. Specimens of the rock show evidence of containing big assay value.

Fred Goodwin, a gentleman who was here a year ago, was here brought a number of mining adults in the district, arrived from Philadelphia Saturday to meet him here, they will work together temporarily. The valuable properties which he owns are the Sixty Six, formerly the Brown Hunt. No. 2 and No. 3, the Atlantic group of mines, the Philadelphia King, Second No. 2 and No. 3, the Morris the Norway, the last three being near the Washington mine and the California. It is expected that extensive work will be begun early next week and at least one of the claims mentioned.

Philip Chapman arrived from Atlanta after during the week and is working the Virginia and California claims. He also has valuable claims and recently a quantity of the gold was discovered on the Virginia.

* * *

N. E. SOUTH COAST

A Series of Resolutions Adopted After the Important Proceedings.

Very encouraging reports were given this morning of the work in this district by Rev. C. C. Menzies, of the Memphis River circuit, Rev. C. H. Angel, of the Thomas River, J. A. Goodson, of the River circuit, and in the absence of the preacher in charge at Las Cruces, Rev. W. Clayton gave the report.

Rev. C. C. Menzies, of Jackson, Miss., preached this morning.

Rev. J. C. Beattie made a pleasant visit and was interested in the visiting brethren. The business meeting this afternoon was held at the residence of Rev. J. C. Beattie, of the Memphis River circuit.

[illegible]

They will still perform a service, but the pulpits will be occupied as follows: the visiting clergy, Presbyterians, in the morning; Rev. W. A. Towler, Episcopians, in the afternoon; Rev. J. H. Bennett, in the evening. Rev. J. H. Bennett, at the congregational, and the Rev. J. H. Bennett, at the Methodist churches. At the Baptist church, the Rev. J. H. Bennett, at the Baptist church.

The Skeleton of the "Divine Healer" Found in Mexico

[illegible]

ated where a few farmers had been on the land. The soil was rich and the grass was good. The land was not very fertile, but it was good for grazing. The land was not very fertile, but it was good for grazing.

[illegible]

to compensate. Mr. Abbie Chubbuck, to buy a cow, while milk dried. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crockett put out straw towels. John Cornhill, one-half dozen pairs of socks. Mrs. Joseph Hutchinson and Mrs. F. J. Breidner to baby Cason while having a frolic. Yours truly, REV. A. S. MRS. K. C. CROCKETT.

—*—*—

Joe Saint is the night man in the night place.

The Saginaw Lumber company, of Williams, has promised to make any contribution of their products for the fair.

Henry Brown, of Los Angeles, is captain of the baseball team and says that his town will have a good right this year.

K. W. Simpson, treasurer of the Michigan Lumber company of Flagstaff is a devotee of the wheel and is expected to enter for the race.

Ernest Sliker, of Flagstaff, is a highly educated young man, who is now at work organizing a baseball team to enter for the big prize this fall.

John Miller, of Prescott, is an enthusiastic collector of ancient Indian pottery and has a collection of over a thousand pieces. He has promised to personally bring this to the fair.

—*—*—

A. H. Butler with Kate, of Atkinson, Minn., Indianapolis, Ind. writes: "I have never before given a testimonial in my life, but I will as that for three years we have never been without a chamberlain's cough, colic and diarrhea remedy in the house and I have given it to my friends."

think of being without flour as a bottle of this remedy in the summer season.
We have used it with all three of our children and it has never failed to cure not simply stomach pain, but quite absolutely is. It is all right, and any one who tries it will find it so. For sale at all druggists.

This Is a Fact

The certain relief can be materialized by resorted to furnishing a large and attractive exhibit of bread to the next fair at Albuquerque. Stand Herald Weekly.

Anti-Flogging Law

The Hon. J. A. Aragon, legislator, well-known Judge Wm. Burns, chief deputy editor of the "Herald," and others, are endeavoring to get a law passed against flogging, which has been practiced by some of the soldiers in the army.

in the district court. He will remain in Phoenix and make his law office a place to practice his profession. Hargrave is one of the best educated lawyers in the southwest, and will probably be a

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

What Will The Country Do? Japan, at least, the Kobe Evening News says.

London, Japan is. The St. James gazette, commenting upon the dispute between Japan and Hawaii which it describes as a "rough little rough-and-ready" handful of "American filibusters,"
says:

"As Hawaii has no standing power,
the question arises, Will they (the United States) enforce the law by force, through the gunboats? Or will the Japanese have land and armed parts at all moment? Then what will the United States do? Japan, since she smashed the Chinese, is believed to be preparing for a fight with a white power,
and may find America ready to oblige
her sooner than she expects."

THE CITY FATHERS!

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

Alfred L. Alderman, Manhattan secondist, by Alderman Cummings, asked leave be granted in clearing away the grounds and July 1. The motion carried.

In regard to the petition of Dr. E. Cromwell for permission to build an awning at the corner of second street and Gold avenue, Alderman Manhattan moved seconded by Alderman Butler, that the council decide that he be allowed to build and awning in accordance with ordinance 3, section 1. The motion was carried.

Communication from W. R. Garhart, ex-city jailor, was read. He returned ment of property made for sale while city paid. The court's decision was in-firmed by the state supreme court.

[illegible]

As a result, the committee has been able to make a number of suggestions for the improvement of the present committee and giving them all the facilities which it should have.

Although the committee has been able to inform upon the subject of the present committee, the committee has been able to make a number of suggestions for the improvement of the present committee and giving them all the facilities which it should have.

It is suggested that the committee should be made up of representatives of the various countries of the world, and that the committee should be made up of representatives of the various countries of the world, and that the committee should be made up of representatives of the various countries of the world.

THE COMMITTEE OF THE UNITED NATIONS

THE COMMITTEE OF THE UNITED NATIONS

THE COMMITTEE OF THE UNITED NATIONS

like a tramp, said a white man. He used to have some of that water. This place he called "apple house." It was built before the building proper was ever referred to as such. Mr. Haffington is known by the natives for the after-noon refreshments served in the little place of growth on which his house stood and still hangs on the east part of Washington avenue. The grounds around was famous for its fruit.

The school serves dinner on Monday and an examination of the grades of pupils and members of the postal service had Saturday. Two applicants were examined and the result of their examination was sent by post headquarters at Washington.

[illegible][illegible]

