Sad Accident At Railroad Crossing

Monday afternoon a sad and serious accident happened at the E. P. & S. W. railroad crossing north of town where the White Oaks and Nogal roads connect, leading to Carrizozo. Peter Phillips, wife and baby were motoring in from White Oaks, having driven from their ranch in the Bernardo Gap for the purpose of obtaining medical aid for the baby. Mr. Phillips had the curtains of his car drawn and a high wind prevailing at the time, he failed to notice train No. 7 which was coming in on the grade above him. The White Oaks road makes an abrupt turn as it strikes the crossing and as he whirled to cross the track, No. 7 collided with the machine, smashing the car, hurting its occupants to the death.

The engineer stopped the train as quickly as possible and the crew placed the unconscious victims on board, and brought them to the station. They were then taken to a local hospital where medical aid was administered. The infant was found to be the most fortunate, as outside of a few cuts and bruises, it suffered no injuries. Mr. Phillips, at this writing, has failed to regain consciousness but Dr. Johnson, in whose care the patients are, has hopes of his recovery. He has received some nourishment which is an encouraging sign. Mrs. Phillips suffers worst of all from an injury to her back. She has cuts and bruises on her head which while painful to some extent, are not dangerous. The Phillips family have been residing at the Bernardo Gap but a short time, moving there from Alto where Mr. Phillips and wife were reared. Mrs. Phillips being a daughter of the Rev. J. W. Carleton. The many friends of both families are deeply interested in the welfare of the patients. Crowds of sympathetic visitors appear daily at the hospital making inquiries, offering aid and extending sympathy.

GALLACHER—GRAY

At the parsonage of the Methodist Church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. Higbee performing the ceremony, occurred the marriage of William Gallacher and Miss Edna Gray, both of Carrizozo. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Louis Baco and has resided with her sister's family since coming here from Hurley, N. M., where her parents live. The new Mrs. Gallacher is a pleasant lady to meet. Her sunny disposition and natural friendliness are the becoming traits with which she makes friends of all her acquaintances, consequently, her friends in Carrizozo are many, all of whom unite in wishing her life-long happiness.

The groom is a native of this County. Reared in the center spot in sunshine land, he, like his accomplished wife, is possessed of the education which is a continual friend maker. When the clouds of war hung heavily over us, "Billy" crossed the seas and performed his part in establishing peace. Now, he is safely across the seas of matrimony where the many friends of both parties wish the newly wedded couple a world of happiness. After the ceremony, the Gallachers left for Hurley, N. M., where they will visit for a short while at the home of the bride's parents after which they will visit at other places, returning to Carrizozo in several weeks and settle down to home life.

GENERAL WOOD READS NEAR EAST LENTEN APPEAL

General Wood, U. S. A., and a committee consisting of America's leading men and women have issued a Lenten Sacrificial Appeal in behalf of the starving and freezing orphans in the Near East. The people of America are being requested to deny themselves of some luxury and to give the price to poor living Armenia and the other suffering peoples in the Near East. The committee consists of such leading men and women as General Wood, Mr. Taft, President Hibben at Princeton, Mrs. Winter, President General Federated Clubs, Miss Anna Gordon, President W. C. T. U., Mrs. Miley, President B. A. H., Governor Barker of Louisiana, Senator Snodgrass, Senator Gompers of American Federation of Labor, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Cleveland H. Dodge. These are the friends of Armenians, Syrians and Greeks in the Near East. Not one cent of the funds raised by Mr. Hoover and his co-workers goes to the relief of these people in Palestine, Asia Minor and Armenia. The appeal is for Central Europe—this is for the Near East.

MUCH GOOD IN NEW LAWS IS FORESEEN

By Guthrie Smith.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 14.—A steady stream of bills from both senate and house poured into Gov. Mechem's office and on to secretary of state Martinez, until 5:25 o'clock Sunday morning. Then came the bill which would have the 5th state legislature with the announcement that the house of representatives would meet on the 15th day of the month, having arrived, the senate stood adjourned and did.

A moment later speaker Clancy announced a motion to adjourn without delay, committees from each house having waited upon one another and upon the Governor.

Most New Laws Good.

In the great volume of bills made in a laws, it is inevitable that some must be under the high standard desired. Most of the new laws are good. Some of them are excellent. None of them is vicious. It may be said of some of them that they are not really necessary, but the poor or unnecessary laws were necessary in order to secure the good ones.

No Primary Law.

No primary election law of any kind was enacted, thereby saving the taxpayers from having to shoulder an increase of about $50,000 in election and therefore would not support the house bill. The majority referred to only deviation from the complete fullness. The majority of the senate did not want a state wide primary, but the republican majority, but a majority composed of republicans combining with democrats.

Camouflage Apparent.

There was some camouflage used by senators of both parties. A house majority composed of republicans and democrats stood for a state wide primary and would not concur in the senate bill, which provided only for election of county officers and selection of delegates to county conventions by the primary plan.

Final Test Saturday.

The final test came Saturday night when senator Sellers, minority floor leader, called up the house primary bill by moving that the steering committee be discharged from further consideration and the bill placed on the clerk's desk. Democrats declared Sellers had taken this step without consulting any of the authority members.

Motion Is Tabled.

Hedgecock moved to table Sellers' motion, his motion carrying 12 to 9. Democrats voting to table the bill were Brickley, Lee and Seaton. Democrats supporting the bill were Adams, Avery, Back and Martinez. Failure to enact a primary election bill was the failure of the republican party after four plagues.

Women's Working Hours.

It was at 3:40 o'clock Sunday morning that the house reported back to the senate the bill for the 100,000 which had just been considered. This act regulates the hours of employment for women.

Admittable Tax Laws.

In efforts to produce the maximum return from taxation and to reduce expenditures and waste, and at the same time increase efficiency, some admirable reforms have been suggested. The best possible solution of the state tax problem seems to have been adopted, an inheritance tax has been provided for and the guaranty privilege tax, declared unconstitutional in its original form, has been revised. The income tax law, also declared unconstitutional, has been repealed.

To Regulate Expenditures.

The provision to regulate expenditures constitutes one of the greatest advances that the state has made in years. On the third Tuesday in September, 1921, the people of New Mexico will have the privilege of deciding whether they want to adopt a constitutional amendment to put into effect a comprehensive budget plan for all state institutions and departments.

Budget For Counties.

A bill passed provides that all counties shall use a complete budget system. There has been created an educational director, whose duty it will be

FARM INFORMATION SERVICE

Rotenets Can Be Controlled By

Santa Fe, N. M., March 15. Disease. A comparative recently devised method of exterminating rats, mice and gophers is to give them a disease known as Azoo according to the biological department of the New Mexico Agricultural College. This is a contagious disease but harmless to all animals except rodents, as can be used with safety.

The bacterial culture can be purchased in bottles at drug stores and a rod to the rodents by mixing it with a little corn or other suitable feed. Since the culture is tasteless and odorless it is more readily taken than many poisons. In about four or five days after becoming infected the rodents develop a rough and creaking sensation, leave their holes and seek the open air where they usually live of asphyxiation.

Full directions for applying the culture are given with each purchase. These directions should be carefully followed and if possible a few rodents should be caught and inoculated according to directions. When the disease once gets a good start, it spreads with considerable rapidity.

The bankers of Lincoln County are helping to finance potato growers who must spray tanks and spray materials. The potato crop is becoming one of the main crops in the county and the assistance will help it to develop. The cabbage and cauliflower industries is also developing and promises to become one of the main sources of revenue within another year.

The cooperative creamery at Albuquerque has bought a lot on which to put its new buildings and expects to begin actual building operations very soon.

Control of Green Bugs.

Reports coming in to the New Mexico Agricultural College indicate that green bugs are being observed in the wheat fields in some sections of the eastern part of the state. If the infestation is only light and in patches, the bug can be controlled by plowing under the land infested, or covering with straw and burning, or by spraying with a 15 per cent kerosene emulsion. If the field is infested generally, and is likely to result in an unprofitable crop, it is best to plow under the entire crop and plant to corn or sorghum, preferably the latter as it is less susceptible to green bug attack.

As with nearly every pest, a combination of crops and keeping fields clean will do much to prevent green bug infestation. Another reason for field cleanliness should not be different to avoid, as these insects are most numerous around the corn fields from year to year.

It has been reported that the house primary bill should be done at once. If you don't know how and there is a simple agent in your county, it will be glad to help with his services and demonstrate the best methods.

To check the accounts of all school boards. This auditing will mean tight supervision of all school expenditures.

Traveling Auditor. The office of traveling auditor has been placed again under appointment and control of the governor, and the staff of assistants increased. The new arrangements will insure checking of the accounts of state institutions and county officers at shorter intervals.

Public Accountants. Through the creating of a board of public accountants it is provided that persons serving as accountants in public service must be capable and qualified.

New Laws Save Money.

Senator Phillips, urging the passage of the general appropriation bill said these new laws would result in the saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars of the public funds, through curtailing of extravagance and waste under systematic plan.

"The legislature two years from now," he declared, "will not be guessing at all, but will be working under systematic plans which will insure that every dollar appropriated will be expended for that purpose and that purpose only."

Hon. H. O. Bursum

BURSUM WINS APPOINTMENT AS SENATOR FROM NEW MEXICO

Republican National Committeeman Named by Gov. Mechem to Succeed A. B. Fall.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 14.—At 5 o'clock Friday afternoon Governor Mechem announced he had appointed H. O. Bursum of Socorro as United States senator to succeed Albert B. Fall, who resigned to become secretary of the interior.

Mr. Bursum, who is Republican national committeeman for New Mexico will serve until his successor is chosen at a special election, the date of which remains to be fixed by the governor. It is generally expected the election will be called on the 2nd Monday in September, the date on which a number of proposed amendments to the state constitution are to be voted upon.

House Cheers Announcement.

Representative R. L. Bacon of Santa Fe made the announcement first in the house of representatives amid cheers and later members rallied up Mr. Bursum and brought him into the chamber where the Republican members punctuated with loud applause a brief speech by the new senator. Mr. Bursum said that he merely appreciated the welcome and reception.

"I would rather have the friendship and respect of my fellow citizens," he said, "than any office under heaven." "I have been informed," he said, "that I have been appointed to fill the vacancy at this time caused by the resignation of a distinguished citizen of New Mexico who has been called to public service. Mr. Albert B. Fall. It was always my policy to do that which I think best for the welfare of my state. I want you regardless in party, to make any suggestions look to the welfare of New Mexico in the United States to be as the advocate of the public. I want the benefit of your abilities and brains, as that is the only way in which you can make that agency at Washington effective."

Democrats Decline to Enthuse.

Speaker Clancy appointing a committee to draft a resolution thanking the governor for the appointment of Mr. Bursum, among Representatives Hays, Whitwell and Harsh. The latter a democrat. The latter asked to be excused, saying with a smile that Mr. Bursum possessed his statewide primary but I may aspire to the office myself.

The speaker then named Representative Hoch, who also asked to be excused and finally no democrat was placed on the committee. When it came to a vote on the resolution the majority asked to be excused from voting and Representative Nicholas, Democratic floor leader, asked that the record be made to show this.

Bursum Long a Power in Politics.

Mr. Bursum stated that he would leave for Washington in about ten days. Mr. Bursum, for twenty years an influential Republican party leader, is 54 years of age, a native of Iowa, is married and has one son and three daughters; came to New Mexico in 1881, and has held successively the offices of sheriff of Socorro county, territorial senator, warden of the penitentiary, was delegate to the national Republican conventions of 1904 and 1908, made chairman of the Republican state central committee in 1904, member of state constitutional convention, unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor in 1911 and 1916 and became Republican national committeeman in 1918. For three terms he was mayor of the town of Socorro and for years has been extensively engaged in sheep raising and the mercantile business.

STATE NEWS

The Kit Carson Post of the Arizona Legion was recently presented at Silverton, Texas county, with a membership of about fifty. It is also reported that L. R. Meyer, an ex-band master of the U. S. Navy is organizing a band for the legion post.

The machinery for the new year-round ordered by D. J. Hughes has arrived and Mr. Hughes is now installing his new plant northwest of El Centro. He reports that he has a big lot of timber already cut and ready to make into lumber, and that his mill will be in operation immediately. This will result in providing fuel for the rocky town residences and business houses which will be built this spring. Some are predicting that there will be an average of fifteen new houses built each month in and near El Centro for the next four or five months.

Reports from the stockmen are that stock are doing well in Torrance county and that for the most part the range is holding up nicely. The winter has been exceptionally good so far, and there is a good season in the ground now due to several snows that have fallen and thawed quickly. Prospects are that both stockmen and farmers will have a banner year in 1921.

The McGee oil well near Tucuman has been cleared of the obstruction by driving it below the 2000 foot depth. They are now removing the eight-inch casing and expect to have everything in readiness to shoot the well about the 20th of March.

Tucuman citizens are making another effort to have a new dog park and have the old shack now uncovering that purpose, removed to the junk pile. The Rock Island officials have said quietly they would not do anything until the city forces them, so a committee has been appointed to handle the proposition. The Chamber of Commerce and the citizens have been lenient in the past, but the Board of Health of Tucuman, Quay county and the State each have joined and expect to condemn the present shack. The Greer cutting house is coming in for its share of condemnation. Insurgents on the trains through leadville before going into the new city joint which is two dilapidated passenger coaches of most ancient origin, jammed together with scant accommodation but regular high prices.

A recent telegram from the State Corporation Commission to Rock Island officials shows that the citizens are to be backed by the Commission and it will then be up to the railroad to build a new station, one Tucuman deserves.

A market booth held up and robbed the postoffice at Ramah, 65 miles south of Gallup, Thursday evening, March 10, shortly after dark. Postmaster Richard White was not present to close the office and leave for his home in another part of the village, when a man entered the place, pointing an automatic pistol at him and ordered him to throw up his hands. The bandit kept the postmaster covered with the pistol and with the other hand took all the money in the cash drawer, an amount of about $50. The Ramah officers are puzzled over the mysterious robbery as no one in a suspicious character had been seen about the village recently.

The big soaking rain that fell the first part of the week, delayed drilling work in the Southeast New Mexico field, but the big rain caused the stockman and the farmer to look happy. The old timers call it a "million dollar" rain for Southeast New Mexico. So cold weather has showed up to mar the benefits of the rain and with the warm sunshine that has followed, it looks like a great year for all producers in this part of the state.

New Mexicans to Elect Fall's Successor.

The senate concurred in the house bill to give the governor authority to call at his discretion an election to fill a vacancy in the United States senate, after having filled the vacancy temporarily by appointment. This act puts the state laws and regulations in harmony with the provisions of the 17th amendment to the federal constitution. It repeals the present state act, which provides that the appointed senator shall hold over until the next regular general election.

WHITE OAKS WOMAN'S CLUB

One of the largest crowds White Oaks has had for years, attended the dance and social given by the Woman's Club last Saturday night.

The hall was decorated in Club colors, crimson and gold. As a corresponding feature, the Club members wore badges of the same colors. Ferguson's "Joy Makers" of Carrizozo, furnished the music for the occasion and they doubly proved themselves worthy of the name.

Carrizozo was well represented and with those from other neighboring points besides the home people, swelled the crowd to the hall's capacity. The Club ladies served sandwiches, cake and coffee. When you are looking for a good time, leave it to White Oaks.

Stock Men to Get R. R. Rate

Albuquerque, N. M., March 9.—The Santa Fe railroad has definitely announced the special rate of one half off for the round trip from all points in New Mexico to Albuquerque. According to the schedule of New Mexico Wool Growers' Association, March 10 to 27, and New Mexico Cattle & Horse Growers' Association, March 28, 29, and 31. Other railroads are expected to co-operate in making this special rate, which will materially reduce the expense of attending the convention.

Albuquerque is preparing to entertain a big crowd for both conventions and the local entertainment committee has completed an elaborate program, culminating in a grand ball for the visitors on the evening of March 30.

The convention for the Cattle Growers' Association is now practically complete, and will be announced in detail next week.

New Mexico Federal Judge in New York

New Mexico's federal judge, Colin Nebbett, is now in the east, sitting for Judge Leonard Hand, New York, in trying cases of countrywide interests. The following item is by the Chicago Tribune's leased wire news service:

"New York, March 9.—The trial of John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, on a charge of having a bottle of whisky in his possession on Aug. 8 last, was set down Monday by Federal Judge Colin Nebbett for April 4 and marked "peremptory." This case is a result of the Lambs' club episode, in which the Giants' manager is said to have engaged in liaisons with members of the club.

"McGraw is in the south on the spring training trip of the Giants."

Nearly 300 employees of the Santa Fe shops at Albuquerque were dropped from service Wednesday, March 10. This is an average of 15 per cent of those employed, including all departments. Santa Fe officials have stated that the reason for the placing of men on the jobless list was due to the general slump in business and it is not known when the men can be taken into service. The cut in the force is on the seniority plan, those having worked for the Santa Fe the longest being retained at work.

WHEN JEFFERSON TOOK OATH HAD REPUTATION TO SUSTAIN

Early Presidential Inauguration at Which There Was an Abundance of Ill Feeling. Farmer Had No Idea of Allowing Hired Men to Beat Him in Gathering Corn.

The first Jefferson inauguration had more about it than is the inauguration of any other President. The President-elect was received upon the porch of the newly completed north wing of the capital by Aaron Burr, whom Jefferson cordially detested. And the oath of office was administered by one of his bitterest enemies, Chief Justice Marshall, who had been appointed to office by Adams in the closing days of the administration, an act which Jefferson regarded as not only an insult but a personal affront. Jefferson's private secretary, Burr and Marshall were all present.

Then the six presidential oaths were read to the Senate, Judiciary, and the delivered the inaugural address, one of the most brilliant of all such speeches. He was also charged with his last public duty, when he received the congratulations of the foreign diplomats and of the leaders of the political party who retained office the defeat of the Federalists.

A lot of conversation revolved off in another mood, to be changed into the gathering rain.

PAIR OF SCALES MOST ESSENTIAL

Selling Various Farm Products by Guess Is Seldom Profitable to Farmer.

PRACTICE PLEASING TO DEALER

Experienced Buyer Has Advantage of Skill in Estimating Not Possessed by Seller—Small Platform Device Is Best.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

"Guessed weights and measures" are seldom profitable for the farmer. This practice is unbusinesslike. It indicates a carelessness of the value of the thing he is selling, and the buyer would be more than human if he did not take some advantage. A "guessed bushel" of potatoes is more likely to measure 1½ pecks than 3½.

Where sales are based on weight the grower is paid for what he delivers. When the bar business at 100 pounds both parties know that full value has been given and received.

An Argument for Scales.

The best argument for the installation of a good set of scales is in a convenient place on the farm is that, while the produce dealer is nearly always willing to buy "by guess," he is seldom willing to sell that way. The most conspicuous piece of equipment in the vegetable stall, the market, or the grocery is an accurate pair of scales. The produce that is bought "by guess" is sold by guess. The dealer is a practical buyer and attains some degree of accuracy in making his estimates. Thus he has the advantage of skill not possessed by the farmer, who lacks experience in making his estimates.

The dealer has another advantage not held by the farmer. As he sells by weight, he has a means of checking the accuracy of his guess. If he finds that the weight of a steer, for instance, was less than he estimated it to be when he purchased it, he may recover his loss by charging the customer more or by taking out the loss on the next "guessed" purchase he makes. The loss is likely to fall not on the dealer, who incurred it, but upon innocent parties.

The bureau of markets, by publishing the prevailing market prices for meat and farm produce, offers free information to the farmer that will Accurate Weights More Profitable Than Guessed Weights.

Since time on the level with the dealer as he has knowledge of prices is considered, but unless the farmer has a set of scales available he cannot use this knowledge.

An accurate set of small platform scales should be a part of the farm equipment, and every farm sale should be referred to them. If mounted upon a small platform they can be moved to any place where they are needed. If without rollers, they can be moved to a wheelbarrow. They should be kept in a building that is as free from dirt and moisture as possible. And should be tested with standard weights at least once a year.

In some States the tests are made by law by an official who makes the adjustment necessary to restore the scale to balance, or if this cannot be done, certifies the apparent weight and seals it so that it cannot be used again until repaired.

Answers Most Purposes.

Such equipment will answer most farm purposes, but a larger set of scales is occasionally required to weigh cattle, hogs, hay, or other materials too heavy or bulky to lift upon the small platform. Very often a merchant whose place of business is centrally located, or a farmer who lives on a main road leading into town finds it a profitable investment to put in a set of pit scales for the use of farmers and others who are bringing bulky material to market. When a farmer knows that he can drive his cattle or his loaded wagon upon the platform of pit scales without using out of his way, he will be less inclined to lump off a barrel of hay or sell his stock by the head. The owner of the scales receives a small fee for his services and the farmer a signed statement of weight which is the basis of payment when he delivers his load at the market or shipping yard.

Scrub Bull Has Been Blacklisted on Big National Forest Pastures—Great Improvement Seen in Grade of Steers.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Purebred bulls have proved their value for improving range herds, and the number being bought in the cow country of the West is rapidly increasing each year, according to reports to the United States Department of Agriculture. The scrub bull is now blacklisted on the big national forest pastures.

During the season of 1910 three local live stock associations, the members of which use the ranges of the Sierra National Forest in California, adopted rules for the purchase of purebred bulls. Under a special rule each association was required to place on the range a sufficient number of purebred Hereford, Shorthorn, or Aberdeen-Angus bulls. A committee to purchase and pass upon the credentials of each animal to be turned loose on the ranges was appointed.

Under this plan, during the grazing season of 1920, 105 Herefords, 97 Shorthorns, and six Aberdeen-Angus bulls were purchased by the stockmen through their associations and placed upon the range. It is estimated that at the end of the season of 1920 the stockmen had not less than 200 registered bulls on their ranges, resulting in a great improvement in the grade of steers turned out.

The Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture assists these local associations in enforcing the rules which require that the same kind and grade of bulls be placed on the same ranges. Permits to graze on the national forest pastures are refused those who do not conform to the association's ruling and who have not paid their share toward the purchase of the association bulls.

POOR EGGS INCREASE PRICES

Percentage of Spoiled Product Shipped to Markets Is Very High and Discourages Trade.

In a shipment of three cases, or 90 dozen eggs, recently received by a Washington (D. C.) commission firm, 18½ dozen were condemned by the local health department as unfit for food. The percentage of bad eggs shipped into the markets is very high, reducing trade and discouraging consumption, say specialists of the bureau of markets of the United States Department of Agriculture.

If a few eggs in the dozen are bad the housewife pays exorbitant prices for the sound ones. The dealer always prefers to handle good eggs, for spoiled ones figure his business reputation. A shipment for spoiled eggs also makes the shipper feel that he is not being treated in good faith by the commission merchant.

Bad eggs then are a loss to everyone who handles them. Every egg marketed should be of unquestionable quality.

SUITABLE FEED FOR HORSES

Timothy Hay, Oats and Corn Are Recommended for Animals Doing Average Work on Farm.

Rations recommended for average horses doing average work are, fifteen pounds of mixed hay, ten pounds oats, four pounds wheat bran. If you would rather feed your timothy hay to the horses and save the clover for cows the following ration might have use on your farm: twelve pounds timothy hay, seven pounds oats, seven pounds corn. These are for one day's feeding.

SECOND CUTTING OF COWPEAS

Under Favorable Circumstances Plant Will Sprout Again After Being Cut for Hay or Seed.

Under favorable conditions cowpeas after being cut for hay will sprout again from the base. Considerable pasturage or even a second crop of hay or seed is sometimes produced, especially in the Gulf coast region. If good moisture conditions follow the first cutting. Ordinarily, however, but a single cutting can be obtained.

DARLING BABY BRIGHTENS HOME

Children's Laughter a Pleasing Sound

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. Before my next one was born I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old, and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says 'That is a very healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show these few lines to anybody."—Mrs. C. W. BECK, 121 3rd Avenue, Altoona, Pa.

Mrs. Janssen's experience of interest to childless wives.

Milaton, Wis.—I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are fond of children, and for a considerable time after we were married I feared I would not have any. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it strengthened me so I now have a nice, strong, healthy baby girl. I suffered very little at childbirth, and I give all the credit to your medicine, and shall always recommend it highly."—Mrs. H. H. JANSSEN, Milaton, Wis.

Mrs. Held of Marinette, Wis., adds her testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She says:

Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a nervous condition and very irregular. My doctor advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It overcame my weakness so that I now have a healthy baby girl after having been married nine years. I am glad to recommend your medicine, and you may use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. H. B. HELD, 330 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.

There are many, many such homes that were once childless, and are now blessed with healthy, happy children because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored the mother to a strong and healthy condition, as it acts as a natural restorative for ailments as indicated by backache, irregularities, displacements, weakness and nervousness.

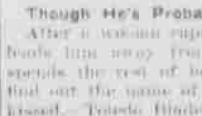

Women everywhere should remember that most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious displacements or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that is why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative. It can be taken with perfect safety and often prevents serious troubles.

Therefore if you know of any woman who is suffering and has been unable to secure relief and is regretfully looking forward to a childless old age, ask her to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it has brought health and happiness into so many homes once darkened by illness and despair.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

RUB OUT SORENESS, SPRAINS, BACKACHE WITH OLD ST. JACOBS OIL

Back hurt? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now, listen! That's liniment, whether or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or stiffness, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. ## Methodist Church Notes

The young people found at their first meeting in the Church balcony that the light was insufficient. Or, rather, that it came from the wrong direction. Accordingly, a four-light chandelier was placed in the center of this compartment last week, which proves materially serviceable to the new quarters. The home-like atmosphere grows with each succeeding meeting. The young people feel more at ease in this friendly circle.

The Sunday School is practicing for the Easter exercises. The younger children to render a programme in the morning and the young people a Pageant in the evening. The new series which was begun last Sunday morning and which will be concluded next Sunday evening is proving quite interesting and is certainly timely. If you are interested in the peace and prosperity of our country and not duty-bound elsewhere it will be well to hear the remainder of the series.

If you come to the services next Sunday evening melancholy or blue, we venture you will go away cheerful.

Carrizozo School Notes

(By SUPT. E. E. COLE)

The Girls' Club, as guests of Misses Fardon and Herron, met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John E. Wilson. Light refreshments were served. The Girls' Club is in a flourishing condition and no member misses a meeting if she can possibly avoid doing so.

A few days ago Mr. Cole took little Miss Lorene Stimmel, of the fifth grade, into the Senior and Junior High Schools, to show the students of the higher grades what a fifth grade pupil could do. The little lady read extremely well and was heartily applauded. She read fluently and with great clearness, carried herself well and every vowel and consonant could be distinctly heard. There are four other pupils in the fifth grade who are about as good readers as Lorene.

Mr. Jay Vaughn has made a present to the pupils of the fifth grade which is greatly appreciated by them. It consists of five flower boxes, hopper-shaped and painted green. Being square-conical in shape they are much more artistic than an ordinary rectangular box, and with the flowering plants in them they do much to add beauty to the room. Mr. Vaughn's generosity is to be highly commended.

It looks good to see the little tots of the lower grades back again after a siege of the whooping cough. Miss Ivy Lindsay, Miss Burton and Mrs. Massie are among our best teachers and are doing special work to bring good results after the lost time.

The Boy Scouts and Scoutmaster Cole "hiked" to the Mal Pais last Saturday. The lava flow is a most curious one. The crater is about twelve miles north west of Carrizozo. The entire flow is sixty miles long, and, in order to flow so far, must have been very thin. The lava of Mt. Vesuvius is always thick; that of the Hawaiian Islands is very thin. This lava bed of New Mexico lies at the bottom of a broad and shallow valley and seems to have covered a great deal of fine grassland. It is curious to note that the edge of the lava is steep and about thirty feet above the grassland. This is accounted for by the fact that the edge of the flow cooled faster than that in the middle. In some places the lava broke out, running in "tongues" or promontories. Where this occurred it left valleys and caves at the edge of the lava bed. Running around these valleys and parallel, at the distance of about fifteen feet, are deep fissures made by the tendency of the lava to slip into the valleys. A great deal of the lava looks like taffy which has been pulled, then twisted, then twisted again. In one place was found where the lava had been forced up into the form of a conical cave, hollow and open on one side. It is very properly called "The Teepee." There is, here and there, a great deal of grass. A flock of about a thousand sheep was seen grazing on the top of the lava beds. The destination of the Scouts was "The Island," a high land not covered by lava, a mile long and a half a mile wide. The Scouts greatly enjoy these hikes and are learning something of the wonders of nature.

Treatment For the Woolly Aphis Plague

By Stuart Stirling

Because of the lack of spraying equipment for the nicotine sulphate, or kerosene emulsion spray for the Woolly Aphis, work along that line was more or less a failure last year. However, for those who are interested in caring for their trees this year, the following procedure is submitted which if carried out will check the disease and save the trees.

The Woolly Aphis winters at the roots of the trees; about the time the buds begin to swell and show signs of greenness, the brood begins its upward pilgrimage to attack the tender shoots and branches of the tree. By applying a band of tree tangle foot, (obtained of your druggist) to the trunk of the tree, you can check the ascendancy of the brood, as the Woolly Aphis is wingless and cannot pass this safeguard.

For the underground work, the earth should be removed from the roots of the tree to a depth of about six inches and in a circle of about five feet in diameter. The roots and soil should then be completely soaked with kerosene. As the underground brood winters, as we have said, at the roots, it follows that it is responsible for all damage done to the tree. No plan would be complete that left either portion of the tree untreated. Both treatments mentioned should be performed with thoroughness.

You'll save Money by remodeling now

You who have been waiting for lower prices before you laid that new floor, renewed those old walls and ceilings, re-roofed the house or barn, or built the residence—this message is directed to you.

Do you know that lumber and building material prices are down to average of forty per cent?

Do you know that you can repair or remodel cheaper than at any time in the past five years?

Do you realize that every day you wait not only inconveniences you but costs you real money?

Building material prices may come down more—we think not—but every day you delay in getting the new house deprives you of the use of it, and causes you to pay out money for house rent.

Every day you delay roofing the barn and the home, makes your property more liable to damage from storm. Every day you put off inside repairs the trouble increases and the total expense becomes greater.

Do your repairing and remodeling at the present lower prices and get the benefit now.

Come in today and let us figure your job. BEGIN GETTING THE BENEFIT NOW.

War Minister Trotsky and M. Zinoviev, the soviet governor of Petrograd, are reported to have taken refuge in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, surrounded by a large number of protective troops.

All attempts by the revolutionaries to capture this fortress, the message says, were repulsed.

The revolutionaries, however, refused to fire on the Finns, who joined the revolutionaries, the latter repulsing the Chinese."

Brought About a Wonderful
Change in Her Condition.

MRS. AUREORE BARRETTE
of Manchester, New Hampshire

"Tanlac is a grand medicine, and I think every suffering woman ought to know about it," was the statement made recently by Mrs. Aureore Barrette, at her residence, 123 Second Street, Manchester, New Hampshire. Mrs. Barrette is a well known and highly respected resident of that city.

"I have not felt at all well for the past year or more," she continued. "I haven't been sick enough to be in bed, but I was far from being a well woman. At times I thought I had kidney trouble, for I suffered almost constantly from severe pains across my back, just over the kidneys. Whenever I tried to do any housework at all that dull pain would be there, and if I attempted to stoop over it just felt as though my back would break. I would get so weak and worn out I would have to sit down and rest several times a day, and I felt tired all the time."

"This condition made me awfully nervous, so that I rarely ever slept well at night, and every now and then I would jump in my sleep, as if in a fright, and my condition was really becoming serious."

"Only two bottles of Tanlac have brought about a wonderful change in my condition. In fact, the results I have received from this medicine have really surprised me. Those terrible pains in my back which used to trouble me every day, have almost disappeared, and I am going to keep on taking Tanlac until they leave me entirely. I have lots of energy now, and am not only able to do my housework, but I get through the day without feeling the least bit tired. I am no longer nervous like I was, and I sleep well at night."

"I shall always be thankful for what Tanlac has done for me."

A certain young globe-trotter, possessed of more money than brains, was provided upon by one of the sons of the prophet to purchase a very large piece of quantity of what was described as Syrian lamb's fleece.

This, when he returned to England, he said to his father with orders to him to be kept with it. A few days after he called home on the boat.

"You didn't send me quite enough material, sir," remarked the father, "and I had to get some more in the shape of sheep."

"But," remarked the traveler in surprise, "it's impossible to obtain that fleece in England. It's only to be obtained in Syria."

"Not at all, sir," was the reply. "In England we call it rabbit skin."—Monmouth Herald.

A Continuous Performance

THE man who speaks of life as being made up of "just one thing after another" as though it were simply a series of unwelcome and disconnected events, is mentally near-sighted. He fails to recognize the importance and necessity of viewing life as a whole. Success is a matter of properly valuing and emphasizing the various activities of living. Work and play, earning and spending and saving, all have their place in worth while living; and all are closely related one to the other.

This bank offers helpful encouragement to anyone who wishes to increase his savings, but its service is not by any means confined to that field. There are very few persons in the community whom this bank cannot help in one way or another. It is our policy to be personally helpful to every depositor and to make each one feel that he is a friend as well as a customer.
