

University of New Mexico

UNM Digital Repository

LAI Events

Latin American and Iberian Institute

4-18-2024

Afro-descendant women's poetry from Costa Rica: A reading and talk with Shirley Campbell Barr

Shirley Campbell Barr

Latin American and Iberian Institute

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/laii_events

Recommended Citation

Campbell Barr, Shirley and Latin American and Iberian Institute. "Afro-descendant women's poetry from Costa Rica: A reading and talk with Shirley Campbell Barr." (2024). https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/laii_events/266

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Latin American and Iberian Institute at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in LAI Events by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

Afro-descendant Women's Poetry From Costa Rica:

A reading and talk with Shirley Campbell Barr

April 18 | 12:00 - 1:30PM | Ortega Hall 335

Join us for a poetry reading and lecture on Afro-descendant women writing with Shirley Campbell Barr, an Afro-Costa Rican poet and activist of the Afro-descendant movement in Latin America. Her acclaimed poem "Rotundamente Negra" has become an emblem for many Afro-descendent organizations in Latin America and the Caribbean and has received several distinctions across the region. Her work has been largely disseminated through Afro-descendant and women's organizations in Latin America.

This lecture is free and open to the public. Individuals of all abilities are encouraged to attend LA/I-sponsored events. If you require a reasonable accommodation to participate in one of our events, please visit laji.unm.edu/events/accessibility.html or contact lajioutreach@unm.edu