1-31-2011

Cradle Unaware ; and, A Document of Friendship, 1031 A.D.

Alan Stringer

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalrepository.unm.edu/nm_composer_archive

Recommended Citation

This Musical Score is brought to you for free and open access by the Research Collections and Data at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in New Mexico Composers' Archive by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.
Cradle Unaware

Fairly fast

Sing three times: Once men only, then women only, then men and women combined.

With its flares of fire and showers of ice, the Universe is no lover of life. A tsunamis, volcanos, ice Ages and blizzards. A cradle unaware. We are life's imperfect lover, betrayer, usurer, mourner, celebrant.

One of those flames has set us on fire with wonder, worry, myths, and astonishment!

-2-
We, Peter Didaz, and Van Didaz, and Munio

make a pact and agreement mutually between ourselves for the house and church of Saint Mary's Ordinaries, which we jointly T and in which we share the labor, taking care of visitors,

Brtn.

T and in regulating the care of, decorating and governing the premises,

Brtn.

T planting, and building. And we share equally in the work of the garden,

Brtn.

T and in feeding and clothing ourselves and supporting ourselves.

Brtn.
And we agree that neither of us may give to anyone else without the other's consent anything on account of our friendship.

And we will divide the work on the house evenly and assign labor equally and support our workers equally and with dignity.
and dignity. And we will remain good friends to each other with faith.

Brtn.

and sincerity, and with other people friends and enemies all days and nights forever. And if Peter dies before Munio

Brtn.

he will leave Munio the property and the documents.
And if Mu-ni-o dies before Pe-ter he will leave him the house and the doc-u-ments (Use oo sound or hum)