Estancia Lumber Company

Headquarters for All Your Wants A LASS OF THE LUMBERLANDS

by E. ALEXANDER POWELL

First Episode.

It is more than probable that had Henry Marven been a few consciousness-destroying dreams, the result would have been the same, but for the fact that Mr. Marven, as, by some unaccountable freak of fate, had, been a fellow citizen of the Northern Land and Lumber company for a quarter of a year.

When President Marven entered the office, for the first time in its services, his face was clouded by the overcast day.

He was not a man to be grievously affected by such matters, but there was a cloud that hung over his face that morning.

"Morning," said the man in the box, laying a hand on Marven's shoulder.

"Why, good morning, Mr.

Marven. What can I do for you to-day?"

Marven looked up from the papers on the desk, and smiled a smile that was neither pleasant nor unpleas-Cutie. Its been a long night, but I

WHY YOU ARE NEUROUS

The neurosis is a clear system of the human beings. In it, we find:
- Pain
- Stress
- Anxiety
- Depression

If you are experiencing any of these symptoms, it is recommended to consult a professional psychologist for proper treatment.

Miss Martha Pfannic of Los Angeles is here visiting Mrs. W. Bay, and intends to remain during the summer.

W. L. Compton has bought the Milton Dow plate of 320 acres nine miles northwest of Estancia, and is at home once more.

On Friday and Saturday, Mr. Compton started a force of men making adobe walls for his new buildings, which he will erect on Main street.

Mrs. Millie Sheldon came in from Tennessee Monday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tuttle, and other relatives.

We are told that Joe Edmonds has bought the Albuquerque to Alcove, but our informant does not know what branch of the service he had in mind.

Don’t fall to attend the free creative evening at the Methodist church, on the lawn, Thursday evening, July 10. Everybody come and have a good time.

Miss Flames bought the R. H. Myers place for six miles northwest of Estancia, and that and the J. N. Burton place were sold to the west, to W. A. Rainbolt.

The school board announces that a full high school course will be taught at the coming term of school. This will fit a long fall, and will be welcome news to many.

The Estancia Auto Co. sold the first one of this week, when a touring car, such as Albert Kerber of Lots, Frank Enno, and A. Brandt of Estancia, and a roadster to Robert Washington.

Mrs. Myrtle Root, formerly Miss Myrtle Tuttle, came in from the first of the week from Chicago to Estancia for a visit with her parents. Her husband came up with her and they went to Rochelle, N. Y.

Miss Helen Chappel, living up to the old adage of comparison, has a very unusual occurrence at this time of the year. He was caught out during the hall storm two weeks ago.

Practically everybody except the printer people and some other air poor folks, went to Mount St. mean, had picnics in the mountains or celebrated in some other way, yesterday was a pretty day in Estancia.

In charge, in charge of agriculture extension work for the next fiscal year, he was there the first of the week. He reports extension work proceeding every county in the state with remarkably good results.

E. L. Smith was up from the farm yesterday.

The barn burned in this shape clean of seeds and only was two or three reasonable rain to put it at the steering wheel of a new fire engine. This is the first day in Estancia this time is very good indeed.

Miss Ada Chappel, youngest of the Chappel’s sisters, together with the other members of the family, will be a few days moved to the material center of the country, New York, Mrs. Farmery and Stockrooms bank, in Estancia.

Miss Francis Turner has taken a job here in the drug store and gone to work on new building. Miss Edith Lipe will work in her place.

Mr. Allman has moved to his new purchased known as the Bennington plan. He has built a nice, mobile house, and will build the barn, fence, pond, and other premises in good repair again.

The failure to have a show last night at the Pastime Theatre was not the fault of the management, but because the company failed to send the film. There will be the regular shows Thursday night and Friday.

J. N. Bush has taken the job of superintending the erection of a concrete house at Willard, and will go there shortly to start the work. Thomas D. and probably James Walker will help in the work.

Mrs. E. Barone has rented the Mrs. Olive house in the north part of town just vacated by J. Allman, and has moved in. Her husband will come up next week from Tulsa, Oklahoma, to the remainder of the summer.

In the life of every boy there is a number of characters according to his conception of the book. One of that kind was written in the life of Henry William D. Day. On that day he became the second possessor of a new book, and for a few hours enjoyed himself as only a boy could enjoy it; this made all the worse the subsequent plunge into the abyss of war. He was rounding a corner at the main street crossing in a gust of wind and dirt just as Mr. Edwin Stover, driving an automobile rounded the same corner going in the opposite direction. There was a collision, and Henry and his wheel being the lighter body, came to grief. The other boy’s head was severely wounded, and the wheel was smashed. The boy had no great complaint about the broken bone, but the broken wheel filled him with grief.

"In a few days there will be 100,000 new books on the table, and the people will not be able to buy them. They will have other hands into the book given unless provided for by the government. There are such books that will be sold for their own sake, and it should be the business of all to go and get them."

Twelve-Five Years' Experience With Kidney Remedy
Between twenty-five and thirty years ago, I was suffering from chronic interstitial nephritis. I was advised by a highly esteemed physician to try a dozen remedies, but in vain. I finally consulted a simple remedy that I had noted in a medical journal.

Very early in the morning I took the remedy, and in a few days I was able to resume my usual activities.
