J. D. Wilson-Antonio Sedillo grant claim on reduction of value on land rejected.

J. D. Wilson-Antonio Sedillo land grant reduced $50 head of cows, $2,750.00.

District No. 2.
Seferino Esquivel reduced on real estate, $532.00.

District No. 3.
Juan Gallagos, exemption as ex-soldier allowed.

District No. 5.
Mr. and Mrs. Emil Libbe, claim rejected.

District No. 9.
Placido Padilla, reduced five acres and, No. 1, $200.00.

District No. 15.
Messrs. Telesforo Mirabal, J. M.
Luna and Valentin Jaramillo, represents, respectively, the Seboyetan, Plaza de Juan Tafeys and the Belen and Grants, appeared before the Board of Equalization of the County of Valencia, appealing from the valuation of $2.25 per acre assessed upon the land of the respective grants represented by them, claiming that this valuation is excessive, exorbitant and grossly above the present market value of such lands, and stated that the total income from the above mentioned respective bodies of land is inadequate to pay for the taxes on a valuation of $2.25 per acre.

After taking this matter under due consideration the Board of Equalization adopted the following resolution: Whereas it appears to the satisfaction of the Board of Equalization of Valencia county that the valuation placed upon the lands mentioned above is excessive, but it further appears that the assessed value is not valued, compared with the value of the State Tax Commission of the State of New Mexico, and that the value of such lands is not as good as gold, all of which but they never were assessed in a Saturday afternoon, and to spend for a pair of blue suit of clothes with a red necktie, a green shirt, and yellow shoes like I saw young Kioki last night. When the people went to sell 'em and 'em like they were something they found in an old vest, it's bound to knock the price down and keep it down till they quit spending that way."

"I don't see it," said Joe stubbornly. "They're Government obligations and the Government ought to keep them good at their face value."

"I told you you were as thick as a concrete engine bed," said Bill.
"You loaned your money to the United States and the United States promised to pay you back in full with interest. The United States will pay you back 100 cents on the dollar but not until it is due. Remember though, you are getting a nice slice of interest on your hands every six months.
Suppose you come to me as a friend and say, 'Bill, I got $186.67 coming to me in the old pay envelope the 30th of next month, but I need a piece of coin now. Lend me $100.'"

"I know you're good for it and that you'll pay and you know you'll pay and so I lend you the hundred until the 30th of next month. But suppose I come around to you day after tomorrow and say, 'Joe, gimme the hundred, bucks you owe me.' You tell me right away to go take a long jump in the lake but not to make no splash because it'll disturb the fish. You know you are going to pay me, but it ain't due."

"Then suppose I go around to Izzy Kaplan, the demon loan shark, and say, 'Izzy, Joe Peterson owes me a hundred bucks that he's got to pay the 30th of next month, but I want the coin now. I don't need it, but I want to wear out the pockets of my pants carryin' it around. You take the debt and gimme the money.' Izzy right away says, 'Me and my money ain't on earth for our health.
I'll give you $85 for what Joe owes you.' And I take it."

"I'm a plain sucker, ain't I? I lose $15 I am sure to get just because I want to jingle something against my keys. And you'd think I was a fine kind of a friend actin' that way. wouldn't you? Well, this country's been a pretty good friend to you, Joe.
You got no license actin' rough with this Government."

"I guess you're right," said Joe.
"I never looked at it in that way. I don't need the money now, anyhow."

"Not now," answered Bill. "But in 1922 when the bonds fall due you or young Joe, who will be growing up then, may be mighty glad of a nice little nest egg tucked away. Moreover, if you not only hold what bonds you have but buy more, you let the other fellows be the suckers while you take a sure profit. Then the year and you'll realize you've been tapping on your shoulders beside your suspender. And in the meantime I've got you about the best thing you can do for yourself is to sell at $2.25 or $10.00 to War Savings Stamps at the postoffice every pay day."

Are you able to make money?
If not, drop out! You will fail as sure as you live!
You may not think so but you will! The seed of success is not in you!

bank—your Postmaster.

SAVING WITH U.S.
SAVINGS STAMPS

The men and women of the Eleventh Federal Reserve District (Texas and parts of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Louisiana) have saved more than $100,000,000.00 by investing in $5.00 War Savings Stamps which bear 4% interest, compounded quarterly.

By saving their nickels and dimes and exchanging them at the bank or postoffice for Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps, the school children of the Eleventh District have saved more than $16,000,000.00. The school children of Texas alone have saved $13,000,000.00 this way.

War Savings Stamps help men, women and children to save and get ahead. They pay a good rate of compound interest, are issued in large and small amounts. For building up a personal safety savings fund they are ideal. Buy one or more W. S. S. every pay day and see your savings grow. They can be had at the postoffice or bank.

I can only get $85 or $90 for 'em.
That don't look like they were as good as money, does it?"

"It's just what it looks like," con-the price of Liberty Bonds is down is because a lot of people have been using them for money. $100 + $1.41 the price of the bond is down to $85.

WILL POWER MAKES SAVING MONEY EASY

After all, saving is will power and determination to get ahead, expressed in the little things we do each day, according to Dinsmore W. Hume, Federal District Director of Savings.

Despite the high cost of things and with even the most moderate of small salaries, the man or woman who really wants to build up a sum of money, where it will be safely growing for him and ready when needed, can do so if he has the courage to try. It is chiefly a matter of honest trying—"toting" fair with ourselves in spending our nickels and dimes and dollars.

The first thing and the necessary thing for one to do is to say to himself: "I am going to save and I shall honestly try to live up to this promise to myself." That's half the battle. Anyone can save if he makes up his mind to do so.

No matter how small their pay may be, people should make it a rigid rule to take something out of each and every pay envelope or salary check received and save it away. Five per cent is a good figure. Figure it out for yourself and see. Can you save five per cent of your salary every month? Certainly you can. That's only $5 for every $100. What is it in your case? Well, you know you can save that. Where can this saving out of every pay day's pay be safely put to the best advantage? One of the best and safest places is in War Savings Stamps. They yield compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent and they have the advantage of saying "stop! look! listen! do you have to spend it?" when one's spending fingers commence to itch. Of course the money and the good interest it is earning can be easily had if one needs it. It is only necessary to speak a word to Uncle Sam's postmaster and the money is ready in a jiffy. Regularly and religiously made, this five per cent saving saved away every pay day will be a considerable sum at the end of six months or a year.

New coins help many people to save. They have the habit of putting away every new Lincoln penny, Buffalo nickel or new quarter or dime received in change. A surprisingly large number of War Savings Stamps can be bought in this way.

"Save a quarter when you spend a quarter" is helping other people to save. They live up to the rule of saving a quarter and putting it in a Thrift Stamp every time they spend a quarter for something that is not quite necessary. They "fine" themselves for extravagance.

Household records help the housewife to save. Best of these is the budget which shows just how and where every dollar goes. Budgets are easy and no trouble to keep. Persons wanting money-saving budget forms may get them free of charge by writing the Government Savings Division at Dallas, Texas.

It is better to be ahead of the game, if it is only at the rate of a dollar saved a month, than it is to be a penny behind the game and in the hole. War Savings Stamps fill the bill.

WHAT ARE YOUR DOLLARS WORTH?

What are your dollars worth to you? Are you getting one hundred cents back on every dollar you spend? Unless you are very careful you are not. Most of the dollars being spent today are going for things that could have been bought for about sixty cents before the war and which can be bought for sixty cents again within the next three or four years.

Saved Dollar vs. Spent Dollar
Dollars that are spent now, if spent for things other than the essentials of life, like groceries, rent, etc., are not doing their full duty. They are only putting forth sixty cents of their strength when they should be hitting the line one hundred cents strong.

But dollars that are saved today will be worth almost two dollars within a few short years—three or four years, perhaps. Ask your banker if that is not so. Every dollar that can be saved should be saved today—safely put away. Within a short time it will buy almost twice or three times as much as it will now.

A Good Way to Save
One of the very best ways in which to save money and save it so that it will be absolutely safe is to put so much in War Savings Stamps every month. They can be gotten from the postoffice or bank and they yield their owners interest at the rate of four per cent, compounded every ninety days. They make the saved money stay saved, but they can always be cashed at the postoffice at purchase price plus accrued interest. Not only will dollars which have been invested in War Savings Stamps yield good interest but they will have a two-for-one buying power within a few years. Save now for real pleasures later.

FARM DWELLERS ASK FOR BOOKS

Announcement of the "Books for Everybody" Movement
Brings Letter Flood.

INFORMATIVE WORKS SOUGHT

Requests for Reading Matter Range From Volume on Drainage to Collins' "Book of the Stars."

The announcement of the entrance of the American Library Association upon the "Books for Everybody" movement and still later news accounts of the activities of the organization along these lines resulted in a widespread appeal from residents of the rural districts of the country for books on farming. Whether the American farmer is simply evidencing his ambition to do a good job better or whether the better crops of his neighbor, who has attended an agricultural college or school, has spurred him on is a matter difficult to determine. But the fact remains the farmer is asking for books. The great majority of American farmers are either without libraries and book service or they are inadequately served.

One of the points which the American Library Association in its "Books for Everybody" movement is strongly urging is the extension of the county library system in states where enabling acts have been passed—some twenty-one in number—and the proper legislation in others which have not yet taken the step. The system, with its central library and radiating lines to stations in the remotest sections of the county, assures good books to every man, woman and child who cares to reach out a hand and grasp one.

Letters Show Need of Service.
The American Library Association is not giving its entire attention to the urban dweller, nor is it neglecting the centers of population for the rural districts and communities. It is, however, unquestionably eager to create a steady flow of informative reading to rural America. That the need for such service exists and that it is anxiously sought is evidenced in every letter of this nature received by state library commissions and by the A. L. A. A few excerpts have been selected because they seem to express most truly the needs of thousands of others.

When Lydia Carlson, whose farm is beyond Mason, Wis., asked for copies of "Productive Farm Crops," "Productive Vegetable Growing" and "Principles of the Practice of Poultry Raising" she echoed the book needs of her neighbors. Then she revealed the fact that her eyes are not always in the furrows by asking for a copy of Collins' "Book of the Stars."

What Others Desired.
There was a pressing need behind the letter from James Dunn, who lives ten miles from Convent, La., the nearest town, which has a population of only 500 people. He asked for a copy of "Practical Farm Drainage." The task of keeping his acres dry was beyond him. Walter Williams of Osseo, Wis., wanted to know if he could make fuel alcohol from frozen potatoes and spoiled fruits; and if he could, were there any books on the subject. The requests run the whole range of farm operations. Some wish to know how to treat scale, others desire facts on hog raising. Books giving information on crop rotation are in demand.

The American Library Association is raising a $2,000,000 fund to finance the "Books for Everybody" movement which during the next three years will be carried on in co-operation with existing libraries and library agencies. The money is not being raised through the medium of an intensive drive but through the individual efforts of the thousands of happy trustees and friends.
