IMPORTANT OPINIONS HANDLED DOWN

Roberts Improvement District Law Does Not Repeal Old Act]

SALOONS NEAR RESERVATIONS

Statute Forbidding Them Within Five Miles Is Constitutional.

The territorial supreme court adjourned at two o'clock this afternoon to attend the funeral of the late E. A. Fiske. Four important opinions were handed down this forenoon and a number of other opinions will probably be delivered tomorrow.

Case No. 1305, Territory of New Mexico, appellee, vs. Wade Swift, appellant, was dismissed by appellant, Swift, who had been convicted at Roswell for gambling, being replevied by Governor Mills, the repleve being recommended by Chief Justice W. H. Pope and District Attorney L. O. Fullen.

Cases No. 1316 and 1317 were argued and submitted. They are C. E. Thomas, appellant, vs. C. E. Gavin, appellee, and Amarillo Hardware Co., appellant, vs. J. F. McMurray, appellee.

Case No. 1292, John H. Rapp, appellant, vs. E. B. Venable, probate clerk, etc., appellee, was affirmed in an opinion by Judge John R. McPhee. The appellant applied for a license to vend liquors at retail in the town of Central, Grant county, but was refused the license by appellee, who based his refusal on the ground that the saloon was "within five miles of a United States government sanatorium" and was not "one previously established," and was therefore within the inhibition of Section 2, Chapter 115, Laws of 1905. The appellant brought suit in mandamus. The appeal is based upon the assertion that the act is unconstitutional. The supreme court declared the act constitutional.

Case No. 1295, Territory of New Mexico, appellee, vs. Juan Barela, Dona Ana county, is affirmed, in an opinion by Associate Justice Ira A. Abbott. The appellant was sentenced for murder. He appealed on the ground that the term of court had expired by limitation of law twelve days before his conviction and that his trial therefore was a nullity. The syllabus says:

A term of district court in the territory, begun and held by any judge, as required by law, for a county in the district, continues in existence until the day fixed by law for the beginning of another term of that court for the same county, unless sooner adjourned without a day, although another term of the same court for another county has been held, as required by law, in the meantime, by the same or another judge.

Case No. 1329, The Costilla Land and Investment Company, plaintiff and appellee, vs. Robert Allen et al., defendants and appellants, from Taos county, on motion to dismiss the appeal, the court in an opinion written by Chief Justice W. H. Pope, dismisses the appeal. The complainant asked damages for $10,000, a decree quieting title and an injunction against the acts and pretensions of the defendants as outlined. The court ordered a preliminary injunction as prayed upon giving of bond but the case as yet remains untitled. The plaintiffs filed a motion alleging that the defendants had violated the terms of the injunction and the court adjudged eight of the defendants in contempt, each being fined $25 and costs. The defendants appealed from this decision. The syllabus says:

1. Proceedings to punish for contempt are deemed criminal in their nature when the purpose is primarily punishment.

2. Where the purpose of such proceeding is primarily compensation or by way of reimbursement to the opposite party for expenses growing out of the alleged contempt the proceeding is civil.

3. While the border line between the two classes of proceedings is often indistinct, the question of whether the offender is a party to the suit, whether the proceedings are before final decree and whether the fine goes to the public or a party to the litigation are often determinative considerations.

4. No appeal lies in this territory from a judgment for what is classed as a criminal contempt. Marinan v. Baker, 12 N. M. 451 followed.

5. An order imposing a fine, payable by way of reimbursement, to the opposite party, for violation of a preliminary injunction is an interlocutory order in a civil proceeding and review of such an order can be entertained only after final decree and in connection with it.

GENERAL ESTRADA IS PRESIDENT

Revolutionists Swarming Into Managua But Madriz Does Not Flee

REBELS WIN SEVERAL FIGHTS

Cable Communication With Nicaragua Is Interrupted for Brief Interval.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 22.—Managua has fallen. The Nicaragua revolutionists finally have reached the goal for which they have been fighting for months. President Madriz did not flee. He remained in the capital city until the last. Cablegrams to this effect were received here this afternoon.

Estrada Proclaimed President.
New Orleans, La., Aug. 22.—Jose Dolores Estrada today issued a proclamation declaring his brother, General Juan J. Estrada, president of the reunited republic of Nicaragua. The revolutionists are pouring into Managua. The situation is alarming. This cablegram was received from Managua this afternoon by Harvey Smith, who served the Madriz government here as consul general.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 22.—Confirmatory dispatches of reverses to the Madriz forces continue to arrive at the state department today. All dealt with the fighting around Granada and the evacuation of Bluefields. Bluffs last week and none touched on the developments since that time.

Cables Interrupted.

New York, Aug. 22.—The interruption of all cable communication with the Pacific coast of Nicaragua renders impossible the confirmation of reports emanating from the Atlantic side that Managua has fallen and that Estrada, the titular head of the revolutionist faction has assumed the presidency of the republic. There seems to be no doubt, however, of the recent defeat of the government forces and the capture of Granada.

DARING ATTEMPT AT PIRACY IN PACIFIC OCEAN.

Captain Wood of the Steamer Buckingham Is Killed and Murderer Leaps Into Sea.

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—Meager details have reached this city of a tragedy at sea. Yesterday morning, Captain Wood of the steamer Buckingham, southbound from Seattle to San Francisco, was shot and killed in his cabin, by Fred Thomas, who then leaped into the sea when he realized that his accomplice in the engine room had failed to join him in making his mastery of the boat complete. The story of a sensational attempt at piracy was relayed by telephone via Eureka, from a wireless station at Table Bluff. The daring attempt to seize the boat was made at 2:15 o'clock, when Thomas went to Captain Wood's cabin and summoned the latter to the door. The details of the encounter were not learned as Wood was unable to make a statement after the shooting and the murderer leaped into the sea immediately. Thomas' accomplice was overpowered by the engineers and put in irons.

ROUGH RIDERS WILL GREET COLONEL ROOSEVELT.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 22.—Rough Riders from Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and Wyoming, as well as all sections of Colorado, will shout welcome to their former chief, Colonel Roosevelt, when he arrives here from Cheyenne, Wyo., next Monday. Some of them, riding from their homes, have started already, but a large number are taking advantage of the arrangements of General Sherman Bell, in connection with the national encampment of Spanish war veterans, then to be held in Colonel Roosevelt's honor.

FIRE STARTED BY RATS NIBBLING MATCHES.

San Rafael, Calif., Aug. 22.—The destruction of the Cypressville hotel early today endangered the lives of the guests who were compelled to flee in scanty attire. Mrs. I. C. Bethel rescued her two infant children from an upper room, and Mrs. Zank carried an unconscious babe from the second floor of the building. In carrying a young woman from the building, Howard Eriel sustained severe burns. The fire was caused by rats nibbling matches in the laundry.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Every Republican should turn out tonight at Republic can headquarters in the Old Palace for the purpose of organizing a Republican Club.

GIVE UP FIGHT IN DESPAIR

Rain Only Can Save Large Timber Districts From Destruction

OVERWHELMED BY FLAMES

Hundreds of Weary Men Have Battled in Vain to Stay Forest Fires.

Missoula, Mont., Aug. 22.—From every corner of western Montana and Idaho, this morning, there were prayers that the weather bureau had hit the right forecast for showers today. Nothing but rain can save the situation. Hundreds of weary men, who for days have battled with the flames in the forests, are staggering to safety with bloodshot eyes and aching limbs, immersing themselves in streams or burying their faces in mud from the maddening heat. The only improvement in the situation is at Wallace where the remnant of the town that is left seems safe from fires, and at Mullen, where the town threatened all day yesterday, is believed to be safe. The towns of Taft, De Gorgia, Henderson and the old part of St. Regis are in ashes. The old placer town of Murrey, Idaho, is in danger. The flames have the upper hand of the situation in scores of places. Rain is the only salvation for hundreds of miles of timber and many camps and small towns. The men fought the flames to the limit of human endurance, and are withdrawing from the contest in many places.

Death List is Long.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 22.—Twenty persons are known to be dead as the result of forest fires within a radius of 150 miles, of Wallace. The death list for the entire fire-swept district of northern Idaho is certain to reach one hundred and probably many more. It is impossible at the present time to make an accurate check on the missing. From Wallace comes the report that the town of Burke is in flames and certain of destruction. The fire rangers of that section are so exhausted that no effective battle against the flames can be made. Three hundred residents of the town are in flight toward Wallace. The negro soldiers of the 25th infantry who have done heroic work and saved many lives and much property in the vicinity of Wallace, are now resting having been engaged in continuous battle against the flames from four o'clock Saturday afternoon until early today. The forest rangers report to Supervisor Weigle that six of his men are dead; five having been smothered in a tunnel where the entire crew took refuge. Ranger Bell reports twelve dead, three permanently blinded and thirteen with broken legs.

Beyond Control.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Associate Forester Potter was present at the conference. He laid before the army officers the latest information from the fire regions. His advice was that a high wind prevailed on Sunday at Wallace, Idaho, that one quarter of the town had been burned. Import he said will be threatened and Libby and Troy, Montana, are in grave danger, each town asking for 250 troops. Twenty-five fire fighters have been killed, according to the forestry report. The fires are reported racing towards Mullen and Burke, Idaho, and the west end of Lolo, another Idaho town, is said to be blazing. All inhabitants of the St. Regis valley are reported to have been taken out on special trains. Two hundred forest rangers are reported in grave danger on the Idaho side of the east fork of the St. Joe river in the Bitter Root mountains. The fires on or near the Bitter Root, Missoula and Cabinet forests are beyond control. The war department already has thirty companies in the field. If other federal troops are to be ordered to the threatened regions they must come from distant forts and emergency funds must be provided for their transportation.

Chief Forester to the Front.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Incendiarism inadequate means of protecting the forests and unusually dangerous conditions are blamed by Associate Forester Potter in a statement issued today, for the fires raging in the northwest. The situation proved so serious that Forester Henry S. Graves on his way to Washington, telegraphed from Rochester, N. Y., that he has turned back and is now on his way to the front to take charge.

Incendiarism Blamed.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 22.—Positive evidence that many forest fires are of incendiary origin, has been discovered by government agents, according to a telegram received at the forest department today from Associate District Forester Cecil of Portland. Cecil says in his dispatch that there is no doubt that the fires in the Crater national forest and at the Medford resulted from incendiarism and

OLD PALACE SEES NEW SPLENDOR

Gathering of Twenty Century Notables in Historic Rooms

MUSEUM FORMALLY OPENED

Paintings and Collections Viewed for Hours by Cultured Throng.

The exponents of art, science, literature, law, medicine, politics and culture in its true sense, formed an interesting gathering at the famous Old Palace when the formal opening of the Museum of Archaeology, rich in art and historic treasures, took place on Saturday evening.

The affair, which took the nature of a reception, brilliant from every viewpoint, held in the presence of so many distinguished people from all over the world was eloquent testimony of the appreciation of the work of the School of American Archaeology and of the Archaeological Society of New Mexico, of the work of the Ladies' Museum Committee and of the Woman's Board of Trade all harmoniously building up interest in that antiquity which makes Santa Fe unique.

Nowhere perhaps in New Mexico, or in the southwest this side of Los Angeles, could such a gathering be found, for nowhere is there such a lodestone to attract an assemblage of artists, scientists, political powers and literary men, and women, as that grand Old Palace.

Yes, the reception and those receiving had that "atmosphere" that was decidedly appropriate and no wonder the affair was a success to make any Santa Fean feel proud.

Brilliant Array.

As one entered the Old Palace and turned to the right, a brilliant array of distinguished people met the gaze. There in that famous old reception room which has seen history of centuries written, were gathered people from coast to coast, and from far across the seas.

They had come, like pilgrims to a shrine, and their faces portrayed the joy it gave them to be in that Ancient Palace and in the midst of its romance.

First of all, the gathering was dignified by the presence of the chief executive of this vast territory, Governor William J. Mills, and the first lady in the Territory, Mrs. Mills. The highest legal authority of the Territory was also there in the person of Chief Justice William H. Pope. The secretary of the territory, who is acting governor when the chief executive is absent, was also there in the person of Hon. Nathan Jaffa. Of other political and legal powers were judges of the supreme court and the chairman of the great Republican party, the Hon. H. O. Bursum.

Artists Were There.

The realms of art were also well represented by the presence of two distinguished masters of color, Carl Lotave of Paris, and Warren E. Rollins of Los Angeles. Mr. Lotave's genius was reflected in the paintings that adorned the walls of three rooms that were visited by the visitors and Mr. Rollins' admirable portraits of the Indian and his drawings of their homes had stood in that very reception room only a few weeks before. Both artists were the cynosure of all eyes, for after all, what price can be put on art? And did not the work praise the master?

Scientists Too.

Unassuming, unobtrusive, but none the less great were others at the reception. They were scientists, even if they lacked that eye-strained look supposed to be common to such men. There was the Hon. Frank Springer, paleontologist, whose scientific works and papers have made him world famed, among scientists interested in his work. Mr. Springer is also the patron of art, as can be seen by a glance at the rooms which have been decorated with Mr. Lotave's beautiful paintings.

Near Mr. Springer stood Charles Fletcher Lummis, the librarian, author, explorer, and ex-newspaper man. It was the same Mr. Lummis known to Santa Feans in former years and he was dressed in his corduroy suit and wore that expressive smile. It was Lummis who had the strength and courage to walk from Cincinnati to Los Angeles, covering a round about route of 3,507 miles in 143 days; it was Lummis who lived five years in the Indian Pueblo of Isleta, N. M., learning Indian language and customs; it was Lummis, who learned how to write of the Great Southwest by traveling all over it on horseback; it was Lummis, who has explored this continent from Canada to Chile. Yes, there stood Lummis, the founder and president of the Landmark Club to preserve historic landmarks; and founder and chairman of the executive committee of the Sequoia League

EIGHTEEN LIVES LOST AT SEA

British Cruiser Bedford Struck Sunken Rocks Off Korea

INRUSH OF WATER TERRIFIC

Vessel Is Badly Broken by Impact During Speed Trial.

London, Aug. 22.—Eighteen lives were lost when the British cruiser Bedford ran ashore on the rocks off Quelpart Island, Korea, yesterday, according to a report received here by Admiral Tye. The men were members of the engine room staff. The accident occurred during full speed trials of the vessel, and the cruiser evidently was badly smashed, since the deaths are stated to have been due "to the inrush of water." There are many sunken islands in that vicinity and navigation is not recommended at this season. The vessel lies in such position that there is practically no possibility of saving her. The hull is full of water up to the engine bulkhead, water pouring in through gaping holes, and the officers and crew have been taken off. The sister warships Minotaur and Monmouth of the British squadron, which anchored yesterday near the wreck to render assistance, were obliged to put to sea last night owing to heavy weather.

to "make better Indians" and founder of many other clubs, leagues and societies. It was Lummis who wrote that delightful book that still delights Santa Feans and others, "Land of Poco Tiempo," and it is Lummis who presides over "The Lion's Den" in the "Out West" Magazine.

With Mr. Lummis came Dr. Z. A. Munk from Los Angeles. Dr. Munk is the physician who has devoted his time and money and talent to collecting everything that would show the history of Arizona and presenting this "Arizona" collection to the southwestern museum. New Mexico is still looking for a Dr. Munk to do the same kindness for this interesting country.

Near the two Los Angeles authors and scientists stood Edgar L. Hewett, the archaeologist director of American archaeology for the Archaeological Institute of America since 1906 and author of numerous papers on American archaeology, anthropology, sociology, and education. It was Director Hewett's excellent judgment that enabled him to select such able associates to make the reception Saturday night so interesting and to reward those who attended it with the sight of such paintings and such collections.

Students There, Too.

Of the younger set of lovers of archaeology and the history or language of the prehistoric people who lived in this part of the world, were many who have been attending the Rito de los Frijoles camp, lecturing or listening to lectures. At the reception were Miss Freire-Marecos, of Oxford University, England, and who recently won a fellowship to study the Indian of the southwest; W. P. Harrington, the brilliant linguist of the School of American Archaeology who has just completed a series of lectures in Seattle and other cities on the coast; Sylvanus G. Morley, who is one of the authorities on the civilization of the ancient people of Central America; Jesse Nusbaum, who has rendered invaluable service to the school as a photographer of ancient ruins and hieroglyphics; K. M. Chapman, whose skill as a modeler has made it possible to exhibit some of the handicraft of the ancient peoples; and many others from the camp were there, serving as a suitable background like a chorus for "star" soloists.

Apart from the appearance of so many specialists in the fine arts one found too, at the reception, the cultured public, the people who appreciated genius, the people for whom genius puts forth its efforts. Among this class certainly can be mentioned a lady who would be an ornament to the best society of any land, Mrs. George Cabot Ward, whose husband is in the diplomatic service and was formerly acting governor of Porto Rico where Mrs. Ward endeared herself to the people by her charming manners and excellent command of Spanish as well as several other languages. After visiting many cities in the New Mexico and the southwest Mrs. Ward came to Santa Fe to spend the summer with her brother, Bronson Cutting, who also attended the reception. Mrs. Ward's father, William Bayard Cutting, is one of the most distinguished of New York's lawyers and is a trustee of Columbia University, a director of New York Botanical Garden and a member of

ATTORNEY FISKE DIES SUDDENLY

Succumbs to Apoplexy While Sitting in His Library

HELD MANY IMPORTANT POSTS

Came to Santa Fe in 1876 and Was U. S. Attorney in 1889.

Seated in his library at his home near the Cathedral and apparently in excellent health, Attorney Eugene A. Fiske died suddenly of apoplexy shortly after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mr. Fiske had gone down town to get some fruit about 3 o'clock and the news of his death was a shock to his many friends who had seen him walking in the plaza only a few minutes before.

Mr. Fiske was 64 years of age and had lived more than half of his life in Santa Fe being prominently identified with its affairs. He leaves a widow, three sons, Rogers, Eugene and Wallace, and one daughter, Norma Fiske. He also leaves a daughter by a former marriage, Miss Lulu Fiske, of Moriarty, N. M.

The funeral took place this afternoon, the Masons having charge of the ceremonies at the Fiske residence and the G. A. R. at the grave. Interment was in the National cemetery.

The pallbearers, representing the New Mexico bar, the Masons and the G. A. R. were: Colonel George W. Prichard, J. W. Mayes, Norman L. King, S. Spitz, Judge John R. McPhee and Jacob Weltmer.

Undertakers Mulligan and Rising had charge of the arrangements for the funeral which was largely attended.

Mr. Fiske's Career.

Eugene Allen Fiske, one of the noted lawyers of New Mexico, was a native of New Hampshire and was educated in that state and Massachusetts. He served in the Union army in the Civil War and was mustered out as a lieutenant of the Eighth United States Volunteers.

After the war he was graduated from the law department of the Columbian University of Washington. D. C. President Grant appointed him chief of the division of private land claims in the general land office, and subsequently assistant secretary to the President to sign patents for lands.

In 1876 he resigned his office in Washington and came to Santa Fe where he engaged in the practice of law and had a number of very important cases.

In 1886 he assisted in the organization of the New Mexico Bar Association, was its treasurer for the succeeding ten years, and its president in 1901. In 1889 President Harrison appointed him U. S. attorney for New Mexico, which office he held until September, 1893.

Mr. Fiske was one of the organizers of the Santa Fe Board of Trade and was attorney, vice president and director of the Second National bank of New Mexico. He assisted in the foundation of the University of New Mexico and was the organizer of the first gas company in New Mexico, at Santa Fe, and subsequently of the gas company at Las Vegas.

In masonry he had taken the Scottish Rite degrees, was a Knight Templar and also a member of the military order of the Loyal Legion.

Speaking of him a well known writer said: "Mr. Fiske was one of the lawyers longest in active practice in the Territory of New Mexico and was employed in some of the most important litigation before the local courts, and with the United States government as his client won more cases than all his predecessors combined since the organization of the territory. His conduct as a citizen, like his professional career, had gained him the esteem which belongs to the honest and vigorous worker in the broad arena of professional and civic affairs."

In politics Mr. Fiske was a Republican and did valuable service for his party in its campaigns.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUDS IN NEBRASKA PRIMARIES.

Shallenberger, Defeated By Whisky Element By Only 200 Plurality—Will Contest.

Omaha, Aug. 22.—On the face of the returns from the Democratic statewide primaries which are nearly complete in unofficial form, Mayor Dahlman has won the gubernatorial nomination by less than 200 majority over Governor Shallenberger. The announcement is made that should the official returns corroborate these figures, Shallenberger will contest the nomination in the courts. He charges fraud in voting in Omaha which city gave Dahlman nearly 6,000 majority.

Killed By Lightning While Building Fence—George I. Bowman, a Curry county farmer, while building a fence near Clovis, was killed by lightning.

Newspaperman Dies at Vaughn.—J. H. O'Brien of Chaute, Kansas, died in the office of the Vaughn News, last week, of tuberculosis. O'Brien had been a journalist.

Clothing Salesman in Trouble.—O. D. Edmondson, of Roswell, has been arrested at Pecos Texas, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Contract for School House Awarded—School District No. 22, Union county, has awarded the contract for a modern school building to W. F. Miller for the sum of $5,690.

Fire Near Carlsbad—The Schnelle home, 11 miles south of Carlsbad, burned to the ground last week. Explosion of a lamp caused the fire. Loss $1,200, covered by insurance.

Thrown By Her Horse—Mrs. Machison, the wife of a sheepgrower in the San Andreas mountains, while riding with her baby in one arm, was thrown from her horse and seriously injured.

Serious Accident Near Corona—A handcar on the El Paso and Southwestern bumped into the rear of a freight train near Corona, Lincoln county. Alcario Palacio was killed, two others were seriously and a fourth slightly injured.

Gives Bond—Mrs. Della Raplee under arrest at Roswell, for obtaining money under false pretenses, and indicted for false representation, has given $1,250 bond and has gone to Artesia, Eddy county.

Roswell Chauffeur Badly Hurt—Pert A. Johnson, a chauffeur on the automobile route between Roswell and Vaughn was badly injured by the overturning of the car he was driving. He was unconscious for twelve hours, had his nose broken and sustained other injuries.

Two Rows in Grant County—Aurelio Sandoval was held in $500 bond for the district court for punching the head of P. Holguin at Central, Grant county. Albino Fernandez was sent to jail for 90 days and Pablo Melendez was fined $50 and costs at Silver City for fighting.

Five Wounded in Fight—In a drunken row at Vaughn, Guadalupe county, forty shots were exchanged. Constable Valdez was cut in several places but succeeded in arresting two of the disturbers of the peace. They both had slight wounds. Two of those who escaped were also hurt.

High Water Does Damage—High water in the lower Pecos, the Berdo and Hondo rivers in Chaves county has done some damage, especially on the beautiful home place of Charles de Bremond, near Roswell. Mails were much delayed between Roswell and Vaughn by floods in Salt Creek.

LARGE VOLUME OF WATER FLOWING TO WASTE IN PECOS.

Special to The New Mexican.

Fort Sumner N. M., Aug. 22.—Fort Sumner has seen another twenty-four hour waste of flood waters. The river reached its highest point and poured past here an amount of water large enough to irrigate thousands and thousands of acres. When the Pecos water tangles are straightened and one of the big enterprises to which Fort Sumner looks with certainty of ultimate possession is completed, this place will be the center of an irrigated area that will support a fine city. Either the Urton or the Alamo will certainly use these waters. Even the engineering difficulties in the way are in Fort Sumner's favor, as the engineers are considering recommendations that would bring the irrigated area still closer to town—abutting it on three sides. The third side is already irrigated.

A large force of men and teams is being gathered to make the proposed alterations in the dam as soon as the waters recede.

The coming of the land office is set for October 1.

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it sets; it offers real, genuine heart help.

"If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Don't Miss hearing Miss Hanson tomorrow night at the Elks', it will be your last opportunity, and it alone is worth the price of admission.

Ask the Crowd that visited the Elks' theater last night about the pictures, they are the best ever seen in Santa Fe. Your only chance to see them is tonight. Change tomorrow.

Owing to the many excellent attractions secured for the Elks' tomorrow night, the price will be twenty-five cents all over the house.

Committed to Insane Asylum—Juan Baca, aged 45 years, a sheepherder at Dayton, Eddy county, has been committed to the territorial asylum for the insane at Las Vegas by Chief Justice W. H. Pope. Baca was in charge of Deputy Sheriff J. E. McDonald, of Carlsbad and had the delusion that he was St. John the Baptist.

Don't be a back number, go to the Elks' tomorrow night; if you cannot go at least send in for your tickets. You won't miss it a year from now.

Yesterday Was a Warm Day—The temperature yesterday was higher than the past few days and many complained of the heat when the mercury reached its maximum at 4 p. m. That maximum was 85 degrees and the minimum was 58 degrees at 4 in the morning. The relative humidity for the day was 48 per cent and the precipitation for the 24 hours was 0.11 of an inch of rain. The day was partly cloudy with thunderstorms and showers in the vicinity during the afternoon and it was cloudy at night, with frequent flashes of lightning. The weather observer reports that an unusually severe electrical storm passed south of the city between 8 p. m. and midnight. The maximum temperature was 84.

THIS IS CERTAIN

The Proof That Santa Fe Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.

Home endorsement should prove undeniably the merit of this remedy. Year ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

Mrs. Agripina D. de Gonzales, 102 Garcia St., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "In September, 1906, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and used them for backache which had been a source of much annoyance. In the morning when I arose my back was so lame and painful that I could hardly stoop. I knew that my trouble was due to disordered kidneys and I was finally led to try Doan's Kidney Pills, by the good reports I heard about them. The contents of one box drove away all my pains and I am happy to state that my cure has been permanent."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS SOUND KEYNOTE OF COMING POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

In County Convention at Court House Declare Need of Best Men for Delegates to Constitutional Convention—Governor Mills and Chairman H. O. Bursum Given Ovation—Brilliant Speeches by Many Others—Election of Delegates.

The supreme court room of the court house echoed with the eloquent words of genuine orators Saturday afternoon and night, the occasion being the Santa Fe County Republican Convention to elect five delegates to the constitutional convention held in the afternoon and the ratification meeting held at night.

There were many speakers who sounded the keynote of the impending political campaign and it was evident that the hosts of the Republican party will offer a solid front to their antagonists in the election to be held September 6.

The delegates, as forecasted in the New Mexican some time ago selected to sit in the constitutional convention are:

Hon. Thomas B. Catron, Col. George W. Prichard, B. F. Pankey, Hon. Victor Ortega, Hon. Jose D. Sena.

The speeches nominating these five delegates were fine oratorical efforts and did not fail to arouse the convention to a high pitch of enthusiasm, the First Regiment band assisting with stirring selections played between speeches.

The committee on resolutions reported to the convention at 4 p. m. with the following resolution:

The Republican party of the county of Santa Fe, in convention assembled, reaffirms its allegiance to the principles and policies of the Republican party, as enunciated in its platform at the Republican National Convention held in Chicago in the year 1908.

We heartily endorse the administration of President William H. Taft, and specially recommend to the favorable consideration of the voters of this county, the manner in which the pledges of the Republican party have been carried out with the President's aid and assistance in providing for statehood for this territory.

We cordially endorse the administration of Governor William J. Mills, as governor of this territory.

We are heartily in favor of a safe and sane constitution for the new state of New Mexico, that will guarantee and preserve to the people all their civil, political and religious rights; sufficiently broad and expansive, to secure the best welfare of the entire people; we believe in a constitution that will guarantee the fullest liberty to the people, consistent with the constitution of the United States and the inalienable rights of the taxpayers and voters of this territory.

We heartily endorse the great truth proclaimed by Abraham Lincoln, that this is a government of the people, by the people and for the people. And we believe that the largest measure of freedom should be given them in determining all public questions for themselves and in their own way, in the interest of Republican government and the preservation of their liberties and privileges.

The reading of this resolution by Interpreter H. L. Ortiz was the signal for applause. Mr. Valdez of Precinct No. 4 moved that the resolution be adopted which was done by a rising vote.

Governor Enters.

A committee of three then left the hall to invite Governor Mills to address the convention preceding the selection of delegates. When Governor Mills entered the hall, the band struck up the national air and every one remained standing until the governor was seated at the right of the chairman, George Armijo. Former Governor Otero introduced the governor saying: "Gentlemen, I have the honor of introducing Governor Mills and I introduce him to the convention through you, Mr. Chairman." Cheers followed this announcement. Governor Mills then delivered a rousing address that was frequently punctuated by applause. His declaration in regard to the safeguarding of the Spanish-speaking people's vote was cheered to the echo, as every phrase was rapidly and perfectly translated into Spanish by Former Mayor Jose D. Sena, whose command of both English and Spanish probably equals that of any man in New Mexico.

His Speech.

The governor said in substance: "Mr. President and Fellow Republicans: When I say Fellow Republicans of course I mean delegates, for if you were not Republicans you would not be here (Laughter). Of course, you are all Republicans and believe in the principles of the Republican party. If there are any Democrats outside the hall in this room we are also glad to see them here and hope they will learn something and eventually see the errors of their ways. (More laughter.)

"I am very much pleased to see you here on an occasion so important as this. Congress has passed the enabling act allowing New Mexico, after 60 years of struggle and labor, to frame a constitution which if adopted by the people and not disapproved by Congress or the President will admit us to the Union. It will put us on a par with such great states as New York, Pennsylvania and others. Heretofore we have been regarded as a child, dressed in swaddling clothes (laughter) not fit to go around without leadership. But this enabling act allows New Mexico to attain the manhood of other states. It removes the stigma of incompetency to self government.

"It gives me great pleasure to see here to see five delegates selected to go to this convention. Santa Fe county is always Republican when we are united (cheers) and I believe we shall give 500 to 600 or 700 strong majority to the Republican column. If you do not do so, you all ought to take back seats. (Applause.) When I consider the brains and labor and capital represented here in this convention I really believe you ought to be able to do it.

"This is the first convention I have attended in Santa Fe county, gentlemen. I have been in many conventions, however, in San Miguel county and some of them are quite strenuous. (Laughter.)

"I understand that all of the delegates selected from the different precincts of this county are here, with possibly the exception of San Pedro. You have answered the call and this speaks well for the interest you have in the party and it is a favorable augury for what you are going to do. I think the platform of the Republican party as outlined by the central committee at a recent meeting in Albuquerque is about the best platform you could have to go before the people.

What Taft Wants.

"You want a constitution like that President Taft desires, a constitution that will protect the poor and the rich. Now a word in regard to this language question. I say that no matter what a language a man speaks, whether it be Spanish, French, English, German or even Chinese, that man must be protected. (Cheers.) I suppose you know the fight that took place in Congress was not so much on New Mexico as it was on a provision adopted in Arizona where there were two or three thousand citizens of Spanish descent. They had voted for years and helped build up Arizona yet they could not talk English. Still they had the good sense to vote for the Republican party. However, an effort was made to disfranchise 1500 or more of these voters and you know the result. Now I do not want anything like that to be tried in the territory of New Mexico. I want to see a constitution allowing every Spanish-American citizen who has the right to vote to exercise that right and I want to see, gentlemen, that his children shall exercise that right after him." (Here the convention burst into applause which lasted several seconds and even the interpretation of Mr. Sena was interrupted.)

Right is Safeguarded.

Continuing the governor said: "You will have this right safeguarded, my friends, if you elect Republican dele-

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her

Knoxville, Iowa. — "I suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more and was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and am glad to say that your medicines and kind letters of directions have done more for me than anything else and I had the best physicians here. I can do my work and rest well at night. I believe there is nothing like the Pinkham remedies."

Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D., No. 3, Knoxville, Iowa.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

gates to the convention. Right here I may state that at least 65 of these 100 delegates to be elected are going to be Republicans and support the party of progress and they will frame a constitution that will protect every citizen; that will also protect his vote and safeguard his property. (Cheers.) Elect such delegates and the people of New Mexico will enjoy prosperity and happiness. I thank you, gentlemen, for your kind attention."

Prolonged applause greeted the governor as he sat down and it was evident he had left a most pleasing impression on the convention.

Nominating Speeches.

Ramon L. Baca then arose and made the first nomination speech in behalf of Hon. T. B. Catron, who sat unmoved as Mr. Baca scaled the heights of rhetoric in his discourse. Mr. Baca said he wished to nominate a man who had been the best friend of the New Mexico people, a man "whose heart is as big as the Sangre de Cristo mountains" a man in whom all the people of New Mexico have confidence, feeling that he will look to and guard their best interests. There was applause when Mr. Catron's name was finally mentioned and the nomination was seconded and then carried unanimously, as were all the others that followed.

Mr. Kinsell then nominated B. F. Pankey, the millionaire rancher and who is very popular wherever he is known for Mr. Pankey has also the big heart and generous nature that goes with. Mr. Kinsell emphasized the importance of the business interests Mr. Pankey controls and the popularity of the man himself with the people of this county, especially from the southern part. The mention of Mr. Pankey's name was the signal for enthusiastic applause.

Ex-Governor Otero then followed with a splendid short speech, for his voice was rich and his manner dignified, well suited to the nomination of that personification of dignity, former Attorney General George W. Prichard. Governor Otero said: "I wish to place in nomination the name of a man I have known thirty years; a man who has been the wheel-horse of the Republican party in Lincoln county, in San Miguel county and today in Santa Fe county. (Applause.) He has been in the convention that met in 1889 to adopt a constitution; he is one of the best known citizens and ablest of jurors—Colonel George W. Prichard." Then there was more applause and the nomination was accepted unanimously.

Catron's Speech.

But it remained to the Nestor of the New Mexico bar, the Hon. T. B. Catron, who despite his three score and ten years still has his old time vocal cleverness and his impressive manner, voice and gesture. Mr. Catron said in his introduction: "Gentlemen, there is a class of people we were in New Mexico before the Pilgrims came to Plymouth Rock. There are descendants here today of those great people who ploughed the Atlantic opening up this vast continent to the world. They came across the seas, braving its unknown and untold dangers to seek the principles of that liberty which could not be enjoyed at home. Gentlemen, we have with us today as one of our delegates from the northern part of the county a man who has never lived in any other county than Santa Fe. It was in this county his ancestors, of whom I have just spoken to you, lived to build up the county infested in former days with dangers

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

A TICKET TO BE PROUD OF.

It was a winning ticket that the Republicans nominated on Saturday in this county. It is more, it is a ticket that must command the respect of the community as a whole and of the people on the outside.

Hon. Thomas B. Catron, one of the nominees for the constitutional convention, is a leader of the Bar. He is acknowledged to be among the brainiest men of the entire southwest, and would be a strong man in any gathering anywhere in the United States, yes even the United States Senate.

Colonel George W. Prichard, another nominee, is a brilliant constitutional lawyer. He served in the constitutional convention of 1889 and will take a leading part in formulating the state constitution.

Hon. Jose D. Sena, also saw service in the convention of 1889, although not as a member. He is close to the native people and his experience as mayor of this city, as clerk of the supreme court, and in various other public capacities has given him a comprehensive insight into the needs of the commonwealth.

Hon. Victor Ortega, among the most respected citizens of northern Santa Fe county, brings strength to the ticket. His experience as probate judge and in other public places, fits him to take part in the deliberations of so important a gathering as the constitutional convention.

Hon. B. F. Pankey, a large property owner, experienced stockman and a man of pronounced ideas who took a leading part in public affairs in the state of Kansas, gives the important stock and landed interests representation in the constitutional convention.

It will be a delegation of which Santa Fe county will be proud. No county will send stronger, more substantial, more brilliant men. It is not a top-heavy delegation and it is a delegation that deserves every vote in the county, for it assures that Santa Fe county will be well represented on the floor, in the committee work as well as in the final deliberations of the constitutional convention.

TIRED OF IT IN OREGON.

The Oregonian is the most influential and one of the oldest, if not the oldest newspaper of the northwest. It is authority for the statement that the people of Oregon are thoroughly tired of the initiative and referendum. As one of the results of the unsettled political and financial conditions brought about by the subversion of representative government, the state of Washington and its cities are growing at the expense of Oregon and its towns, for capital does not care to invest in or energy to develop a commonwealth undermined by socialism. The Spectator published at Portland, Oregon, emphasizes the truth of the statement that when a state has adopted the "initiative and referendum" a constitution is a piece of useless furniture.

"More laws—between thirty and forty—will be submitted to the vote of the people in November. The majority of these laws are bad; many of them have been drawn in the interest of individuals, instead of the public; some are in conflict with the constitution; and few would or should, pass the legislature if they were left to the calm judgment of the legislative branch of the state government.

"The voters of Oregon are most unhappily placed, not only toward proposed legislation, but toward those who seek and those who gain office. The people not only will not trust themselves to name delegates to choose men as candidates for the legislature, but will not trust to pass the laws the legislators they themselves elect. The voters insist on naming their candidates and electing their officials, and passing their own laws. If by some means or other a law is passed that does not suit the voters, they invoke the referendum on it, and kill it. May we not expect to have the voters interpret the laws, too? The judicial branch of the government is in no way superior to the legislative; why, then, should not the voter, who supervises and revises the work of the latter, not supervise and revise the work of the former? If a judge renders a decision that does not suit one or the other of the parties to the suit—and what omniscient judge does not?—why may not the voters invoke the referendum on the decision? And when we have reached that point—and we are hurrying toward it as fast as wool-and-hair brained law tinkers can drive—why should we not dispense with judges altogether? And will any advocate of the initiative and referendum tell us the use of a legislature that is allowed neither to make nor repeal laws?

"The Spectator suggests that we abolish the legislative, judicial and executive branches of government; there is nothing for them to do. The people have usurped their functions. When the people recover their sanity we may return to government, by constitution; in the meantime, away to the attic with the constitution."

Both legislatures and constitutions are useless, under a system of direct legislation. So far as the legislature is concerned, it is precisely as Governor Sloan, of Arizona, said in an admirable address the other day: "To withdraw from the legislature its responsibility is to make that body of no value in the machinery of government. And to have a constitution with a system of direct legislation is to indulge in a farce."

The Spectator also mentions a natural development of this socialistic idea, which is part of the general plan to break down and destroy the American system of government—the destruction of the judiciary as the third branch of the government. As the Spectator points out, and as was ably stated by Judge Mann, of Albuquerque, a few days ago, it is but another and a logical step to "initiate" the abolition of the courts. As suggested by Judge Mann, why should not any crank or dissatisfied person have the liberty to start a petition protesting against a court decision and force the reference of that decision to the people?

Under the plan of government to which it is proposed to commit New Mexico a constitution is worthless, a legislature is useless, and we would need a governor only to appoint notaries public. And the next step would be to abolish the courts as tribunals of final decision.

THE TREND TOWARD THE CITIES

The population of the largest city in 1910 thus far announced, is that of St. Louis, which is 687,029, a gain of less than 20 per cent in ten years. What rank the city will occupy is not determined for it will run a close race with Boston and Baltimore for supremacy. Of course, New York, Philadelphia and Chicago will rank all of those three cities. Rhode Island is the only state whose population count has been announced thus far, but the island of Porto Rico census enumeration has been completed, showing that this comparatively small island possesses of Uncle Sam's has 1,118,012 people, in all probability more than twice the population of New Mexico and Arizona together, and ranking ahead of quite a number of states. Oklahoma cities and towns, show the largest per cent of gains among larger municipalities, Oklahoma city having made a gain of about 540 per cent in ten years, and Muskogee, which has 25,278 inhabitants, showing a growth of 427 per cent.

Among cities having reached or passed the 100,000 mark whose population is announced, are: Scranton, Pa., 129,867, a gain of 27.3 per cent; Newark, N. J., 347,469, a gain of 41.2 per cent; Bridgeport, Conn., 102,054, a gain of 43.7 per cent; District of Columbia 331,069, which is 16,000 less than Newark, N. J., a gain of only 18.8 per cent; Grand Rapids, Mich., 112,571, a gain of 28.6 per cent; St. Paul, Minn., 214,744, a gain of 31.7 per cent.

Among cities near the 100,000 mark are: Camden, N. J., 94,538, a gain of 24.5 per cent; Hartford, Conn., 98,915, a gain of 23.9 per cent; Reading, Pa., 96,071, a gain of 21.7 per cent; Schenectady, N. Y., 72,826, a gain of 120 per cent; Akron, Ohio, 69,067, a gain of 61.6 per cent; Evansville, Ind., 69,647, a gain of 18 per cent; Houston, Texas, 78,800, a gain of 76.9 per cent.

Among smaller towns, the following population figures have been published: Allentown, Pa., 51,913, a gain of 46.6 per cent; Ann Arbor, Mich., 14,817; Brownsville, Texas, 10,517, a gain of 66.8 per cent; Caguan, Porto Rico, 10,354; Chickasha, Oklahoma, 10,320; Colorado Springs 29,078, a gain of 37.9 per cent; Cumberland, Md., 21,839, a gain of 27.5 per cent; Mayaguez, Porto Rico, 16,591; Moline, Ill., 24,199, a gain of 40.3 per cent; Niagara Falls, N. Y., 30,455, a gain of 56.5 per cent; Ponce, Porto Rico, 35,027; Rock Island, Ill., 24,335, a gain of 24.8 per cent; San Angelo, Texas, 10,321; San Juan, Porto Rico, 48,716; Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., 12,615; Temple City, Texas, 10,993, a gain of 55.5 per cent.

These figures are indubitable proof that the trend of population is still city ward, in the east as well as in the west. It is also remarkable that some of the larger eastern cities, like Newark, show a much larger gain, than western cities like St. Louis, and second class cities like Allentown, in Pennsylvania, a much larger gain than western cities like Colorado Springs.

New Mexico population figures will be published within the next two or three weeks, but it is to be feared that as far as towns and cities are concerned, the results will be disappointing, on account of cities like Santa Fe and Albuquerque failing to take in their suburbs and divided towns like Las Vegas and East Las Vegas refusing to get together into one municipality.

Two opinions of considerable importance were handed down by the territorial supreme court today. One declares the statute prohibiting saloons within five miles of government sanitarium constitutional. The law had been passed with a view of protecting the Marine Sanitarium at Fort Stanton, Lincoln county, but in this case was applied to the Fort Bayard Military Sanitarium in Grant county. The other opinion holds that the Roberts Improvement District Law passed by the last legislative assembly does not directly or by implication repeal the old act under which municipalities were empowered to order individuals or streets or blocks or property owners to lay pavements or pave streets. The Roberts law, under this interpretation, is declared merely supplemental to the earlier law and gives property owners the right to initiate such improvements and vote on them at a referendum, thus illustrating another form of initiative and referendum, which it is unnecessary to embody in the constitution, for the legislature has ample power to grant it. The decision is important, as it will enable Santa Fe, Roswell and other towns to continue with the work of street improvement without going through the formalities prescribed by the Roberts law.

That the artesian flow in the lower Pecos valley is not inexhaustible and that the artesian well protection laws passed by Republican legislatures are wise, and for the best interests of that portion of the territory, is again indicated by the following from the Roswell Daily Record: "The recent rains have brought up the artesian wells all over this section of the valley. A well at the Hagerman place that had not a flow over the casing for some time, is again flowing nicely. It is a fact that must be remembered wherever wells are being sunk to tap underground reservoirs, that the supply available may be the accumulation of ages and that if once exhausted, only the regular inflow will be available. All waste of water should be guarded against even in regions that now seem abundantly supplied with underground waters."

Tickets are in the field now for the election two weeks hence in every county except Bernalillo, Mora, Sandoval and Socorro. In San Miguel, the Republicans have not yet named their candidates, but otherwise, the battle lines are drawn, and the New Mexican is pleased to note that all parties have as a rule nominated men of high standing, undoubted integrity and patriotic motives. The Republicans, of course, will elect from 65 to 80 members of the convention and most of these, in fact, practically all, will stand for the elimination of unnecessary legislation from the fundamental law that will be drafted. Not that every measure proposed is vicious, but to make sure that the constitution will meet with the least opposition practicable and to make certain the conferring of statehood before another year has passed.

From a strictly selfish business standpoint, the New Mexican favors the initiative and referendum. In Oregon, for instance, thirty-two laws are to be submitted to the vote of the people at the next election. Those laws have to be printed and with it, under the Oregon law, will go booklets giving arguments for and against the law. That means a nice fat printing bill. It will mean thousands of dollars in the wallets of the indigent printer. Yes, the referendum is a beautiful thing for the printer, even if the tax payers pay the freight. Let's have the referendum and let's submit the Revised and Compiled Laws to the people at the first state election. While we are at it, we might as well do it right for the printer. As far as the tax payers are concerned, there is the old Vanderbilt saying to apply.

One of the charms of life in Santa Fe consists in the fact, that in no other town its size, is it possible to have so distinguished a gathering as signaled the formal opening of the New Mexico Museum on Saturday. Not only the highest territorial officials were in attendance, but also authors, scientists, artists and celebrities known the world over, who came from far and near. Not least significant was the fact that the people of the town itself manifested their deep interest in the work of the Museum and School of American Archaeology by their attendance. It explains why many old army officers have so affectionate a recollection and regard for old Santa Fe, for even in their day, Santa Fe was noted for the brilliancy of its social gatherings and the cosmopolitan character of its population.

The brilliant defense by the Democratic Tribune-Citizen of railroad attorneys makes it clear that if a railroad attorney were to steal the family cow of the editor of the Tribune-Citizen, the editor would blame the cow, that one today cannot realize." Mr. Catron dwelt at some length on the services rendered New Mexico by the Spanish descendants and then placed in nomination the name of Hon. Victor Ortega—a name that was cheered again and again.

SOUND KEYNOTE OF COMING
POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Conway's Address.
County School Superintendent J. V. Conway then placed in nomination the name of the fifth delegate, Hon. J. D. Sena and in the welcome Mr. Sena received even the drummer in the band took part and there was a din worthy of the old time G. O. P. conventions.

Mr. Conway said: "I wish to nominate a man whose family has been honored and re-honored by the people of this city and county and territory. He is a young man in whom we have confidence and of whom we are proud. He has filled many positions of trust and he is well known by every man, woman and child in Santa Fe county. I am proud to say that he comes from the banner precinct of the county, a precinct that has rolled up the highest Republican vote and his name is a household word there."

When Mr. Conway concluded and Interpreter Ortiz had translated the last word into Spanish the popularity of "Joe" Sena was attested by the demonstration that ensued and it was some moments before order was restored.

The convention finally took a recess, to meet again in a ratification meeting at 8 p. m.

The Ratification Meeting.

One of the most forceful speeches delivered at the ratification meeting held at night in the court house and attended by a large number of Republicans was that delivered by Hon. H. O. Bursum, chairman of the Territorial Republican Central Committee. Mr. Bursum arrived Saturday evening over the New Mexico Central and his presence in the city was a surprise and delight to the Republicans. In his speech Mr. Bursum congratulated the Republicans upon the evidence apparent of absolute party harmony in Santa Fe county and paid a high compliment to the personnel of the delegates nominated in behalf of the Republican ticket. Mr. Bursum stated that the Republican committee at Albuquerque had taken a decided stand against attempting to bind the action or views on constitutional questions of either individual members of the party or county organizations; that the Republican party believed the constitution should be so framed as to embody the desires of the majority of the people themselves; that it was the duty of every precinct and county to speak through their primaries and conventions and select such men as would best represent their wishes. In other words, that the standard of Republicanism should not be measured by any fixed policy of any individual member of the party or of any precinct or county organization; that the Republican party is and always had been the party of the people and would meet the delicate problems of constitutional framing in a straightforward, manly way, and would write a constitution short, simple and plain which would last for all time.

Bursum's Tribute.

Mr. Bursum paid an eloquent tribute to the native citizens whom he said had carried to this territory the banner of civilization and Christianity, had toiled and fought for generations in behalf of the establishment of a peaceable government and were compelled during our early history to defend themselves and families against attacks of hostile Indians. "These people," said Mr. Bursum, "have made it possible for those of us who have come from other states of the Union to now enjoy within the confines of New Mexico the blessings of a peaceable and stable government; they should not be forgotten; every right, privilege or franchise guaranteed under the provisions of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo or otherwise should be written in the constitution."

Mr. Bursum advocated a limitation on taxation and public debt—the exclusion of legislation in the constitution. He said we could well trust to the judgment of our children and our children's children to enact and repeal such laws from time to time as experience and expediency might dictate to meet contingencies as they may arise. He spoke of the difficulty of amending a constitution, and the expense incident thereto as compared with the simple process of repealing statutory legislation. He said he believed in a government by the majority; that every facility should be provided for ascertaining the wishes of that majority under the simplest form possible. Mr. Bursum gave full credit to the administration of President Taft for having insisted upon the passage of the statehood bill. Without such assistance, he contended that statehood would have been extremely doubtful.

Mr. Renahan's Address.

Attorney A. B. Renahan delivered another forceful speech outlining why he left the Democratic party and became a Republican. He said:

"I am not a cat in a strange garret, but I have come into the house of my friends whose courteous reception I gratefully appreciate. I should have been here long ago, but it has been hard to sever the sentimental bonds which have bound me to the Democracy no matter how vigorously conscience persuaded me that it was right to do so. It took courage to resign allegiance to or connection with a party which had shown me much consideration and conferred some honor upon me, and especially is this true since I came not as a petitioner for favor, for reward, for office. There is nothing I ask; you have nothing I want except the opportunity to serve in some degree the territory and state of New Mexico through the agency of this party."

"I have always been a protectionist, the doctrine of protection I learned at the feet of Samuel J. Randall, the great Democratic Pennsylvania congressman. It always seemed strange to me that he, good man that he was, could be both protectionist and Democrat, but stranger still I have followed the same path. This territory needs protection. It is a cattle-breeding and sheep-raising country. Without protection these industries would fail, and the people would become impoverished as they were when wool fell to 4-12 cents a pound under Grover Cleveland. This thought was the mainspring of my change of coat, for I felt that in view of the coming statehood, I should do what I could to make it a Republican state so that it might send senators and congressmen to Washington to aid in maintaining judicious protection, which is not in any sense opposed to tariff reform."

Flays Democratic Party.

"Furthermore, Democracy has ceased to be a party of principles. There is no line of demarcation between Democrat and Republican. It is merely a matter of men, environment and locality, indeed I may say a matter of habit. Bailey in Texas wants protected lumber; Douglas in Massachusetts wants free hides. So it goes. The tariff has ceased to be an essential issue. It is not a national question with Democrats as Cleveland and the Democratic fathers prior to him made it, but a mere neighborhood policy having for its object the welfare of a section. Democrats and insurgents in Congress make common cause. As usual Democrats must fuse to accomplish anything, and when it fuses nationally or territorially, it is bossed by the smaller member. It is nowadays always the led horse. It has lost all pride of manhood. It has lost all independence. Condemning the doers of wrong in one breath, it fuses with the alleged wrongdoers and attempts to justify itself on the theory of party expediency and the necessity of a few officers. Out of magnificent Democratic precincts it has thus made magnificent Republican precincts."

"In this and in other ways I believe I could indicate, and prove, if proof were required, that Democracy is not a party of principle but a party of expediency. It is a buffer party, a sort of John the Baptist, making some clamor in the wilderness, but doing nothing. It is a party of complaint, petulance, and caprice, having within its ranks men better than whom exist for fidelity and honesty of purpose, whose friendship I hope I have not forgone, and still it contains a thousand more who are at heart Republicans but like myself they are afraid to resign the associations of years. It has members with out number, on the other hand, who while locally Democratic, are by instinct and faith are territorially and nationally Republican. Locally they serve the interests of Democracy at least at election time; the rest of the time they train with the Republicans, advise them, assist them in the advancement of their policies and reap a reward for their labors."

"Oh, thank you!" said the young woman who was just about to depart for Michigan for the summer. "Yes, it is kind of you to wish me a pleasant trip. If it isn't pleasant, at least it will be interesting. I am sure."

"In fact, I am quite looking forward to the moment of my departure because I am so curious to know just what I shall take along. You know, when I travel I always yearn to start away looking like the girls in the railroad advertisements. They are invariably attired in the freshest of tailor suits. Each carries one attenuated, natty suitcase and a tightly rolled umbrella built on lead pencil lines, and displays a pleasant, carefree smile. They all appear to have successfully packed everything they own in trunks that have gone on ahead. It rests me to look at them."

"Somehow, though, no matter how hard I try to reach the ideal of a railroad girl in a picture, something invariably interferes."

"One year somebody brought me a dozen jars of jelly at the last minute. These I had to carry along with the umbrella. Then my cousin added a paper package containing the rubber overshoes which she had worn away last year by mistake and which belonged to the cottager next door. She said it would relieve her conscience if I would take them along. So I did. I dropped them overboard just as soon as I got on the boat, however. Her conscience never knew the difference and it was lots nicer for me."

"This year it is going to be even worse. It started with the bulldog. Dick Patterson owns the dog. He said some friends of his had it and also had a little baby, and couldn't manage both, so they let him take his choice. He decided after some thought he'd take the bulldog, because he could keep it at the stable with his riding horse, and he couldn't dispose of a baby that way, although he really regretted the baby, because he said it was a very nice one."

"The dog is a white, meek-eyed creature and so affectionate that he weeps if you raise an eyebrow at him. He looks as though butter wouldn't melt in his mouth, yet one day when I had him out he jumped on an innocent fox terrier that was attending strictly to its own affairs and licked the daylight out of it in a disinterested sort of way. I quit hauling him around by his collar right then and there!"

"When in a jesting moment I suggested that Dick board the dog this summer at my house he jumped at the idea because it seems he is going away and there was nobody to leave the dog with. So I've got the bulldog to lead on a chain in one hand. No doubt I shall spend my summer alternating between the rural police court and the jail, because the bulldog will chew up all the other resorters' offspring, cats and poodles. I asked Dick what on earth I'd do if there was an awful dog fight because of the bulldog. He replied that I must go into the house and close the windows so that the noise would not disturb me and then let the best dog win. I am almost certain that I shall not have a dull summer."

"Then just last night John Gordon and I went out to one of the newly opened amusement parks and we came to a booth where people were buying ten-cent chances on birds. There was everything from sea-green parrots down to darling little gray birds with red throats. John bought a couple of chances. Just as I was explaining what kind of cage I should get to match the gray bird that I was going to win the man called out my number in such a loud voice that I was dimly positive I had drawn a parrot at least. What do you suppose I got? A globe with three gold fish in it. John got nothing."

"I was so dazed that I let the man hand me the globe and then I walked away before I realized that I had accepted the responsibility for the welfare of three innocent fish, at that moment flopping about in the water and gazing at me trustfully. There was a wire on the globe so I could carry it, and John said of course I wouldn't think of leaving it behind. I've got to take it along or hurt his feelings, and as my other hand is busy with the suitcase I shall have to hang the gold fish globe about my neck. I can fry the fish for breakfast after I get to Michigan."

"I nearly forgot to mention my tea tray. It is one of those framed, glass-covered trays and so big that it wouldn't go into a trunk. It is wrapped in burlap with one handle sticking out for me to hang on to, because it would have been too much trouble to crate it. I think I shall carry that in my teeth."

"Then there is the little satchel with all the solid teaspoons and other silver in it and there will be three or four late packages from the stores that I'll have to take along. Mother said she wanted to send a little red wagon to the caretaker's child if it wouldn't trouble me too much to include it in my luggage. I may have forgotten some things, but those are the chief articles that I shall have to carry."

"Goodness!" said the listener. "You can't travel on one ticket as a single individual, can you? Why, you're a whole caravan!"

Talk about heroes; a Virginia clergyman has just been married for the fifth time.

EGOTISTICAL MEN

"Is there anything on earth," inquired the fluffy-haired blonde, "that makes you so utterly weary as the condescending action of some man you know who assures you in that complacent way peculiar to the type, that he is going to call upon you very soon? As if," she added, with an air of disgust, "we were all sitting around holding our breaths waiting for the telephone to ring, in the fond hope that it will prove to be some masculine admirer who desires to honor us with his company? I'm sick of it!"

"Me, too!" chimed in with ungrammatical fervor the girl with the coronation braid.

The fluffy-haired blonde embroidered two polka dots with a puzzled frown. "You see," she said, "if the girl has a large and well-worn sense of humor she merely smiles to herself and wonders if it would pay to jolt the man into a state of enlightenment. But if her sense of humor is undeveloped she asks herself with disturbing qualms if it is really possible that the creature thinks she is crazy about him."

She regarded the entire row of polka dots with disfavor, preparatory to beginning on another. "Not long ago," she continued, "I had the satisfaction of freeing my mind on the subject."

"Really?" cried the girl with the coronation braid.

"It was just by accident," explained the fluffy-haired blonde.

"You know," she proceeded, "I was visiting Marie in Milwaukee last month." The others nodded. "Well, a certain man whom we will call George and whom I have always known, happened to be there at the same time, on business. Now, I'm fond of George, in a way."

"When he called up the house where I was visiting and informed me that he was 'going to get out to call,' I was very amiable about it. He wanted to set a time, but naturally I couldn't make an engagement without consulting my hostess. So Marie and I talked it over, and she insisted upon shifting the entire week's calendar in order to leave an evening open for George to call. We had something interesting on hand for every night, too, but Marie felt that it would be rude not to receive George. Finally we managed it for Saturday, and I wrote George a note to that effect."

"In the course of time Saturday came, and so did George. This is the way he began: 'Well, well, you've been here ten days, have you? Really, I did mean to come out before this. I hope you'll excuse me, I've been up to my ears in work.'"

The members of the sewing circle exploded with mirth, but the fluffy-haired blonde was too indignant at the recollection even to smile. "He thought," she said, "that the joy of my visit was blighted by his inattention!"

"I was perfectly paralyzed for a moment, and then I proceeded, without heat or prejudice, to elucidate certain ethical points upon which it seemed to me George's education had been deficient."

"He listened with startled attention until I had finished, then he said, in a surprised voice: 'You mean, then, that you think I am egotistical?'"

"Painfully so," I told him.

"But really," he assured me, looking shocked, "really, you don't know me at all if you think that, not at all! Besides, I honestly was awfully busy, or I would have come out—"

The fluffy-haired blonde stopped and sighed reminiscently. "Then Marie came down," she said, "and took in the situation."

"It has just occurred to me," suggested Marie, "that if we all three like motoring, we can telephone to Charles King. He asked us to go out tonight, you know, and seemed very much disappointed that we had an engagement." She turned to George so sweetly that he was naturally obliged to acquiesce, but I noticed that he was thoughtful all evening."

"The sewing circle giggled again.

"Of course," murmured the girl with the coronation braid, "men are not all like that."

"Indeed they aren't," agreed the fluffy-haired blonde, with satisfaction. "When Marie comes to visit me I want to show her that my friends are not all like George. And if we marry the nice, unassuming ones—"

"We mostly do," said young Mrs. Allison, soothingly. "The others remain bachelors, and their egotism grows upon them."

Not Such an Empire, After All.

Somehow it shrinks the breadth of our country when we know that an old man can walk across it, from sea to sea, in 77 days.—Philadelphia Record.

The One Place.

A gentleman was standing in the lobby of one of Birmingham's leading hotels when some one made a remark about it being so easy to get a little "wet refreshments" in the Magic city. The young man said: "I have been in Birmingham for nine days and I have never found that wet spot yet, and I want to tell you I have looked for it, too."

The "never sleep" negro porter of this hostelry had become interested in the conversation, and advancing close enough to the speaker to tip his cap politely, asked this question: "Boss, where is you been stopping since you come to town—in de cemetery?"—Birmingham News.

Territory of New Mexico, County of Santa Fe, ss.
No. 6704.
Charles A. Siringo, Plaintiff, vs.

W. P. Cox and C. C. Rushing, and the unknown claimants of interests in the premises hereinafter described, adverse to the plaintiff, and the unknown claimants of interests in the promissory note hereinafter described, Defendants.

In the District Court of the First Judicial District of the Territory of New Mexico, within and for the County of Santa Fe.

The said defendants, W. P. Cox and C. C. Rushing, and the unknown claimants of interests in the premises hereinafter described, adverse to the plaintiff, and the unknown claimants of interests in the promissory note hereinafter described, are hereby notified that complaint has been filed against them in the District Court of the First Judicial District of the Territory of New Mexico, within and for the County of Santa Fe, that being the court in which said cause is pending, by said plaintiff, Charles A. Siringo, the general object of said action being: On account of a certain contract entered into by said plaintiff and said defendants, wherein said plaintiff agreed to pay said defendants a certain sum of money for the purchase of a crude oil burner, designated as the 20th Century Crude Oil Burner, That on account of said contract said plaintiff made and executed his promissory note and gave a mortgage on his ranch, known as "Sunnyslope Ranch," lying southerly from the City of Santa Fe, in the county of Santa Fe, New Mexico, containing 220 1-2 acres, and which is bounded and described as follows, to-wit: The east half of the southwest quarter and the west half of the southeast quarter of Section B; also the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter and lot numbered three of Section 3, all in Township 16 N. R. 9 East of the New Mexico Meridian, except five acres of the latter tract known as lot Numbered 10, for the payment of said amount. On account of misrepresentations, etc., on the part of said defendants to the said plaintiff in re said Crude Oil Burner, said plaintiff prays that: 1st. That the said promissory note may be declared null and void and required to be surrendered up, unless found in the hands of some innocent purchaser for value before maturity; 2nd. That the holder or holders of said promissory note when found may be made a party, or parties, defendant to this suit; 3rd. That the said mortgage with the record thereof, may be ordered canceled, set aside and vacated; 4th. That the said plaintiff may have such other relief in equity as may be just and proper, and that he may recover his costs in this suit expended, as will more fully appear by reference to the complaint filed in said cause. And that unless you enter your appearance in said cause on or before the tenth day of October, A. D. 1910, judgment will be rendered against you in said cause by default. The name and address of plaintiff's attorneys are: Renahan & Davies, Santa Fe, N. M.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said District Court at Santa Fe, New Mexico, this 13th day of August, 1910.
(Seal.) FRANK W. SHEARON,
Clerk.

REPRIEVE GRANTED GAMBLER

Regents of the New Mexico Museum Hold Business Meeting.

The regents of the Museum of New Mexico held a business meeting this forenoon in the Old Palace. Governor Mills, Associate Justice John R. McFie, Frank Springer, of Las Vegas; Charles F. Lummis and Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa were in attendance. The remaining member, Dr. R. W. Corbin, of Pueblo, Colo., was expected to arrive this noon. Later in the week, the board will leave for the Rio de los Frijoles to view the excavations there.

Territorial Funds.
Territorial Treasurer M. A. Otero today received $340.40 from Cleofes Romero, warden of the penitentiary, to be credited to the convicts' earnings fund.

Notaries Public Appointed.
Governor Mills appointed the following notaries public: Herbert W. Clark, East Las Vegas, and Juan Torres y Romero, of Tome, Valencia county.

Incorporations.
Incorporation papers were filed today by The Folsom Trading Company, of Folsom, Union county. The capitalization is $25,000, divided into 2,500 shares. The incorporators and directors are: James Ryan, 250 shares; H. L. Ryan, 30 shares; Mary T. Ryan, 20 shares, all of Folsom.

Appointed on Territorial Board of Education.

Governor Mills today appointed Charles S. Panter, (Brather Edwards) president of Saint Michael's College, Santa Fe, a member of the territorial board of education, to succeed Brother Walter who has removed from the territory.

Reprieve Issued.
Governor Mills, upon the recommendation of Chief Justice W. H. Pope and District Attorney L. O. Fulton, today granted a reprieve to Wade Swift, in jail at Roswell for violating the anti-gambling law.

Insurance Company Barred.
The People's Insurance Company of Philadelphia, which sought admission to do business in the territory, has been informed by Superintendent of Insurance Jacobo Chaves, that its capital, $25,000, is not sufficient to entitle it to do business in New Mexico, the minimum capital requirement in this territory being $100,000.

Plats for Las Vegas-Mora Road.
The force of the territorial engineer today completed the plats for the Las Vegas-Mora road and active construction work will begin soon.

IMPORTANT OPINIONS

HANDED DOWN.

tion with an appeal therefrom.

Case No. 1314, City of Roswell, appellee, vs. Robert Ingersoll, appellant, from Chaves county, affirmed. The city of Roswell, appellee, passed an ordinance requiring the appellant to build a sidewalk in front of his lot.

The appellant brought suit to enjoin the appellee from enforcing said ordinance, upon the ground that it did not conform to Chapter 31 of the Laws of 1909, but that it had been drawn pursuant to Chapter 54 of the Laws of 1899. The lower as well as the supreme court, the decision of the latter being written by Associate Justice M. C. Mechem, hold that the act of 1899 was not repealed by implication through the passage of the later act. Under this decision of the supreme court, the Roberts Law of 1909 offers merely an alternative proceeding for street improvements, in cases where the city council has not provided for such improvements.

that new fires are being set constantly. He started 25 men on scout duty in an effort to catch the culprits. The fires in the Crater reserve and at Medford are proving more serious every hour.

More Troops to Fight Fire.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 22.—The war department officials held a conference today in an effort to find means to send additional fire fighters to the stricken northwest. At the conclusion a dispatch was sent to Beverly, asking that troops be rushed from distant parts to the burning sections, but the officials decline to disclose their plans. One result of the conference was a decision to rush pack trains with medical supplies and army surgeons into the devastated regions.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES ARE TO BE "STUNG."

Bees Swarm Around Court House Where Convention is Being Held This Afternoon.

The delegates to the Democratic county convention which was called for 2 o'clock this afternoon were in caucus until after 3 p. m. seeking to reach a basis for some fusion agreement. The difficulty was in dividing the places on the ticket with members of the Santa Fe Commercial Club and also in inducing any one to be a candidate.

There was a noticeable absence of delegates from outside precincts and frantic efforts were made this morning to telephone to points in southern Santa Fe county imploring some one to come up and attend the convention.

It was felt right from the beginning that it was useless to put up any opposition to the winning ticket nominated by the Republicans on Saturday, but the plea was made by some of the leaders that a ticket must be put up even if it was only to be defeated in order to keep intact the party organization. The more far-seeing among them were disposed not to make a fight but they were out voted by the radicals, who placed party above the welfare of the commonwealth.

Hon. O. A. Larrazola came over from Larrazola, to inject a little life into the convention.

Those who visited the court house today declared that it was significant that a swarm of bees had taken possession of one of the Linden trees in front of the court house and it is thought that a number of Democratic nominees may yet be "stung."

FOR FALL AND WINTER OF
1910 and 1911

NEW SAMPLES AT THE BIG STORE

WINTER OF
1910 and 1911

NOW READY

The Best of Made to Measure Service Right at Home.

We are local representatives of the American Ladies' Tailoring Company, Chicago, the famous makers of man-tailored garments for women, made to individual measure. We have their Fashion Portfolio, and all their samples of cloth. Please come to our store and see what this service means to you.

Colored Fashion Plates.

This large Portfolio in our store shows 24 suit styles, 18 skirt styles and 12 styles of coats—all in actual colors. The styles are the very cream of the fashions for Fall and Winter wear. We also show 130 samples of cloth—the finest selections from all the new weaves. Any garment will be made to your individual measure in any cloth you select. An experienced fitter in our store will take all of your measurements—fifty if necessary. The fitter also diagrams the facts regarding your figure and style. The Chicago tailors, with these facts before them, will fit you as perfectly as though you went to their shop. Not such fits as women get by mail, from measurements taken by themselves. These garments will fit your figure, style and individuality. They will give you all the man-tailored effects.

Remarkable Prices

These made-to-measure garments cost but little more than one pays for ready-mades. The man-tailored suits made to your measure run from $13.50 to $45.00. The man-tailored skirts run from $5.50 to $15.00 and the coats from $7.50 to $25.00. These prices, remember, are for garments made to your individual measure, with all the man-tailored effects. The reason is that the American ladies' tailors make a thousand garments where the ordinary tailor makes one. They buy their materials direct from the mills and in enormous lots. Their expert supervision is distributed over a very large output. These prices will be amazing to women who know what man-tailored garments, made to measure, usually cost.

Our Own Guarantee

We guarantee you complete satisfaction. This guarantee covers fit, style, workmanship and materials. If the garment when received is not all you expect, you have the perfect right to refuse it. The makers stand back of us in this guarantee. It is for them to fulfill it and for us to enforce it. We will see that you get satisfaction.

M. Kayser, Director

Each garment will be made under the personal direction of Monsieur Kayser, one of the well known men in his line. The work is all done by journeymen tailors. You may be certain, that every garment will have the touch of perfection.

FOR FALL AND WINTER 1910 & 1911

Please Come and See

Come and see this Fashion Portfolio. It is a complete education in style. See the 130 cloths from which you can choose. Pick out the cloth and the style that you like best and see the price that we quote. If you decide on one of the garments we will see that you get prompt delivery.
