WHO'S SAVING THE MONEY YOU MAKE?

Have you ever noticed that other War Savings Stamps this week? The time is now—begin saving is now—not tomorrow. It is better to be ahead of the game, even if it is only a dollar or two, than it is to be a nickel behind.

TWO AND A HALF MILLION COME TO HOLDERS OF THIRD LOAN BONDS NEXT MONTH

Dallas, Texas.—Owners of Liberty Bonds of the third issue, bearing 4 1/2% interest, according to Dinmore W. Hume, Federal Director of Savings, number 719,210 in this district. The total value of Liberty Bonds bought in the district was $116,210,000. The interest thereon at 4 1/2% will be due and payable at any bank on September 15; it will amount to $2,469,462.50 for this, the eleventh reserve district, according to Mr. Hume. A like amount of interest on the same bonds will be paid in six months later, on March 15, 1921. Bankers are frequently finding bonds issued in 1917 and 1918 from which no interest coupons have been clipped.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON'S DAUGHTER URGES NEGROES TO EARN, SAVE, INVEST

Dallas, Texas.—Portia Washington Pittman, daughter of the noted negro leader, Booker T. Washington, wife of W. Sidney Pittman, a negro architect in Dallas, insists that now is the time when negroes, above all others, should earn, save a part of their earnings, and invest in government securities. "Negroes are now earning more than ever before in their lives," she said. "They should save and invest it so it will comfort and give them the things they need so much when age or sickness or death overtakes them. The War Savings Stamp and the Registered Treasury certificates are absolutely safe investments and make their owners better off."

Slow Pet Parrot to Save its Reputation

San Francisco.—Testimony that she killed her parrot to save its reputation, because it had formed a habit of cursing at her was offered here by Mrs. Sara E. Matheson, thirty-two, in an action brought by a rival bird to have her declared insane. "At one time the bird used to say 'Good night, ma' but the people started cursing around the house. After that it used to say 'Good night, you blankety, blank blankety.' Then it killed it," Mrs. Matheson testified.

Kansas City.—H. H. Raynor, who says he is a representative of the Du Pont Powder company, left his room at the Hotel Baltimore the other night and entered a motor car that stopped in front of a rooming house on Walnut street, the former residence of Agnes Keller.

"I have $174 with me," Raynor said to the chauffeur, "I might be robbed in there."

"Oh, no, this is a first-class place now," interrupted the chauffeur. "But put your money in the band of your hat."

WHY SOLDIERS ARE OPPOSED TO LEAGUE

Impossible to Arouse Spirit to Face Death for Foreign Captries

The following is the text of a letter written by Capt. Eddie B. Schaefer, 2d U.S. Cavalry, to the Editor of the Belen News, December 8, 1920, in reply to the Belen News article of December 8, 1920, in which it was stated that the American people were not interested in the League of Nations. The letter is as follows: "I have read in your issue of December 8, 1920, an article in which it was stated that the American people were not interested in the League of Nations. I am sure that you are not alone in your opinion. I am sure that the American people are not interested in the League of Nations because they do not know what it is for. I am sure that the American people are not interested in the League of Nations because they do not know what it is for. I am sure that the American people are not interested in the League of Nations because they do not know what it is for."

BY CAPT. EDDIE B. SCHAEFER

It is a common thing to go out to kill or be killed. Most men do not like to die. They go to war because they are told to. Their sense of duty is their only consolation. They face death because they ought to protect what they love at home.

That is what makes spirit in an army. The West Pointer calls it morale. Without this fighting spirit a soldier is not worth much, and an army is no army at all. Every soldier knows this. And so he asks:

"How are you going to get the proper fighting spirit into American troops when, under article 10, they will be called to fight for Poland against Russia, or for Roumania against Bulgaria, or for Greece against Turkey?"

What is there to nerve a man against death in the thought that by his death he will help one of these foreign countries retain a territory as big as Long Island and prevent another country from getting it? Will that thought console him when his mind turns to the mother or wife in America? Is there any inspiration in it? Does a man die gladly for anything so foreign and so sorrowful?

The soldier who has stood by the charred flesh and bones of a comrade knows there is no spirit or consolation in any of these things. He knows that men cannot fly willingly into the face of death for any such cause.

The whole thing is impossible. To a soldier of the line it is simply unthinkable. To him all the talk about making the world safe for democracy by fighting boundary wars all around the globe means just nothing at all. You might as well tell him to die for the blue sky as to die for boundary lines everywhere and for democracy in general.

I have never seen a soldier or an army that could get the fighting spirit in such a cause as that. Neither has any other American soldier. An American army that had no other inspiration would be an army without spirit, without morale; it would be no army at all. I defy any soldier to imagine a fighting American army under these conditions.

In August, 1918, 16 American aviators were lined up at Claremont, France, to go to the front. They shook hands with everybody and said "good-by." An engineer officer asked the captain in charge of the aviation group: "Why this gloom?" The

SHOULD WORK FOR WELFARE OF COMMUNITY

Now that the smoke of the political canons has disappeared it is time that the public be satisfied. That is the minority with the decision of the majority. This is the policy of the American Government, so that every one ought to be satisfied with the results of the election.

Now that in this county the Republicans again obtained a complete victory again, the Democrats ought to show their Americanism, forget the trouble of the past campaign and work ahead as if nothing had occurred.

On the other hand the Republicans, that is the one's that were elected, ought not to treat their opponents with any indifference. They were elected by the majority of the people and ought to consider themselves servants of the people at whole and not of the majority which elected them alone.

All of us ought to push forward for the benefit of the community as if nothing had happened.

Those persons that show political impartiality after the election has passed, do not show their AMERICANISM and patriotism.

JUDE WALKER FINISHES THE JOB

Little Thrift Stamp and War Savings Stamp helped win the war. After all, it was measured in millions nor thousands of dollars. It's doing for your country to your very utmost that makes a patriot of you. To you that utmost may seem rather small as compared with the large amount of Government securities purchased by your neighbor whose income may triple your own. Your Thrift Stamp and War Savings Stamp did their part in the preparation for war and the victory won in just the same measure as men and cannon and guns. The bullet from a sniper's rifle and a Thrift Stamp are little things to consider, yet they went quite a long way toward beating the German army.

COOPERATIVE MARKETING
 FARM COST ACCOUNTING
 KNOWLEDGE OF WORLD MARKETS

The Light Cure

You can catch more bugs in light than in darkness. Somewhere in the dark between farmer and consumer somebody is adding a whacking big un-earned increase to food and clothing prices. Honest retailers and wholesalers are powerless to prevent it. But—if the searchlight could be turned on these little-understood, in-between transactions, factors like wasted labor, unequal distribution and reckless speculation would stand out in bold relief. To cure these evils, the light method is advocated by your

COUNTY FARM BUREAU

By farm cost accounting, Farm Bureaus will ascertain actual production costs, as a means of selling at prices fairer to both producer and consumer.

By knowledge of world markets, Farm Bureaus will avoid overproduction of one crop and underproduction of another, with resulting market glut and scarcity.

By fostering cooperative marketing, Farm Bureaus will eliminate speculators and other parasites of the present distribution system.

RED CROSS ACTIVE IN DISASTER RELIEF

When disaster hits a community—fire, flood, earthquake, explosion, had wreck or tornado—the American Red Cross can be depended upon to follow right at its heels with help for the stricken people. Red Cross relief is almost immediately forthcoming—food, clothing, shelter and funds; doctors, nurses and special workers with long experience in handling similar trouble elsewhere.

During the last year, ending June 30, there was an average of four disasters a month in the United States. One hundred and fifty communities in twenty-seven states suffered. The largest and most destructive of these were the tidal wave at Corpus Christi, Texas, and tornadoes in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

In these events of horror 850 persons were killed, 1,500 were injured, 18,000 were made homeless, about 30,000 families needed help, the property loss was nearly $100,000,000 and almost $1,000,000 in relief funds, not including emergency supplies was expended.

To the sufferers from all disasters during the year, the American Red Cross sent $120,000 worth of supplies, 100 Red Cross nurses and seven special relief trains. To meet the needs of the stricken, the organization set up ten relief stations, operated thirty food canvasses and as many emergency hospitals. One hundred and twenty-five Red Cross chapters gave disaster relief service.

If disaster ever strikes this town or county, the citizens can be absolutely sure the Red Cross will be right on hand to help them in every way.
