VOL. 47.

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1910

THE TERRITORIES SHOULD BEWARE

Unless Constitutions Are Safe and Sane They Will Not Be Admitted.

SENATE IS STILL OPPOSED

Small Excuse Will Suffice to Keep Out the New States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 3.—If the people believe that the powers that control in Congress are over-anxious to admit New Mexico and Arizona to statehood let them disabuse their mind immediately on that point and stare the real facts in face. Up to the last day Senator Aldrich, who is quite a power in the Senate, said he would not consent to the admission into the sisterhood of states the territories of New Mexico and Arizona. It required some of the closest political work that has been done for many a day to get the statehood bill passed by the Senate. Some day, the inside facts will be given to the people. Suffice it to say now, that it was not intended the bill should become a law at the last session, and the plans were set to prevent it. The full intention was to get the bill into conference and then to reach it next winter or never; and most likely the latter.

And today, the influences that control in the Senate, are praying that some clause required by the statehood bill will be omitted, or that some section or clause will be inserted contrary to the wishes of the Senate which will give them a semblance of an excuse to reject the bill next winter. The President, when he signed the statehood bill stated to the delegates and others present, that all he had to say was: "That they go back and see that their conventions send safe and sane constitutions to him to be signed."

Now it is safe to infer if the President does not think the constitutions are "safe and sane," that he will not recommend favorable action by Congress; that he will not sign; and will not issue his proclamation admitting New Mexico and Arizona to statehood. As stated before, the powers that control in the Senate would be more than pleased to find some small excuse to reject both constitutions. Delegates Cameron and Andrews, and many others that know the inside facts can confirm that as the exact and true situation.

Now it is up to the people of Arizona and New Mexico to say whether they want statehood now or to wait for another twenty or more years. It would be a comedy, if it was not likely to be a tragedy, to hear some people talk about their large populations, their great resources, their constitutional and other rights. The people of a territory do not vote for President; they have no representation in the Senate; their delegate has no vote even in the House nor in committees. The Senate gives the territories such consideration as it pleases and no more, and sneers at the "claims." Take Oklahoma and Indian Territories. With the people protesting, Congress put them together as one state; lapped prohibition in the bargain and said: "You sixteen hundred thousand people take that or stay out as territories." It was a bitter pill, but was accepted rather than remain as territories.

POST BRINGS SUIT AGAINST LABOR LEADERS.

Bill in Equity to Set Aside a Closed Shop Agreement Affecting St. Louis Factory.

St. Louis, Sept. 3.—C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Michigan, today filed in the United States circuit court a petition against the American Federation of Labor and the Bucks Stove and Range Company of St. Louis, to restrain the officers of the latter from carrying out the alleged tentative agreement with officers of the former to make the St. Louis institution a closed shop. The case is a suit in equity and includes among its defendants, Samuel Gompers, president, John Mitchell, vice president, and Frank Morrison, secretary, and other officers of the Federation and some fifty others prominently identified with union labor in America.

YOUNG ACTRESS IS VICTIM OF THE HOBBLE SKIRT.

She Trips While Descending Stairways From Dressing Room and Is Fatally Injured.

New York, Sept. 3.—The hobble skirt has claimed another victim. Miss Mariam Stone, a girl in her teens and a member of a theatrical company, stumbled while descending the stairs leading from her dressing room last night and fell nearly the entire length of the stairs, striking on her head. Her recovery is doubtful.

TRIUMPHAL TOUR OF ROOSEVELT

Lots of Fun at His Initiation in the Knights of Ak Sar Ben

ROUGH RIDER PRAISES TAFT

Cities in Gala Attire to Greet Only Ex-President of United States.

Omaha, Sept. 3.—Colonel Roosevelt resumed his tour west today leaving Omaha at eight this morning for Sioux Falls, where he will speak this evening. On the way he will make a brief stop at Sioux City, Iowa, to speak to a mass meeting at the Baseball park. The colonel was made a member of the Knights of Ak Sar Ben last evening and attended a smoker at the home of the Knights. Two initiates were dressed to resemble Speaker Cannon and Senator La Follette and were placed on trial before the court of Ak Sar Ben for some unnamed crime. They were acquitted but on Cannon passing a roll of stage money into the jury box the court immediately banished Cannon to Kansas and LaFollette to Rhode Island.

It Pays to Advertise.

Sioux City, Sept. 3.—Colonel Roosevelt spoke to an enormous crowd from a stand erected in the ball park here this morning. During his brief stop here business was practically suspended, and many thousands from the surrounding country came to the city to see the former President. The Roosevelt train reached Sioux Falls at 4:30 this afternoon and the South Dakota city has put on gala display in his honor. Roosevelt will be a guest of honor at a banquet at the Cataract hotel this evening.

Roosevelt Praises Taft.

Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 3.—Before an enormous crowd, Colonel Roosevelt today in the presence of Senator Dolliver and Representative Hubbard, of Iowa, made his first public utterance regarding the administration of President Taft. He endorsed the President's suggestion for a tariff commission and complimented him upon his negotiations with foreign countries to bring about tariff agreements. It was made known that this commendation of the President was purposely given within the "insurgent" territory and that both Senator Dolliver and Mr. Hubbard knew in advance what Roosevelt was to say, and what he said, although they had not consulted among themselves. He also praised Congressman Martin, of South Dakota. "He also is a man who absolutely stood by me on every point throughout my term," said Colonel Roosevelt, "and with whom I am able to work in hearty sympathy for every progressive policy. All three of these men stood without hitching. Perhaps, that simile suits South Dakota better than Iowa, where I should say they never kicked over the pail. I am particularly pleased with what the President said in his last letter on the subject of a tariff commission," said Colonel Roosevelt. "I am glad the country seems now to have definitely awakened to the idea that a tariff commission offers the only solution of the problem, which is both rational and insures the absence of jobbers. The President from the beginning has advocated this commission."

"It was only by a bitter fight that the friends of the commission idea in the Senate and House got the provision through. It is not yet in satisfactory shape. The commission itself should be enlarged, and its powers greatly enlarged and defined." There was great demonstration as Mr. Roosevelt proceeded with remarks.

Roosevelt Opposed to Referendum. Tucson, Ariz., Sept. 3.—Refuting statements of the Democratic newspapers of Arizona that his warning to Arizonians and New Mexicans at Pueblo, Colorado, against the danger of an ironclad constitution and "designing corporation attorneys" was a declaration in favor of the initiative and referendum. Mr. Roosevelt, in a message to Sims Ely, of Phoenix, says:

"It is utterly impossible that such a construction can be placed on my speech. The speech speaks for itself just as clearly as it is in my power to speak."

UPRISING IN NUEVA VISCAYA HAS COLLAPSED.

Simeon Mandac, Former Governor of Ilocos Norte is Seized By People of Province.

Manila, Sept. 3.—The uprising in Nueva Viscaya led by Simeon Mandac, former governor of Ilocos Norte, collapsed today when Mandac who had been seized by the people of the province among whom he had sought to stir up trouble, was turned over to the constabulary. Mandac's force had dwindled to two hundred poorly armed men.

TAFT LEAVES FOR ST. PAUL

His Address on Monday Will Define His Attitude Toward Conservation

DEVOTED MUCH STUDY TO IT

Ex-President Roosevelt Will Address Congress on the Day Following.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 3.—President Taft left this morning for St. Paul, Minnesota, where he will deliver an address before the national conservation congress on Monday morning. The President has devoted more pains and study to his speech than any of his recent addresses and it will stand as defining accurately and finally his position on the great subject of conservation. Ex-President Roosevelt will address the congress on the day following.

Taft Denies Reputed Remark.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The White House today issued the following statement received by wire from Secretary Norton at Beverly, Mass.: "The President sharply repudiates this morning's story which appeared in certain Boston and New York newspapers to the effect that he had made any comment whatever expressing either pleasure or displeasure on the new nationalism." This refers to Colonel Roosevelt's utterances at Osawatimie.

SENATOR PENROSE AND PARTY HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Surrounded By Forest Fires For Several Days While Hunting in Montana.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 3.—That Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and his brother, Dr. C. B. Penrose, of Philadelphia, and Spencer Penrose of this city, were hemmed in by forest fires in Montana, where they were on a hunting trip and compelled to spend several days cut off from the outside world before they won their way through the flames by "back firing," was the news brought here today by Spencer Penrose. Several men were killed by the flames near their camp.

YOUNG HEARTS MADE HAPPY

The Daughter of Ambassador Kerens Married at Quiet British Village

MISS ELKINS AND THE DUKE

Wedding Bells Will Ring for Them Next February According to Report.

London, Sept. 3.—Miss Gladys Kerens of St. Louis, the youngest daughter of Richard C. Kerens, ambassador at Vienna, and George Hamilton Colket of Philadelphia, were married at noon today, at the church of St. John, the Evangelist, at Herons Ghyl in Sussex.

Dowager Queen Withdraws Opposition

Paris, Sept. 3.—Miss Katherine Elkins and Mrs. R. R. Hitt, returned to Paris from London today. Circumstantial press reports published her as well as in Rome are that Miss Elkins and the Duke of Abruzzi will be married in February, the opposition of Dowager Queen Margherita having been abandoned.

WILL VOTE FOR A DEAD MAN

One of Beauties of Direct Primary Illustrated in Wisconsin

HE DIES BEFORE ELECTION

La Follette Men in a Quandary and May Lose Attorney Generalship.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 3.—A troublesome situation is likely to result from the death yesterday of Frank Tucker, the LaFollette candidate for attorney general. Two other candidates are classed as anti-LaFollette Republicans, and the LaFollette campaign committee has sent out word to the LaFollette precinct leaders to pass the word to the LaFollette men to vote for the dead man. It is too late to change the ballots and the only recourse of the LaFollette men will be to elect Tucker in the primary. Then the new state committee, which the LaFollette men say they will dominate, will select a LaFollette man to fill the vacancy. The anti-LaFollette men however, do not believe that the election of a dead man can stand in the courts.

LARGE PROCEEDS FROM TERRITORIAL LAND LEASES.

Paid Over to Territorial Treasurer Today—Governor Mills Appoints Notary.

Governor Mills today appointed Miss Dora Short of Estancia, Torrance county, a notary public.

Territorial Funds.

Territorial Treasurer M. A. Otero today received from Land Commissioner R. P. Ervin $3,929.29, proceeds of territorial land leases and $10,016 from the treasurer of Taos county.

CHARLES REYNOLDS BURIED BY CAVE-IN OF WELL.

Chas. Reynolds, wheelwright of Ft. Bayard, well known citizen of that section was buried by a well caving in on him at his ranch on Whisky Creek, a few miles from Fort Bayard. Shortly before the accident he descended to the bottom of his well, about 45 feet, to repair a pump. Henry Bliss, his assistant, remained on the surface to use the windlass. Reynolds had been working about half an hour, when Bliss suddenly realized that the ground was caving in and hurried off. The ground caved badly and wrecked the windmill, covering Reynolds with several feet of earth. Frank Eaton, who ranches nearby, was called as he was passing and at once notified the people at Fort Bayard, who are endeavoring to dig the buried man out. He had a wife and one son. He had resided several years in this section. He was finally dug out and is none the worse today for the mishap.

COLORADO WILL TRY THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

Denver, Sept. 3.—Governor Shafroth late yesterday signed the initiative and referendum bill passed by the special session of the legislature. As the bill carried an emergency clause it is now the law of the state.

STARVED ON TELEGRAPH POLES

Indescribable Desolation Wrought by Floods in Flowery Kingdom

34,000 LIVES WERE LOST

Many Missing and Those Who Escaped Drowning Died of Hunger.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 3.—More than thirty-four hundred lives were lost in the Japanese floods, according to advices brought here by the Kamakuru Maru yesterday, in addition to several hundred missing. The scenes in central Japan are unparalleled for misery and desolation. In the Senju district many persons who climbed telegraph poles to escape the floods starved to death.

PHILADELPHIA NOT GROWING AS RAPIDLY AS NEW YORK

Washington, D. C., Sept. 3.—The population of Philadelphia is 1,549,008, an increase of 255,311 or 19.76 per cent over 1900.

LABOR AND THE CHURCH

Unions Will Attend Services in Body in New York Tomorrow

GOMPERS AND THE CLERGY

President of American Federation Sent Letters to Central Bodies.

New York, Sept. 3.—Tomorrow will be observed in the churches throughout the United States as "Labor Sunday." The ministerial associations of 655 cities will devote the day to sermons on some phase of the labor question. At many of the services, the various labor organizations will attend in a body. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has sent letters to six hundred central labor bodies in America requesting them to appoint committees to co-operate with the clergy.

THREE INJURED IN ACCIDENT NEAR BUCKMAN.

Frightened Mules Back Surrey and Occupants Over a Bridge—On Way to Cliff Dwellings.

While on their way to the cliff dwellings at Rito de los Frijoles, a party of Santa Feans were crossing a wooden bridge near Buckman just at noon yesterday, when the mules shied at a rock that had been placed in a hole in the bridge, and springing backward threw themselves, the surrey and occupants into the rocky, river bed, a distance of ten to twelve feet below, shaking up seven people, and severely bruising and shocking three. The injured are:

Mrs. L. I. Bailey, of Emporia, Kan., daughter of Mrs. W. B. Sloan of this city. Bruised by the fall on stones about the face, hands and body. Suffering from shock. Brought home on a cot in the express car of D. & R. G. yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. B. Sloan, of this city. Bruised severely about face and arms and shocked.

Miss Ruth Bailey, eleven year old daughter of Mrs. L. I. Bailey. Bruised on back, arms and head.

Escaped Injury.

These escaped serious bruises or injuries: J. Bert Sloan, assistant weather observer of Santa Fe.

Mrs. Byrd, Jr., a visitor in this city. Warren Bailey, aged 14, son of Mrs. L. I. Bailey, of Emporia, Kan.

Dilman Kinsell, aged 17, of Santa Fe, who was driving the mules when accident occurred.

Physician is Called.

Shortly after the accident happened and when friends and relatives of Mrs. L. I. Bailey feared that she was fatally injured, a courier was sent ahead and caught up with the party of Bronson Cutting which was on its way to the cliff dwellings. In the party were Dr. J. A. Massie, Edgar L. Hewett, and others. Dr. Massie and Mr. Hewett returned with their driver to the scene of the accident and the physician examined the injured and found that no bones were broken. He recommended that they be brought back to Santa Fe as soon as possible. As he could not render any further assistance Dr. Massie, Mr. Hewett and their driver returned to their carriage and continued the trip to the canon. They arrived at the canon without accident according to reports received here today.

Mrs. Bailey was placed on a cot and brought back to Santa Fe with other members of the party on the D. & R. G. train which arrived at Buckman at 2 p. m. She and the other injured persons are reported as resting easy today, but they have bruises that will require some time to heal.

Other Party Safe.

The members of the party that preceded the surrey that tipped over the bridge, are reported uninjured. They got across the bridge without any mishap and were waiting on the other side of the Rio Grande for their companions who figured in the accident. In the party that crossed the river in safety were Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. Patterson, Miss Maud Hancock, Miss Stella Sloan, Miss Pauline Kinsell, Mr. Spivey, and their driver whose first name is Ambrosio.

Describes Accident.

A member of the party that went overboard when the mules began to shy in speaking of the accident said: "It might have been averted had there been rails on the bridge. The mules shied at a big, glittering rock, that had been pushed to fill a hole in the planking, and there was no getting them forward. Dilman Kinsell, who had gone in the first surrey had joined our party before we reached

ANOTHER CONCERT MONDAY NIGHT

To Beautify Rosario Cemetery Where De Vargas Chapel is Located

MISERERE WILL BE SUNG

Miss Hinojos Will Be Star Soloist A Varied Program is Offered.

The "holy and wholesome thought" of praying for the dead has been emphasized for centuries, and the care of the graves of the departed dear ones of this life is also considered by civilized nations a fitting tribute to those who are no longer able to ask our remembrance.

Near this city is the Rosario cemetery which is hallowed by memories sacred to many a resident here and is the romantic location of the Rosario chapel where Don Diego De Vargas carried out his vow to the Blessed Virgin.

This cemetery needs to be beautified and the ladies of the Cathedral have arranged to give a concert for the Rosario Cemetery Fund Monday night. It will be at the Elks' theater, with the assistance of that theater's manager, Michael Stanton.

Many of the ladies and their children have worked very hard to sell tickets and make the affair a success and the seat sale now is on at Fischer's drug store.

The concert will be a memorable one because of the appearance of Miss Hinojos, a young lady who had a really wonderful soprano voice, according to musicians who have heard her. She comes of a musical family, her father being the organist at the Cathedral.

The Miserere.

There will be one very appropriate selection sung by Miss Hinojos. It is the Miserere from Verdi's opera, Il Trovatore. Certain it is that this number, with all its sadness, will appeal to any who have lost dear ones by the hand of the unrelenting Grim Reaper. Certain it is that no number could be more suitable for such an occasion, considering that the object of the concert is for the beautification of the graves of the dead.

The Catholic church indeed, does lay more emphasis on praying for the souls of the departed than showing honor by expensive tombstones to the resting place of their ashes. But there is a very pitiful psalm sung by the church particularly in the month of November dedicated to the poor souls in which they say "Miseremini mei, miseremini mei, saltem vos amici mei." (Have pity on me, have pity on me, at least you, my friends.) And this pity is expressible not only by prayer, but by an occasional visit to the grave of the dead friend, and keeping the grass green around that grave as the memory is held sacred. It is a noticeable fact, deplorable indeed, that in too many cemeteries of the land, including Catholic cemeteries, there are palpable signs of neglect of the very injunction of the Mother Church to remember all our dead friends.

Those who will aid the concert Monday night, therefore will be doing a good work, and it is hoped some day that not only will the cemetery be beautified but that a row of trees will be planted leading to this spot, sacred, historic, romantic.

The Program.

The following is the program for the concert Monday night:

Selection by Morrison's orchestra of seven pieces.

"Miserere" from Il Trovatore. Sung by Miss Hinojos and A. J. Teare, Mrs. Bean, accompanist.

"As the Moon Arose"—Recitation by Miss Morrison.

Jewel Song from Faust, by Miss Hinojos.

Moving pictures.

"The Garden of Love" a specialty given under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Baca by Misses Ramona Baca, Anita Baca, Frances Hinojos, Genevieve Morrison and Messrs. Stevenson, Miller, Van Vleet and Loomis.

The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock.

THE DAILY ROUND UP.

A CONSTITUTION PLEA.

Give me a constitution, Sires,
Of Sinew, flesh and bone
That I may throw away my crutch
And go my way alone;
Nor put a bandage on mine eyes,
Nor hobble on my feet
To lose me on the shining trail
And trip me in the street.

Put in my hands a grip of steel
That on my strength alone
I lean to win and keep and hold
My own, my very own,
Put in my lips the voice of thought
That every puny whine
That rises to the doubts of men
May never rise to mine.

Put in my heart the throb of hearts
That count the deeds of man—
Of Morse and Fulton, with the dreams
Of Jupiter and Pan;
Nor bind me to the vulture's rock
Where every hawk may prod
The golden treasure of my veins
That fill for man and God.

Put in mine ears the call of hope,
The clink and hammer-blow
Of trip and winding drum above
And sledge and drill below;
The hiss of steam and hum of wheel
In factory and mill,
The low of cattle on the range
And sheep upon the hill.

Give me a constitution, Sires,
The brightest of the strong,
And let me throw away the crutch
That I have carried long;
Nor put a hobble on my feet,
Nor goggles on my eyes—
Give me the freedom of the earth,
The wisdom of the skies!

House Struck by Lightning—Lightning struck and partly demolished the residence of Mrs. C. V. Preston, one mile north of Las Vegas. The four persons in the house escaped injury.

Two Sheds Destroyed by Fire—At Las Vegas yesterday afternoon, coal and wood sheds belonging to Mrs. J. H. Ward and R. Studebaker were destroyed by fire. The loss is $200.

Boy Run Over By Carriage—Night before last, a boy whose name could not be ascertained, was pitched out of his carriage on Montezuma avenue and fell under the wheel which passed over his head without apparently injuring him seriously.

Four Boys Arrested—Four boys were arrested at Albuquerque yesterday for stealing paperbags from a store and then selling them again to the storekeeper. The boys are Clarence Dragole and a younger brother, Roy Busch and a boy named Converse.

Engagement Announced—The engagement of Miss Adelina Montoya, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jose M. Montoya and Timoteo Baca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Rey Baca, of Baca-ville, Socorro county, is announced. The wedding will take place on September 22.

It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the Heart and Kidneys. That is all wrong! A weak Stomach, means weak Stomach nerves, always. And this is also true of the Heart and Kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping Stomach, Heart and Kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the falling "inside nerves." Anyway test the Restorative 48 hours. It won't cure so soon as that, but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by The Capital Pharmacy.

Marriage Licenses Granted—At Las Vegas yesterday the following marriage licenses were granted: Vera C. Gehring and Earl A. Norton, East Las Vegas; Cenaida Urioste and David Marquez, Canon de Aguilar; Adela Martinez, Las Vegas, and Candelario E. Gallegos, El Porvenir.

MINOR CITY TOPICS

Denver, Colo., Sept. 3.—The forecast is generally fair tonight and Sunday with stationary temperature.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knowles, at the Cash Entry mine, fifteen miles south of Santa Fe, twin girls. They will receive the names of Jack and Jill.

Big Change of Program at the Elks' tomorrow night. All subjects good ones. Prices always 10 and 15 cents.

Maximum Was 80—The maximum temperature yesterday was 80 degrees and the minimum was 52. The average relative humidity for the day was only 50 per cent, the minimum having been but 28 per cent at 6 p. m. The temperature at 6 o'clock this morning was 55 degrees.

Go Where the Crowd Goes that's to the Elks'. Our machine the best money can buy. Pictures always good.

School Opens Monday—The public schools will open next Monday morning, September 5th at 9 o'clock for one hour. This will be a very important hour as books, seats and classes will be arranged at that time. It will be to the advantage of all pupils to be promptly on time. It is to be hoped that parents will feel a responsibility in this and see that their children are ready for the opening. The interest shown at the start is indicative of the interest to be shown during the term. It costs just as much to the city when the children are absent as it does when they are present and some times a great deal more. So let every one start right and it will not be so hard to keep right.

IN NEW MEXICO'S POLITICAL PASTURES

A Carlsbad correspondent writes: The Republican convention adjourned without naming candidates for delegates to the constitutional convention. Much to the disappointment of the rank and file of the Republicans and others who had looked forward to helping to elect men like A. N. Pratt and C. H. McLenathan as delegates. The sentiment in the county generally is favorable to sending men who have grown up with the country. The time, however is so short that it would not be possible for any candidate at this time to conduct a proper campaign. This leaves only the Democratic and Socialist candidates for the electors to select from on election day in Eddy county.

MEETING AT CERRILLOS.

Special to the New Mexican.
Cerrillos, N. M., Sept. 3.—R. H. Hanna and Interpreter Juan Ortiz of Santa Fe addressed some people at this place last night in behalf of the Democratic ticket. The initiative and referendum and recall were expounded and the speaker promised the audience ideal self-government, that will leave no room for tax-dodging and corrupt legislation, because of the power of the recall by which any office holder can be jerked back into private life. He also asserted that all these special elections would cause no expense to the public except that involved in printing circulars and mailing them to each and every voter in the county. The lawyer element in the Republican party came in for a good roasting and so did the so-called bosses who have managed affairs 25 years. To those in the audience who understood both Spanish and English, Interpreter Ortiz gave cause for considerable amusement, his way of calling the people "Pueblos" and his literal translation of the English into Spanish gave the verbs a queer jolt and place that would probably have surprised the speaker could he have understood the translation. It is no wonder that several Democrats after the meeting declared they would vote the Republican ticket on next Tuesday.

Take Advantage of a Santa Fe Citizen's Experience Before It's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Profit by a Santa Fe citizen's experience.

Lino Romero, Palace Ave., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills live up to the claims made for them. If I were not confident of this fact, I could never have been induced to give this remedy my endorsement. There was a dull ache in the small of my back that bothered me and at times I was obliged to lay off from work for two or three days. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me entire relief, and the few slight attacks of backache I have had since then have quickly yielded to this remedy."

Mr. Romero gave the above testimonial in January, 1907, and when interviewed on June 26, 1909, he said: "I can speak as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I publicly endorsed them two and a half years ago. This remedy always gives benefit when I use it."

OPINION OF SUPREME COURT IN MICHAEL O'NEILL CASE

Agent Cannot Take Advantage of His Position and Fraudulently Obtain Title to Mining Claims Belonging to His Principal.

Syllabus.

1. The attempt of an agent employed to do the annual assessment work on a mining claim, after failure of intentional neglect to do such work, to relocate the claim even though such attempted relocation is made in the name of a third party from whom the agent subsequently obtains title by deed, is fraud upon his principal.

2. One who takes advantage of his position as agent and representative of another and thereby fraudulently obtains title to certain mining claims which in equity and good conscience belong to his principal, will be charged in equity as a trustee ex maleficio of his principal.

Statement of the Case.

On the 6th day of April appellant filed suit against F. J. Otero, as special master, and alleged that on the 1st day of January, 1908, in the county of Santa Fe, one Joseph DeLallo, a naturalized citizen of the United States discovered and located certain mineral lands in the Los Cerrillos Mining district, Santa Fe county, N. M., under the name of the "Square Deal," "York," "Gold Coin" and "Zinc Blend."

The complaint then sets forth the amount and character of work done upon said four mining claims.

On the 16th day of March, 1909, Joseph DeLallo, as locator of said mining claims, conveyed the same to Michael O'Neill, the appellant in this cause. The complaint then alleged that F. J. Otero, special master and appellee, was on the 7th day of January, 1909, appointed special master in a certain cause then pending in the district court for Santa Fe county, wherein Thomas K. D. Maddison was plaintiff and the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company was defendant and as such special master, appellee was authorized to sell at public auction certain lands, mining claims and premises belonging to the defendant corporation, the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, and among the property which said special master was directed to sell were the following mining claims: "Tom Paine," "Golden Eagle," "Sukie," "Sukie, Jr.," "Albany" and "Santiago" mining claims also situate in the Los Cerrillos Mining district in said county of Santa Fe; that said six mining claims were valid and existing mining claims containing an area of 300 to 1500 feet surface ground and had been located many years prior thereto; said complaint then alleged that during the year 1907, the annual assessment work or the expenditure of $100 upon each of said mining claims was not done or performed, and by reason of such failure to cause to be done $100 worth of work, the said six mining claims, last above mentioned, became and were abandoned and forfeited and reverted to the United States, and on the 1st day of January became a part of the public unoccupied mineral lands and subject to location by any person or persons qualified under the mining laws to locate mining claims, and that the said Joseph DeLallo located the ground covered by the six mining claims, last above mentioned, in the names of the "Square Deal," "York," "Gold Coin" and "Zinc Blend" mining claims, each of said claims containing an area of 600 by 1500 feet surface ground.

It was further alleged that the said four claims, last above mentioned, covered practically the surface ground that was covered and claimed under the six mining claims, owned and claimed by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company. Said plaintiff further alleged that the said F. J. Otero, as special master, had advertised said six mining claims, together with other property for sale at public auction, under and by virtue of a decree rendered in said cause wherein said appellee was appointed special master; said sale was advertised to take place on the 14th day of April 1909, at the front door of the court house in Santa Fe county, N. M. The plaintiff and appellant prayed for an injunction enjoining and restraining said F. J. Otero, as such special master, from offering for sale and from selling the said six mining claims and from in any manner interfering with or disturbing appellant in his quiet and peaceable possession of said premises, under and by virtue of the location thereof made by the said Joseph DeLallo, who had conveyed the same to Michael O'Neill, appellant, by deed March 16, 1909.

Attached to the complaint is a copy of the location notices filed by DeLallo and the deed from DeLallo to appellant. Upon the filing of said complaint, a testimony writ of injunction was issued and made returnable on the 12th day of April, 1909.

The defendant and appellee filed an answer to said complaint on the 10th day of April, 1909, and denied each and every material allegation in said complaint alleged with reference to the location of said premises by Joseph DeLallo and denied that the annual assessment work upon said six mining claims, owned by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, had not been done and performed for the year 1907, and denied that the said ground was on the 1st day of January, 1908, subject to location or that the said corporation had forfeited or abandoned said mining claims.

The appellee admitted that he was appointed special master in that certain suit brought by Thomas K. D. Maddison, as plaintiff, against the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, as defendant, and alleged that under and by virtue of the decree and the order appointing him, he was authorized and directed to sell and dispose of at public auction the property in said decree described which belonged to the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company and further admitted that included in the advertisement that was then being published in the Santa Fe New Mexican was the said "Tom Paine," "Golden Eagle," "Sukie," "Sukie, Jr.," mining claims and also the "Albany" and "Santiago" mining claims, and defendant denied that the said six mining claims, above mentioned, were abandoned by the owner thereof during the year 1907, by failure to do the annual assessment work required by the laws of the United States and the territory of New Mexico, and denied that on the 1st day of January, 1908, the ground covered by six mining claims, last above named, was public domain and subject to location by any person or persons authorized under the mining laws of the United States to explore, discover and locate mineral lands; and said defendant and appellee further denied that the said Joseph DeLallo did on the 1st day of January, 1908, discover and locate said four mining claims, called the "Square Deal," "York," "Gold Coin" and "Zinc Blend."

Appellee admitted that he had advertised the said six mining claims for sale, together with other property, and that it was his intention to sell the same at public auction on the 14th day of April, 1909, together with all improvements thereon. He likewise admitted that if the said sale took place and the court approved the same, that he would convey to the purchaser thereof the property described in said notice of sale, and said appellee admitted that unless restrained by the court he would at the time and place in said notice of publication set forth, sell said property at public auction. Appellee in his answer further alleged that the said Michael O'Neill, appellant in this cause, had ever since the year 1903 performed or caused to be performed the annual assessment work of the value of $100 on each of said six mining claims, owned by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, including the year 1907; and further alleged that the said Michael O'Neill commenced to do the work upon said mining claims in the month of September, 1907, and under and in pursuance of an agreement made by and between one W. A. Brown, the agent and representative of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, with the said Michael O'Neill, and that the said Michael O'Neill, as agent of the said Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company on the 27th day of December, 1907, that the annual assessment work upon the said four mining claims had been done and performed for the year 1907, and would be completed on the "Santiago" and "Albany" by the 5th day of January, 1908.

Appellee further alleged that on the 3rd day of January, 1908, he was appointed receiver of all the property belonging to the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, under and by virtue of an order made in the case brought by the said Thomas K. D. Maddison, as plaintiff, against the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, and as such receiver he duly qualified and took possession of the property belonging to said company and on the 30th day of January, 1908, one W. A. Brown, the agent and representative of appellee, as receiver, in said cause, tendered to the said O'Neill the sum of $200 for and on account of the annual assessment work done for the "Albany" and "Santiago" mining claims, and further alleged that appellant in the early part of December, 1907, commenced to do the annual assessment work upon the "Santiago" and "Albany" mining claims and if the $100 worth of work had not been completed on the 1st day of January, 1908, that appellant continued to perform the work upon said mining claims, until at least $100 worth of work had been done.

Defendant and appellee further alleged fraud and conspiracy on the part of the said O'Neill and a combination entered into between appellant and DeLallo Bros. and denied that the appellant was entitled to an injunction.

Upon the hearing of the motion to dissolve the temporary injunction, the court continued the injunction until the final hearing of the case and thereafter appellant filed a reply to the answer denying in general all the new matter set up by appellee and especially denied that he had performed any work upon said six mining claims on account of annual assessment work for the year 1907.

Defendant and appellee was permitted by the court to amend his answer and alleged and charged that appellant, Michael O'Neill, acting as the agent of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, wrongfully, wilfully and fraudulently concealed from said company and its agent and representative, W. A. Brown, the fact that the said annual assessment work upon said six mining claims had not been done for the year 1907, and thereafter combined and fraudulently conspired with Thomas DeLallo and Joseph DeLallo, or one or both of them, and procured them to relocate said six mining claims in the names of the "Square Deal," "York," "Gold Coin" and "Zinc Blend" for the purpose of defrauding and defeating the title of said company to the same; and defendant further alleged that the said Michael O'Neill, appellant, in order to wrongfully and fraudulently deceive the said company and its representative, W. A. Brown, falsely represented to said Brown that he had performed the annual assessment work upon said six mining claims, as required by law for the year 1907, and defendant by way of cross complaint alleged that the said Michael O'Neill did on the 5th day of August, 1907, agree to and with W. A. Brown, the agent and representative of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, that he would do the annual assessment work upon said six mining claims for the year 1907 and was to receive the sum of $100 for the work done upon each of said claims, making a total of $600, and defendant further alleged that whether or not the said appellant did actually do the annual assessment work upon said six mining claims according to the contract and agreement, that after the 1st day of January, 1908, and after the said Joseph DeLallo had pretended to relocate said six mining claims, the said Michael O'Neill, caused to be done at least $100 worth of work upon each of said mining claims owned by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, although he claimed that the work was done on behalf of Joseph DeLallo upon the claims so claimed to have been relocated by him, and defendant alleges that by virtue of the fraud, combination and conspiracy between the said O'Neill and the DeLallo Bros. that the said appellant should be decreed a trustee to have done the work for the use and benefit of the mining company for the year 1907, and the defendant further alleged that the appellant when he acquired title to said property in March, 1909, by receiving a deed from Joseph DeLallo, did so with full knowledge of all the equities and rights of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company in and to the same, and defendant prayed that the pretended location notices alleged to have been posted upon said claims by said Joseph DeLallo on the 1st day of January, 1908, pretending to locate the same under said four names, be ordered cancelled and that the deed from Joseph DeLallo to appellant be likewise cancelled and held for naught and that appellant be required to quit claim to the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company or to the defendant as receiver any lien, right, title or interest claimed by him, under and by virtue of the said deed and that he be decreed to be trustee ex maleficio and to hold whatever title he had in said property for the use and benefit of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company and for the defendant receiver thereof, and that the work and labor performed upon said mining claims under the pretended relocation thereof by the said Joseph DeLallo be decreed to be done for the use and benefit of said company or the receiver.

Appellant filed a reply to the amended answer denying each and every allegation of new matter therein set forth.

At the close of the evidence the court made nineteen findings of fact and thereafter rendered a decree in accordance with the findings of fact.

Of the said findings two only are necessary to a consideration of this case, as follows:

"That the plaintiff, Michael O'Neill,

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

POPULAR CLAMOR OR PUBLIC OPINION?

There was a time in the history of the nation when George Washington would have been removed from the presidency if the recall had been in effect. In 1862, the people who re-elected Abraham Lincoln by overwhelming majority two years later, would have driven him out of the White House if they would have had the say. Ten years after the close of the war with Great Britain, the initiative and referendum would have plunged this nation into war that would have resulted in the loss of the liberties of the people. The initiative and referendum and recall are devised to give effect to popular clamor or in order to help peanut politicians into prominence and office; the representative form of government, as it now exists, gives effective voice to the real, deliberate, sober, public opinion. The election on next Tuesday is to decide whether New Mexico is to be ruled in the future by popular clamor or by public opinion. The Democrats tend to breed a type of public man who always has his ear to the ground, a man who has no opinions or convictions of his own, and whose one aim is to keep in office by turning himself into a political weathercock, adjusted to catch every passing gust of popular caprice. This is not the kind of man from whom the country has anything to hope. He has no fixed standards of right or wrong. Unfortunately, the tendency of certain recent innovations in our governmental machinery makes strongly against the deliberation that is so essential to sound legislation. These innovations proceed upon the assumption that no particular training or skill is necessary to enact good laws, that the opinion of the man in the street is every bit as valuable as the opinion of the experienced statesman, and that where a man's intentions are vaguely good, neither knowledge nor judgment is necessary for his guidance. Imagine what would happen if we attempted to conduct a large business upon such a theory; yet the government has frequently to deal with issues that are far more intricate than those that ordinarily arise in private business. Not only this, but involved questions that require cool and dispassionate consideration may be suddenly precipitated into the political arena—perhaps at a time of great public excitement—and an immediate solution demanded. The resulting legislation may reflect the public temper of the moment, but it runs little chance of reflecting true public opinion—the deliberate and reasoned judgment of the community.

SANTA FE MUST HELP ITSELF.

That General Earl D. Thomas has looked carefully into the local situation before recommending that a regimental army post be established near Albuquerque, is apparent from his annual report to the adjutant general of the army. General Thomas was in Santa Fe last year and was shown the available sites near Santa Fe, and the superiority of this city for the location of a post was made clear to him but it evidently made no impression on him. Santa Fe cannot look to him for aid or even sympathy and must strike out for itself in the matter. Of course, it will not help itself by electing a Fusion ticket on next Tuesday and thus setting itself at odds with the national as well as territorial administrations and with Congress; nor will it help itself by defeating men like Hon. Thomas B. Catron, who in a fight for an army post, would be a host in himself. Here is the text of the report of General Thomas: "It is recommended that Fort Wingate be abandoned and that the construction of a regimental cavalry post, sufficient at first to accommodate the headquarters and two squadrons of cavalry, be established near Albuquerque, New Mexico. It has been demonstrated that water in abundance for a large command can be obtained on the mesa four miles east of Albuquerque by sinking wells and pumping. The city of Albuquerque obtains its supply from wells—these have never failed and the continuous pumping of years seems to have had no apparent effect on the available supply. Moreover, in the arid and semi-arid portions of our country, wells, when there is present the subterranean vein of sufficient volume that can be reached, have been proven to be the safest and most reliable source of supply. "Near the slopes of the Sandia range of mountains, land in abundance and suitable for military purposes is available, in fact something like 23,000 acres, much of which is government land."

REMARKABLE RECORD BY SUPREME COURT.

The entire commonwealth is more or less affected, or at least interested, in the work of the courts. The supreme court, composed of Republican judges, has just made a commendable record, in the session that adjourned this week, which illustrates the efficiency of the Republican administration in this Territory and which should induce the people to retain the Republicans in charge of public affairs. On the first day of the session, July 19, there appeared on the calendar fifteen cases under advisement, four cases pending on motion for rehearing and sixty-three cases for argument, making a total of eighty-two cases on the calendar, the largest number of cases on the docket since the Republicans took the judiciary out of the inefficient hands of Democratic judges. These cases were disposed of as follows:

Of the cases under advisement, being the old cases, all were decided but four; the four cases pending on motion for rehearing were disposed of; of the sixty-three cases for argument, fifty-five were disposed of by affirmation, reversal or dismissal, and only eight cases were continued. During the session, the court handed down fifty opinions decisive of fifty-one cases. This is the largest number of cases disposed of and opinions handed down at any one term during the existence of the supreme court of New Mexico.

It is the prompt disposition of cases that assures justice; and such prompt disposition has been given by Chief Justice William H. Pope and his associates, John R. McFie, Frank W. Parker, Merritt C. Mechem and Edward R. Wright, all Republicans, and as efficient and prompt in their districts as they are en banc sitting as the supreme tribunal of the commonwealth.

The Denver & Rio Grande railroad has published a most beautifully illustrated folder advertising the Irrigation Congress at Pueblo, Colorado. There is only one New Mexico picture in the booklet, however, a bird's-eye view of the Sunshine Ranch of ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince, 30 miles north of Santa Fe and taken by the writer. Fortunately, for the San Juan valley, the picture is ascribed to San Juan county. But it is unfortunate for the Espanola valley and reflects on the accuracy of the entire publication. The Denver & Rio Grande passenger department should correct the error without delay. The Espanola valley is as much tributary to the railroad as is the San Juan country, and the latter has so much to be proud of that it does not need to adorn itself with borrowed plumes.

The population of Greater New York City is 4,766,883 or nine times the population of New Mexico and Arizona together. It exceeds in population the total of fourteen states and territories in 1900, that is Oklahoma, California, New Mexico, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Alaska and Hawaii. It is more than twice as large as that of the next two largest cities taken together, Paris and Tokio, Berlin, which ranks fifth, is the only other city having more than 2,000,000 inhabitants. London still leads, having 7,500,000 people according to the last census and it will take New York twenty to thirty years to overhaul it at the present rate of growth of both cities.

Nor must it be forgotten, that it is a Republican Congress and a Republican President who gave New Mexico statehood and that it is a Republican President and a Republican Congress who will have to pass upon the constitution before New Mexico can come in as a state. It is only logical therefore to entrust to a Republican constitutional convention the writing of the constitution, provided New Mexico wants to come in as a state without delay. Of course, for those opposed to statehood, the most effective way to show it, is to vote for the Democratic candidates to the constitutional convention.

Raton has erected a welcome arch at the terminus of the Scenic Highway or Santa Fe Trail in that city. It is characteristic of the enterprise of the citizens of the Gate City. Santa Fe people on the other hand, although aided by legislative enactment and planning for several years, have not yet even laid the cornerstone for the proposed arch at the end of the historic trail. Too busy knifing each other politically to do anything for the old town and themselves.

The decision of the territorial supreme court Thursday in the Albuquerque mayoralty cases will stand as a further guarantee of the purity of elections in New Mexico. It means that the responsibility of election boards does not end with their making the returns on election night but that they may be reconvened and compelled to make a complete count. The judges of election exhaust their quasi-judicial power to accept or reject a ballot when the ballot is tendered by the voter. After the close of the box, their duties are merely ministerial and they must certify to the contents of the ballot box as they found them.

Chairman E. N. Burch of the board of county commissioners of Colfax county, who is one of the most enthusiastic and efficient "Good Roads" men in the territory, has placed a force of men to work on the Scenic Highway between Raton and Raton Pass to make such repairs as are found necessary. Colfax county looks carefully after its part of the Scenic Highway and it has become one of the most popular boulevards in the southwest. Not so with Santa Fe county which has permitted its part of the Scenic Highway to fall sadly into decay and then wonders why the territory doesn't do some more good roads building in this vicinity.

How cool Santa Fe's summer weather really is can be gauged in part only by the official temperature records but even those are convincing of the fact that nowhere else in the southwest is the summer pleasanter. Here are the maximum temperature figures of seven places during July this year: Topeka 105 degrees; Oklahoma City 104; Denver 101; Las Vegas 97; Raton 95; Colorado Springs 91, and Santa Fe 88. Add to this the dryness of the atmosphere and the fact that only one day was classed as cloudy and you have a climate that is as near to perfection as can be found on this mundane sphere.

The awkwardness of the direct primary law is apparent from an Associated Press dispatch from Wisconsin today. Although it is still two months to the election, the death of the La Follette candidate for attorney general leaves a vacancy which cannot be filled. In consequence, the La Follette followers will vote for the dead man, an absurdity and anomaly that will probably lead to an expensive and long suit in the courts and considerable political turmoil. The impracticability of some of the new fads in political lines, is more apparent every day.

Despite the spending of enormous sums by the Democrats, they will fail to make any inroads on the Republican majorities on next Tuesday. In Chaves county, the other day, the Republican campaign fund amounted to $45.10; the Democratic fund to more than $2,000. Even here in Santa Fe county, the Democrats are spending money to beat the band but nevertheless they will not carry more than four or five precincts out of twenty-three. The voters can neither be fooled nor bought.

The fickleness of popular favor was strikingly illustrated at St. Joseph, Missouri, Friday, when the crowd shouted for Roosevelt and because he refused to make a speech at midnight began cheering for Taft. A public official, insecure in his tenure of office, shuttled hither and thither by this or that crowd shouting at him, wouldn't give much of real service to public business. His main occupation would be to humor popular moods from day to day, and to escape the danger of recall.

There are elements in the Territory who are opposed to the grant of a million acres by the nation for the payment of the railroad bonded indebtedness of Santa Fe and Grant counties. Those elements will vote solidly for the Democratic candidates, but there certainly can be no sensible voter in Santa Fe county who would follow such a lead to the detriment of every taxpayer and every other resident in this county.

It was well merited praise that ex-President Roosevelt today bestowed upon President Taft. The president in his calm, judicial manner has put himself at the head of a sound progressive movement within the Republican party. It is no wonder, therefore, that these remarks brought forth a great popular demonstration. The confidence of the nation has grown mightily in President Taft and the people are with him.

The thirty-five press representatives accompanying ex-President Roosevelt are doing their full duty and are incidentally teaching the businessmen and politicians of the world that it pays to advertise, whether it is to sell wares or to acquire popularity.

Roosevelt as the advisor of the Chinese regent would turn the world topsy turvy. This little planet would not be able to hold the Celestials after they once were inoculated with the Roosevelt virus.

According to the Tucson Citizen, the Democrats in Arizona openly boast that they will disfranchise "Mexicans and Negroes" in the constitution.

THE FORUM.

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 3.
Editor of the New Mexican:
One noticeable feature by those who demand numerous restrictions and innumerable limitations, is that they fail to distinguish between a constitution, which should provide only for the framework of government, containing no statutes, and leaving the functions of legislation entirely to the legislature. That is one of the noticeable faults of the Oklahoma constitution and you will notice the propaganda of various organizations, independent and otherwise, who demand various principles and laws which really belong to the legislative function of our government and properly have no place in a constitution.

Think of a constitution providing for rules of evidence—e. g., "In all criminal prosecutions for libel, the truth of the matter alleged to be libelous may be given in evidence," etc., and, "The repeal of a statute shall not revive a statute previously repealed," etc. (Oklahoma constitution). I suggest for those who are in love with the Oklahoma form of constitution, that the cardinal principles of evidence, as outlined in "Wigmore's" law volumes (six of them) be incorporated into the constitution. They are just as relevant as the foregoing illustrations from the Oklahoma constitution!

Constitutions should be short and define fundamental powers and limitations of government only, and entirely too much legislation has been injected into the later ones. Every one will admit that a constitution should be stable and permanent. The placing of legislation proper in a constitution always leads to constant amendment. Legislation proper is progressive and to deal in DETAIL laws in a constitution is to effectually eliminate progressive legislation and there is no better way to tie the hands of the people than by putting laws, as distinct from constitutional powers or limitations, in an organic act. A paragraph from one of the United States supreme court opinions as follows, rendered only four months ago, is worthy of the most thoughtful consideration: "Of course the BENEFICIAL APPLICATION of the constitution to the ever-changing requirements of our national life has in a great measure, RESULTED FROM THE SIMPLER AND GENERAL TERMS BY WHICH THE POWERS CREATED BY THE CONSTITUTION ARE CONFERRED, OR IN WHICH IT PROVIDES ARE EXPRESSED."

"Time works changes, brings into existence new conditions and purposes. Therefore a principle, to be vital, must be capable of wider application than the mischief which gave it birth. This is peculiarly true of constitutions. They are not ephemeral enactments, designed to meet passing occasions. The future is their care, and provision for events of good and bad tendencies of which no prophecy can be made."

The welfare and happiness of the people and the stability of their government depends on the fundamental powers and limitations of government expressed in simple, direct and general terms in a constitution! Let the legislature care for the minute and the particular which is ever varying and changing.

Let me also call attention to the fact that certain limitations and fundamental principles (in Art's 13, 14, 15 etc.) are placed upon the states of the

See it, it's in Fischer's Drug Store window, that handsome ladies' dresser to be given away at the Elks, Wednesday, September 21.

Are You Interested in Shoes?—If you are, read the advertisement of the Big Store in this issue in which Mr. Salmon is offering big values, in shoes of all sizes, for all people.

Mrs. Morley is Better—Sylvanus G. Morley, his wife, Mrs. Morley, and his two sisters have returned from the Rito de los Frijoles canon where the archaeological school has been in summer session. Mrs. Morley is recovering from a severely sprained ankle due to a fall from a hammock some days ago.

Injunction Suit Over Crops—An injunction suit was filed in the district clerk's office today, H. S. Cooper being the plaintiff and Joseph J. Ivie and Elizabeth A. Ivie the defendants. The plaintiff wishes to have the Ivies restrained from harvesting a crop and wants also $1,000 damages. The suit is brought in San Juan county.

Big Land Deal at Las Cruces—A deal was closed by which D. H. Trent sold to F. H. Lindsey the former Carrera property on the Camino Real, near Las Cruces, the price paid being $45,000. The property includes the Carrera ranch home, four new concrete block houses and a fine orchard. The new owner came to New Mexico about three weeks ago.

Crushed to Death by Cave-In—Less than a minute after he was warned, and as he was departing from the danger, life was crushed from the body of Domato Salse in a ditch in which he was digging near the Southwestern Portland cement plant west of El Paso. Efforts of fellow workmen to rescue the man were prompt but unsuccessful.

Beans at Las Cruces Killing Horses—Ranchers and farmers in the Mesilla valley have lost a large number of horses, death being caused by too many mesquite beans. The crop this year is heavier than it has been in many years, and on account of the scarcity of grass, the animals have eaten large quantities of the beans. Some valuable animals are numbered among those which have been killed.

Big Meeting Tonight—Republicans, united and harmonious, will meet tonight at the court house for a big mass meeting in the interests of the Republicans nominated for delegates to the constitutional convention. Able speakers have been selected to address the meeting, and include Governor Mills, H. O. Bursum, A. B. Renahan and others. It is to be a rousing meeting and every one interested in the party's success should turn out.

Numbers for the Handsome Prize to be given away at the Elks, will be given away nightly starting Tuesday, September 6.

Postoffice Closed Monday—As Monday is Labor Day, the postal officials will take a rest. They need it, for the assorting of letters and the registering of letters and handling of money orders, is a tiresome task. Therefore, let all hope the boys at the postoffice will go fishing Monday and enjoy it. The general delivery window will be open from 9 to 10 a. m. Monday and the other windows will be closed. There will be one delivery and one collection in the city. Moral—Buy your money orders and send your registered letters today.

El Paso Hunters Must Be Licensed—Deputy Game Warden E. E. Ehle of Las Cruces, reports that many complaints are coming to his office from residents in the lower end of Dona Ana county, to the effect that hunters from El Paso are coming into that section hunting doves and quail. The quail season is not yet open and violators of the game law will be prosecuted. The New Mexico game law also requires that non-residents shall take out a non-resident license, which costs $5 for bird shooting. Most of the El Paso people who are hunting in the territory have not obtained such license and steps will at once be taken to apprehend violators.

In Jail for Assault—E. L. Thompson, formerly employed at the Park hotel, Las Cruces, called at that hostelry and entered into an argument with the manager, Harry Jones, over wages which Thompson alleged were due him. During the argument which ensued, a knife and pistol made their appearance and at the finish Thompson got away with several cuts on his head and blood all over his clothes. Jones swore out a warrant against him on the charge of assault with intent to kill and the case was heard before Justice of the Peace Manuel Lopez in Precinct 20. After hearing the testimony of three witnesses Justice Lopez bound him over to the October term of the grand jury in the sum of $500. Failing to produce this amount or its equivalent in security, Thompson is now staying at the county jail.

THREE INJURED IN ACCIDENT NEAR BUCKMAN.

the bridge and had the reins in his hand. The accident happened so quickly that it is hard to describe it. The first thing I knew we were going over the bridge and suddenly there was an awful thud. Our carriage had struck bottom, yes sir, "rock-bottom," in truth as well as slang. A huge boulder had caught the wheel of the vehicle and halted the mules for an instant, only to sway them to one side with an irresistible force and pin them down as some of our party were pinned. Several of us managed to jump out of the surrey, or we were thrown out, but Mrs. Bailey, her daughter and her mother, Mrs. Sloan, were unable to make their escape, and were badly bruised all over. The moans of the injured quickly brought assistance, and Mrs. Bailey was extracted while some one was sent to a farm house to get a cot."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. D. S. Lowitzki entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. The house was prettily decorated with sweet peas and chrysanthemums. The game played was 500 and the prize winners were Mrs. McFie, first prize, and Mrs. Garrett, second prize. The guests were Mesdames Jaffa, McFie, Renehan, Shea, Spitz, Rolis, Townsend, Baca, Gibson, Bean, Gontchev, Smith, Diaz, Miller, R. H. Hanna, I. B. Hanna, Newhall, Woods, Garrett, Woodruff, Carruth, Catron, Lavan, Hayward, Pratt, Grimshaw, J. Lowitzki, L. Lowitzki; Misses Friedman and Bean, of this city, and Miss Barney, of Los Angeles.

THE FORUM.

ted States such as: "No state shall * * pass any bill of attainder ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, etc." and as they will be controlling is there any necessity for repetition?

A few words on the question of the initiative. The writer does not believe it is sound policy or good government to amend a constitution by this means. To place the initiative above the constitution is to relegate the latter to mere laws subject to be constantly changed by the whim of the people without that deliberative thought or action which is so essential in framing constitutional enactments. The old method of amending the constitution is safe and is rarely, if ever, found wanting.

Again, to avoid factional and sectional quarrels and discriminating the initiative should only be effective upon a demand by at least three-quarters, if not all, of the counties or political subdivisions of the state. The Oregon plan in this and other particulars is absolutely subversive to sound and sane, calm and deliberate action of the people.

A higher percentage of legal voters to initiate this measure is also an essential safeguard. Let the percentage be substantial so that it may represent in a true sense the deliberate calm and determined public opinion and action of the people generally and not the mere ephemeral ideas of any temporary members or the sudden passions of any injured or distressed class. And if the measure so initiated is submitted tentatively to the legislative branch of the government one will find another check that is worth while. I am sir,

J. STAAB.
