10-19-2001

New Mexico 2001 Catalog

Alice Chung-MacCoubrey

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalrepository.unm.edu/msb_mammals_field_notes

Recommended Citation

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Museum of Southwestern Biology at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Division of Mammals - Collector Field Notes and Catalogs by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact amywinter@unm.edu.
19 October 2001
USA. New Mexico. Doña Ana County. 13 mi SW of Hatch on NM Highway 24.

Animal found on side of highway @ 1100 hrs. Fairly fresh. Very little odor. Fleas still alive on animal.

1. Conis larrans, female
Accession # 2001-852
N.K. # 103336
Alice Chung-MacCoubrey # 30.

1040 mm - 310 mm - 172 mm - 104 mm = 7.15 kg

Animal has a white-tipped tail!
Several fleas brushed out of coat.
Damage to animal by vehicle. Both front limb humeri broken. Right left rear femur broken. Lower jaw broken + nasal bones broken.
No heartworms seen. Lungs a healthy pink + darker motting. No worms seen in Trachea or lungs/bronch. A few worms (nematodes) seen in stomach.
Contents of stomach saved in jar.

Main preparation by Alice Chung. Assistance by Julie McIntyre + Melissa.