STIRRING RESOLUTIONS.

Jona Ana County Republicans Endorse National Administration.

LEPHANT BUTTE DAM RESOLUTION.

The following resolutions were adopted at the county convention of the republican party of Dona Ana county, held at Las Cruces on Monday.

We are proud of the record made by our William McKinley as president of the United States.

We favor the immediate construction of the Elephant Butte dam, by national public lands as said proposition is in the interest of the people and the state.

We favor the repeal of the so-called anti-trust law, and the enactment of all prohibiting the introduction of out into this territory below a certain standard to be fixed by law.

line from Clayton, N. M. to a connection with the White Oaks railroad.

They expected to meet the field party in the neighborhood of Eden on the Pecos valley river, about eighty miles southeast of Las Vegas. It is given out that the construction of the line they are locating will be commenced as soon as reports have been made and approved by the officials of the respective companies interested.

The clerk of the court of private land claims has received from the commissioner of the general land office the plat of the survey of the following land grants which will be submitted to the court for its consideration.

Mrs. W. H. Slaughter, of Springfield, A. T., is visiting friends in this city.

Regular review of Alamo High No. 1, L. O. C. M. at Old Fellows' hall, at 7 o'clock. Miss Corson, R. K.

Mrs. C. Munson and her daughter, Myrtle, who have been in Chicago all summer, returned home last night.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Healy.

J. H. Overholt, the well known and fearless deputy sheriff of the Cochiti district, is in the city on official business.

Louis Lloyd, of Las Vegas, who visited relatives here last week, returned after a most enjoyable time in the metropolis.

The Woman's Circle of the Baptist church will hold a devotional meeting Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church.

John Hunting, the wealthy Valencia county stock raiser, was here yesterday. He reports the range of Valencia in fine condition.

Edward Grunfeld, the southwestern manager of the Washington Life Insurance company, left this morning for the southern states.

Miss Hilde, of Philadelphia, who since her arrival here has been indisposed, has recovered and will from now on enjoy her visit here.

The popular Methodist minister of Gallup, Rev. W. E. Poulk, returned home. He reports a very successful visit to the Colorado territory.

Work is being pushed on the C. Colorado and it is expected that the line will be completed by October 25th, at the time of the opening of the big cattle fair.

Antonio Garcia, 40 years old, died at his residence on the mountain road this morning at 3 o'clock. The remains will be buried to-morrow morning in San Ignacio cemetery.

N. W. Alger and family are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Smith, of Chicago, who are on their way to California after visiting the Colorado resorts.

A. P. Frederick, the postoffice inspector, who headquarters at Denver, is in the city on court matters. He is here to appear before the United States grand jury.

Captain George M. Cundiff, who was here during fair week, has mysteriously disappeared from the territorial metropolis. It is thought he accompanied a party to the back to 22 Pao last Saturday night.

A. G. Pettus, who was in charge of the news stand at the local Harvey house up to a short time ago, has been promoted to the position of manager of the Chicago department of the Harvey news service.

Gustave Becker, of Springfield, A. T., president of the Becker-Blackwell concern at Magdalena, came in from the east last night. During his trip he purchased a large stock of goods for his big store in the metropolis.

The report that Mrs. Campbell, who was Miss Bertha McAnulty, a former resident here, had been drowned during the storm at Galveston, was untrue. She and her husband were not there at the time of the disaster.

J. S. MacIntyre, well known here as at present manager for the Blackwell-Becker company at Magdalena, was on the train last night bound for the above place. He had been with a large shipment of cattle to points in the north.

Frank McKinley, a former resident of Albuquerque, and a member of the interior department, has been assigned to duty in Coconino county, to take the place of J. H. Osborne, who was recently transferred to Oklahoma.

Prof. C. E. Hodge has purchased his reliable grey pony for the year. He visited the educational institutions of the city, and assisted the professor and his wife in their many journeys. At the age of twenty-one he retires in favor of a stately black horse that may become as familiar to the public as his predecessor.

T. D. Burdick, who had been suffering with cancer of the stomach for the past three weeks, passed away yesterday afternoon, being 62 years old. The funeral will be held at the church on Friday. The remains will be buried in Santa Barbara cemetery.

Fred Fornoff, ex-city marshal of Albuquerque, and a good one at that, still lingers in the territorial metropolis, although the fair closed down on the universe, except the big city still, last Saturday night. Mr. Fornoff states that he had a fine time last week and that he had no difficulty whatever in riding closed doors on the fair grounds, except when he was riding in the parade, where he was in the H. Chamberlain had charge, as the efficient grand marshal.

R. J. O'Hanlon, national organizer and lecturer of the American Humane association, is in the city, and his proposed to buy up the paternal edge of New Mexico in Albuquerque. The scenes of brutality to little children and animals by human brutes, suggests the formation of such an association. The humane will no doubt receive encouragement from the Albuquerque people. He will hold a meeting at the city building Friday night of this week at 8 o'clock.

A. B. Shepherd, the real estate and insurance agent, who took a vacation and visited the principal cities of the Pacific coast, returned to the city last night, and he reports having had a most delightful time, being accompanied by his mother and sister, Mrs. R. B. Platt of Los Angeles. Mr. Shepherd was at San Francisco on September 16th when the celebration of the admission of California as a state took place, and this being the fifth anniversary, a most glorious time was had. The celebration was given under the auspices of the "Native Sons of the Golden West."

L. M. Olin, the Jersey dairyman, has sold his business to C. E. Glickler, who will move the outfit to his newly equipped place just north of Old Twp and proceed to produce the milk business in a first class manner. Since coming here from Oklahoma a few years ago, Mr. Glickler has proven himself to be an energetic and successful business man and producer. He has made a success of raising the highest quality of milk, and has the only up to date yards in the territory. His place is well worth visiting. He also raises vegetables for the local market and has an orchard that contains some choice fruit. Lately some large improvements in the shape of modern buildings have been erected, and The Citizen predicts his success in the dairy industry for which he has unrivaled facilities.

Jacob Metzger, of the San Jose market, regales the early risers with a rattling exhibition almost every morning. During the past two weeks the
