Articles of Incorporation.

"Free Gold Mining & Milling Company."

Territory of New Mexico.
Office of the Secretary

I. J. W. Rynolds, Secretary of the Territory of New Mexico, do hereby certify that there was filed for record in this office, at 2 o'clock p. m. on the fifteenth day of January, A. D. 1902, Articles of Incorporation of the Free Gold Mining & Milling Company, as follows, and also that I have compared the following copy of the same, with the original thereof now on file, and declare it to be a correct transcript therefrom and the whole thereof:

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this fifteenth day of January, A. D. 1902.

J. W. Wyneolds,
Secretary of New Mexico.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

Know all men by these presents: That we the undersigned citizens of the United States, desiring to form a corporation for the public and private benefit, viz: for the furtherance of the mining and milling industries of the Territory of New Mexico, and for the purpose of improving the same, do hereby enter into and adopt for ourselves and our successors the following articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
The name of the Incorporation shall be "Free Gold Mining & Milling Company," and its principal place of business shall be in the town of Nogal in the county of Lincoln, territory of New Mexico, with a branch office in such other place or places, as the Board of Directors shall determine for the sale and transfer of stock, and the holding of such Board of Directors' meetings and the transaction of all business of the Incorporation, as the Board of Directors may direct and determine.

ARTICLE II.
The general nature of the business of this Incorporation, shall be to acquire, own, buy, sell and lease mines and mining and petroleum and natural gas claims and properties and the mining of gold, silver, copper and other mineral ores, also coal, and the developing of petroleum and natural gas wells from and on the property or claims owned or leased by this Corporation; and to reduce ores, mill products, to acquire and use tramways, roads, telegraph and telephone, water power and water ways, in connection with the operation of said mines, claims and properties, and to do and perform all other acts, things and purposes hereinbefore referred to as are usually done and performed by a mining and development company as herein provided.

ARTICLE III.
This Corporation shall commence business on the twentieth day of January 1902 and continue for fifty years from said date, unless sooner dissolved in manner provided by law.

ARTICLE IV.
This Corporation shall have and possess all powers, rights and privileges and immunities prescribed and permitted by law, including but not limited to the power and devise of property, real or personal, to make, to perform and enforce contracts, to transact any lawful business, consensual or otherwise, of its organization, to sue and be sued in its corporate name, to have a common seal, to render the interests of its stockholders transferable, to do any and all acts necessary and proper to carry out the purpose of its organization, the same as a private individual might do, and in all cases exercise those powers, privileges and immunities, within the Territory of New Mexico, or elsewhere that it may lawfully transact business.

ARTICLE V.
This Corporation shall have power to adopt By-Laws and rules for its government and control and to choose such officers and agents as it may desire and clothe them with all necessary power and authority in accord with law and these articles.

ARTICLE VI.
The amount of the capital stock authorized, shall be Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, divided into shares of One Dollar each, of which Two Hundred Thousand shares shall be set apart and held as contingent treasury stock and shall remain unsold as a contingent fund, until purchased by a majority vote of the capital stock actually issued and shall not be voted held as such, but when sold or any part thereof, the vote upon the books of the Corporation, and cash paid into the company's treasury therefor, the shares so sold, shall have the same voting right and power as each and all other shares have.

One hundred and fifty thousand shares of the total capital shall be set aside and held known as "Treasurer's Stock", such part or all of said stock to be sold in such amount and at such price, to be used in the development of claims and properties of such other business as the Corporation, as these Articles provide and the Board of Directors may determine.

One hundred and fifty thousand shares of the total capital stock shall be issued in payment of the outstanding claims and properties, situated in the Nogal Mining District, in the county of Lincoln and Territory of New Mexico, known and designated by the following names, to wit:

The aforesaid mining properties to be taken by this Corporation at the face value of One hundred and fifty thousand Dollars, at the time and date of their location, and to be received and accepted by this Corporation for full payment for said stock, and such stock when issued shall be fully paid and forever treated and considered as non-assessable, and it shall be a conclusive presumption against all persons dealing with this Corporation, whether creditors, stockholders or holders, that the amount paid for said mining and milling and cuniary of script declaring that the stockholder's property, the value of the same, and all persons shall be forever barred and estopped from claiming or setting up any proceeding against such stock, or equity, that the said stock is not fully paid.

ARTICLE VII.
The stock of this Corporation shall be non-assessable and the par value of each share shall be One Dollar.

ARTICLE VIII.
The affairs of this Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of five or more members, not exceeding nine, stockholders of the Corporation, that shall be selected at the annual meeting of the stockholders on the fourth Tuesday of September every year, except in case of a vacancy in said Board, or the maximum number herein provided for not elected, the Board of Directors may fill such vacancy or if deeming it for the best interest of the Corporation may elect an additional Director, to the said maximum number, until the next annual meeting, and except that the first meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the 10th day of April 1902 at the principal place of business of the Corporation.

The officers shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, General Manager and Superintendent. These officers shall be elected by the newly elected Directors at or about the time of the annual meeting to be elected by the stockholders, except to fill a vacancy, and their duties shall be such as are usual to such officers or as the By Laws shall prescribe, or the Board of Directors may prescribe. The office of Secretary and Treasurer may be filled by one person, until their successors are properly elected and qualified; the Board of Directors and stockholders and officers and directors shall be as follows, to wit:

DIRECTORS:

W. A. McIvers, Nogal, N. M.
J. T. Cochran, O. K. Town, N. M.
Geo. E. Sling, Sec. & Treas.
W. A. McIvers, Geo. W. Harbin, J. T. Cochran, Superintendents.

ARTICLE XI.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liabilities to which this Corporation shall at any time be subject, shall not exceed two thirds of its capital stock actually issued or credited upon its books.

ARTICLE XII.
No indebtedness shall be contracted by the Corporation, held as binding against it, except on order of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII.
The Corporation shall have a prior lien upon the shares of stock and upon all moneys or property due any stockholder from the Corporation for all sums unpaid upon the stock or by him due to the Corporation.

ARTICLE XIV.
The personal property of the stockholders of this Corporation shall not be liable for corporate debts.

ARTICLE XV.
These articles may be altered or amended at any annual meeting of the stockholders, by a majority vote of the capital stock issued or credited on the books of the Corporation, or by such vote at a special stockholders' meeting called for that purpose, or by 30 days written notice in advance of such meeting and its purpose having been given to each stockholder by the Secretary, addressed to the last known and express address of said stockholder.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 27th day of December, A. D. 1901.

A GIANT RACE.

The remains of an ancient race of giants are being dug up from the earth at the Mesa Rosa, near Las Vegas, New Mexico. Those residing in that vicinity are greatly excited. From exchanges in that vicinity the following account is given.

The first of the skeletons of the monster men was unearthed by Luciano Quintana, who with five others listened to some old traditions and began to dig.

"As far back as the memory of man goes it has been common belief that certain rude stones on the mesa laid with surprising regularity marked the resting place of dead men.

The oldest inhabitants told of hearing from their predecessors both white and red that at one time the land was peopled with men who were giants in every sense of the word. Rude implements and tools of the stone age have been found that could not have been used by anyone with strength short of an ox.

So prevalent has been the impression, the case has been made that Indian traditions are now relics of a race of human beings who ate at one meal a quart of beef and drank five gallons of liquor.

Quintana listened to these wild tales for years and paid but little attention to them. But he never could satisfy himself that the rude stones had come in their place by chance and for this reason determined to make an investigation.

Selecting five others to assist him in the work he picked out two of the largest stones and began to take up the earth between them. The work took several days on account of the obstacles which had been placed in the way.

At a depth of six feet a layer of rock two feet thick had to be taken out. They had evidently been selected according to the shape that best fitted the ground for each one fitted closely to the other.

After disposing of the rock a layer of what had once been wood was taken out three feet in thickness. Another two feet of pure white sand was taken out of the hole and the bones of a man were found.

Though the grave was fifteen feet long and eight feet wide the body had to all appearances been first placed in the hole in a sitting position and then doubled over until the face rested on the feet.

Some of the bones which had withstood the onslaught of decay showed signs of having been one of the largest men that ever lived. From those found it is calculated that the giant must have been at least seventeen feet high.

A round ground nearly four feet, and is in perfect proportion in every other way. Only the lower jaw bone is preserved and is three feet from one end to the other. A tooth which was still sticking in it is as large as a small bucket.

Those who saw the bones say that his chest measurement must have been one hundred and twenty and the ribs are enormous and are large enough to withstand a fierce attack with weapons such as these people must have had.

There are numerous cobble stones five feet long in the vicinity that are supposed to be over skeletons of giants. Plans are being laid to dig between all of them and learn whether or not there are more remains to be found.

This may be another Cardill giant such as El Paso has on the hill back of the Mesa garden and more is learned about those who take an interest will hold back their confidence in its being true life.

MORTGAGE SALE.

William, on the 20th day of July, 1900, Benj. F. Gumm and Martha A. LETTER LIST.

W. C. FERRELL

Attorney for Postmaster.

[Letter list with names and addresses]

A. R. Hagerman is erecting a magnificent residence on the Chihuahua ranch near Roswell. The structure is being built of pressed brick, and when finished will be one of Chaves county's most beautiful homes.
Many sheep are being driven into northern Lincoln county from various places in the territory. The abundance of grass and water, resulting from the splendid seasons this year, has caused this trespass from other counties of the territory. It may result, however, in our ranges being overstocked and thereby greatly injuring our own stockmen.

The Miners' Mines Development Co. is making an effort to manufacture a number of commercial products out of the white sands of Otero County. Lime and plaster of Paris have been the subjects of experiment so far and they are claiming a good product. They claim it makes good brick, paving chalk, etc.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

A Love Festival That Has Survived the Progress of Civilization.

So long as human passions hold sway over the destinies of mankind, the custom of sending Miss Valentine's Day cards will be in force. It has survived the lapse of time, changes of costumes, and the progress of civilization. The day is celebrated in preference to the choice of other lovers, the power of love. It takes its name from St. Valentine, a presbyter of Rome, who was beheaded with other Christians for the faith and sacrificed in the Roman Forum on February 14th, in A.D. 287. The day assumed its present form in Germany, where it is still celebrated with church services and the impressing of the young with the characteristics of the Saint.

Edith's Valentine.

At an Old-Fashioned Love Story.

By J. W. BUCKET.

AMONG the customs of a bygone age is that of giving 'Valentine's Day' cards. New England village size a young man had no difficulty in finding a girl to whom he could send one. The custom, while it is not in vogue, has been a source of happiness to the many people who have been associated with it. The evening of the festival was spent in the company of the young man and his friends in a pleasant atmosphere.

Edith at the Window.

Cheerful fire, that shell her warmth over the simple but comfortably furnished room. Without the celebration of the day, Edith would be in her regular work of playing cards with her friends. But it was the custom of the family to celebrate Valentine's Day with the young people. The cards were sent to her by her kinsman, who knew the custom and her love for the holiday.

In Love's Silence.

When she had received her card, she put it away, and looked in her eyes, and in a loving manner, expressed her love and her gratefulness. She had written a note to her mother, saying she would be home, and that she would return to her room after dinner to take a view of the interior of the house. Her mother had written back to her, saying she would be home, and that she would return to her room after dinner to take a view of the interior of the house. Her mother had written back to her, saying she would be home, and that she would return to her room after dinner to take a view of the interior of the house. Her mother had written back to her, saying she would be home, and that she would return to her room after dinner to take a view of the interior of the house. Her mother had written back to her, saying she would be home, and that she would return to her room after dinner to take a view of the interior of the house. Her mother had written back to her, saying she would be home, and that she would return to her room after dinner to take a view of the interior of the house. Her mother had written back to her, saying she would be home, and that she would return to her room after dinner to take a view of the interior of the house.

A Comic That Was Wasted.

There is no doubt that the cards are a form of love story in the field of soft art. The comic was one of the few that the young girl had ever heard from him—indeed, besides all the letters that contained such stories. She was eager to know all about his life.

Some Comic Valentines.

THE POOR LETTER CARRIERS.

The post office now breaks the Nine Letter Limit on Valentine cards. This is excellent news for the carriers, who have been struggling to send letters in one in the most promising and un promising way. That he has no more time to spare, nor does the letter carrier, who is also a busy man. It is expected that the limit will be reduced in due course, and that the letter carrier will have more time to spare.

Helpful Caper.

"I think I'd better keep our coin on another week, anyhow. He'll only want "wages".

"No; but every member of the family is entitled to a regardless. And also the one who is entitled to a regardless. The more you have, the better off you are."
Held in High Honor

Hundreds of Towns and Counties Named After George Washington

N O MAN ever honored so much as he has been, since the time when a line was put in the sky and there was a battle between the British and the Americans. Mabel Blevins, chief of the Blevins tribe, named after the great American Indian, is the name of a child who was born in the year 1892. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blevins of the Blevins tribe, and has been named after her father's beloved. The name was chosen by the Blevins tribe in order to honor George Washington, who was a great leader in the war of independence, and who is the founder of the United States.

Mabel Blevins was born on the 4th of July, 1892, and has been called the "hero of the nation" by many of her friends. She is a beautiful child, and has a sweet voice, and she is very popular with all of the people in her tribe.

The Blevins tribe has a long history of honor to George Washington, who is their ancestor, and they have named many of their children after him. The tribe is made up of people who are descended from the Indians who lived in the United States before the time of George Washington.

THE NEW YORK WORLD
THREE-A-WEEK EDITION.

The Most Widely Read Newspaper in America.

Time has demonstrated that the Three-a-Week World stands alone in its class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells all the news all the time and tells it impartially, whether that news be political or otherwise. It is in fact almost a daily at the price of a weekly and you cannot afford to be without it.

Republican and Democrat alike can read the Three-a-Week World with absolute confidence in its truth.

In addition to news, it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fireside.

The Three-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for the papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and White Oakes Eagle together one year for $2.00.

THE COMMONER.

[From a Letter from...]

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies; a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic, and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his reviews of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.

The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and White Oakes Eagle together for one year for $2.00. The regular subscription prices of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.50.

NOTICE.

I have purchased the J. L. brand of cattle and horses from Edward Lee.

Cattle branded J. L. on right side.

The public is hereby notified that all horses and cattle in this brand are the property of the undersigned. The brand of the increase will be J. L. on left thigh of horses and on left side of cattle, with the L. on the left jaw of horses. These brands have been recorded according to the requirements of law.

"The Best is the Cheapest."

Not how cheap, but how good, is the question.

The THREE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC is not as cheap as are some so-called newspapers. But it is as cheap as it is possible to sell a first-class newspaper. It prints all the news that is worth printing. If you read it all the year round, you are posted on all the important and interesting affairs of the world. It is the best and most reliable newspaper that money and brains can produce—and those should be the distinguishing traits of the newspaper that is designed to be read by all members of the family.

Subscription price, $1 a year.

Any newsdealer, newspaper or postmaster will receive your subscription, or you may mail it direct to THE REPUBLIC,
