A Holocaust.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 10.—The Newhall house, a six-story brick building on the corner of Michigan and Broadway, burned to the ground this morning. The fire was discovered at 4 o'clock this morning and in less than half an hour the building, long designated as the "death trap," was in flames. Scenes of the utmost terror prevailed. The inmates of the doomed building jumping by dozens from the upper stories, covering the stone sidewalks with lifeless bodies. The shrieks of the unfortunate were heartrending, the people below being unable to render any aid. Quite a number of terrified guests and employees of the hotel appeared at the windows and, seeing the distance to the ground, fell back to perish in the flames. The employees of the hotel, which accommodated 800 guests, numbered 86, and mostly lodged in the sixth story. Exit by way of the roof was cut off by the fire, and two stand pipes, which fire ladders were not available for some reason, were not available for some reason. Among the occupants of the ground floor were the offices of the Mutual Union Telegraph company, the Manufacturers Bank, Metropolitan Plate Glass Insurance and various insurance agencies, the Canada Southern railway office, the Merchants dispatch and a number of wholesale establishments.

Wm. H. Sandee, cashier of the Manufacturers Bank, carried the cash box and papers to the amount of $600,000 out of the flames. The insurance agencies and general offices on the first floor, so far as they were concerned, were saved. The insurance on the hotel is $125,000, all held by Cincinnati agencies. The loss is estimated at $500,000. There were comparatively few guests in the hotel. The register was burned, and the exact loss of life is not determined, but will reach fifty or sixty dead and twenty to thirty wounded. So far twenty-three bodies are in the morgue and nine more are in places near the ruins, and identification is slow. Among those known to have been in the hotel are C. W. Briggs, Grand Rapids, Michigan; W. R. Miller, Ripon, O.; George Young, Chicago; J. A. Manning, Chicago; W. D. Lewis, Chicago; R. V. Baker, New York; J. E. Mason, Rock Island, Ill.; N. J. Hill, Syracuse, N. Y.; A. B. Hendy, New Haven, Conn.; A. J. Case, New York; P. Hobbler, Chicago; S. J. Craig, Des Moines, Iowa; Chas. A. Handy, Milwaukee; the Ten Thousand party organization; Frizzen and wife, Sheboygan Falls; John C. Clarke, Warsaw; Mr. Rowell, San Francisco; Ben Tice, chief clerk and J. W. Antisdel, clerk of the John Francis propeller, Benjamin Mason, teacher.

So far as known the following are dead: Allen Johnson, commissioner; M. C. Hart and wife, Milwaukee; Kitty Bailey and Mary Bonner, servants; W. A. Hill and S. Miller, La Porte; Ben Van Hout, a teacher in the grammar school; E. F. Lizzie Keller, Maggie Owens, Annie Hall, Bessie Brown, Kate Stanchman, Maggie Sullivan, Augusta Greise, Mary McNamee, all servants; Thos. Van Horn and Mrs. S. S. Hoge, Peoria, Ill.; D. G. Powers, Mrs. Brown, Mary Burke, Mary Anderson, Mary Miller, Mary MacMahon, Mary Conway, servants. The following are missing: W. T. Duran, insurance agent; George G. Smith, passenger agent of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway; Mrs. L. W. Brown and Miss Chislett, dressmakers; Walter and William Gellett.

The seriously injured are: Orange Williams, residence unknown; Ben Rice, clerk of the house; L. W. Brown, transman of the Northwestern railway; T. B. Elliot and W. B. Burseback, general western passenger agents of the Michigan Central railway; R. Burns, Mary Owens, Annie McLaughlin, Katie Connors, Doylestown, servants. It can safely be said that eighty persons are dead and thirty seriously wounded. The mayor has called a meeting of the chamber of commerce to organize a salvage corps to search the ruins. About a week ago the secretary of the local board of underwriters applied to make a rate on the building that local agencies might take the risks. The building was passenger agent of the trap, and the risks were refused. Tom Thum and the Madison company were all saved so far as learned. Mrs. John Gilbert, of the Minnie Palmer troupe, married only two days ago was burned to death in sight of the multitude. The following guests are known as saved or only slightly hurt: Edw. Pollock, Lancaster, Wisconsin; Rowell, of Sanford & Rowell, Medford, Wisconsin; Carl Briggs, Grand Rapids, Michigan; Jno. C. Clarke, Wausau; J. R. Dewart, agent of the Great Western Dispatch and South Shore line; Geo. F. Lee, northwest traveling agent of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway; J. W. Maxwell, Cincinnati; K. Cosh, New York; M. Weber, Laporte, and Jas. Woodworth of New York. The scene at the morgue, where now thirty-two bodies are lying in a ghastly heap on the floor of a small room, is heart rending beyond description. A strong police force is necessary to keep the anxious inquirers in line. Ninety bodies have been identified and eight bodies are beyond recognition. Mrs. Jno. Gilbert's body is positively identified. It is a touching scene to see the bride of a night on the cold marble, charred and bruised, with anguish depicted on her delicate features. It is said she was Miss Sutton, of Chicago, previous to marriage. Gilbert was married beyond control.

The fire department called for assistance on the telegraph wires, a perfect maze of which surrounded the two fronts of the building. The appeals for aid were pitiable, but little could be done. Shortly before the Newhall house alarm, a part of the fire was contained by a small fire about three miles distant and before the department was in working order the hotel was one blazing pile.

Tom Thum got out of the front entrance and his wife was taken down a fire escape by Fireman L. W. Compton.

Misses Herbert and Dunlap and W. A. Lavelle, of the Madison Square company, arrived by the midnight express. The wheels were saved by a fire escape, only partially dressed.

The following dispatch is just received: "The Board of Trade of Chicago tenders its sincere sympathy to the people of Milwaukee, in the calamity that has befallen the city. If we can, a perfect maze of which surrounded the two fronts of the building."

The hotel was built by Daniel Newhall and his associates, in 1855, and originally cost $200,000, including furnishings. Wm. G. Crammer, of the Evening Wisconsin, was saved through the heroic efforts of Charlie Gressing, a Sentinel type.

The escapee, who had a narrow escape, says there were 110 boarders and ninety employees in the house. Fifty-six are unaccounted for.

The Newhall house special says: The morgue was a hideous sight. Two small biers were soon filled with bodies tightly packed, and the bodies of girls, women and men were laid promiscuously on the stone flags in heaps, as the parcel brought in the bodies three or four at a time.

At the American express office Allen Johnson and wife lay stretched on the hard floor dying—they have since died—they were forced to jump from a window of the third floor. The blanket held to catch them was too weak. Edwin Pollock, of Lancaster, awakened nearly as soon as the flames broke out. He gathered his clothes and swung from the balcony on the fourth floor to that beneath, where a dozen others were, and by means of knotted bed clothes all reached the ground.

The severe cold hampered the firemen and caused them great suffering. Three steamers went from Chicago at ten minutes to six in response to a call from the mayor, together with two men each from companies one, two, three and nine, and 1,000 yards of hose. The train leaving over the Chicago and North-western, ninety miles, in only a little over an hour.

with lightning rapidly towards the northern wing, and some blundering individual seeing the reflections of the holocaust on the sky turned in an alarm from box 31, corner of east Water and Division streets, at 3:40 a. m., causing a loss of the work of one steamer for ten minutes of precious time, just when the fire was at its worst and every window in the huge building lined with shrieking humans.

The multitude, which by this time had swelled to thousands, stood in perfect awe, but few having self-possession and resolution enough to lend a helping hand on the canvasses stretched out to receive those of the despairing inmates of the burning pile who risked the leap down the stone sidewalk, one hundred feet below. At first there were only Lieutenant Rockwood, Detectives Dunn and McManus, Officers O'Brien and Campbell and a few Sentinel men stretching the heavy canvases, which required fully thirty strong men to handle successfully. A poor fellow stood on the cornice of the fifth story corner window for twenty long minutes, not daring the fearful leap. Finally he became bewildered and slid off his perch to the canvases below. The few who held it could not give it the necessary resistance, and his body fell and sent a shudder through every witness. The shattered body was carried into the American express office.

All the while hundreds of people had been looking on, nobody rendering aid. Everybody seemed to be spellbound. In the sixth story window, right over this unfortunate man, sat the figure of a man crouched upon the window sill, gazing like one about to jump. From time to time sending up a heart-rending shriek. Steadily the flames encroached upon him. He did not seem to mind. The flames singed his hair, his nightgown, his clothes—one despairing look he gave to the crowd below and then tumbled back into the sea of fire. A man and woman appeared at the window of the third story. They were recognized as the wife of the Chamber of Commerce, clad only in their night shirts, blood and brains issuing from the wounds through which the bones protruded. Some were carried to the ground floor, others to the building where coats had been hastily arranged, and from there they were carried off to private houses. The scene in all parts west of the burning building was sickening. As early as 6 o'clock the bodies of seven unfortunate waiters were stretched upon the snow with broken limbs, writing in agony until death ended their sufferings. After almost superhuman efforts ladders were stretched from the roof of the building across the alley to the sixth story of the hotel, and the brave fire ladders carried ten girls across the frail bridge, four of them dead. The maze of telegraph wires encircling the building on the south side and each played and havoc with the unfortunate who made the frightful leap for life. Several bodies were cut deep by the wires and then their torn and bleeding forms would drop to the ground. Others hit the wires and crossed ways, rebounded and were hurled to the ground with a dreadful crash. To the poor, unfortunate waiters, girls, all of whom lodged in the sixth story and the attic, the saddest lot had befallen. Of the sixty young girls only eleven are heard from alive. It is feared that the estimate of fifty lives lost is by far too low, and that fully double that number were burned or smothered to death.

The police patrol soon commenced their dreadful work of gathering the dead and wounded. The former were taken to the morgue, which was soon filled, and the latter to the Central police station, where they were cared for by doctors. From 5 o'clock the interior of the building was one mass of flames, the upper stories soon giving way and carrying the lower floors with them.

The building has been on fire several times before the present fire occurred and no serious disaster has occurred. The insurance placed by Cincinnati agents for the past sixteen years was generally $100,000 on the house and $30,000 on the contents. The present insurance on the house is $75,000, in amounts of $1,500 to $5,000, and on furniture $25,000 in amounts of $1,000 to $3,000. The loss, including that on surrounding property, will be $500,000.

Tennessee's Treasurer. GALVESTON, Jan. 10.—A Laredo special says: Folk, the Tennessee treasurer, after his first arrest, was liberated for over $50,000. The defaulting treasurer was accompanied by Private Detective Cameron, whom he had bribed to pilot him out of the country. The detective was also arrested and in turn attempted to bribe Sheehy to allow him to escape, saying he had made a good thing and could put Sheehy in the way of pocketing a few thousands. When captured Folk's hands and clothing were filled with prickly pear thorns, got from wandering in a thicket.

Fire at Pueblo. DENVER, Jan. 10.—A fire at South Pueblo yesterday morning destroyed property valued at $10,000. Among the buildings burned was the old Cosmopolitan hotel, together with its contents, including a stock of liquors. A two-story brick, adjoining the Cosmopolitan, and the two-story brick near the latter, belonging to Julius Hildebrand, was considerably damaged in the rear.

Our Royal Guests.

SANTA FE, Jan. 10.—The Princess Louise, Marquis of Lorne and suite, who are making a tour of the outlying British provinces on the Pacific coast, and who left San Francisco some days ago to return east, viewing the objects of interest in Southern California on the way, making a stop at Los Angeles, arrived in Santa Fe at 2 o'clock this morning, under escort of Colonel Ed. Harer, general western passenger agent of the Santa Fe company.

After breakfast the party took carriages and drove through the town, visiting all objects of interest, including San Miguel chapel, the oldest church in the United States, and the new cathedral now nearly completed, the finest church structure in the west, and the Christian Brothers college, the old government palace, three hundred years old, etc., spending considerable time at each place and evincing great interest in everything they saw. After everything of the nature had been visited by the party, the carriage drove to the south side of the plaza, where the party got out and started to make a tour of inspection on foot, visiting all the curiosity shops, filigree jewelry establishments, etc., buying various articles at each place, the princess, especially, showing much interest in all she saw. The civil and military authorities of Santa Fe did everything in their power to make the stay of the party as pleasant. The twenty-second infantry band, with a large concourse of people, met the train on its arrival. The band played, "God Save the Queen," and "The Queen of England," and upon the arrival of the party at the barracks the royal salute of seventeen guns was fired. The marquis inspected the post and the waving of flags, music and the firing of cannon. They left for Las Vegas Hot Springs at 4:30 and will spend the night at the Montezuma hotel.

On to Oklahoma.

CALDWELL, Okla., Jan. 10.—A large Oklahoma meeting was held here last night. D. L. Payne was advertised to be present, but failed to appear. A statement was made by others interested in Oklahoma to the effect that fully 10,000 men would be ready to start about February 1; that the order of the secretary of the interior for the removal of the cattle men would be enforced, and in that event all that the settlers would have to do would be to walk right in and occupy the land. About thirty persons signed the Oklahoma Colony pledge and notice was given that a secret meeting of such signers would be held to-night.

Coal Miners' Association.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 10.—A call has been issued by the officers of the miners' association for an inter-state convention of bituminous coal miners to be held in this city May 1st, for the purpose of establishing a federation that will include all separate local or state organizations as they now exist, but at the same time let the officers of the same form a national board of arbitration, whose duty will be to meet at least twice a year, will decide on the standard of coal prices at all differences and suggest such action as in their opinion will tend to the general good.

Knights Templar Trophy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the annual convention of Knights Templars it was suggested that a trophy symbolizing the natural wealth of the state be offered as a prize for the best drilled company instead of the standard of the order, which has heretofore been the trophy. The trophy is to cost $1,000.

Northern Blizzard.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—A blizzard has been raging in southern Minnesota. Trains are stopped by the snow drifts and traveling is going forward with difficulty. The blizzard came unawares, finding 50,000 people unprepared, and will probably do great damage. Two engines are stuck in drift at Cape Benton, Illinois. It is the worst storm for two years and appears to extend 250 miles.

Small-Pox in Kentucky.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—A dispatch from Shiloh, Kentucky, states that the small-pox is raging there. Stores are closed and business suspended. Whole families are stricken and the citizens are fleeing. Several doctors have died and the disease is unusually powerful and fatal.

ALASKA at present seems to be about the least governed country in all the world. It should be a comfortable place to reside.

THE Albuquerque Journal wants to know if it is right for the Santa Fe road to ship all its small-pox patients into Albuquerque, and wants the committee to investigate the matter.

THE outlook for substantial business in New Mexico for the present is certainly bright. The mines of the territory will be opened up and bullion to a large amount will be placed to our credit before 1884.

GLICK, the democratic governor elect of Kansas, has been duly installed in his position. It is a long time since Kansas had a democratic governor, but as he went in as an anti-prohibitionist the saloon men are consequently happy.

WORK on the Texas, Santa Fe and Northern railroad, in course of construction from Espanola to Santa Fe, has been suspended for want of funds. It is required that this road shall be completed by the 23d of April next as a condition of the bonds voted by Santa Fe county to it. It is a bad time to suspend this work, considering the shortness of the time allowed for completing the road.

ALBUQUERQUE is actively alive to all matters pertaining to the upbuilding of the town in establishing woolen mills. The good citizens of Las Vegas must not allow their excellent reputation for unsurpassed enterprise to be thus questioned. This is the most available point in the territory for woolen mills, as this is the great market for New Mexico wool and our water power is unsurpassed. Albuquerque is doing well but Las Vegas must do better.

GENERAL SHERMAN when petitioned by the people of El Paso to establish a ten-company post at Fort Bliss, tributary to that point, remarked that one saw mill would be more advantageous than a ten company post. The old general has a pretty good conception of what will be beneficial to a country and his idea is correct that home industry is better than government pay. However, if one saw mill is equal to a ten company post, Las Vegas, with her thirty or forty saw mills, enjoys the advantage of an army camping round about her.

CONGRESS seems disposed to patch up the weak points in the constitution in relation to the question of presidential succession and make the laws so explicit that there shall be no room for future anarchy by reason of the death or inability of the president or vice-president. A bill has recently passed the senate which would seem to cover the entire ground. It provides that in case of death, resignation or inability of both the president and vice-president the secretary of state, or, if there be none, the members of the cabinet in the following order of precedence shall fill the position, viz: Secretary of the treasury, secretary of war, attorney general, postmaster general and secretary of the interior, until the vacancy is otherwise lawfully filled. These officers shall, however, convene congress within twenty days and shall not be eligible unless their appointment has been confirmed by the senate. This bill will, evidently, provide for every contingency which may by any possibility arise in the future.

Pinneo's Pride.

From the Omaha Bee.
Mr. B. F. Pinneo, of Greeley, Colorado, is in the city on official business, and was met by a Bee reporter at the Paxton hotel yesterday. Mr. Pinneo is a man bowed down by weight of official positions. He is deputy United States marshal of Colorado, deputy sheriff of Weld county and county constable, and does a good deal of detective work besides. He is chiefly known to the public, however, as the father of Miss Minnie and Lizzie Pinneo, the famous equestriennes. Miss Lizzie Pinneo is the lady who rode at Council Bluffs and her sister Minnie is the one who rode at Minneapolis, Des Moines, Indianapolis, Louisville, etc. The latter her father is willing to back as the best equestrienne in the world. About the time of Mr. Pinneo's last visit to Omaha an absurd sensation was started by a paper in Lawrence, Kansas, to the effect that Miss Minnie had committed suicide. This was a slight error. The fact is the lady, who is really not a Miss at all, but married a long time ago, is now the mother of a bouncing boy. The juvenile is now thirteen weeks old and weighs twenty-three and one-half pounds. His grandfather had a photograph of the little fellow which he permitted the Bee reporter to see and he must be admitted that Robert James, for so the boy is christened, is a remarkably healthy and promising looking baby and it is no wonder that his grandfather is proud of him. This arrival of Robert James is the only sensational event that has occurred lately in the Pinneo family and no fears of any suicide are felt unless it is by the boy.

LAS VEGAS appears to be the only town of any size in the west entirely free from smallpox.

SIMMOND'S NABOB WHISKY!

The Best and Purest for Medicinal and Family Purposes.

I can show thousands of letters from persons from all parts of the Union and Canada, testifying to its merits and the benefit it has afforded as a family remedy and tonic. And has been endorsed by the medical faculty as the best Whisky for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, etc.

Has been sold in all the Eastern States and given universal satisfaction. It is highly recommended by the faculty in all cases of Nervousness, Weakness, Debility, Trapped, Indigestion, Chills and Fever, etc.

It is now introduced to the public of the Pacific Slope, endorsed by the following certificates of the eminent Dr. Dana Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, and Rev. H. C. Lounsbury, of St. Louis, Mo., both gentlemen prominent in their professions, and which is a guarantee to all buyers of its purity and quality.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless labeled with my signature over the cork.

LABORATORY AND OFFICE, 4 State St., Boston, September 8, 1873.

GEORGE SIMMOND, 180—St. The sample marked "Nabob Whisky" received from several firms has been analyzed with the following results: It is of selected alcoholic strength and FREE FROM ADDED FLAVORS, oils, acids, metals; or other deleterious substances. This Whisky is PURE, of superior quality, and suitable for dietetic or medicinal purposes.

BREAKFAST BRIEFS

Complete Collection of News Items and Happenings of the Day.

Hello! Louise.
G. A. R. Friday night.
Good evening, Mr. Lorne.

M. Whiteman yesterday raised his new store.

J. G. Simms, of Prescott, A. T., is at the Depot hotel.
G. W. Hartman, notary public, of Kingston, is here.

Captain Jack Crawford at the Opera house Friday night.

We interview the party at exactly 2 p. m., railroad time.

Don't forget the entertainment Friday night by the G. A. R.

Real estate is beginning to move again in the days of Yore.

Remember this may be your last opportunity to see a real, live lord.

Professors Spencer and Lay will give us some fine music at the Opera Friday night.

This kind of weather is bad for a fellow with a threadbare suit and a good overcoat.

The mild weather of the last few days makes the ice harvesters work with increased vigor.

The Grand Army entertainment at the Opera house Friday night is to be the event of the season.

The new church bell at the M. E. church will summon worshippers to church Sunday morning.

Be at the train promptly to-day, if you want to see the outside of the car, in which a princess resides.

E. Reynolds, of the Travelers' Accident Insurance company, Hartford, Connecticut, is at the Springs.

Had Tom Thumb been burned in the Milwaukee fire, the question arises, whether he was large enough to know it.

A new switch has just been completed at Romero and was used for the first time by the south bound train yesterday.

The primary department of Las Vegas academy will give an entertainment Friday evening, admission thirty-five cents.

The academy people are forming a choral union. They will bring out and develop all the best musical talent in the city.

A basket sociable will be given by the ladies at the M. E. church one week from to-morrow night. Prepare for a good time.

Silverster Baxter, editorial correspondent for the Boston Herald, is at the Springs. He will write a letter from this point.

Maurice Danziger, jr., puts in his spare moments these days clearing the ice and snow from the sidewalk in front of the Little Casino.

Messrs. Harry Keller and Thomas H. Parker own a fine horse which they won at a raffle. It is half and half, but we don't know which half.

The telegraph this morning contains an account of a destructive fire and loss of life at Milwaukee. Eighty lives are known to have been lost and the list is not yet complete.

A. C. Rupe, of the firm of Rupe & Bullard, came up from El Paso yesterday. He has secured a number of important contracts for lumber on the Mexican Central railroad.

A special meeting of the G. A. R. is called for to-night, at Knights of Pythias hall. All members are requested to be present to make final arrangements for the entertainment Friday night.

A certain lady of religious proclivities or pretensions, is accused of begging for the poor and then dressing her own children up with clothing donated for the poor. This is what kills the influences of Christianity.

Netterburg will soon commence the erection of a stone building one hundred and fifty feet long on the site of his old hotel. This is the way to do business. Do not become discouraged because misfortunes come upon you.

Miss Mattie Adams, daughter of Mr. Frank Adams at the Springs, gave a party to her friends last evening in honor of her seventeenth birthday. The occasion was happy and joyous, filled with good wishes and many beautiful presents.

C. M. Kimball, a rapid composer of Santa Fe, has issued a challenge to Oscar Harrell, of the GAZETTE force, who is generally recognized as the fastest composer in the territory, to contest the championship. Mr. Kimball's challenge is to the effect that he can set more type in a given time than Mr. Harrell. The amount to be contested for is $150. The latter has promptly accepted the challenge and the race will come off at an early date. We stand pat on Harrell.

Mineral Hill.

It appears impossible for this young camp to grow out of the minds of a few who were instrumental in its discovery as to its possession of valuable minerals a little over two years ago. When taken into consideration the fact that about the time it was first prospected, that the capitalists at and near Las Vegas were induced to identify their interests so far as minerals were concerned, with the new discoveries at White Oaks, Socorro, and other places in the more remote districts of the territory, that Mineral Hill should be left to its fate as was the famous California Gulch, and its ultimate future must, and will result the same. Thousands of dollars have been expended in search of the precious metal, by those whose judgment as practical miners may be relied upon. They know the mineral is there, they have every evidence of the fact, but they have no one like a Tabor, a Bowen, a Mackey or O'Brien, to come to their assistance. Yet they struggle on with a faint glimmer of hope that the fruit of their labors may soon be rewarded. There are men in Las Vegas who labor on small salaries to support their families, whose annual titles are compelled to retain their interests in this young and beautiful camp, and it is to be hoped that their efforts may not prove futile. The pioneer is justly worthy of a consideration far greater than he is apt to get in the minds of those who do not for a moment take into consideration the toil and hardships they have to necessarily encounter, but if the object of their labors and hardships are accomplished in so far as the discovery of hidden treasures are concerned, they are only glorified by the fact that those who have the means come to their rescue, merely to take what they could never have otherwise obtained, and hire the poor prospector or discoverer to go ahead and develop.

If the mineral should be left to discover the mineral wealth of the earth then will night the bonholders say demote silver. It might be well for the practical miner, could this be the case for the next ten years?

At a recent visit of an experienced mineralogist at Mineral Hill—less than twenty-five miles from Las Vegas—he gave as his opinion that the entire country was underlaid with mineral, and that the evidences were so clear to his mind that the very mountains stood out in bold relief and seemed to ask: "Why am I not developed?"

His ideas are simply confirmed by the scientific judgment of the assayer, to the effect that there does exist mineral. To those near us who have heard so much of Mineral Hill, it appears but a delusion; but to those interested personally, it is known to be different. There has been reliable assays from different parts of the country, which all apparently corroborate, varying from five to forty ounces in silver. There are shafts and tunnels all the way from ten to two hundred feet, as line work as can be seen in any mining camp in the United States, and the ore is of a low grade, which can be easily worked at a comparatively small expense. Timber and water in abundance. In fact there is not a camp in any mining region in the United States which affords more natural advantages to the smelter or other treaters of ores than does Mineral Hill. The roads are good, the mines can and are being worked the year round, and Las Vegas may yet regret when it is too late that she did not come to the rescue and save this camp from the eagle eyes and clutches of foreign capitalists.

PICK AND SHOVEL.

Royalty on the Wing.

The distinguished foreigner, Prince Louise and the Marquis of Lorn, arrived in this city at 9:20 last night and proceeded without delay to the Springs. Their train is made up with a baggage car, one Central Pacific dining car, one Canadian government drawing room car, one International drawing room car and one Pullman's finest palace cars. This is said to be the most elegantly furnished train that ever traveled through this country. Our government has furnished for the protection of the party a real, live Colonel, two line sergeants, two corporals and twelve private soldiers. Every man in the detachment is selected for his physical beauty and bearing. The party will remain at the Springs until to-day. They will enjoy a of the Montezuma's elegant dinners and then leave for the city about 1 o'clock to continue the trip for the east at 2:40 this afternoon.

This Does Settle It.

The fastest time that was ever made by any train since railroads came into existence was made yesterday during the fire at Milwaukee. The fire department in Chicago were telegraphed to for help. The Chicago and Northwestern trains made up a train of five cars. Three fire engines were placed on them, with the crew for each engine, eight extra men and 1,000 yards of hose. She was given a clean track and told to "go." She went, and made the ninety miles in a little over sixty minutes. Shoo—bang!!

The beautiful, spring-like weather renews a hope of life and suicides will cease for a time. The little birds will soon begin to carol their songs of love and the festive boy to shot the seductive marble.

Social Circle.

The ladies social circle met yesterday afternoon at the M. E. church, for the purpose of electing officers for the year of 1933. All the officers were present, but had done such efficient work during their term, that there was but one change made. Owing to the absence of Mrs. W. F. Smith, Miss May E. Brown was elected to fill her place. Officers re-elected: Mrs. W. D. Lee, Mrs. A. D. Higgins and Mrs. W. G. Kogler. A sewing circle was also organized under the auspices of the social circle. The following officers were elected for the sewing circle: Mrs. A. D. Higgins, president; Mrs. Wilson, vice-president; Mrs. R. M. Town, secretary, and Mrs. Hall, treasurer. Ladies are cordially invited to attend. The first meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Higgins, one week from to-day, at 2 o'clock. Sewing is solicited. A large amount of routine work was gone through with and the ladies have banded themselves together for aggressive work during the coming year.

A Prosperous Institution.

On the settlement of affairs for the year just ended, the San Miguel National bank shows itself to be in a most prosperous condition. They have not been doing business quite three years. The bank shows a surplus of $10,000, and has declared a dividend on its stock. Mr. M. A. Otero, jr., the new cashier, is probably the youngest in the United States or territories, yet he is considered to be one of the most systematic and competent business men in the country. He has his late father's intelligence and shrewdness, coupled with the most indomitable spirit of energy and perseverance. In this issue of the GAZETTE, will be found the bank statement, and a glance will show that the bank is one of the solid institutions of the territory.

Amusements.

The G. A. R. entertainment at the opera house, Friday night, is to be the very best show that has been in that house. Captain Jack Crawford, the poet scout and elationist, will appear in his great original recitations and songs, and will also give an exhibition of rapid shooting with the Winchester rifle. Professor A. J. Way, of Chicago, the great guitar soloist, and Professor F. W. Spencer, the wonderful violinist, will assist. The proceeds are to go to the widows and orphans of the deceased members of the G. A. R. in this city. The money will be paid out and spent right here, and the citizens should help out such a cause by a liberal patronage. Admission 50 and 35 cents. Tickets on sale at Hine & Schaeffer's and at Griswold's drug store.

Whereas You, Willie? Give us Your Number.

William Ledbetter, superintendent of the telephone exchange in this city, is reported by those most interested, to have down, flown as the mist before the shining rays of the sun, and no man knoweth whither. We cannot understand why Mr. Ledbetter should have left in this unceremonious manner, as he was in a good position and received a handsome salary. His indebtedness does not figure up in an amount that is difficult to pay, and as he was well liked by every one, it is a strange freak. Perhaps the tools of some heartless girl has been wound around his tender heart, and to escape her seductive wiles he flees from the wrath to come. Anyhow, Willie has gone, and a great many persons would like to ring him up.

The son of Rafael Sandaval died of small pox at Ute Creek, one hundred miles north-west of Las Vegas, New Mexico. The father wrapped the remains in a blanket and took them to Las Vegas for interment. This made the Las Vegas so mad that they visited the old man and shot him dead. "The People" (Ill) Journal.

This is the most unscrupulous, unmitigated and contemptible lie that ever appeared in a paper claiming common decency. It is a lie of the blackest and most villainous type. Sandaval is a crazy Mexican. He was bringing his son, (who had died of small pox) into this city to bury him. Our city marshal met the wagon on the outskirts of the city, took the body out of the wagon and had it buried. The old man was then ordered to return to his home in the mountains, which he did. Not a hair of his head was touched by any one and the citizens of Las Vegas did not know of the occurrence until it appeared in the GAZETTE next morning. These tenderfoot editors had best look into things before they circulate such dirty news. We would take great pleasure in stringing such contemptible skunks as these to a telegraph pole, but we defend, instead of murder defenseless old men. Fly off, you buzzard.

The general office of the New Mexico Bell telephone company in this city, is being put into very comfortable shape. General Manager Hood says everything will be in ship shape in his private office very shortly, and then he wants the reporters to come up and smoke with him two or three times a day. Optic please get on.

Those desiring ornamental fences around their fine mansions should examine the one just completed for Chas. Wiley of this city by Adlon & Son. Every part of the fence was manufactured at the iron works and is an excellent and beautiful piece of work.

Attention, Horse Company No. 2.

All members are requested to be on hand at 5:30 p. m., to-day, for practice. W. S. CRAWFORD, Foreman.

PERSONAL.

Arthur Conger has returned to Fort Union.

Columbus Moose to Albuquerque yesterday.

Felix Goldsmith, went from the east to Santa Fe yesterday.

Col. C. M. Foulks, claim agent, returned to Topeka yesterday.

Quartermaster Sergeant, W. S. Fletcher, went to Santa Fe yesterday.

A. Menet, manager for B. M. & Co. at Socorro, returned home yesterday.

Orey Bell a prominent sheep man of the lower Pecos, arrived in the city yesterday.

H. W. Gusten, roadmaster of the Southern division, went to Wallace yesterday.

General T. J. Marshall went from Denver to the mining districts below yesterday.

Billy Bennett, train dispatcher at Emporia, Kas., is at the Springs for a few days.

Mrs. T. B. Mills is confined to her bed, where she has been, with a severe illness, for two weeks.

G. A. Bloss, train dispatcher, went from Raton to Albuquerque yesterday to work on the A. P.

C. A. Morse, manager of the consolidated tank line and oil company, is here to adjust matters after the fire.

Mrs. John Kelley went to Santa Fe yesterday, and will return to-day in time for the concert at the Springs.

Col. H. H. Carpenter has delayed his eastern trip on account of a severe sore throat. He went to the Springs yesterday.

Harry Pratt, the fly advertisement hustler came in from Albuquerque yesterday. What racket you got new Harry?

J. Abbott and wife have just returned from a months absence in California. They express themselves as delighted with the trip.

Major Wisner brought Mark and Lou in yesterday. It is because he is the best looking Cen' on the road, that he gets all these soft jobs?

J. H. Ball, who has been associated with B. B. Borden for some time past as a contractor and builder, will start for Denver to-morrow.

W. J. Porter, a large mining operator, returned from the Tucson district to Chicago yesterday. This is the first visit east for ten years.

Major B. Schemmerhorn, aide de camp to General Fred Harvey, of the Santa Fe eating house system is at the Springs, with his superior officer.

Mr. John Bell, of Gross, Blackwell & Co., has been compelled to return to his bed again, having gotten up too soon after his short illness. He is at the St. Nicholas hotel.

Mr. A. A. King, who was formerly engaged here, but now at Big Springs, Texas, will arrive on the 15th inst., to fill the place in the dispatchers office vacated by Mr. Lodie.

Mrs. C. H. Phillips, who formerly resided here, passed through the city yesterday for Albuquerque. She goes to assist her husband, who has recently been appointed assistant postmaster there.

Joe Seyfred, representing Lieberman & Manheimer's wholesale hat and cap establishment, Kansas City, arrived yesterday. He sells the celebrated Stetson hats. He will be in the city about a week.

Prof. A. F. Lodie, the train dispatcher, has resigned his position in the dispatchers office here, and goes to Hermosillo on the 15th inst. He accepts a similar position there, under Mr. C. A. Mitchell, late station agent here.

A. C. Sloan returned from Kansas City yesterday. His niece, Miss Mary R. Charles, came with him and will reside in Las Vegas for some time. Miss Charles is an accomplished musician and was the music teacher in the synodical college at Fulton, Mo., for several years past.

Geo. W. West and Thomas C. Sterritt, two heavy sheep dealers of Gainesville, Texas, are in the city. They are here to buy 20,000 head of Merino sheep and will pay the cash for every mother's son of them. When the drove is made up, it will be divided into regiments and battalions and driven to Henrietta, Texas. Drive in your meek eyed quadrupeds.

W. J. Craig and wife, of Bluffton, Ind., are new arrivals at the Springs. Mr. Craig is a prominent citizen of Hoosierdom and has done a great deal to build up his native state. He was the builder of the Toledo, Cincinnati and St. Louis railroad, and has occupied several important positions in railroad circles. The only thing we have against him is that he now owns a newspaper.

B. B. Borden, one of our old time contractors of Las Vegas is again to be found in his shop on Half-way hill. He is one of the oldest and best contractors in the city, and those contemplating erecting new buildings the coming summer will do well to have Mr. Borden figure out their work.

The consolidated oil company intend to erect a new building at once, on the west switch near the western terminus of Tilden street. The building is to be 30x200 feet. This is a better locality and will not endanger so much property should it ever burn again.

Danced with Lou.

Mr. J. Gruner, of the firm of Marwede & Gruner, says that when he was six years old he danced a quadrille with the little princess. It was at a party in Bath, England, and the princess was dancing with the little subjects of her mother, the queen, when Gruner came in for his share of the honors.
