Twentieth Century Ball at Bland-- Heavy Snow.

BLAND PERSONAL NOTES.

From the Bland Herald.
 Mrs. Forest has returned from a trip to Albuquerque. He will be joined here in a few days by his family.
 Mrs. Wm. French and child have returned from Albuquerque where they resided for several weeks.
 Miss J. Clement has been tendered a position in the Lone Star mine by the Navaho Gold Mining company.
 Frank and Miss Sarah Myers have returned to Albuquerque after a very enjoyable vacation with their parents here.

Mert Wagner and family have moved from Albemarle to Thornton, where they will occupy the cozy dwelling of Col. J. L. Morris.

John Hendrickson has gone to California for a few months' visit, and upon his return he will re-employ the employ of W. L. Trimble & Co.

Miss Max Schuler and brother, Wilbur, re-entered upon their studies in the East Las Vegas schools this week after a ten days vacation with their parents in Bland.

J. D. May was among the passengers who left for the Duke City on Tuesday stage. It may be necessary for him to make a trip to Old Mexico on mining business as he returns to Bland.

Mrs. W. T. Grace, the estimable wife of our local physician, and little son left yesterday for an extended trip to the health resorts on the Pacific coast. The doctor will remain at home this time to keep house.

Mrs. T. H. Benson accompanied by her daughter and little grand child, went to Albuquerque yesterday to enjoy a much-needed rest. The Benson household will be in charge by Mrs. Organ during their absence.

Miss Katie Vance, a popular young lady of Albuquerque, visited at the home of J. H. Overhill and family in Bland for a week past. In company with her friend, Miss Beale Overhill, the young ladies leave for the metropolis this afternoon to resume their studies in the university.

John Henry, the stage driver who sustained serious injuries in being thrown from his wagon a few weeks ago is greeting old friends in Bland. He is still nursing his wounds, but will soon be able to resume work for M. Wagner.

For the past week the mountains in this district have been robed in white, about ten inches of snow, having fallen since a week ago last night. The temperature fell as low as five degrees below zero, but no one would believe it so cold until they stood up in the morning. This snowfall will prove a great blessing to this section's livestock.

The olden Cochiti Tunnel company, who have been doing some splendid work on their tunnel in Cochiti canyon for several months past, decided to give their employees a little vacation last week, and accordingly suspended operations for a week. All hands returned for service last Wednesday morning, feeling much refreshed by their brief absence.

W. J. Rogers and family have moved in for the winter from their ranch on the Cobia, and have taken up their residence in north Bland. Mr. Rogers is the possessor of a stock ranch about thirty miles northwest of Bland, which is well supplied with everything for the winter season of the year.

J. A. Pegue was here calling on the merchants and asking the accounts in the interests of W. L. Trimble & Co. last Saturday and Sunday. From here he went to Albuquerque, where it is understood he will be employed as bookkeeper in the office of the company for a few weeks. During his absence W. D. Kemp will be in charge of the Thornton office, while C. A. Schuchert will take care of the Bland office and accounts in Bland.

The society folk of Albemarle and Bland turned out in large numbers last Tuesday evening and the first of the twentieth century was ushered in a very comical and amusing manner. The occasion being the masquerade ball, given by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. An orchestra consisting of several talented musicians from Santa Fe, was there, and the crowd who tripped a merry set for several hours over the polished floor of Wood's hall. J. A. Rice, J. J. Harber and W. H. Knight composed the floor committee and meted out the prizes judiciously.

Persons suffering from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat. The best method of curing this is to use the preparation known as Kotol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Berry Drug Co. and Cosmopolitan Drug Store.

Hon. F. W. Parker, judge of the Third judicial district court, was a passenger from Hillsboro yesterday morning for Santa Fe, to attend the territorial supreme court which convened at the capital to-day.

B. C. Pittenger, manager of the Las Vegas opera house, is in the city to-day visiting with his many friends. He will attend the Strauss concert to-night and enjoy the music.

B. A. Rieyter, the real estate and insurance agent, has commenced work on his residence which he will erect on East Railroad avenue.

Yesterday at the home of the bride's parents in old Albuquerque, Miss Manolita Romero was united in marriage to Diego M. de Armas, a young ranchman of Los Corrales.

End-of-Century Dance at Cerrillos-- Grand Success.

ACCIDENTS AT MADRID.

From Cerrillos Register.

CERRILLOS.

Mrs. F. H. Mitchell of the Highland hotel, Albuquerque, was in Cerrillos several days this week. She was a guest of the Central hotel.

G. Green, of the Palace hotel, has been suffering from an attack of grippe the past week, but has managed to keep on his feet and attend to business as usual.

Miss Belle Sweet was employed Wednesday in making out the quarterly report of the tobacco monopoly. She is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Dagon for a few days.

W. H. Coleman, Jr., freight conductor between Las Vegas and Albuquerque, left for Tucson Wednesday last. Mr. Coleman's mission to the Kansas capital is in the interest of the O. R. C. who sent him to that city as their representative.

The end of the century dance under the auspices of the American and Mexican Order of Hop Nobs, New Year's eve, was a grand success in every particular and to say that all present had a good time is putting it mildly.

Home owners began to assemble at 8 o'clock and it was but a short time after when the Madrid and Dolores delegations were in sight, and a jovial, well-oiled crowd was in place, which left no doubt as to the success of the party.
