Category/Department: General

Published: Wednesday, February 20, 1991

On Feb. 19, Notimex reported that International Conservation of Mexico, affiliated with the International Conservation Fund in Washington, will acquire $4 million (face value) worth of the government's foreign debt paper in the next four years. The sum will be exchanged for pesos to be spent on financing natural resource conservation projects. (Source: Notimex, 02/19/91)
