The convention was called to order this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock by President Charles A. Spiess.

Prayer by Chaplain Julius A. Hartman.

Minutes by Chief Clerk George W. Armijo.

Solomon Luna, for the committee on rules, reported two additional rules, printed in full in another column. One of them sets October 22 as the last day on which delegates may introduce files, but provides that the committee shall have the privilege of introducing files at any time. The amendments were adopted as proposed without a dissenting vote.

The following files were then introduced:

Resolution No. 12, by A. A. Sedillo, provides for the auditing of salary accounts by the committee on ways and means. The resolution was adopted.

President Spiess announced that he had transmitted a telegram of greeting to the Arizona convention, as instructed by the convention.

A. B. Fall suggested that a copy of the rules be also sent to Phoenix.

H. B. Ferguson asked for the terms of protest against the "gag" rule uttered by the Republican minority at Phoenix.

J. D. Sena announced that he would give the blackboard in the supreme court room for announcement of place and time of committee meetings.

Upon motion of J. H. Crist, a telegram from Phoenix, to the Albuquerque Morning Journal, in reference to the committee appointments in the

PORTER CHARLTON EXTRADITED

Federal Authorities Order That He Be Returned to Italy for Trial

CONFESSED KILLING HIS WIFE

Judge Blair of New Jersey Supreme Court Refuses to Release Him.

New York, Oct. 14.—Porter Charlton confessed to the murder of his wife, Mary Scott Castle Charlton, and was ordered to return by the federal authorities in a proceeding which had been instituted for his extradition to Italy. Judge Blair of the New Jersey supreme court declined to release Charlton and issued an order for him to be placed in charge of the federal officials.

Arizona convention was read causing much laughter.

A. B. Fall called attention to the difference between the Progressive Democrats of Arizona and those of New Mexico, the latter having nominated a self-confessed corporation attorney for the presidency of the convention and had placed him as their choice upon the most important committees.

H. B. Ferguson again drew the distinction between corporation attorneys in court and in legislative bodies. He spoke of "malefactors of great wealth," and the "predatory rich," and those who lend themselves as willing agents to violation of law as being far removed from attorneys legally employed in court litigation.

H. M. Dougherty protested against the introduction into the convention of an element of partisanship, of majority and minority. He said the convention should by this time be doing real work. "I believe all the majority and the minority, have come here with lofty purpose and honest intention to formulate an honest fundamental law" and he hoped that the convention has heard the last of the talk of partisanship.

G. A. Richardson expressed the fear that the convention had not heard the last of the partisan talk. I do not think that it is a crime to represent corporations, providing that those corporations are left at home by their representatives. "I feel much like offering a resolution to appoint a committee to investigate whether there are special interests represented here," desiring to influence the convention.

At this juncture J. H. Crist presented to the convention the portrait of the late Antonio F. Joseph, who represented New Mexico for many years in Congress. He pronounced a magnificent eulogy upon Mr. Joseph and moved that the portrait be hung on the walls of the convention.

H. O. Bursum in words vibrant and eloquent said that the motion was eminently proper and eulogized Mr. Joseph, and then amended the motion by asking that the portrait of the late J. Franco Chaves be also placed on the walls of the convention. He spoke feelingly of the old veteran, who worked so assiduously for statehood and who fell by assassin's hands. Nestor Montoya seconded the motion and amendment, in remarks that were alive with feeling and eloquence. Motion and amendment carried unanimously.

Adjourns Until Monday.

After announcement of public meetings of several committees, the convention adjourned to Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CONVENTION SPARKS.

At the meeting of the committee on Education, this forenoon with the territorial board of education, a meeting which was resumed this afternoon at 4 o'clock, the main questions discussed were compulsory education, the means of support for the public schools and the minimum term which is to be made compulsory in every district but which would necessitate state help for those districts that do not have sufficient taxable property to support public school for such minimum annual term.

The New Mexican's attention has been called to the fact that in the printed address of H. B. Ferguson to the constitutional convention on last Tuesday, the very remark that resulted in his discomfiture had been omitted. Mr. Ferguson charged that A. B. Fall in his address nominating Charles A. Spiess for president of the convention had frankly admitted that the convention would be organized in the interests of the corporations. Mr. Fall denied this assertion, and what he did say was that the Republican party does not fear a public sentiment that would denigrate a man from being the president of the convention because he had been retained at some time or other by a corporation as an attorney in a legal matter. That the Democrats defied this same public sentiment was shown by their nominating for the presidency, a corporation attorney.

Chairman Solomon Luna introduced for the committee of rules the following additional rules:

56. When a proposed amendment, or a proposed order is laid on the table, the original question, of the proposition pending shall not be held to accompany the proposed amendment.

TERRIBLE TALES FROM MINNESOTA

With Feet Burned, School Teacher Laid in Gravel Pit All Night

REMOVING BODIES OF DEAD

Detail of Twenty Soldiers Cutting Road Into Tangle of Fallen Timber.

Beaudette, Minn., Oct. 14.—A detail of twenty Minnesota National Guardsmen left here early today to bury the bodies of three victims of the forest fire discovered in a cedar tangle seven miles east of here. All yesterday afternoon, woodsmen were chopping a road into the burned and fallen timber by which the bodies can be taken to Beaudette for funeral if not too badly burned, if they are they will be buried where found.

Mary Donaghue of New Richmond, Wisconsin, a school teacher and homesteader of Zipple, was brought into town late last night with her feet badly scorched. She was caught in the flames a week ago, last Tuesday and lay all night in a gravel pit before help came.

MASSACHUSETTS TOWN RUNS SHORT OF WATER.

Palmer, Mass., Oct. 14.—Tub bathing is prohibited in an order issued by the local water company in an effort to conserve the rapidly diminishing water supply which the company's reservoirs hold until artesian wells can be sunk and other emergency measures taken. The water has fallen to a point where it is but a few inches above the pipes through which it is pumped to the houses and stores, and Chief Summer of the fire department asserts that with two fire streams he could completely empty the pipes in ten minutes. For the protection of property in case of fire, fire engines have been placed under a temporary shelter at the bank of the Quabog river, with lines running into the water and steam constantly up. From the engines a line of hose half a mile long extends to the heart of the business district, ready for immediate use.

WORKMEN TOOK TOO MANY HOLIDAYS.

Aurora, Ill., Oct. 14.—A coal mine at Braceville, Ill., has just been closed because the workers celebrated too many holidays and attended too many funerals. Explaining why this shaft was closed for good, the mine owners declared it was short-handed so many days it could not run at a profit. Braceville is an old town, where everyone belongs to a lodge of some kind, and when a funeral occurs the lodge members must attend.

RAILROAD COLLISION CLAIMS SIX KILLED; OTHERS INJURED.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 14.—In a collision between freight and work trains on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad at Summit early today six persons were killed and several injured. The victims were foreigners and members of a construction gang.

FROM COAST TO COAST

Storm Predicted Yesterday Sweeps Over Vast Area

HAVANA DELUGED BY RAIN

The British Bays Strewn With Wrecks and Cuba Is Devastated.

London, Oct. 14.—The English coast is strewn with wreckage the result of a storm that continued for two days. The casualty list is a long one. This morning the bodies of five seamen from the steamer Cranford were picked up off Hartepool. It is believed that the vessel, which carried a crew of forty, foundered and that the men attempted to reach the shore in a small boat and were lost.

Tobacco Crop Destroyed.

Havana, Oct. 14.—The full force of the storm the approach of which was heralded yesterday, struck the city at 1 o'clock this morning. It brought a deluge of rain. Most of the street lights were extinguished. The storm after sweeping over the Isle of Pines yesterday moved eastward and then shifted to the west, affecting chiefly Matanzas, Havana and Pinar del Rio provinces. It is feared that the tobacco crop of Pinar del Rio was destroyed by the washing out of the seed beds.

Casilda Devastated.

Havana, Oct. 14.—It is reported that the town of Casilda has been devastated and many killed. All communication is cut off from the interior.

Another Storm Warning.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 14.—The local weather bureau issued a storm bulletin warning this morning that a dangerous gale will sweep the Atlantic coast and the southeast Gulf of Mexico during the next 24 hours.

BODIES OF FOUR MORE VICTIMS ARE FOUND.

But Twenty-Nine Are Still Missing in the Starkville Mine Disaster.

Starkville, Colo., Oct. 14.—The bodies of four more victims of the Starkville mine explosion were brought to the surface shortly after midnight. It is possible to identify only one of them. Twenty-two bodies have been buried or are in the morgue. Four more have been located and twenty-nine are still missing. A rescue party now is directing efforts towards remote entries where it is believed the bodies of most of the victims will be found. The bodies that now are being brought from the mine are in an advanced state of decomposition and the chances of identification are growing less.

WOMEN ARE NOMINATED FOR LEGISLATURE.

Leadville, Oct. 14.—At the Lake county Republican convention held here two women were nominated for representative, the first time in local politics. The women who received the honors are Mrs. Emma James and Mrs. S. C. French.

ONE INDICTMENT IS QUASHED

Defendants Are Sustained Law Points Raised by Demurrer

DECISION WILL BE APPEALED

New Mexico Central Railroad Receivership Case Still Holding the Boards.

Former Sheriff H. C. Kinsell, of Stanley, yesterday testified in the district court in the case of E. Andrews vs. The Rio Grande Livestock Company.

The attention of Judge John R. McFie in chambers, was still occupied today in listening to arguments of distinguished counsel in the demurrer against the petition in the case of certain eastern creditors of the New Mexico Central Railroad Company asking for the removal as receiver of Receiver Murray of Pittsburgh, Pa. It is believed that the hearing will be concluded today and that the decision of the court will be announced shortly. A number of important law points were raised in the demurrer and the arguments were of intense interest.

Before Associate Justice M. C. Mechem yesterday, the demurrer against the indictment of Richard H. Hanna and Thomas W. Hanna, charging them with inducing persons not qualified to vote at the last election, was heard. Although the judgment of Judge Mechem has not been signed as yet in order to give the defendants' time to reform their demurrer to include points suggested by Judge Mechem, he announced his decision dismissing the indictments. F. C. Wilson and N. B. Laughlin and J. H. Knobel appeared for the Hannas and Assistant District Attorney Charles C. Catron for the territory. The question coming up on demurrer, the hearing, of course, did not go into the merits of the case, the demurrer raising questions only as to the legal form of the indictment, setting up that the indictment gave a conclusion of law, that it failed to apprise the defendants of what they were charged with, failed to name the place where the alleged crime was committed and failed to allege that the defendants "knowingly" committed the crime with which they were charged, all these law points being sustained by Judge Mechem. The case will be appealed by the territory to the supreme court, Attorney General Frank W. Clancy, appearing for the territory. The case will be set for the January term and will arouse much interest as the legal points raised are important. The demurrer went only to the indictment for inducing persons who were not qualified to vote and not to the other indictment against one of the defendants, Thomas W. Hanna, that he circulated ballots that were illegal. The indictments grew out of alleged election irregularities at Lamby, in this county, at the election for delegates to the constitutional convention, several other persons being indicted at the same time. The trial of the cases is looked forward to with much interest.

Complaint Filed.

A complaint was filed in the district clerk's office today by the Farmers Mutual Ditch Company versus Walter W. Wagner, treasurer and tax collector ex-officio of San Juan county and the board of county commissioners of said county, and Washington Graves, assessor of said county. The complaint is over tax assessment.

HAS HAD EXPERIENCE WITH SO-CALLED REFORMER.

Atlantic City, Oct. 14.—Politicians, muckrakers and yellow journals were scored by Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railways of San Francisco, in an address before the convention of the American Street and Interurban Railway Association yesterday. Mr. Calhoun showed that he had some experience with the politicians who, from the platform, declares that the interests must be driven out of politics, but who secretly accepts favors from corporations in the shape of contributions to his campaign funds. He declared that there was but one safe rule to follow with such men. "A politician," he said "who will not enter by the front door should be barred from the back door."

COULD NOT COLLECT BILL FOR CLOTHES.

New York, Oct. 14.—The execution obtained by William Barnes, a Fifth avenue tailor, for $1,062 claimed to be due for clothes bought by Robert W. Chalker, husband of the singer Mme. Lina Cavalieri, was returned in the city court by the sheriff's office marked unsatisfied. The next legal step to be made by the tailor in the effort to get his money will be an application for an order requiring Chalker to submit to an examination in supplementary proceedings.

A BOMB TO PUT "GINGER" IN STRIKE.

Paris, Oct. 14.—A bomb was discovered by the police today at the foot of a tree in the avenue Klobner, near the residence of the embassy. Officers attribute the attempted outrage to anarchists who sought to put new ginger in an apparently dying railroad strike.

THE DAILY ROUND UP.

A POET AND A WOMAN.
(Arthur Stringer in November Smart Set.)

You bent above the grave and read the stone
Where long ago—I saw your quick tears start—
Some singer, unremembered and unknown,
Haw woven into song his broken heart.

And then you asked if only loss and death
Moved man to truer song and brought the need
Of music's balm and that assuaging breath
Which falls so poignantly from lips that bleed.

You asked how I, who knew and mourned no dead,
Could hope for music, since its cords must spring
From death and sorrow—and I only said:
"Have I not my dead selves of which to sing?"

Tried to Escape—Edgar Richardson, a colored trusty at the Grant county jail, attempted to make his escape and succeeded in getting some miles above Central, when Deputy Sheriff A. C. Buckner captured him, returning him to jail at Silver City.

Suit on Note—Suit was filed in the district court at Albuquerque for John M. Moore, plaintiff, versus Thomas Perea and Gabina G. Perea, defendants, asking judgment in the sum of $423.07, alleged to be due on a promissory note dated August 3, 1907.

Bridge Man Badly Injured—Charles L. Reed, one of the members of the Raton Santa Fe bridge crew, was seriously injured while at work with the pile driver on the main line near Dillon, three miles below Raton. The large cog wheel on the engine platform controlling the hoisting of the pile driver head, broke, permitting the hammer to fall in such a way as to snap off the steel upright lead, which also fell, striking Mr. Reed and breaking his right shoulder, left thigh and causing some injury to the small of his back.

Delegate Ships Sheep—"A. B. McDonald shipped 14 cars and Manuel Gomez shipped 11 cars of sheep Saturday, to the Imperial valley where they are wintering them. Messrs. C. W. Brown and J. W. Hambrick, of Willard, and J. P. Dunlavy and C. J. Burt, of Mountainair, accompanied the shipment."—Willard Record.

Prairie Fire—There was a lively prairie fire on the hill just south of Rieland's, Mora county, but prompt work on the part of the neighbors, who turned out to fight the fire, prevented any loss except to the good grass that was burned. The fire covered about 10 acres before it was stopped by the fire furrow on one side and the road on the other.

Killed by Blast—Descending from a dizzy height, where it had been thrown by blasting operations, a piece of rock struck Francisco Romero, a laborer employed on the Agua Pura Company' new dam in the Las Vegas Hot Springs canon, as he sat at his lunch at noon yesterday. The man died a short time later. Romero and his fellow workmen had been engaged during the morning in drilling and charging holes preparatory to blasting. As is their custom, they lighted the fuses at noon and retired to what was believed to be a safe distance, to eat their lunch.

TINSLEY RETURNS FROM DRY FARMING CONGRESS.

New Mexico Was Recognized at Spokane—Drouth Extended Over the Entire West This Year.

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 13.—"The session of the Dry Farming Congress just closed at Spokane was the most harmonious and the most helpful ever held, in spite of the fact that the dry farmers throughout the west have had a poor season," said Professor J. D. Tinsley, of Mesilla Park, yesterday on his return from Spokane where he attended the dry farm meeting and took a leading part in the work and the discussions. Professor Tinsley was re-elected a member of the executive committee and was also put on the board of governors this year. New Mexico was recognized and honored also elsewhere in the organization.

A. H. Harris, of Las Vegas, was appointed on the resolutions committee, E. Griggs, of Las Vegas, on the credentials committee and N. G. Looney, of Melrose, was given a place on the nominating committee.

"The meeting adhered strictly to business throughout," said Professor Tinsley. "Everything was threshed out in the committee meetings and the general gathering devoted itself entirely to the matter in hand—the discussion of dry farming. The executive committee kept a firm hold on the throttle and eliminated every single extraneous matter from the sessions. All the papers were valuable, strictly to the point and the institute sessions held in a separate room during the congress were largely attended and so popular that on one day when no institute program had been arranged the hall filled with delegates who made up a program of their own. There was little demand for literature. The people at Spokane this year were not homeseekers, but men who have

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Santa Fe People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home. It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Santa Fe kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Proof in the testimony of Santa Fe people who have been cured to stay cured.

Pasquale Yanni, College St., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "In 1902 I gave a public testimonial in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills to the effect that they had cured me of a pain in my back, caused by disordered kidneys. My work obliges me to sit down a good deal and this weakened my kidneys, causing backache. While at work I suffered more intensely than at any other time and I was very anxious to find a remedy that would relieve me. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box and to my delight, they soon fixed me up in good shape. During the past seven years I have had no need of Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney medicine."

their homesteads and want to know how to make them pay. The dry season prevalent through the west has placed the dry farmers face to face with methods. Although it has been hard on many of the farmers, nevertheless this unfavorable season has had the good result of taking all the 'wind' out of the dry farming movement and bringing it down to a hard and fast practical basis."

BANK AND LOAN LAWS

Compilation of Federal Officials for the National Monetary Commission

CIVIL WAR FINANCING

Coinage Is One of Subjects Dealt With in This Valuable Monograph.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14.—"Laws of the United States Concerning Money, Banking and Loans, 1778-1909," is the title of a large volume just issued by the National Monetary Commission. This compilation, which will prove of great value to the student of the banking and financial history of this country, is the work of A. T. Huntington, chief of the division of loans and currency, United States treasury, and of Robert J. Mawhinney, of the office of the solicitor of the treasury. From the various laws arranged in the order of their enactment one can follow the monetary, banking and financial legislation of our country from the Confederation to the present time. The use of marginal summaries, of references and of explanatory notes much enhances the value of the work. The editors have selected for the compilation only those sections of the statute dealing with the subject treated. Its use for reference purposes is facilitated by the addition of a very complete index.

The volume is divided into four parts, laws relating to finance, to banking, to coinage, and to paper money. Under the subject of finance will be found the statutes relating to loans and other interest-bearing obligations, the subtreasury system, the status of foreign coins, and other statutes not relating specifically to banking, coinage, or paper money. The early laws making provision for the payment of the debt of the United States, for the assumption of the state debts, the sinking-fund provisions, and the statutes giving the President authority to borrow for various purposes are given. Laws providing for the issue of treasury notes record the financial burdens imposed by the war of 1812.

The act of August 6, 1846, "An act to provide for the better organization of the treasury, and for the collection, safe-keeping, transfer and disbursement of the public revenue," established the independent treasury system, which, with its modifications, exists to this day.

Civil war financing can be traced in the statutes authorizing the negotiation of huge loans and the provisions for the issue of treasury notes. Then come the refunding acts of the seventies, and finally the acts authorizing the Spanish war loans and loans for the Panama canal.

The second part of the compilation is devoted to banking. Here will be found the acts chartering the First and Second banks of the United States, the laws authorizing the President to borrow from these banks, and later those regulating the deposits of public money among the banks and its distribution among the states. The national banking act of June 3, 1864, which was a revision of the first act, is given practically in full. In a note the editors have given the principal points of difference between this and the earlier act. One can follow down to the present all the legislation concerning national banks, the act of March 14, 1900, the act of March 4, 1907, which permitted the secretary of the treasury to deposit in the banks

THE SWINE OR THE FLOWER?

Ah me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty, wherein a drove of wallowing swine were barred.

Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;

Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of ills!"

I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first One gleaming mass of roses pure and white.

With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;

And, as I lingered o'er the lovely sight, The summer breeze, that cooled that Southern scene, Whispered, "Behold the source of COTOLENE!"

all public money, receipts of customs included, and finally the act of May 30, 1908, which provided for the issue of an emergency circulation.

Coinage is the subject dealt with in the third part. Here will be found the acts establishing the mint and providing for our coinage, the laws governing the rates at which, previous to 1857, foreign coins should be accepted as legal tender, and the laws which have from time to time made changes in the weight or denomination of our coins. One interesting law of the "embargo" period is that of April 14, 1812, which enacted: "That it shall not be lawful during the continuance of the act entitled 'An act laying an embargo on all the ships and vessels in the ports and harbors of the United States for a limited time,' to export from the United States or the territories thereof, in any manner whatever, any specie, nor any goods, wares, or merchandise of foreign or domestic growth or manufacture."

Much legislation in this part is concerned with the establishment of the mints and assay offices and the laying down of rules for their guidance. The silver-purchase acts, the gold-standard act of 1900, and all other acts relating to our coinage can readily be found by the student. The last statute included is that of May 18, 1908—"An act providing for the restoration of the motto 'In God We Trust' on certain denominations of the gold and silver coins of the United States."

The last part deals with paper money. The United States passed but few acts on this subject previous to those providing for the issue of the greenbacks, the few enacted dealing chiefly with the notes of the First and Second banks of the United States. But from the issue of the greenbacks on, the legislation has been more frequent. Here will be found the laws leading up to the resumption of specie payments, on January 1, 1875, and the statutes concerning the treasury notes of 1890. Though of less importance, the acts of the greenback period providing for the issue of postage stamps and of fractional currency will also appear to the student of American currency.

GEM CITY HAS A GREAT FUTURE.

Its Need is Railroad to Mogollon and a Smelter at Home—Odd Fellows Home at Roswell.

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 14.—"With a railroad through the Mogollon mining district and the old smelter at Socorro again in operation, we shall be in shape to beat the world," said Captain M. Cooney of Socorro in this city yesterday. Captain Cooney who is one of the original old settlers in Socorro county and who has been for years largely interested in mining and stock raising, was in the city en route home from Tucumcari where he attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

"I am much interested in the renewed rumor that the old smelter is to be taken over by new parties and overhauled and put in operation," said Captain Cooney. "It is the one thing that will put Socorro on the map in red letters. There is no reason that I can see why with the increasing big output of the mines in the Magdalena-Kelly district, that the old plant should not be remodeled and used for a zinc smelter. If it were started even on a small scale, it would be an economical proposition for the operators who now ship their ore a considerable distance. The mining industry around Kelly and Magdalena and especially in the Mogollon country is making great strides and you have no idea of the proportions it is assuming. All we need at Mogollon is that north and south line of the Southern Pacific to Gallup. It will open up a virgin country and enable the Mogollon district to become the greatest mining field in the southwest. Even now the properties there are being developed on a big scale in spite not only of the transportation difficulties, ninety miles over a rough road to Silver City, but in spite of the difficulty and expense of procuring fuel wood, now carried over the mountains by burros and which costs $7 a cord. The building of that railroad which we believe is bound to come sooner or later will be the greatest thing that ever happened to Socorro county."

Captain Cooney says that as result of the September rains and the fine weather which has since prevailed with no dry winds or frosts, the grass on the Socorro county ranges has shot up amazingly and the winter grazing will be splendid. Captain Cooney speaking of the Odd Fellows' grand lodge at Tucumcari, said that one of the most interesting features of the very successful meeting was the report as to the status of the Orphans' Home at Roswell, to be conducted under the auspices of the fraternal order.

"The institution is virtually paid for," said one member of the local lodge yesterday, "the grounds have been beautified, fruit trees planted and other extensive improvements made and it will not be long until the institution is ready for business." It is understood that the proposition costs the Odd Fellows about $7,500 as a starter and that when ready for inmates it will be one of the best equipped institutions of the kind in the southwest.

RHEUMATISM PAINFUL & DANGEROUS

Rheumatism is due to a diseased condition of the blood cells and corpuscles, brought about by an excess of uric acid in the circulation. It is not only a very painful disease but an extremely dangerous trouble. The briny, acid state of the blood gradually forms a coating over the muscles, and by depositing a cement-like substance in the joints frequently terminates fatally, or leaves its victim a hopeless cripple. It is natural to "doctor" the spot that hurts, and it is quite right to use liniments, hot applications, etc., to get temporary relief from a painful joint or swollen tendon; but Rheumatism is not a skin disease, and such things, when depended on alone make one careless, and the disease gets a firmer hold on the blood. S. S. S. cures the disease because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation, and removes every particle of the irritating uric acid, builds up the blood, makes it rich and oily, and in this way prepares it for the proper nourishment of all joints, muscles, nerves and bones. If you have Rheumatism, get the uric acid out of the blood by taking S. S. S., a purely vegetable medicine, and enjoy freedom from its misery. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

of murder, the case was continued until next term on application of defendants. In the case of the Territory vs. Martin Gonzales, on a charge of embezzlement, the defendant withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty. The court sentenced him to imprisonment for a term not to exceed one year in the penitentiary, but suspended sentence pending good behavior, the defendant to pay the court costs. The case of the Territory vs. George Gamboa and Simon Onopa, charged with larceny, was continued. In the case of the Territory vs. Alcario Moya, on a charge of burglary and larceny, the defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year in the territorial reform school, the sentence being suspended pending good behavior. The bonds of Avelino Guaderrama and Liberato Garcia, who are under indictment for larceny, were reduced to $500. The case of the Territory vs. David Guaderrama and Avelino Guaderrama, on a charge of murder has been set for trial for today. David Guaderrama entered a plea of not guilty. His bond was placed at $9,000.

CONVENTION SPARKS.

The committee on elective franchise held a session this forenoon.

The state legislature will have 72 members, twenty-four of them in the senate, if the present ideas of the committee on legislation prevail. The committee may also attempt to limit the number of legislative employees and their pay.

The committee on bill or rights will hold a public session on tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock if the convention is not convening at that time. If the convention is in session, then the committee will meet after the convention adjourns.

The few members who favor state-wide prohibition realize that there is no hope of embodying this in the constitution but they are fighting for it so as to secure a concession in favor of local option, if not in the constitution, then to be separately submitted.

In the committee on county and municipal corporations is discussing the proposition that it shall take three-fifths of the legal voters to change the county seat, and that application to move a county seat shall not be made oftener than once in four years; that no new county shall be created with less than 5,000 inhabitants and an assessment of at least $1,000,000 and that no old county shall be left with less than 8,000 inhabitants.

The committee on legislation is about ready to make its report. There will be a majority report against the Oregon plan of the initiative and referendum and there will be a minority report in favor of a radical plan of initiative and referendum. The committee voted down a proposition to make the new legislature consist of 18 members in the Senate and 36 members in the House and favored the plan and apportionment suggested by the New Mexican on the second day of the session, of twenty-four members of the Senate and forty-eight members of the House. There are some, however, who believe that the legislature should be still greater in numbers, pointing to Rhode Island which has 100 members in its lower house, New York which has 150 members, Massachusetts which has 220 members, and to other states not near as large as New Mexico, but having a large legislature. The argument for a large membership is that of economy while the main point for a large membership is that a large legislature is less easily controlled by a few. This is what the New Mexican said:

"Now that the population of New Mexico has been announced by counties, the subject of apportionment can receive immediate attention from the hands of the constitutional convention, although it will be the last clause to be passed upon. The Republican majority must be just. A gerrymander is not to be tolerated—in fact, is not necessary to assure a Republican majority in the first legislature. The Republican counties have a population of 194,000, the Democratic counties of only 98,000 and the counties that are debatable ground but with Republican leanings 35,000. A House constituted of 50 members would be distributed about as follows: Bernalillo and San Miguel counties, four members each; Chaves, Colfax, Dona Ana, Eddy, Grant, McKinley, Mora, Quay, Rio Arriba, McKinley, Santa Fe, Socorro, Taos and Valencia, two members each; Colfax and Union, together, one; Chaves and Guadalupe, together, one; Luna and Sierra, together, one; Curry and Roosevelt, together, one; Rio Arriba, Sandoval and Santa Fe, together, one; Socorro and Torrance, together, one; Curry, Guadalupe, Lincoln, Otero, San Juan, Torrance and Union one each. The combinations of the counties mentioned are made necessary by the major fractions except in the case of Luna and Sierra counties, which together have only sufficient population for one representative on that basis, and in every case are of contiguous counties. Such an apportionment based entirely on population and contiguity would give the Republicans 36 members of the first state legislature and the Democrats 14, and would mean one representative for approximately 7,000 population. A Senate or upper house of 24 members would consist of 17 Republicans and 7 Democrats, Bernalillo and San Miguel counties sending two delegates each, Chaves, Colfax, Curry, Dona Ana, Eddy, Grant, Guadalupe, McKinley, Mora Quay, Rio Arriba, Roosevelt, Santa Fe, Socorro, Taos, Union and Valencia sending one member each, and Lincoln uniting with Torrance, Sandoval with San Juan, and Luna with Sierra and Otero to send one senator. On a joint vote, under present political conditions, the Republicans would then have 53 members and the Democrats 21, the latter having a somewhat more numerous representation than they have in the constitutional convention or than they have had in recent legislatures."

Warden Cleofes Romero, of the New Mexico penitentiary today was host to the San Miguel county delegation to the constitutional convention, at luncheon from 12 to 2 o'clock. Other guests present were Governor Mills, Delegate Charles Springer of Colfax county, Judge C. J. Roberts, of Raton, and D. W. Lusk, representative of the Las Vegas Optic. Following the luncheon, the guests were taken for a tour of the prison and the Physicians today are recommending Cottolene for dyspeptics, and others in a "run-down" condition. Never heard of them recommending lard for such a purpose, did you? Cottolene is a product of Nature, clean in source, making and manner of marketing. It makes food which the most delicate stomach can digest.

Cottolene is far superior to lard or cooking butter for all frying and shortening purposes.

POLICE MAKE RECORD DASH FOR UNION DEPOT.

And Find That Agent Harvey Lutz Has Keen Sense of Humor—Mix-up Over Burros and Hoboes.

Canto I.
Harvey Lutz sat in the office of the Santa Fe
Wondering how late the trains would be today
Just then on his grassy lawn he spied
Burros eight in all. And then he cried:
"Hello Central, give me at once Police
And I'll see if burro grazing here shant cease."

Canto II.
The marshal's office soon was on the line
And in a jiffy the police was asked to make time
In rounding up an octette of live hoboos
For in his hurry Lutz did not say "burros."
"Hoboes? Indeed? Again? And in Carnival Week
I guess we can show them how to take a sneak."
So argued the police, as they jumped in a cab
And dashed for depot there their prey to nab.

Canto III.
Was it a Ben Hur chariot race, or a call to riot
That Santa Feans saw in their streets so quiet?
Well, a cloud of dust alone remained to tell
While the cops in a bunch around the depot fell.

Canto IV.
"Gentlemen, I am mighty glad to see you now"
Said Harvey Lutz as he began to wonder how
He would explain his mistake of a few moments before
And get rid of burros that made his life a bore.
Finally with a twinkle in his eye, he said:
"Hoboes, indeed, I have seen here, but they are—dead;
Or gone some other place I feel quite sure,
And left as memoirs these burros who're
Now grazing there like a flock of silly sheep.
Isn't it a sight to make good men weep?"

Canto V.
As for the police, they shed no tears just then
But muttered something that was not "Amen."
And for a moment all of them seemed quite "sore"
Taking breath again and again, and oft they swore,
Till finally they came close to the burros eight
These they clubbed until the morn'grew late
And the cheerful burros finally wended their way,
Far, quite far, from the office of the Santa Fe.

AMATEURS TAKE HOUSE BY STORM.

and Mr. Koch has again proved himself a fine comedian.
Major Duncombe "who also wants to get married" was seen in the person of Roland Wittman. He was even more serious than the count about the divine passion and was more lucky, for he won the hand of the girl he had loved since she was a mere child. Mr. Wittman acted very well and contributed to the general success.

Robert Walton, Mrs. Smith's brother, was a dashing young officer, and Jacob Safford looked and acted the part very well, jumping easily into the role of an Italian band master when the occasion required, even though he did not have a black moustache to help him carry out the ruse.

A Queenly Bride.
As Mrs. John Smith, who wanted her honeymoon, Miss Ruth Laughlin was a queenly bride. Tall, beautiful and dignified, sweet voiced and attractively gowned, she was a star of the first magnitude. Every time she came on the stage she shone and not by looks only, for she spoke her lines well, and with the ease of a professional.

Miss Smith, sister of John Smith, and described as a giddy young thing, was portrayed by Miss Flo Moore. Miss Smith was one of those fortunate young ladies whose hand is sought by the great and noble and who had a flow of rhetoric in accepting of the Germans would call "pyramidal." Miss Moore had a difficult role but she played it very well, indeed.

As Mrs. Billeloux, a trainer of husbands, Mrs. Cartwright showed a knowledge of human nature, especially of the masculine nature, that was decidedly uncomfortable to her enemies. Mrs. Cartwright has a fine stage appearance and her enunciation was excellent.

Rose Walton, a "hungry bride," was the part played by Miss Mary Force who did not look as though she were starving for a couple of square meals, but who at least intoned her requests for nourishment as though she indeed were famished. Miss Force was graceful, and with that red hat on, it easily explained why Robert Walton fell in love with her at first sight.

From "Gay Paree."
Celeste Dupre, the French maid, was the role assigned to Miss Alonso and if there ever was a French maid on the stage who had the "light walk" and the "soft talk" of the real maids de belle Paris, Miss Alonso was "it." She was at all times the dainty Parisienne and at once won her way into the hearts of the audience who readily forgave even that rascally Billeloux for falling in love with her.
Elsie, a maid to be seen and not heard, was seen in the person of Miss Virginia Bean who lived up to the role of a mute. Miss Bean looked very attractive and Broadhurst was unkind in not giving her something to say.

The Great Secretary.
But the playwright made up for this deficiency in the role he allotted to Lavinia Daly, secretary of the ladies cooking union or what not. Miss Ritchie Seligman was seen in this part and difficult as it was, she rose to the occasion. Miss Seligman's interpretation was not merely mirth provoking, it was side splitting. No one would have ever recognized Miss Seligman as Lavinia Daly, in such a make-up as she had last night. But besides having a ferocious head of red hair, a striking dental display and a gown the shades in which would nearly blind even the artist eye, trained to observe actual color, this "Lady" Daly had brains. She knew the power of organization and had the French and the American maid on a strike in five minutes, not to mention the ice man and a few others, when she was discharged by an irate householder unable to grapple with cement like steaks and cobble stone potatoes. Miss Seligman was a revelation and she will doubtless be sought after in the next amateur play.

The Chorus.
The songs sung by the chorus were well received. They included "The Statehood March Song," words written by Mr. Mythen and the music by Mrs. Bean and in which there was a stream of melody delightful to hear, and the value song "The Girls of Santa Fe," also composed by Mr. Mythen and Mrs. Bean and which was aptly sung as the finale. The costumes of the girls in the chorus were indeed "chic" and the Oriental cut of one set of costumes was very fetching. Miss Anita Baca, as soprano soloist was a winner and "Bobby" Stevenson, the tenor soloist, was also good and did not show any stage fright when he jumped a line in the song.

Those in the chorus were Mr. Miller, Mr. Stevenson, Mr. Van Vliet, Mr. Loomis, Miss Anita Baca, Miss Ramona Baca, Miss Harrison, Miss Friday, Miss Force, Miss Alonso and Mrs. Miller.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Bean—Piano, Miss Hazel Sparks; cello, Wallace Fiske; cornet, Arthur Elliott.
Costumes designed and arranged by Mrs. Baca.

ORMSBY MCHARG HEARD FROM AGAIN.

He Seems to Be Bucking Republican Party and Roosevelt This Time—A Man of Wonderful Changes.

"Ormsby McHarg was lately assistant secretary of commerce and labor and Frank H. Hitchcock's lieutenant in the Taft campaign. He is not in the public service now, but on a visit in Washington he managed to say several interesting things about the rising opposition in New York state to the Saratoga ticket and platform. "The action of the officials of the Union League Club," he said, "in prohibiting the notification of the Republican candidate for governor in the rooms of that simon-pure Republican organization is significant enough to enlighten the people of this country regarding the temper of the sober-minded people of New York." He explains that "the majority of the voters of the state will support Dix to emphasize their disapproval of conditions within the Republican party of New York," and adds that "the anti-Roosevelt feeling outside of the metropolis is intense."

OF THIRTEEN AT TABLE FIVE ARE DEAD.

Elizabeth, N. J., Oct. 14.—The advice of specialists from seven leading medical colleges will be sought in an effort to save the lives of five men who are hovering between life and death in the general hospital here. They are ill with typhoid fever, which attacked every one of thirteen men who sat down together at a dinner at the Entre Nous club here a month ago. Five of the thirteen have already died, three are safely on the road to recovery, while the remaining five are in a dangerous condition.

Every applicant is urged to attend. There will be election of officers and they will be installed by State Manager Farmer. A large class is to be initiated after the local homestead is instituted.

Small Blaze at Willard—"Mr. Barrow discovered smoke issuing from around the edge of the roof of a small frame house just back of the New State hotel and owned and occupied as a residence by J. D. Bussell. In a very few minutes a large crowd had assembled with buckets and axes, and by tearing down sheds and board fences, and with good work from the bucket brigade, confined the fire to the two small buildings of Mr. Bussell."—Willard Record.

Oysters, Smoked White Fish, Pigs feet, sausage, clipped dried beef, boiled ham, dill pickles, sauerkraut, etc. F. Andrews.

Sixty-eight Degrees—That was the maximum yesterday and the minimum was 43 degrees. The average relative humidity for the day was 50 per cent and the lowest temperature last night was 51 degrees. The temperature at 6 o'clock this morning was 60 degrees. Yesterday was a clear and pleasant day becoming partly cloudy in the afternoon. Vivid flashes of lightning were observed along the western horizon from early evening until late in the night but no thunder was heard. Last night was one of those beautiful moonlight nights. It was warm and pleasant just suited for strolling.

Preparing for Bear Hunt—George Stark, Emmanuel Nick, Charles Cross and others are preparing to spend the winter months in the Jemez mountains, shooting and trapping wild game. They will likely be snowed in and will not return to civilization until the spring. They will be well equipped with five huge traps weighing fifty or sixty pounds each, will have lots of ammunition and plenty of food in case they do not get enough game to satisfy their hunger. Mr. Stark, who is a well known painter here, said today that he wishes to take a vacation and as he has had lots of experience trapping bears, he will likely enjoy this outing. Bear pelts bring a good figure in the market and if this party of trappers is successful they will also reap a financial reward.

Bardshars Invest in Drug Store—Captain and Mrs. Henry P. Bardshar have bought stock in a drug store in Wagon Mound and Mrs. Bardshar has gone there temporarily to look after the investment. Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Burns, friends of the Bardshars, are now residents of Wagon Mound which Captain Bardshar, who is the internal revenue collector here, will visit occasionally, although he will continue to occupy his residence on Cathedral street.

Relief of Gulf Storm—The storm reported over the Gulf of Mexico yesterday by the Associated Press and which today spread to Great Britain and the Atlantic Coast, is no doubt responsible for the wind, the showers and cloudiness here today.

A Friend of New Mexico.

Congressman James Francis Burke, of Pittsburg, Pa., the floor leader of the Republicans in the National House of Representatives and New Mexico's staunchest friend in national legislative halls writes as follows:

"Mr. Dear Mr. Walter: My brother, Edward C. Burke, postmaster at Santa Fe, was thoughtful enough to send me a copy of your constitutional convention number.

"Having been one of the members of Congress who for years has been anxious to see New Mexico admitted to the Union because of my familiarity with her manifold merits and my friendship for many of her leading men, and having been one of those who had the privilege of voting for the preliminary measure that will add another star to the flag representing New Mexico, I have observed the course taken by her people throughout this whole matter and I wish to congratulate them sincerely upon the wise and dignified procedure that has marked the steps thus far taken toward admission to the Union.

"I wish sincerely to congratulate you also on the work your paper has been doing in this contest and furthermore, to felicitate you upon the superb production which you give to your readers in the official convention issue.

"May your progress be unending and your prosperity unbounded.

"Very sincerely yours,

"JAMES FRANCIS BURKE."
